day after Aam Aadmi Aday atter Aan Aadim Party's (AAP) candidate for zila parishad elections was allegedly murdered, the main opposition party in the State on Tuesday demanded scrapping of impending Zila Parishad and Panchayat Samiti elections.

accused

AAP, in a complaint filed by the state unit co-president Dr Balbir Singh and the leader of opposition in Vidhan Sabha Harpal Singh Cheema, also alleged "wrongful rejection of nomination papers" of its can-didates, coupled with "open vio-lation of code of conduct by the ruling party" and "failure of the State Election Commission" to take appropriate measures for conduct of free and fair elections.

Manohar Lal also told

"We request and demand that the impending elections to Zila Parishad and Panchayat Samiti be immediately cancelled or suspended and fresh schedule for these elections be announced after deployment of Central Forces, such as CRPF. so that a voter can participate in elections without any fear, bias or intimidation," demanded the leaders. They submitted that in the absence of Central Forces and immediate preventive measures, free and fair elections are neither warranted nor plausible. The complaint referred to the "utter violence and blatant murders in Punjab' that led to boycott and cancellation of Punjab Assembly elections in 1991. "Ultimately the State DGP was changed at that time, Central Security forces were deployed and only then elections were held in 1992," the complaint read while adding that Puniab was vet again staring at a similar political crisis. AAP leaders in the complaint told the Commission that the recent murder of Harwinder Singh Hinda, AAP candidate from Gill Kalan Zila Parishad Zone, "belies the promises by your office as well the State Government that there will be free and fair Zila Parishad and Panchayat Samiti elections".

PNS IN NEW DELHI

I ssuing a show-cause notice to the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) after finding discrepancies in its 2014-15 electoral funding statement, the Election Commission (EC) on Tuesday said it may be forced to initiate action against the party for "prima facie failing" to follow its transparency guidelines. The EC claimed that transactions through hawala operators were "wrongly disclosed as voluntary donations".

It directed the AAP to explain as to why action should not be taken against it for fail-ure to follow EC's directions and instructions.

"Your representation should reach the office of the commission within 20 days (by October 1) from the date of receipt of the notice, failing which the matter will be decided on merits based on infor-mation available on record," the notice read.

The notice said the AAP had submitted the original contribution report for Financial Year 2014-15, which was received by it on September 30, 2015. The party later submitted a revised report on March 20, 2017.

Reacting to the EC notice, the AAP stated that this is based on poor interpretation of basic accounting practices by CBDT. "Such observations show deep-rooted bias of statu-tory authority against a law abiding political party. Charging the NDA Government with "spinning a web of lies" on Rafale fight-er jet deal, BJP rebels Arun Shourie and ashwant Sinha, besides lawyer Prashant Bhushan, said here on Tuesday the recent statements by Finance Minister Arun Jaitley defending the deal were meant to protect only one person — Prime Minister Narendra Modi — who overturned estab-lished norms for the contract with France. The trio also alleged that Reliance was given "backdoor" entry into the offsets

They claimed that the morale of the IAF was affected and claimed that the Government was forcing senior officers to defend the ₹59,000-crore Government-to-Government contract. This assertion came in the backdrop of Vice Chief SB Deo and Deputy Chief R Nambiar stating last week that Rafale was an excellent aircraft and will enhance the combat capabilities of the IAF. Bhushan said the officers were made to say the IAF was happy with 36 jets whereas the Service needed at least 126 jets.

Addressing a news conference, the sec ond in recent times, Bhushan, Shourie and Sinha said the deal was "unilaterally struck' by Modi compromising national security and disregarding the IAF requirements. They charged that Modi was "directly cul-

Lamenting that India particularly lacks data on disabil-ity, Puri said that "we will be looking at 25% of the population that will need universal accessibility in order to live independently and with digni-ty," and asserted that the Disability Act of 1995 also mandated accessibility for PwDs. He pointed out that the "Clause 40-48 of the VIIIth

Chapter of the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016 also mandates making all build-ings, services and products accessible giving definite timelines for implementation and retrofitting." The Minister was categorical in saying that "the standards exist, legislation is in place, thus we now have no reason to ignore this very urgent issue of accessibility any longer." He outlined that according to the United Nations, a mere 1% additional cost is incurred for incorporating universal design and accessibility in the design and planning stage itself.

RAJIV GANDHI ASSASSINATION CASE Chances of remission bleak for assassins

KUMAR CHELLAPPAN

The Tamil Nadu Government's decision to write to Governor Banwarilal Purohit asking him to release the seven assassins of former Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi who are serving life term in a Chennai jail has not gone down well with the families of persons who perished or serious-ly injured in the May 21, 1991 bomb blast perpetrated by the Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam (LTTE) terrorists. The Edappadi Palaniswamy

Government had written to the Governor last Sunday asking him to release Nalini, Suthendraraja (Santhan), Sreeharan (Murugan, who is also the husband of Nalini), A G Perarivalan (Arivu), Robert Payas, S Jayakumar, and Ravichandran, the seven assassins accused of providing logistic and other help to the LTTE executioners Sivarajan, Dhanu and Suba.

Dhanu was the human bomb who herself got blew up during the assassination while Sivarasan and Suba committed suicide to escape from the Indian Army commandoes who were deputed to catch them from their hide out in Bangalore. Perarivalan had approached the apex court with a plea that though he had submitted a mercy petition to the Governor in 2015 seeking remission from the life term the latter had not taken any decision. The apex court had on September 6 asked the Governor to consider the mercy petition of Perarivalan though it has not directed him to set the assassin free

Assam to replace bhut bhutis with double engine ferries ANUP SHARMA GUWAHATI

The mechanised boats in Assam will soon become a thing of the past.

Stung by the recent boat capsize incident that claimed four lives in Assam and the criticism that followed, the Assam Government has not only decided to suspend the running of mechanised boats from the entire river system of the State but also to convert all the existing single engine fer-ries to double engine ones with reversible gear.

The decision was taken after the Assam Transport Minister Chandra Mohan Patowary held a review meeting with the top brass of the Inland Water Transport Directorate here.

"As per the safety norms, there must be one life jacket for each passenger in the vessel and it will be mandatory for each passenger to put on the life jack-et while boarding the vessel," said Patowary on Tuesday. He also instructed that the Deputy Commissioners shall conduct lit of the fe within their respective districts. At least four people died on September 5 this year after a mechanised boat capsised in Brahmaputra river near Assam capital town Guwahati. Hundreds of mechanised boats known as bhut bhutis are an integral part of the river transport system in Assam. Thousands of people in Assam use the bhut bhutis every day to commute to one place from another as well as to transport goods as part of their business. The lackadaisical attitude of the Inland Water Transport Directorate towards ensuring safety measures have, however, led to many capsize and other tragedies in the past. The Minister also directed that capacity building of IWT staff and other stakeholders must be enhanced on a warfooting. The Minister routed the fact that adequate attention on fleet modernisation was not given in the past for which vessels operating both under IWT and private operators turned old The ITW officials informed that during the last two years, work for 15 steel ves-sels and 3 wooden vessels has been undertaken.

Evaluating market for more SUV models: Honda apanese auto major Honda Cars is evaluating the Indian market to introduce more SUV models going ahead, a top company official said Tuesday.

The company, which is set to bolster its sport utility vehicle (SUV) portfolio by introducing the next generation CR-V next month, has already committed to launch six models in the country over the next three years.

"The Indian market is diversifying, not only hatch-backs but sedans also. The SUV market is growing, so ofcourse as Honda philosophy we always try to study from the customer... what kind of vehicle will be appreciated," Honda Cars India Ltd (HCIL) President and CEO Gaku Nakanishi told PTI, replying to a query about company's plans to launch more SUV models.

Elaborating further, HCIL Senior Vice President and Director (Sales and Marketing) Rajesh Goel said the shift towards SUVs is a global phenomenon. "India also has a similar trend and going forward one has to keep looking at the most optimum product which can be launched... to deliver maximum value to the customer, and that is what we intend to do," he said. The company is studying the market very carefully, he added. When asked if the Honda has set a sales target for the all new CR-V, which would now also come with a diesel powertrain, Nakanishi said Honda has "very high aspirations" from the model.

"We are looking at many many more numbers as com-pared to the outgoing model," he said without sharing any sales target. The company has sold over 17,500 units of petrol powered CR-V units till date in the country.

With majority of sales in the premium segment coming from diesel variants, Honda is set to benefit by introducing a diesel version, Goel said.

Currently, the premium SUV segment in the country is dominated by the likes of Toyota Fortuner and Ford Endeavour.

US wants Pakistan to Nawaz Sharif's fully cooperate in war against terrorism: NSA

The US has conveyed to Pakistan that it wants Islamabad to cooperate fully in the war against terrorism as it is a matter of "extraordinary importance" to America, President Donald Trump's National Security Advisor John Bolton has said.

During his visit to Islamabad last week, Secretary of State Mike Pompeo had pressed the new Pakistani Government led by Prime Minister Imran Khan "to do more" to rein in terror groups operating from the country's soil.

The Trump administration has recently cancelled $300 million in military aid to Islamabad after it failed to take actions against terror groups.

"He (Pompeo) wanted to convey the message that we hoped and expected that Pakistan would cooperate fully in the war against terrorism, which they had committed to do," Bolton told a Washington audience on Monday.

'FOSTER SELF-EMPLOYMENT WITH VOCATIONAL COURSES'

NIOS is revamping distance education with the help of technology. The institute's chairman CHANDRA BHUSHAN SHARMA discusses with ANKITA SAXENA why vocational courses should be encouraged at par with academic curriculum

◄he National Institute of Open Schooling (NIOS) has emerged as a unique learning platform which allows students to learn at their own pace, anywhere at any time. The on-demand examination system along with its various unique courses on offer, have made NIOS a popular choice among students who did not fit the bill of formal education structure. C B Sharma advocates the importance of vocational courses to be in tandem with academic courses, which he believes will pave the way for entrepreneurs of the future. Here are •How is NIOS different from CBSE?

The Central Government has two Boards — Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) and the National Institute of Open Schooling. As a Board, we have been given the author-ity to identify courses, develop the structure and also certify them. Thus, we combine both the roles of the National Council of Educational Research and Training (NCERT) and CBSE as a single organisation. We also design courses and offer proper cur-riculum in areas which are not offered by the CBSE.

For example, dancing, painting and Vedic studies. Our system caters to the students who could not get universal education, the drop-outs who could not keep up with the pace of the for-mal structure, the underprivileged and targeted groups. • How have you used ICT to further

We are one of the largest partners with the Swayam portal with 25 lakh learn-ers pursuing our online courses. An initiative of the Ministry of Human Resources Development, it is an effort to take the best teaching learning resources to all, including the most dis advantaged and bridge the digital divide for students who have hitherto remained untouched by the digital revolution. Most of the courses offered by the institution are available in regional languages across the country. Since India has a wide reach of smart phones, we have used mobile technology to offer distant education. Through the app for Diploma in

Conclave on future of work

• What changes do you envisage in the education system? There is need for a revolutionary change in the education structure and it has to be brought in right from the grassroots. The students have to be confident that they can pursue their interests which will be worthy of employment. It is a notion that stu-dents with good academic schooling will be successful and be respected. This has to change because not everyone needs to be an engineer or a doc-tor. There are other avenues as well beyond the academic education. Students have to be introduced to vocational courses right from Class 1 to nurture them. ing and the Kothari Commission recommendations, but enough has not been done to teach life skills and the likes to students to prepare them for relevant opportunities in the future. Tell us about the international linkages formed by NIOS to boost its outreach globally?

PNS 🔳 NEW DELHI

The MindChampion Learning Systems Limited (MLSL), NIIT's subsidiary for its K-12 school learning initiative, launches My Pals Are Here, an engaging series based on Singapore teaching methodology. Introduced in association with Marshal Cavendish Education, the series has been designed to build a strong foundation of mathematics and strengthen a child's conceptual understanding of the subject. The series will help students by providing hands-on activities and games to reinforce mathematical skills. Students hone their problem-solving skills through individual and collaborative practices. As they work through mock problems, they learn how to apply the same problem-solving strategies to real world problems. The series also help stu dents by providing activities to develop crit ical thinking skills and challenge students to solve questions based on higher order thinking skills. It's target audience is students fron Classes I to V.

According to trends in international Mathematics and Science Study, over 70 per cent of Singapore students consistently performed better academically than the interna-tional average. The results of Mathematics assessments from 1995 to 2015 show consis tent outstanding performance by the students of Singapore. This world-class programme has been widely adopted across the globe and has resulted in engagement among all stake holders.

Equaliser for JEE Mains

From 2019, JEE Main exam will be conducted in two phases. RAMESH BATLISH tells aspirants what this means

From 2019, JEE Main will be conducted in two phases, the first for Administ first for Admissions to BE/BTech from January 6-20, 2019 and the second phase for admis-sions to BArch/B Planning between April 6-20, 2019. After being taken over by National Testing Agency (NTA), there will be no major impact as far as the pattern of the exam is concerned. The exam will have the same papers as conduct-ed by the CBSE until last year.

Except for the exam mode, the pattern remains unchanged. Paper-I will be completely held in computer based mode, and in Paper-II, Mathematics and Aptitude Test will be computer based whereas Drawing will be pen-and-paper based. All the multiple choice questions will carry 4 marks each for the right answer and negative marking of 1 mark for incorrect answer.

In JEE Main Paper-I, 30 MCQ's will be asked from each subject (Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics) making it a total of 90 questions. The question paper will be available in English, Hindi and Gujarati (for students of Gujarat, Daman & Diu and Nagarhaveli). Paper-I will be conducted in two sessions per day and the candidates need to book their slots Paper-II includes a total of 82 questions. 30 MCQ's in Mathematics section, 50 from Aptitude and 2 questions will be asked from drawing test. All the MCQ's carry 4 marks each (with -1 negative marking) and each drawing test question carries 70 marks.

MODIFICATIONS

Early Mock Tests: The NTA has started student registration for JEE Main mock tests from September 1, 2018. Candidates will be able to practice with these tests to get a better understanding of the exam pattern, how to prepare and what to expect in the actual exam.

Common Service Centres : The authorities have set up 1.5 lakh CSCs across the country to help candidates in both urban and rural areas in application he aspirations of students are not limited by their geographical locations. A student based in Nagpur or Mangalore could be as aspirational as a student in Hyderabad or Delhi. However, lack of infrastructural facilities in schools, unavailability of well-trained teachers unawareness and absence of guidance surely come in the way of their ambitions. In short, quality and access are the two roadblocks plaquing the K-12 sector. Thus, educators are trying to adopt innovative approaches to improve the learning experiences and outcomes in non-metro schools. Unavailability of resources, - the dearth of motivated teachers, the absence of wellstocked libraries and lack form filling and submission. Age limit: The criteria of age limit has been removed from JEE Main 2019. Candidates who have passed their 10+2 in 2017, 2018 or are appearing in 2019 can apply for the exam, irrespective of their age.

More than one attempt: IEE Main 2019 will be held twice a year - the first time in January and the second time in April. Candidates can choose to appear for either one or both. Revised Application fees:

The application fees have been reduced for different categories for JEE Main 2019.

Mode of Test: JEE Main 2019 will be a computer-based test for Paper-I; however, for Paper-II, Mathematics and Aptitude will be in computer-based mode and Drawing will be in pen and paper mode. Paper-I will be in two shifts per day, whereas, Paper-II will be in one shift only.

SELECTION PROCESS

the announcement of the result of the April exam. The results for the first exam will be announced on January 31, 2019. The results of JEE Main will be the scores obtained by the students in the exam they have appeared in January, April or both. The results will be devoid of ranks as it will be compiled on the basis of bet-ter scores of candidates appearing in both the exams. Common rank list: The Common Rank List for JEE Main 2019 will be available in the first week of May after the declaration of the results of the April exam. The better of the scores of candidates who have appeared in both JEE Main January and April will be considered for the rank-ing purposes while the scores of the candidates who have appeared for just one exam will be used as it is. The common rank lists will denote the All India and Category ranks of the candidates in addi tion to the details of the candidates and marks obtained. The JEE Main rank will be the basis for admissions to the NITs, IIITs and GFTIs

EVALUATION PROCESS As the JEE Main 2019 will be held on different days and sessions, maintaining the equiva lence among different sets of question papers comes to the fore. To ensure that no candidate is at a disadvantage or highly benefit-ed, normalisation of marks will be enforced for the purpose of rank-ing. Students will be ranked on the basis of their percentile scores which will be calculated as per a pre-determined formula.

Percentile scores: Based on the relative performance of all the appearing candidates by trans-forming the scores into a common scale ranging from 100 to 0 for each session. Percentile Score shows the percentage of candi-dates who have scored equal to or below a particular percentile in an exam. It is the normalised score and not the raw scores. After normalisation, each topper of a session will get the same percentile of 100 which is the desirable one. Also the marks between the low est and highest scores are also converted to the respective percentiles.

In case of percentile tie: When two or more candidates obtain equal percentile scores then ranking will be sorted depending on their percentiles in Mathematics, then Physics and then Chemistry. Even if the per-centiles remain same, the older candidate will be ranked higher and same rank will be allotted to the candidates for a tie after this situation

Compilation of scores: After the JEE Main I will conclude in January, the result that will be declared on January 31 will display the four NTA scores — for each of the three subjects (Mathematics, Physics, and Chemistry) and the total NTA score for that attempt. The scores will be the percentile scores calculated as mentioned above. Second attempt compilation of NTA scores: The scores will again be cal-culated for the total and that of the three subjects individually as mentioned for the first attempt. The writer is a FIITJEE Experi

MERIT LIST PREP

The ranking or merit list will be compiled as follows:

In case of candidates who have appeared for both the attempts the best of the two NTA scores will be used. Here the total NTA score will be used for ranking purpose and not those of the subjects.

In case of candidates who have appeared for only one exam, the four NTA scores of that attempt will be used for the preparation of the merit list

The final NTA scores will be used to rank the candidates and the JEE Main 2019 result declared. In case of any tie, the inter-se-merit guidelines mentioned above in this article will be used to resolve it.

An academic partnership model is particularly useful because it helps schools with initial average resources meet global standards by providing them with academic and administrative counsel and services. Besides, the school management does not lose its autonomy, in the course of the partnership, in any way.

I will thank Bumrah for that overthrow: Cook

PTI 🔳 LONDON

Retiring England batsman Alastair Cook says he has to thank Jasprit Bumrah for saving him from some "heartache" as the overthrow from the Indian pacer brought up his century in the final Test innings of his career. Batting at 96, Cook drove Ravindra Jadeja for a single in the cover region. Bumrah aimed hard at stumps and it resulted in giving five runs to the home opener. Cook said it would have been very embarrassing for him if Cheteshwar Pujara had stopped the overthrow and he had started celebrating since he had not noticed the latter chas-ing the ball, so he will thank Bumrah for the overthrow.

"I remember cutting it for 97 thinking that's three more to go. Just as he (Bumrah) let it go I thought, 'hang on a minute - he's launched that pretty hard'. As soon as I saw Ravi hang on a minute'. "Look - it (the overthrow) saved me a lot of heartache. He's (Bumrah) also caused me a lot of heartache in this series. For him to then give me that little moment there, I'll thank him for a while," said Cook.

"Then obviously it erupted. Joe (Root) didn't say anything. He was just saying "wow". He was just smiling. I think he was telling me to better take it in. The ovation was just incredi-ble," he added.

'Pant needs to work lot on his keeping'

PTI INEW DELHI

 $R^{ishabh\,Pant's\,glovework\,has}_{been\ shoddy\ in\ England}$ and he needs to cover a lot of ground before he can be trust-ed as a Test-level wicket-keeper, some of the former India stumpers said on Tuesday.

The 20-year-old has con-ceded an unprecedented 76 byes in six innings in the ongoing Test series against England although at least 20-25 of those runs were not exactly his fault.

After watching him closely, former India 'keepers Nayan Mongia, Kiran More and Deep Dasgupta believe that the young ster is still a "work in progress" But at the same time, they want the selectors to have a clear cut policy on young keepers given that Wriddhiman Saha is unlikely to start playing before another three to four months.

"He (Pant) is still very raw and I think it's a wrong policy to pick players based on their IPL on fourth and fifth day tracks in the sub-continent," Mongia, who has kept wickets to the leg-endary Anil Kumble, said on Tuesday.

How come he is not in the scheme of things? I think they should try Parthiv but it's up to the selectors. I don't know why there aren't long-term camps at NCA for young keepers," he added.

While Mongia spoke about recalling Parthiy, another former cricketer and analyst Deep Dasgupta feels that it could at best be a short-term policy.

"Look, Rishabh Pant is your long-term future and he needs to be nurtured well. Yes, there are a lot of areas in keeping that he needs to work on but I don't want to see a player being dumped after one series," Dasgupta, who has watched a lot of domestic cricket as broadcaster, opined. Questioned on any technical flaw that he has observed, Dasgupta said: "I think against seamers, he is trying to judge the angle of the delivery from the hand. You can't do that in England. Also he needs to be stable in his position." Asked about what will be his choice for the next Test against West Indies at Rajkot, Dasgupta know what to expect. So, if you termed it a tricky one. are looking at the next six Tests guess the situation is fluid. Do the selectors want to go back to Parthiv? He recently

The aggressive Finch, better known for his exploits in the shorter form of the game, was also included and could open the batting with Renshaw.

Mitch Marsh and either Head or Labuschagne should fill out the middle-order planks.

Peter Handscomb missed out after poor form on the current Australia A tour of India, and there was no room for batting all-rounder Glenn Maxwel

Chopra aims to consistently hit the Asiad winning distance before looking to cross 90m mark

PTI NEW DELHI

 $S_{\rm consistently}^{\rm tar javelin thrower Neeraj Chopra \\ {\rm on Tuesday said he would aim to} \\ {\rm consistently hit the Asian Games}$ Gold-winning distance of 88m next season before looking to cross the magical 90m mark in 2020 ahead of the Tokyo Olympics.

Chopra, who sent the spear to a dis-tance of 88.06m to claim the Gold in the Asian Games last month, said a "small" adjustment in his technique — which he would work out before next season should enable him to cross the 90m mark

"It has been a very satisfying season I have been consistent at 85-plus throughout and I touched 88m in Jakarta. I am now confident that crossing 90m is within my grasp, it can come anytime. But before doing that I will have to throw at around 88m consistently, Chopra said in an interaction here.

<sup>4</sup>I would be looking to be consistent at around 88m next year and then go for the 90m before 2020 Olympics. But you never know even in the biggest of events (like the World Championships and Olympics), you can win a medal at this distance (of 88m)," said the 20-year-old Harvana athlete at the sidelines of an event organised by global sports drinks company, Gatorade.

In 2016, Chopra became the first Indian junior world champion athlete with a throw of 86.48m but had an ordinary season last year.

But this season, he emerged as a truly world-class javelin thrower, winning Gold in the Commonwealth and Asian Games and finishing fourth in the prestigious Diamond League Final.

He is the only javelin thrower among the current top stars in the world to have crossed 85m while below 20 years of age. Among the active javelin throwers, six have crossed the 90m mark, including three Germans who have been consistent at around that magic mark. Chopra is aware of the tough competition at the global level but said a readjustment in his technique should put him among the select few of 90m

"I have to do a small change in my technique, that has been identified along with my coach (former world record holder Uwe Hohn). This will be done before the new season next year and I hope to improve my distance," he said.

"It is about the angle of release. The spear is going sideways and more towards left. I have to bring it towards the centre for a perfect angle of release so that the spear goes farther." The youngster said that the sixth-place finish at the IAAF Continental Cup in Ostrava in Czech Republic on September 9 was a blessing in disguise as it showed he needed the adjustment in his technique.

at the Japan Open, on Tuesday. Third seed Sindhu had to sweat it out for 53 minutes before prevailing 21-17, 7-21, 21-13 over unseeded local girl Sayaka Takahashi in her women's singles opening round. Sindhu will next play Chinese Fangjie Gao, who defeated the other Indian in fray Jakka Vaishnavi Reddy 21-10, 21-8.

Having finished second-best yet again with a historic Silver in the Asian Games, Olympic medallist Sindhu would be desperate to break the final jinx here.

Sindhu has been outstanding with Silver medals in all the major events this year — the Commonwealth Games, the World Championship and the Asian Games but the Gold has been eluding the Indian for a while now.

In men's singles, Prannoy defeated current Asian Games Gold medallist Jonathan Christie of Indonesia 21-18, 21-17 while Srikanth got the better of Chinese Yuxiang Huang 21-13, 21-15 in another first round match.

While Prannoy will be up against Anthony Sinisuka Ginting of Indonesia in the second round, Srikanth will take on Vincent Wong Wing Ki of Hong Kong. Both Srikanth and Prannoy had suffered shock defeats in the second round of the Asian Games. However, it was curtains

Maradona seeks rebirth in Mexican club

Argentine legend Diego Maradona described his decision to coach second-division Mexican club Dorados as a rebirth after years battling addictions, as he officially became the team's new manager on Monday. Maradona, who has publicly struggled with drug addiction, alcoholism and obesity, raised eyebrows with the decision to accept a job in the heart of Mexican drug cartel country — the rough-and-tumble state of Sinaloa.

But in his first press conference for Dorados, he described the job as a healthy new beginning after a long "sicknearny new beginning after a long sick-ness," alluding to the excesses of his past. "I want to give Dorados what I lost when I was sick," he told the 200 journal-ists who packed the hotel conference room in Culiacan, the state capital, where he was officially presented as the struggling club's new coach. "I was sick for 14 years. Now I want to see the sun, I want to go to bed at night. I never even used to go to bed. I didn't even know what a pillow was. That's why I accepted the offer from Dorados," he said.

Mexico was the scene of Maradona's greatest triumph as a player: leading Argentina to the 1986 World Cup title almost single-handedly, according to some. But he surprised the football world with his decision to coach a second-divi-choice of destination: Sinaloa is perhaps best known as home to the drug cartel of the same name. And Dorados are owned by a politically powerful family, the Hank clan, that has been accused of links to drug trafficking.

Maradona, however, insisted his focus is on football, calling this "the best moment in my life." "I want to spend a long time" at Dorados, he said. "People can say a lot of things, but...

Maradona, 57, grinned as he accept-ed a Dorados jersey with his old number 10 on it, and joked with journalists that he was ready to "sing any song you want me to." Framed by two giant photos of himself during his playing days, he also said he had turned down offers from the leftist presidents of Bolivia and Venezuela, his pals Evo Morales and Nicolas Maduro, to coach their national teams.

After a 10-minute speech and 15 minutes taking questions — his speech slight-ly slurred and his statements sometimes fuzzy - Maradona headed to Dorados stadium to preside over his first practice.

On the way, he uploaded a video to his Instagram account in which he thanked his fans and said, "Long live the Church of Maradona."

ANDRE SILVA LIFTS ORTUGAL PAST ITALY

AFP LISBON

ndre Silva scored the only goal as Andre Silva scored ine com, g European champions Portugal without superstar Cristiano Ronaldo — got their Nations League campaign off the mark with a 1-0 win over Italy in Lisbon on Monday. Ronaldo, 33, had been left out of the squad at his own request to focus on his new Italian club Juventus.

But the Euro 2016 winners showed no sign of missing their star striker, dominating the Italians to secure their first three points in a Group 3 that also includes Poland.

Italy coach Roberto Mancini suf-fered his first competitive setback after being held by Poland 1-1 in their opener on Friday in Bologna, with the Azzuri on one point after two games. "We made too many mistakes, but the lads gave everything," said Mancini. "We need to find a solution to scor-ing goals because you don't win games without scoring. That's our main prob-lem right now." Silva scored three minutes into the second half with the on-loan Sevilla striker picking up a Bruma cross to beat Gianluigi Donnarumma in the Italy goal. Italy had been fortunate to keep their goal clear in the first half, largely thanks to Donnarumma, as Portugal dictated play in the Estadio Da Luz. Bernardo Silva's effort was cleared off the line by Alessio Romagnoli with a Bruma effort deflected onto the bar.

Italy fought back with Ciro Immobile and Simone Zaza threatening just before the break.

Mancini had rang the changes with an experimental side with seven new players starting — midfielder Jorginho and Donnarumma the only pair to be retained from the draw with Poland. SPAL's Manuel Lazzari made his international debut on the right of defense. Federico Chiesa and Andre Silva both missed chances early, while a Zaza back-heel flick for Immobile was cleared in the box.

William Carvalho fired just wide from distance and Jorginho's volley was cleared. Portugal grabbed the winner soon after the restart through Silva with Bernardo Silva coming close to a sec ond only for Donnarumma to clear.

The four-time world champions now risk being relegated from their Nations League group after also failing to qualify for the World Cup.

"We must help the youth grow, as we don't have alternatives," said former Manchester City and Inter Milan coach Mancini.
