CBI arrests Chidambaram

Ex-FM appears at Cong HQ out of nowhere to address Press conference, CBI-ED sleuths scale walls to enter his house

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

The hide and seek between former Union Minister P Chidambaram and the CBI ended after his dramatic arrest on Wednesday night. The CBI arrested Chidambaram from his Jor Bagh home minutes after he returned there from the AICC headquarters after addressing a Press conference in the presence of a battery of Congress leaders.

Around 8.15 pm, Chidambaram, who was untraceable for over 27 hours, appeared in the party office and told media that he was not evading arrest and asked the CBI to wait till Friday, when his petition is listed to be heard in the Supreme Court.

Along with senior Supreme Court lawyers and senior party colleagues Kapil Sibal and Abhishek Manu Singhvi, he then drove to his residence nearly 10 minutes away from the Congress office. On his trail were CBI and ED officials. A CBI team reached his Jor Bagh residence 115-A within minutes of his return.

The CBI team first knocked at the gates to gain entry but finding no response, they scaled the walls. Once three officers reached inside, they opened the gates to allow other team members waiting outside. Soon a team of officers, identifying themselves as from ED arrived at the scene.

Delhi Police personnel were posted to prevent any adverse law and order situation. After his arrest, Chidambaram was taken to CBI headquarters, where doctors from RLM hospital took a routine health check up. He will be produced in the trial court on Thursday.

In the Press conference, Chidambaram put up a strong defence of himself and his family members, saying none of them has been accused of any offence by the probe agencies.

"Until Friday and beyond, let's hope the lamp of liberty will shine bright and illuminate the whole country," he said, suggesting that the probe agencies should not arrest him until the apex court decides on his bail plea. "I will respect law even if applied with an unequal hand by probe agencies," he said reading out from a written statement.

"I am aghast that I was accused of hiding from the law. On the contrary, I was seeking the protection of the law. I was aghast that I was accused of running away from justice. On the contrary, I was engaged in the pursuit of justice," Chidambaram said while rejecting allegations that he was evading investigating agencies. He said he was working with his lawyers through the last night, preparing his papers for his bail application.

"I believe that the foundation of a democracy is liberty, most precious article of the Constitution is Article 21 that guarantees life and liberty. If I'm asked to choose between life and liberty, I shall unhesitatingly choose liberty," he said.

"To win freedom we must struggle. To preserve freedom too we must struggle," he said.

His son, Karti Chidambaram, who is also accused of "wrongdoing" in the cases by probe agencies, termed the CBI/ED action as "political witch-hunt".

"This is a political witch-hunt. Outrageous media leaks are the preferred tactics of the @dir.ed. I have nothing to do with INX or the FIPB. All my assets and liabilities are duly declared in statutory and regulatory filings. I have repeated this ad nauseam," he tweeted.

Cong stands up for PC, RaGa says Govt misusing agencies

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

The Congress on Wednesday defended its senior leader and former Union Minister P Chidambaram, who is facing corruption charges in the INX Media case.

While Rahul Gandhi alleged the Modi Government is using agencies like ED, CBI, and sections of a "spineless media" to character assassinate a versatile person like Chidambaram, party general secretary and Rahul's sister Priyanka Gandhi claimed the former Union Minister was being "shamefully hunted down" because he speaks truth and exposes the failures of the Government.

Priyanka said the party will continue to fight for the truth no matter what the consequences are.

"An extremely qualified and respected member of the RS, P Chidambaram ji has served our nation with loyalty for decades including as Finance Minister and Home Minister," she said.

I'll discuss Kashmir with PM Modi at G7 summit, says Trump

India has made it clear there is no role for a third party

PTI ■ WASHINGTON

US President Donald Trump has said that he would discuss with Prime Minister Narendra Modi the situation in Kashmir and help ease the India-Pak tensions when they meet at the G7 Summit in France this weekend. But New Delhi has made it clear to the US that Kashmir is a bilateral issue between India and Pakistan and there was no role for a third party.

Speaking to reporters at the White House on Tuesday while welcoming visiting Romanian President Klaus Iohannis, Trump said he was happy to try and help calm the situation in Kashmir amidst fresh India-Pak tensions after India revoked the special status of Jammu & Kashmir. Trump's comments to a question on the tension between India and Pakistan came a day after he made separate phone calls to Prime Minister Modi and Pakistan Prime Minister Imran Khan. Trump said he was happy to try and help calm the situation in Kashmir. "I'm going to be with Prime Minister Modi. I'll be with him over the weekend in France," Trump said, referring to the G7 Summit in Biarritz during the weekend.

Behave yourself on road or pay through nose from Sept 1

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

With new Motor Vehicles Act (Amended) in place, be ready to maintain road and traffic discipline as heavy penalties will come into force from September 1.

The new MVA provides for strict punishment for various traffic-related offences, including ₹10,000 fine for not giving way to emergency vehicles, ₹10,000 for driving despite disqualification, ₹10,000 for drunken driving, etc. Over speeding, driving without helmet, and not wearing seat belt would invite penalty in the range of ₹1,000-2,000.

Road Transport Minister Nitin Gadkari on Wednesday said steps have been initiated to implement provisions of the Motor Vehicles Act 2019. Sixty-three clauses which do not require framing of new rules are likely to be implemented from September 1 subject to clearance from the Law Ministry. These clauses deal with penalties, licences, registration and National Transport Policy, among others.

"Subject to clearance from the Law Ministry, these clauses are likely to be implemented from September 1," Gadkari said at a Press conference. The Road Transport Minister expressed hope that the MVA will help curb road accidents and bring down fatalities. Regarding the other clauses for which rules have to be framed, Gadkari said steps for this have already been initiated by the Ministry, and rules will be notified as and when the due processes are completed.

Huge stir over razing of Ravidas temple chokes Delhi, many hurt

Thousands of Dalits turn up over shrine demolition

STAFF REPORTER ■ NEW DELHI

A protest by Dalits against the demolition of the Ravidas temple on Wednesday turned violent in the national Capital, prompting police to resort to "mild lathicharge" and use tear gas to disperse the crowd, an official said. According to police, the protesters set two motorcycles on fire and vandalised a police vehicle, causing injuries to a few policemen.

Protesting against the demolition of the temple by the Delhi Development Authority on August 10 on the orders of the Supreme Court, thousands of Dalits from various parts of the country wearing blue caps, carrying flags and chanting "Jai Bhim" slogan, marched from Ambedkar Bhawan in Jhandewalan to the Ramliya Maidan in Central Delhi on Wednesday.

claimed their leader Chandrashekhar Azad was detained. Vinod, 53, who came from Faridabad, said thousands of religious structures have come up on Government and forest land. "Why only a temple of Sant Ravidas was razed? There should be a fixed policy of the Government and that should be implemented on all the structures whether it is temple, mosque or any other illegal building," he said.

"The Centre should immediately allot land to construct the temple. We came here to show solidarity with people of Dalit community. We have been facing discrimination for long and this need to stop now," said Mahipal, who arrived in the city on Tuesday night from Haryana.

Senior AAP leaders, including Delhi's Social Welfare Minister Rajendra Pal Gautam, Leader of Opposition in Punjab Harpal Singh Cheema, Delhi Deputy Speaker Rakhii Birla, party MLAs Ajay Dutt, Manoj Kumar, MLAs from Punjab Jai Krishna Singh Roddy, Manjit Singh Bilaspur, Kulwant Singh Pandori, Azad and spiritual leaders from the community participated in the protest.

Ex-CM Babulal Gaur passes away

STAFF REPORTER ■ BHOPAL

A politician accepted to leaders of all political parties, Babulal Gaur passed away here on Wednesday. He breathed his last at a private hospital at the age of 89.

Gaur started his career as a minion at a liquor shop and reached the top post of Madhya Pradesh Chief Minister in 2004. Once a Congress bastion, Madhya Pradesh witnessed a robust politician in Babulal Gaur. He was elected first to the State assembly in 1974. He holds the record for ten Assembly wins.

His life was no less than a fairy-tale where he started as an employee at a liquor shop, kalari, as he himself used to call it, and ended up as Chief Minister in Hindi heartland in 2004. Born in Pratappgarh's Naugeer village on June 2, 1930 as Baburam Yadav, he was renamed as Baburam Gaur by his school teacher due to his excessive attention to studies. Gaur in his youth used to work at a cloth mill also. His father Ramprasad had won a dangal (Wrestling competition) in his village and the Britishers had offered him a job in liquor company in Bhopal.

People started calling him Babulal Gaur when he reached Madhya Pradesh at an early age and started working at a liquor shop. He then got in touch with RSS pracharaks who asked him to shun this immoral trade which Gaur agreed to. He returned to his village tried hands on farming but could not and decided to return to Bhopal. He then turned to social work in co-operation with RSS volunteers. Hailing from Pratappgarh in Uttar Pradesh, Gaur found a job with Bharat Heavy Electrical Limited (BHEL) as a wage labourer and soon was engaged in trade union which helped his popularity grow by leaps and bounds.

After getting elected to MP Assembly as an independent in 1974, Gaur later won on Jan Sangh ticket in 1977. He became a minister for the first time in Sunderlal Patwa Govt of 1990-1992 and served as a Minister of Local Administration, Law and Legislative Affairs, Parliamentary Affairs, Public Relations, Urban Welfare, Housing (Urban) & Rehabilitation and Bhopal Gas Relief and Rehabilitation.

With his iron hand against encroachments during this Govt, he earned a reputation of Bulldozer Minister. He himself used to narrate a tale that his bulldozer was so scary that people used to remove their encroachments on their own once the heavy machine was kept in their view with ignition on.

Delhiites sigh with relief as Yamuna retreats

STAFF REPORTER ■ NEW DELHI

Hundreds of people residing in low-lying areas, who were temporarily shifted to makeshift tents and vacated their houses after water entered their areas, can now breathe easy, as the water level of the Yamuna River started receding on Wednesday.

However, the river continues to flow above the danger mark (206.50 metres). Officials said it is expected to go below the danger mark of 205.33 metres by early Thursday morning.

Northern Railway spokesperson said rail traffic over the old Yamuna bridge ('Lohe wala Pul'), which was temporarily suspended on Tuesday night, was restored at 4.25 pm on Wednesday with speed restriction of 20 kmph. The Yamuna had breached the danger mark of 205.33 metres on Monday. Following which the Delhi Government set relief tents in several areas in Yamuna floodplains.

"The water level is likely to recede further as Haryana has so far not released water from the Hathni Kund barrage in large quantity," a Government official said. At 4 pm, only 10,000 cusec water was released from the barrage.

Officials said around 23,000 affected people were evacuated from the floodplains to safer places. Over 18,000 of them were accommodated in more than 2,700 relief tents set up by the Delhi Government agencies.

Some tents still remained vacant as many residents at the Yamuna Khadar didn't vacate their shanties, claimed residents.

Earlier on Wednesday, Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal met people affected by the flood and said the Government will ensure that there is no shortage of relief materials.

"Met the flood affected people at the Yamuna bank. Most people have left their belongings in their houses but its good thing that there is no loss of life. Arrangements of tents, food, water and medicine have been made. Let us know if there is any shortage, we will immediately do the needful," Kejriwal tweeted.

The river flows through six districts of Delhi whose low-lying areas are prone to flooding. The administration has deployed 30 boats to prevent accidental drowning.

In 1978, the water in the river rose to its highest-ever level of 207.49 metres, causing a devastating flood in the national Capital.

NBA: Sardar Sarovar affected people protest in Delhi

Ask Narmada control authority to deny permission to fill full reservoir level of 139 meters

STAFF REPORTER ■ BHOPAL

Under the banner of Narmada Bachao Andolan, hundreds of people affected by the Sardar Sarovar Dam on Wednesday staged a protest in Delhi demanding that Narmada Control Authority refuse permission to fill the full reservoir level, 139 m of the dam.

"We are not begging for compensation. We are demanding our rights and entitlements which government provided as part of the Narmada Water Dispute Tribunal or Supreme Court reiterated and confirmed and various policies of state governments," Devram Kanera, senior activist of NBA said.

He was joined by hundreds of farmers, workers, fishermen, and activists at the day-long protest.

Annie Raja of the National Federation of Indian Women speaking in solidarity with the NBA said current government is looting the natural resources and handing it over to corporations for profit and sacrificing the rights of the people in the name of development.

Bhupender Rawat, farmer leader and Convener, Jan Sangharsh Vahini said the farm land of the Narmada valley are being flooded for what, to irrigate land in Gujarat.

But unfortunately even that is not happening and water is being given to industries and car factories.

How many more farmers will have to sacrifice their land and fields for corporate greed, asked Rawat.

Later, a delegation led by Vimal Bhai of Matu Jan Sangathan met the Secretary, Jalshakti Ministry, UP Singh.

The demands of the NBA included- Sardar Sarovar Dam should not be allowed to fill till 139 mts, full reservoir level, 32,000 families in 172 villages still need to be rehabilitated satisfactorily and the rising waters are threatening their life and livelihood.

Urgent need to complete the R&R. Until that happens, let the gates of the Sardar Sarovar Dam be lowered so that water recedes from the villages of the Narmada.

Life of Kasturba Bai, Gandhi showcased via play 'Ba sang Bapu'

Bhopal: Both of them were always together even in the hard times Ba and Bapu have set goals for patriots and couples. The entire life of Kasturba Bai and Mahatma Gandhi was showcased through a Hindi play Ba sang Bapu.

The play was directed by Bishna Chauhan and was performed at Shaheed Bhawan. It was performed on Wednesday marking the third day of Azad Ba sari Natya Samaroh.

The little kids presented the story of Kasturba Baa before the Bhopalites. The play was jointly performed by the artists of Manikarnika Cultural and Welfare Society and Kalandhika Cultural and Welfare Society.

The play spoke about how Kasturba learnt from life and not school; as Gandhi's companion since the age of seven she taught him the lesson of non-violence. The play highlighted what she must have felt as a young married girl whose husband left her for many years and then made the whole country his children with his believe in 'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam'.

Kasturba Gandhi later grew into a freedom fighter in her own right, being jailed several times including in South Africa, for her leaderships in many movements which were separate from Gandhiji's. She also spoke about how the contribution of women like Kasturba are often undermined when history is written by men. She also took part with him in all the movements he started against British rule. The play was brilliantly performed on stage creating a wonderful ambience on stage which was loved by the audience. SR

BBMB seeks encroachment removal

MONIKA MALIK ■ CHANDIGARH

Bhakra Beas Management Board (BBMB) on Wednesday claimed that it had all along been asking the district administration across Punjab to ensure the removal of encroachments and in the river beds for ensuring the natural flow of water.

The assertion came amidst the accusations against the BBMB for causing flooding in the downstream areas by releasing excess water in the Sutlej river which surpassed its capacity and overflowed at several places.

"We have all along been asking the DCs (Deputy Commissioners) to check encroachments in the river beds. It is a regular exercise," said BBMB chairman Devendra Kumar Sharma, while refusing to further comment on the matter.

BBMB chairman's assertion assumes significance as the encroachments in the river beds is sighted as one of the reasons or flood-like situations during the monsoons as it has, over the years, reduced the water carrying capacity of the rivers, especially Sutlej.

A senior BBMB official, who did not wish to be named, informed The Pioneer that over the period of time, people have encroached downstream areas of the river by constructing colonies, building farm houses, structures for their livestock, among other things which has resulted in reducing the water carrying capacity of the rivers.

"Take Sutlej, its water carrying capacity is about two lakh cusecs (cubic foot per second) of water. But because of encroachments, it has come down to one-third. It is now carrying around 50,000 to 60,000 cusecs of water," said the BBMB official.

The official said that the BBMB, as a regular exercise, writes to the Deputy Commissioners concerned to clear the illegal structures and encroachments.

Maintaining that it was wrong to blame the BBMB for the flooding, BBMB chairman said that the Board worked in the "most proficient way" to save Punjab's downstream areas from the scourge of floods by "managing the water levels".

The 72-hour incessant rains from August 17 to 19 had resulted in the Sutlej river overflowing and wreaking havoc in around a dozen districts of Punjab, with Jalandhar, Ropar, and Ludhiana among the most affected. The standing crop on over one lakh acres of land has submerged under over four feet of water.

During this period, the water level in the dam raised by over seven feet from 1674.82 feet on August 17 to 1679.33 feet on August 18, and 1681.25 feet on August 19, against the maximum limit 1680 feet. However, the reservoir height is 1,690 feet.

'UGC now focusing on distance, online education'

STAFF REPORTER ■ BHOPAL

University Grants Commission (UGC) Chairman DP Singh said that the UGC is now focusing on Open Distance Learning (ODL) and Online education programmes. These are futuristic programmes and UGC is trying to form guidelines and policies for such programmes, he added.

UGC, in its priority programmes has adopted two pronged strategy where special teacher centric and student centric programmes are being prepared. Teachers programme focus on training them in conduct besides bringing his/ her expertise in local issues.

While talking to media persons, he said, for students, policy related to research is being completely overhauled. Research should be socially relevant and locally needful. "Till now research is often repetition or extension of previous topics that have little to do with social relevance. Now topics should also be nationally important and globally significant, said Singh.

Singh was in Bhopal to take part in induction programme of university and college teachers at National Institute University. To a query, he said the decision of higher education department regarding doing away with the semester system could not be considered as a wise decision.

Singh said that semester system is followed worldwide. It was introduced in India to bring nationwide uniformity besides international equivalence.

Withdrawing semester system in Madhya Pradesh could not be considered as a wise decision, he said.

He stated that the universities and colleges should lay stress on research subjects that are socially important.

They should have data related to people, flora and fauna and other issues prevailing in their jurisdiction, he added.

UGC chairman said that UGC has also designed a new programme to improve governance in universities.

Under new programme the second line of administration is identified and properly trained in financial, administrative, legal and other matters.

CM, Tiwari visit flood-hit areas

STAFF REPORTER ■ NEW DELHI

Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal and Delhi Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) president Manoj Tiwari visited Yamuna flood plain area to take a stock of ground situation. Yamuna River breached safety mark on the third consecutive day. Meeting the flood affected people there, Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) and BJP leaders assured all possible assistance.

Over 15,000 people living in the Yamuna flood-plains have been shifted to tents set up by various Government agencies after the river water inundated low lying areas.

The Yamuna continued to flow well above the danger mark on Wednesday but Delhi Government officials said the water level was constant at 206.60 metres for several hours and was likely to recede.

Kejriwal met the people at tents set up in the Usmanpur area. "Met the flood affected people at the Yamuna bank. Most people have left their belongings in their houses but its good thing that there is no loss of life. Arrangements of tents, food, water and medicine have been made. Let us know if there is any shortage, we will immediately do the needful," Kejriwal tweeted after the visit.

Following the request of the people to make lights and fans available, the CM directed officials to organise adequate facilities immediately. The CM requested people in relief camps to contact Government officials present at the camp in case of any needs.

After the visit, he tweeted, "Most families could not collect their belongings before leaving their homes. Fortunately, we have not lost any life so far. We have made arrangements for tents, food, water, medicines for all. If there's any other requirement, we will immediately ensure it is arranged."

When the Chief Minister asked a young woman if she had received food yet, she expressed her satisfaction and said, "Yes we had chhole puri in the morning. Food and water is readily available." The Chief Minister has also requested people not to venture back into the flooded region for their belongings as it is extremely dangerous.

"The river water will lower by tomorrow," he said. "I have spoken to Haryana Government. They told that they are reducing the amount of water being sent towards Delhi. We are expecting the situation to improve by Thursday," said Kejriwal.

The Chief Minister also appealed to the people to be alert and move to the tents set up by the Government before the river waters reach their homes.

The BJP leaders including party's Delhi unit chief Manoj Tiwari and former Union Minister Vijay Goel also met the flood affected people and offered them help.

Goel alleged that during his visit, people complained about unavailability of tents, toilets and food at the Usman Khadar area.

However, Delhi's Revenue Minister Kailash Gehlot said people living in relief camps were appreciating the efforts of the Government.

"Efforts of Delhi Govt being appreciated by people staying in Relief Camps. Food, water and other necessary relief materials being provided. Officers of Revenue Dept in coordination with other Depts are working round the clock," Gehlot tweeted.

Lack of safety a cause of concern in tents

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

Many residents of Yamuna Ghat have temporarily moved to makeshift tents to escape the rising waters of the river, but they feel far from safe. While some of those evacuated expressed fears about child-lifters, many others raised concerns about lack of toilets and women having to bathe in the open.

Over 200 people have been shifted to the makeshift shelter erected by the local administration near ITO. Even though food and water facilities are available, people complained about lack of safety as the makeshift tents are located on pavements.

Akhilesh (33), a farmer who has been living in the tent for the last three days, said he fears leaving his two children aged 3 and 6 years alone. He claims there are certain gangs who lift children from the streets.

"Either I or my wife are always alert. If I go to check the water level on the ghat, my wife remains with the children and takes care of them. At night, we have to be very careful, anyone could lift the children," he said.

His wife Kiran said, "Children might get hit by vehicles while playing. So, there's a constant fear of accidents too."

A team from the Delhi Civil Defence has its volunteers at the tent area to assist the victims in case of any emergency. They work in four shifts starting from 6 am. Water level of the Yamuna started receding on Wednesday, but the river still continues to flow above the danger mark, an official said.

While men managed to take bath on the roadside, women complained about lack of toilet facility at the makeshift tents. "Men can go anywhere to relieve themselves but it is difficult for us women to go to isolated areas for the same. We have to be cautious all the time because the tents are on the main roads," Sujata said. Prem Shankar (30), who shifted with his family on Tuesday evening, said, "Safety is an issue especially because the tents are on the main road. Also, it is extremely hot and there's no electricity or even hand fan."

"We are managing to make our food with whatever utensils and materials we could bring while shifting. My brothers and I have not been able to go to the agricultural fields because they are inundated. I used to earn at least Rs 1,500 per day," Shankar added. Delhi Jal Board water tanks have been coming at least twice a day, so water is not an issue, according to occupants. "We can fill as much water as we can and this morning. Bread was also distributed and for lunch, we were served rice and aloo sabzi," said Vikas, who works as a labourer along with his brother Shankar on the rose fields.

Some tents still remain vacant as many residents at the Yamuna Khadar have still not vacated their shanties, claimed the other occupants. "All we pray is that the water level should not rise further or we won't be able to return to our shanties. It will take us at least more than a month to resettle in that case," Itwari Lal said.

His grand-daughter Lali said she does not feel safe living there and going to toilet is a major hassle as no facility is nearby. Somwati (60) said they have lost their crops as their agricultural lands are filled with water. Nitesh (12), a class IX student of government school, is upset over missing his classes. However, if things are settled, Nitesh said he would be able to attend classes from tomorrow.

"I somehow managed to save my school bag and text books of important subjects. I'm eagerly waiting to get back to my routine at the earliest," he added.

Shift busts of Bose, Bhagat, Savarkar until DU gives permission: ABVP to DUSU

STAFF REPORTER ■ NEW DELHI

The RSS-affiliated ABVP on Wednesday said it has instructed its office bearers in DU students' union (DUSU) to shift the busts of Subhash Chandra Bose, Bhagat Singh and Veer Savarkar that were installed outside the Arts Faculty, till the time permission is taken from the authorities.

The Akhil Bharatiya Vidyarthi Parishad-led Delhi University Students' Union had installed the busts on Tuesday outside the Arts Faculty without permission, leading to a controversy.

ABVP's state media in-charge Ashutosh Singh said installation of the busts was an initiative of the DUSU. The ABVP is of the view that it should have been done with due permission.

Shakti Singh, DUSU president said, "We are in talks with the university administration over the issue. "No immediate reaction was available from the var-diate reaction was available from the varsity. A senior ABVP functionary said, "It (ABVP) has a clear view that the statues should be installed on the DU campus with the permission of the varsity administration and other concerned authorities."

"The students' union had been demanding from the administration to install the statues for a long time and the administration should have considered the demands of the students' union. Due to this, the students' union had to take such a stand in protest," he said.

The ABVP has made it clear to the students' union office-bearers that the busts should be kept in the DUSU office until permission is given, he added.

The move has been criticised by the Congress-affiliated NSUI and Left-backed AISA which said Savarkar cannot be kept on the same pedestal as Bose and Singh.

Speeding cluster bus mows down youth; driver arrested

STAFF REPORTER ■ NEW DELHI

In a tragic incident, a 20-year-old youth, riding a scooter, was allegedly mowed down by a speeding cluster bus. The incident occurred on Monday evening at Shahjahan Road in New Delhi. Police said that they arrested the accused driver.

The deceased has been identified as Aman Kumar, a resident of Delhi's Khan Market area while the accused, who was arrested from spot, has been identified as Balwant Singh (42).

According to First Information Report (FIR) registered at Tughlak Road police station in New Delhi district, the incident occurred at 7.38 pm on Tuesday.

"A cluster bus, rash and recklessly, coming from India Gate on Shahjahan road hit a person who was driving a scooter. The scooter rider got injured and he was rushed to nearby hospital by a passerby in a car. The bus driver was stopped by public on the spot and handed over to police," stated the FIR.

"Subsequently, a police team after receiving a police control room (PCR) call also reached AIIMS where the doctors told police that the victim Aman succumbed during treatment," said a senior police official adding that a case under section 279/304-A of Indian Penal Code (IPC) was registered and the accused driver was arrested.

7 foot over bridges to be built soon

IT WILL BE THROWN OPEN FOR THE PUBLIC BEFORE THE COMPLETION OF THE 82 KM DELHI-GHAZIABAD MEERUT RRTS CORRIDOR

GAYATHRI MANI ■ NEW DELHI

In order to facilitate traffic movement and to provide a safe and secure crossing facility for the pedestrians, the national Capital Region Transport Corporation (NCRTC)-the parent body of Rapid Rail Transit Corridor (RRTS) has decided to construct Foot over Bridges (FOBs) at seven locations, infamous on the alignment of Sarai Kale Khan-Ghaziabad-Meerut RRTS corridor for accidents and traffic congestion.

The seven places where the FOBs will be constructed are Sihani Gate Chungi, Ordinance Factory (Murad Nagar), Railway Road (Murad Nagar), Railway Station Road (Modi Nagar), Hapur Road (Modi Nagar — Rajchopla) and Mohiuddinpur.

The transport body further added that it will construct FOBs wherever necessary on the corridor. "The locations of the FOBs are being identified in close coordination with the local as well as state administration. Moreover, these areas do not have a single Fob and the pedestrians risk their lives while crossing the road. Thus, NCRTC is giving due emphasis to people's convenience at every stage of RRTS execution," said the official.

The train will have an operation speed of 160kmph but it will run on the speed of 100kmph only. Currently, it takes four hours to reach Meerut from Delhi but once this corridor will be erected, the travel time reduces to just 60 minutes. The civil construction work on 17 km long priority section between Sahibabad to Duhai, of this corridor has started and the piers and viaduct will be visible soon. This priority section is expected to become operational by March 2023 while the full 82km long corridor from Delhi's Sarai Kale Khan to Meerut and Modipuram will be open for public by March 2025.

Intelligence-based policing ideal to curb crime: Sarangi

PNS ■ BHUBANESWAR

Sudhanshu Sarangi, who took charge as the Twin City Commissioner of Police on Wednesday from Satyajit Mohanty, said he would lay stress on intelligence-based policing to curb the rising crime graph in the twin cities of Bhubaneswar and Cuttack.

Sarangi said there are several strategies in policing like community policing, problem solving policing but he believes in intelligence-based policing.

Giving an example he said, people feel assured when they see a Police Control Room (PCR) van in their area but the personnel in the police van should be able to identify the criminals. That is intelligence-based policing.

He said strong action would be taken against professional crime. For this information should be collected about the criminal syndicates active in the twin city, who are new entrants and who are coming from outside and committing crimes.

If there is no information about them and their whereabouts then it would be groping in the dark.

He said besides, curbing crimes steps would be taken to ensure that life in the city goes in a smooth and disciplined manner. People's expectation is very high from the police.

Denizens must have a good and friendly experience with police who is possible if their issues are redressed and strict action is taken against criminals.

The Commissionerate system was set up a decade ago

. There is a need for review and steps should be taken accordingly.

Technology should be used more so that people are more benefited.

"We are committed to utilise technology during crime investigation and prevention since it is a prominent aspect of the 5T formula of the State Government.

Review of data related to criminals and action taken against them would be conducted on regular basis so that our crime fighting becomes more efficient," he added.

Steps would be taken to separate investigations of professional and organised crimes from maintaining routine law and order, said Sarangi and sought cooperation people of the twin cities for achieving better results.

Rotary Club signs MoU with NDMC to clean water of Lodhi Garden Lake

STAFF REPORTER ■ NEW DELHI

The New Delhi Municipal Council (NDMC) has decided to recycle the water of Lodhi Garden Lake under the Jal Shakti Abhiyaan.

A senior NDMC official said that the Rotary Club South Delhi chapter has provided water treatment plant and the bottom sludge will be converted into useful compost. "The Rotary Club had signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the NDMC for cleaning the water of the lake through treatment plant," he said, adding that the bio remediation of the lake water will be carried out through the natural microbial / enzymes so as to control the foul smell and the growth of harmful algae without affecting the aquatic life.

Outlining the details of the duck habitation in the garden, secretary of NDMC, Rashmi Singh informed that the Council has developed an enclosure of natural environment for the ducks, wherein a number of species of ducks have been habituated.

Lodhi Garden a British-era public park has been emerged the green lungs of New Delhi having rich fauna and flora is spread of 90 acres of land."

On the occasion, NDMC Chairman Vijay Kumar Dev planted saplings of Rudraksh and Kalpvirksh trees on the occasion. While reviewing the water conservation plan of the lake, the Chairman has asked the officers concerned of the Council to ensure timely completion of the work and also instructed that a separate enclosure for stray dogs be maintained in a proper manner.

Man arrested for bludgeoning friend during drinking session

STAFF REPORTER ■ NEW DELHI

A 62-year-old man died after being hit with a brick during a drinking session with his friend on Monday night. The injured was taken to hospital where he succumbed after two days. The incident was reported in Mandir Marg area of New Delhi district.

The deceased has been identified as Jeevan while the accused has been identified as Mohammed Zakir, a resident of Central Delhi's Nabi Karim area. Police said that both of them used to work at a tent house shop in Gol Market area.

According to a senior police official, on Monday, around 8.15 pm, a police control room (PCR) call was received regarding the incident following which an Emergency Response Vehicle

(ERV) was dispatched for the spot.

"The injured man was found lying on the footpath. He was taken to Ram Manohar Lohia (RML) hospital. Doctors told police that the man had got severe head injuries and was unfit for the statement," said the police official adding that a case under section 308 of Indian Penal Code (IPC) was registered at Mandir Marg Police Station, on the basis of statements given by witness.

"During initial investigation, it was revealed that the Jeevan along with the accused Zakir were consuming alcohol. The duo had an altercation over petty issue following which the accused hit the head of Jeevan several times with the brick," said the police official privy to investigation.

Court sends ex-J&K MLA Rashid to judicial custody in terror funding case

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

Delhi court on Wednesday sent former independent MLA in Jammu and Kashmir, Sheikh Abdul Rashid to judicial custody in a case related to funding of terror activities in the Valley.

Popularly known as Rashid Engineer, he was a legislator from the Langate Assembly seat in north Kashmir and is the first mainstream politician to have been arrested by the NIA in the case. District Judge Yashwant Kumar sent Rashid to the custody for two weeks after the NIA produced him before the court on expiry of his custodial interrogation. The National Investigation Agency told the court that further interrogation of the accused was not required.

STEP TOWARDS MODERNISING ARMED FORCES

Def Min OK's first batch of reforms

ARMY COMMANDERS HAVE GIVEN THE NOD IN OCTOBER LAST YEAR

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ NEW DELHI

With the objective to have a lean and mean Army capable of fighting a modern day war, the Defence Ministry has approved the first batch of reforms including relocation of 206 officers from the Army Headquarters (AHQ) to operational areas, setting up of a separate vigilance cell and having an umbrella organisation to focus on human rights issues. The decision comes following recommendation by the Army after having four in-house studies last year.

The restructuring was given the go-ahead during the Army Commanders in October last year after Army chief General Bipin Rawat ordered review of the present structure and ways and means to make it more modern keeping pace with fast changing war fighting the world over.

The four groups also studied proposal to increase the retiring age of Junior Commissioned Officers (JCO) to have trained men available for longer period and cut down expenditure on recruiting and training new recruits. The Defence Ministry has approved the first batch of reforms including relocation of 206 officers from the Army Headquarters (AHQ) to operational areas, setting up of a separate vigilance cell and having an umbrella organisation to focus on human rights issues. The decision comes following recommendation by the Army after having four in-house studies last year other measures on the anvil include shifting the Rashtriya Rifles head office from the national capital to Northern Command in Jammu and Kashmir. The Rashtriya Rifles, a part of the Army, is counter-insurgency force normally functioning in the state.

Announcing Defence Minister Rajnath Singh's nod to the first batch of restructuring, officials said here on Wednesday, 206 officers will be shifted from the Army Headquarters to the field and operational areas. This move will address the need for filling the crucial gaps in the operational areas. The officers to be relocated include three major generals, eight brigadiers, nine colonels and 186 Lt Colonel/Major.

Another key approval given by Singh is to set up a separate vigilance cell under the Army Chief with tri-services representation. At present, the vigilance department operates through multiple agencies and there is no single point interface.

"An independent vigilance cell will be made functional under Chief of Army Staff (COAS). Accordingly, Additional Director General (vigilance) will be placed directly under the COAS for it," the ministry said.

The vigilance cell will have three Colonel-level officers, one each from Army, Indian Air Force and Navy.

Elaborating upon the need for having officers from the Navy and IAF, officials said the vigilance branch will now be broad based and objective.

As regards the umbrella organisation for human rights, they said it will be under the Vice Chief of Army.

Officials said it is being set up to accord high priority to human rights convention and values. A Major General rank officer will head this organization.

The organisation will be nodal point to examine any reports of violation of human rights, officials said adding "to enhance transparency and ensure the best of investigative expertise is available to the section, a Police officer of SSP/SP rank will be taken on deputation," said the ministry.

Besides these measures, some more reforms are now in the final stages before the defence ministry approves them, sources said. The four studies pertained to restructuring of AHQ, force restructuring which includes creation of Integrated Battle Groups (IBG), cadre review of officers and review of terms and conditions of Junior Commissioned Officers (JCO) and Other Ranks (OR).

An official statement issued after the Army Commanders meet in October last year said "the focus of the studies is holistic integration thereby enhancing the operational and functional efficiency, optimise budget expenditure, facilitate force modernization and address aspirations."

PROTESTING AGAINST CENTRE'S MOVE TO CORPORATISE OFB

Ordnance factory employees set aside Govt promise, begin strike

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ NEW DELHI

Despite the Government assuring that the interests of workers will not be harmed, the Ordnance Factory Board (OFB) employees began their one-month-long strike in response to the call given by three recognised Defence Federations. The workers are protesting against the move to corporatise the factories manufacturing weapons and ammunition for the armed forces and are the oldest manufacturing units in the country. There are nearly one lakh workers in OFB.

Workers employed in factories in Madhya Pradesh and West Bengal began their protest on Tuesday followed by more workers joining the stir on Wednesday even as the government emphasised the proposed corporatisation is aimed at providing greater flexibility in day-to-day functioning, increased operational freedom and autonomy in decision making, leading to enhanced productivity. This will enable the Ordnance Factories to respond faster to the futuristic needs of the Armed Forces and provide an impetus to the export potential of its products.

Reports from Bhopal said around 22,000 civilian workers from six ordnance factories in Madhya Pradesh have joined the month-long nationwide strike demanding immediate withdrawal of the government's plans to 'corporatise' the OFB, a union leader said on Wednesday. The ordnance factories in Madhya Pradesh are located in Jabalpur, Katni and Itarsi.

All India Defence Employees Federation (AIDEF) Additional General Secretary B. Guha Thakurta told PTI from Jabalpur that around 82,000 workers from 41 Ordnance Factories (OFs) across the country have struck work since Tuesday.

The Ministry of Defence had earlier clarified that it had no plan to privatise the ordnance factories. Three federations of workers which have called the strike had claimed that 'corporatisation' of the Kolkata-headquartered organisation will eventually lead to its privatisation.

Chairman of OFB Saurabh Kumar had said in Kolkata that the proposed 'corporatisation' move by the Centre was aimed at providing greater flexibility in day-to-day functioning and increasing autonomy in decision-making.

A committee of senior officials of the defence ministry, led by additional secretary of the Department of Defence Production, along with the OFB chairman, had met the office-bearers of the federations on August 14 and August 16 to discuss the matter.

A joint press statement issued by the three recognised employees' federations claimed that talks with the ministry to resolve the matter have failed to reach a solution. "The strike commenced at 6 am on Tuesday. It is set to continue for one month, till September 20, if a solution is not reached before that."

The federations urge the Centre to reconsider its decision to corporatise the ordnance factories and withdraw the same in the interest of the defence preparedness of our country and also the service life of 82,000 employees," the statement said.

Several committees, over the past two decades, have recommended the conversion of ordnance factories into a public sector company, it claimed. "But the ordnance factories being war reserve and solely dependent on the armed forces cannot function as a commercially viable PSU," the statement added.

CBI ARRESTS PC

BJP rejects 'vendetta' charge, says Govt not interfering probe

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

Rejecting the Congress' charge of vendetta levelled against the Centre over the action of probe agencies against P Chidambaram, the BJP on Wednesday said the Union Government did not interfere in the investigation and he must face consequences for his deeds.

"If he has done something fishy, he must face consequences. Probe agencies do not work at the government's behest. They have powers to act independently," BJP spokesperson Shahnawaz Hussain said.

The Congress has strongly backed Chidambaram.

On Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra's assertion that the party will continue to fight for truth no matter what the consequences, BJP IT department head Amit Malviya took a dig at saying, "Priyanka Vadra's support for P Chidambaram is quite natural. After all she has the experience of standing by Robert Vadra too, who is also facing several investigations for serious economic offences."

he tweeted, in a reference to cases of alleged corruption against her husband.

CBI books NDTV's Prannoy Roy, wife, Vikram Chandra

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

The CBI has booked NDTV, its promoters Prannoy Roy and wife Radhika Roy besides former CEO Vikramaditya Chandra and unknown public servants for allegedly violating Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) rules between 2004 and 2010. The NDTV has denied the CBI allegations.

The accused entity and individuals have been booked on charges of criminal conspiracy, cheating and corruption, according to the FIR. The agency on Wednesday conducted searches at Chandra's residence, officials said.

Under the CBI scanner are investments made by NCBU, a General Electric company at the time, in Network PLC (NNPLC), an NDTV company incorporated in London on November 30, 2006.

According to the FIR,

NNPLC allegedly got approval from the Foreign Investment Promotion Board (FIPB) board in violation of FDI rules in 2009. NNPLC received total FDI worth USD 163.43 million and invested the amount in various NDTV subsidiaries through a web of complex transactions.

It is alleged that during May 2004 to May 2010, NDTV floated around 32 subsidiary firms all over the world, mostly in the tax havens of Holland, the United Kingdom, Dubai, Malaysia and Mauritius among others.

The CBI said most of these companies allegedly had no business transaction and were meant for financial transactions to bring funds from abroad.

Terming the transactions a "sham", the agency alleged that funds were invested by unidentified public servants through NDTV and laundered back to India through multiple layers of complex transactions and shell companies.

"Proceeds of corruption of unknown public servants was invested through NDTV Ltd," it alleged.

It is alleged that these transactions are sham and funds are invested by unknown Public Servants through NDTV Ltd and later laundered back to India through multiple layers of complex transactions and shell companies.

"NDTV Ltd through its promoters viz Prannoy Roy and Radhika Roy, KVL Narayan Rao (since expired), Vikramaditya Chandra had entered into criminal conspiracy with unknown public servants with the object of bringing tainted money of unknown public servants through a web of complex transactions through the FDI route," a CBI Deputy SP who is the complainant in the case alleged.

The NDTV came out with a statement saying, "Despite a series of cases in which the investigation is deliberately stalled, agencies have found no evidence of any corruption by NDTV. Prannoy and Radhika Roy, the founders of NDTV, as also the company, have cooperated in all matters filed against them."

"As part of the continued persecution of free press, a new CBI case has been filed about a $150 million investment in NDTV's non-news business by NBCU, then owned by General Electric, a massive American conglomerate. The case makes the ludicrous charge that the transaction, declared to all relevant authorities in the US and India, laundered money for unknown public servants," it said.

"NDTV and its founders have full faith in India's judiciary at this crucial time and remain committed to the integrity of the company's journalism. Attempts to silence free and fair reportage through malicious and fabricated charges will not succeed. This is not about a company or individuals but about a larger battle to maintain the freedom of the press, something which India has always been renowned for, it added.

AMUL told to formulate plan to recycle plastic milk pouches

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

After Prime Minister Narendra Modi's call to put end on single use of plastic, the Ministry of Animal Husbandry and Dairying on Wednesday asked the AMUL and Mother Dairy Federations to formulate action plan/protocol to recycle milk pouches and share with it for circulation to other milk federations for implementation. The Lok Sabha Secretariat has also banned the use of non-reusable plastic water bottles and other plastic items within the Parliament complex.

At a high level meeting, the ministry of animal husbandry and dairying asked Major Dairy Federations like Gujarat Milk Federation (AMUL), Karnataka Milk Federation (Nandini), Punjab Milk Federation (Verka), Maharashtra Milk Federation (Mahanand) to encourage reuse of plastic milk pouches, in a campaign mode, with 3R strategy - Reduce, Rebat and Reuse. The meeting also reviewed the availability, supply, prices and export/import issues with the milk processors.

Justice Patnaik completes probe into larger conspiracy against Gogoi, report likely by mid-Sept

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

A Supreme Court-appointed one-man panel, holding inquiry into allegations of "larger conspiracy" to frame Chief Justice of India Ranjan Gogoi, has completed its task and is likely to submit the report by mid-September.

Sources said Tuesday that Justice AK Patnaik, a retired Supreme Court judge who was appointed by the apex court, examined advocate Utsav Singh Bains.

Bains had made several allegations including fixing of benches in the Supreme Court.

"The affidavit filed by Bains and other documents were examined by the panel. Now, the panel will complete the report and submit it to the Supreme Court in a sealed cover by second week of September," said a source.

Justice Patnaik examined the lawyer from 11 am to 1 pm and his statement was recorded.

"The lawyer (Bains) was examined Tuesday by the panel for roughly two hours. He had come to the office of Justice Patnaik," the sources said.

The top court had on April 25 constituted the panel to hold inquiry into the allegations of Bains and had asked the Directors of CBI and Intelligence Bureau (IB) as also the Delhi Police Commissioner to cooperate with Justice Patnaik as and when required by him.

A special bench headed by Justice Arun Mishra had said that on the completion of inquiry, Justice Patnaik will file a report in a sealed cover before the court after which the matter will be heard again.

It, however, had said the inquiry will not deal with the allegations of sexual harassment against the CJ, levelled by an ex-employee of the top court.

On May 6, Gogoi had got the clean chit from the Supreme Court's In-House Inquiry Committee which "found no substance" in the allegations of sexual harassment levelled against him.

BJP to start awareness drive on abrogation of Article 370

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

The BJP has decided to carry out a mass awareness campaign besides a special drive to reach out to 2,000 prominent personalities from the fields of film, sport and academia among others on the Centre's decision to abrogate Jammu and Kashmir's special status under Article 370 of the Constitution.

The party has started working on organising a 'Jan Jagran Abhiyan' (public awareness campaign) on the matter and will hold indoor meetings at state and district levels across the country.

In view of the assembly elections in four states around the corner, the party is keen to keep the emotive issue alive among the masses as it seeks to draw maximum political mileage following the decision which, it believes, has popular endorsement.

At the same time, the party also wants to check the opposition's propaganda on the issue.

Small indoor meetings at 370 different locations across the country with 500-1000 opinion makers at the district level, and 35 big indoor meetings having gathering of 2,000 people will be held at capitals of all states and Union territories in the country, the party leader said.

BJP's top brass, including its president and Union Home Minister Amit Shah, may also address some of these indoor meetings at the state level.

Besides this, a special drive will be carried out to reach out to 2,000 prominent personalities of the country, they said.

A list of such personalities is being prepared which will include people from different walks of life such as film, sport, academia, media and legal fraternity.

The party had formed a committee to carry out this campaign. It includes Union Ministers Pralhad Joshi, Gajendra Singh Shekhawat, Dharamendra Pradhan and Jitendra Singh.

Besides them, former Union Minister Rajyavardhan Singh Rathore, party's MP from Ladakh Jamyang Tsering Namgyal and another MP Tejaswi Surya are members of this committee.

HRD Min launches NISHTHA aimed at training over 42 lakh teachers

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

The HRD Ministry on Wednesday launched the National Initiative for School Heads' and Teachers' Holistic Advancements (NISHTHA) aimed at training over 42 lakh teachers across the country. The basic objective of the massive training programme is to motivate and equip teachers to encourage and foster critical thinking in students, Union HRD Minister Ramesh Pokhriyal 'Nishank' said at the launch.

"The teachers will get awareness and develop their skills on various aspects related to learning outcomes, competency based learning and testing, learner-centered pedagogy, school safety and security, personal-social qualities," he said.

"Inclusive education, ICT in teaching-learning, including artificial intelligence, health and well-being, initiatives in school education, including library, eco club, youth club, kitchen garden, school leadership qualities, environmental concerns, pre-school, pre-vocational education and school-based assessment in a joyful learning manner, are among the areas that will be covered in the training," he added.

The training will be conducted directly by 33,120 key resource persons (KRPs) and state resource persons (SRPs) chosen by the state and UTs, who will in turn be trained by 120 national resource persons identified from the National Council of Educational Research and Training (NCERT), National Institute of Educational Planning and Administration (NIEPA), Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan (KVS), Navodaya Vidyalaya Samiti (NVS), Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) and NGOs.

Some of the features of the integrated programme are activity-based modules, including educational games and quizzes, social-emotional learning, motivational interactions, team building, etc.

Onion prices likely to shoot up

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

Onion prices are on the rise and may leave the consumers in tears in the coming days. Due to incessant rains and floods in onion producing states, the prices of the bulb have increased from ₹20-25 to ₹35-40 per kg in the retail market. According to onion traders, the wholesale prices have increased over the past 15 days in major markets such as Lasalgaon and Bangaluru.

Onion was sold at ₹20-25 per kg till the first week of August. But it is now being sold at ₹35-40 per kg in the retail market in Delhi. The sudden price rise has made home-makers sit up and take control of the house budget, as onion is an important ingredient for cooking and serving salads.

In a move to keep onion prices under control, the Centre on Wednesday warned of strict action against hoarding of onion amid supply disruption fears due to floods in parts of major growing states of Maharashtra and Karnataka. The ministry has also decided to cap the retail price of onion at Safal (a Mother Dairy outlet) at ₹23.90 per kg (for Grade A variety). Safal will receive onions from the government buffer at the same rate.

Rajendra Sharma, who is the wholesale onion supplier of Agricultural Produce Marketing Committee Azadpur, said that the price is expected to increase further in the coming days. Sharma says farmers mainly in Maharashtra, who are aware of the current situation of floods impacting crops in Karnataka, are holding back their produce anticipating better prices in the days ahead. In Delhi, wholesale rate of onion is between ₹10 and 22 per kg while in Lasalgaon, the wholesale rate is ₹20 per kg.

In Lasalgaon, the largest market for onions, prices have moved up by over 40 per cent since early August. The increase is over 50 per cent over the past one month. APMC, Lasalgaon chairman Jaidutt Holkar told The Pioneer that this jump in prices will not last long as in the next 60 days a new crop will start arriving from the fields.

Maharashtra is the largest producer of onion, accounting for a third of the country's produce, followed by Madhya Pradesh, Karnataka, Gujarat, Bihar and Andhra Pradesh. Karnataka has the second largest area under the bulb. Madhya Pradesh is the second largest producer of onions due to higher yields. Also the sowing was lower in Central Karnataka due to the delayed start of the monsoon and its slow progress.

All the concerned stakeholders, including representatives of Safal, NAFED (National Agricultural Cooperative Marketing Federation of India Ltd) and NCCF (National Cooperative Consumers' Federation of India) were present in the meeting.

Packaged food in India least healthy: Survey

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ NEW DELHI

Packaged food in India has been ranked lowest in terms of its healthiness in a major global survey of packaged foods and drinks, an observation that should come as a wake-up call for the government, which is battling with providing healthcare to increasing patients of non-communicable diseases such as diabetes.

The survey — of the packaged consumables of 12 countries and territories — conducted by The George Institute for Global Health showed that India has the unhealthiest ie high levels of sugar, saturated fat, salt and calories in many of the favorite packaged food items.

The UK tops the chart with healthiest packaged food followed by the USA and Australia, says the survey conducted by The George Institute for Global Health. The study is published in the latest issue of 'Obesity Reviews'.

Researchers had analyzed more than 400,000 food and drink products from 12 countries and territories around the world. Countries were ranked using Australia's Health Star Rating system — which measures the levels of the nutrients such as energy, salt, sugar, saturated fat as well as protein, calcium and fiber and assigns a star rating from ½ (least healthy) to 5 (the most healthy).

India's packaged foods and drinks were found to be the most energy-dense (kilojoule content 1515 kJ/100 g) and South African products were least energy-dense at an average of 1044kJ/100 g. The UK had the highest average Health Star Rating of 2.83, followed by the US at 2.82 and Australia at 2.81. India got the lowest rating of just 2.27 preceded by China at 2.43 with Chile coming third from bottom at 2.44. Lead author Dr Elizabeth Dunford said the results were concerning because packaged foods and drinks are driving a double burden of diet-related diseases in many low — and middle-income countries.

"Globally we're all eating more and more processed foods and that's a concern because our supermarkets' shelves are full of products that are high in bad fats, sugar, and salt and are potentially making us sick," she said.

Co-author Professor Bruce Neal, Acting Executive Director of The George Institute, Australia said: "Billions of people are now exposed to very unhealthy foods on a daily basis. The obesity crisis is just the first ripple of a tsunami of dietary ill health that is coming for us. We have to find a way that the food industry can profit from selling rational quantities of quality food, rather than deluging us with unhealthy junk." The report notes that many of the world's major food and drink manufacturers have signed up to the International Food and Beverage Alliance and made pledges to reduce levels of salt, sugar and harmful fat and that these findings could provide an impetus for companies to improve the healthiness of their product ranges.

Reacting to the study findings, Prof Vivekanand Jha, Executive Director of the George Institute for Global Health, India, said: "Policy-makers and the food industry needs to work together to reformulate products to reduce the ever increasing risk of obesity and its consequences."

More than 135 million individuals were affected by obesity in India while about 50.9 million people suffer from diabetes, and this figure is likely to go up to 80 million by 2025, making it the 'Diabetes Capital' of the world, according to various studies.

PAPER WITH PASSION

Chidambaram in a spot

Politically motivated or not, the ex-FM must cooperate. Otherwise the Congress can go down a slippery slope

In the end, Palaniappan Chidambaram, the former Home and Finance Minister of India and one who artfully played power games to his benefit so long, should have surrendered with grace to the investigative agencies on the INX media case. For politics is never about right or wrong but smart positioning in a set context. He could have made a virtue of the rather incriminating accusations against him by wilfully surrendering under the law, flagged his honour, howsoever fake, instead of hiding out for hours after a lookout notice was issued against him. Which is why his drive to the AICC headquarters, claiming he was being framed, that the investigative agencies had not filed a chargesheet and that he was the victim of a political witch-hunt, didn't wash with anybody. The drama was not quite stage-managed to suit the image he had carefully cultivated over the years. Earlier in the day, every senior advocate in Delhi was either trying to figure out the whereabouts of or appearing for or against him in the Supreme Court. For a man regularly used to being feted in the media, a source of salacious gossip, himself a senior advocate and one of the cogs of the Lutyens' Delhi machine, he simply winced at a moment of crisis. His role in several scams and scandals has long been suspected and many of them reported diligently in this newspaper for years. His intervention in deals, the extent of its propriety and the legality or illegality of his actions, however is something for the courts to decide. That said, his battery of lawyers — all of whom are his senior colleagues in the Congress — has always managed to ensure that Chidambaram remained on bail for years, free from prosecution. This frustrated the attempts of the Enforcement Directorate (ED) and the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) to question him and his son, Karti Chidambaram, who, too, is accused in several cases alongside him. But this sudden rash of actions against Chidambaram now, as the carefully cultivated Congress ecosystem collapses in the capital after a successive election loss, seems to have caught him and his friends off guard, thus making the man nothing more than a common fugitive who feared arrest.

Chidambaram's refusal to surrender on very tenuous grounds actually strengthens the case against him. The man, who accused the Narendra Modi Government of letting economic offenders like Vijay Malya and Nirav Modi escape, has been doing the same thing. While the Congress has closed ranks and accused the Government of vindictiveness, this argument has been shot down by the Delhi High Court and the Supreme Court as well. And herein lies the rub for the Congress — Chidambaram, while a colossus in his own constituency of Sivaganga in Tamil Nadu, now held by his son, has never been a popular leader. While he was feted by a pliant media, particularly the business Press while he was the Finance Minister, rumours of his escapades, some of which would make Malya blush, have been damaging to him in the long-run. By not surrendering, Chidambaram looked no better than any other on the wanted list. And if the Congress encourages this, the entire party could be badly damaged at a time where it is extremely weak and ruin any argument against the horrendous handling of the current economic situation by the government. Cases against Chidambaram are not all water-tight. He can still be acquitted. It is also true that political winds could one day blow in his favour again. However, for any potential recovery, he had to craft his response to look like a victim yesterday. In fact, if he wants to play up the "political vendetta" theory, he should posit himself as the recipient of a hitback. During Chidambaram's tenure as the Home Minister in 2010, the CBI had arrested Amit Shah in a fake encounter case. When he applied for bail, the CBI opposed the move in the Gujarat High Court arguing that Shah might use his political influence to tamper with the evidence or threaten witnesses. Today, Shah is the Home Minister. Clearly, there is a full circle of an eye-for-an-eye by either side. While we do not see Chidambaram jumping off a dam like Harrison Ford did trying to escape from the law in order to clear his name, the current prognosis is grim.

Delhi roads unsafe

A report reveals how one person dies in an accident every five hours because of rampant behaviour

As a signatory to the Brasilia declaration on road safety, India intends to reduce accidents and traffic fatalities by 50 per cent in the next three years. So when a most damning report on the state of Delhi roads was released by the traffic police, revealing that one person died in a road accident every five hours on an average in 2018, it raised a million eyebrows. Not only that, fatalities rose to a five-year high and remained the highest for any city in the country, the report added. Breaking down the bone-chilling statistics, the report concluded that nearly half of these crashes, 46 per cent to be precise, were hit and run cases where the vehicle could not be identified. Of the 1,690 deaths, one-third were caused by speeding and 7-10 per cent due to dangerous driving, usually reckless lane-changing and stunts. In other words, driving behaviour and the Delhiite's gross indiscipline were diagnosed as reasons for the nightmarish state of affairs and something which no existing policy or penalty has clearly been able to rein in. The report also highlighted the role played by defective road designs, pathetic street lighting (33 per cent) and callously unguarded civic works (40 per cent) in causing accidents. Shockingly, 20 per cent of road deaths were attributed to bumpy roads and potholes, a severe indictment of the city's planners and the Public Works Department.

While the Delhi government and civic bodies need to hang their heads in shame, the fact remains that the situation in the rest of the country is not much different. As per data given by the government in reply to a question in the Lok Sabha recently, almost 1.5 lakh people lost their lives in road accidents in 2017. This means every hour 17 people died on Indian roads due to an accident. The number of fatalities is one third the number of accidents, which amounts to 53 road accidents every hour. Uttar Pradesh is the worst affected state with 20,124 people losing their lives, followed by Tamil Nadu with 16,157 fatalities. Such alarming figures prompted the Union Ministry of Road, Transport and Highways to announce that 63 clauses of the Motor Vehicle Act, which include stiffer penalties for traffic violations, drunken driving and over speeding, will be implemented from September 1 after due vetting by the Law ministry. Pointing out that road engineering was primarily responsible for road accidents in the country, the ministry said that a ₹14,000 crore project had been prepared by the government to identify accident black spots and plug gaps in highways to reduce casualties. Assuming the Delhi Government and the Union government collectively provide safe, better designed and world-class roads in the national Capital, would the errant driver mend his ways or roadroll every civil corrective?

A haunting silence

It is the telling silence of nations in the immediate east of Pakistan that has given Islamabad a resounding wake-up call to go beyond change in nomenclatures

BHOPINDER SINGH

International diplomacy and issues are expressed in semantics and subtle wordsmithing that require to be carefully deconstructed and deciphered for its real intent. In any dispute, contrarian positions are publically posted by competing parties and a virtual race for endorsement of either of the competing narratives ensues. The cue to reading the reaction to conflicting arguments lies in the deployment of certain keywords, expressions and tonality that is expressed by the receiving audience at the end of the conflicting pitches.

In the tense and hyphenated domain of India-Pakistan realm, the 'K' (Kashmir) word dominates above all. Herein, the operative library of preferred words from New Delhi's perspective has been "bilateral", "cross-border terrorism" and "internal affairs" among others; whereas, from Islamabad's perspective, it has been "international mediation", "plebiscite" and "UN resolution." Even the language syntax, emotions and phraseology in the war-of-words between India and Pakistan is decidedly more escalatory, shriller and beseeching when it emanates from Islamabad. Historically, irrespective of the merits in the topical India-Pakistan arguments, the audience would typically respond in favour or against either of the countries — on the basis of a certain predisposed equation and preference. It's only some unrelated country with negligible stakes which would occasionally partake an unbiased assessment of the arguments involved, as indeed, would some of the multilateral formations. Therefore, the inevitable play of certain "blocs" or realpolitik considerations resulted in a pre-decided tilt at least till now.

Post the recent revocation of the "special status" for Jammu and Kashmir as well as the planned bifurcation of the State into two "Union Territories", diplomats from both sides of the Line of Control have been expectedly scurrying across the global capitals to posit their respective sovereign positions. The lines and angularities of the arguments are standard with Pakistan aggressively goading other nations into either condemning the Indian action or seeking mediation. As usual, India has been posturing "bilateral" note, defending its actions as rote "internal matter", whilst cuttingly alluding to the recurring concerns of "cross-border terrorism." Barring this time, the Pakistanis are caught by surprise by the unfolding script not toeing the usual "divide" that accompanied Islamabad's earlier pitches on Kashmir. Global reaction has not only tilted heavily in India's favour or at best elicited bored disinterest and homilies but has hit a new low of "telling silence" or "zero reaction" from the supposed allies of Pakistan.

Undeniably, Pakistan Prime Minister Imran Khan had inherited a country with its economy in shambles and a discredited sovereign perception as the "terror nursery" of the globe. With traditional allies like the US openly castigating Islamabad for its duplious role in the terror industry and multilateral bodies like the Financial Action Task Force (FATF) breathing down its neck to further "blacklist" it — Imran Khan had gone ahead with ostensible "course-correction", austerity-drive and personal charm-offensives to posture "Naya Pakistan" onto the global stage. Khan made quick dashes to China and to the Gulf sheikhdoms and made sure that he personally drove the visiting Princes from Saudi Arabia, Qatar and the UAE when they visited his country. As money started trickling in and the noose of corruption tightened against his political opponents, Khan felt even more confident of his own position, success and that of his country. He postured reconciliation (whilst still undertaking a Pulwama in parallel), yet his eye on the global map with a changed "Naya Pakistan" was clearly work-in-progress.

Serendipitously, Washington's U-turn in Afghanistan offered yet another opportunity to Islamabad to thaw its freeze with the US and leverage its imminent pivot in Kabul towards its strategic advantage. Suddenly, the move by the Indian Government to revoke Article 370 and 35A in Jammu and Kashmir put the worth of "Naya Pakistan" and its global efficacy to litmus test. Islamabad went into yet another round of competitive pitching vis-à-vis India, brandishing the "K" card.

 EVEN THE UAE HAS INVOKED THE BILATERAL CHORUS. AMID PAKISTANI CALLS FOR BANS, SUSPENSION OF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS AND SOLIDARITY MOVES FOR OSTENSIBLE CONCERNS IN KASHMIR, SAUDI ARABIA ANNOUNCED MEGA DEALS WITH A MAJOR INDIAN CONGLOMERATE

Khan has been running from pillar-to-post and personally calling up the leaderships in the Gulf sheikhdoms, Iran, Indonesia and various other supposed "allies". He also sought an emergency meeting at the United Nations Security Council (UNSC). But so far, it has come a cropper. The US, the UN and the EU have instead suggested "maximum restraint" and embarrassingly so from Pakistan's perspective, "bilateral resolution and engagement".

Reportage in Pakistan is full of actions taken by the Government to escalate the issue with various Governments but there is a virtual silence, which is attributable directly to the leaderships in pitched countries. Even nations like the UAE have invoked the "bilateral" chorus. Amid Pakistani calls for bans, suspension of diplomatic relations and "solidarity moves" for ostensible concerns in Kashmir, Saudi Arabia announced mega deals with a major Indian conglomerate.

Barring China, which has come out with its loaded statements in favour of its "all-weather friend" Pakistan, it continues grappling with its own imploding destiny in Hong Kong. Basically, Pakistan remains stunningly isolated and ignored.

Sabre-rattling by the Pakistani deep state (military) and its local political classes notwithstanding, the reality of a persisting trust deficit and perceptions of sovereign incorrigibility still abound the Pakistani narrative. The transactional equation with China is also premised on the strategic investments of China Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC), which necessitates that Islamabad remains reciprocally mum on the fate of Uighur repression in China.

The recent round of tensions between India and Pakistan has driven home the importance of political morality, economic relevance and stability as opposed to regressive pandering to co-religiosity in forums like OIC or charm offensives. These are clearly not bankable levers in times like this.

While China will continue to indulge Pakistan for its own strategic rationale, the Pakistani "model" is an inherent anathema to Chinese sensibilities. Even the US may pander to some Pakistani whims as it will seek to extricate itself from Afghanistan. However, it has been the telling silence of all the countries in the immediate east of Pakistan that has given a resounding wake-up call to Islamabad to go beyond change in nomenclature and its insincere concerns in Kashmir.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

A garb of concern

Sir — The Indian Medical Association (IMA) has rubbished a Lancet editorial ('Fear and uncertainty about Kashmir's future' published on August 17) where the journal expressed concerns about the mental health of Kashmiris, saying that it had no locus standi in the matter and that its interference was not welcome. It is unfortunate that the reputed medical journal The Lancet — founded by an English surgeon in 1823 — has committed breach of propriety in commenting on this political issue. This amounts to interference in an internal matter of the Union of India.

The vexed Kashmir issue is a legacy that the British Empire left behind. The Lancet has unnecessarily reacted to an internal administrative decision of the Government of India under the garb of concern of health of Kashmiris. Where was it when the Kashmiri Pandits were massacred and driven out of Kashmir? Or the Uighur Muslims, who are locked away in China's anonymous prisons? Did it study their mental health, too? At a time when there has been a fair

The evils of bad economics

This refers to the report, "Economic slowdown 'very worrisome', new set of reforms needed: Rajan" (August 19). On finding that the "adjusted" data on economic growth failed to camouflage the "worrisome" economic slowdown, the ruling dispensation shifted the narrative from outright denials to wholesome praise of the economy's resilience to meet the "cyclical" downswings. Did non-linear past events converge to construct the current crisis? Some years ago, when the story of Non-Performing Assets (NPAs) in the banks exploded, it was dismissed as an aberration. In reality, NPAs led to multi-headed problems for the banks.

On a cold night in November, demonetisation of high value currency was announced. Though it was laced fully with lofty goals, it strangled small businesses and petty shopkeepers besides blowing away whatever little cash the common man had. On another fateful night, the supposedly monumental Goods and Services Tax (GST) was hoisted on a weak platform, which in effect brought the goods and services to its knees instantly. The liquidity crisis in Non-Banking Financial Companies, now unfolding, sent the monetary situation into a tail-spin. And the collapse of the IL&FS, Jet Airways, Amrapali Group and Jaiprakash Associates dealt body blows to the economy. While former Reserve Bank of India (RBI) Governor Raghuram Rajan and former Chief Economic Advisor Arvind Subramanian read the Riot Act to the Government repeatedly, it indulged in efforts to cloak the disturbing discords with new hymns on national integration. A new set of reforms remains a far cry.

He embarrassed the Government by calling the Chinese "old guests" and asked them to return to their land. Naik is known for making inflammatory speeches and is also the most wanted man in India for several money laundering cases. While the Malaysian Government has currently banned him from making public speeches, it should take appropriate action against him. If charges against him are upheld, his permanent residency status could be revoked. This bodes well for India.

Valley gradually showing signs of improvement

MOHIT KANDHARI ■ JAMMU

While stray incidents of stone pelting are still being reported from parts of Srinagar, the overall situation in Kashmir Valley is gradually showing signs of improvement. The security grid lifted restrictions from Lal Chowk area on Wednesday permitting local residents to move around freely. Markets in the area, however, remained closed and scanty traffic was witnessed during the day.

In Baramulla, a joint team of security forces eliminated a Lashkar-e-Tayyiba (LeT) terrorist identified as Momin Gojri in an overnight operation. A Sub-Inspector of State Police and a Special Police officer (SPO) received serious injuries in the gunfight.

According to police spokesman, SPO identified as Bilal Ahmad succumbed to his injuries while SI Amardeep Parihar is undergoing treatment in the Army hospital.

On the Line of Control, Pakistani Army initiated fresh ceasefire violation in Sunderbani sector of Rajouri around 3.45 pm.

In response, Indian Army gave befitting reply.

DIG Central Kashmir VK Birdi told reporters in Srinagar, "No major law and order incident was reported from anywhere in Kashmir Valley. He said, all those areas where relaxations were given behaved normally". He said, in few pockets stray incidents of stone pelting were reported and they were dealt with appropriately by the law and order machinery on ground.

Local reporters, while referring to incidents of continuous stone pelting in different parts of Srinagar had asked him whether more arrests were made to contain the situation, DIG VK Birdi maintained, "Law and order machinery is handling the situation and monitoring it very closely on ground zero". Director General of Police Shri Dilbag Singh on Wednesday said effective initiatives have been taken to bring all round improvement in the law and order situation in the Valley to ensure security of the people. He said stringent action will be taken against those disrupting peace and creating panic among masses.

Earlier, DGP attended the wreath laying ceremony of martyr SPO Bilal Ahmad Magray who was martyred during the Ganai Hamam, Baramulla encounter.

Meanwhile, addressing routine Press conference, Director Information & Public Relations, Dr Syed Sehrish Asgar told reporters, "With the opening of middle schools across Kashmir Valley, the teachers' attendance was recorded at 60-80 per cent and Government offices also witnessed 90 per cent attendance on Wednesday."

She said the attendance of students also improved over the past two days. On Wednesday, the school education department in Kashmir claimed around 774 middle schools were thrown open in areas where primary schools were functioning since Monday.

Director School Education Kashmir, Muhammad Younis Malik read out a detailed report claiming districts of Kulgam, Bandipora and Ganderbal are showing marked improvement in terms of attendance in schools.

The presser was also informed that hospitals, banks are functionally normally, besides ATMs, transport, and other services are adequately operating across the State. They said review meetings are being held at district and divisional level for harvesting and to transport of horticulture produce to other places. Chief Secretary BVR Subrahmanyam himself reviewed the transport facilities and establishment of mandies across the Valley. There was no shortfall of transport facilities, the officials informed.

The Government urges people not to believe in rumours in this regard, the presser was told.

They also said there was no law and order incident reported from any area in Jammu and no major law and order incident from Kashmir was reported.

Incentives to filmmakers part of I&B Ministry's J&K package

New Delhi: The Information & Broadcasting (I&B) Ministry is planning several incentives for film and television production companies to take their projects to Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh.

As part of the massive development push for the region by the Government, the I&B Ministry has held closed door consultations with representatives of the entertainment industry to chalk out a plan to encourage them to look at the region as a viable centre.

Among the proposals on table is a corporate package for production houses keen to visit J&K and Ladakh with their units for shooting films and television serials.

The Government is also open to amend the radio guidelines for setting up new FM stations in the region. Currently, small number of private FM channels are operating in Valley. A capital investment for erecting new screens in the region is also on the cards along with developing other infrastructure required for film making.

Sources said after taking inputs from the stake holders, the government will roll out its incentive plan so that the region, known for its beautiful locations, is used extensively for film production. The film crews had almost stopped shooting in the region since the early 1990s when militancy destroyed peace in the Valley.

After the abrogation of Article 370 and reorganisation of the state, Prime Minister Narendra Modi had appealed to film makers to see J&K and Ladakh as potential work areas.

The Prime Minister had appealed to the representatives of Hindi, Tamil and Telugu entertainment industry to look at Jammu and Kashmir as a destination for their projects. Walking the talk, the government now wants to meet all the infrastructure demands of the industry to smoothen bottlenecks.

J&K Govt grants MoS status to its Mayors

Srinagar: In a significant development, the J&K Government has decided to accord Minister of State status to its two mayors. Junaid Azim Mattu is currently mayor of Srinagar while Chandher Mohan Gupta is mayor of Jammu.

With this status, both Mattu and Gupta will enjoy expanded power and will be able to take executive decisions. As mayors, their roles and responsibilities were restricted to their municipal jurisdiction.

Typically, a mayor is considered a ceremonial authority with limited power and state governments with all the resources continue to take most critical decisions.

Recently, after the abrogation of Article 370, the Centre bifurcated the valley state into two union territories — Jammu & Kashmir with an Assembly and Ladakh without one.

The Jammu and Kashmir Reorganisation Bill was passed on August 5 in the Rajya Sabha and then in the Lok Sabha.

The controversial Article 370 allowed special status to Jammu & Kashmir for over 70 years. Barring matters related to defence, foreign affairs, communications and other matters which were specified in the Instrument of Accession of Jammu & Kashmir, the Centre required the approval of the State Government for other laws.

Life in the Valley is gradually returning to normal. While offices and schools re-opened on Monday, landline phone connections have been largely restored.

Communication blockade fueling anger in Kashmir

Srinagar: It was an emotional reunion for Inran Ahmad with his family. The 32-year-old sells Kashmir handicrafts in Mumbai and returned home to Hawal here on Monday.

He had been unable to get in touch with his family in Kashmir since a fortnight, after security curbs and a communication blockade was imposed in the state following the scrapping of Article 370 that granted special status to Kashmir within the Indian union.

Ahmad broke down on seeing his ageing parents, and tightly hugged his two and three year old nephews.

He is getting married next week. But the communication blackout has complicated his wedding arrangements. While most weddings in Kashmir stand cancelled given the situation, Ahmad does not intend to do so. Instead, he plans to have low key celebrations.

"Life has become too difficult without communication. In a sad situation like this, how can one even think of celebration? It is going to be a very simple affair," said Ahmad.

Ahmad's neighbours are also angry. "This has never happened in Kashmir, we have been caged," lamented Ghulam Mohiuddin.

Others said the gag order was only fuelling anger. "It is triggering frustration in Kashmir and is a great provocation for the people," said Mohammad Hafeez.

The Government calls the communication blockade "temporary" and has promised restoration of all landline connections. "Out of 96,000 landlines in the state, 73,000 have started functioning," said Government spokesperson Rohit Kansal.

But some like Abdul Majeed, a resident of Firdousabad in Batamloo area of Srinagar, complain that the landlines which were restored a couple of days ago, have stopped working altogether.

"It is a joke, the landlines were restored in our area but were snapped in a matter of few hours. The radio silence is becoming unbearable," he said.

The Government says it is abreast of the situation and the matter is being taken up with service provider BSNL for quick redressal.

Khadi comes out with novel way to bestow dignity on humble 'mochi'

New Delhi: Khadi and Village Industries Commission (KVIC) which is in the forefront of popularising Khadi has come out with a novel way to bestow dignity on the humble 'mochi'. Acting on the principles of Mahatma Gandhi and call of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, KVIC has decided to give recognition to the people from the marginalised shoe-making community popularly known as Mochi.

In this first kind of such initiatives in the country, the KVIC decided to re-christen 'mochi' as 'Charm Chikitsak' at the training programme at the KVIC's e Gandhi Darshan premises in Delhi on Wednesday.

When KVIC Chairman Vinai Kumar Saxena addressed the inaugural session of 100 leather artisan trainees of Delhi as 'Charm-Chikitsak', some of the shoe-makers broke into tears. For 60-year-old Ramsevak, it was simply unbelievable.

"We are getting a sense of recognition and security with this encouraging address of the KVIC Chairman, what we have not ever dreamt of in our lives," he said.

Saxena said that KVIC had always shown its commitment to uplift the social and economic status of the marginalized communities. "After the overwhelming success in Kumhar Sashaktikaran Scheme, we planned to launch this Leather Artisans Development Scheme, in which small time shoe-makers, mostly sitting on footpaths - polishing and repairing shoes and chappals, from all corners of the country, would first be given proper training and then modern Shoe-tool Kit worth Rs 5,000. The kits will be equipped with all necessary articles needed to cure and beautify shoes and chappals," he said.

Saxena said earlier this month, 50 artisans of Sirohi district — one of the aspirational districts identified by the Neeti Aayog — in Rajasthan had been given training with the Shoe-tool Kits.

"We hope to distribute at least 10,000 such kits among our 'charm-chikitsak' by the end of this year," he added.

Uddhav throws weight behind cousin Raj ahead ED'S summons

Says nothing will come out against him in probe

TN RAGHUNATHA ■ MUMBAI

After the Opposition Congress and ANCP, the ruling Shiv Sena on Wednesday came out in support of MNS chief Raj Thackeray on Wednesday, a day ahead of his appearance before the Enforcement Directorate (ED) for questioning in connection with a loan default probe case.

A day after the MNS chief said that he would "honour" the summons issued to him by the ED and exhorted his party workers to maintain calm and restraint on August 22, Sena president Uddhav Thackeray threw his weight behind his cousin Raj, by saying that he did not think anything would come in the case in which the latter was investigated.

At a news conference convened to welcome sitting Congress MLA Nirmala Gavit into his party, Uddhav reacted to the news reports about the summons issued by Raj in a loan default case and said: "I don't think anything will come out in tomorrow's questioning (of Raj Thackeray)".

Reacting to the Sena president's comment, MNS spokesperson Sandip Deshpande — who had earlier dubbed the ED's summons to his party president as an "act of vendetta" — said, "All the people in the state are aware that there is nothing to the case. I am confident that my president will unscathed from this case".

The Opposition Congress and NCP leaders had earlier slammed the BJP-led NDA Government for "misusing" the investigating agencies to "target" its critics. They had said that Raj was being "targeted" as he had campaigned against the Narendra Modi Government in the recent Lok Sabha polls.

Raj, it may be recalled, had also brought the Opposition parties together on one platform on the issue of Electronic Voting Machines (EVMs) and demanded that instead of EVMs, ballot papers be used to hold the State Assembly polls in Maharashtra.

The ED is investigating the alleged irregularities in the IL&FS loans and investments worth over Rs 860 crore in M/s Kohinoor CTNL, a company funded by former Maharashtra CM Manohar Joshi's son Umesh Joshi.

M/s Kohinoor CTNL has been under ED scanner for being a prominent defaulter of IL&FS, amounting to an estimated Rs 135 crore.

Umesh along with son along with IL&FS and Raj Thackeray-owned Matoshree Construction had in 2005 jointly had made a bid and bought for the NTPC's Kohinoor Mill's 4.8-acre property for Rs 421 crore.

In 2008, the IL&FS reneged from the deal and surrendered its shares for only Rs 90 crore, as against an investment of Rs 225 crore made in M/s Kohinoor CTNL. Following the IL & FS's exit, Raj exited from the venture after selling his shares.

In a statement put out in Marathi and English through his official twitter handle, Raj had said on Tuesday that like he did several other cases registered against him in the past, he would "honour" the summons issued to him and asked his party workers not to come anywhere near the investigation agency's office on Thursday.

Miffed by the summons issued to their party president, the MNS workers had earlier threatened to storm the ED when Raj responds to its summons on Thursday.

It had also called for a bandh in a satellite city of Mumbai, on August 22, in protest against the summons issued by the ED.

Following Raj's appeal to its workers to maintain calm, the MNS has called off its plans to take out a morcha to ED on Thursday and also withdrew its bandh call in Thane.

Chidambaram, a paper tiger, charge Congressman, rivals

KUMAR CHELLAPPAN ■ CHENNAI

There is no one in the Tamil Nadu Congress Committee or in Shivaganga who are not happy with the Delhi High Court order refusing to entertain the anticipatory bail application filed by former Union Finance and Home Minister P Chidambaram who is always portrayed as the party's strongman in the State.

"All good things have to come to an end and this is what has happened to Chidambaram and his family," a senior Congress leader in TNCC told The Pioneer. The former Finance Minister who was the country's Home Minister for fairly long time is one of the most unpopular politician in Tamil Nadu, said the Congress leader who did not want his name to be quoted for obvious reasons.

"You have been writing about the weakness of the Congress in Tamil Nadu for quite some time. Chidambaram is the root cause of the pathetic situation of the party in Tamil Nadu. He is always known as a weekend politician and has no acceptability among the people of the State," disclosed the leader.

S Rangaraj, author and proprietor of Rare Books, said Chidambaram could be described as a paper tiger. "It is the media in Tamil Nadu which portrayed him as the State's strongman. For Chidambaram, what matters is his family and nothing more than that," said Rangaraj.

The electorate in Shivaganga, the home constituency of Chidambaram, said has alienated the voters because of his arrogance and intimidating nature. "He did not contest the 2014 Lok Sabha election fearing defeat. Please remember that he manipulated to get elected to the Upper House from Maharashtra because of his close association with Sonia Gandhi and Rahul Gandhi," said Rangaraj.

Narayanan Thirupatti, the BJP spokesman said the solidarity shown by some of the senior Congress leaders in New Delhi was just a facade. "In the heart of their hearts, all of them are happy because it is an open secret that Chidambaram's antecedents are not above the board. He camouflages his crimes with the help of that idiomatic English with which he hopes to hoodwink the public," said Narayanan.

Chidambaram's woes are far from over. He has to appear before the Madras High Court on August 30 to face the cross examination in an election petition filed against him by the AIADMK candidate immediately after 2009 LS election.

Stalin backs Chidambaram, accuses BJP Govt of pursuing vendetta politics

PTI ■ CHENNAI

DMK chief MK Stalin on Wednesday backed Congress leader P Chidambaram, facing action in a money laundering case related to INX Media, and accused the BJP-led central Government of pursuing vendetta politics.

"As regards this issue, I have clearly learnt that these (actions) are happening due to political vendetta," Stalin, whose party has an alliance with Congress in Tamil Nadu, told reporters at the DMK headquarters 'Anna Arivalayam' here.

Responding to queries, the DMK leader said, "Chidambaram is a legal expert. He will for sure face the case legally." As many as 14 parties will take part in a protest in Delhi to be held by DMK on Thursday, seeking the release of leaders under detention in Kashmir, he said.

The Congress has defended Chidambaram, with Rahul Gandhi accusing the Government of using probe agencies and the media to "character assassinate" the former Finance Minister.

Further boost to Sena, sitting Cong MLA joins its fold

TN RAGHUNATHA ■ MUMBAI

In further boost to the ruling Shiv Sena ahead of the Maharashtra Assembly polls, sitting Congress MLA Nirmala Gavit on Wednesday joined the Sena in the presence of its president Uddhav Thackeray.

In a development that came four days after former MLA Dhanraj Haribahu Mahale — who had quit the Shiv Sena and joined the NCP and contested the recent Lok Sabha polls — returned to the Sena, Nirmala joined the Shiv Sena.

Welcoming Mrs Gavit into his party, Uddhav said that with Gavit's entry to the Sena would strengthen the party in Nashik district of northern Maharashtra.

A sitting Congress MLA from Igatpuri, Nirmala is the daughter of veteran congressman from north Maharashtra.

Nirmala, who had tendered her resignation to State Assembly Speaker Haribahu Bagade on Tuesday, had said that she was quitting the Congress and resigning as an MLA to ensure development in his constituency.

Nirmala's entry to the Shiv Sena came amid speculation that the Congress' former minister and sitting MLA from Indapur Harshvardhan Patil might also join the BJP.

The Shiv Sena and BJP have been poaching leaders from the Congress and NCP in recent months in the run-up to the State Assembly polls.

First, it was NCP's former minister and once Pawar's close-confidant Jaydutta Kshirsagar from Beed district in Marathwada who quit the NCP and joined the Shiv Sena on May 22, 2019. Later on July 10, sitting MLA from Shahpur Pandurang Barora quit the NCP and entered the Sena. Later, NCP's Mumbai unit president Sachin Ahir quit the party and joined the ruling Shiv Sena on July 25.

Subsequently, former MLA Dhanraj Haribahu Mahale — who had quit the Shiv Sena and joined the Sharad Pawar-led party and contested the recent Lok Sabha polls from Dindori constituency — had returned to the Sena on Friday.

The Sena might field him as its candidate from Dindori in the State Assembly polls.

Similarly, the NCP's three sitting MLAs Shivrajendra Bhosale (Satara), Vaibhav Pichad (Akole in Ahmednagar district) and Sandeep Naik (Airoli in Navi Mumbai) and Congress' sitting MLA Kalidas Kolumbar (Wadala in south-central Mumbai) joined the BJP on July 31, 2019.

Chandrayaan-2 enters second lunar orbit

PTI ■ BENGALURU

ISRO on Wednesday said it has performed the second lunar-bound orbit maneuver for Chandrayaan-2 spacecraft that is currently in the lunar orbit for its rendezvous with the Moon. All spacecraft parameters are normal, the Bengaluru headquartered space agency said after the maneuver. "Second Lunar bound orbit maneuver for Chandrayaan-2 spacecraft was performed successfully today (August 21, 2019) beginning at 12:50 hrs IST as planned, using the onboard propulsion system. The duration of the maneuver was 1228 seconds. The orbit achieved is 118 km x 4412 km," ISRO said. The next Lunar bound orbit maneuver is scheduled on August 28, 2019 between 05:30-06:30 hrs IST. In a major milestone for India's second Moon mission, the Chandrayaan-2 spacecraft successfully entered the lunar orbit on Tuesday by performing Lunar Orbit Insertion (LOI) maneuver. There will be three more orbit manoeuvres to make the spacecraft enter into its final orbit passing over the lunar poles at a distance of about 100 km from the Moon's surface.

ISRO has said subsequently the lander will separate from the Orbiter (on September 2) and enter into a 100 km X30 km orbit around the Moon. This will perform a series of complex braking maneuvers to soft land in the South polar region of the Moon on September 7, 2019. ISRO Chairman K Sivan has said the proposed soft-landing on the Moon is going to be a "terrifying" moment as it is something ISRO has not done before, where as LOI maneuver was successfully carried out during the Chandrayaan-1 mission. The health of the spacecraft is being continuously monitored from the Mission Operations Complex (MOX) at ISRO Telemetry, Tracking and Command Network (ISTRAC) in Bengaluru with support from Indian Deep Space Network (IDSN) antennas at Bylalu, near Bengaluru, the space agency has said. India's Geosynchronous Satellite Launch Vehicle, GSLV MkIII-M1 had successfully launched the 3,840-kg Chandrayaan-2 spacecraft into the earth's orbit on July 22. Following the landing, the rover 'Pragyan' will roll out from lander 'Vikram' and carry out experiments on the lunar surface for a period of one lunar day, which is equal to 14 earth days. The mission life of the lander is also one lunar day, while the orbiter will continue its mission for a year. The orbiter carries eight scientific payloads for mapping the lunar surface and study the exosphere (outer atmosphere) of the Moon while the lander carries three scientific payloads to conduct surface and subsurface science experiments. The rover carries two payloads to enhance the understanding of the lunar surface. India's second lunar expedition — would shed light on a completely unexplored section of the Moon, its South Polar region. According to ISRO, the mission objective of Chandrayaan-2 is to develop and demonstrate the key technologies for end-to-end lunar mission capability, including soft-landing and roving on the lunar surface. On the science front, this mission aims to further expand the knowledge about the moon through a detailed study of its topography, mineralogy, surface chemical composition, thermo-physical characteristics and atmosphere, leading to a better understanding of the origin and evolution of the moon, the space agency has said.

Yogi brings in 23 new Ministers, many 1st timers

IAN S ■ LUCKNOW

In what can be termed as a near-total revamp of the Yogi Adityanath Government, 23 new Ministers were sworn in on Wednesday at the Raj Bhawan by Governor Anandiben Patel. The newly inducted ministers include six Cabinet Ministers, six Ministers of State with Independent charge and 11 Ministers of State. The most significant aspect of Wednesday's reshuffle is that majority of the newly inducted ministers are first timers with almost no administrative experience. Yogi Adityanath will face an uphill task in making these ministers perform. Four Ministers of State, who held Independent charge,

Uttar Pradesh Governor Anandiben Patel and Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath with newly inducted Ministers at Raj Bhawan in Lucknow on Wednesday

have been promoted as Cabinet Ministers. The Cabinet Ministers, who were sworn in are Mahendra Singh, Bhupendra Chaudhary, Anil Rajbhar, Suresh Rana, Kamal Rani and Ram Naresh Agnihotri. Except for Kamal Rani and Ram Naresh Agnihotri, the remaining four have been elevated. Those sworn in as Ministers of State with Independent charge are Kapil Dev, Ashok Katheria, Neelkanth Tiwari, Ravindra Jaiswal, Shri Ram Chauhan and Satish Dwiwedi — the latter had defeated former Speaker Mata Prasad Pandey in 2017. Neelkanth Tiwari, who has been given Independent charge, and Ravindra Jaiswal both belong to Varanasi, which is Prime Minister Narendra Modi's parliamentary constituency. The 11 Ministers of State are Anil Sharma, Mahesh Gupta, Anand Swarup Shukla, Vijay Kashyap, Giriraj Singh Dharmesh, Lakhan Singh Rajput, Nilima Katiyar, Chaudhary Udaybhan Singh, Chandrika Prasad Upadhyaya, Rama Shankar Singh Patel and Ajit Singh Pal. Of the 23 new ministers inducted — six are Brahmins, four Thakurs, three Vaishyas and 10 Dalits. Western Uttar Pradesh has been given a sizeable representation in the council of ministers. A surprise development was that names of Pankaj Singh, son of Defence Minister Rajnath Singh, Vijay Bahadur Pathak, party General Secretary and Ashish Patel (Apna Dal) were dropped at the last minute. The dropping of Ministers including Chetan Chauhan, Swati Singh and Mukut Bihari Varma was also deferred, following a late night meeting between the Chief Minister, Chaudhary Udaybhan Singh, party State President Swatantra Dev Singh and Sangh leaders.

BSY reaches out to sulking MLAs as discontent continues to brew over Cabinet expansion

PTI ■ BENGALURU

A day after the expansion of the Karnataka Cabinet with the induction of 17 Ministers, discontent among those who failed to secure Ministerial berths refused to die down on Wednesday, even as Chief Minister BS Yediyurappa made attempts to douse the embers. As the expansion brought an end to the nearly month long wait for the Cabinet to take shape, it led to some heartburn in a section of the party as several MLAs continued to make no secret of their displeasure after missing the bus. Yediyurappa has sought to reach out to the sulking MLAs, specifically eight-time Hukkeri MLA Umesh Katti, whom several legislators who could not make it to the Ministry reportedly met. "For one hour yesterday I have spoken to him (Katti) in the presence of Basavaraj Bommai (Minister). Naturally he is pained at not getting an opportunity. I will try to find a remedy," Yediyurappa told reporters in Tumakuru. On discontent expressed by Honnalli MLA MP Renukacharya about a former legislator Lakshman Savadi, who is neither a member of the Assembly nor the Council, being made the Minister, sidelining several sitting MLAs, he said "I will call Renukacharya and friends and talk to them." On his part Katti said he is not discontented and no other disgruntled legislators were with him. He told reporters that he met Yediyurappa and that he cannot reveal internal matters of the party to the media.

Arsalan story twist: Elder brother was driving, arrested

IAN S ■ KOLKATA

In a stunning u-turn, Kolkata Police on Wednesday arrested Raghav Parwez, elder brother of the original prime accused Arsalan Parwez, for allegedly being at the wheel of the Jaguar that was involved in a gruesome accident here last week that killed two Bangladeshi citizens and left three others injured. Raghav's maternal uncle has also been arrested for helping him abscond. In a hurriedly convened media meet, the city police claimed that 21-year-old Arsalan Parwez, son of the city's famous eponymous restaurant chain, wasn't driving the car, but it was his elder brother who was at the wheel at the time of the accident. Arsalan Parwez allegedly tried to mislead the police to save his brother by claiming that he was driving. Police recovered the event data recorder (EDR) of the Jaguar Land Rover car that was being driven at a speed between 100-120 km per hour. After thorough examination done by the Homicide Department, as well as the forensic and cyber teams, the sensational case took a sharp turn. "After checking the control panel of the high-end vehicle, the experts found that the infotainment data revealed that a person named Raghav Parwez had interacted with the vehicle prior to the accident. "After thorough investigation, it was confirmed that Raghav, Arsalan's elder brother, was driving the car. He has been arrested on Wednesday noon near Beniapur, Muridhar Sharma, joint commissioner of police (crime) told reporters.

3 IAF personnel killed as truck falls into Barmer gorge

Mangled remains of an Air Force truck that fell into a gorge in Barmer district of Rajasthan on Wednesday

Three IAF personnel were killed and three severely injured on Wednesday when the truck carrying them fell into a gorge in Barmer district of Rajasthan, police said. "The Indian Air Force has a camp at the hill top (a height of 100 feet) as well as at the base in Chouhan. This truck was coming down from the camp with six IAF personnel seated inside when it fell into the gorge. Three people have lost their lives, while three are severely injured and have been shifted to a hospital in Barmer," said Ajeet Singh, Deputy Superintendent of Police. "We are investigating if it was due to brake failure or something else," Singh added.

₹ recovers 16 paise to close at 71.55 a dollar

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

The Indian rupee on Wednesday clawed back some lost ground to close at 71.55, up 16 paise against the US dollar in line with stronger emerging market currencies.

Starting off on a bullish note, the rupee surged to a high of 71.36 per dollar during the day before settling at 71.55, clocking a gain of 16 paise.

On Tuesday, the Indian unit had closed at a six-month low of 71.4 a dollar.

The recovery in the Indian unit was seen despite headwinds in form of economic uncertainties, FDI outflows and rise in global crude oil prices, according to forex traders. Besides, investors continued to fret over long-lasting US China trade war.

Meanwhile, foreign investors pulled out Rs 770.81 crore from Indian equities on Wednesday, as per exchange data.

Continuing its rise, the global crude benchmark Brent Futures rose 1.6 per cent to trade at USD 60.99 per barrel on Wednesday.

Aiding in rupee recoup, the dollar index — which gauges the greenback's strength against a basket of six currencies — fell 0.01 per cent to 98.18.

The 10-year Indian government bond yield was down at 6.57 per cent on Wednesday.

"Despite brent crude price rising for last four consecutive sessions and higher dollar index levels, the rupee managed to recoup some of the losses registered in the previous two sessions," V K Sharma, Head PCG & Capital Markets Strategy, HDFC Securities, said.

Emerging market currencies advanced as investors assessed the latest remarks from the US on trade talks with China, he said adding that trading was muted ahead of the US Federal Reserve's July meeting minutes and Jackson Hole symposium later in the week.

Meanwhile, Financial Benchmark India Private Ltd (FBIL) set the reference rate for the rupee/dollar at 71.6483 and for rupee/euro at 79.3682. The reference rate for rupee/British pound was fixed at 86.7809 and for rupee/100 Japanese yen at 67.27.

Contrary to rupee rebound, the 30-share BSE Sensex settled 267.64 points or 0.72 per cent lower at 37,060.37; while the broader NSE Nifty shed 98.30 points or 0.89 per cent to finish at 10,918.70.

India Inc reports lower revenue, profit growth in Q1: Report

PTI ■ MUMBAI

The ongoing economic slowdown has started hurting corporates as well, with companies reporting a sharp decline in both revenue and profit growth numbers in the June quarter, a report said on Wednesday.

India Inc's net sales growth for the June quarter slid to 4.6 per cent as against 13.5 per cent for the same period last year, while the net profit growth moderated to 6.6 per cent as compared to last year's 24.6 per cent.

The findings are based on an analysis of 2,976 companies which have reported their quarterly numbers by domestic rating agency Care Ratings. The first quarter of the fiscal year 2019-20 has been marked by disappointing and weak corporate earnings indicative of the overall slowdown in various industries and the economy," it said.

In what can be termed as a silver lining, the broader economic woes do not seem to have had an impact on the organised sector jobs, as the employee expenses growth continued to be stable.

Employees compensation grew 10.6 per cent as compared to the year-ago period, the study showed.

It can be noted that GDP growth slid to a five-year low of 5.8 per cent for the March quarter and is widely expected to come lower for the June quarter. There have also been reports of jobless growth and a skewed nature of economic growth, where the "have-nots" are being left behind.

From the operating profit growth perspective, the Care Ratings study showed a slide down to 4.1 per cent in June quarter as against double digit growth last year.

However, the operating profit margin was stable at about 20 per cent level, it said.

Excluding banks and financial sector companies, a survey of 2,574 entities showed tax outgo declining by 19 per cent during June quarter, as against a robust 52.3 per cent growth in the year-ago period.

The profit after tax for these companies fell by 11.9 per cent during the same period, as against a growth of 52.9 per cent registered in the year-ago period.

It can be noted that a slew of business leaders, including doyens like L&T chairman A M Naik and Bajaj Auto's Rahul Bajaj have been flagging concerns on economic growth and its impact on the corporates as well.

BMW launches 7-generation 3-series

German carmakers new India chief, Rudratej Singh says 'strategically important'

PNS ■ GURUGRAM

German carmaker BMW took the wraps off the seventh-generation of their popular 3-series sports sedan in India. The latest iteration of the global bestseller will be available in two diesel and one petrol option and will be priced between ₹41.4 lakhs to ₹47.9 lakhs. The vehicle will be assembled at the carmakers Chennai facilities and will be the third generation of the 3-series to be assembled in India.

Speaking to The Pioneer after the launch of the vehicle, Rudratej Singh, the newly-appointed Chief Executive Officer, BMW Group India said that the vehicle was a critical one for the carmaker, accounting for almost a third of annual sales, even for the outgoing model and just behind the X1 Sports-Utility Vehicle.

"India is a strategically important market for BMW. You can see that in the breadth of investments that we have made across the country from the national sales company, the factory, the training centre and in financial services. We continue to believe in the India story, but it is important to understand that the India growth story will be uniquely Indian with dips and jumps, it will be an ambiguous growth curve and I feel 'Business value, so when the tide turns we can get a lion's share of the market." However, Singh reiterated that the core aspect of BMW's growth strategy was still building great products, "and this new 3-series is a prime example of that." Adding that dealer profitability will play a big

Unusual' will be 'Business as Usual' in India," Singh said during an interview. BMW which had seen sales fall sharply in 2016-17 has seen a smart turnaround in sales, but Singh added that he did not want to grow through the rampant discounting that is standard for the luxury car industry. "We want to change the concepts of luxury and of value, I do not feel the Indian consumer is as price conscious as he or she is value conscious and we want to be the brand that offers that role going forward and how business models will have to change, "it should not be about trying to extract the maximum value from one service ticket but getting more service tickets. We have to grow from the 80,000 car base we have in India today and make it larger." However, he added that currently things for the Indian economy were volatile and uncertain and it might take a time for economic growth to pick up alongside a commensurate increase in sales.

NCLAT asks Jet lenders if they would cooperate with Dutch court administrator

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

The National Company Law Appellate Tribunal (NCLAT) on Wednesday asked lenders of Jet Airways whether they would cooperate with the Dutch court administrator who is also pursuing insolvency proceedings against the debt-ridden carrier. A three-member NCLAT bench headed by Chairman Justice S J Mukhopadhyay asked the Committee of Creditors (CoC) of Jet Airways to file an affidavit within a week in this regard.

The appellate tribunal has also asked the CoC to inform whether they are ready to pay fees and bear costs incurred by the Dutch administrator. Jet Airways is facing insolvency proceedings in the Netherlands as well, where it was declared bankrupt after failing to pay two European creditors. Subsequently, a bankruptcy administrator was appointed by the Dutch court.

The appellate tribunal's direction came while hearing a petition filed by the Dutch court administrator against the order of the Mumbai bench of the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT), which had declared overseas bankruptcy proceedings null and void in the Jet Airways insolvency case.

Maruti launches new XL6 MPV

Country's largest carmaker expects sentiment to pick up in festive season

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

In the midst of the worst sales slump for passenger cars in decades, Maruti-Suzuki took the wraps off their new multi-person vehicle (MPV) the XL6.

The XL6 which is a variant of the popular Ertiga MPV will however be sold through the carmakers premium sales channel Nexa, and features several premium touches such as a second-row of individual captain seats and full-LED headlights in the front. In keeping with Maruti's decision to stop production of small diesel engines, the Ertiga is available only in a petrol variant however has both manual and automatic transmission options. Prices will range from ₹9.8 lakh to ₹11.46 lakh.

Addressing the media after the launch, Kenichi Ayukawa, Managing Director, Maruti Suzuki India Limited admitted that the current environment where car sales have been declining as much 20 percent compared to figures from a market to show signs of growth during the festive season as the monsoons have been fairly positive and because some of the uncertainty that surrounded the industry on issues such as the changeover to BS6 emission norms and other issues such as electrification should be cleared.

year ago, is worrying. Stock levels for Maruti dealers is also running 'slightly higher than usual' he admitted, despite plants running at lower than optimal capacity. However, he added that he expected the

That said Maruti executives privately admitted that they did not see sales reaching 2017 levels until 2021 at the earliest and said that the lack of credit is hurting dealers and customers alike.

Trump acknowledges China policies may mean US economic pain

AP ■ WASHINGTON

President Donald Trump acknowledged Tuesday his aggressive China trade policies may mean economic pain for Americans but insisted they're needed for more important long-term benefits. He contended he does not fear a recession but is nonetheless considering new tax cuts to promote growth.

Asked if his trade war with China could tip the country into recession, Trump brushed off the idea as "irrelevant" and said it was imperative to "take China on." "It's about time, whether it's good for our country or bad for our country short term," he said.

Paraphrasing a reporter's question, Trump said, "Your statement about, 'Oh, will we fall into a recession for two months?' OK? The fact is somebody had to take China on." The president indicated that he had no choice but to impose the tariffs that have been a drag on U.S. Manufacturers, financial markets and, by some measures, American consumers.

BEIJING APPEALS TO US TO 'MEET CHINA HALFWAY' ON TRADE

Beijing: Beijing appealed to Washington on Wednesday to "meet China halfway" and end a tariff war after President Donald Trump said Americans might need to endure economic pain to achieve longer-term benefits. A foreign ministry spokesman, Geng Shuang, expressed hope Washington can "get along us" and restore "mutually beneficial" trade. AP

B'desh backs Modi Govt on Article 370

PTI ■ DHAKA

Bangladesh said on Tuesday that revoking the special status to Jammu and Kashmir is India's internal matter and maintaining regional peace and stability should be a priority for all countries.

Bangladesh' reaction on the issue came a day after External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar visited the country and held talks with the top leadership, including Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina.

"Bangladesh maintains that the abrogation of Article 370 by the Indian Government is an internal issue of India," the Ministry of Foreign Affairs said here in a statement.

"Bangladesh has always advocated, as a matter of principle, that maintaining regional peace and stability, as well as development should be a priority for all countries," it said.

Tensions between India and Pakistan spiked this month after New Delhi abrogated provisions of Article 370 of the Constitution to withdraw Jammu & Kashmir's special status and bifurcated it into two Union Territories.

New Delhi has made it clear to the US that Kashmir was a bilateral issue between India and Pakistan and there was no role for a third party.

No complete withdrawal from Afghanistan: Trump

PTI ■ WASHINGTON

President Donald Trump has indicated that the US forces will not completely withdraw from war-torn Afghanistan and America will have "somebody there" to make sure that Taliban does not regain control.

During the presidential election campaign in 2016, Trump had pledged to withdraw US troops from Afghanistan and end America's longest war.

The Trump administration has intensified its efforts to seek a negotiated settlement of America's longest war in Afghanistan where the US has lost over 2,400 soldiers since late 2001, when it invaded the country after the 9/11 terror attacks.

"We will always have intelligence, and we'll always have somebody there," Trump told reporters at his Oval Office on Tuesday.

He was responding to questions on the ongoing peace talks with the Taliban in Afghanistan. Trump said he would like to look at various alternatives.

"One of the alternatives is going on right now. We're talking about a plan -- I don't know whether or not the plan is going to be acceptable to me. Maybe it's not going to be acceptable to them. But we are talking. We have good talks going, and we'll see what happens. This is more than other Presidents have done," he said.

"We have brought it down. We are bringing some of our troops back. But we have to have a presence," Trump said, ruling out a complete withdrawal of troops from Afghanistan.

He was asked, "Could we be back to where we were pre-9/11 with the Taliban in complete and total control of Afghanistan?"

"Well, that's what we have to watch," Trump responded.

And if the Taliban were "really right" in what they're saying, they would stop that from happening, because they could stop that from happening very easily.

Trump said, right now, the US is negotiating with the Afghan government and with the Taliban.

"We will see what happens from it, what's coming from it," he said.

"The Taliban would like to stop fighting us...They've lost a lot. But we'll see what happens," he said.

Afghanistan, he said is a tough place.

"The Soviet Union became Russia because of Afghanistan. That's what happened. Very simple. They became Russia because of Afghanistan."

US 'prepared to engage' with N Korea in nuclear talks: envoy

AFP ■ SEOUL

The United States is ready to sit down with North Korea to resume long-awaited working-level nuclear talks, a US envoy said Wednesday. Nuclear discussions between Washington and Pyongyang have stalled since a second summit in Hanoi in February ended without an agreement over differences on the extent of denuclearisation and sanctions relief in return.

But anticipation for renewed dialogue has been on the rise after the US and its security ally South Korea wrapped up their two-week joint military drill on Tuesday. "We are prepared to engage as soon as we hear from our counterparts in North Korea," said Stephen Biegun, the US special representative for North Korea, after his meeting with South Korean counterpart Lee Do-hoon in Seoul.

The comments come amid speculation that Americans could meet with North Koreans at the demilitarised zone dividing the North and South to kick start working-level talks during Biegun's three-day stay in Seoul, which began Tuesday. The US envoy denied media reports he would soon take a diplomatic posting in Russia, saying he remained "focused on making progress" with North Koreans and "fully committed" to the goal of the denuclearisation in the North.

Pyongyang considers the joint military exercise by the allies a rehearsal for invasion and has routinely expressed anger at the war games. The drills are a "grave military provocation" and a "challenge to and mockery of our efforts for peace," the North's official Rodong Sinmun newspaper said Wednesday in a commentary.

'Howdy, Modi' event in Houston sold out, over 50K people register

PTI ■ HOUSTON

"Howdy, Modi!", the community event to be addressed by Prime Minister Narendra Modi here next month has been sold out with over 50,000 people registering for the programme, the organisers said.

"Howdy", short for "How do you do?", is a friendly greeting commonly used in southwestern United States.

Over 50,000 supporters have already registered for the mega community summit in September at the NRG Stadium, the host Texas India Forum (TIF), a Houston-based non-profit body, said. The live audience will be the largest ever for an Indian Prime Minister in North America and also the largest for a foreign leader in the US other than Pope Francis.

Potential attendees can still register for the free event. However, new registrants will be on a waiting list. Registration for the university students is open until August 29th as part of a special allotment, they said.

Prime Minister Modi is scheduled to visit the US next month to attend the United Nations General Assembly on September 27, prior to which he will travel to Houston to meet the leading businesses, political and community leaders here in Houston, the fourth largest city with a population of over 130,000 Indian-Americans.

The summit, with the tagline of 'Shared Dreams, Bright Futures' will highlight the contributions of Indian-Americans to enrich the American life as well as the key role it has played in strengthening relations between the two nations.

"On behalf of the hundreds of thousands of Indian-Americans in Texas, and as co-chair of the Senate India Caucus, I welcome Prime Minister Modi to Houston," said US Senator John Cornyn.

Minister confirms Canada will not repatriate 'Jihadi Jack'

AFP ■ MONTREAL

Canada does not intend to repatriate the Muslim convert dubbed 'Jihadi Jack,' who is being held in northern Syria after joining the Islamic State group, Public Safety Minister Ralph Goodale has confirmed.

Jack Letts, 24, who was a dual UK-Canadian national, was captured by Kurdish forces in Syria in 2017 and is languishing in jail there.

Goodale's statement comes a day after Britain stripped Letts of his citizenship, placing his fate in Canada's hands.

"We have no obligation to facilitate his travel from his present circumstances, and we have no intention of facilitating that travel," Goodale said in an interview with the CBC on Tuesday.

Goodale had tweeted the same sentiment Monday before officially confirming it in the televised interview.

"This individual and others have made the calculated decision to leave the comfortable confines of Canadian democracy, to travel halfway around the world to associate themselves with the most evil and violent terrorism in several generations," Goodale said.

"They need to assume the consequences for their responsibility."

In a recent interview with ITV News, Letts said he had thought that Canada would help him.

"I never grew up being accepted as a British person," he said, adding that losing his British citizenship was "not something I recognise." "But, in the same way Britain hasn't helped me for two and a half years, Canada has done nothing."

Pak submits compliance report to FATF

PTI ■ ISLAMABAD

Pakistan has submitted compliance report on its 27-point action plan to the Financial Action Task Force (FATF), as three separate evaluations currently in progress will determine the country's possible exit from the grey list of the anti-money laundering watchdog by October, according to a media report.

The Asia-Pacific Group — the regional affiliate of the FATF — is currently conducting in Canberra (Australia) five-year mutual evaluation of Pakistan's progress on upgrading its systems in all areas of financial and insurance services and sectors, a senior government official told Dawn.

This round is not directly linked to Pakistan's performance on its commitments with the FATF on money laundering and terror-financing, but its assessment report can indirectly impact the country's position to move out of the grey list.

The assessments, represented from Pakistan by State Bank of Pakistan Governor Baqir Reza, will conclude on August 23, the daily said.

Pakistan has submitted its compliance report on 27-point action plan committed with the FATF to the APG, which is reviewing its compliance on about seven areas mostly relating to financial and insurance services and facilities as part of an ongoing five-year review cycle.

These areas cover safeguards against money laundering and terror financing by banned outfits and non-government entities through banking and non-banking jurisdictions, capital markets, corporate and non-corporate sectors like chartered accountancy, financial advisory services, cost and management accountancy firm, jewellers and similar related services.

The official aid that the five-year review by the APG, which had been under way for nearly two years, would conclude on August 23. As part of this process, he added, the countries were given future targets in view of changing technologies, practices and latest techniques and scopes.

This will be followed by another round of mutual evaluations by the APG starting September 5 in Bangkok (Thailand) that would become a key basis of Pakistan's final review by the FATF at its plenary and working group meetings scheduled for October 13-18 in Paris. The Paris plenary will also take up a separate assessment by the US Treasury Department regarding Pakistan's compliance with global commitments against money laundering and terror financing.

Double Delight

Indian men's hockey team hammers NZ 5-0, Eves beat Japan 2-1 to win Olympic Test Event

Indian players celebrate after scoring against New Zealand during Olympics Test event final match on Wednesday. HI/Twitter

PTI ■ TOKYO

The Indian men's hockey team won the Olympic Test event here on Wednesday, beating New Zealand 5-0 to avenge the loss it endured in their round robin clash.

Captain Harmanpreet Singh (7th minute) set the ball rolling before Shamsheer Singh (18th minute), Nilakanta Sharma (22nd minute), Gursahibjit Singh (26th minute) and Mandeep Singh (27th minute) scored for India at the Oi Hockey Stadium here.

India had lost 1-2 to New Zealand earlier in round robin league-stage.

"We played very well. We managed to score our opportunities at the start of the game," Harmanpreet said after the triumph.

"I think the final was always going to be tough, we lost to New Zealand earlier. But we had been having practice sessions after that and worked on our mistakes to win today," he added.

Both teams began the match on a cautious note by turning over the ball in the mid-field. India won a penalty corner in the seventh minute, but couldn't capitalise on the opportunity.

However, skipper Harmanpreet didn't miss out on a re-awarded penalty corner. He executed a perfect drag-flick to put India in the lead.

The Indian team continued to hold possession and put tremendous pressure on the New Zealand defense as they ended the first quarter at 1-0.

Shamsheer scored India's second goal through a penalty corner in the 18th minute.

New Zealand managed to make only two circle entries in the second quarter as the Indian team scored three more goals.

Nilakanta found the back of the net in the 22nd minute before Gursahibjit and Mandeep scored in quick succession.

Vivek Prasad intercepted the ball brilliantly to assist a goal for Gursahibjit and Mandeep converted a penalty corner just before the half-time whistle.

After an action-packed first half, the intensity dropped from both sides. New Zealand tried to make a few inroads in the third quarter as they took a shot in the 37th minute which went wide of the post.

Jarmanpreet Singh saved a penalty corner in the next minute as India and New Zealand played out a goalless quarter but the former held the lead at 5-0.

In the last quarter, India ensured they stayed in the lead and didn't allow New Zealand to break through their defense throughout the match.

India's attacking approach in the match paid off as they walked off the pitch as winners of the competition.

EVES EDGE PAST JAPAN

The Indian women's hockey team also won the Olympic Test event with Navjot Kaur and Lalremsiami leading the side to a 2-1 win over Japan in the final.

Navjot Kaur (11th minute) opened the scoring to put India ahead but the lead was neutralised within a minute as Minami Shimizu (12') scored for the hosts.

CAPTAIN HARMANPREET SINGH (7TH MINUTE) SET THE BALL ROLLING BEFORE SHAMSHER SINGH (18TH MINUTE), NILAKANTA SHARMA (22ND MINUTE), GURSAHIBJIT SINGH (26TH MINUTE) AND MANDEEP SINGH (27TH MINUTE) SCORED FOR INDIA

Lalremsiami (33') struck the winning goal for India. India dominated the first 10 minutes, and finally managed to find the breakthrough when Forward Navjot kept her nerves under pressure and produced a fine finish in front of the goal.

However, the next minute saw Japan strike back immediately with a well-crafted field goal which was put into the back of the net by Shimizu to make it 1-1.

The second quarter saw both the teams focus on their defensive structure and tread carefully in the attacking third.

It was an aggressive start from the Indian team after the half-time break as they won themselves a penalty corner in the 33rd minute.

India's prolific drag-flicker Gurjit Kaur stepped up to take the execution, but her shot was saved by the Japanese Goalkeeper Megumi Kageyama.

However, the rebound fell to India's young Forward Lalremsiami, who did not make a mistake in putting the ball into the back of the net to make it 2-1 for India.

It was a huge blow to the hosts who were finding it difficult to cope up with India's rhythm, but after some tough battles in the midfield, the Japanese team earned themselves back-to-back penalty corners in the 42nd minute.

However, India's defense was up to the task, and made sure that they protected their lead. India also had a penalty corner in the 45th minute, but could not extend their lead.

The first chance of the last quarter came India's way but Kageyama made a diving save. Japan too got back-to-back penalty corners but Indian Goalkeeper Savita made a great save on the second attempt to make sure that India saw out a 2-1 win.

Sanches, Boateng could leave Bayern

AFP ■ MUNICH

Bayern Munich CEO Karl-Heinz Rummenigge has suggested that Renato Sanches and Jerome Boateng may be heading for the exit door at Bayern Munich, telling Sky Germany that both players will find it difficult to break into the first team this season.

Portuguese midfielder Sanches and German defender Boateng have both pushed for a move away from Bayern in recent months. Both have dropped down the pecking order in their positions.

Sanches, 22, was fined 10,000 Euros ($11,100) by the club after he publicly complained of a lack of game time and stated his desire to leave following a cameo appearance in Bayern's 2-2 draw with Hertha Berlin last Friday.

"Renato is a player who wants to play, and I can understand that. We need to find a solution that also suits the coach and the club," Rummenigge told Sky.

The Bayern CEO expressed sympathy for Sanches, who has made just 17 starts for Bayern since arriving three years ago with a winner's medal and Young Player of the Tournament award from Euro 2016.

"He came to us as a golden boy and newly crowned European Champion three years ago. Now he has lost his place in the national team, and he needs to play if he wants to get it back," said Rummenigge.

Yet the CEO admitted that it would be "not easy" for Sanches to compete with new signing Philippe Coutinho.

He added that the same was true of veteran defender Jerome Boateng, following the arrival of Lucas Hernandez and Benjamin Pavard.

"(Boateng) will not find it easy to get regular game time," said Rummenigge.

"If he wants to leave the club, he needs to tell us."

Boateng, 30, appeared certain to leave Bayern at the end of last season after club president Uli Hoennes advised him to "find a new club".

Yet his departure was thrown into doubt after Mats Hummels returned to Borussia Dortmund. Coach Niko Kovac insisted last week that the 2014 World Cup winner remained part of his plans.

Paine backs Warner to hit form

AFP ■ LEEDS

Australia captain Tim Paine says the tourists will not be intimidated by England fast bowler Jofra Archer and has backed misfiring batsman David Warner to hit form in the third Ashes Test at Headingley.

Paine was full of praise for Archer, whose raw pace electrified the drawn second Test as he took five wickets and peppered the Australians with bouncers, leaving Steve Smith with concussion that has ruled him out of the match in Leeds.

But Paine said Australia's batsmen were used to facing pace and had a few useful speedsters of their own.

"It's fantastic to see a young cricketer with so much talent come onto the scene and it was a bit of a buzz to face him at Lord's," Paine wrote in a column for the Australian newspaper.

"He's fast for sure, but in Australia we've been brought up facing guys of his pace."

"Every time we have a net (session) we have Mitchell Starc, Pat Cummins and James Pattinson coming at us like we are the opposition."

Paine said Smith's replacement Marnus Labuschagne, who scored 59 when he came on as Test cricket's inaugural concussion substitute, showed the depth of Australia's squad.

He was unconcerned about Warner's lack of form, which has seen the left-hander score only 18 runs in four innings. "David Warner hasn't hit his straps yet and I notice people getting a bit trigger happy on that subject, but I am not worried," he wrote.

"We are 1-0 up in the series and he hasn't got out of the blocks. He is a match winner... he is also the most mentally tough cricketer I know. He is due a score and that is a dividend I am looking forward to."

Meanwhile, former Australia paceman Andy Bichel has labelled England captain Joe Root a "blatant cheat" over a disputed catch on the final day of the second Test.

Root took a low catch to end Labuschagne's innings, with replays suggesting the ball may have bounced first, although the England skipper later insisted it had carried.

"It didn't carry. We can see that," Bichel told Macquarie Sports Radio.

"It's ricocheted off the player as well so it's bobbled a little bit to him, so therefore he'd know if he's picked it up on the half volley — it's blatant cheating."

'SAME OLD SMITH'

Australia captain Tim Paine is expecting the "same old Steve Smith" when the star batsman eventually returns to Ashes action.

"Steve Smith's the best player in the world, he will come back in the next Test, if it's the next Test, or the tour game and we're expecting him to be the same old Steve Smith," said Paine.

"He's a high-quality player and he'll adapt as he always has."

Smith, whose Test average of 63.24 is exceeded only by all-time great Donald Bradman, marked his return to Test duty after a 12-month ball-tampering ban with innings of 144 and 142 in Australia's 251-run win in the first Test at Edgbaston before making 92 at Lord's.

"Steve loves batting, I don't think that's going to change," Paine told reporters at Headingley on Wednesday.

"Marnus is strange, he seems to enjoy getting hit on the head, so he's a different kettle of fish altogether. Marnus has handled himself exceptionally, his innings was unbelievable after that happened."

Smith could return to action in the three-day tour game against Derbyshire from August 29-31, with the fourth Test in a five-match series at Old Trafford beginning on September 4.

The wicketkeeper added: "Clearly they are huge shoes to fill and we don't put all that pressure on Marnus."

Meanwhile, England captain Joe Root said he would have no qualms about a player withdrawing from a match because of concussion.

"I think you have to give the responsibility to the doctors and if they say he's not fit, regardless of the situation in the game, then that has to stand," said Root during his pre-match conference.

Prajnesh goes down to Paire

PTI ■ NORTH CAROLINA

Profligate Prajnesh Gunneswaran went down to world No 30 Benoit Paire in the second round to crash out of the Winston Salem Open ATP 250 tournament here.

The left-handed Indian, ranked 89, could convert just one of his five break chances to suffer a 3-6, 5-7 loss to his French opponent in a match that lasted one hour and 10 minutes on Tuesday night.

Prajnesh struggled from the beginning as Paire broke his serve to take an early 2-0 lead. The Indian could not recover from that, conceding the first set tamely.

In the second set, Prajnesh held his serve but faltered in the 11th game giving Paire the match-winning lead.

Serving for the match, the Frenchman made no mistakes and avenged his Indian Wells loss from earlier this year.

Although Paire committed more double faults than Prajnesh, he hit 14 aces compared to the Indian's three.

In the doubles event, wild card entrants Leander Paes and his Israeli partner Jonathan Erlich, crashed out in the first round.

The Paes-Erlich pair lost to the duo of Rajeev Ram and Joe Salisbury 2-6, 3-6.

NAGAL IN 2ND ROUND

NEW YORK: Young Indian tennis player Sumit Nagal earned his first win at a Grand Slam qualifying event, knocking out seasoned Japanese Tatsumi Ito in straight sets at the US Open qualifiers, here.

Nagal, placed at a career-best 190 right now, knocked out the 133rd ranked and 26th seed 7-6 (6), 6-2 in one hour and 52 minutes on Tuesday.

Last year, he had competed in the qualifiers of the Australian Open, the French Open and the Wimbledon Championships but could not win a round.

This is Nagal's first attempt at making the Grand Slam singles main draw this season in which he enjoyed considerable success and broke into the top-200.

Sindhu makes positive start

Two-time Silver medalist PV Sindhu produced a commanding performance in her opening match at the BWF World Championships here on Wednesday.

Sindhu, who had reached the finals of Indonesia Open last month, looked in good touch as she controlled the rallies and outsourced Chinese Taipei's Pai Yu Po 21-14, 21-14 in a 43-minute contest.

The fifth seeded Indian, who received a bye in the opening round, is likely to face USA's Beiwen Zhang, seeded ninth, in the pre-quarterfinals.

Sindhu, an Olympic Silver medalist, had lost to Zhang at the India Open finals last year.

In the first game, Sindhu moved ahead from 5-5 to slowly create a gap and entered the interval with a 11-7 lead.

After the break, Sindhu continued to surge and grabbed six game points when Pai made an error in judgement at the back-line. The Indian sealed it with a cross court return.

Sindhu zoomed to a 6-1 lead in the second game before Pai started constructing the rallies and narrowed the deficit to 5-7.

Sindhu's unforced errors also made life easy for the Taiwanese girl, who showed some great skills and managed to enter the interval with a 11-10 lead after Sindhu found the net.

The Indian, however, changed gears after the break, dishing out some good-looking strokes to eventually enter match point at 20-14 when her rival missed a shuttle at the backline.

She sealed the match next with a precise on-the-line return.

Among others, the Indian pairing of Jakkapudi Meghana and Poorvisha S Ram went down 8-21, 18-21 to eighth seeds Shihō Tanaka and Koharu Yonemoto of Japan in the women's doubles competition.

Roy set to play in third Test

AFP ■ LONDON

England batsman Jason Roy has passed a concussion test after being hit in the nets ahead of the third Ashes Test against Australia at Headingley.

The 29-year-old opener was struck by a throw-down from ex-England international Marcus Trescothick, working with the team in a temporary coaching capacity, during practice on Tuesday.

Roy was assessed after taking the blow and was able to continue batting. But he also required a follow-up check on the eve of the match on Wednesday to determine any delayed symptoms.

Roy, 29, will be assessed again before the third Test starts on Thursday.

Meanwhile Ollie Pope, a Surrey team-mate of Roy's, has been placed on standby.

The 21-year-old Pope, who has played two Tests, is now on his way to Leeds.

But England captain Joe Root said he expected Roy to play, telling reporters at Headingley on Wednesday: "Jason's been monitored quite closely as you'd expect."

"He's undergone a couple of concussion tests so far and scored really well. So as it stands, I fully expect him to be fit and ready to go tomorrow." Roy averages just 10 in four innings this series, having only made his Test debut earlier this season after starring at the top of the order in England's victorious World Cup winning campaign. England coach Trevor Baylis said Roy may be more suited to the middle-order in Test cricket but Root insisted he could be a success as an opening batsman. "I obviously think he should open, otherwise he'll be batting at four," said Root.

"I think there's a lot of talk about the batting order because of the variety of options we have."

"At no stage are we trying to reinvent the wheel."

STRUGGLING

"But we've got to play to our strengths and be quite flexible over the course of the series. But I feel Jason can have a real big impact at the start of an innings."

"It might not have happened just yet but we fully expect him to go out and do that."

Meanwhile Australia captain Tim Paine, whose Ashes-holders are 1-0 up in the five-match series, said his side were not taking Roy lightly.

"Opening the batting in Test cricket in England is difficult," he said.

"I know our guys are struggling a little bit as well to get the runs they would like. It's international cricket, it's tough," the wicketkeeper added.

"We've seen Jason Roy play amazing innings in one-day cricket, we've seen David Warner do the same thing in the early days of his career, and sometimes it takes a little bit of time to get used to Test cricket and the differences in that."

"We've seen that Jason is a highly-skilled batsman and on his day he can take a game away from you so at no point do we think or treat him like we've got the wood over him."

MAINTAINING HEALTHY SPINE

Standing, sitting, or lying down in one place for an extended amount of time isn't healthy for your back. Relieve the strain of the day whenever you can by getting up, walking around, and doing some simple stretches, says Team Viva

Eight out of 10 people will suffer from back or neck pain at some point in their life. Acute pain is abrupt, intense pain that subsides after a period of days or weeks. However, some people continue to suffer from pain that continues despite nonsurgical or surgical treatment methods. This long-term pain is called chronic pain.

Whether you're at an office party or a bar for happy hour, avoid sitting in an awkward position or standing in one place. Move around the room to avoid putting pressure on your spine, which can happen if you stand in one place for too long.

We all know smoking is a serious health risk, and smokers are also more likely to experience back pain than nonsmokers. One reason for this is that nicotine restricts blood flow to the disks in the spine. This can cause them to dry out, crack, or rupture. Smoking also reduces the amount of oxygen in the blood, which causes a reduction in nourishment to the muscles and tendons in the back. An unhealthy, weak back is more vulnerable to accidental strains and pulls that cause back pain.

Improper or heavy lifting is a common cause of back pain, but it doesn't only happen to people who lift heavy boxes on the job. Carrying a bulky laptop bag, suitcase, camera, or a load of groceries can also cause a strain on your back. Whenever possible, take some weight off your shoulders by carrying less, distributing the weight to both sides of your body, or shifting the weight from shoulder to shoulder. Consider using a rolling cart or bag with wheels for heavier loads like bags of groceries or boxes of files. When sitting in an office chair, use the same good posture techniques you use when standing. It's critical to keep good posture and support your back when sitting down, especially if you do it for several hours per day. Choose a quality chair that provides firm support for your lower back, and make sure your knees are a little higher than your hips when you sit.

Good posture isn't just a way to look more proper. It protects the intricate pieces of your spine to keep them healthy and functioning properly. Bad posture puts strain and stress on your back and can change the architecture of your spine. Avoid rounding your shoulders, slouching, or bending sideways when standing.

Wear comfortable, low-heeled shoes to prevent back pain. They reduce the strain on your back while standing. Shoes with less than a 1-inch heel are the best bet for your back.

Strong bones can help prevent osteoporosis. It's one of the most common causes of back pain later in life, particularly for women. Keep the bones in your spine strong by consuming plenty of calcium and vitamin D.

Sleeping on your back puts pressure on your spine. Elevating your legs slightly relieves this pressure on your back as you sleep. You can cut that pressure in half by placing a pillow under your knees.

If you think you've hurt your back, ease up on the pressure you're putting on your back. Many people actually have little choice in the matter—their back pain will force them to drop to their knees or “freeze” in a bent-over position. Others will be able to function somewhat normally, but with uncomfortable pain. Contrary to popular belief, studies on acute back pain actually show that a few days of restricting your activity, and taking the appropriate over-the-counter medication, is all that many people really need to allow the strained muscles to relax and unwind. However, it is important to talk with your health care provider before taking any medication, especially if you are taking other medications or have a chronic medical condition.

Inflammation is the body's protective response to irritation or injury and is characterised by redness, warmth, swelling and pain. To aid in healing and relieve pain, use of over-the-counter medications such as ibuprofen, naproxen sodium, aspirin or ketoprofen is often recommended. These medications are called non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs (NSAIDs), and they can effectively reduce inflammation and relieve pain. Over-the-counter NSAIDs are intended for short-term use, so never use one for more than a week unless it is recommended by your health care professional.

In some cases, acetaminophen may be recommended. While not an anti-inflammatory drug, acetaminophen can be effective in relieving pain without the risk of gastrointestinal problems that have been associated with prolonged use of NSAIDs. However, acetaminophen can also cause side effects, so it is best to follow these basic rules before taking any medication: always read the directions on the label; watch for the side effects listed; and consult your health care provider before you begin self-treatment.

Studies maintain that limited movement of muscles and joints is more effective for treating simple back pain than passive methods such as rest and drugs. Restricting your activity is important, but as the pain eases, you should move your muscles and joints past the point of the initial restriction. Simple exercises can help this process, but it is important to consult your health care provider or a back specialist for the exercise program that is right for you.

Using correct posture and keeping your spine in alignment are the most important things you can do for your neck and back bears most of your weight, so proper alignment of this section can prevent injury to your vertebrae, discs, and other portions of the spine. If you have back or neck pain, you may need to make adjustments to your daily standing, sitting, and sleeping habits and learn proper ways to lift and bend. Your workspace may need to be rearranged to keep your spine from slouching. Because extra pounds can make back pain worse, you should maintain a weight that is appropriate for your height and body frame.

'Every child should have the right start'

Actress SONAM KAPOOR has joined the Bollywood bandwagon spreading awareness on children's rights, as part of #WhyTheGap campaign promoted by Save The Children India.

The actress shared a photo of her school days and tweeted, "My school days were the happiest. I believe that education is the path to independence and freedom. We should all be asking #WhyTheGap and working towards #TheRightStart for every child."

She believes that every child should have the right start because true independence can be achieved through education.

'I know that all my films have not made wonders at the box office, but that has not stopped me from experimenting. Even if they don't work, I am glad about the roles I am offered. They are strong and well edged-out. As an actor, I am always looking for something different which is a new challenge and a great learning.'

Ordering food online or getting heavy discounts on meals during a dinner at some outlet has changed the definition of how we look at eating out today. And certainly, Zomato and the likes of it have a huge role to play here. However, even though this might have made ordering and deliveries easier and even increased the popularity of the outlets associated with such platforms, it never gave a clear picture of who actually raked in the profits and who stood at the other end.

Well, picture this. A person called X has started his own venture, conceptualising a tiny, cloud kitchen tucked in the corner of the city, which serves the food only through deliveries via various food apps online. He listed his outlet on Zomato and Swiggy. However, a few months later, the advent of a set of new rules by Zomato, which restricted the food preparation time for restaurants to 15 minutes, disappointed X. He and his team prepare the dishes from the scratch and cannot finish working on them in such a short span. Zomato, to keep up the delivery game, also instructed the restaurants that fines would be levied on them if they delay the acceptance of orders or miss the deadlines. This might have benefited the food delivery service app in increasing its popularity but X certainly believes that such apps cannot dictate what and how he should sell to his customers. Another factor that hurts him and many like him in the industry is the concept of deep-discounting by food aggregators that has made many restaurants realise that they are losing more than they're gaining. And it has started to hurt the margins.

Launching a logging out campaign against the dine-in schemes, around 1,200 restaurants in major cities have delisted themselves from food aggregator apps like Zomato Gold, Dineout, Magicpin, NearBuy, etc. The campaign is led by the National Restaurants Association of India (NRAI). President Rahul Singh recently said, "It's decided that all aggregators will rejig their features, which will allow the restaurant-customer ecosystem to detox from the addiction of deep discounts that has crippled the industry." As per the data, Zomato has said that it would consider redesigning its Gold membership, which allows users to avail one or two dishes or drinks free at the associated restaurants. It will also put on hold its Zomato Infinity offer, which enables the 'Eat As Much As You Can' offer. Over the past six days, Zomato has lost one per cent of its restaurant partner base of its membership-based dining-out scheme service, Gold. Zomato founder and chief-executive Deepinder Goyal had tweeted against the campaign, urging restaurant owners to stop it and rather plan out sustainable options together. The tweet also added that the aggregator will make modifications to Zomato Gold, "which will result in a win-win situation for restaurants and consumers."

The online food delivery and dine-in aggregators, including Zomato, have now agreed to tone down and rationalise their offers and heavy discounts. Ankit

DISCOUNTS NOT A PRIVILEGE

As the #Logout campaign is making waves in the food industry, here is a take of restaurateurs, who believe that units are not in the best of shape and as a result, food aggregators are scavenging from them. The latter, too, are now meeting them half way. By CHAHAK MITTAL

Mehrotra, co-founder and CEO, Dineout, tells us that the follow-up decision had been taken after they had an "insightful" meeting with the NRAI and restaurant-owners regarding the campaign. He says that NRAI has acknowledged their "restaurant-first approach," and points out that over the past eight years, "we have always believed in sustainable discounting. Each of our 18,000 restaurant partners across 17 cities are free to decide their own promotions depending upon the day of the week and the time of the day and we do not believe in enforcing a common discounting strategy."

He draws comparisons and says that Gourmet Passport acts as a discovery programme for their curated list of 1,700 restaurants, "which restricts the unlimited 1+1 offer to three free dishes every restaurant per year, whereas, other platforms offer 1+1 every day of the year." He says that however, they are currently in constant discussion with restaurant-owners to create a "win-win" situation for all.

Zorawar Kalra, founder and managing director at Massive Restaurants, says, "In an industry with already razor-thin margins, the deep discounting being offered by some of the aggregators creates huge pressure on the industry." He points out how the adoption rates were initially high to get on to this agreement of platforms due to competitive pressures. "The picture that was initially shown was that of an increasing size of the industry. However, what started out as something that would increase footfalls to the restaurants and in general, increase revenues, enhance the guest experience, has turned into massive discounts that render unprofitable sales. In many cases, it ends up costing the restaurant to service these offers. The restaurant lives and breathes due to its patrons and will go to the ends of the earth for them. We believe in a sustainable ecosystem whereby aggregators help increase the size of the industry in a sustainable manner by focussing on quality rather than discounting," he says and suggests that only then can restaurants and aggregator platforms jointly thrive. Savar Malhotra, managing partner of The Embassy Restaurant, Connaught Place, believes that it is a great initiative taken by NRAI and they are supporting the campaign because "we feel aggregators are misusing their powers and dictating business terms to us."

Certainly, aggregators have built their products without taking into account any inputs from the restaurants. "They need to understand that the restaurant is the star. They are using our products to sell discounting addition to the customer which is dangerous. Addiction of any kind is poor and especially, if you give discounts, it only has a negative effect on the industry in the long run," says Kalra and goes on to add that a typical margin of the restaurant is 15 to 18 per cent and some of these discounts amount to more than 25 to 30 per cent. Says he, "And sometimes it is even 50 per cent, which means the restaurant is losing money every time they serve a customer, which comes through one of these platforms."

Pointing towards the GST reforms, where the input tax credit was removed from the restaurant industry, he says, it had even bigger "delusional and deflationary pressure" on the industry and as a result, restaurants are finding it difficult to stay afloat. "One also needs to understand that the industry is the second largest employee of human capital in the country and contributes to almost two per cent of country's GDP. A few years ago before these aggregator platforms came on, their growth graph was good. The industry was growing at 21 per cent annually, which means every four years, it was doubling and margins were good," he says. It was the time when customers used to be happy when they were given a "complementary dessert or a cocktail." However, today, the difference has come. Even if the customers liked the place but didn't get a sop, they would walk out. "And restaurants simply cannot afford this. If the margin is 15 per cent, how can I pay a 25 per cent discount? It would mean I am losing out 10 per cent on every dish that I serve," adds Kalra.

Talking about how they can redesign their schemes, Malhotra says, "Restaurants don't have heavy margins to afford the 'buy one get one free' concept. Also, we are here to make money and not to work for aggregators. Hence, any scheme that will be introduced should take the cost of products into account." Kalra suggests that the restaurants can serve better only if these platforms "do not come in the way" because Indians love eating out and it's always been a source of entertainment for them. He says, "We spend the highest amount of disposable income in eating out than any other form of entertainment. The restaurant industry is 40 times larger than Bollywood. The removal of discounts might create certain interim problems of some short-lived issues, where people who were addicted to discounts might start eating out less. But this will definitely change because people inherently love going out. Moreover, since the restaurant will be more profitable, it will be able to focus more on high quality rather than dilute quality to serve the discounted customers."

However, there are two questions which arise here. First, if these platforms are completely put away, many people and delivery partners would be left unemployed. What would happen to them? Second, there are many food outlets which had never associated themselves with these food apps. They have run on their original prices. Why did the registered restaurants then accept them in the first place, knowing that this might land them in losses?

Let's express art in motion

Kuchipudi dancer ARUNIMA KUMAR tells SAKSHI SHARMA that she wants to break the traditional notion associated with the dance form and use it as therapy to lift others

As newer dance forms make their way into the art industry, it is important to revive these traditional dance forms and teach the younger generation about their richness too. Ustad Bismillah Khan awardee and Kuchipudi dancer Arunima Kumar feels the urge to fill this void and takes dance to places it has never been before.

She practises dance therapy with cancer patients in hospitals as she is a keen believer of inclusive art. "We tell them stories through dance, do chants, slokas and a lot of rhythm and footwork next to their beds. This brightens them up and helps them validate their existence," says she.

Arunima recalls one of the incidents when a girl, who could sing well, sang with them and the entire ward joined her. It was a treat to their eyes. Such positive activities help them regain their confidence in life. And in a similar way, she makes the cancer survivors dance as they start getting better. Everyone has a state of distress in life at some stage or the other but Arunima feels that when you are involved in art, it has the capacity to lift you up and teleport you to a very different world altogether, where you forget the worries of life.

She believes that art deserves to travel places rather than sticking to the stage. "There shouldn't be any restrictions in dance. It should encompass a diverse range of human activities and their ways of expression," she says and adds, "Folk dance culture began from farmers who danced and celebrated the harvest season. And people enjoyed that together irrespective of the age gap or the differences in financial status between them." But things are different today. She points towards the rigid structure that we are slowly getting accustomed to and it needs to break down. Her first step towards this, she says, was "visiting villages and slums and teach the natives about dance and its diverse applications across the world. When I interact with them and answer their questions, the kind of happiness I see in their eyes is unparalleled."

She is trying to change the dynamics of Kuchipudi and Indian classical dance across the globe by organising festivals that would showcase its richness.

She will be organising the third edition of the Kuchipudi International Festival in November in London, which would provide a platform to 80 to 100 artists to show their talent. It will include her students ranging from the age of four to 60, Natayanjali group from Cambridge, Bharatanatyam group and various others. She says, "It is a festival where we promote different dance forms and music but the focus remains on Kuchipudi. We also invite guest artists and facilitate inno-novative collaborations." Through this she wants to inspire children as they see amazing artists perform so beautifully. This generates curiosity in them to know the dance form and its roots. "Otherwise they just perform with each other and get bored after a few years. Through this, they are not just looking among themselves but their seniors as well," she adds. It also helps to inspire their parents and tell them how important it is to teach the child about our traditions and dance forms at an early age. The audience consists of a lot of foreigners also, this in turn is taking Indian classical beyond the borders. The festival also includes dances on mythological tales, the tales of Vishnu and Kalangan Rathna.

Talking about one of the most innovative collaborations with a step chain studio, she says, "They have dancers who perform Latin American style on wheelchair. This year I have integrated Kuchipudi with it." She explains the idea behind this that such a dance form challenges the perception of body. When it comes to a disabled person, we look at them with sympathy as they can't dance. But, sometimes we cannot fathom their potential. "The way they dance with their challenge surprises me because they do it so beautifully," Arunima adds.

She has collaborated with Baluji foundation, the world's only blind orchestra and created a piece called antardrishti (inner vision) with them. It is a blind cast of musicians and four dancers who could see. She did that show in darkness as she wanted the audience to feel it and understand how it feels when your world is dark. Citing the experience as an amazing one, she says, "While I was working with them they could sense when I am well and when I am not. They could figure out my mood."

She developed her love affair with Kuchipudi while she was learning it from Jayarama Rao and Vanashree Rao. Arunima says she found a home in terms of her dance school because she learnt a lot of tradition and history from them. Along with this she used to have make-up and abhinay session too. Talking about her journey, Arunima says, "It was a beautiful journey initially but was difficult to manage with my studies but I clinged onto it. I would skip a film with my friends but never skip the dance class." She feels it is this commitment which helped her step the ladder of success.

Talking about the strong identity India is gaining at an international level, Arunima says, "I am very proud of that. I proudly wear my Indian outfits and bindi but I am extremely contemporary in my outlook. I understand the aesthetics of my society so that I stay relevant." But there is a huge gap to promote classical Indian art in the UK and Arunima wanted to fill this gap. She is trying to embed her art in the DNA of the British society. Indian art can surpass barriers, even if people don't understand our language they know what we do. She wants to make this art accessible to the global audience. Arunima feels that just like yoga, an entire ecosystem needs to be created to revive dance forms as well. She says, "Indian dance has music and techniques and is an extension of yoga. Our poses, postures and rhythm coupled with mythology offers so much altogether."

She works on social issues like mental illness and domestic violence as it affects her deeply and is close to her heart. Arunima shares further that she loves to integrate with anything that affects her and her performances are making a difference. Arunima says, "I am glad that at least I am provoking debate, I am breaking barriers. It's always difficult for me to do it, when I start I don't know how it will go, but at the end of the day when the artist and the audience have something to say about the performance, I think I have done my bit."

Marvel breaks up with Spiderman

The Marvel Cinematic Universe will no longer produce Spider-Man films, after negotiations fell through between Disney and Sony Pictures.

The two studios have been sharing the brand Spider-Man across a plethora of films since 2015. As part of the previous agreement, Marvel had also been acting as producer of the 2017 and 2019 standalone Sony Spider-Man films starring Tom Holland. Both films were blockbusters.

However, Disney and Sony recently broke the deal as they are unable to reach new terms for funding of future films. Marvel president Kevin Feige, who served as creative lead in the two latest films of the franchise — Spider-Man: Far From Home and Spider-Man: Homecoming, will not have the same role in the two movies reportedly in the works, unless an agreement is reached.

A statement has been issued on behalf of Sony Pictures on their official Twitter handle. "Much of today's news about Spider-Man has mischaracterised recent discussions about Kevin Feige's involvement in the franchise. We are disappointed, but respect Disney's decision not to have him continue as a lead producer of our next live action Spider-Man film. We hope this might change in the future, but understand that the many new responsibilities that Disney has given him - including all their newly added Marvel properties - do not allow time for him to work on IP they do not own. Kevin is terrific and we are grateful for his help and guidance and appreciate the path he has helped put us on, which we will continue," the statement read.

The news left many Spider-Man fans in shock. Deadpool actor Ryan Reynolds also expressed grief. One fan tagged Tom Holland and Reynolds in a tweet, asking them for a crossover film featuring Spider-Man and Deadpool.

"Can we get a Spider-Man and Deadpool movie now," the person wrote. Responding to the tweet, Reynolds said, "You can. But you can only see it in my heart."

Not only this, actor Jeremy Renner, who played Hawkeye in the Marvel films so far, tweeted, "Hey Sony Pictures, we want Spider-Man back please."

The tourism minister of Uttarakhand, Satpal Maharaj, talks about his plans for enhancing Uttarakhand tourism in the coming years. He is exploring possibilities for broadening the trek route and upgrading the infrastructure to facilitate the process of tourism.

Uttarakhand is becoming a destination for winters. Maharaj says, "We will make an Alpine village during winters. At that time many tourists come who are interested in investing." This will help the state in meeting its demands. He has suggested the ministers to hold the next meeting in Kashmir so that they can work together and exchange their inputs which will help each other grow. He has been to Kashmir but was always in between the Armed Forces as the chairman of Defence Committee.

Uttarakhand is hit by landslides and floods too often. Therefore, it is the need of the hour to work on disaster management. Maharaj is making efforts to make the tourism of the state world class. But there are various things that hold him back. He says, "We need to have skilled people and expertise. How many people understand the potential of Uttarakhand?" They need to be aware of its future prospects and there is a dire need to develop the equipment for the training of various water sports too.

To add to the process he has written letters to his MLAs and asked them about "haunted or old houses and hot water springs nearby" so that he can develop and utilise them for some useful purpose. He shares about his idea of air balloons in Kumbh but the authorities denied. "They felt that it will collide but it will not. They don't have an understanding of the employment that it will generate," he adds. Talking about the void in the system he shares that he interacted with the film council and requested them to come for shoots in the state. But when they came, they were questioned by forest authorities. "We need to erode this loophole at various levels. When people from other states come, we should try to give them a personal touch. It will add charm to the beauty of the state. Local tourism is a good way to open local avenues for employment but infrastructure and water issues still needs to be worked upon," says he.

The state is looking for alternate Char Dham routes so that it becomes accessible to everyone and will increase tourists also. He has contacted the ropeway firms to provide their facilities at more places and also made a point that Ramnagar and Vikasnagar can become the routes for the yatra. The arrangements are being tightened up and work on infrastructure is being carried out heavily so that pilgrims do not face any difficulties.

Uttarakhand is gradually becoming a high end tourist state. It is planning to introduce mobile caravans which will offer various facilities and give a new sense of tourism coupled with luxury homestays. And as trekking routes are becoming more advanced, it will help in attracting domestic and international tourists as well. The efforts are clearly evident through Uttarakhand Tourism Development Board's (UTDB) campaign, #DoTheNew, which suggests to do something that would connect with the nature. This has helped the state to grab eyeballs from all across. The state is also geared up to hold the car rally and white water rafting in the forthcoming months.

India to compete in WorldSkills

The 48-member Indian team representing the country at the WorldSkills was given a grand send-off at a ceremony. It was organised by National Skill Development Corporation (NSDC) under the aegis of Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship (MSDE) to motivate the participants as they gear up to pit their skills against the best in the world. India is the sixth largest team that will take part in the competition.

Nearly 1,500 competitors from 60 countries will compete in 56 skill competitions at this mega event in Kazan, Russia, which is on till August 27. Our team will participate in 44 skills, including mobile robotics, prototype modelling, hair-dressing, baking, confectionary and patisserie, welding, brick laying, car painting, floristry and so much more.

Dr Mahendra Nath Pandey, Minister for Skill Development and Entrepreneurship, said, "My heartfelt congratulations to the 48 of you. You all will now represent the country at the world's biggest skill competition. My advice to you is to compete in the true spirit of participation and make India proud on the global platform and at the same time learn from your international peers competing with you. Participating at events of such scale adds to the larger cause of skill development, which is integral to Prime Minister Narendra Modi's vision of a skilled India."

Around 75 per cent of participants come from tier II and tier III cities, with 25 per cent from rural areas. Candidates have been exposed to international training with industry support from over 100 companies.

The Government of India has taken major initiatives to bring development in the Union Territories of Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh. The Institute of Company Secretaries of India aligning with the initiatives of the Government of India has launched a special fee waiver scheme for the students there.

Launching the scheme, Jyamyang Tsering Namgyal, Member of Parliament (LS), Ladakh, appreciated the efforts of the Institute and said, "This initiative will immensely contribute towards bringing the students of Ladakh to the main stream."

Informing about the scheme, CS Ranjeet Pandey, president of ICSI said, "The Institute of Company Secretaries of India has always considered itself a proud partner in the varied initiatives of the Government of India. Though inclusive growth has been an agenda for the Government for long, we at ICSI firmly believe that the achievement of such a goal finds foundation in making available quality education to one and all. We are hopeful that this initiative shall open doors of education and opportunity for the youth of the nation."

Students belonging to J & K and Ladakh, who have cleared their 12th or bachelor's degree shall be eligible for fee waiver while registering for CS Foundation Programme and CS Executive Programme respectively.

It is expected that the above initiatives will not only play significant role in promoting excellence but will also empower the youth of J & K and Ladakh and bring them to the mainstream by nurturing their brilliance.

Modi inaugurates BHEL project in Bhutan

BHEL has installed 4x180 MW Bmangdechhu hydroelectric project at Thimpu, Bhutan. It was inaugurated by Narendra Modi in the presence of Bhutan's Prime Minister, Dr Lotay Tshering.

With this, it has demonstrated its engineering and project management skills and a commitment to undertake challenging jobs as part of its responsibility towards relation building with neighbouring countries. The Mangdechhu Hydroelectric Project Authority (MHPA) officials have appreciated this effort.

BHEL has executed the electro-mechanical package for the project which includes design, manufacture, supply, transportation, storage, erection, testing and commissioning of generating units and associated auxiliaries including pelton turbines, generators, governors, MIV, etc along with balance of plant items — bus duct, DC system, EOT cranes etc. The equipment has been supplied from BHEL's manufacturing units at Bhopal, Bengaluru, Rudrapur, Hyderabad, Jhansi and Mumbai, while erection and commissioning on site was carried out by the company's power sector in eastern region, Kolkata.

The run-of-the-river hydroelectric plant constructed on Mangdechhu river in Bhutan has a gross head of 692 metre, with four numbers pelton turbines generating 720 MW from the project. The project has been executed under difficult terrain conditions with limited road connectivity as well as frequent disruptions during monsoons. This pelton turbine is the highest rating vertical turbine, designed, manufactured and supplied by BHEL outside India. The state-of-the-art valve DNA-based plant controls have also been deployed by BHEL for the first time for a hydro power project outside India.

Sanrakshika celebrates its sixth foundation day

CISF Wives Welfare Association, Sanrakshika, has been playing a significant role in helping the families and wards of CISF personnel to attain their full potential and thereby empowering them to contribute in growth of their family and society at large.

The association celebrated its sixth foundation day at Siri Fort Auditorium. Sonal Shah, wife of Union Home Minister, was the chief guest on the occasion.

Ranjeeta Ranjan, president of the association, said that it has been our endeavour that every member of the CISF family should become independent and capable so that a strong society can be created. "Since its inception, the association has carried out many activities such as, DG's merit award in academics, DG's scholarship exclusively for wards of martyrs, financial assistance to specially-abled wards of CISF, opening of computer centers and skill development centers at various locations," she added.

SRM TO SET UP A COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

With agriculture emerging as a competitive domain to traditional industry driven companies, SRM Institute of Science and Technology plans to set up a college of agriculture in Acharapakkam in Chengalpattu district. The chancellor Dr TR Paarivendhar announced on Monday. The chancellor Dr TR Paarivendhar, who is also the MP of Perambalur, said that 200 acres has been reserved for the college, where students can cultivate their own land in a rural ambience to emerge as agri-entrepreneurs instead of pursuing a career in an MNC. "You have to apply your mind on how to do agriculture and horticulture with modern technology and earn five times more than what you would earn in an MNC or by pursuing a career in other fields," he said.

Strike at Ordnance Factories

The month long strike in response to the call given by the three recognised Defence Federations commenced on Tuesday. The strike has been undertaken to oppose the proposed corporatisation of the Ordnance Factories.

It is, however, emphasised that the proposed policy of corporatisation of Ordnance Factories by the Government of India is aimed at providing greater flexibility in day-to-day functioning, increased operational freedom and autonomy in decision making, leading to enhanced productivity. This will enable the Ordnance Factories to respond faster to the futuristic needs of the Armed Forces and provide an impetus to the export potential of its products.

Syndicate bank started the consultative workshops for idea generation at grass root level on Saturday. The objective of the workshop was to provide bottom-up approach to stimulate the ideation process at the bank. The ideas aimed at optimising banking by increasing the use of technology and aligning banking with the national priorities.

A campaign organised by UCO bank talked about generation of ideas and consultation till branch level as per the directions issued by Department of Financial Services, Ministry of Finance. Its primary objective was to align banking with national priorities, stimulate ideas and inculcate a sense of involvement among bankers at the branch level.

RIL joins hands with Neva BNP COUNCILLORS GET A BIG BLOW

RElan, the next-gen fabrics from RIL (Reliance Industries Limited), has joined hands with fashion retailer Neva Garments, based out of Ludhiana.

The arrangement will enable RElan and Neva to offer the best quality solutions to consumers across the country and meet their ever growing demand for comfortable apparel in activewear, athleisure, sportswear, sleepwear and innerwear.

Speaking about the partnership, Nirmal Kumar Jain, managing director, Neva Garments Limited said, "Neva has been a cotton dominated brand in all its segments. For the last three to four years, we have diversified into active wear category, which is growing at a rapid rate."

Further Niti Jain, director of Neva, added, "Our quilted thermals are well appreciated and have a strong presence across the country with a loyal customer base."

RElan has made a strong impression by bringing in new generation of micro-polyesters with various functional properties like moisture management, wicking, odour-free antimicrobial and more. The products like kooltex, feelfresh, airtex have a great potential to combine with cotton and also on a stand-alone basis to form great garments with aesthetics and at affordable prices. Thus there is a great synergy between both the brands.

Injured by the negative and malicious behaviour of some councillors, additional municipal commissioner Shiv Pujan Yadav has transferred himself to the Lucknow directorate. The transfer is considered a major setback for some BJP councillors and the mayor. This is the first time in the history of Ghaziabad municipal corporation that an officer had written to the UP government and expressed his desire to transfer.

Ghaziabad is considered as kamdhenu district for officers of Uttar Pradesh. Officers use political access to get the goods there. A few days ago, some BJP councillors accused Yadav of taking ₹78 lakh as scam, including financial irregularities in appointments of goods. The committee was made in which the allegations were found malicious. Despite getting a clean chit from the inquiry committee, some BJP councillors tried to keep the matter intact. Therefore, Yadav wrote to the Uttar Pradesh directorate about his transfer, and the government transferred him. This shows that some councillors keep making ungrateful complaints against the officers to take them under pressure.

India gear up for Test Championship opener against Windies on tricky track

West Indies vs India

A perfect combination and a winning start will be foremost on skipper Virat Kohli's mind when India take on West Indies in their inaugural World Test Championship opener here on Thursday.

A win in the opening Test will be the 27th for Kohli as skipper and will put him on even keel with his predecessor Mahendra Singh Dhoni. A century in the game (19th as captain) will place him on par with Ricky Ponting.

On paper, a batting line-up that has Kohli, Cheteshwar Pujara, KL Rahul, Rohit Sharma and Rishabh Pant in the ranks should be termed clear favourites but this West Indies team, led by Jason Holder, is no pushover.

England found that out the hard way at the start of the year when they lost a Test series 1-2 in some of the most lively pitches on the Caribbean islands in recent times.

One such pacer-friendly wicket was at the Sir Vivian Richards Stadium in Antigua where Kohli and his men will be facing the Windies first up.

The last Test played here saw England scoring 187 and 132 but that was a different time of the year.

Nevertheless, Kohli and head coach Ravi Shastri, who recently got a fresh contract, will be wary of the challenge that can be posed by the new ball pair of Kumar Roach and Shannon Gabriel along with Jason Holder bowling his steady seam-up spells.

If there is pace and bounce, Kohli is likely to go with four specialist bowlers in which Ravichandran Ashwin and Kuldeep Yadav will be fighting for the lone spinner's slot.

The three pacers, in all likelihood, will be Jasprit Bumrah, Ishant Sharma and Mohammed Shami.

However, it is the batting combination that will be the skipper's primary worry and if he can get it right, that will be considered as a tactical victory.

In an ideal situation, if Hardik Pandya was available, Kohli would have been tempted to drop one among Rohit Sharma and Ajinkya Rahane but given the recent record of West Indies in Tests, he might go in with an extra batsman which means both will feature in the playing XI.

If a green-top is provided and Kohli still goes with five bowlers which includes Ravindra Jadeja as an all-rounder, it could well be a toss-up between the two Mumbaikars.

The other issue will be at the top of the order as to who will open with Mayank Agarwal.

The common logic says KL Rahul, who is a specialist opener, but Hanuma Vihari was sent to do the fire-fighting in Australia and it would be unfair to not give him another opportunity against a relatively easier pace attack.

The West Indies team in the Test format has been an understated one with players who have more talent than what the numbers currently show.

In Shai Hope, John Campbell and Shimron Hetmyer, they have the three talented youngsters.

Roston Chase, during the 2016 series against India, had thwarted Ashwin for a whole fifth day in Kingston after West Indies were staring at an innings defeat. In addition to that, he is a steady off-spinner with 50 Test wickets.

Darren Bravo is their most experienced batsman with 52 Tests and nearly 3500 runs under his belt.

However, the kind of talent he is, an average of 38 plus with only eight hundreds doesn't justify that.

All eyes will also be on whether, the new "giant" of world cricket, Rakheem Cornwall is given an opportunity.

His imposing physical structure may have grabbed attention but Cornwall has also been a performer with his effective off-breaks and handy lower-middle-order batting.

SQUADS

India: Virat Kohli (captain), Mayank Agarwal, KL Rahul, Cheteshwar Pujara, Hanuma Vihari, Ajinkya Rahane, Rohit Sharma, Rishabh Pant (wk), Kuldeep Yadav, Ravichandran Ashwin, Ravindra Jadeja, Ishant Sharma, Mohammed Shami, Jasprit Bumrah, Umesh Yadav, Bhuvneshwar Kumar, Wriddhiman Saha (wk)

West Indies: Jason Holder (c), Kraigg Brathwaite, Darren Bravo, Shamari Brooks, John Campbell, Roston Chase, Rakheem Cornwall, Shane Dowrich, Shannon Gabriel, Shimron Hetmyer, Shai Hope, Keemo Paul, Kemar Roach.

Australia rule out bouncer battle

England vs Australia
Live from 3:30pm IST

AFP ■ LEEDS

Australia coach Justin Langer has told his side to avoid being drawn into a bouncer battle after Steve Smith was ruled out of the third Ashes Test against England.

Star batsman Smith suffered delayed concussion symptoms after being hit on his neck by a 92 mph bouncer from England fast bowler Jofra Archer during the drawn second Test at Lords.

His absence from the third Test at Headingley starting today leaves Australia with a huge hole to fill.

Smith marked his return to Test cricket after a 12-month ball-tampering ban with innings of 144 and 142 during Australia's 251-run win in the first Test at Edgbaston.

He also made 92, having retired hurt after being hit when on 80, at Lords where Marnus Labuschagne, Test cricket's first concussion substitute, made a brave fifty in the second innings after being hit flush on the grille of his helmet by Archer.

World Cup-winning fast bowler Archer struck several telling blows on a Test debut that yielded five wickets.

Australia also have plenty of fast-bowling firepower at their disposal in Pat Cummins, Josh Hazlewood and Mitchell Starc. But Langer insisted his side would not be sidetracked from their goal of becoming the first Australia side in 18 years to win an Ashes series in England.

"We know what our plans are to beat England," Langer told reporters at Headingley, where the third Test starts on today.

"It's not an ego game," the former Australia opening batsman insisted.

"We're here to win the Test match, not to see how many bruises we can give."

"I'm sure the bouncer will still be part of every bowler's armoury, if it helps us get batsmen out then we'll use it, otherwise we'll keep sticking to the plan."

England are still without James Anderson after their all-time leading wicket-taker broke down with a calf injury after bowling just four overs at Edgbaston.

Smith and England opener Rory

Burns apart, both top-orders have struggled in the face of some quality fast bowling.

But England have stuck by Jason Roy, even though the World Cup-winning opener averages just 10 in four innings this series.

Roy, however, has mainly been a middle-order batsman in first-class cricket with Surrey. England coach Trevor Bayliss hinted at a reshuffle in the batting line-up, if not in personnel.

"We think we've got the best seven batsmen available to us at the moment in England... Whether we can change it round and make that (order) any better, I'm not sure, but we'll certainly have a discussion about it," he said.

"There's one or two batting spots in the wrong positions but we're trying to do the right thing by the team," England's Australian coach added.

Now the question is can England, who had Australia 122-8 in their first innings at Edgbaston only for Smith to steer his side to 284, take advantage of his absence?

England will look for more heroics from Archer and hope that, with Ben Stokes fresh from an unbeaten century at Lords, someone can give their attack enough runs to play with.

NZ look to exploit Lanka's weakness

Sri Lanka vs New Zealand
Live from 10:00am IST
SONY ESPN NETWORK

New Zealand will be hoping to add to Sri Lanka's poor record at their own Oval ground and level the series in the second and final Test starting today.

Unlike the spinner's paradise at Galle and the batting heaven that is the SSC, the Oval — the only ground in Asia where Don Bradman played — favours seam bowlers.

Sri Lanka have been often exposed here by quality seam bowlers and one up in the two-match series, they will have New Zealand's Trent Boult and Tim Southee — and possibly Neil Wagner — to contend with.

In the last 10 years, Sri Lanka have played seven games at The Oval and lost five, including once to New Zealand. In that game seven years ago, Southee claimed eight wickets while Boult finished with seven.

"We have some fond memories from last time, and we managed to win that," New Zealand wicketkeeper BJ Watling said at a pre-match media briefing on Wednesday.

Left-arm quick Wagner claimed nine wickets in New Zealand's last Test match and was unlucky to miss out in Galle as conditions heavily favoured spin. He is expected to make a return possibly at the expense of Mitchell Santner.

The opening Test was a lot closer than the six-wicket margin suggests and the New Zealanders know that fielding lapses cost them dearly after setting Sri Lanka a daunting task of 268 runs.

Sri Lanka, meanwhile, will leave off-spinner Akila Dananjaya, whose action was reported to be suspect for a second time by match officials after the Galle Test.

Dananjaya, who claimed a five-wicket haul in the opening game, was forced to remodel his action after it was first reported in November last year.

Technically he is allowed to play the second Test, but he is likely to travel to India instead to test his action. Dilruwan Perera has been drafted into the squad and is expected to play.

Sri Lanka will move up to the number five of the official ICC rankings if they win the second Test and the series.

More importantly, it will give them a strong start in the World Test Championship.

Kumble can be selector in future: Sehwaag

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

Former Test captain Anil Kumble's ability to boost confidence of the players makes him an ideal candidate for the role of chairman of selectors, said Virender Sehwaag, who also advocated a hike in remuneration for the job.

Never to mince his words, former opener Sehwaag said BCCI needs to pay more for heading the selectors' committee.

The current selection panel, led by MSK Prasad, has faced a lot of flak for it being a lightweight with a cumulative experience of 13 Tests.

"I think Anil Kumble could be the right candidate for the chairman of selectors post. He is someone who has interacted with Sachin (Tendulkar), Sourav (Ganguly) and Rahul (Dravid) as a player and with youngsters as a coach," Sehwaag told reporters during launch of a new app 'The Selector'.

"When I made a comeback (Australia series 2007-08), he (Kumble) came to my room and said you will not be dropped for the next two series. That's the kind of confidence a player needs," said Sehwaag.

However, Sehwaag also said that he doesn't think that Kumble will agree to do the job right now since the chairman gets ₹1 crore per annum.

"BCCI needs to raise bar as far as pay is concerned. Then a lot of players will be interested," said Sehwaag.

Asked if he would also be interested in this post, Sehwaag said that he doesn't like too many restrictions.

"I write columns, appear on TV and being selector will mean a lot of restrictions. I don't know whether I would like so many restrictions," the former Indian opener said.

Sehwaag, who had lost the race to be India's coach in 2017 to Ravi Shastri, said that he did not apply this time.

"In 2017, the BCCI secretary and (late) Dr MV Sridhar (GM Cricket Operations) asked me to apply so I applied. This time no one asked me, so I didn't apply," said Sehwaag when asked if he was amused in the manner Shastri was re-appointed the coach.

As the talk veered towards playing XI for the first Test against West Indies, Sehwaag's vote went to Ajinkya Rahane if India played five bowlers.

"Ajinkya Rahane has been batting at No 4 (No 5) so if it is a case of five bowlers then he should play. Rohit Sharma comes in only if you go with four bowlers," Sehwaag reasoned.

He also felt that "Mahendra Singh Dhoni should have batted at number five" in the World Cup semi-final against New Zealand.

"...Players like Hardik Pandya, who can play big shots should have come in at number seven towards the end," said the former India captain.

He also expressed his happiness at S Sreesanth's life ban being reduced to seven years.

"I am very happy for him. He now needs to play domestic cricket," he said.

Sehwaag was amused when he was asked about suggestions on wearing neck guards in the wake of Steve Smith recent injury.

"Why do you need to show your neck to the bowler? You have a bat and you are wearing a helmet. In my entire career, I never used chest pads," Sehwaag said.

BFI should do away with selection trials: Mary Kom

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

Celebrated Indian boxer M C Mary Kom on Wednesday said performers should not be made to undergo selection trials and asserted that she did no wrong by seeking an exemption from the ones for the world championships.

A controversy broke out over Mary's selection for the women's World Boxing Championships in Russia after her competitor in the 51kg category, Nikhat Zareen, was refused a trial bout. Zareen, in a letter to the Boxing Federation of India (BFI), alleged that she was stopped from competing despite having a scheduled trial bout.

Mary Kom, a six-time world champion and an Olympic Bronze-medallist, was chosen by the BFI selection panel based on her Gold medal-winning performances at the India Open and a subsequent tournament in Indonesia.

"Maybe, the BFI can change the programme altogether, no trial for boxers who are performing well, they can directly get the quota for any championship or tournament," Mary said on the sidelines of an event arranged by the All India Gaming Federation.

liar this year. When quizzed on her decision to approach the BFI with a request for exemption, Mary Kom said she merely left it on the federation and did not pressurise it to rule in her favour.

"I felt weird about my decision but I had told BFI clearly you decide who is doing better. If I have to give a trial or not is not in my hands. The BFI decides all these things, it's upto them," she said.

Soon after this furore, Mary Kom was caught in the eye of the storm on being picked in the selection panel for this year's national sports awards. The point of contention was her personal coach Chhotu Lal Yadav's application for the Dronacharya award.

Puneri beat Bengaluru Bulls 31-23

PTI ■ CHENNAI

Puneri Paltan registered a 31-23 win against defending champions Bengaluru Bulls in a Pro-Kabaddi League match at Jawaharlal Nehru Indoor Stadium here on Wednesday.

A heavily bandaged Surjeet Singh at the centre was the leader (6 tackle points) in the defensive unit for Puneri Paltan, never allowing the leagues best raider, Pawan Sehrawat, to weave his magic.

Sagar Krishna came in for a struggling Girish Ernak as coach Anup Kumar made the changes to a faltering Pune side while the Bengaluru Bulls went in with an extra defender in the line-up buoyed by the performances of their two raiders in Pawan Sehrawat and Rohit Kumar.

It was the Pune team which started off well, consistently tackling Bengaluru Bulls raiders, with Sagar Krishna justifying his inclusion with an incredible body block on Rohit Kumar six minutes into the match.

The defensive units matched each other tackle for tackle, as the raiders, including Punes Nitin Tomar struggled to impress.

A low-scoring, heavy tackling first half, which also saw Sehrawat reach 100 points for the season, ended with scores even at 10-10.

Bengalurus decision to play just two raiders backfired as Paltans improved defence thwarted any raider who ventured into their territory.

Pune inflicted the game's only All-Out on Bengaluru Bulls in the sixth minute of the second half to open up an 8-point gap.

Manjeets clever raids in do-or-die situations were also vital for Pune as they raced to a two-digit lead.

The defence held firm, as Surjeet Singh completed a personal milestone of 250 points in Pro Kabaddi League, and secured a very important victory that pushed his team up to 10th in the league standings.

Bengalurus loss meant they lost out on an opportunity to go to the top of the points table.
