Terrorists targeted by Pak Navy intrude Gulf of Khambhat, on prow: Intel

Madras High Court

Mandip port is one of the largest in the country and is one of the most crowded port in Khambhat (now known as Kandla) in Kutch district. The port is also a huge bulk handling facility with about 22 berths. The port is located in the Gulf of Khambhat in the Indian Ocean, close to omdaty of Pakistan.

The region also booms of other terrorist modules like the world’s largest oil refinery at Chittagong. To this end, the Pakistani Navy has successfully completed the withdrawal of all cases and the order withdrawing all cases against it. The region is also a major source of international trade, with the only land link between Pakistan and India.

TERROR THREAT FROM PAKISTAN

Pakistan is facing a major threat from Pakistan, which has been consistently attacking the region in the past. The Pakistani military has been involved in several terrorist acts in the region, including in Balochistan and Gilgit-Baltistan. The Defence Minister said Islamabad does not want to see a repeat of the events of 2008 in Mumbai. The attack was targeted at the Taj Mahal Palace Hotel and other tourist attractions in the city. The attack was carried out by a group of suicide bombers who attacked the hotel with handmade bombs.

Nadda said the organisation had recorded a seven-fold rise in membership. "This has opened a new chapter in our history," Nadda said, adding the party had focused on reaching out to every section of the society. "This party has worked for the betterment of every class and community," Nadda said.

The membership drive that began in July last year was set to be completed before August 20. Sources said the party had crossed the 21.5-crore mark, nearly 10 million short of its target. As many as 300,000 new members were expected to be added to the party’s numbers this month alone.

"We are confident of hitting the target of 18 crore members," Nadda said.

The party had fixed a membership target of 20 crore by 2019. As of last month, the party’s membership was reportedly at 12.74 crore.

In the previous year, the organisation had added 1.5 crore members. The BJP had crossed the 10-crore mark in 2016.

Nadda also said the party had an active presence in 150 countries. The party had also set a target of 150 million foreign nationals to enrol as party members in different countries. "India is such a country that has to spread itself globally," Nadda said.

BJP president JP Nadda has said the party would launch a membership drive on September 30 under the leadership of Home Minister Amit Shah. Nadda said the BJP would cover the whole country in the membership drive and enrol members from every nook and corner of the country. The drive would be completed in about 3 months,

Historically, the Members of Parliament’s (MPs) wing of the BJP has set a target of simultaneously enroling six crore members every year since its inception in 1951. In the last few years, the party has been able to achieve annual membership growth of over 10 million members, which is set to continue under the party’s new leadership.

In 2018, the BJP had an estimated 1.1 crore members across 180 countries. In 2019, the number was 1.45 crore. In 2020, it added 1.5 crore members, which is nearly equal to the membership of the country of Bangladesh.

A report by The Lancet said this week that the proportion of people who leave the country in search of work is growing worldwide. The report said that globally, 273 million people migrated to another country in 2020, up from 237 million in 2010. The number of cross-border migrants is expected to reach 325 million by 2030. This suggests that the number of Indian migrants across the world could continue to rise, the report said.

The membership drive would be conducted in a manner that would include the enrolment of both national and foreign nationals. The drive will also focus on areas where the party has a weaker presence, the sources said.

The sources said the membership drive would be conducted in coordination with the party’s organisational structure and the party would ensure that the drive is not only about enrolling members but also about ensuring that the party’s work is taken forward in the local areas where new members are enrolled.

"The drive will be conducted in a manner that will not only focus on enrolling members but also on ensuring that the party’s work is taken forward in the local areas where new members are enrolled," the sources said.

Opening up for what?

President Donald Trump recently took a major step in warming up US-India relations when he signed the “Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2018” to fund the Foreign Military Financing (FMF) programme to Finance \(g_82\) billion to India. He also signed another letter to extend the Visa Waiver Program (VWP) in order to allow Indian students to visit the US. These steps are in addition to the US Congress’s decision to remove India from the higher tax rate bracket for the so-called “Tier 3” countries.

While all these steps are positive, there is a strong possibility that they are incremental steps towards further opening up of the Indian economy. It may be recalled that President Trump had in February 2017, during his visit to India, proposed a “Bilateralism” doctrine, which would enable the US to negotiate separately with different countries. This was in contrast to the previous US policy, which was to negotiate on a multilateral basis. At that time, Trump had said that “Bilateralism” works on “American time” and that the US would take advantage of the opportunity to negotiate separately with different countries.

This was in line with the US policy of “buying time” and “building up” its economy. The US economy is currently in a strong position, with low unemployment and rising wages. This has enabled the US to negotiate separately with different countries, and the US has been able to achieve significant gains in negotiations with different countries. The appointment of convicted SKM leader, GS Goswami, as Sikkim CM has thrown up some sticky questions about constitutional propriety by the Governor.

We asked Justice Pratap Patnaik, however, ruled in the Golay case, the Chief Minister shall be appointed by the Governor. In this context, an unprecedented situation has brought Golay under the ambit of the Supreme Court Act for mis-conduct and further as per Section 11 (1) of the Representation of the President in the State of Sikkim. The Governor is at liberty to appoint a person to the office of Chief Minister who is, at that time, a member of the Legislature of the State, provided the Governor has laid down at the earliest. The plea taken by the SKM that the reelection of Justice Patnaik, however, ruled in the Golay case, only time will tell.

The privilege of the Governor, however, is clear. It is a constitutional right of the Governor to dissolve the Assembly and call for a fresh election as per Section 11 of the Constitution, which provides that the Governor shall have the power to dissolve the Assembly at any time. Therefore, if the Governor feels that the SKM has not adhered to the rules of the game, he may act without reference to the Supreme Court. The Governor is, after all, the executive authority of the State and is thereby in a position to decide whether the SKM has acted in accordance with the law. In this context, an unprecedented situation has brought Golay under the ambit of the Supreme Court Act for mis-conduct and further as per Section 11 (1) of the Representation of the President in the State of Sikkim. The Governor is at liberty to appoint a person to the office of Chief Minister who is, at that time, a member of the Legislature of the State, provided the Governor has laid down at the earliest.

The Governor, by appointing a person to the office of Chief Minister who is, at that time, a member of the Legislature of the State, would be acting beyond his jurisdiction and against the constitutional propriety of the Governor. The Governor should act in consultation with the Chief Minister on the matter of the appointment of the Chief Minister and not on his own initiative. The Governor, in this context, has to act in accordance with the constitutional provisions and not on the basis of his personal views or inclinations.
