Out on bail, 'rapists' set victim ablaze

Unnao girl waylaid on way to court, suffers 90% burns, airlifted to Delhi's Safdarjung Hospital; all 5 held

PNS ■ LUCKNOW

Barely a week after the brutal gang-rape and murder of a veterinarian in Hyderabad, a rape survivor was set ablaze by five men, including two rape accused, while she was on her way to court to attend hearing in the rape case, in Unnao in the wee hours of Thursday. The two men accused of raping her last year were granted bail 10 days back.

The victim, with 90 per cent burn injuries, was rushed to Unnao District Hospital then to Civil Hospital in Lucknow, and then airlifted to Delhi's Safdarjung Hospital later on Thursday evening.

All five accused, including rape accused Shivam Trivedi and Shubham Trivedi, were arrested in raids carried out soon after the incident.

As per reports, the rape survivor had left her Hindunagar village home to go to the railway station to catch a train to Rae Bareilly to attend the hearing in the rape case against Shivam and Shubham.

In an isolated stretch, she was waylaid by her 'rapists' Shubham and Shivam and three accomplices around 4.30 am. They doused her with kerosene and set her on fire.

In a chilling recap, the woman said in her statement to Subdivisional Magistrate Dayashankar Pathak that she was attacked when she reached Gaura turn near her home. She has named Shivam Trivedi, Shubham Trivedi, Harishankar Trivedi, Ram Kishore Trivedi, Umesh Bajpai in the report.

Earlier, in January 2018, the girl had married Shivam Trivedi against her parents' wishes and owing to family pressure the couple separated. Following which, Shivam and Shubham raped her in Rae Bareilly, and the woman filed a rape case against them at Lalgarh police station in March.

Police said, "The victim was alone when she was set afire. No one from her family was with her as she left her home on Thursday morning. After being set ablaze, she ran for a kilometre before a villager rescued her and called police."

The rescuer, Ravindra Prakash, said the victim ran for about a kilometre while crying for help. "At first, I thought she was a witch as she was burning profusely, but when she said her father's name, I reacted," Ravindra said.

Ravindra then dialed 112 and the victim herself talked to the police. Soon after, a police van and an ambulance rushed to the spot.

She was first rushed to the community hospital in Unnao and then to District hospital and then to Shyama Prasad Mukherjee Hospital in Lucknow where doctors said her condition is "very serious".

"The condition of the girl who was set on fire and bought here at 10 am is very serious. She has 90 per cent burn injuries and we are taking the utmost care," said Medical Superintendent Dr Ashutosh Dubey.

In the evening, the woman was airlifted to Safdarjung Hospital in Delhi. A "green corridor" was created to move her from the hospital to Amausi airport to ensure there was no delay due to traffic in Lucknow. The Delhi Traffic Police also provided a green corridor for the vehicle that carried her from the airport to Safdarjung Hospital.

UP Police chief OP Singh said, "The police had done its work by arresting them (rapists) in March. How they were given bail was the matter of the court. In this case too, the police acted swiftly and arrested all five accused."

Meanwhile, UP Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath the authorities to approach the court for cancelling the bail of the rape accused and invoke stringent sections of the IPC against them for the gory crime. On his intervention, the victim was later air-lifted to New Delhi for treatment.

In a statement issued in Lucknow on Thursday morning, Yogi directed Divisional Commissioner of Lucknow, Mukesh Meshram and IG (Lucknow Range) SK Bhagat to visit Unnao and submit their reports on the incident.

Meanwhile, the Rajya Sabha members raised the issue and the House was adjourned twice on Thursday.

The sight of the rape victim set afire and running for help early Thursday sent shivers down the spine of local people. Ravindra, who sitting by the roadside then, told reporters that he was so frightened that he actually went to pick up his stick.

"It was only when she came nearer that I found she was severely burnt," he said. She had been calling out for help, he added.

Ravindra said he called police and the woman herself talked on them on the phone. The police arrived soon and she was taken to the local community health centre, he said. She was later transferred to a district hospital and then to Lucknow.

STAFF REPORTER ■ NEW DELHI

The Delhi Government will install CCTV cameras, panic buttons and GPS in the existing 5,500 DTC and cluster buses, a decision regarding which was taken by the Cabinet on Thursday.

tions, while the existing DTC and cluster buses have been equipped with CCTV cameras, panic buttons and GPS-based Automatic Vehicle Location System.

Each bus will have three CCTV cameras, 10 panic buttons, and GPS locations and announcements will be made at bus stands for the visually impaired passengers, said

Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal.

RBI cuts growth forecast to 5%, keeps rate steady

PNS ■ MUMBAI

The Reserve Bank of India on Thursday cut the growth forecast by more than one per cent for the current fiscal and left the interest rate unchanged. While downward revision of the GDP growth was on the expected line, few had expected that the RBI would not go for sixth successive rate cut in view of the slowing down of the economy. Fear of inflation going out of bound forced the RBI to press pause button on its rate cut spree.

The RBI's decision to cut the GDP growth forecast aptly reflects the massive pressure on the economy on the macro front. The RBI slashed the growth forecast for FY20 to 5 per cent — down a full 110 bps from its October projection at 6.1 per cent, which again was a 90 bps reduction from its August forecast of 7 per cent. The economy is expected to be in the range of 4.9-5.5 per cent in the second half and 5.9-6.3 per cent in the first half of FY21, RBI Governor Shaktikanta Das said.

At the same time, the RBI

RBI Governor Shaktikanta Das, along with his deputies, arrives for the RBI's bi-monthly monetary policy review meeting in Mumbai on Thursday monetary policy committee surprised the experts by not tampering with the rates on Thursday. Das said RBI cannot keep cutting policy rates "mechanically every time", but hinted at resuming the easing cycle after Budget and analysing impact of previous 135 bps rate cuts on economy.

He admitted that out of 135 bps previous cut, the bank have passed only around 44 bps so far to the customers. He argued that before undertaking any more rate cut, it was necessary to ensure that benefit of the previous measures reach the customers.

Significantly, even as the MPC hit the pause button unanimously, it also warned of a steep spike in retail inflation to 4.7-5.1 per cent in the second half.

The decision to hit the pause button was unanimous by the six-member rate-setting committee, Das told reporters at the customary post-policy presser.

Capt makes series of promises for investors

MONIKA MALIK ■ MOHALI

Promising to put the nuts and bolts in place for safe and stable environment for the industry and investors in Punjab, the Chief Minister Capt Amarinder Singh on Thursday made it clear that his Government was working out the mechanics.

Capt Amarinder, maintaining that controlling gangsterism is his top agenda, issued a stern warning to the gangsters and also to the neighbouring warring nation Pakistan, in his own characteristic style, "bande ban jao, nahi taan fer sidhe kar deyaange" (mend your ways, otherwise we will teach you a lesson).

The State Government is currently in under attack of the Opposition parties which has been accusing the Government for "collapsed" the law & order situation in the State with the gangsters "ruling the roost".

During an interactive session with the NDTV co-chairman Pranroy Roy on the first day of Progressive Punjab Investors Summit (PPIS) 2019, Capt Amarinder talked in detail on all issues concerning the state — right from the no-more remunerative agriculture to developing industry, from reinvesting in gangsters to ensuring

CAPT SPEAKS ...

DRUG MENACE: The problem will not disappear in view of the money involved in the business. But, it will be well under control and manageable by the time the next Assembly elections are due in the state.

STUBBLE BURNING: Centre have to pitch in to find a permanent solution to the problem. Centre should add compensation of Rs 100 per quintal to minimum support price to check stubble burning. Besides, crop diversification is required in the long term to eliminate the problem...I would again raise the issue with the Prime Minister Narendra Modi during our next meeting.

FINANCIAL CRISIS: Punjab, like other states, is already reeling under financial problems due to non-payment of GST share in time by the Centre...Punjab has not received its GST share since August 2019 which comes about to the dues of Rs 6,000 crore....The state has handed over all other revenue generation sources to the Central Government under the GST regime, and we are now left in a critical situation.

on providing the right environment to investors and industry to promote Punjab as a preferred destination.

He talked about several decisions taken by his government to improve ease of doing business in the state, including single-window clearances, online applications and approvals, subsidy on industrial power, amendments to key legislations related to business and industry, as well as water regulation.

"Punjab does not have labour problems and the state's educated and committed workforce is a major asset for the industry," he said adding that the truck unions have been abolished to provide a safe environment for industry to operate.

Stressing on the need to provide continuity to industry to encourage them to invest and expand in Punjab, he maintained that it was essential not to indulge in political vendetta with the Opposition and ensure that any party coming to power maintains the same policy approach to industry.

"Stability is a key component for providing an enabling environment for industrial growth," he said, hoping that the next Government that takes over the State will also adopt this philosophy.

women safety, from controlling deadly drug menace to checking smoldering problem of stubble burning, among others.

Capt also did not let go the opportunity to caution Pakistan of making any attempt to destabilize Punjab, underlining that while its Prime Minister Imran Khan wanted peace, "the Pak Army, in its desperation to remain relevant, is calling the shots and obstructing any efforts for peace". He said that clear directions have been given to the Punjab Police to handle any internal or external threat with an iron hand. "Punjab police has successfully pushed them back by neutralising various groups infiltrated into the state by the Pak Army backed ISI...Pakistan has its own problems, but I won't let them make their problems my problem," he said.

CM pointed that 28 terror modules have been busted and more than 100 ISI-backed terrorists had been arrested by the Punjab Police in the last two years. "We will not let them mess around with us," he declared.

At the same time, Capt Amarinder informed that steps were also being taken to ensure women safety so that women could take up industrial jobs and do night shifts. "Any woman could call the police for safe transportation back home 24 hours a day," he clarified.

Listing out steps taken by the Government to facilitate industrial development, Capt Amarinder said that the focus is

PUNJAB PROGRESSIVE INVESTORS' SUMMIT

GOVT COMMITTED TO TRANSFORM MSMEs INTO INDUSTRIAL GIANTS

PNS ■ SAS NAGAR (MOHALI)

Moving towards transforming the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) into industrial giants in the coming years, the Punjab Government on Thursday signed the MoUs with two e-commerce portals — Amazon and Flipkart — to enable access for the MSMEs to new global markets.

Describing MSMEs as an important engine of Punjab's industrial growth, the state's Additional Chief Secretary (Industry and Invest Punjab) Vini Mahajan on Thursday cited various measures taken by the State government to strengthen the MSME sector in Punjab.

Mahajan, addressing a session on 'Building partnerships for inclusive growth: MSMEs in the Global Value Chain', referred to the ease of doing business promoted by the new industrial policy, subsidized power tariff for industry at Rs five per unit, incentives on electricity duty and GST, Online Land Ownership, Online Inspection system and easy access to finance.

To provide this ease to the MSMEs, the Government has partnered with HDFC Bank to provide loans to around 700 MSME beneficiaries, amounting to Rs 1,100 crore. Under their MoU, the Bank is offering special pricing for business loans to all industries in the state, she added.

She also listed the recent Cabinet decisions, including approval for Right to Business Act for MSMEs, amendments to the Industrial Disputes Act, Factories Act, etc, and the decision to allow Panchayats to partner the state's industrial development through creation of industrial parks on shamlat

(village common) land. The state's Industries and Commerce Minister Sunder Sham Arora also signed MoUs with key e-commerce giants Amazon and Flipkart to enable access to new markets for the Punjab-based MSMEs. He said that the Government had signed the

MoU with Amazon to enable B2B linkages with key international markets, including US, Canada, and key markets in Europe, while, with Flipkart, the Government had signed the MoU to facilitate access for MSMEs to new domestic markets, as well as Flipkart Samarth, to give impetus to the growth of handloom weavers and small enterprises in the State.

During the MSME session, the panelists urged the Government to develop more Research and Development Centres in the State to further improve the quality of products and keep the technologically up to date.

HERO GROUP, BCU JOIN HANDS TO SET UP INNOVATION SCHOOL AT LUDHIANA

Hero Group and the Birmingham City University has decided to join hands to establish Munjal BCU School of Innovation and Entrepreneurship (MBSI) at Ludhiana to promote innovation and entrepreneurship in the state.

Hero Enterprises Limited

chairman and Lala Bahadur Chand Munjal Foundation chairman Sunil Kant Munjal announced that the Hero Group and BCU are collaborating to establish the MBSI at Ludhiana and it would cater to the needs of the business industrial sector of the State.

Punjab is already witnessing a brain drain with many students seeking to immigrate to other countries in search of better opportunities. Students appear reluctant to pursue higher education in Punjab because of the perception that the quality of training and education on offer isn't quite up to the standards expected of an industrialized state. "The MBSI could emerge as a game changer with the School aiming to redesign the higher education offering in a manner that it leads to more meaningful student outcomes," he said.

'DEVELOP MOHALI AS WORLD'S FIRST STARTUP HUB'

Experts and industrialists mooted to develop Mohali as the world's first startup valley, inviting talent and venture capital from all over the world.

The demand was raised during the 90-minute session dedicated to the Startup ecosystem wherein one of the panelists also suggested to create a Shivalik Valley for startups in Mohali on the lines of Silicon Valley in Bengaluru.

The panel members, representing stakeholders of the Startup ecosystem, included Padmaja Ruparel, Co-Founder at Indian Angel Network and Founding Partner IAN Fund, Nandu Nandkishore, Professor at Indian Business School and Former EVP and Head of Asia, Africa and Oceania at Nestlé SA, Switzerland, Akshay Sangwan, Executive Director, Sonalika Industries, Kunal Upadhyay, Co-founder and Managing Partner, Bharat Fund and Taranjeet Bhambra, Founder, AgNext Technologies.

The panelists stressed upon the need for interdisciplinary joint research among various prestigious institutes of the region, to be supported by the government, to make Punjab intellectually rich and create intellectually property.

Flipkart to promote under-resourced sellers, artisans, weavers in Punjab

MONIKA MALIK ■ MOHALI

Handmade phulkari, punjabi juttis, and other handicrafts from culturally-rich state of Punjab would soon be available on the e-commerce portal Flipkart. For, the Flipkart and Punjab Government on Thursday joined hands to take on board the state's "under-resourced" sellers, artisans and weavers to Flipkart through its 'Samarth' initiative.

On the first day of the Progressive Punjab Investment Summit-2019, Flipkart signed two memorandum of understandings with the Punjab Government to increase business and trade inclusion opportunities for MSMEs in the state.

Under the 'Samarth' initiative, the Punjab's sellers will be brought into the e-commerce fold and provided national market access, training and support to grow their businesses.

A senior government official informed that as a part of the first MoU, "Flipkart and the Punjab Bureau of Investment Promotion will focus on showcasing Punjab's hallmark products and some of the selected local artisans and weavers in the Flipkart Samarth programme will receive some benefits including incubation support".

Official said that under the second MoU, Flipkart will conduct workshops in various cities across the state to build awareness amongst MSMEs about the benefits of e-commerce and to ensure ease of onboarding, operating and scaling up for MSMEs in the state.

Notably, there are more than 1.6 lakh MSMEs presently functioning in Punjab. And from Punjab, the Flipkart marketplace has about 3,000 sellers.

Appreciative of the development, Invest Punjab Chief Executive Officer Rajat Agarwal said that through this partnership, "Punjab's traditional arts and culture will gain wider visibility on the national stage and our MSMEs will get national market access". "With the help of e-commerce, we aim to continue promoting the skills and industrial prowess of the people of Punjab with the rest of the country," he said.

Flipkart Group's Chief Corporate Affairs Officer Rajneesh Kumar said: "With every artisan or MSME that gets onboard Flipkart, we are a step closer to making e-commerce even more inclusive for all Indians."

Flipkart spokesperson said that the lakhs of MSMEs operating in Punjab are crucial drivers of job creation and economic growth, and reflects the state's enterprising spirit. "The developing e-commerce industry provides new business opportunities for these sellers, many of whom are unfamiliar with how to sell online, and do not get to interact with online marketplaces to clear their doubts regularly. And to resolve these issues, Flipkart has recently initiated a program to conduct workshops across the country," said the spokesperson.

CM'S SECURITY BREACHED, REPORT SOUGHT

PNS ■ MOHALI

A major security breach was witnessed during the ongoing investment summit when a young man walked right up to the Chief Minister Capt Amarinder Singh on stage and handed over some papers requesting him to resolve his problem.

Capt Amarinder, who enjoys a Z-plus security, maintained his calm and composure all through, and instead asked his security persons to let him wait till the end of the session. However, the incident has left the audience puzzled and stunned.

Taking note of the development, the Chief Minister's Chief Principal Secretary Suresh Kumar sought a detailed report into the incident to identify the security lapse, "if any", and take suitable action. Kumar has sought details on how the man managed to come so close to the Chief Minister, and why the security personnel did not stop him.

Notably, considering the security, those attending the inaugural session, including the media, have been provided special security passes.

The youth was identified as Amandeep Singh, a resident of Trivedi Camp in Derabassi. Amandeep approached the Chief Minister, while he was in a "live" interactive session with NDTV's Pranjoy Roy, with his complaint and handed over some documents to Capt Amarinder from below the stage before being whisked away by the security personnel.

Amandeep complained that while a case relating to his shop in Derabassi was still

Hry Dept signs MoU with over dozen industries for industrial training

PNS ■ CHANDIGARH

Haryana Skill Development and Industrial Training Department on Thursday said it has signed MoUs with over dozen industries to provide training to students of Industrial Training Institutes (ITIs) so that they could meet the skilled workforce requirement of the industry.

Director, Skill Development and Industrial Training Department, Prabhjot Singh said that the State has introduced Dual System of Training (DST) in 27 ITIs, wherein 70 trade Units have been started to enable industry linkages and to provide hands-on experience to students on the latest machinery and technologies.

Currently, around 1,300 students are enrolled under the scheme. The Department is planning to introduce at least five DST courses in each District in the State next year. He said that the DST is an amalgamation of theoretical training through ITIs and practical through the industry. The students will get on-the-job training ranging from 6 months to 12 months in the Industries. With this, the prospects of trainees getting jobs will improve manifold. He said, "It was a long-pending demand of the Industry associations that the ITI pass outs should have adequate knowledge about the latest machinery and should be conversant with the work environment in the Industry."

The Director said to reduce the gap between the trainee's learning outcomes and the Industry's requirements, the Department has given a special attention to DST scheme. He said since the programme had started recently, the Department would review its performance after every three months.

Traffic penalty reduced in Chandigarh

NISHU MAHAJAN ■ CHANDIGARH

Giving major relief to the city denizens, the Chandigarh Administration has decided to impose minimum penalty for various traffic offences under the Motor Vehicle Act, 2019. The Administration had earlier imposed maximum penalty under MVA 2019, which came into effect from September 1.

For instance, the penalty for speeding in the city, in case of two-wheeler would now be Rs 1000 for first offence, Rs 1000 in case of light motor vehicle, Rs 2000 in case of medium goods and heavy goods passenger vehicle. Under the MVA 2019, the fine for speeding ranges between Rs 1000 - Rs 2000 for light motor vehicle, Rs 2,000 -

Rs 4,000 for medium passenger or goods vehicles and the UT Administration had earlier imposed maximum penalty of Rs 2000 and Rs 4000 respectively on the violators.

Punjab Governor and UT Administration VP Singh Badnore had on Wednesday in a high-level meeting of senior UT officers gave approval to the imposition of minimum penalty for certain offences under MVA 2019 in the city. A notification in this regard will be issued in a day or two by the Administration.

Under Section 184, dangerous driving (only for use of handheld communication devices), the fine would be Rs 2000 for first offence and Rs 5000 for subsequent offence in the city. Under the MVA 2019, for dangerous driving, first time offenders face imprisonment of six months to one year and/or fine of between Rs 1,000 and Rs 5,000.

For disobedience of orders of authorities (Sec 179 i), the fine imposed will now be Rs 1000 as compared to maximum penalty of Rs 2000 imposed earlier here. Similarly, for passenger without holding the required information or giving false information (179 ii), the fine would be Rs 1500 as compared to maximum penalty of Rs 2000 earlier.

In case of violation related to overloading of two-wheeler here, the violators will now face a fine of Rs 1000 and disqualification of driving licence for three months instead of maximum penalty of Rs 2000 and disqualification of driving licence for three months.

However, the traffic violations like speeding/racing, driving without insurance, driving without licence, unauthorized use of vehicles without licence, driving despite disqualification, violation related to seat belt and helmet among others would still invite huge penalty in the union territory of Chandigarh.

Driving without licence would attract penalty of Rs 5000 while for driving without seat belt, the violators will have to pay maximum penalty of Rs 1000. For driving without helmet, traffic fine would be Rs 1000 with disqualification for three months for licence.

Notably, the MVA 2019 had caused quite a stir not only in the city but across the country due to exorbitant challan fee levied under it.

Infact, several states namely West Bengal, Chhattisgarh, Punjab had put on hold the implementation of stricter fines to boost road discipline.

In Chandigarh, a delegation of Chandigarh Congress, Chandigarh based NGO-ArriveSAFE among other organizations had approached the UT Administration urging it either not to impose the heavy chaulan fee or bring it down under various offences in the city.

As per the data tabled in the Parliament recently, after the implementation of provisions of Motor Vehicle (Amendment) Act, 2019, more than 56000 challans were issued in the city. Overall collection from traffic rule violations this year till October stood at Rs 5.58 crore (Rs 5,58,25,650) in the city.

UNMUTED VIDEO CLIP

Action against two PR officials; SAD seeks action against Ministers

PNS ■ CHANDIGARH

Punjab Government has charge-sheeted two officials of the State Information and Public Relations Department after their carelessness in releasing a video clip of Wednesday's Cabinet Meeting wherein some ministers were heard talking about "drugs" before beginning of the meeting.

The clip was apparently meant to be sent out "muted" capturing just the scene ahead of the meeting on December 2. But what was uploaded carried the audio as well leaving the State Government red-faced after many interpreted the clip to be about drugs.

Viewers heard the term "kaali dawai", literally translated as "black medicine". However, the Cabinet Minister on Thursday maintained that the "light-hearted" discussion was not about drugs at all.

Drug menace is a major issue in the state and the Congress had promised elimination of drug trafficking and arresting the drug dealers within weeks of coming to power during the 2017 assembly poll campaign.

The two officials from the Punjab Information and Public Relations Department, responsible for releasing the clip, have been asked to explain their conduct.

One of the ministers, who attended the Cabinet meeting, on Thursday claimed that the "light-hearted" talk was not about drugs but to suggest benefits of a medicine for some sick person.

"It was just a light-hearted talk and nothing more than that," said the Minister, who did not wish to be named.

But Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) leader and former minister Bikram Singh Majithia slammed the State Government for hauling up the officials. "They have taken action against the two officials of the PR department, but what about those ministers who are talking about the benefits of 'kali dawai'? Why is there no action against them?" he said in Amritsar.

"It is strange that the Government has not said a word about those who are talking about drugs in this manner, but action is being taken against those whose only mistake is to bring out what the ministers said," he said when asked to comment on the issue.

Expressing shock that Punjab Jails Minister Sukhjinder Singh Randhawa batted for a Congress gangster during a Cabinet meeting, SAD also condemned the Council of Ministers for displaying "utter insensitivity" towards the malice of drugs and the toll it was taking on Punjabis by "glorifying" the use of opium.

"It is indeed a very sad day for democracy when a Minister starts batting for a gangster in a Cabinet meeting and tries to bully his colleagues to protect and shelter gangsters affiliated with the Congress party," said former minister Daljit Singh Cheema.

Stating that the entire civil society was in a state of shock after news of Jails Minister Sukhjinder Randhawa's conduct in the Cabinet meeting was made public, he said: "This conduct itself is a fit ground for immediate dismissal of the Minister and an immediate probe into the gangster-Minister nexus which is eroding the foundations of our society."

AKALI leader also castigated the Cabinet Ministers for displaying total lack of sensitivity towards the scourge of drug addiction and even glorifying the habit during a Cabinet meeting.

He said that it was incredulous that action had been initiated against two employees whose job was to record Cabinet proceedings but no action had been initiated against the Minister who listed the benefits of opium and advocated its usage or others who joined in the conversation and even discussed from where it could be procured.

Maintaining that such behavior was shameful, Cheema asked the Chief Minister Capt Amarinder Singh to take serious note of both Sukhjinder Randhawa's obnoxious conduct at the Cabinet meeting as well as advocacy of use of opium by other ministers during the meeting by taking exemplary action in both cases.

PNs ■ NEW DELHI

A day after stepping out of jail, former Finance Minister P Chidambaram on Thursday alleged that the Centre is "clueless" about the state of economy and Prime Minister Narendra Modi has left it to his Ministers to indulge in "bluff and bluster".

Slamming the Government's economic policy, the senior Congress leader said nothing sums up the state of the economy better than the series of numbers, 8, 7, 6.6, 5.8, 5 and 4.5, a reference to quarterly growth rates of the GDP in the last six quarters.

Chidambaram addressed a Press Conference where he alleged that Government is unable to look for the obvious clues because it is "stubborn and mulish" in defending its "catastrophic mistakes" such as demonetisation, flawed GST, tax terrorism, regulatory overkill, protectionism, and centralised control of decision-making in the Prime Minister's Office, he alleged.

Congress leader and former Finance Minister P Chidambaram speaks during a Press conference at AICC HQ in New Delhi on Thursday. Ranjan Dimri / Pioneer

He began his Press conference with a reference to Kashmir. Chidambaram said his first thoughts upon his release were with the Kashmiri people who "have been denied their basic freedoms since August 4, 2019".

He refused to speak on the case pending against him and focused mostly on the economy in his Press conference. He only said the "clear and comprehensive" Supreme Court order, granting him bail in a money laundering case connected to INX Media will clear the "many layers of dust" settled on the understanding of criminal law and the manner in which criminal law has been administered by the courts. "I am happy to be back. The Government cannot suppress my voice in Parliament," he said.

"In the last 106 days, I was strong in spirit and I have become stronger because... My record as Minister and my conscience are absolutely clear. Officers who have worked with me, business persons who have interacted with me and journalists who have observed me know that very well. My family trusts in God. We have total confidence that the courts will, ultimately, render justice," Chidambaram said.

Asked if parallels can be drawn between the Government's assurances on issues in Kashmir and the economy, Chidambaram answered in the negative, saying as far as economy is concerned "the reason is incompetence, while in Kashmir, it is the Government's arrogance." He added in a lighter vein that sleeping on a wooden board, without a pillow strengthens the neck, spine and back.

He went on to say the prescription will be useless if the diagnosis is wrong. "Even after seven months into the fiscal year, the BJP Government believes the problems faced by the economy are cyclical. The Government is wrong. It is wrong because it is clueless," said the Rajya Sabha member who attended the upper house proceedings on Thursday hours after his release on bail.

Chidambaram who has served both as Home and Finance Minister on different occasions in the Manmohan Singh Government, alleged that Modi has been "unusually silent" on the economy. "He has left it to his Ministers to indulge in bluff and bluster. The net result, as The Economist put it, is that the Government has turned out to be an 'incompetent manager' of the economy," he said.

Taking a swipe at the Government, Chidambaram said it is calling the present slowdown "cyclical"; thank god it has not called it seasonal, he added. "It is 'structural' and the Government has no solutions or reforms that would address the structural problems," he said.

Asserting that the Government "is in denial" over the state of the economy, Chidambaram pointed out that rural consumption is down according to the National Sample Survey Office (NSSO) as are rural wages and producer prices, especially for the farmers.

There is less demand among the people because they have less money and less appetite to consume due to uncertainty and fear, Chidambaram claimed. According to the Congress leader, the previous UPA dispensation lifted 14 crore people out of poverty between 2004-2014, while the NDA had pushed millions of people below the poverty line since 2016.

PRAKASH JAVADEKAR ON PC'S RELEASE — Chidambaram violated bail term on first day

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

Hours after Former Finance Minister and senior Congress leader P Chidambaram spoke to media and lashed out at the Government on the handling of economy and J&K, the BJP on Thursday accused him of violating bail conditions by claiming to have a very clear record as a Minister and asserted that the case against him was essentially about corruption he was allegedly involved in as the Finance Minister.

Union Information and Broadcasting Minister Prakash Javadekar addresses media at Parliament during the ongoing Winter Session in New Delhi on Thursday

Union Minister Prakash Javadekar told reporters that the claim of Chidambaram about his case, amounted to "self-certification".

"P Chidambaram has violated the bail condition on the very first day after his release. What he said is in violation of this condition," the BJP leader said.

Addressing a press conference at the Congress headquarters, the Former Finance Minister had said earlier, "In the last 106 days, I was strong in spirit and I have become stronger because. My record as Minister and my conscience are absolutely clear."

Hitting out at the opposition leader over his attack on

Union Minister said all media outlets have been functioning in the Valley. "Kashmir is now on path to progress," Javadekar said. At the beginning of his press conference, Chidambaram had said his first thoughts upon his release were with the Kashmiri people who "have been denied their basic freedoms since August 4, 2019." He said it was arrogance of the Government that played out in Kashmir.

Javadekar referred to the emergency imposed by the Congress in 1975 saying the then Indira Gandhi Government had clamped down on the media while the Modi Government has shared all information related to the situation in J&K with Parliament. The Government has allowed journalists from India and abroad to travel to Kashmir where, he added, incidents of stone-pelting have come down by more than half.

On former finance minister's criticism of economic slide under the BJP dispensation, Javadekar said low inflation and high growth in economy have been the highlights of the Modi dispensation since 2014 while Congress regimes damaged country's economy.

RS adjourned twice over Unnao rape case

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

The Rajya Sabha was adjourned twice on Thursday over the Unnao rape victim incident with the Opposition including the Congress and Samajwadi Party (SP) trying to raise the issue and the chair denying them to do so. The first adjournment was in the pre-lunch session and the second in the afternoon.

The House saw the first adjournment soon after Chairman M Venkaiah Naidu commenced the Zero Hour soon after the day's proceedings began. He disallowed the Congress and SP to raise issues including the Unnao incident as it was not listed for the Zero Hour.

Raising point of order, Derek O'Brien (TMC) sought to know why no calling attention and short duration discussions were listed in the business during this week. He also tried to raise the Unnao incident involving a rape survivor but was not allowed by the chair. The victim is battling for life with more than 90 per cent burns after she was allegedly set ablaze by five men while on Thursday morning while she was on her way to court.

The victim, who was assaulted in December last year and is being treated in a Lucknow hospital, said in a statement that she was on her way from her village in Unnao district to Rae Bareilly where the trial is going on when she was attacked and set ablaze.

Leader of the Opposition in the Rajya Sabha Ghulam Nabi Azad, too, expressed concern over the issue of short duration discussion and said it had not happened last week as well and two discussions should be scheduled for next week.

Naidu said the Minister concerned said he was unwell and, hence, requested to postpone the discussion for next week and assured it would be held on Tuesday.

However, SP leader Ram Gopal Yadav tried to draw the attention of the House to the Unnao rape case and even Congress members were on their feet insisting the same. To which, the Chair said there would not be discussion on the issues that were not listed for Zero Hour. Naidu then adjourned the Zero Hour at 11.15 am.

The second adjournment for half-an-hour came in the post lunch session with the Congress raising the matter. The agitated members brought up the issue when the House was to commence a discussion on The Taxation Laws (Amendment) Bill, 2019.

Congress leader Anand Sharma urged Deputy Chairman Harivansh to at least listen to the opposition members who wanted to discuss the incident of the attack on the Unnao rape survivor.

17.74 crores patients visited Ayush health centres in 2018

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

Modi Government's efforts to push Ayush through various programmes and schemes are yielding positive results. According to the data tabled in Lok Sabha recently, at least 17.74 crores patients visited the Ayush healthcare facilities last year, 17.27 crores and 15.94 crores in 2016-17 and 2015-16 respectively.

"The efforts of Central Government for promotion of Ayush through various programmes and schemes yielded in more number of people availing treatment from Ayush health care facilities. However, taking treatment from Allopathy or Ayush is the choice of the people," Union Ayush Minister Shripad Naik said in Lok Sabha in the ongoing session.

The Minister also talked about the progress of its pilot project integrating Ayush with modern medicine to tackle lifestyle related disorders such as diabetes and cancer launched in some districts in Uttar Pradesh, Gujarat, Bihar and Rajasthan.

Of ten lakhs patients screened in the last two years since implementation of the project, 93,117 patients have been enrolled for long term management through ayurveda and yoga interventions.

As Non-Communicable Diseases (NCDs) like diabetes are difficult to treat and in view of rising health cost, the Government is focussing on bringing convergence and synergy between traditional medicine, modern medicine and modern sciences for scientific validation of ayurveda concepts and development based drugs in collaboration with country's reputed research institutes like AIIMS, CSIR, DRDO and CCRAS to name a few.

For instance, two labs of CSIR - National Botanical Research Institute (NBRI) and Central Institute for Medicinal and Aromatic Plants (CIAMP) have jointly developed cost-effective anti-diabetes herbal medicine BGR-34. A formulation of herbs like Giloy, Sadabhara, methi and daruhda, the BGR-34 has been found to have effectively managed blood glucose homeostasis in Type 2 Diabetes which is becoming India's fastest growing disease. AIIMS is conducting various researches to assess impact of herbs in management of chronic diseases.

From 72 million diabetes cases recorded in 2017, the number is expected to nearly double by 2025. Similarly, by 2040, cancer cases are expected to almost double to twenty lakh compared to 11.6 lakh cases in 2016. The World Health Organisation Report for 2018 says that NCDs account for 63 per cent of deaths in India.

Pornographic issues will be studied by informal group: Naidu

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

Concerned over the menace of child pornography leading to crime against children, Rajya Sabha Chairman M Venkaiah Naidu on Thursday announced that a 14-member informal group of the House will study issues related to pornographic content on internet and social media platforms.

The group, which will be coordinated by Congress leader Jairam Ramesh, will prepare its report within one month, he said before the Zero Hour. The Chairman's initiative came after the entire House expressed concern over the rampant proliferation of child pornography on the social media last week.

The group will comprise of 14 members from across all parties and will be coordinated by Congress member Jairam Ramesh, he said. Other members can also share information related to this issue with the group, the chairman said.

Naidu said the group will prepare an "informal report" after discussing about the issues related to pornographic content on internet and social media platforms with civil society groups, compulsory emergency response teams and social media companies.

The 14-member group includes Tiruchi Siva (DMK) Jaya Bachchan (SP), Amar Patnaik (BJD), Derek O'Brien (TMC), Vandana Chavan (NCP), Roopa Ganguly (BJP), M V Rajeev Gowda (Cong), Kakhshab Parveen (JD-U),

Govt gives more power to Indian coast guard

Coast guard can now 'visit, board, search and seize' within the maritime zone

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

The Government has given powers under the Coast Guard Act to allow the force to board, search any vessel and arrest people for offences within the maritime zone of the country, Defence Secretary Ajay Kumar said on Thursday.

The security agency earlier did not have the power to board any vessel passing through India's Exclusive Economic Zone (EEZ). "Empowering Indian Coast Guard and enhancing coastal security. MoD issues notification enabling CG to 'Visit, Board, Search and Seize' suspicious vessels within India's EEZ and its continental shelf @IndianCoastGuard," Kumar tweeted.

The notification states that under the Coast Guard Act, 1978, the Central Government authorises "every member of the Coast Guard" to "visit, board, search and seize vessel, or arrest any person, or seize any artificial island or any floating or moored object or any underwater object including any maritime property involved or suspected to be used in the commission of any offence."

Before this notification, the Coast Guard used provisions of the Customs Act and the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act and other relevant acts to board and seize vessels in the EEZ.

However, it did not have the necessary legal backing and many cases would fall flat in the court, officials said.

There was also a legal loophole using which the vessel companies could sue the Coast Guard for detaining ships without any authorisation. They also said earlier, its officials would seize drugs, detain offenders and hand them over to agencies like the local police, Directorate of Revenue Intelligence and the Narcotics Control Bureau. The vessels would be handed over to the port authorities.

The official added that since 2009, the maritime security force has been seeking more powers under the Territorial Waters, Continental Shelf, Exclusive Economic Zone and Other Maritime Zones Act, 1976 so that they could board and search suspicious vessels.

CPCB asks to shut down 270 tyre pyrolysis units

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

Acting on the National Green Tribunal (NGT) order, the central pollution authority has asked 270 tyre pyrolysis units in 19 States to shut down their shops, saying these have been found to be flouting environmental norms and causing high levels of pollution.

Pyrolysis is a method of recycling old tyres through a thermochemical treatment under high temperature to produce industrial oil and other matters. The states whose pollution control authorities have been issued notices are Andhra Pradesh, Assam, Bihar, Chhattisgarh, Haryana, Himachal Pradesh, Jammu and Kashmir, Jharkhand, Karnataka, Kerala, Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh, Odisha, Punjab, Rajasthan, Tamil Nadu, Telangana, Uttar Pradesh and Uttarakhand.

While ordering the shutdown of the 270 units, the CPCB referred to a National Green Tribunal (NGT) order and said these units were causing pollution and adversely affecting the health of workers involved in the process.

"In exercise of powers vested under Environment (Protection) Act 1986, directions are hereby issued to you (state pollution control boards) to close down all such pyrolysis units in your state or UT which are not complying as on date with consent conditions and SOP (standard operating procedure) of the Ministry of Environment.

"You are also directed to carry out strict vigilance and monitoring in complying industries to ensure continued compliance of consent conditions and the SOP of the Ministry," the notice issued on Wednesday by CPCB Chairman SPS Parihar said.

SUDAN TANKER BLAST LS members urge to bring back bodies, give adequate solatium

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

Lok Sabha members from Tamil Nadu and Bihar on Thursday sought the government to ensure that the bodies of the Indians killed in the Sudan tanker blast be brought back at the earliest and their families given adequate compensation.

T R Baalu of the DMK, Rajiv Pratap Rudy of the BJP and Selvaraj M of the CPI raised the issue in the House during Zero Hour.

They said as most of the victims were sole bread earners, the government should ensure adequate compensation to the families.

At least 18 Indians were among 23 people killed and over 130 injured in a horrific LPG tanker blast that destroyed a ceramic factory in Sudan.

Sixty-eight Indians were working in the factory.

Rudy requested foreign minister to have their bodies flown back to India and other help be provided by the Indian mission in Sudan.

In another issue, Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla said the states should come up with an action plan to curb the rising incidents of digital banking frauds in the country after a Member of Parliament raised the issue in the House.

Raising the issue during the Zero Hour, Arvind Kumar Sharma of BJP said on one hand the nation was moving towards Digital India while on the other hand, such fraudulent activities were taking place.

"In digital banking, frauds are taking place through different apps like Paytm.... Every day frauds are taking place....And the police does not even register an FIR," he said.

Naidu pulls up MPs for low attendance in parl panels

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

Rajya Sabha chairman M Venkaiah Naidu on Thursday expressed his displeasure over the low attendance of MPs in the meetings of the parliamentary standing committees and urged the leaders of the political parties to ensure "quantitative and qualitative functioning" of these panels.

Pulling up the absentees, Naidu, who held a meeting with the chairpersons of these panels, said only 18 members each from both houses of Parliament attended eight Rajya Sabha committees' meetings since being reconstituted in September this year.

Sharing concern about the functioning of these committees in the Upper House, Naidu said: "I expect the number of members of this House with full attendance in the meetings of the committees to rise."

Each member of the department-related standing committee represents 25 members of Parliament while deliberating in the committee. If one member is absent, the voice of 25 MPs would not be heard, according to Naidu.

He said the Rajya Sabha's eight department-related standing committees

CITIZENSHIP AMENDMENT BILL 4 hrs allocated for debate in LS on Tue

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

Lok Sabha will debate the controversial Citizenship Amendment Bill on Tuesday and four hours have allotted for the debate and expected to bring the bill in Rajya Sabha on Wednesday or Thursday. Congress leader Rahul Gandhi said that their party will oppose the Bill in Parliament.

of its passage in Rajya Sabha with the support of several non-aligned regional parties like the BJD and the TRS, which have often joined the treasury benches in the past, despite vehement opposition by the Congress and strident anti-BJP parties like the TMC, which have been claiming that citizenship can't be given on the basis of religion.

The Congress, which has termed the bill "divisive" and discriminatory, made it clear on Thursday that it will oppose the draft legislation in Parliament. Making the party's stand clear, its leader Rahul Gandhi said in Kerala that the Congress is against "any form of discrimination against anybody in this country".

"So anybody who discriminates against anybody who is Indian, we are against them. That is our line. We believe that India belongs to everybody-all communities, all religions, all cultures," Gandhi told reporters. Opposition parties like the DMP and Trinamool Congress are also opposed to it.

and demanded that it be sent to a parliamentary committee for review.

"The Citizenship Amendment Bill cleared by the central cabinet is both unconstitutional and divisive. Citizenship in the name of religion and discrimination in the name of religion of the citizens through it is totally against the basic structure of the humanitarian and secular Constitution of Dr Bhimrao Ambedkar," Mayawati told reporters. Opposition parties like the DMP and Trinamool Congress are also opposed to it.

Sabarimala verdict not 'final word' as matter referred to larger Bench: SC

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

The Supreme Court on Thursday said its 2018 verdict allowing entry of girls and women of all ages into the Ayyappa temple at Kerala's Sabarimala was not the "final word" as the matter was referred to a larger Bench.

The apex court's observation came when senior advocate Indira Jaising, appearing for a woman devotee, Bindu Ammini, alleged violation of the 2018 verdict and said her client was attacked for her bid to enter the shrine.

Bobde, referring to a recent verdict of the apex court, said the 2018 judgment was not the final word as the issue was referred to a seven-judge bench for consideration.

"There is (an order) for a much larger bench to decide the matter. There is no final word as yet," the bench said.

On November 14, a five-judge Constitution bench headed by then CJI Ranjan Gogoi, in a 3:2 majority verdict, had referred the pleas seeking a review of its historic 2018 judgment to a seven-judge bench, along with other contentious issues of alleged discrimination against Muslim and Parsi women. In September 2018, a five-judge Constitution bench had, by a majority 4:1 verdict, allowed girls and women of all ages to visit the Ayyappa temple at Sabarimala, saying discrimination on physiological grounds was violative of the fundamental rights as enshrined in the Constitution as the right to equality.

Jaising said her client was attacked just outside the police commissioner's office, despite the fact that the earlier judgment allowing entry of all girls and women into the temple was not stayed by the November 14 judgment.

Religious leaders downplay Babri anniv, security stepped up

PTI ■ AYODHYA

Both Muslim and Hindu religious leaders are talking about downplaying the anniversary of the demolition of the Babri mosque, now that the Supreme Court has pronounced its verdict on the Ayodhya dispute.

While the police are taking no chances — an official said the security arrangement in the temple town are similar to those ahead of the SC judgment day — religious organisations have assured that the December 6 anniversary will be low key.

While right-wing Hindu organisations earlier "celebrated" the day when a mob pulled down the structure on the disputed site, some Muslim groups mourned it.

against observing the 27th anniversary of the demolition as "Shaurya Diwas".

"Yaum-e-gham (day of sorrow) will be observed, wherever it was observed last year. And, it is up to individuals to observe it or not," senior AIMPLB office-bearer Zafaryab Jilani said.

VHP spokesman Sharad Sharma said, "There will be no public function. People may light earthen lamps in various temples. Seers are also of the view that truth has triumphed so there is no relevance of the celebrations."

On November 30, Ram Janmabhoomi Nyas chief Mahant Nriya Gopal Das too had appealed against observing "Shaurya Diwas", saying there was no relevance left for it after the apex court verdict.

Maulana Shafiqe Alam of Terhi Bazaar Masjid, which is in close proximity to the Ramjanmabhoomi, on Thursday said Friday prayers would be held in the mosque at 1 pm.

"Around 150-200 Muslims are likely to attend it," he said. Recalling developments on November 8, a day before the apex court gave its verdict, Shafiqe Alam said, "There are around 40-50 Muslim families in this area, of which 30 had sent their womenfolk to other places. Some financially well-off people too shifted ahead of the Supreme Court judgment."

"Most of them returned after November 14. There were no clashes, but people were feeling sad over the judgment. I too had gone to my native place in Bihar's Gaya and returned on November 19," he said, adding that police were very helpful. He, however, blamed "outsiders" for vitiating the atmosphere of Ayodhya, saying his Hindu neighbours were very nice.

"Even during marriage or any other celebrations in their households, they switch off the music system during namaaz," he said.

Meanwhile, security is tight in the temple town with a senior Uttar Pradesh Police official saying the arrangements are similar to the plan they had devised for November 9, the day the apex court pronounced verdict on the Ramjanmabhoomi-Babri Masjid land dispute.

"The security plan for December 6 will be a continuation of the plan we had devised for November 9," Additional Director General of Police (Law and Order) PV Ramastry told PTI, adding that the precautions taken by them were the same they had adopted on the judgment day.

Ayodhya SSP Ashish Tiwari said the entire district had been divided into four zones, 10 sectors and 14 sub-sectors.

"As many as 78 sand bag posts have been established with armed policemen posted there. Barriers have been put in place to control traffic. As many as 269 police pickets have been set up in sensitive areas," Tiwari said.

The SSP added that 305 troublemakers had been identified and action was being initiated against them.

Apart from this, nine quick response teams have been deployed.

"To combat any emergency situation, five arresting parties have been formed in addition to 10 temporary jails," he said, adding that anti-sabotage teams were checking hotels, dharamshalas and other public places. He said people had been appealed to immediately inform police about any suspicious activity or people. The public had also been asked not to fall prey to any rumour mongering and maintain harmony, he said.

"Stress has been laid on confidence-building measures," the SSP said, adding that they had contacted saints, traders and academics in this regards.

More review petitions in Ayodhya case: AIMPLB secy

Lucknow: Six more litigants are set to file review petitions against the Supreme court verdict in the Ayodhya case, an AIMPLB office-bearer said here on Thursday.

The Jamiat Ulema-e-Hind has already filed a review petition. Maulana Syed Ashhad Rashidi, legal heir of original litigant M Siddiq, filed the plea, saying the judgment suffers from "errors apparent on record and warrants a review under Article 137 of the Constitution of India".

Commenting on the fresh pleas on Thursday, All India Muslim Personal Law Board secretary Zafaryab Jilani told PTI, "Review petitions are being preparing and these can be filed in next two days."

Jilani said the date for filing would be disclosed as soon as they were complete.

According to the November 9 verdict, the Supreme Court had said the entire 2.77 acre of disputed land should be handed over to the deity Ram Lalla, who was one of the three litigants.

The five-judge Constitution bench also directed the Centre to allot a five-acre plot to the Sunni Waqf Board in Ayodhya to build a mosque.

The Sunni Central Waqf Board has, however, decided against filing a review plea. The board also said it was yet to take a call on whether to accept the plot or not.

The AIMPLB had on Sunday asserted that 99 per cent of Muslims in the country wanted a review of the Supreme Court verdict.

BJP Govt has ruined economy, polity, society: Didi

SAUGAR SENGUPTA ■ KOLKATA

Miffed by alleged regular attempts by State Governor Jagdeep Dhankhar at interfering in day-to-day business of the State Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee on Thursday slammed the Central Government for trying to run a parallel Government in nobody is able to speak," adding how nobody was safe in the present political environment where "whoever raises a voice against this situation comes under the scanner," of the Enforcement Directorate, Central Bureau of Investigation or other such agencies.

Situation was such that the industrialists who want to invest in India were now scared to do so considering the suffocating political climate of the country.

Banerjee said how she wanted to play a positive role for the general people, the economy and industry adding how she did not increase the railway fare as the Railway Minister.

Today "the Central government is trying to sell off the Indian Railways, BSNL, and Air India... the banks too have been merged. I am scared of the future of the insurance sector also... Unemployment will be the biggest disaster for the country," she said condemning the Government's approach towards controlling inflation.

"Look how the onion prices are shooting through the roof and nothing is being done about that," she said wondering "who is responsible for this epidemic situation."

In a no-holds-barred attack on the Centre she said how New Delhi's arrogance was being projected through its blind persuasion of a discriminatory NRC policy which is "designed to pursue a divide-and-rule politics."

Banerjee criticism of the Centre came almost in tandem with Governor Dhankhar's condemnation of the State Government when he said that democracy had been caged in Bengal.

A furious Governor who visited the State Assembly on Thursday after informing Speaker Biman Banerjee in advance but "failed to find even as single soul in the Assembly premises," told the media that "democracy is being humiliated in Bengal," where a Governor failed to find an entry in the Assembly House.

He said how the Speaker had earlier invited his wife and him to visit the Assembly and even have lunch there but later cancelled the invitation saying he would not be available on the appointed day and time.

He said "this is sad day for the democracy of the State," wondering why the gate number 3 which was specially used for the entry of the VVIPs including the Governor was kept closed. "I knew that the House was adjourned for a few days but this does not mean that the secretariat should be closed," he said adding "you cannot make the legislature captivity with such exercises. Democracy is being humiliated, not me. We are caging democracy. However, as the Governor of the state, I will never bow down and will work to uphold the democratic principles of the State."

Claiming that the purpose of his visit was to see the historic building, the background and to visit the library," the Governor who met with a similar treatment at the Calcutta University on Wednesday when the top functionaries including the Vice Chancellor and the Registrar went missing when he visited the campus said.

Slamming the Chief Minister he said that she had failed to perform constitutional duties for the last few months, adding how as a Governor he had never been briefed by the Government on important issues like cyclone Bulbul.

The Raj Bhavan and the Nabanna (Secretariat) had been at loggerheads ever since Dhankhar by-passed the State administration and went to rescue Union Minister Babul Supriyo who was trapped in a students' agitation in Jadavpur University on September 19. Subsequently the Governor took a number of administrative tours on his own accord infuriating the Chief Ministers whose Cabinet colleagues openly hit out at the Governor for running a parallel administration in Bengal at the behest of Union Home Minister Amit Shah.

Shame to our country's democratic history, says Jagdeep Dhankhar

Kolkata: Jagdeep Dhankhar who had to wait outside the West Bengal Assembly on Thursday as the gate designated for the Governor was locked, said the "humiliation" meted out to the Governor's post has put the country's democratic history to "shame".

Later Dhankhar entered the Assembly premises through Gate no 4, meant for media persons and officials.

"Why is gate no 3 closed? Despite my prior intimation, the gate is closed. The Assembly being adjourned does not mean it is closed."

"The Governor's gate being locked has put our democratic history to shame. This is not an insult to me, but an insult to the people of the state and the Constitution," Dhankhar told reporters.

According to Assembly norms, gate no 3 is designated for the governor's entry and exit. Dhankhar had on Wednesday written to Assembly Speaker Biman Banerjee expressing his desire to look into its facilities and also visit the library.

"After I had informed about my visit, the special secretary of Raj Bhavan, received a message inviting me and my wife for a lunch by the speaker. I accepted it.

"But within one-and-half hours of receiving the message, my special secretary received another message from the Assembly secretary, stating that the invite stands cancelled. He was also told that the secretary and special secretary of the Assembly will not be present during my visit," the Governor said after coming out of the Assembly. "I wonder what happened during one-and-a-half hours that every thing changed. I will write to the speaker that what happened today has belittled his chair," he said.

Hitting out at the State Government for trying to undermine democratic norms and constitutional posts, the Governor said he will not be "cowed down" by such "antics" of the ruling Trinamool Congress (TMC).

"I will continue to work towards upholding constitutional and democratic norms. The role of the governor and the Government is clearly defined in the Constitution. I can't be cowed down by such antics," he said. In an unprecedented development on Tuesday, the speaker had adjourned the House for two days, saying that the Bills, slated to be placed in the Assembly, were yet to get the Governor's approval. However, the claim was refuted by the Raj Bhavan, which in a statement termed the situation as "factually untenable".

MHA ask States to send suggestions for recasting of IPC, CrPC

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

The Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) has asked all State Governments to send their suggestions for a major overhaul and recasting of the Indian Penal Code (IPC) and the CrPC, officials said on Thursday.

The new structure and content of criminal laws will be citizen centric and will reflect the aspirations of a modern democracy and provide for speedy justice, especially to the weaker sections of society, an official said.

The Bureau of Police Research and Development (BPRD) may undertake review of the laws such as the IPC, CrPC, Indian Evidence Act and the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act. The BPRD will constitute a suitable working or consultative group and submit a report.

The laws should reflect the modern reality and the revised laws should be in accordance with democratic aspirations of the people and provide speedy justice to women, children and weaker sections of the people, another official said.

The new laws are required to focus on simplifying legal procedures so that ease of living is ensured for the common man.

Union Home Minister Amit Shah had recently said in Lucknow that the Centre would soon be making changes in laws related to internal security, including necessary amendments in the IPC and the CrPC.

Union Minister of State for Home Affairs G Kishan Reddy had said on Saturday in Hyderabad that the IPC and the CrPC would be amended to expedite trial in grave criminal offences such as rape and murder.

Trivandrum Press Club rocked by attacks on women journo

KUMAR CHELLAPPAN ■ CHENNAI

Trivandrum Press Club, a trendsetter for other Press clubs in the country, is in the news, this time for wrong reasons. Thursday evening saw the city police arresting M Radhakrishnan, a journalist who is also the secretary of the Press Club from the club premises on charges of assaulting a woman journalist.

the "victim" on charges of house-trespass in order to commit offence and voluntarily causing hurt. The complainant said that Radhakrishnan was enraged over the visit to her house by one of her companions in late evenings. On November 30, Radhakrishnan had trespassed into her house questioning her over the visit by her friend at late hours and assaulted her in front of her children.

Radhakrishnan reportedly slapped the male companion and demanded that the duo apologise to the local residents for their "inappropriate behaviour" and swear not to meet again after office hours. The Press Club secretary had also collected some people before whom the entire incident happened. The lady told the police that Radhakrishnan had threatened her that he would spoil her family life if she does not obey his orders.

The Network of Women in Media staged a demonstration in front of the Press club on Thursday condemning the incident and demanding the arrest of Radhakrishnan. They described Radhakrishnan's behaviour as a 'malicious attempt to impose a medieval and misogynist moral code on working journalists.' But Radhakrishnan denied all allegations. He said his intention was only to save his colleague from the "anger of the locals" who had objected to the presence of a man and woman in the residential neighbourhood at that hour of the night.

The Kerala State Women's Commission chaired by M C Josephine, senior CPI(M) leader ordered a suo motu case against Radhakrishnan and others based on media reports about the incident. A release by the Commission said that it would also ask the City Police Commissioner to hold a thorough probe into the incident and submit his findings. Josephine said that she would find out whether all media institutions in the State have Internal Complaints Committee to examine the woes of women journalists.

This is the second incident of its kind to rock the Trivandrum Press Club. Last week saw one of the lady students of the Press Club's Institute of Journalism complaining to the authorities that Neelan, a faculty member-cum-journalist sent obscene messages to her mobile phone. Neelan, who is the son of national award winning actor Premji for his role in the Malayalam film Piravi, has since been removed from the list of faculties, according to Press Club office bearers. This case also is being probed by the Press Club management.

Justice Arun Mishra apologises for 'contempt threat' to senior lawyer

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

Supreme Court judge Justice Arun Mishra Thursday said he would "apologise a hundred times" with "folded hands" if anybody is hurt by his words, two days after he had warned a senior lawyer of contempt action while hearing land acquisition matter.

Justice Mishra's remarks came after a battery of senior lawyers led by Kapil Sibal, Mukul Rohatgi, A M Singhvi, Dushyant Dave and Supreme Court Bar Association President Rakesh Khanna requested him to be patient in dealing with them during the course of judicial proceedings.

"If I have hurt anybody, I not only apologise but I will give 'dandavat' apology a hundred times," Justice Mishra said, adding, "If anybody has felt anything at any point of time, with folded hands, I am apologising."

He further said, "I am more associated with the bar. From me, you can take it that the bar is the mother of the bench. I respect the bar like anything. From the core of my heart, I am saying that please do not have that impression in your mind."

Schoolgirl's letter rattles DMK leadership

PNS ■ CHENNAI

The move by the Government of Tamil Nadu to introduce 300 hours long Hindi teaching programme in the State-owned International Institute of Tamil Studies for 66 students who came forward on their own to learn the language has drawn the ire of the Dravidian major, the DMK.

What has caused further embarrassment to the DMK leadership was a letter written by a school student from Sivaganga to party chief MK Stalin asking him why he was against Navodaya Vidyalyayas and Hindi.

Thangam Thennarasu, DMK leader and a close confidante of Stalin has fired the first salvo by claiming that the move to teach Hindi was a regressive move. "This is an attempt by the AIADMK Government to destroy Tamil language and culture," charged Thennarasu while speaking to reporters at Chennai.

But Ma Foi Pandiarajan, the minister for Tamil Development said the allegation by Thennarasu, himself a former minister of education, was without understanding ground realities. "Learning of the languages is optional. All students have agreed to join the course out of their own interest. The Government has allotted Rs 3 lakh each to hold Hindi and French classes in the Institute. We will have 300 hours of Hindi and another 300 hours of French classes," said Pandiarajan. The minister also said that the courses would facilitate comparative learning of literature, besides opening the window of job opportunities in the country and abroad.

Meanwhile more and more students, civil rights activists and educationists have come out questioning the stance of the DMK towards introduction of Hindi in the State's curriculum. What stood out in the latest round of anti-Hindi tirade by the DMK is a letter written by a school student to Stalin questioning the propriety behind his opposition towards opening Navodaya Schools in the State.

Tamil Nadu is the only State in India which does not allow Navodaya Schools as part of the two-language policy pursued by the Dravidian parties.

B Saadhanashree, a school student, said in her letter to the DMK chief 'not to fool the people of Tamil Nadu by saying that learning Hindi would destroy Tamil'.

She also accused the DMK chief of preventing the people of Tamil Nadu from learning Hindi to protect his own family.

Saadhanashree, belonging to a middle-class family in Sivagangai district, said that her father had to work as a driver in a school to pay her annual fee of Rs 30,000/- in her letter which was published in "Kalvi Today", a magazine exclusive for school education and academics, she asked why the DMK was opposing the opening up of Navodaya Schools, a concept public school launched by former Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi in 1986 as part of his initiative to make quality public school education available to the socially and backward children.

"It isn't the rich families like yours that will benefit from Navodaya schools but students from poor and middle-class families in villages, like us," said Saadhanashree.

She further stated that students from Navodaya Schools in Puducherry passed the NEET medical entrance examination. "But can you say how many students from Tamil Nadu Government-run schools could pass the NEET?" asked the student.

UNNAO RAPE CASE

Yogi seeks report by Thursday, Priyanka attacks UP Govt

PNS ■ LUCKNOW

Taking serious note of an incident in which a rape survivor was set ablaze by an accused in Unnao on Thursday morning, Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath asked senior officers to visit the spot and submit a report by Thursday evening.

Yogi also ordered that the best treatment to the victim be ensured free of cost. On his intervention, the victim was later air-lifted to New Delhi for treatment.

In a statement issued in Lucknow on Thursday morning, Yogi directed Divisional Commissioner of Lucknow, Mukesh Meshram and IG (Lucknow Range) SK Bhagat to visit Unnao immediately and submit their reports on the incident.

The CM also asked the authorities to approach the court for cancelling the bail of the rape accused and invoke stringent sections of the IPC against them for the gory crime.

The victim is fighting for her life with around 90 per cent burns while all five accused have been arrested. Meanwhile, the incident drew more criticism to the Yogi Government which has been under fire by the Opposition over deteriorating law and order.

Reacting to the gruesome incident, Congress leader Priyanka Gandhi trained her guns at Union Home Minister Amit Shah and Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath over the poor law and order situation in the State.

"Union Home Minister and UP Chief Minister blatantly lied claiming that law and order situation in the State has improved. Seeing such incidents on a daily basis is enraging," Priyanka tweeted.

In another tweet, the Congress leader posted, "Hurt by the news of health of Unnao victim. Pray to God that the victim gains health soon."

State Congress chief Ajay Kumar Lal alleged that the Yogi Government had no moral right to continue and should resign at it could not protect the lives of women. He announced that a delegation of the party would soon visit Unnao to probe the matter.

"We will fight in Parliament and on the street for the security of women in the country," Lal said while alleging that the BJP Government in the State was not serious on women's safety.

Samajwadi Party chief Akhilesh Yadav also demanded that the Yogi Government stepped down owning moral responsibility.

In a tweet on Thursday, Akhilesh said, "The State Government should take moral responsibility and step down over the daring incident in which the rape victim was torched."

The SP chief also appealed to the court to take the incident seriously and direct the Government for adequate security and treatment of the victim.

State Secretary of CPI (ML), Sudhakar Yadav said in been tremendous rise in violence against women in the State.

"The figures were testimony to this as in recent incidents in Sambhal and Unnao, attempts were made to burn the rape victims to erase evidence and witnesses," he said.

On the other hand, UP Women's Commission chairperson Vimla Batham asked the Unnao district authorities to send a detail report on the crime.

"We are very serious on the issue and would recommend to the Government to initiate stern action against the culprits," she said.

Earlier, BJP MLA from Unnao Kuldeep Singh Sengar was charged with raping a minor neighbour and later trying to eliminate her to erase evidence, has been languishing in jail along with his aides.

Pawar expresses shock

Mumbai: NCP chief Sharad Pawar on Thursday expressed shock after a rape survivor in Uttar Pradesh was set ablaze by five men, and asked the Centre to take immediate cognisance of the incident.

Pawar also alleged that the incident would not have occurred if the culprits were prosecuted "in time".

"Extremely shocked to hear that the girl who filed a rape complaint in #Unnao was set ablaze. The victim is battling for her life. If the culprits were prosecuted in time this wouldn't have happened. Home department of the central government should take immediate cognisance," Pawar tweeted.

Senior NCP leader Praful

Patel said the incident took place a few days after the brutal rape and killing of a veterinary doctor from Hyderabad, and asked if the country failed its women and society.

"It is about time the Government takes immediate measures towards women safety. To stop crime against women, the Government must punish the perpetrators immediately to send a strong message to society. #Unnao #Justice," Patel said on the micro-blogging site.

The rape survivor from Unnao in Uttar Pradesh was allegedly set ablaze early Thursday morning by five men, including one who was an accused in the crime, police said. PTI

Teen gangraped by two men in UP's Sitapur

PTI ■ SITAPUR (UP)

A 15-year-old girl was allegedly gangraped by two men in Uttar Pradesh's Sitapur district, police said on Thursday.

The incident took place on the night of December 3 when two persons took the victim to the sugarcane field, raped her and later abandoned her in the field after gagging her and tying her hands and legs, they said.

She was found on Wednesday after her family members along with the villagers started a search for her. Superintendent of Police, L R Kumar said an FIR been registered and girl was being treated in a local hospital.

The accused — Rupesh and Yogendra — have been arrested and an investigation has been initiated, the SP said.

Woman's charred body found in Bengal's Malda; rape suspected

Malda: In a rerun of the Hyderabad veterinary doctor's murder, a young woman's charred body was found in a mango orchard in West Bengal's Malda district on Thursday, raising suspicion that she was raped and killed, a senior police officer said.

The body has suffered severe burns, making it difficult to ascertain the woman's identity, Deputy Superintendent of Police (DSP) Prasanta Debnath said.

Local farmers spotted the body in English Bazar Police Station area in the morning, following which they raised an alarm, the DCP, who visited the site along with Superintendent of Police Alok Rajoria, said.

"Prima facie it seems that the victim is in her early 20s. Her body has several injury marks. We have sent it for post-mortem to Malda medical college," he said, adding that a probe has been initiated in the case. PTI

Minor raped by her 14-year-old cousin in Himachal's Kullu

Shimla: A 10-year-old girl was allegedly raped by her 14-year-old cousin in Himachal Pradesh's Kullu district, police said on Thursday.

The incident took place on Wednesday when the girl was on her way to school, Kullu Superintendent of Police Gaurav Singh said.

The accused is a Class 10 student and a juvenile, he added. He is being produced before the Juvenile Justice Board, the SP added.

A case has been registered against the accused under section 376AB (punishment for rape on woman under 12 years of age) of the Indian Penal Code and sections 4 and 6 of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act at a women police station on the victim's statement, he said. The victim's medical examination was conducted at the regional hospital in Kullu, he added. PTI

Bengal plans setting up call centre to help women in distress

Kolkata: In the backdrop of the Hyderabad gangrape and murder of a veterinary doctor, the West Bengal Government is mulling to set up a call centre having a toll free number to cater to the complaints of crime against women in the districts, a senior official said on Thursday.

The centre would be funded from a portion of the Nirbhaya fund that the state gets from the Union Government.

"There will be a toll-free number for the purpose. Once a call is received, the executives at the call centre will alert the concerned police station in the districts for prompt action," the officer said.

Around 40% of the amount out of the Nirbhaya fund that the State gets from the centre would be earmarked for the purpose, he said. The Hyderabad horror has sent an alarm across the country and the proposed measure is a step to further strengthen security of women in Bengal. PTI

Efficiency of system should be improved to check crime against women: Ex-judge Chelameswar

Hyderabad: Former Supreme Court judge J Chelameswar has said calls for tough punishments to culprits are made whenever sensational crimes happen but making the system function more efficiently was required to check offences against women.

Lamenting that conviction rate was low, he said there should be a debate on improving the efficiency of the system involving investigation, prosecution and resolution without delay and various aspects of the issue should be taken to the notice of the government and the legislatures.

Speaking at a meeting on women's security organised by the C R Foundation here on Wednesday in the wake of the gruesome rape and murder of a woman veterinarian in Telangana, he said crimes against women were a multifaceted issue.

'Rhetoric' calling for tough punishments to the culprits was seen when sensational crimes happen, but the system should be made to function more efficiently without getting into such rhetoric, he said.

In states like Uttar Pradesh, criminal cases remained unresolved for about 30 years, he said adding a case pending for 24 years had once come before him as a judge.

Citing examples of prolonged delay in cases, including one handled by him that too over 25 years, he said the idea was not to criticise anybody. The law functioned on the belief that there would be some fear.

If this is our efficiency, I don't understand why would the person committing crimes would fear, he said.

"...If we believe that there should be a law in a civilised society and punishment should be given as per the law, then it was the responsibility of all to ensure that the laws functioned properly, he said. PTI

66.59% turnout in Karnataka bypolls

Bengaluru: The crucial byelection to 15 Karnataka assembly constituencies that would have a bearing on the stability of the BS Yediyurappa-led BJP Government saw an estimated 66.49 per cent voter turnout on Thursday and was by and large peaceful.

After a slow pace in the first half of the day since polling began at 7 am with only 33 per cent till 1.30 pm, voting picked up later in the day though it was below the percentage recorded in the Assembly elections in 2018.

The four constituencies in the city clocked poor voter turnout. Officials said an estimated 66.49 per cent of the 37.78 lakh eligible electors cast their votes in the 15 segments till 6 pm. The figure was likely to go up as at some places people standing in queues at close were allowed to vote. According to the figures available, the highest turnout of 90.44 per cent was recorded in Hosakote while the lowest of 43.25 per cent at K R Pura here.

Cities three other constituencies too have recorded comparatively lower turnout, Mahalakshi Layout 50.92 per cent, Shivajinagar 44.60, Yeshwanthpur 54.13 per cent. SEXUAL HARRASMENT CASE

Tanushree Dutta files protest plea, seeks rejection of closure report, further probe

TN RAGHUNATHA ■ MUMBAI

Six months after the police gave a "clean chit" to senior actor Nana Patekar in the alleged sexual harassment case filed against him by her, actress Tanushree Dutta on Thursday filed a protest petition a city court seeking rejection of a "closure report" filed by the Oshiwara police and direction for "further investigations" in the case.

Tanushree, who had earlier on July 8 moved a city court to oppose filed by the police and obtained time from a court to file a 'protest petition', Tanushree formally filed the "protest petition" before the Railway Mobile Metropolitan Court and Court at Andheri in north Mumbai, seeking rejection of "B Summary report" (Closure report) filed by the police in the alleged sexual harassment case filed by her against Patekar in October last year.

In the protest petition filed on her behalf by senior Advocate Nitin Satpute, Tanushree urged the court to replace the police officer who had earlier filed "false" closure before the court and sought "further investigations", if deemed necessary and urged the court to monitor the investigations in line with the law laid down by the Supreme Court in the 2016 Sudhir Bhaskarrao Tambe Vs Hemant Yashwant Dhage case.

After allowing the protest petition filed by the actress, the court adjourned the case for arguments on January 16, 2020.

The investigators file a B-Summary report in a court when they do not find any evidence against the accused person to file a charge-sheet against him and seek a trial.

The 'protest petition' is a petition that an aggrieved person or complainant files before a magistrate when he or she is not satisfied with the police report filed before the Court concerned. The complainant may move the petition against the negative police report which is called the "protest petition" and the same is treated as complaint under Section 190 of Criminal Procedure Code.

Under section 190 of CrPC, the Magistrate may cognisance of the complaint, hear the complainant and inquire into his or her grievance as provided under sections 200 and 202 of Cr. PC.

Among other things, the actress urged the court to subject all the accused, including the investigating officer, and witness nos 5 to 13 to Narco Analysis, Lie Detector and Brain Mapping Tests and initiate action against the Investigation Officer (IO) and also launch contempt proceedings concerned.

On June 12, the Oshiwara police had filed a closure report in a local court at Andheri in north-west Mumbai, stating that they had no evidence to prosecute Patekar in the alleged sexual harassment case filed against him by actress Tanushree.

Following the development, Tanushree had alleged that at the behest of Patekar, all her witnesses were silenced by intimidation and fake witness-ess were put forth to weaken the case. "What was the rush to file a B-summary report when all of my witnesses have not even recorded their statements yet?," Tanushree had asked.

Acting on a complaint filed by Tanushree on October 6, 2018, the Oshiwara police had registered a First Information Report (FIR) against senior Patekar and three others four days later.

On October 10 last year, the Oshiwara police had formally registered an FIR against Patekar and three others under sections 354 (Assault or criminal force to women with intent to outrage her modesty), 354-A (Assault or use of criminal force with intent to disrobe her) and section 509 (word, gesture or act intended to insult the modesty of a woman) of IPC. In her complaint lodged with the police on October 6, Tanushree had alleged that the incident took place on March 26, 2008 during the shooting of a song in the film "Horn Ok Pleasee".

Tanushree had said that the entire song was to be picturised on the actress, while Patekar had only line in the song. She said that before the shoot, she had made it clear to the producer and director that she would not enact or perform any lewd, vulgar or uncomfortable steps in the particular song.

On the 4th day of the shoot, 26th March 2008, while shooting was going on, Nana Patekar's behaviour was inappropriate towards me. He was on the set despite his work in the song being over and he was grabbing me by the arms and pushing me around on the pretext of teaching me how to dance. When he was teaching indecently and unnecessarily, then I felt very uncomfortable because of his behaviour and I felt he has outraged my modesty," Tanushree had alleged.

"He (Patekar) told the choreographer and other junior artists to back away so that he could teach me the dance steps through he was not a choreographer and he was not required during the choreography as per my previous rehearsals," the actress added.

The actress also told the police that she had lodged a complaint with the Cine and TV Artists Association, which passed the order without considering her complaint for apology.

Udhav to meet PM Modi for first time post Govt formation

TN RAGHUNATHA ■ MUMBAI

In a significant political development, Maharashtra Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray will meet Narendra Modi for the first time after he snapped ties with the BJP and formed a Government with the NCP and Congress, when the Prime Minister arrives in Pune on Friday night for a national conference of top police officials.

Uddhav will receive the Prime Minister when he arrives in Pune at 9.50 pm on Friday for a national conference of directors general and inspectors general of police, to be held in Pune from December 6 to 8.

Union Home Minister Amit Shah is also likely to attend the three-day conference of the DGPs and IGs to be held at the Indian Institute of Science Education and Research (IISER) in Pune's Pashan area.

Though it is more of a protocol that a Chief Minister receives the Prime Minister on the latter's arrival in his state, it is of political significance, considering that Uddhav, who is the Shiv Sena president, will meet Modi for the first time since the three-decade-old saffron alliance broke down and the Sena joined ranks with the NCP and Congress to form a Government.

The brief meeting between Modi and Uddhav at the Pune airport on Friday night will have a positive bearing on the relations between the two leaders in the coming days.

Modi was among the first to congratulate Uddhav on his being sworn in as the chief minister of Maharashtra on November 28. "Congratulations to Uddhav Thackeray Ji on taking oath as the CM of Maharashtra. I am confident he will work diligently for the bright future of Maharashtra," Modi had tweeted.

Replying to Modi, Uddhav had tweeted: Thank you Hon'ble Prime Minister Shri @narendramodiji for your kind wishes. With you as my big brother in the Centre & with a strong cabinet in the state, I am looking forward to working persistently, to build a New Maharashtra. Meanwhile, the state government and the Centre have planned elaborate security arrangement for Modi's visit to Pune and also for the national conference of the State DGPs and IGs coming from across the country.

Insider vs outsider

By distinguishing immigrants on the basis of religion, the Citizenship Bill goes against the spirit of our Constitution

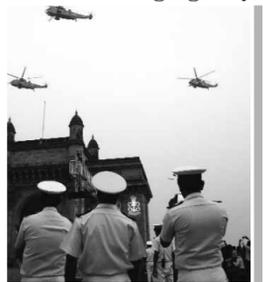

From the looks of it, the resurrected Citizenship (Amendment) Bill, which died in the Rajya Sabha last session because of a lack of numbers and consensus, is a polarising tool meant for the Bengal elections and intimidating Muslims. For it completely keeps the Northeastern States, which equally share the border with Bangladesh, out of its purview, saying most of them have Inner Line Permits and special status that guard them against an influx of “outsiders” (Hindu immigrants in this case) and, therefore, need not be anxious about a law that would apply for the rest of the country. Opposition to the Bill stems from the fact that it reinforces ethnic and communal faultlines due to its overt and covert support to selective migrants escaping persecution in the neighbourhood. While it proposes to grant Indian citizenship to fleeing Hindus, Sikhs, Buddhists, Jains, Christians and Parsis, who are residents of Pakistan, Afghanistan and Bangladesh, it excludes persecuted Muslim sects, the Shias and Ahmadiyas. In other words, non-Muslim immigrants would not face deportation and Muslims would. It also proposes to reduce the mandated 11 years of residence in India for citizenship eligibility to six years, hastening cooption. By distinguishing settlers on the basis of religion — that too pitting Muslims versus non-Muslims — the isolationist Bill goes against the fundamental right to equality under Article 14 of the Constitution. Ostensibly, the BJP wants to neutralise the Muslim infiltration in border States, encouraged by votebank politics of past years, with a Hindu influx and effect a demographic change. But this idea is preposterous, simply because there aren’t enough Hindus left in these countries who would want to return to their roots. The population of Hindus in Bangladesh at the time of Partition was close to 30 per cent and is currently estimated to be less than five per cent. The Hindu population in Pakistan was 23 per cent at the time of Independence and is currently about one per cent. Afghanistan’s Hindu population declined since 1992 from a quarter million to less than 220 families. As of 2017, no more than a few thousand Hindus and Sikhs were left in Afghanistan. The less said about the other minorities the better. So, illegal Muslim infiltration from Bangladesh is the only concern because of porous borders and needs to be monitored. Pakistan does push militants into Kashmir but migrants are hardly a problem in the northwestern part of the country. Clearly, the Bill has been envisioned with Bangladesh as its focus.

Also, now that Assam, Arunachal, Mizoram, Tripura, Meghalaya and Nagaland have been kept out of the Bill’s purview, it is clear that the BJP’s target is undoing Muslim immigration into Bengal. It has now stepped back from the Northeast simply because it is investing too much in the region in developing a new votebank and strengthening its footprint. Massive protests have already taken place in the Northeast, especially in Assam, where ethnic groups have raised concerns about the burden of “illegal migrants” being passed on to their State alone and it being contradictory to the spirit of the Assam Accord and the just-released National Register of Citizens (NRC) list. The Assamese argue that the Bill granting citizenship to Hindu refugees from across the border till the cutoff year of 2014 would swamp Ahom identity and the right of indigenous people over their land, opportunities and resources. The Conrad Sangma-led Meghalaya Democratic Alliance (MDA), where BJP is a coalition partner, had earlier sought an immediate review while the Mizos feared a massive influx by Buddhist Chakmas. The indigenous people, be it the Assamese, Khasis or the Nagas, argue that the Northeastern States are yet to recover from the influx of Hindu Bengalis from 1971 and, of course, the subsequent illegal Muslim immigrants. They equate all refugees to the drought of economic opportunities for locals and are deeply distrustful of any migration policy. So now that these States are out of the Bill, it effectively applies only to Bengal. Combined with NRC, which is intended to review the status of naturalised settlers, the Bill clearly seeks to loosen up the Muslim votebank in Bengal, which has almost a monolithic loyalty to the Trinamool Congress. The BJP might use the Hindu refugees like the Congress did the Muslim ones but both encourage alienation of locals rather than integration. What everybody seems to forget is that for all our professed secularism, we are carrying the ghosts of Partition. That explains why communalisation is an easy gamble. We cannot afford to derail the peace by stoking such sentiments.

A shipless Navy

India has an ocean when other nations just have seas but it is not doing a great job of protecting its naval interests

When Admiral Karambir Singh bemoaned the lack of funds to the Navy, he stated not just a fact of life but also hinted at just how poorly India has treated its maritime force. This is peculiar given not just India’s huge coastal border and the need to protect it but also the need to project itself as a power in the Indian Ocean Region (IOR). Indian interests in the IOR and that of its geographic neighbours are being challenged by the eastern neighbour giant, China, which has been busy acquiring assets across the IOR. China’s “String of Pearls” is one that can potentially be used to strangulate India economically and militarily in case of a potential future conflict with assets like Gwadar in Pakistan. Sri Lanka’s Hambantota Port is the most telling example of how China is developing a form of economic imperialism and the potential of deploying that against India. India’s dwindling allocation to the Navy as a percentage of all defence funds has the sea service upset, and rightly so, from 18 per cent of overall funds in 2012-13 to 13 per cent in 2019-20. While some could dismiss this as inter-service rivalry and the constant jostling inside the forces for money, a reality in all large military powers, the Indian Navy is currently moth-eaten. New projects have taken eons, best exemplified by the inordinate gestation and commissioning process for the Project 15 and 15A guided missile destroyers. By the time the Project 15B ‘Vishakhapatnam-class’ ships come into service in 2021-22, India’s 10 modern guided missile cruisers will be outnumbered by China’s 34 Type 52C, 52D and Type 55 Destroyers. Even for coastal defence, a decision to purchase modern minesweepers have continued for two decades. The Indian Navy, however, does need to share some blame with an unhealthy obsession with aircraft carriers, a need for power projection that has cost us. Carriers are inordinately expensive, take years to produce and in the Indian context, are of little tactical or strategic value against China, although things are slightly different against Pakistan. India should concentrate on rapidly building up its submarine and smaller surface vessel fleet, which with modern weapons can punch well above their weight. India is an old maritime power and we have an ocean when other nations just have seas. We should be proud of that and protect our interests at all costs.

Graded confusion

The new evaluation system of the Delhi university, which is an amalgam of absolute and relative grading systems, is bizarre and is bound to affect academic standards

SHOBHIT MAHAJAN

Confusion (noun): The state of being bewildered or unclear in one’s mind about something. This is how the dictionary defines “confusion.” There certainly seems to be a lot of it currently in the hallowed corridors of the University of Delhi. No, “graded” does not refer to a gradual onset of bewilderment; it is about the complete lack of clarity in the evaluation of academic competence.

Recently, the University of Delhi notified new rules for evaluation. The university, which had hitherto been giving absolute marks to students, moved to a grading system. However, the rules governing the conversion of marks to grades, as decided by the university, are bizarre to say the least.

To get an idea of what the changes are, it is important to recapitulate how evaluation was previously done here. Examinations were evaluated and percentage marks were given in each subject. These marks were then moderated — a process, which contrary to the dictionary meaning of the word, essentially meant that the marks were scaled up in case the students did not do well.

This kind of moderation is something everyone is familiar with. Every year, in response to newspaper reports of a “difficult” paper, the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) agrees to “moderate” the results. This leads to an inordinate number of students getting extremely high marks, in some cases they score 100 per cent marks even in subjects like History.

Massive grade inflation, which results from this innocuously named process of massaging the results, has been the norm in the Delhi University, too, for a number of years now. This form of inflation, like its economic counterpart, is obviously corrosive to the academic well-being of the university.

If this assault on academic standards was not bad enough, this year onwards, the evaluation system has undergone another change, which is truly disastrous. The University Grants Commission (UGC) had asked all universities to introduce the grading system from the 2015-16 academic session. The grading scheme ranges from Outstanding (O) to Fail (F). That by itself is not a problem if the conversion of the raw scores in the examination to the grade was either absolute (as has been the norm in many Indian universities) or if the grades are given on a relative scale where the grades only indicate the student’s position relative to the entire class (as was suggested by the UGC). This is the norm in most universities in the US as well as some institutes in the country. There is nothing inherently good or bad about either of these systems if they are followed consistently.

However, the University of Delhi, in its wisdom, has decided to come up with an amalgam of absolute and relative grading systems, thereby making a mess of what the grades mean. For instance, a student will get an “O” grade if his/her marks (they have already been scaled up/moderated) are more than the lower of 90 per cent or mean+2.5 times the standard deviation.

The 90 per cent condition obviously assumes an absolute grading scheme whereby one’s score is 90 per cent. The second condition is related to a relative grading scheme. This formula assumes that the marks obtained by a class comprising a reasonable number of students would follow what is called a bell-shaped or normal distribution.

In this distribution system, one can compute the average or mean marks obtained as well the standard deviation, which is a measure of the spread around the mean. Thus, a larger standard deviation means that the marks are more spread out around the mean than in a distribution with the same mean but smaller standard deviation.

One of the properties of a normal distribution is that we can say what percentage of the population (in this case the students) would be in various regions of the marks distribution. Thus, a student whose marks are mean + 2.5 times standard deviation would have higher marks than more than 99 per cent of the students.

One can already see that this curious mixture of absolute and relative grading can lead to a strange situation. In principle, one could get an “O” grade even as he/she scores low marks. Consider a class where the mean score is 45 and standard deviation is four. Then anyone with more than 55 marks will get an “O” Looking at the student’s grades, one would have no idea whether the “O” signifies absolute (90 per cent) or relative standing.

The impact of this at the lower end of the grades is even more disastrous. A student needs the lower of 30 per cent or (mean — standard deviation) to pass the course. Now, if the grading was purely relative, what this would mean is that about 16 per cent of the students would necessarily fail. However, the rule stipulates the lower of the two figures. Thus, if the mean and standard deviation is such that the number comes out to be more than 30 per cent, anyone with 30 per cent would pass. On the other hand, if that number comes out to be less than 30 per cent, then those marks are all that are needed to pass. Thus, 30 per cent is the maximum in any paper that would be required by a student to pass the exam.

Hitherto, the percentage required to pass any exam in the university was 40 per cent. This has now been effectively brought down to a maximum of 30 per cent. One can argue that there is nothing sacrosanct about 40 per cent and it is as arbitrary a number as any other. This may be strictly true but what is undeniable is that this would lead to a lowering of academic standards.

This change is actually more problematic than simply some numbers. A majority of the students in the sciences ultimately end up teaching in schools. What the university has effectively done is to ensure that the standard required to get a degree is lowered. The impact this would have on school teaching can only be imagined.

The University of Delhi was only recently deemed as an Institute of Eminence. The philosophy behind this controversial scheme is to endow some institutions to improve their positions in the global university rankings, which seem to have acquired a talisman-like aura with our education planners. Mandating a lowering of academic standards, as one is witnessing in higher education, is certainly an odd way to achieve that objective.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Women deserve respect

Sir — This refers to the editorial, “Crying shame” (December 2). There is a widespread protest in various parts of the country demanding public lynching, chemical castration and capital punishment for perpetrators of the brutal sexual assault and grisly murder of a young veterinarian in Hyderabad. Some of our politicians, too, have demanded the same. At this juncture, my heart goes out to the young girl of Kathua in Jammu & Kashmir, who was abducted, raped for days and then murdered. At that time, the arrests of the accused saw some heartless and communal-minded elements opposing the crackdown. The gravest shock was the presence of people with political affiliations taking part in these protests. For long, I have been against capital punishment for rapists. When confronted with conscience-jolting acts of depravity, it is but normal for people to act in anger and revulsion. Instead, the need is to address the patriarchal inequality inscribed in daily life against women.

A blueprint to revive the economy

The Gross Domestic Product (GDP) growth for the second quarter of the financial year 2019-20 registered a further fall, slipping to 4.5 per cent from the first quarter rate of five per cent. The informal sector, which was neither indexed, monitored or taxed, never figured in its computation. Experts feel that the slowdown was always more pronounced in the unorganised sector, which is far more dependent on cash. As is wont, Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman chose to play down the crisis in Parliament and sought to reel out extraneous details and figures. Truth be told, the Indian economy is faced with a catastrophic recession today. Core sectoral output has shrunk with associated effects on allied manufacturing activities. Private businesses, which had been in expansion mode prior to the onset of the slowdown, have now started scaling back capacity utilisation to minimise systematic risk. And if revenue, whether from sales or investment, dips any further, many small firms will be forced to pull their shutters down. Peremptory cut in corporate tax and a stimulus package for the realty sector were reportedly meant to encourage investment and mitigate liquidity crunch. Bereft of budgetary leverage, the Government then indulged in the forcible appropriation of the contingency fund of the RBI and is now in a hurry to forsake its ownership of profit-making PSUs. The question, however is: Will the tax cut or stimulus engineer a spurt in growth? Or will it lead to a pick-up in consumption/demand? Or is it that under the pretext of structural adjustments, the Government has gone overboard to shield the corporates from existing unpredictability? Only time will unravel the truth. For the time being, only a multi-pronged strategy can resurrect the economy.

Overworked cops

Sir — As per data released by the Bureau of Police Research and Development (BPRD) on July 2, 4,000 police personnel protect about 300 VIPs in Telangana. The VIPs include 17 Lok Sabha MPs, six Rajya Sabha MPs, 120 MLAs and 40 MLAs, among others.

The Chief Minister, State Ministers, a junior Union Minister, Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, Chairman of the Council, judges and bureaucrats are all included in the VIP list.

The scenario, however, changes when it comes to protecting the common man. According to the BPRD’s data, 131 cops take care of a population of one lakh in Telangana as against the national average of 193 cops per one lakh population.

Also, a single policeman mans an area of 2.5 square km, much below the national average of a 1.27 personnel per square kilometre. Telangana is also hamstrung by the lack of police personnel. In fact, it faces the highest shortfall of cops after Uttar Pradesh, Bihar and West Bengal in the country.

And the entire nation, including the media, leaders in the Opposition, activists and the public spewed venom at the police department for its poor handling of the veterinarian’s case who was raped, murdered and then burnt. Did the media ever bother to highlight the poor conditions under which a cop, in any part of this country, lives, works or resides?

A golden investment

Putting money in gold has its pros and cons. However, including it in the portfolio is vital to hedge against volatility and inflation

HIMA BINDU KOTA

Indians have a major love for gold and hold it in high regard as a safe investment option and a nest egg for future generations, especially women. It is estimated that a large chunk of the 700-800 tonnes of gold that India imports goes into making jewellery as women and families traditionally like to think of it as a substitute for money. Even now, gold has not lost its glitter among the host of investment options available like stocks, bonds, mutual funds and real estate, to name a few, as historically, it offers a perfect hedge and stability when the markets do not. This is because it has an inverse relationship to equity investments.

For instance, if the equity markets start performing poorly, gold would have performed well. Adding the yellow metal to an investment portfolio forms a buffer against overall volatility. Additionally, putting money in gold is worthwhile because it is an inflation-beating investment. Over a period of time, the return on gold investment is in line with the rate of inflation.

Increasing political and economic uncertainty in the country and globally is a harsh reality of the times we are living in and it affects the economic environment everywhere. Hence, gold is considered a safe haven in ambiguous circumstances. In fact, history is full of falling empires, political coups and the collapse of currencies. During such times, investors who held gold were able to successfully protect their wealth and in some cases, even use the commodity to escape from the turmoil. Consequently, whenever there is news that events might lead to global economic uncertainty, investors often buy gold as a safe haven.

Any rational investor should include the yellow metal in his portfolio to provide stability and diversify against sharp movement in equity and bond prices.

People can invest in Gold Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs). These are simple products that combine the flexibility of stocks and the simplicity of gold as an investment. ETFs trade on the cash market of the stock exchanges, like any other company stock. They can be bought and sold continuously at market prices. ETFs are excellent passive instruments that are based on gold prices and invest in bullion. Because they are backed by gold, ETFs have complete transparency. Due to their unique structure and creation mechanism, ETFs have much lower expenses as compared to physical gold holding. Gold ETFs are ideal for those who would like to invest in the yellow metal but do not want to suffer the hassles and bear the costs of storing and safeguarding it.

Gold equity funds invest in the shares of firms that are involved in gold mining. These are pure equity funds and are often international in nature since there are not many listed gold mining firms in India. Like any other stock fund, they can deliver much higher returns than pure gold. But when gold prices are low, mining companies shut mines as the cost of production is higher than realisation costs. Stocks of such mining companies were battered for many years. Investors have to deal with three risks in these funds. First, returns from these funds are dependent on gold price movement. Second, these gold funds invest in stocks, which means they carry the risk associated with shares. Third, there is also currency exchange risk. This means if the rupee appreciates, returns can get affected. Gold equity funds are best suited for sophisticated investors and are not ideal for a retail investor.

With the advent of the Sovereign Gold Bond (SGB) scheme investing in the yellow metal has become much easier and convenient now. With the Union Government's SGB scheme, an investor can earn an assured interest rate, eliminating risk and cost of storage. The SGB 2018-19 Series-1 has a subscription price of ₹3,114 per gram and an individual can buy a maximum of 4 kg. SGBs provide attractive interest rates with an asset appreciation opportunity. The annual interest rate offered is 2.5 per cent and the interest is tax free. The redemption is linked to gold prices. There is 100 per cent elimination of risk and cost of storage. Also, SGBs are exempt from capital gains tax, if held till maturity. The bonds carry a tenure of eight years with an option to exit from the fifth year onwards. SGBs are the most efficient way of putting money in gold from an investment point of view if you can stay put for five years or more. Importantly, indexation benefit is available if the bond is transferred before maturity. Gold bonds score high on liquidity as they are tradable on the exchanges. Also, they can be collateral against a loan, an aspect that is missing in ETFs.

Like every investment, putting money in gold also has its pros and cons. However, including it in the portfolio is vital to hedge against volatility and inflation. Depending upon the economic, financial and political situation, the level of diversification should range anywhere between five per cent to 30 per cent.

Unshakeable courage

Twenty five years after Latur was jolted by an earthquake that left a trail of destruction, several thousand women affected by the tragedy are recognised as transformational leaders

MOIN QAZI

Over 26 years ago, on September 30, 1993, Latur district in the Marathwada region of Maharashtra was jolted by an earthquake that left a trail of mass destruction. It ravaged hundreds of villages and uprooted multitudes of people.

Today, several thousand women among those severely affected by the tragedy are recognised as transformational leaders. How these semi-literate and impoverished women converted adversity into opportunity and finally prosperity is a saga of grit and tenacity. The glue that bonded them and provided the necessary impetus towards leading a revolution was a passionate and indefatigable social entrepreneur, Prema Gopalan. Schooled and trained in disaster management, she began reconstruction and rehabilitation work among these women and in 1998 formally launched Swayam Shikshan Prayog (SSP) (self-education for empowerment) with a larger and long-term mission of self-empowerment and self-learning.

The crisis and the consequent social mobilisation for reconstruction of houses gave people the opportunity and impetus for large, community-centered efforts and started creating models for building community resilience. SSP started out as a not-for-profit, helping bridge the gap between the community and the Government following the temblor. It worked to enable women from the community to monitor the relief effort and act as intermediaries by giving feedback to the Government on the progress of building work, selection of beneficiaries and what was needed on the ground.

Prema realised the potential of these rural women and believed they could grow into planners in local development and governance. Building on their capacities, she steered them through a broad-based development strategy of economic and social empowerment. It helped her conceptualise the broad vision for SSP.

The objective of SSP is to promote inclusive and sustainable community development among low income women in climate-threatened areas by building robust ecosystems that could enable them to access skills training, financial and digital literacy and technology and marketing platforms. They have become equipped to navigate the challenges posed by climate change, natural disasters, agriculture, health and sanitation. They also have the negotiating skills to deal with Government agencies and local self-Government bodies.

Women are at the centre of SSP's work, creating the tools, services, and networks they need to break through complex and entrenched situations of poverty and the caprices of the climate. The purpose of its partnerships — spanning entrepreneurship, health, agriculture, technology and financial services — is to create sustainable solutions that can be broadly implemented to improve the lives of women living in poor, rural communities.

Prema believes that rural women should be acknowledged for who they really are — a new generation of dynamic entrepreneurs, job-creators and economy drivers, committed to bringing a change in their communities. She has steered thousands of women in the most vulnerable communities in drought and flood-affected villages by partnering them with global and local businesses to set up sustainable last-mile social enterprises in clean energy, sanitation, basic health services, nutrition and safe agriculture. They have transitioned from self-employment to diversify their ventures, aggregate into value chains and mentor thousands of others to get on the path of entrepreneurship

Prema is a recipient of Social Entrepreneur of the Year Award, 2018 of the Schwab Foundation and the SSP has received a large number of global and national awards including the Equator Prize, 2017 from UNDP and UNFCCC Momentum for Change Award, 2016 for Communities and Climate Change.

One of the key issues that Prema and her team are targeting is climate change and have identified six impact areas. They are linked to agriculture, water and energy resources, food security, health, climate-related natural disasters and climate-induced migration.

“Women can reverse climate change impact for the poor by leading from the front,” says Prema. Among the impoverished, women face the brunt of risks associated with climate change since they are primary managers of energy, water, food and essential services. Hence clean energy products dominate social businesses of these women. Prema's team is enabling thousands of women to succeed in remote markets by selling everything — from solar chargers for mobile phones to more efficient cooking stoves — that can lift a rural household out of extreme poverty. The businesses are leveraging the last-mile rural women's entrepreneurship network for awareness generation on clean energy technologies and access to products and services.

The SSP model comprises four ventures: A resilience fund for women-led businesses; a fraternity of 5,000 self-help groups networked through federations; a rural school of entrepreneurship and leadership for women which provides business, financial and marketing skills; and a market aggregator that provides warehousing, branding, marketing and distribution services to last-mile business women. The consortium nurtures the value chains and entrepreneurial ecosystems that women need to succeed in remote and opaque markets.

Rural women are the human face of poverty and development. They toil on their farms but lack access to land titles and are therefore, not recognised as farmers. This, in turn, denies them access to finance to update their farm, training technology and markets. SSP's women entrepreneurs are taking their communities forward, reshaping the local economy, securing food self-sufficiency, driving local initiatives for increasing incomes, creating jobs, building access to key assets in times of crisis and creating a lasting impact. As a result, they are no longer perceived as beneficiaries; instead they have emerged as partners.

There has also been a failure of agricultural strategy over the last decade, as food crops have gradually been abandoned in favour of cash crops such as sugar cane, which is more profitable but is highly water-intensive. In such a scenario, sustainable and diversified agriculture is the only solution to stop the deepening of India's agrarian crisis, especially since the impacts of climate change are now visible. Water insecurity lies at the core of the crisis. Shifting to organic farming (which increases soil fertility) to grow drought-resistant varieties that provide additional incomes and household nutritional security while simultaneously enhancing biodiversity, is a viable option.

One of the most revolutionary contributions of SSP is in bringing about this shift to sustainable farming and protection of water and natural resources. Men are losing interest in farming but women continue to work the land. The SSP has empowered women farmers in climate-resilient agricultural practices. These women are now active decision-makers on core issues like growing crops, conserving natural resource and increasing biodiversity. In this arid zone, these women collectives have made farming breakthroughs possible. Through the years, SSP has created large-scale programmes aimed at development centered on women's participation and leadership. SSP has also built a support system of village-level networks of entrepreneurs known as sakhis (friends). An innovative intervention is in rural health care. SSP selects and trains women who are landless but have basic education, are interested in health care and community service. These Sakhya Sakhis are community members who receive basic training and live and work in the communities they serve.

“These women conduct a series of preventive tests using mobile health devices, capture the data by using a tablet and upload the results on the cloud server developed by our technology partner,” says Prema. The data is then shared with a doctor, who analyses it and provides a report and prescriptions over the cloud. The Sakhis then guide the patients on the treatment and precautions to be taken. Wherever needed, they are referred to hospitals for further treatment.

The Government, too, has learnt from these initiatives and public health programmes are modelled round them. The community health workers, including the Accredited Social Health Activists (ASHA) and the Auxiliary Nurse Midwife, are indeed the foundation of our public health care system and have played a central role in its success, thereby reducing maternal and child mortality. ASHAs are central to India's strategy to improve maternal and child health and are selected by the village they serve.

Time for serious introspection

As rape-cum-murders and voyeurs watching gruesome videos of crimes on porn sites become more rampant, society needs to mull over the reasons for such moral decay and later augment its institutions to restore ethics should learn martial arts; maybe she should just die in the womb.”

Such gender inequalities in this process find both confirmatory bias and social legitimisation, which again become a cause for concern.

We Indians are highly sensitive, emotional and emphatic people, yet we are the ones with a transient memory. We vehemently vent our angst and frustration with a few candle marches, displaying our momentary spur of rebellion and then get caught in the daily humdrum of our lives.

However, the fact remains that our society is facing moral decay! While on one hand the majority of the nation was mourning over and petrified by the unfortunate rape and cold-blooded murder on the streets of Hyderabad, on the other hand, the name of the victim was searched more than eight million times on a porn website by voyeurs and perverts.

Where most of us might again eloquently pour out our vexation, exasperation, anger, through a few social media posts, rallies and marches, the “illusion introspection” deflects us from pondering upon the de facto cause of such savagery.

It diverts us from perusing social patterns by conveniently passing on the buck and putting it all down to the State's inefficiency. The State ensures a “public prosecutor” bearing in mind the underlying assumption that the act is a breach not only of legal but also of social laws and the defendant poses a threat to society.

Then how can society behave like a passive observer that is dependent upon the State's discretion, by shifting all the responsibility to the State? The idea of what is morally “wrong” and “right” has been intricately discussed in Indian society. Our society talks about ethically right, morally right, socially right even universally right conduct and notions in much more detail than any other civilisation.

These weren't just topics of discussions by a few intellectuals but were principles understood and practised by the masses in their daily lives. The philosophy of dharma (often intentionally confused with religion) was one such concept. Our society inculcated a sense of ethical, moral and social values through various social institutions such as family, education and even occupation.

The State should be encircled, held responsible and asked all the inconvenient questions. However, what is also important is for members of society to wake up and own up to the issue of moral decay. Politicians and the State's other institutions must be held accountable but not just when such saturation limits are crossed.

The State should have been questioned by society even when it removed moral science from school curriculum; the State should have been interrogated when it took upon itself to decide society's curriculum, pedagogy and syllabus, even when it took control of our social and religious institutions.

Decadence and depravity in any society is not just the concern of politicians, to be discussed and deliberated upon to form corrective policies. It is for the society to introspect, discuss and correct.

Sadly, society has let the State systematically encroach upon much of its authority and responsibility, consequently leading to the weakening of social norms and sanctions. When was the last time we discussed in our families social values, moral consciousness, ethical conduct, the idea of collectivism, the thought of the peace mantra Sarve bhavantu sukhinah?

There has been a systematic demolition of prominent institutions which in various ways maintained the moral density of society. Society, after ceding its powers to the State, started behaving like a beneficiary of its pity and benevolence. However, society cannot shed all responsibility and just pass the buck to the State.

Its members need to question their role in the decadence that has crept into society. While the nation ensures uniformity of legal norms and sanctions on all its citizens, why do the deterrents against committing crime have varying effects on different individuals? We need to ask ourselves a simple question, whether our fathers or any other men we admire, would have ever committed such a gruesome act even if there was no fear of punishment for rape? The answer in most cases would have been a resounding “no.”

However, the perpetrators of the barbaric act still did it, with seemingly little or no fear of strict legal norms. Therefore, as a sociologist, I would argue that the power of social norms is often more persuasive than legal norms. The aforementioned argument therefore again puts the ball in the court of society which needs to carefully examine its role, its moral decay and the power that it has ceded to the State.

This does not mean that society must develop its mechanisms to ensure justice, it would be in complete binary opposition to the argument presented here. What society needs is to introspect over reasons for such moral decay and later augment its institutions to restore ethical density.

A TOXIC ALLIANCE SHUNNED BY BORIS

The US President's departure from London came as a relief to Boris Johnson as Donald Trump is a fan of Brexit and praises the Prime Minister as the man to deliver it. His presence in UK was an electoral hazard for the Conservatives as some voters admire Trump but most do not.

It is no recommendation for the Tory leader to be liked by a man notorious for dishonesty, ignorance, narcissism and chauvinism.

Ficci: RBI rate cut pause disappointing

Others say demand revival key at this juncture

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

Expressing disappointment at the RBI's decision to keep interest rates unchanged, industry body Ficci on Thursday said there is a need for continued action on the policy rate front to boost growth.

Meanwhile, Assocham said accommodative stance on policy is understandable as long as banks are nudged to pass on the rate cut benefits to customers.

RBI has given an adequate approach to the accommodative stance of monetary policy in the era where lot of developmental activities are on the move and thrust of the government is to create demand in the economy, PHD Chamber said.

The Reserve Bank on Thursday unexpectedly hit the pause button on cutting interest rates as it gave more importance to prevailing inflation pressure and rising food prices over a worrying slowdown in the economy.

After five consecutive rate cuts this year, the six-member Monetary Policy Committee (MPC), headed by RBI Governor Shaktikanta Das, unanimously voted to hold the key repo rate at 5.15 per cent and reverse repo rate at 4.90 per cent.

"The RBI has left the repo rate unchanged in today's announcement. This is contrary to what FICCI was expecting given the weakening growth scenario in the economy. We note with concern that the transmission of the earlier policy rate cuts has not happened adequately, and are disappointed with the decision to not cut the repo rate as there is need for continued action on the policy rate front," Ficci President Sandip Somany said in a statement.

He said a reversal in the declining economic growth trajectory is clearly the need of the hour and all steps should be taken to bring about this change.

"A cut in the policy rate was also important for boosting the sentiment in the market and amongst investors, and FICCI was hoping for a bolder action on this front. In fact, we feel that a further cut of 75 to 100 basis points in the repo rate is required in a short period of time to strengthen growth in the economy," he added.

Assocham President B K Goenka said, "A temporary pause by the RBI to the policy interest rate reduction cycle while keeping its stance accommodative is understandable as long as it keeps nudging the banks to significantly pass the benefits of earlier rate combined repo rate cuts of 135 basis points since February this year."

While inflation control remains the mandate of the RBI, balancing the target with growth is equally important, Goenka said, adding the focus should majorly be directed towards demand revival.

While the Government does seem to be doing the heavy lifting, revival of consumer confidence would do the trick, he said.

Realty players disappointed by RBI decision to hold rates

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

Cash-starved realtors expressed disappointment over the RBI's decision on Thursday to keep the benchmark lending rate unchanged and said the apex bank should have cut repo rate by 1 percentage point to boost housing sales and economic growth.

"India Inc. was expecting a rate cut of 100 basis points instead of small tinkering such as a rate cut of 25 basis points, which would have provided a boost to the government's recent initiatives to kick-start GDP growth," NAREDCO president Niranjana Hiranandani said.

"The decision to wait and watch the outplay of previous cuts will go against the current sentiments. The markets overall are disappointed," he said, adding that real estate developers are facing liquidity crunch.

Knight Frank India CMD Shishir Bajjal said the RBI's decision to not lower interest rate has come "as a surprise and a bit of a disappointment to the industry".

"Lower interest rate would have helped push up credit demand and investment in the economy, aiding overall economic growth. It would have provided some required reprieve to such ailing sectors like real estate and auto," he added.

Anarock chairman Anuj Puri said, "From a real estate point of view, rate cuts are obviously always welcome as they help improve overall sentiment. The expected rate cut of 25 basis points would have caused home loan values to fall below 8 per cent for first time ever."

Sanjay Dutt, MD & CEO, Tata Realty & Infrastructure Ltd, said, "This time while the focus of the RBI remains to be on reviving the economy, we are disappointed to see no change in the policy rate".

The real estate industry, in particular, has been facing some difficult times and with inventories piling up the need to push demand and encourage purchase is now more than ever, he added.

However, Anshuman Magazine, chairman & CEO, India, South East Asia, Middle East & Africa, CBRE, said the RBI's decision to keep the repo rate unchanged was an indication towards the government's focus on the evolving inflation-growth dynamics.

JLL India CEO & country head Ramesh Nair said the central bank, by keeping the rates unchanged, had recognised that the need of the hour was to infuse confidence about the economic growth through a holistic approach.

Bankers blame rising inflation for RBI holding rates

PTI ■ MUMBAI

Bankers were surprised at the Reserve Bank hitting the pause button despite a steep fall in growth, and opined that inflation seems to have been fore-grounded by the rate-setting panels' unanimous decision.

Largest lender SBI chairman Rajnish Kumar, who also heads the industry lobby Indian Banks Association, termed the status quo policy as an "unanticipated policy surprise".

He, however, also said this is the "most appropriate" move as monetary policy works with a lag when it comes to transmission. The steep reduction in growth estimate for the current year to 5 per cent and lower forecast for the next is indicative of a slow recovery, he added.

Stating that the rate call has come as a surprise, largest private sector lender HDFC Bank's chief economist Abheek Barua said, "clearly, the RBI has responded to hardening inflation and rising inflation expectations".

The RBI wishes to see the lagged impact of its 1.35 percentage points rate cut till October to play out before moving on the rates further, he said, adding transmission can be faster now as banks chase the fewer people who are queuing up for loans given the economic gloom.

Kotak Mahindra Bank's Shanti Ekambaram also said the transmission process is likely to improve further, but added it is "interesting" to see the pause call was unanimous for the six-member panel.

"Inflation and fiscal deficit trajectory will probably be the guiding force for future rate decisions," she said.

Micro-lender-turned-universal lender Bandhan Bank chairman CS Ghosh said though the pause was against market expectations, it has to be seen in the context of a rise in retail inflation projections by RBI.

Tata Capital's Rajiv Sabharwal is surprised at the RBI's move but added this is aligned with inflation trends.

However, his peer Umesh Revankar of Shriram Transport Finance, said the pause was expected given the high quantum of liquidity in the system and limited transmission of the earlier rate cuts.

You can't expect us to cut rates mechanically every time: Das

PTI ■ MUMBAI

Leaving Mint Road observers surprised by holding the rates on Thursday, Governor Shaktikanta Das said RBI cannot keep cutting policy rates "mechanically every time", but hinted at resuming the easing cycle after budget and analysing impact of previous 135 bps rate cuts on economy.

Significantly, even as the MPC hit the pause button unanimously, it massively slashed the growth forecast by a full 110 bps to 5 per cent, and also warned of a steep spike in retail inflation to 4.7-5.1 per cent in the second half.

After cutting repo rate five consecutive times to the tune of 135 bps to a nine-year low between February and October, Monetary Policy Committee left the policy rates unchanged at 5.15 per cent.

Parl OK's corp tax cut; FM says software developers, miners not eligible for lower rates

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

Parliament on Thursday approved the Taxation Laws (Amendment) Bill, 2019 that replaces an ordinance promulgated to cut the base corporate tax rate, with Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman stating that mining companies, software developers and book printers will not be eligible for the lower 15 per cent rate available for new manufacturing companies.

Lok Sabha had earlier this week passed the bill and the Upper House returned it on Thursday without making any changes. Replying to a debate on the legislation, Sitharaman said a negative list of activities that do not constitute manufacturing has been created and will not be eligible for the lower 15 per cent tax rate for manufacturing firms that are set up after October 1 and that begin operations by 2023.

The negative list includes the development of computer software in any form or in any media, mining, conversion of marble blocks or similar items into slabs, bottling of gas into cylinder, the printing of books or production of a cinematograph film.

Sitharaman had on September 20 announced lowering of the base corporate tax rate to 22 per cent from 30 per cent for companies that do not seek exemptions, and reduced the rate for new manufacturing companies to 15 per cent from 25 per cent. Including surcharges and cesses (levies to raise funds for specific purposes), the effective corporate tax rate will drop by nearly 10 percentage points to 25.2 per cent for corporates in general.

RBI expects forensic audit report on PMC by month-end

PTI ■ MUMBAI

The forensic audit report on the scam-hit Punjab & Maharashtra Co-operative Bank is expected by the end of the month, Reserve Bank governor Shaktikanta Das said on Thursday.

The multi-state co-operative bank has been under the RBI restriction since September 23, after it had found financial irregularities, including huge under-reporting of loans and non-performing assets to real estate developer HDIL to the tune of ₹6,500 crore using hundreds of dummy accounts.

The central bank also sacked the board of the bank and appointed an administrator.

"There is a forensic audit which is underway. The final report of the forensic audit is expected by the end of this month," Das told reporters at the post-policy press conference.

In September, PTI had reported that the co-operative lender's actual exposure to HDIL was over ₹6,500 crore — which is 73 per cent of its entire assets of ₹8,880 crore.

Das said PMC, with the help of professional valuers, is also assessing the realisable value of assets mortgaged by borrowers as well as the assets of the bank which have been seized by the Mumbai Police's EoW and Enforcement Directorate.

"Once we get the forensic audit and once we get the final numbers after doing a proper assessment of the realisable of the assets, a call will be taken on the further course of action," the governor said.

RBI has also put in place a co-ordination mechanism between the PMC administrator, the EoW, ED and the RBI is also monitoring the situation on a regular basis and take steps for asset monetisation, after obtaining court permission.

Recently, the RBI had informed the Bombay High Court that PMC had used special codes to hide the hundreds of dummy loan accounts of HDIL and of the 1,800 PMC employees, only about 25 could access these loans accounts.

The regulator had said these few employees used an access code to hide and restrict the visibility of these dummy accounts of the realty developer.

Das further said the RBI has given its suggestions to government for amendments in the co-operative bank act and the government is deliberating on it.

RBI proposes new prepaid card for transactions up to ₹10,000

PTI ■ MUMBAI

The Reserve Bank on Thursday proposed to introduce a prepaid payment instrument (PPI) that could be used only for transactions of goods and services worth up to ₹10,000. PPIs have been playing an important role in promoting digital payments and bringing in the new PPI will further facilitate its use, as per an RBI statement issued post announcement of the monetary review on Thursday.

"To further facilitate its (PPI) usage, it is proposed to introduce a new type of PPI which can be used only for purchase of goods and services up to a limit of ₹10,000," the statement said.

The central bank said the loading and reloading of such PPIs can be done only from a bank account and used for making bill payments and merchant payments.

Such PPIs can be issued on the basis of essential minimum details sourced from the customer. The RBI said it will give instructions in this regard by December 31, 2019.

₹ rebounds 24 paise as RBI maintains accommodative stance

PTI ■ MUMBAI

The Indian rupee rose sharply in the last hour of trade to settle 24 paise higher at 71.29 to the US dollar on Thursday after the RBI promised to continue with accommodative stance in its monetary policy.

The central bank, however, decided to keep key interest rate unchanged in its fifth bi-monthly monetary policy for this ongoing fiscal, a move that widely surprised investors who were expecting at least 25 basis points cut in policy rate.

The Indian unit traded on a flat note for a better part of the session but briefly fell post RBI monetary policy announcement. It recovered swiftly mainly in the last hour of trade to close at 71.29, up 24 paise over its previous close.

The rupee's rise was also supported by weaker dollar against key global currencies. The dollar index, which gauges the greenback's strength against a basket of six currencies, was down 0.16 per cent at 97.49.

America urges countries to ensure only 'trusted vendors' participate in future 5G networks

PTI ■ WASHINGTON

The US has urged all countries to ensure that only "trusted vendors" participate in any part of their future 5G networks as the Trump administration stepped up its pressure against Chinese telecom giants, citing a potential security threat and possible misuse of data.

Asserting that 5G networks will form the backbone of future economies and critical infrastructure, State Department Spokesperson Morgan Ortagus said the stakes are too high to allow these vital networks to be provided and serviced by vendors open to manipulation by authoritarian regimes.

"Chinese telecommunications firms such as Huawei and ZTE must comply with the directives of the government of the People's Republic of China, without any meaningful checks and balances that would prevent misuse of data," Ortagus said. Allowing these vendors anywhere in a country's 5G networks would present critical risks to the privacy, human rights and security of its citizens, she said.

"The United States urges all countries, including our partners and allies, to adopt national security policies that would prevent untrusted vendors from accessing any part of their future 5G networks," Ortagus said. 5G is the next generation cellular technology with download speeds stated to be 10 to 100 times faster than the current 4G LTE networks.

The 5G networking standard is seen as critical because it can support the next generation of mobile devices in addition to new applications like driverless cars. Ortagus said the US welcomed the European Union Council identifying the serious risks posed to 5G telecommunications networks if they are built using untrusted vendors. "We welcome this acknowledgment and urge our European partners and allies to ensure only trusted vendors participate in any part of their future 5G networks," Ortagus said.

Sensex slips on RBI surprises

Bank stocks bear the brunt

PTI ■ MUMBAI

Equity benchmarks closed lower in topsy-turvy trade on Thursday after the Reserve Bank unexpectedly left interest rates unchanged amid slowing growth.

Citing prevailing inflation pressure and rising food prices, the six-member Monetary Policy Committee (MPC), headed by RBI Governor Shaktikanta Das, unanimously voted to hold the key repo rate at 5.15 per cent.

The stock markets, which had opened in the green on rate cut hopes, tumbled after the monetary policy announcement. Trading sentiment was further dampened after the RBI cut its GDP growth forecast to 5 per cent for 2019-20 from the earlier estimate of 6.1 per cent. After swinging between gains and losses, the 30-share BSE Sensex finally ended 70.70 points or 0.17 per cent lower at 40,779.59.

Similarly, the 50-scrip NSE Nifty settled with a loss of 24.80 points or 0.21 per cent at 12,018.40. On the Sensex chart, Bharti Airtel, Tata Steel, IndusInd Bank, Hero Moto Corp and Tata Motors were among the major laggards, declining up to 2.96 per cent.

Rate-sensitive auto, bank and real estate counters closed repo rate at 5.15 per cent and reverse repo rate at 4.90 per cent. Bankers and economists had widely expected the central bank to cut rates for a sixth time to support a slowing economy, whose growth rate slipped further to a six-year low of 4.5 per cent in the September quarter from 7 per cent a year back.

“It was an unexpected move with the RBI keeping the repo rate unchanged at 5.15 per cent, as the market expected 25 bps cut in repo rate. With the RBI following an inflation targeting regime, the central bank focused on maintaining the inflation rate within the target range.

“The rising food inflation posed a challenge to the central bank in cutting the rates... However, by maintaining the accommodative stance, there is room for rate cuts in the future,” said Deepthi Mary Mathew, economist at Geojit Financial Services.

Sectorally, the BSE metal index fell the most, followed by basic materials and energy. Capital goods, IT and tech indices moved higher.

In the broader market, BSE midcap and largecap indices under-performed the benchmark. BSE smallcap index closed almost flat. Crude oil benchmark Brent Futures rose 0.6 per cent to USD 63.38 per barrel. After five consecutive cuts in interest rates this year, the six-member MPC unanimously voted to hold the key was at 6.60 per cent, up over 2 per cent.

“India’s sovereign bonds declined the most in more than two months, the benchmark 10-year bond yield bonds rose 13 basis points to 6.60 per cent, after central bank kept policy rate unchanged... The MPC also decided to continue with the accommodative stance as long as it is necessary to revive growth,” it added. On the equity front, the BSE gauge Sensex settled lower by 70.70 points or 0.17 per cent at 40,779.59. The index swung between losses and gains after the central bank kept the rates unchanged.

The NSE Nifty closed the day with a loss of 24.80 points or 0.21 per cent at 12,018.40. Crude oil benchmark, Brent Futures, rose 0.65 per cent to USD 63.41 a barrel.

The Financial Benchmark India Private Ltd (FBIL) set the reference rate for the rupee/dollar at 71.78 and for rupee/euro at 79.50. The reference rate for rupee/British pound was fixed at 93.2719 and for rupee/100 Japanese yen at 66.11. After five consecutive cuts in interest rates this year, the six-member Monetary Policy Committee (MPC), headed by RBI Governor Shaktikanta Das, unanimously voted to hold the key repo rate at 5.15 per cent and reverse repo rate at 4.90 per cent.

“With the latest fundraise, we will continue to strengthen our domestic and international businesses and will aggressively work towards becoming the largest personal mobility ecosystem in the country,” CarDekho CEO and co-founder Amit Jain said.

“The government earlier in the year issued a circular on the scope of information technology-enabled services (ITeS) and coverage under intermediary services.

The said circular had created confusion, with this, leaving an onus on ITeS service providers self-assessing on whether they qualified as an intermediary. This entailed a spate of notices being issued on ITeS firms. Commenting on the withdrawal of circular, EY Tax Partner Abhishek Jain said the earlier circular had fuelled ambiguity for back office support centres specifically on whether some of the activities performed by them entailed their coverage under intermediary.”

The Commerce Ministry has launched an investigation into imports of radial tyres from Thailand to decide on imposition of anti-dumping duty on the product to discourage below-cost shipments.

The Automotive Tyre Manufacturers Association has filed an application before the directorate on behalf of the domestic industry alleging dumping of radial tyres from Thailand.

According to a notification of the Directorate general of Trade Remedies (DGTR), the association has requested for imposition of anti-dumping duties on the imports.

The commerce ministry’s investigation arm DGTR has initiated anti-dumping probe on imports of “new pneumatic radial tyres of rubber for buses and lorries, with or without tubes and/or flaps” originating or exported from Thailand, the notification said.

It said that the authority has prima facie found that there is sufficient evidence of dumping of tyres from Thailand.

“The Authority therefore initiates an investigation to determine the existence, degree and effect of alleged

CBIC withdraws GST circular on ITeS

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

The government earlier in the year issued a circular on the scope of information technology-enabled services (ITeS) and coverage under intermediary services.

The said circular had created confusion, with this, leaving an onus on ITeS service providers self-assessing on whether they qualified as an intermediary. This entailed a spate of notices being issued on ITeS firms. Commenting on the withdrawal of circular, EY Tax Partner Abhishek Jain said the earlier circular had fuelled ambiguity for back office support centres specifically on whether some of the activities performed by them entailed their coverage under intermediary.”

US First Lady wades into impeachment fight to defend son

AFP ■ WASHINGTON
US First Lady Melania Trump has publicly rebuked a scholar who used her 13-year-old son's name to make a point during an impeachment hearing against the president. Constitutional law professor Pamela Karlan invoked Barron Trump, the son of Donald and Melania Trump, to demonstrate how the Constitution imposes distinctions between a monarch's power and that of a president. "The constitution says there can be no titles of nobility," Karlan told lawmakers during the House Judiciary Committee's first hearing on impeachment, which featured four constitutional scholars. "So while the president can name his son 'Barron,' he can't make him a baron." The pun led to chuckles in the congressional hearing room, but Melania Trump made clear it was no laughing matter. "A minor child deserves privacy and should be kept out of politics," the first lady tweeted shortly afterwards. "Pamela Karlan, you should be ashamed of your very angry and obviously biased public pandering, and using a child to do it." Trump retweeted his wife's message to his 67 million followers. As the row snowballed, Karlan quickly tried to stem the damage by expressing her regret. "I want to apologize for what I said earlier about the president's son," she told the panel. "It was wrong of me to do that." For years, members of both political parties have agreed that the minor children of US politicians, particularly presidents, are off limits.

Pelosi OK's drafting of impeachment articles against Trump

AP ■ WASHINGTON
House Speaker Nancy Pelosi on Thursday announced the House is drafting articles of impeachment against President Donald Trump. Earlier in the day, Pelosi said she would deliver an unusual public statement on the status of the House impeachment inquiry into President Donald Trump. On Wednesday, Pelosi met behind closed doors with her Democratic caucus, asking, "Are you ready?" The answer was a resounding yes, according to those in the room. Democrats are charging toward a Christmas vote on removing the 45th president, a situation Pelosi hoped to avoid but which now seems inevitable. She is to make a public statement on impeachment at 9 a.m.

Stanford Prof slammed for mentioning Donald's son during impeachment hearing

Washington: The impeachment hearing against US President Donald Trump took an ugly turn when a professor of law from the prestigious Stanford University took the name of his minor son Barron during her testimony before a Congressional panel, drawing an angry reaction from First Lady Melania. Pamela S Karlan made the remarks while explaining the president's rights under the Constitution during the impeachment proceedings by House Judiciary Committee on Wednesday. It all started in response to a question from Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee from Democratic Party. "Contrary to what President Trump has said, Article 2 does not give him the power to do anything he wants, and I'll just give you one example that shows you the difference between him and a king, which is the Constitution says there can be no titles of nobility, so while the president can name his son Barron, he can't make him a baron," Karlan said. PTI

3 dead after Pearl Harbor sailor shoots civilians, himself

AP ■ HONOLULU
A sailor shot three civilians, killing two of them, before taking his own life at Pearl Harbor just days before thousands were scheduled to gather at the storied military base to mark the 78th anniversary of the Japanese bombing that launched the US Into World War II. Rear Adm. Robert Chadwick, the commander of Navy Region Hawaii, said the service would evaluate whether security would need to be upgraded ahead of the annual ceremony. About a dozen survivors of the 1941 bombing were expected to attend, along with dignitaries and service members. Chadwick said he didn't know the motive behind Wednesday's shooting at the naval shipyard within the base. The third victim was hospitalized. It wasn't known if the sailor and the three male civilians had any type of relationship, or what the motive was for the shooting, Chadwick said. "We have no indication yet whether they were targeted or if it was a random shooting," Chadwick said.

Dangerous chemicals found in Hong Kong park; probe begins

Hong Kong: Dozens of bottles containing dangerous chemicals, including highly corrosive acids, were discovered on Thursday at a park here, prompting Hong Kong police to investigate if the substances had been stored there by anti-government protesters. Emergency personnel were called in when the bottles, which contained chemicals such as sulphuric and nitric acid, were found at the Shing Mun Country Park, reports the South China Morning Post newspaper. "Initial investigation showed about 50 bottles were seized... and some of the bottles contained sulphuric acid," a police source said. The source said the case was being investigated by the crime unit from the police headquarters, a department that has been handling protest-related crimes during the social unrest that has roiled the city since June. Personnel from the police tactical unit were also deployed to scout the area and firefighters were on standby at the site. On Wednesday night, the police seized about 10,000 petrol bombs from Chinese University, Polytechnic University (PolyU), and other colleges and their surroundings, along with a large number of chemicals, offensive weapons and raw materials for explosives. After a 13-day siege of PolyU occupied by more than 1,000 protesters, police on November 29 seized 4,296 petrol bombs, 671 bottles of chemicals and 622 pieces of weapons. IANS

North Korea threatens to resume calling Trump 'dotard'

Seoul: North Korea threatened Thursday to resume insults of US President Donald Trump and consider him a "dotard" if he keeps using words that provoke the North. Choe Son Hui, the first vice foreign minister, issued the warning days after Trump spoke of a possible military option toward the North and revived his "rocket man" nickname for North Korean leader Kim Jong Un. The development comes as prospects dim for a resumption of nuclear diplomacy between the two countries. AP

Deadly car bombing hits Turkey convoy in north Syria

AFP ■ BEIRUT
A deadly car bomb targeted a Turkish convoy in an area of northern Syria controlled by Turkey-backed fighters, a Britain-based war monitor said. The blast hit a convoy of Turkish troops headed towards a military base west of the town of Jarabulus in the northern province of Aleppo, the Syrian Observatory for Human Rights said on Wednesday. The monitoring group did not give a precise death toll, and there was no immediate claim of responsibility for the bombing. Ankara-led forces on October 9 launched a cross-border incursion against Kurdish fighters several hundreds of kilometres to the east of Jarabulus, taking control of a 120-kilometre (70-mile) long strip of land along Turkey's southern frontier.

Johnson plans for victory with Brexit Party boost

London: One week before Britain's election, Prime Minister Boris Johnson was confident enough to publish a plan on Thursday for his first 100 days in office, boosted by an endorsement from Brexit Party MEPs. Jeremy Corbyn's main opposition Labour party is struggling to close the gap in opinion polls with Johnson's governing Conservatives, which remains at around 10 points. Meanwhile, the electoral threat posed by Nigel Farage's Brexit Party receded further with the decision of four of its European Parliament MPs to endorse the prime minister. Johnson has promised to get Britain out of the European Union on January 31, after years of turmoil sparked by the 2016 referendum vote for Brexit. But he says this would only be possible if he wins a majority of MPs in the December 12 election, allowing him to get his EU divorce deal through parliament. "If there is a Conservative majority next week, we will get Brexit done by the end of January. 2020 will then be the year we finally put behind us the arguments and uncertainty over Brexit," he said. He also announced an unspecified tax cut for "hard-working families", which he said would be unveiled in a post-Brexit budget in February. Within 100 days of taking office, he also vowed to pass laws to increase school funding and toughen sentencing laws, as well as beginning moves to shake up the immigration system. AFP

NASA's 'Sun kissing' Parker spacecraft unlocks solar mystery

Washington: NASA's Parker Solar Probe — which has flown closer to the Sun than any spacecraft ever — has beamed back the first observations from its close encounters with the Sun, revealing a "spectacular trove" of data about the solar wind and space weather, the US space agency said. The data from the probe, published in the journal Nature, offers clues to long-standing mysteries, including why the Sun's atmosphere, known as the corona, is hundreds of times hotter than its surface, as well as the precise origins of the solar wind. PTI

'Manali a great experience'

Veteran AMITABH BACHCHAN, who has been shooting in Himachal Pradesh for his forthcoming film Brahmastra, calls it the "most rewarding experience."

Big B took to his blog and posted, "The affection and love of the ever hospitable people of Himachal Pradesh has been quite overwhelming. Thank you HP and Manali for all the care. It has been a most rewarding experience," he said.

He shared a few stills from the film's shoot in his blog. He can be seen wearing a jacket, a pair of goggles and a traditional Himachali cap and has his hands folded in a namaste.

'There shouldn't be censorship on OTT platforms. It is really an outdated concept and practice. We live in a vibrant democracy, so to have censorship is a negative thing. I feel instead of censorship, there should be a modern system of rating where people give you a guideline regarding a certain show which contains abusive language or things like that.'

—Vivek Oberoi

Actor HRITHIK ROSHAN has been named the Sexiest Asian Man in the world for 2019, and also of the last decade.

He topped UK-based Eastern Eye newspaper's 16th edition of the world-famous list published annually.

Tiger Shroff, who entered the top 10 for the first time, was fourth. Pop superstar Zayn Malik was fifth and TV star Harshad Chopda sixth.

The list is prepared on the basis of votes cast by fans across the world, buzz generated on social media sites, media attention, massive global interest etc.

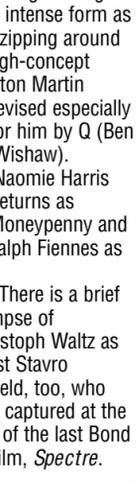

Craig rocks the James Bond role

The official trailer of the forthcoming James Bond adventure No Time To Die was launched recently. And DANIEL CRAIG's look will give the fans a vintage action feast in his final outing as agent 007.

The two-minute, thirty-six second trailer, released on the film's social media outlets has it all.

There's Craig striking a dapper intense form as Bond, zipping around in a high-concept Aston Martin devised especially for him by Q (Ben Wishaw). Naomie Harris returns as Money Penny and Ralph Fiennes as M.

There is a brief glimpse of Christoph Waltz as Ernst Stavro Blofeld, too, who was captured at the end of the last Bond film, Spectre.

THE QUEEN OF PURPOSE

Actor RANI MUKERJI tells CHAHAK MITTAL that even though women might have grown stronger and independent than they were before, criminal minds haven't changed a bit. And that is exactly what Mardaani 2 is about able to implement certain laws which will send shivers down the spine of a person who is even thinking of committing a crime," she says.

This time her anger has doubled after the rape of a vet in Hyderabad. She says, "I wonder what are the parents of the girl, who lost her life, going through currently? How are they going to feel better? How are they going to get a closure to what has happened to their child? They will never be able to take this out of their system. It has scarred their lives. Will they ever be able to get the justice for what happened? Nothing could dull their pain. And these kinds of incidences are going to continue if women don't take charge of their own lives. We cannot be doing candle marches everytime a woman is raped and killed and then eventually move on with our lives after some time. But how can we make sure women are safe? Let's make them stronger, shouldn't we?"

Such were the questions she raised before prepping for her role. How can girls be prepared for any eventuality? What are we carrying in our bags? What are we doing to learn self-defence techniques? She recalls, "When I did Mardaani, I met the Krav Maga martial art experts from Israel who teach the art to women in their country. So nobody can dare touch an Israeli woman because she is empowered enough to protect herself. So why aren't we training our children now? Why aren't we making self-defence a compulsory subject in schools and colleges? I was not a mother during Mardaani. Today, I am the mother of a daughter and would love if her school makes something like this mandatory."

The film and her character are evidence of how cinema is giving more power to women. However, this sensibility is yet to percolate to mass entertainers. There are still certain dialogues or lyrics of a song that objectify women and demean them in multiple ways. And these are later used as comments to eviscerate. Rani looks at it in two different ways and explains, "Mardaani 2 is a thriller, where through an interesting and intense story, we bring out a strong message. We, as filmmakers, have chosen that path. But we should also never forget that ours is an entertaining medium, which has to explore different formats. And at the end of the day, a film always mirrors the society. At the same time, we need to be cautious that as creative people, we have been given the freedom of expression. Having said that, we may make an error of judgement. Adult humour is one thing, vulgarity quite the other. And this is where the censor board comes in."

Here, she demands a responsible attitude from the viewers' end too to follow the censor rating and not make their children watch content that might not be suitable for them. "Don't you think that as adults, they are capable of understanding what knowledge they should take back and what they shouldn't?" she questions and highlights that some films are also meant only for entertainment, which might not have a social message. She adds, "What if I do a role where I explore a negative trait tomorrow? It doesn't mean I am trying to inspire my fans to be in that negative zone. I am just doing it because I feel connected to that role. We also need to look at each actor for the reason for which they have chosen to do a particular film. And not generalise it."

Rani's films like Mehendi, Black, No One Killed Jessica, Hichki and Mardaani series are some examples of how she has always been upfront about certain issues and stereotypes about women in society. "Being a woman, I understand when somebody says she had never been taught or told to be strong. I understand where she is coming from. And then I also understand when a woman says that aisa kuch bhi hua toh I am going to just slap that guy and kick him. Ek maaru pakad ke," she says, animatedly. She thinks it is high time that we make women believe that they are as strong and powerful as men.

Now that she is in a settled space, is Rani going only for content-driven films? Not really. "I choose my films very spontaneously. Mardaani happened after the Nirbhaya case. Hichki happened at a time when I just delivered my child. My baby was about a year old and I was really emotional and vulnerable. I wanted to do a film on a subject that made me want to leave my home and go to work because it was difficult to leave my child behind. Hadn't Hichki happened, I don't think I could have returned on screen. It looked at the teacher-student relationship, which I feel strongly about. Because I feel that no child should be pushed to isolation. We cannot tell a child to be good at all subjects and expect him to excel in that. Every child has his strength and weakness."

Nobody can imagine Rani's Tina, Kajol's Anjali and SRK's Rahul in Kuch Kuch Hota Hai (1998) being portrayed by any other actor. Because the three were so beautifully and powerfully etched in the narrative. Today, even though films have a stronger narrative and a sense of realism, the characters seem to be losing their individuality. Rani disagrees. "I think it depends on the filmmakers the most. We have to view/review the film in isolation for this because there are times when you like an actor so much that you cannot imagine anybody else in that particular role. That is also the kind of love you have for a particular actor. And in some cases, probably the actor is not that good in his or her portrayal of the character so one may feel that s/he could be replaced," she says, picking up her coffee mug. For her, it's still about solid fundamentals and all in a day's work.

The ABC of reviewing cars

More than the objective understanding of an automobile, its subjectivity needs to be looked at thoroughly when one reviews a vehicle. And it can only be done once you experience the drive

People often tell me that I have a cushy job of 'reviewing cars' and undoubtedly, it would be wrong if I deny that it is a terribly difficult one. Having said that, changing cars and early wake-up calls every few days are not as amazing as many suspect them to be. But a job is a job, and evaluating a car to be good or bad is not simply getting the stats together and blabbering them out with a string of adjectives attached. There is an objective part to a review, of that there is no doubt. Engine size, output, 0-100 times, car dimensions, interior fittings and what not. However, all of that is in the brochure as well but the art of the review is in the subjective things. The stuff that they do not tell you in the brochure, and things which you can only get to know once you drive the car.

Keep in mind, my perception of a vehicle can be very different to that of my friends in the automotive writing trade. The way we review cars is also quite different depending on where we drive them. The 'first drive', usually a short one on a (very straight) highway, does not reveal much, other than giving an idea of acceleration and the interiors of the car, alongside seating position, luggage space and some other ponderables. This is a mere reason why I love spending a week or two with a car, sometimes even longer. Doing so can give you a strange appreciation of a vehicle. For close to two months, I drove the Diesel AMT version of the Grand i10 Nios and while the gearbox was far from being smart, indeed slow would be a better adjective, I grew to appreciate the size of the car, its superb handling and overall appropriateness for urban conditions. If you have a long urban commute, one where you cover over 50 kilometres in a day, this is the best you could possibly buy. Yes, it can be more peppy but who am I to argue with 21 kilometres per litre.

It brings us to the other point, how I (and most other serious auto reviewers) look at aspects like ride and handling, and even acceleration for that matter. For example, acceleration is not something you do with a 0-100 speed run because other than a few expressways in India, it's illegal. How many times in real life, after you have turned 25, do you drop the clutch drive like a maniac off the red light, especially with expensive petrol? So you look at how quickly and effectively you head off from a traffic light or toll gate, changing gears at the right engine speeds. Then you observe how the gears respond, keep an eye on the engine speed and notice when and where you need to change. The fact is that most cars sold in India are driven in the city and have to be the urban warriors.

Then there are ride and handling, again imponderables for many 'car reviewers' and something that no brochure can tell you. Therefore, I have often seen comments and sentences from proper reviews appearing on certain motoring sites, sometimes entire paragraphs. This is something you can feel yourself being shoved into the side bolsters or even off the seats when you take a sharp turn. At times, you get surprised at how well and true a car handles after you turn the steering, and while most front-wheel drive cars tend to understeer a bit, that is that the wheels do not turn as much as you want to, you learn to compensate for that. I did not expect the Renault Triber I am currently driving to take the sweeping right-hander at the end of the Barapullah flyover as steady as it did. It is no Lamborghini or even a BMW 3-series for that matter but sometimes cheap and cheerful cars today can surprise you too with just how nicely the steering is weighted, how the car turns and how much (or little) body roll there is. One of my major issues with the MG Hector is the lack of precision in the steering and the grotesque amounts (for a modern vehicle) of body roll.

Then there are other things that we consider, stuff like the utilisation of space, something that despite the Maruti S-Presso's less than stellar looks, it does extremely well as does the Renault Triber. And while car companies talk about how much space or lack thereof, their boots might have, you actually need to see how high or low the loading lip is. Consider ergonomics, where the switches are, how solid or not the switches and dials are and check seat and steering adjustability. There is one of my personal bugbears, the quality of plastics, because while you can always change your seat covers, you cannot change the look and feel of the plastics. If the plastics feel like shit, too 'plasticky' (yes, I see the irony there) they can ruin a perfectly good vehicle which has brilliant mechanics. Nowadays, I find myself giving a lot of attention to the layout of steering wheel controls, let alone everything else.

Yes, it is a fun job and I thank my lucky stars for doing it for almost two decades. I get to travel a lot, drive on amazing roads and get to experience some amazing scenery. But do not think that I, or folks such as the other jury members of the Indian Car Of The Year (ICOTY), have an easy job because it is not just about liking cars, driving and travelling. At the end of the day, this is a serious business and anybody who says that it isn't, does not know what it takes.

Deepika writes for NY Times

Actor Deepika Padukone has never failed to leave a mark. Be it making a fashion statement or trying to inspire people. She has yet again made a bold move by talking about her story of fighting with depression across a border. In an interview with the New York Times, a reputed American daily, Deepika spoke about mental stress and the loneliness one can feel even when there are a lot of things happening around them.

She throws light on about how according to WHO, 300 million people across the world are facing the same challenge silently and are totally unaware of the fact what is happening to them. She says, "Only a person close to you like your mother will notice such things."

When she faced a similar situation a few years back in her life, she was a frontier to address the issue and came up with the foundation called 'The Live Love Laugh Foundation'. In India, where mental health is treated as a taboo, Deepika wants to remove the stigma around the illness and urge people to break the silence about their stories and seek help if required to come out of this situation. Her foundation aims at spreading awareness via various mediums. It is so inspiring to see her address this issue at an international level like this.

THAT WARM FEELING

Danbro's is the ideal winter joint with some luscious bites, steaming coffee and yummy croissants. By SAKSHI SHARMA

Black industrial lights along the grey panels at the entrance of Danbro's gave a hint of what was to come. Monochromatic paintings, rustic brown chairs, grey marble tables and old mosaic tiles teleported us to a casual roadside cafe in Europe where any and everybody gather over a drink at any time of the day, unwinding themselves and easing off over conversations. Keeping the human connect alive over endless cups of coffee and savouries.

We were at the new Italian boulangerie and patisserie in Kailash Colony. The menu comes in a newspaper format called DanbroTimes, a throwback to the coffee club culture of yore. But not being familiar, we decided to go for the chef's special. We were first served Soup Of The Day, which is different for each day. You would think you know enough about mushroom soup but this one had a delicate texture with black pepper blending perfectly with fresh mushrooms and the butter. In one word, wholesome. Served with grilled Ciabatta, which complemented its flavours, we got off to a good start.

Next up was Croquettes Potato. Stuffed with cheddar cheese and jalapenos, it was creamy yet crispy. The soft core was so centered that it balanced the heat of the spices. An unusual addition was the Chimi Churi sauce made of fresh herbs, a speciality of chef Brajesh Ghansiyal. Said he, "This sauce is in demand mostly because of its simple yet strong flavours. There are no additives except the herbs." We actually ditched the other dips and this combination makes for some lazy bites over a weekend with friends.

Chef Anjali Mohan, who is keen to redefine the way people look at vegetarian food is determined to make it your chosen indulgence, said, "When you say vegetarian, people either experiment with paneer or mushroom. So we usually get bored with paneer and most of us do not like mushrooms. That is why I made it a point to include more vegetables and potato in the menu." She then made sure that we try her wild berry smoothie and cold coffee. While the former had blueberry, yogurt with chia seeds and fresh strawberries which overpowered all other flavours, the latter was a decent must-try.

Then it was the turn of Char Grilled Vegetarian Lasagna topped with wheat pasta sheets and cheese sauce bursting with flavours. Packed with olives, zucchini and capsicum, its layers were soft and crunchy at the same time. It seemed like a never-ending dish but the delicacy of exploring each layer of richness and distinct smoked flavours kept us going. Wheat pasta can actually lend a richer texture than the usual flour one. Besides, it all depends on the Bechamel sauce and here the chefs got it right, coating each layer perfectly and fluffing up the full potential of the vegetables, nudging out flavours that are drowned in usual cooking methods. As full as we were, we didn't want to miss the dessert, especially at a place which is known for it. In line were Passion fruit cheese cake, Strawberry cheese cake, Coconut truffle, which was basically Belgium white chocolate with coconut covering, Coffee truffle and Butter croissant. We couldn't resist but try a bite of all. The layers of cream cheese, fresh passion fruit and yogurt made for a sinful indulgence like no other. Do try the butter croissant, not drippy but just enough to give bounce to the yeast dough. Certainly, the best wrap-up for the evening.

Other than this, Danbro's offers popular hits like Hot lava cake with Polo mint ice cream, chocolate mousse cannelloni with caramelised banana and Baileys cream and Choco loco, vanilla-coated Bourbon biscuits with chocolates. They were complex but the flavours were so rounded that they leave a mark on your tastebuds, especially when they come from a bakery that has its origins in Milan.

Whether you want to grab a coffee, have a big breakfast, simply cosy up on a winter afternoon or want a quick high-tea with colleagues, this is the place for you.

Now, wines from Washington

They have a higher percentage of 90-rated wines than other top wine-producing regions in the world, say experts

When Craig and Vicki Leuthold opened the Maryhill Winery in 2001, there were about 100 wineries in the state of Washington. That number has since exploded to more than 1,000 wineries this year and the remarkable growth is likely to continue.

Maryhill Winery, just South of the remote town of Goldendale, is part of that growth. It has recently opened tasting rooms in Spokane and Vancouver, Washington, and is in the process of opening a tasting room in the Seattle suburb of Woodinville. "Our timing was great," said Craig Leuthold, whose winery produces 60 varieties. "Washington wine has really increased in popularity."

Washington has become a force in the wine industry. The state has the nation's second-highest number of wineries, after California. But California, which has around 3,700 wineries, remains much bigger than anyone else in the United States, selling more than $40 billion worth of wine in this country. Within the US, wines from California are the top sellers, followed by wines from Australia and Italy. Washington ranks fourth in the sources of wine sold in the U.S., said Steve Warner, president of Washington State Wine, the industry's trade group.

"More Washington wine is sold in the United States than French wine," he said. The state's wine industry generates about $2.4 billion a year in revenues and contributes more than $7 billion a year to the state's economy, Warner said.

Washington's wines are consistently top-ranked, he said. "Washington has a higher percentage of 90-rated wines than other top wine-producing regions in the world," Warner said, referring to the 100-point scale for rating wines. "We are competing against wine regions with 28 generations of winemakers, who were doing it before America was a country."

Most of the industry's success stems from the state's climate and soils, Warner said.

Wine grapes like long sunny days and cool nights, which the vineyards in the central and eastern part of the state enjoy.

The area also gets little rainfall compared with other grape-growing regions, which is a plus, he said. Washington still has plenty of available land at reasonable prices in wine country, said Thomas Henick-Kling, director of the enology and viticulture program at Washington State University in Pullman.

The acreage dedicated to grapes for wine is rapidly expanding. Twenty years ago, there were 24,000 acres (9,713 hectares) of grapes. Today there are 59,000 acres (23,877 hectares) of vineyards. Washington also has skilled farmers and winemakers, graduates of winemaking programs at numerous local colleges, Henick-Kling said.

There were about 20 wineries in 1981. That grew to 100 wineries by 2001, just over 500 by 2012 and just over 1,000 now, Warner said. Growth has been averaging more than 70 new wineries per year for the past seven years. Washington's growth is no surprise, as the number of wineries and wine consumption continue to grow in the US. "The growth in wineries around the country is very exciting as wine sales continue to grow, particularly at the premium end," said Gladys Horiuchi of the Wine Institute, which represents California wineries.

Wine shipments to the United States from all foreign and domestic sources grew one per cent in 2018. The Wine Institute said people are drinking more premium wine, which starts at $8 per bottle.

The 1,000th active license was issued to Jens Hansen, owner of Uva Furem winery in Maple Valley. Hansen retired from the Air Force, moved to the Seattle area and decided to become a winemaker. "I feel like the Washington wine community is a lot like the Air Force in that everyone looks out for each other," Hansen said.

About 70 grape varieties are grown in Washington, with the most popular reds being cabernet sauvignon and merlot. Chardonnay and white Riesling are the most common whites.

Most of Washington's wineries are fairly small. The owners "are passionate about wine and work full-time and crush grapes on weekends," Warner said.

There are a smaller number of midsize wineries that enjoy national distribution, plus a handful of industry giants like Chateau Ste. Michelle, he said.

More investors from outside the state are joining the industry, Warner said. It also helps that Washington has long had a lot of wealthy people who work for companies like Boeing, Microsoft and Amazon and have money to invest in the industry, he said.

Many of the State's best wineries are clustered around the old town of Walla Walla, which used to be known primarily for sweet onions and as home of the state penitentiary. Now it is home to world-class winemakers. Warner expected the strong growth rate to continue.

"The line is not flattening," he said. "I wouldn't be surprised if we get to 2,000." One factor that could limit growth is climate change, but Washington also seems fortunate there. The mighty Columbia River, which irrigates much of wine country, is predicted to be a stable water supply for many years to come, Henick-Smith said. Heat spikes in the summer might damage grapes, he said. But farmers are moving vineyards to higher elevations looking for cooler ripening weather.

"Here in Washington we're pretty stable," Henick-Smith said.

3 POINT MACHINES

Origi comes again to rob Toffees at Anfield in 5-2 win as Klopp completes century of PL triumphs

AFP ■ ANFIELD (LIVERPOOL) Liverpool surged eight points clear at the top of the Premier League as Divock Origi was the scourge of Everton once more in a thrilling 5-2 Merseyside derby win for the European champions at Anfield.

But one of the goals came before half-time as Origi and Xherdan Shaqiri, who replaced the rested Roberto Firmino and Mohamed Salah, put Liverpool 2-0 up inside 17 minutes.

Michael Keane pulled a goal back for Everton before Origi got his second and Sadio Mane finished off a blistering counter-attack to make it 4-1. The scoring did not stop there as Richarlison cut the deficit once more, but Georginio Wijnaldum hammered the final nail in the Everton coffin a minute from time as an eighth defeat in 11 league games sees the Toffees slip into the bottom three.

BACK TO SQUARE ONE MANCHESTER: Jose Mourinho endured an unhappy return to Manchester United as Marcus Rashford struck twice in a 2-1 defeat for Tottenham while second-placed Leicester equalled their top-flight league record of seven consecutive wins with a 2-0 victory against bottom side Watford. Also Chelsea bounced back from two consecutive league defeats to beat Aston Villa 2-1.

However, the German's actions spoke louder than words as he could afford the luxury of leaving out Firmino and Salah at the beginning of a hectic month for the Reds in three competitions.

"We needed fresh legs and I had to show my respect to the boys in the squad," added Klopp. "They proved it. It is much more fun making changes, all of the boys are ready to deliver performances like this."

Origo scored the 96th-minute winner when the sides met last season at Anfield and proved his worth within six minutes this time with a calm finish to round Jordan Pickford and slot into an empty net after a sensational pass from Mane cut Everton open.

Shaqiri was making his first start of the season, but also showed no signs of rustiness in front of goal by finishing off another Mane assist on his trusty left foot.

"My biggest dream is to win the title with this club and give it to the fans," said the Swiss midfielder. "We have to focus on the pitch, stay grounded and work hard every day. If we win, it will be amazing, but we still have a long way to go."

'NOT NORMAL' MISTAKES At the other end, Liverpool were without the suspended Alisson in goal and looked poor at the back all night as their long wait for a clean sheet at Anfield this season continued.

Keane took advantage of a slip from Dejan Lovren to lift a delightful finish over Adrian to briefly breathe new life into Everton.

That was extinguished on the half-hour mark as Lovren made amends with a brilliant ball over the top which Origi cushioned into his path before lobbing Pickford. Liverpool then struck again from an Everton corner as Trent Alexander-Arnold led the charge from one end of the field to the other before squaring for Mane to curl into the bottom corner.

Under-fire Everton manager Marco Silva had made a substitution just 35 minutes in to try and turn the tide with Bernard replacing Djibril Sidibe and the Brazilian made an impact as from his cross the ball came off Richarlison's shoulder to leave Adrian helpless.

But Silva must now wait to see if he is offered another stay of execution by the Everton board ahead of Chelsea's visit to Goodison tomorrow.

"I am not the right person to answer about the situation, this question is for different people," said Silva over growing calls for him to be fired.

"The type of mistakes we are making is because the players are playing under big pressure because of the position in the table. They are making some mistakes that are not normal for the level we are at."

India continue T20 auditions

Captain Kohli makes white ball return as Rahul, Pant, Samson look to make most of Windies series and book World Cup ticket

Kieron Pollard attends training session AP

PTI ■ HYDERABAD

The likes of KL Rahul and Rishabh Pant will be aiming to cement their places in the squad as India continue auditions for next year's T20 World Cup when they take on the West Indies in a three-match T20 series, starting here today.

India will continue their preparations for the T20 World Cup in Australia and many players, whose places are not yet secure, will try to impress the team management and selectors with their performances against the West Indies.

One such name is Rahul. In the absence of injured opener Shikhar Dhawan, the series will provide the stylish right-handed batsman, who holds a good record in T20s, a very good opportunity to secure his place as Rohit Sharma's partner up the order.

In 31 T20I, Rahul has amassed 974 runs at an average of 42.74 with 110 not out being his highest score. He is also a prolific scorer in the IPL.

Besides Rahul, another individual who would like to answer his critics with solid performances is Pant. Seen as MS Dhoni's successor, Rishabh has endured a slump in form post ICC World Cup and was heavily criticised for throwing his wicket away on multiple occasions.

Even his glove-work came under heavy scrutiny and the left-hander was dropped in the longest format of the game and Wriddhiman Saha regained his place in the playing XI.

With the selectors bringing in talented Sanju Samson in the squad and talks of Dhoni coming out of his sabbatical soon, it's high time for Pant to either perform or lose his place in the squad.

The series is also huge for Samson. Although he was named in the T20 squad against Bangladesh, the Kerala 'keeper-batsman didn't get a single opportunity in the series and was only picked for this rubber after Dhawan sustained a knee injury. It is certain that Pant will be the first choice wicketkeeper but in case he fails again, it remains to be seen whether the team management gives Samson an opportunity, which he certainly deserves.

On the bowling front, there are several notable comebacks with the likes of Kuldeep Yadav, Mohammed Shami, and Bhuvneshwar Kumar returning to the side's T20 setup.

The duo of Kuldeep and Chahal, also known as Kulcha, will reunite after a long time. Kuldeep last featured in the shortest format in February 2019 against New Zealand.

The find of the Bangladesh series, Deepak Chahar, is also expected to play a big role alongside Shami and Bhuvneshwar in the past attack. West Indies, on the other hand, would be looking for revenge after being dismantled by India 3-0 in their own backyard in August.

Having been entrusted with the captaincy responsibility, Kieron Pollard will look to lead from the front.

With Nicholas Pooran ruled out of the first T20 because of a four-match ban for ball-tampering, the onus would be on Evin Lewis and Lendl Simmons, Shimron Hetmyer to guide West Indies batting line-up.

Keeping in mind the T20 World Cup, the West Indies are also trying out various combinations and have drafted in quite a few new faces in the team.

The visitors have opted for young Brandon King, Khary Pierre, Sherfane Rutherford, Kesrick Williams and Hayden Walsh Jr over experienced players like Carlos Brathwaite, Andre Russell and Dwayne Bravo.

Youngsters like Brandon King, Khary Pierre, Sherfane Rutherford, Kesrick Williams and Hayden Walsh Jr were preferred for the India tour to experienced players like Carlos Brathwaite, Andre Russell and Dwayne Bravo.

"They (young players) need experience and we need to back these guys and see how far they can go because we have seen their talent, their attitude. It's just a matter of trying to teach them and ease them into the world of international cricket which we know is a very tough place."

Talking about the upcoming series, Pollard said his team will look to use the experience of playing in India to challenge the hosts. "We play a lot of cricket

We all need to support Pant: Kohli

PTI ■ HYDERABAD

India captain Virat Kohli on Thursday threw his weight behind the under-fire Rishabh Pant, asserting that he wouldn't let the young wicketkeeper-batsman feel isolated as he battles a slump in form.

The skipper fully backed the 22-year-old, saying it is the team's collective responsibility to support Pant in the trying times.

"We certainly believe in Rishabh's ability. As you say, it's (also) the player's responsibility to do well, work hard and I agree but I think it's a collective responsibility of everyone around us as well to give that player some space to do that," he said.

"If he misses a chance or something, people can't shout. It's not respectful because no player would like that to happen," he added.

Kohli said he expects the crowd in India to get behind the youngster, who was booted in the last series against Bangladesh.

"You are playing in your own country and you should get support rather than always thinking what mistake is this guy going to make. No one wants to be in that position," he said.

"He can't be isolated to such an extent that he gets nervous on the field. If you want him to do well and win matches for India all of us collectively should make him feel like he belongs and we are here to do things for him rather than against him," Kohli added.

TEAMS, India: Virat Kohli (c), Rohit Sharma, KL Rahul, Shikhar Dhawan, Rishabh Pant, Manish Pandey, Shreyas Iyer, Shivam Dube, Ravindra Jadeja, Washington Sundar, Yuzvendra Chahal, Kuldeep Yadav, Deepak Chahar, Bhuvneshwar, Shami.

'Only one spot to be filled in pace attack'

PTI ■ HYDERABAD

India captain Virat Kohli on Thursday said there is only one spot left to be filled in the team's pace attack for next year's T20 World Cup in Australia, indicating that Jasprit Bumrah, Bhuvneshwar Kumar and Mohammed Shami are almost certain to make the cut.

"The fight obviously is for one spot and I think more or less three guys have made a place for themselves. It's going to be a healthy competition and it will be interesting to see how it pans out," Kohli said.

Referring to India's problem of plenty in pace bowling, Kohli said, as a captain, he couldn't have been happier.

"It's not that big an issue for us. I think Bhuvi (Bhuvneshwar) and (Jasprit) Bumrah are experienced bowlers. They have been very consistent in T20 cricket. Deepak (Chahar) has come in and has bowled really well," he told reporters.

"(Mohammed) Shami is coming back and he is bowling really well. If he gets into a rhythm and specifically works on what's required in T20 cricket then he will be very, very useful in places like Australia, especially with his ability to pick wickets with the new ball. He has enough pace to execute yorkers," he added.

"Also couple of more guys are under the scanner for sealing that spot along with three seamers. It's a good position to be in because everyone is bowling really well," the India captain said.

Kohli was also honest enough to admit India's problems in T20 cricket.

"I don't think we have been very good while batting first in T20 cricket and defending low totals as well. So those are two things we really need to focus on," he said.

The duo of Kuldeep Yadav and Yuzvendra Chahal, will also reunite after a long time. Besides Washington Sundar and Ravindra Jadeja are also in the squad.

And Kohli hinted that all the four could earn a ticket to Australia.

"Having two wrist spinners is big advantage when you are playing in Australia in big fields. There might be some games where both might play together. But in T20 cricket, it's all about balance and predominantly we see one guy playing with Jadeja and Washy (Sundar) because it gives us all kinds of variety in the bowling attack.

"You need to have six bowling options in T20 cricket. That's the basic rule. You can't go with five expecting everyone to bowl four good overs. I think that is the balance we need to create," he said.

We need to protect young talents: Pollard

PTI ■ HYDERABAD

West Indies T20 captain Kieron Pollard on Thursday said young cricketers in his country need to be protected from "vultures of the game" when they are initiated into international cricket.

West Indies have opted for some young players in their 15-member team for the limited overs series and Pollard said they need to be given enough opportunity to showcase their talent.

"They (Brandon King and Kesrick Williams) have been pretty good. It's good that we have young guys coming in from the Caribbean Premier League (CPL). They are excited to represent West Indies. But the problem is, we as individuals try to judge people too quickly," Pollard said during pre-match conference.

"We need to have patience. At the end of the day we need results but sometimes you have to be honest with yourself. We look forward to these talents showing the world what they can do. Sometime you need to have umbrella over them and protect them from the vultures out there to pull them down," he added.

in India. It's just a matter of using our experience and hopefully that experience can be a good step for us."

Pollard said his side need to improve their collective game as a team to give India a tough fight in the series.

"We are coming up against India, a formidable team No1 side going around and I think that's good for us, getting an opportunity to come across them. We look at it as a challenge and have to deal with what is presented in front of us," he said.

"We are looking to do the basics right, use our opportunities every time we step on the cricket field. We are not focussing on too many individuals. We collectively as a team is looking to improve our cricket," said the visiting captain.

Third umpire will call front foot no balls

PTI ■ DUBAI

Front foot no balls in the upcoming T20 and One-Day International series between India and the West Indies will be decided by the third umpire and not the on-field officials, the International Cricket Council (ICC) announced on Thursday.

The series, comprising three T20Is and an equal number of ODIs, starts today in Hyderabad and technology to call front foot no balls will be put to trial in it.

"Throughout the trial, the Third Umpire will be responsible for monitoring every ball bowled and identifying whether there has been any front foot infringement," the ICC said in a statement.

"If there has been an infringement on the front foot, the Third Umpire will communicate this to the On-Field Umpire who will subsequently call a no ball. As a result, the On-Field Umpire will not call a front foot no ball without the advice of the Third Umpire," it added.

The ICC said the benefit of doubt in close calls will lie with the bowler.

"...And if a late no ball call is communicated, then the On-Field Umpire will rescind a dismissal (if applicable) and call no ball. The On-Field Umpire will remain responsible for other in-game decisions in the usual way," the ICC said.

KXIP felt I haven't delivered: Ashwin

IAN S ■ NEW DELHI

He might not be in the scheme of things when it comes to white-ball cricket, but off-spinner R Ashwin hasn't given up hope of playing for India in the World T20 in Australia.

"I enjoy playing day in, day out. But I felt somewhere in my career, because of the white ball snub and injuries, I had lost the joy of playing the game, which was very very dangerous for me. I could not watch the game on TV," R Ashwin told Mumbai Mirror.

"That was something I did not enjoy. Thankfully I have gotten over it. I took the help of people and I have gotten over it. World Twenty20 is a realistic goal for everybody. Who does not want to represent India at the competition. Yuvraj Singh came back for World T20 in 2014 and then in 2017 Champions Trophy. I am only 33."

Ashwin also said that his IPL move to Delhi Capitals wasn't really something that he asked for. "My stint at Kings XI was fantastic to say the least. The experience enriched me in every possible way. I was given the role of captaincy, that was new boundaries I explored. Within my purview, I thought I did a fair job, if not a very good job, but these decisions were not mine entirely," Ashwin said.

"There are other factors, the owners did feel I haven't delivered which is true because I could not take the team through to the playoffs in both the seasons. You can give excuses why we could not do that, but I am someone who takes it under my chin and admits that 'yes I couldn't deliver. The trade was more initiated rather my doing,'" he said.

India complete century of medals

Athletes win whopping 50 medals on Thursday to breach 100 marks and consolidate top spot

AGENCIES ■ KATHMANDU

Led by strong performances by Lwushu players and swimmers, India breached the 100-medal mark by winning a whopping 50 medals on the fourth day of competitions to consolidate its top position in the South Asian Games here on Thursday.

India secured its best medal haul on a single day so far in the Games to lead the medal tally with 58 Gold, 41 Silver and 19 Bronze for a total of 118 medals to leave hosts Nepal far behind in the second spot.

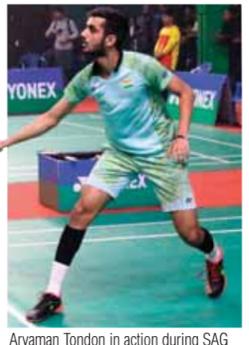

India added 26 Gold, 18 Silver and 6 Bronze on Thursday. The bulk of India's medals came from swimming, wushu, weightlifting and athletics. India's Gold rush was triggered by wushu with as many as seven yellow metals coming from it.

Suraj Singh fetched the first wushu Gold of the day in men's gunshu all-round event before Y Sanathoi Devi (women's sansou 52kg), Punam (women's 75kg),

All-Indian final in badminton singles

NEW DELHI: Indian shuttlers Ashmita Chaliha and Gayatri Gopichand registered convincing victories in their respective semi-finals on Thursday to set up an all-Indian summit clash in the women's singles category in Pokhara.

While, top-seed Ashmita thrashed her Sri Lanka opponent Achini Ratnasiri 21-5, 21-7, Gayatri also had an easy task against Dilmi Dias of Sri Lanka during a 21-17, 21-14 win. Men singles semi-finals also saw India's dominance as Aryaman Tondon and Siril Verma set up an all-Indian final against each other after winning their semi-final matches.

In the men's doubles semi-final, Krishna Garaga and Dhruv Kapila notched up an easy 21-15, 21-7 win.

However, India's challenge came to an end in the women's double category after both the pairs, Kuhoo Garg-Anoushka Parikh and Meghana Jakkampudi-N Sikki Reddy, lost in the last-4 clash.

Thursday with 11, of which four were Gold, six Silver and one Bronze.

Taekwondo players' impressive show also continued as they gave India six medals — 3 Gold, 2 Silver and 1 Bronze.

Track and field athletes had a relatively quieter day after leading from the front in the past two days as they pocketed six medals, including one Gold, on Thursday.

Triple jumper Karthik Unnikrishnan was the lone Gold winner in athletics as he cleared a distance of 16.47m while compatriot Mohammed Salahuddin jumped 16.16m to win the Silver.

CELTIC STRIKE LATE AS RANGERS SLIP

GLASGOW: Scott Brown's dramatic injury-time strike gave Celtic a 2-1 win over Hamilton to move the Hoops two points clear at the top of the Scottish Premiership as Rangers let a two-goal lead slip to draw 2-2 at Aberdeen. Celtic looked on course for a routine evening when Ryan Christie pounced to score from close range in the 13th minute to put the home side in front. But the Accies stayed in the game and seemed to have secured an unlikely point when Marios Ogkmpoe bundled in a leveller in the 90th minute. Celtic, though, snatched winner when captain Brown burst into the box to fire two minutes into injury time.

BARCA RAISE FATI'S RELEASE CLAUSE

BARCELONA: Barcelona have raised teenage star Ansu Fati's release clause from 100 million to 170 million euros ($188.3 million). The 17-year-old's release clause will also be bumped up to 400 million euros — almost double the world-record 222 million euros PSG paid Barcelona for Neymar — when he signs a professional contract with the first team. "FC Barcelona and the player Ansu Fati have agreed on an improved contract until June 30, 2022, with two years optional, and on his release clause, which moves from 100 to 170 million euros," Barca said in a statement.

KHEDIRA OUT FOR THREE MONTHS

TURIN: Juventus midfielder Sami Khedira has been ruled out for three months after undergoing knee surgery, the Italian champions announced. The 2014 World Cup winner had surgery in his native Germany. "The operation was perfectly successful and the player will be able to start rehabilitation immediately," Juventus said in a statement. "The expected recovery time is around three months." The 32-year-old has played a key role this season where he featured in 13 of the 14 league games.

BOPANNA AIMS TO PLAY QATAR OPEN

MUMBAI: Forced out of India's recent Davis Cup tie due to a shoulder injury, doubles specialist Rohan Bopanna said his recovery is on the right track and he plans to compete at the Qatar Open in January. "It (the shoulder) is getting better and I just started training, maybe 2-3 days ago. So, I have a whole month before the season starts. So it will be fine by the time the first tournament starts, which is on the January 6th — Doha event in Qatar," Bopanna said. The tourney will be held in Doha from Jan 6 to 12.

SL OVERHAUL CRICKET COACHING TEAM

COLOMBO: Sri Lanka's cricket board Thursday announced a major revamp of the national team after their poor showing at the recent World Cup, confirming Mickey Arthur's appointment as head coach. SL's secretary Mohan de Silva said the country had been without a proper coach since the early World Cup exit. "We are very pleased to have Mickey and hope his experience in Asia will help build our team to a very high standard," de Silva told reporters after hiring the 51-year-old. Grant Flower was appointed the new batting coach, David Saker as bowling coach while Shane McDermott is in charge of fielding training.
