Pak kept in FATF grey terror list

PSN ■ NEW DELHI

The international terror financing watchdog Financial Action Task Force (FATF) on Friday condemned the Pulwama terror attack that martyred 44 CRPF jawans and decided to continue the 'Grey' listing of Pakistan for its failure to stop funding of terrorist groups such as Jaish-e-Mohammad, Lashkar-e-Tayyeba and Jamat-ul-Dawa.

The Paris headquartered FATF observed that Pakistan is not properly understanding the risks of terror financing and there are many deficiencies in maintaining proper actions to curb terror financing.

In a statement, the FATF said Pakistan should continue to work on implementing its action plan to address its strategic deficiencies, including by adequately demonstrating its proper understanding of the terror financing risks posed by the terrorist groups and conducting supervision on a risk-sensitive basis.

"The FATF notes with grave concern and condemns the terrorist attack last week that killed at least 44 Indian security forces in Pulwama," it said after the week-long FATF plenary held in Paris.

"Pakistan has revised its terror financing risk assessment. However, it does not demonstrate a proper understanding of the TF risks posed by Daesh (ISIS), Al-Qaida, JuD, FIF (Falah-e-Insaniyat Foundation), LeT, JeM (Jaish-e-Mohammad), HQN (Haqqani Network) and persons affiliated with the Taliban," the statement said.

Given the limited progress on action plan items due in January 2019, the FATF urged Pakistan to swiftly complete its action plan, particularly those with timelines of May 2019. An Indian official, who attended the FATF plenary, explained that placement in compliance document means putting the country in 'Grey' list and it will be reviewed again in June 2019.

In June 2018, Pakistan was placed in the 'Grey' list and given a 27-point action plan by the FATF. This plan was reviewed as the last Plenary in October 2018 and for the second time in this week-long meeting. The decision has been taken after several rounds of deliberations during the plenary where India submitted new information about Pakistan-based terrorist groups, including Jaish-e-Mohammad, responsible for the Pulwama attack.

The FATF continuing Pakistan with the 'Grey' listing means downgrading of the country by multilateral lenders like IMF, World Bank, ADB, EU and also a reduction in risk rating by Moody's, S&P and Fitch, a security official said. Pakistan was nominated for a detailed review of its "serious deficiencies" in countering terror financing in February 2018. This nomination was supported by the US, the United Kingdom, France, Germany and India, the official said.

At the end of this plenary, the FATF has observed that several deficiencies remain in Pakistan's legal regime in dealing with terror financing.

Since June 2018, Pakistan has made a high-level political commitment (statement by its Minister of Finance) to work with and address its strategic counter-terrorist financing-related deficiencies.

At the start of its deliberations, all FATF members observed a minute of silence for the 44 CRPF jawans who were martyred. The President of FATF expressed sincere condolences to the people and the Government of India. The FATF currently has 35 members and two regional organisations — European Commission and Gulf Cooperation Council.

The FATF also said Pakistan should continue to work on implementing its action plan to address its strategic deficiencies, including by adequately demonstrating its proper understanding of the terror financing risks posed by the terrorist groups and conducting supervision on a risk-sensitive basis, demonstrating that remedial actions and sanctions are applied in cases of Anti-Money Laundering (AML) and Combating Financing of Terrorism (CFT) violations and that these actions have an effect on AML/CFT compliance by financial institutions.

Pakistan should demonstrate that competent authorities are cooperating and taking action to identify and take enforcement action against illegal money or value transfer services (MVTS), demonstrating that authorities are identifying cash couriers and enforcing controls on illicit movement of currency and understanding the risk of cash couriers being used for TF, improving inter-agency coordination including between provincial and federal authorities on combating TF risks besides others.

UNSC names JeM for Pulwama, China belittles resolution

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

The UN Security Council (UNSC) statement on Pulwama attack was delayed nearly by one week due to China's opposition. The condemnation by the UN's most powerful 15-nation body named the Pakistan-based terror group Jaish-e-Mohammad (JeM).

A day after it emerged that China, an all weather ally of Pakistan, did not want a reference to JeM in the UNSC statement which strongly condemned the Pulwama terror attack, Beijing has tried to downplay the resolution and said the mention of the Pakistan-based terror group does not represent a judgement and was only in "general terms."

The UN condemnation came a day after Pakistan's Permanent Representative to the UN Maleeha Lodhi met top UN leaders, including with Secretary-General Antonio Guterres to brief them about the escalating tensions in the region in the wake of the Pulwama attack but her efforts did not bear any fruit.

Even after UNSC condemned the Pulwama strike as "terrorism" China continued to oppose any mention of terrorism in the statement, said a person familiar with the diplomatic parleys on the issue at the UN headquarters.

CM inaugurates Phase-7 of Ranchi Ring Road

Lays foundation of Smart City infrastructure, Urban water supply schemes for city

PNS ■ RANCHI

Chief Minister Raghubar Das inaugurated the Phase-7 of the Ranchi Ring Road pending for several years. "I had promised to the people of Ratu that a bridge would be constructed on the national highway linking the ring road. The bridge will be constructed at a cost of 22 crores.

Today the construction work of pending ring road phase 7 is completed at a cost of 452 crores. Foundation stone for urban water supply scheme (Amrit scheme) at the cost of ₹290 crores and work of HEC smart city infrastructure scheme in 656 acres of land at the cost of 513 crores is being laid," said the CM during the inaugural ceremony here on Friday.

"After the formation of the State, Jharkhand's population has registered an increase. Government aims to provide facilities to this growing population. The construction work of Ranchi Ring Road Phase 1 and 2 will complete by April and the remaining 25.3 km will be linked to the ring road. This work is the responsibility of NHAI. There was some difficulty in this work, which has been coordinated with the Central Government and has been removed. The completion of this work will greatly benefit the traffic," he said.

The CM said that for the basic facility in the villages, the Central Government has deposited ₹600 crores in the bank accounts of more than 4,000 Mukhiyas of State under the 14th Finance Commission. ₹600 crores will again be given in March.

In this way a Panchayats will get ₹26 lakh for the development of the village. Drinking water supply scheme will be implemented in tribal and Dalit villages at the cost of 500 crore. Through deep boring, the poor will get pure drinking water in their home, he added.

Das said that Jharkhand will soon get 24 hour power supply. The work of 81 grid and 257 sub stations is underway. Government is working with goal to provide 24-hour electricity by December 2019.

The Chief Minister said that while driving vehicles, people of the State should follow discipline and law. A slight negligence can cause heavy damage. Urban Development Minister CP Singh said that today the foundation stone of the road, drinking water supply

Pakistan at sea as India withdraws MFN

RAKESH K SINGH ■ NEW DELHI

Removal of Pakistan from the Most Favoured Nation (MFN) status is not a knee-jerk reaction post-Pulwama terror attack but a well-calibrated and calculated tactical decision aimed at squeezing Pakistan not only economically but also to increase its dependence on third country ports for import of consumer items like fruits, vegetables and wheat flour besides medicines and raw materials for the textile industry among others which in turn will lead to cost escalation in the Pakistani market.

Dependence on ports of other countries will lead to cost escalation of consumer items especially daily consumer goods like vegetables and grains leading to scarcity and subsequently unrest. Before, the removal of Pakistan from the MFN status, the goods were sent from India via land ports and transport cost was negligible with a nominal tax by Islamabad on imports from India, making such products cheaper for the Pakistanis.

Due to MFN, Pakistani exports to India were duty free but now India has slapped a duty of 200 per cent, dissuading the importers here from picking up the goods.

J'khand to play pivotal role in second green revolution: Dr Kaushal

SAURAV ROY ■ RANCHI

Jharkhand has the potential to become a frontrunner in India's second Green Revolution. And, to make this idea a reality, the State would require what Birs Agriculture University's (BAU) Vice Chancellor Dr Parvinder Kaushal calls "Scientist Farmers". These farmers would use artificial intelligence for watering their fields and monitor the yields through smart phones and laptops. In a tete-a-tete with Kaushal, a man with visibly futuristic ideas, The Pioneer takes a sneak peek into the tech-driven future of agriculture in India. Excerpts from the interview:

agrarian economy of the country?

Lack of awareness among farmers about latest technologies is the greatest hurdle not only in Jharkhand but across India. In Jharkhand, more than 84 per cent of the farmers have small land holdings, because of which they have fewer options of crops. The soil here is acidic and requires proper treatment. We get limited rains in this part of the country, so water management is a major challenge.

How can Jharkhand overcome these hurdles?

We have to adopt precision farming. Our farmers will have to become technology-friendly and use the latest technologies in order to sustain the demands and produce surplus crops for export. When I say

Birs Agriculture University Vice Chancellor Dr. Parvinder Kaushal talks with the Pioneer at administrate building, Kanke near Ranchi on Friday precision farming, I am referring to the adequate use of the resources available. Farmers with smaller land holdings will have to grow crops that have less volume yet give high returns. It is not about how much water you get, but how you make the most out of it. 'Per drop more crop' has to be the slogan for farmers. We have to manage our water better and use them for the best possible outcome. The farmers have to be made aware about the relevance of the topography of their land, the importance of soil quality and also which crop is suitable for which type of soil.

How is the BAU con-

Birs Agriculture University Vice Chancellor Dr. Parvinder Kaushal giving information about wheat farming at administrate building, Kanke near Ranchi on Friday tributing towards it?

As you know, BAU is the only agriculture university in the State. In two years we have expanded from four colleges to 11 colleges. And, a major part of the effort is targeted at producing quality agriculture entrepreneurs and para technicians who incorporate the modern technologies into farming. Through our 24 Krishi Vigyan Kendras (KVK), we are imparting knowledge about modern farming techniques to the farmers. We are providing high quality foundation seeds to our farmers and also helping them take up animal husbandry, fisheries and poultry businesses for additional income. The BAU's role here is to ensure that enough para technicians and agriculture experts start working in tandem with Jharkhand farmers.

The Government plans to double the income of farmers by 2022. How do you think the State should go about this target?

The expenses of farmers can be cut down by 20 per cent - 30 per cent by using modern agriculture technology. This will automatically help increase the profit. When we talk of farming, it is not only the Kharif and Rabi crops that we are referring to. Jharkhand has immense potential for Horticulture too. Today, more than 50 per cent of the fruits come to Jharkhand from other states.

If our farmers start growing fruits, there will always be demand for them since the soil and weather condition here are conducive for it. Do you know that 75 per cent of the land here remains barren during Rabi cultivation? So, farmers can take up animal husbandry and poultry alongside and go for integrated farming for greater returns.

Probe ordered in Gumla farmer suicide case

PNS ■ RANCHI

The Gumla district administration has constituted a committee to probe the alleged suicide of debt ridden farmer in Sisai block of the district. On Wednesday, a middle aged farmer, Shivnath Oraon allegedly committed suicide by hanging himself from roof of his house due to financial distress. Oraon had taken a loan of ₹50,000 from Bank of India, Sisai Branch under Kishan Credit Card scheme, but was facing difficulty to repay loan money.

A team from Gumla district administration led by SDO, Menka and other administrative staff on Friday visited the victim's house at Gokulpur Patraloli under Sisai police station and talked to family members. The district administration officials also provided the victim immediate compensation money. Gumla DC, Shashi Ranjan said, "Prima facie it appears to be case of suicide. A team under SDO is probing the incident. Under the National Family Benefit Scheme ₹20,000 has been given the victim's family. Also Shivnath Oraon's widow's name will be included in beneficiaries list under Widow Pension Scheme." The district administration officials had also directed the PDS dealer to provide 50 kg rice to Oraon family members.

Ranjan said, "Prima facie we have come to know that the man had taken a loan from KCC, but the amount was not big for which he had taken such as drastic step. We will increase the duration for repaying the loan money so that the family does not face financial burden. Oraon family was getting food grains from PDS, rice at the rate of ₹3 per kg, and wheat at ₹2 per kg. The family was also beneficiaries of Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana." Few months back ₹1.30 lakh was provided to Oraon for constructing the house under the PMAY scheme and he had even constructed the house.

The DC claimed that apart from SDO, the team which visited the victim's house also included officials from agriculture department, so that they assist and provide necessary guidelines to family members in increasing agriculture production.

Sources said that as Shivnath Oraon had taken the loan of ₹50,000 KCC from Bank of India Sisai branch, but was unable to repay it. To repay the loan he had even worked in brick kiln and had taken ₹20,000 as advance from brick kiln owners. As he was upset and not able to repay the loan he was planning to go to other state for working in brick kiln. On February 27, he was to go to other State for working in brick kiln.

However, sources said that on Wednesday night, Oraon quarrelled with his wife over some issue leading to such a drastic step.

Traffic police nab mobile phone thief

ASI DK Singh with the mobile thief

PNS ■ RANCHI

City Traffic Police on Friday while controlling traffic snarl diligently also nabbed a mobile handset thief Under Lalpur Police Station in Ranchi District.

Traffic Sub-Inspector, Dharmendra Kumar Singh said, "I was on my duty in the morning between 11 am to 12 am. A girl aged of 18-19 years came near me and started crying and pointing out her finger towards a boy age of 18 to 19 years and said that he has stolen her mobile handset and ran away. After hearing her complain I rushed towards the boy who was running towards Dangra Toli Chowk. After some distance chasing the boy, I nabbed the boy.

The boy was thrown the mobile handset in to the nearby gutter. We have somehow brought back the mobile handset from the gutter and handed it over to the girl." "The boy was handed over to Lalpur Chowk Police Station for further investigation. A large number of people gathered at the place and a small traffic jam took place at the moment," Singh added.

The girl thanked the sub-inspector for his work and the people present on the occasion also applauded the work of the policemen.

Workshop on NAAC held in women's college Daltonganj

PNS ■ DALTONGANJ

A day long workshop on NAAC was held on the premises of the Yodh Singh Namdhari Mahila College in Daltonganj on Friday. VC of the Nilamber pitamber university S N Singh and pro vice chancellor of the same university Pawan Kumar Poddar graced the occasion.

The host Mahila College's professor in charge Mohini Gupta and her trusted hand in NAAC Vibha Pandey and their team had organized this workshop.

VC SN Singh said, "NAAC evaluation is now a must. It cannot be done away with but I am too saddened to say our college heads are just not getting this point any seriously and are not up for this NAAC evaluation as a result I am to face a lot of embarrassments in the meetings that are held in Raj Bhavan Ranchi where I am asked to explain as to why the track record of NP university is so dismal on the count of colleges not evaluated by NAAC so far."

He said, "Our track record is 25 per cent, while other universities here have a track record of 75 per cent. This is too serious a matter and I am left in the lurch by my own team."

The VC added further, "This workshop is a kind of ringing the alarm bells to the college heads not to sleep over this as it will have far reaching consequences of it even grant stoppage from the UGC."

Pro Vice Chancellor Pawan Kumar Poddar who is the chairman of the NAAC Peer Team said in today's time evaluation of colleges is too essential as higher education has become a serious victim of crass commercialism as he drawing a statistical comparison said when India was made free then this country had 20 universities and 496 colleges which is now 800 universities and number of colleges 30,000 in the country.

Poddar said "This number of universities and colleges will outnumber any other country but when it comes to prime academic activity or research performance our country's universities are to cut a sorry figure as none of the universities and the colleges of our country are nowhere on the list of 250 world's best colleges." NAAC is a ladder by which our colleges can try to compete with other colleges globally reiterated Poddar.

Sources said there are in all 21 colleges under this NP university out of which 5 are constituent colleges including d'Egree college Manika, 6 permanent affiliated colleges and 10 affiliated colleges.

Poddar said evaluation by NAAC is a must for all these three categories of the colleges constituent, permanent affiliated and affiliated colleges and there is no escape from this. Advising college heads Poddar said, "It is time now for them to move forward for NAAC evaluation than to sulk in the past."

State Government wants two most important formalities of NAAC evaluation to be ready and in order by this March end said VC for which state higher, technical education and skill development department has convened a meeting of all colleges in Ranchi on February 27 added VC.

J'khand to play pivotal role in second green...

Organic products have witnessed a spurt in demand across the globe. What is the scope of organic farming in Jharkhand?

Earlier, the focus was production. Now, it is on health too. So, technically we are not only looking for food security but also nutritional security these days. Jharkhand has great potential for organic farming. There are several misconceptions about organic farming aid organic farming in Jharkhand in the days to come.

How would you define the term Scientist Farmer that you have been using quite often in this conversation?

Scientist Farmer is the farmer of the future generation. He/She is a farmer who is aware of the latest happenings in the field of agriculture and is willing to use modern technologies. We have a huge data of details about what kind of treatment is required for any particular crop. A Scientist Farmer will have access to this data through technology and use it for better yields despite limited resources. He will use artificial intelligence for irrigating his fields and make the most out of the available water. Every procedure followed on a Scientist Farmer's field will be systematic and highly effective.

Climatic change has been causing a lot of damage to crops in Jharkhand. How can we combat this?

Be it the extremes of temperature or rains, it will affect the crops adversely. Last year, we had droughts in several parts of the state. There was no moisture at the time of the reaping, and this also affected the next sowing phase. Proper water conservation processes and effective management of the conserved water can help to a certain extent.

Chief Minister Raghubar Das often talks of Sweet Revolution. What are the prospects in Jharkhand?

Jharkhand has an abundance of flora, which gives it immense potential of producing high quality honey. These days, the demand for honey has also increased due to its health benefits and medicinal value. Honey farming can be a lucrative option for farmers here and Jharkhand can be a forerunner in it.

State Government after realising its inability to induct more number of beneficiaries into the cover of the Food Security Act (FSA) in Jharkhand has decided to approach the Center to help it out.

Minister of Food and Civil Supplies Saryu Roy wrote on Friday to the Secretary of the Department to approach the Center requesting it to revise the quota of ration cards allocated to the State.

"As per the present provisions made in the FSA, 2013 Jharkhand can provide coverage to maximum 2,64,43,330 persons only which is based on the 2011 census data. "Population of the State is expected to reach 3,78,57,182 order to avail benefits under the FSA. The Minister has written to the Department. We are examining it and would be readying an application to request the Center. The request would be made to revise the limit in accordance with the expected population of the State going to be by December 2019 along with quota of ration the State gets every month. The application would be sent to the Center by next week," said Amitabh Kaushal, Secretary with the Department.

Moreover sources with the Department are of the view that it is very difficult to get the list revised midway. "The next census is just two years away. Also how can the Center do it for one individual State? It has not been done so far in the country," said an official.

by December this year as per the growth rate which is 1.64 per cent annual. Since the Act was passed, about 9,73,810 new households have been added in comparison of 2011. We are under pressure to add more families under the FSA cover and thus help of Center is required," said Saryu Roy.

Latest figures with the Department suggest that over 7,94,844 applications for getting fresh ration cards are lying before it for approval. "There is great deal of pressure from the people to get ration cards in order to avail benefits under the FSA. The Minister has written to the Department. We are examining it and would be readying an application to request the Center. The request would be made to revise the limit in accordance with the expected population of the State going to be by December 2019 along with quota of ration the State gets every month. Moreover sources with the Department are of the view that it is very difficult to get the list revised midway. "The next census is just two years away. Also how can the Center do it for one individual State? It has not been done so far in the country," said an official.

Cops suspended for negligence in duty

PNS ■ GIRIDIH

Three policemen, including Officer-in-Charge and two sub-inspectors (SI), were on Thursday suspended in connection with alleged suicide of an accused in lock-up.

Superintendent of Police (SP) Surendra Kumar Jha issued suspension orders of these policemen posted in Saria Police Station near here, an official said.

Officer-in Charge Bikash Paswan and SI R.N. Singh and one other were placed under suspension on charge of dereliction of duty, said Superintendent of Police (SP) Surendra Kumar Jha.

A probe is also going on in the matter which is being conducted by Judicial Magistrate (First Class), he said. A 34-year-old man, arrested in burglary case, allegedly hanged himself in lock-up at Saria Police Station, nearly 50 kms away from Giridih, on Thursday morning. Shakil Ahmad, a resident of Delhi, was found hanging from an end of a ventilator inside the lock up, police had said.

CRPF sets up library in Bokaro school

PNS ■ BOKARO

Students in Maoist-hit villages in Jhumra forest area of Bokaro who had lived under constant threat of extremism are now building their academic future using the libraries provided by the 26th Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF) fighting the left wing extremism.

After making several villages free from Maoist activities in Jhumra forest, the CRPF 26th battalion has come up with library facilities in Upgraded Middle School, Dania of Bermo Sub Division. All students of middle school, Dania are benefited with this library.

CRPF 26th battalion commandant Akhilesh Kumar Singh said they have spent around Rs 50,000 for library. "Books on school syllabus, competitive examinations, story, novel, moral education, big personalities etc have been provided at Dania middle school library. School rooms were converted into library room while furniture, solar light and other well-furnished atmosphere were provided for students," the commandant said. The library was inaugurated on Thursday at Utkramit middle school, Dania in Jhumra hill. School teachers and students were hopeful for better education with the modern library in the campus. Students of around 150 to 250 in school from over five nearby villages are benefited with each of library, added Singh. Students in villages of Dania, Tilaya, Mohra, Chandwa, were afraid of attending classes earlier due to rampant Maoist violence till around two years back. After restoration of peace in these villages, the CRPF started paying attention on village students' academic future.

Man kills wife, surrenders

OKARO: A 62-year-old man allegedly killed his wife at his house at Bokaro's Aagardih village, police said on here on Friday afternoon. A domestic quarrel led to the death, said DySP Gayan Ranjan. One Gold Babu Ansari lived with his wife Shahar Bano, 60 in a rented accommodation in Aagardih village. Their three sons have been living three separate places in Bokaro.

In a dramatic turn of events, Gol Babu Ansari approached the police station to surrender for his crime. When the cops broke into his house door, Shahar Bano was found lying dead near the door. She had multiple injuries on her body, but appeared to have been strangled to death. Police said a local inquiry revealed the couple fought frequently over domestic issues. One such quarrel on Friday morning turned violent after which Gol Babu Ansari allegedly beat his wife before strangling her to death.

Madhuri fan celebrates release of 'Total Dhamaal'

PNS ■ JAMSHEDPUR:

Pappu Sardar, the man known for his love for actress Madhuri Dixit, on Friday celebrated the release of the movie Total Dhamaal that stars Madhuri in the lead role. The die-hard fan distributed free tickets among women to watch the movie at Payal Cinema at Mango.

He also danced to the tunes of the movie songs with eunuchs who were invited to celebrate the event. Dressed with a 'Total Dhamaal' printed green shirt, he also decorated his vehicle with the theme of the movie.

"I am really excited over the release of Madhuri's new film. The film will set new records and I want to make sure that the viewers are greeted as they enter the hall to watch the movie. Apart from tickets, I distributed chocolates and ice creams to all the viewers who are going to watch the movie at Jamshepur," said Pappu.

Pappu, who has been celebrating Madhuri's birthday from last more than 10 years, had also arranged special screening of Devdas in 2002 and Aaja Nach Le vin 2007 for special children. Latter he went to Eylex Cinema at NH 33 where in cake cutting ceremony was organised. He also went to P&M Mall and distributed chocolates to the viewers.

It may be mentioned that Pappu has been celebrating Madhuri's birthday since mid-90s and shot into the limelight for his attraction towards the actress. In 2008 he even got the opportunity to meet Madhuri.

Moreover, his day begin with offering pujas for the actress. Such is his popularity that an American student carried a research on his personality.

"She is my idol, no one could stop me from serving the society, which is closer to my heart than any thing else in my life. I want to spread smiles in the society with the screening of the movie," said Pappu.

ICSE exams begin, over 4,000 students appear in Jamshedpur

PNS ■ JAMSHEDPUR

With throbbing heart beats and pulsating nerves students of the city participated in the Indian Certificate of Secondary Education (ICSE) examination began here on Friday. Nervousness ruled the campus as students made last minutes revision and discussions with their classmates. Over 4,000 students from 35 ICSE schools are participating in the examinations.

The examination will end on March 25, first day's paper was English language. The ICSE pass percentage has been reduced to 33 from 35.

Candidates failing to clear the exams this year will get a second chance by taking compartmental tests, which will be held in July. The results will be published in August. But only those candidates, who will fail to pass in only one subject, other than English, in the main exams can avail of the opportunity. The CISCE has banned digital watches and electronics gadgets inside exam halls.

The students appearing for the ICSE examination (class 10th) said that the questions were straightforward however the paper was lengthy due to which they had to struggle to complete the paper on time.

"I felt that the paper was quite easy but it was a bit lengthy. However, length does not matter as long as you know the answers," said a student of DBMS.

School authorities informed said that special arrangements have been made for the 10th and 12th examination. A flying squad has been constituted to keep a vigil look on the examination process. The exams will continue till April and the results are expected to be declared in the second week of May. Principals of the schools also felt that the first day of the paper was satisfactory and students looked contented after answering the papers. Though the first timers, answering ICSE were quite nervous, things became easier once they started answering.

One of the conveners of the ICSE schools in Jamshepur and principal of Kadma-based DBMS English High School, Rajani Shekhar said that first day passed off peacefully. The candidates were given 15 minutes of reading time from 10.45 am while the writing began at 11 am till 1 pm.

SDO instructs to ensure all amenities at Pahari Temple

PNS ■ RANCHI

In an attempt to ensure peaceful 'Shivaratri' fest slated on March 4, SDO Garima Singh conducted a meeting with the members of Pahari Mandir Vikash Samiti here on Friday. During the meeting, the SDO gave a number of instructions to the committee members to prevent any untoward incident on the temple premises.

From decking up CCTV cameras to defining the routes for the convenience of the devotees including additional deputation of the security forces, the committee members have been instructed to chalk out a detailed draft ensuring all facilities.

"As many as 200 security personnel will be deputed on the temple premises on the pious days. Around 100 female constables will also lend their service on the occasion to assist the female devotees."

be replaced at the earliest, as per the instructions. More than 22 CCTV cameras are there," said PRO, Pahari Mandir Vikash Samiti - Mukesh Kumar Agarwal.

"Additional facilities like provisions of water including other basic materials required for carrying out the rituals will be provided at the temple. Also, Argha system will be adopted in an attempt to tackle the rush during the peak hours. Alternate traffic route chart plan will be released soon," added Agarwal.

IIM-backed social entrepreneur says 'no-to-plastic-bags'

Biz venture – Eco Saviour finds top slot in WSP – 2018

PRAGYA PALLAVI ■ RANCHI

Government and society facing tough times against unending use of polythene bags have got a companion. Dr. Sunita Chandak Chitlangia, a social entrepreneur, a researcher and a professor at Nirmala College, Ranchi has come up with a noble venture – Eco Saviour that can give way to the environmental menace once and for all.

According to Chitlangia, 'Eco – Saviour', which offers environmental friendly 100 per cent compostable products like carry bags, shopping bags, garbage bin lining, and bio-medical waste bags for the home and for commercial usage are compostable carry bags and are helpful alternative of replacing single use plastic carry bags as it has the ability of 'Self Disintegration' into soil within 180 days.

Interestingly, 'Eco-Saviour' venture has found a place in the top 100 business ideas list of the Women Startup Programme (WSP) – 2018, organised at the Indian Institute of Management – Bengaluru (IIM-B). Notably, Chitlangia is the only female contestant from Jharkhand to be part of this elite programme that enables aspiring Indian woman entrepreneurs to systematically identify and test their business ideas.

The compostable bags are made-up of natural starch, vegetable oil derivatives and vegetable waste, which look similar to plastic bags but are compostable and bio-degradable. 'Bags made of bioplastics have the basic ingredient granulate made from renewable resources like corn starch, potato starch and bio-polymers. An additional advantage of renewable materials for bioplastics is that no oil-based components are used and no trees need to be chopped. The biomass used is renewable; hence the depletion of resources is not an issue,' Dr. Chitlangia said while explaining about her project 'Eco - Saviour'.

Professor Sunita Chandak Chitlangia

"Another good thing about bioplastics is that they are compostable: they decay into natural materials that blend harmlessly with soil. Some bioplastics can break down within weeks. The cornstarch molecules they contain slowly absorb water and swell up; causing them to break apart into small fragments. They self disintegrate into soil in 180 days and can be used as compost for plants," she further added.

The idea of her venture has originated from her PhD thesis topic 'An Economic Study of Jute Industry in India'. Being an environment lover, I started working in this direction for a social cause with a group of women. Meanwhile, I got an opportunity to participate in WSP 2018. The all India level competition transforms innovative idea into a business venture," Chitlangia said.

Dr. Chitlangia's social venture has gained much appreciation from the State government agencies like Jharkhand

State Pollution Control Board, Ranchi Municipal Corporation, Department of Environment, Forest and Climate Change (GoJ) as well as Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change, GoI.

The WSP is a first-of-its kind customized online and classroom-training programme designed to provide a platform budding female entrepreneurs. The WSP provides in-depth training to nurture and boost managerial and entrepreneurial skills of female entrepreneurs through mentorship from industry veterans, incubation at leading institutes and financial support.

"The WSP 2018 programme started in the month of January 2018. After several rounds of exposure through technical sessions and pitching rounds, my idea was approved. Out of 7000 venture only 300 ventures were selected, the place allotted for my Boot camp 1 was IIM-Visakhapatnam. During nine days training, I was exposed to several entrepreneurial learning activities," Dr. Chitlangia said, recalling her journey.

"My endeavour was selected for Boot Camp II in which only top 100 ventures are selected for further training and mentoring. After completion of boot Camp II, I find myself most lucky to be incubated at IIM Vizag and IIM Bengaluru for monthly reviews and mentoring," she said.

The Pan India competition is organized by NS Raghavan Centre for Entrepreneurial Learning (NSRCEL) – IIM Bengaluru and supported by Ministry of Science and Technology, GoI and Goldman Sach.

Following the success of WSP – 2016, which saw the participation of 1,700 woman entrepreneurs, the WSP – 2018 saw over 6,000 aspiring business women rubbing their shoulders to grab the top place from across the country. The competition is organised in partnership with leading management institutes that includes – IIM Visakhapatnam, IIM Indore, IIM Nagpur, IIM Sirmour, IIM Udaipur, IIE Guwahati and CIIE Ahmadabad.

BJP plans series of outreach programmes

PM to interact with chosen party workers

ROSHAN KUMAR ■ RANCHI

With Lok Sabha elections inching closer, the State BJP has planned an array of programmes to woo voters. Party leaders, cadres and members at booth and panchayat levels have been assigned tasks at to create 'Modi magic' ahead of elections. Starting with this, the state BJP has asked party leaders to make PM Narendra Modi's 'Man Ki Baat' a grand success which will be telecast on February 24. The 'Man Ki Baat' is likely to be last one in the series of the PM, through which he addresses the people on All India Radio, DD National and DD News.

BJP MLA from Gumla and party spokesperson, Shiv

Shankar Oroan said, "The February 24 session will be the last 'Man Ki Baat', which the PM will address.

The party leaders and cadres have been asked to make the programme successful. The function will be held at booth and panchayat levels with directions to party leaders to attend at least 30 minutes session. Instructions have been issued to bring beneficiaries of centre schemes to attend 'Man Ki Baat'. The 'Man Ki Baat' programme was first aired on October 3, 2014 and since then the PM has address 52 'Man Ki Baat' session. The last 'Man Ki Baat' session will 53rd session.

Apart from making 'Man Ki Baat' a grand success, the State BJP has also decided to make the ongoing 'Kamal Jyoti' programme a mega event. Under the Kamal Jyoti Vikash Abhiyan, party members have been asked to illuminate lotus lamp.

On February 26, a mega function under 'Kamal Jyoti' will be held where party leaders will illuminate lamps at panchayats, block and district level. Union Ministers, State Ministers, MPs, MLAs, presidents of different morchas and cells have been asked to illuminate lamp at any important places. BJP poll symbol-shaped lotus lamps were to be given to the beneficiaries of various Government schemes in the State.

Oroan said, "The government in last four and half years had initiated various scheme promoting small entrepreneurship, Sukanya Samridhhi Yojana promoting saving for future of girl child, Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojna (PMAY), aiming to achieve 'Housing For All' (HFA) by 2022, Deen Dayal Upadhaya Gram Jyoti Yojana (DDUGJY) which is the idea of electrifying every village and Ayushman Bharat Yojana under which nearly 10 crore economically backward families are entitled to Rs 5 lakh medical insurance.

The BJP's February plans also includes Prime Minister Modi's video conferencing on February 28, where he will interact with the people directly. The State BJP is also working mechanism so that Modi also interacts with people from State. On March 3, the BJP will hold a motor cycle rally in all Vidhan Sabha areas.

Amit Shah to sound poll bugle from Godda

PNS ■ RANCHI

BJP national president Amit Shah will kick start party election campaign from Santal Pargana. Shah, in order to boost the morale of party workers, will address party workers in Godda on March 5. Senior party cadres from panchayat, block, districts of Santal Pargana have been invited at the Shakti Kendra Sammelan.

State BJP general secretary Deepak Prakash said, "BJP national president Amit Shah will start party campaign from Godda attending the Shakti Kendra Sammelan. We expect that around 14,000 party workers are going to attend the function."

The Godda visit of Shah gains importance as earlier on two occasions his visit was postponed. Sources said that earlier, the party had planned Shah's visit in January but it was postponed as Shah was unwell as he was suffering from swine flu, later the visit was planned in mid-February but once again the visit was postponed due to Pulwama attack.

State BJP spokesperson Misfiqa Hassan, said, "Senior party leaders from panchayat, block and districts from Santal Pargana have been invited at the Shakti Kendra Sammelan. Apart from these, senior executive members from different Morchas and Cells have been invited to attend the function."

Hassan said that all senior leaders from State including Chief Minister Raghubar Das, State BJP president Laxman Gilua, ministers of State Cabinet and MPs and MLAs from Santal Pargana are to attend the Sammelan.

Sources said that the visit of Shah also gains importance as Election Commission of India (ECI) is likely to announce the poll dates on first week of March. By launching the election campaign from Santal region, the party also wants to give a message to its party leaders to work hard in the region.

Over 100 power consumers turn into power suppliers

SANTOSH NARAYAN ■ RANCHI

Domestic solar farming has brought a new lease of life to the consumers of the State. About 100 domestic and institutional connection holders in the State have become power suppliers following the policy brought forward by the Government and Jharkhand Renewable Energy Development Agency (JREDA).

The breakthrough has come since the policy officially notified by the Government this week only provides opportunity to lakhs of electricity consumers who can not only harness the cleanest form of renewable energy- solar power- but also supply the surplus amount to the grid as well.

"We were working on the policy for long and it is good that now it has been notified. So far there are over hundred power consumers who have come forward showing their interest in installing solar plates for commercial generation. Plants are being installed and some of them have even started feeding energy to the grid and earning," JREDA Director Niranjana Kumar told The Pioneer.

Real game changer in making the policy a good starter was revision of rate on which the power is to be purchased through grid by the Jharkhand Bijli Vitaran Nigam Limited. "Earlier the rate was less than a rupee and there was not taker. Now has been revised with Rs 3.80 per unit. Also, the Government under its renewable energy promotion policy is providing 50 per cent subsidy on the cost coming up on installation of the unit at any household or commercial premise," added the Director.

Inputs suggest that most of the consumers are domestic households while there is fair number of participations also from schools, colleges, hotels etc. JREDA has empanelled array of agencies which can be consulted by any individual for installation of solar based rooftop power plants along with net-metering facility.

"Many agencies are there. Every Kw capacity of solar power plant costs about Rs 54000 and after availing the subsidy it comes to half. Even if you consider per unit price Rs 6 the consumer is going to get full return in four-five years with the help of net-metering facility which calculates the power drawn by the consumer from the grid along with the amount inserted," said a project engineer associated with the initiative. The policy ensures that the consumer gets the surplus money at the rate specified into the policy.

Nevertheless the JREDA admitted that more and more number of individual needs to come in to take advantage of the policy. "People are unaware of the advantages of the solar power generation and benefits attached with it. We are planning to promote it through aggressive advertisement campaign through the media and radio. We are sure that the number would go up very soon," said Niranjana Kumar.

JREDA has empanelled agencies on 'Aha Solar App' where individuals can go and consult the vendors for installation of solar plates for harnessing energy. Earlier the agency had quite successfully rolled out the plan to install solar plants at all prominent Government premises across the State.

Unfolding the Jamshedpur story

City illuminates in glory to pay tribute to its founder Jamsetji Tata

PARVINDER BHATIA ■ JAMSHEDPUR

On the 28th of February 1908, near the confluence of two peaceful rivers, one of which spouted the romantic name of Subarnarekha (River of Gold), a worker dug his spade into the earth unaware of the historical importance of his act. Yet at the moment began the quiet patch of Bihar jungle into the great Steel works and the industrial town of Jamshedpur as we know them today." This poetic description of the birth of Jamshedpur, written by the longest serving chairman of the Tata Group, JRD Tata, describes the birth of India's first modern planned city, Jamshedpur. Once Sakchi, a village in the princely state of Mayurbhanj, it was rechristened Jamshedpur by Lord Chelmsford in 1919 in honour of the Founder of the Tata Group, Jamsetji Nusserwanji Tata, and Tata Steel's contribution to the British war effort in World War I. The Steel City is being decked up to pay tributes to its founder Jamsetji Nusserwanji Tata on his 180th birth anniversary on March 3. It commemorates the vision of Jamsetji Nusserwanji Tata after whom the steel city took its name nearly a century ago. This year also marks 100 years of naming of the city as Jamshedpur.

"The journey of Jamshedpur from a small village to commercial hub is inspiring. The pioneering industrialist, who founded the Tata Group, had written to his son about his dream of a big city in the erstwhile village of Sakchi, which was finally renamed as Jamshedpur in 1919 by a British statesman," said an official of Tata Steel.

The entire Jubilee Park, including the Jayanti Sarovar and Upvan, is being decked up for the week-long festivities. Instead, there will be a complete representation of the founder Jamsetji Nusserwanji Tata's global visions based on the theme "Technovation". It's not Tata Steel alone but, Steel city at large is gearing up to celebrate the Founder's Day, the birth anniversary of J N Tata on 3rd March, the founder of the steel major and the one who laid the foundation of the semi cosmopolitan city of the erstwhile Bihar. Inside works floats would demonstrate how the departments have incorporated their working based on Tata philosophy.

Tata Steel's subsidiary, Jusco which looks after civic amenities in the city area, has already started giving facelift to Jubilee Park, Bhetiya Park (Kadma), Dorabji Tata Park (Northern Town), and Nildih Park (in Nildih near Telco).

Work has begun for illumination at Jubilee Park where light artists from Chandernagore, Bengal, will start transforming the parks into fairy land. Other popular green lungs like Bhetiya Park (Kadma), Dorabji Tata Park (Northern Town) and Nildih Park (near Telco) will also be lit up for the big day. An exhibition by Tata Steel near the Children's Corner of Jubilee Park on March 2 will have the same 100-year theme as well.

Republican Party of India to remain in NDA

Want Modi to become PM again: Athawale

PNS ■ RANCHI

Union Minister of State for Social Justice and Empowerment and Republican Party of India leader, Ramdas Athawale on Friday said the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) has excluded his party from its alliance with the Shiv Sena in Maharashtra and the decision makes him upset but the party will remain in NDA.

Addressing a press meet here on Friday Athawale said that this time again he wants Narendra Modi to become Prime Minister of India because people have faith on him. "If they want to form government in the Centre once again then they should rethink on their decision because RPI have 12 to 15 per cent votes in each parliamentary seat in Maharashtra. It is quite shocking that the Shiv Sena BJP alliance has left us out, leaving us not a single seat. We are upset about it. They must keep in mind that I can't win elections on my own but can surely defeat their candidates. We respect the Sena-BJP alliance but they too must take us into confidence. Not giving us a single seat is an insult and injustice on the RPI," he added.

While threatening the alliance Athawale said, "If we do not get even one seat, votes of Dalits in Maharashtra for BJP-Shiv Sena will be affected." The minister said he will meet Shiv Sena chief Uddhav Thackeray to discuss his concerns. "I had demanded Mumbai South-Central (Lok Sabha) seat, but they refused to give any seat," he said. The seat is currently represented by the Shiv Sena's Rahul Shevale. Athawale's party is part of the ruling National Democratic Alliance (NDA) at the Centre and he is a member of the Rajya Sabha from Maharashtra. He refused to join Congress led United Progressive Alliance and said the Grand alliance was formed with the objective to malign image of Prime Minister, Narendra Modi.

"Rahul Gandhi is always dreaming about Rafale even after CAG and Supreme Court gave clean chit on the issue," he added. Athawale said he visited the State Capital to participate in programme to discuss on environmental issues and at the same time he unveiled a book.

People of remote areas still deprived of basic rights: Soren

Even after 18 years of formation of Jharkhand people residing in remote areas of the State are still not getting good quality of school for education of their children and also they don't have sufficient quality of health facilities, said Jharkhand Mukti Morcha (JMM) Executive president and former Chief Minister, Hemant Soren on Friday.

While addressing a gathering during his 'Sangharsh Yatra' Soren said, people living in remote areas of the State are still not getting pure drinking water and still they don't have sufficient quantity of food grains to eat.

Reminding the days of Jharkhand Movement when the people of the State were demanding Jharkhand State by bifurcating Bihar, Soren said at that time one slogan was very popular at that time 'How we will get Jharkhand; by fighting we will get Jharkhand.' "It is real story that our forefathers have shed their sweat and blood in large quantity to get the State but to provide the basic rights of the people of State is still a distant dream," he added.

Lambasting hard on Chief Minister Raghubar Das for making falls promises Soren said that the BJP has not done a single work in formation of the State. "The government in Centre and the State are only duping local people and looting their land. Whoever raised their voice against the government they were killed by the government. Until 'Abua Dishum Abua Raj' will come our situation will not improve," he added.

Anupriya threatens to divorce cavalier BJP, meets Priyanka

PNS ■ LUCKNOW

Anupriya Dal (Sonelal), a key BJP ally in Uttar Pradesh, has convened a meeting of its leaders on February 28 to take a final call on continuing alliance with the BJP for the coming Lok Sabha polls.

Party founder and Union Minister of State for Health Anupriya Patel, along with her husband and MLC Ashish Patel, met Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra and her colleague Jyotriditya Scindia in New Delhi on Thursday and had a long talk to explore the possibility of a pre-poll tie-up.

The NDA ally had contested and won two seats in the 2014 Lok Sabha elections in UP. It has a support base in the OBC Kurmi community in districts around Allahabad, Mirzapur, Sonbhadra and Varanasi. The Apna Dal also contested the 2017 Assembly polls and won nine seats.

PM receives Seoul Peace Prize

PTI ■ SEOUL

Prime Minister Narendra Modi was conferred the prestigious Seoul Peace Prize for 2018 on Friday for his contribution to international cooperation and fostering global economic growth.

The award was presented to him by the Seoul Peace Prize Foundation at a grand ceremony here. A short film on the life and achievements of Prime Minister Modi was also screened at the event.

Modi expressed his gratitude for the prestigious honour and said, "this award belongs not to me personally, but to the people of India."

"The success that India has achieved in the last five years is due to aspirations, inspiration and efforts of the people of India. On their behalf, I accept the award and express my gratitude," he said.

He said he was honoured that the award is being conferred on him in the year that India celebrates the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi. He dedicated the USD 200,000 prize money to 'Namami Gange Programme', which is flagship programme of his government to accomplish the twin objectives of effective abatement of pollution, conservation and rejuvenation of River Ganga.

Modi is the 14th recipient of the award and the past laureates included former UN Secretary General Kofi Annan, German Chancellor Angela Merkel and renowned international relief organizations like Doctors Without Borders and Oxfam.

The Seoul Peace Prize was established in 1990 to commemorate the success of the 24th Olympic Games held in Seoul. The award was established to crystallise Korean people's yearning for peace on the Korean peninsula and in the rest of the world.

Speaking at the event, Prime Minister Modi expressed concern over the growing menace of terrorism and recalled that a few weeks before the Seoul Olympics in 1988, an organisation called Al-Qaeda was formed.

"Today, radicalisation and terrorism have become global and are the biggest threats to world peace and security," he said. He said that like Korea, India has also suffered the pain of cross-border strife.

"Our endeavour towards peaceful developments has only too often been derailed by cross-border terrorism. While India has been the victim of cross-border terrorism for over 40 years, all nations today face this grave threat which respects no borders," he said in an apparent reference to Pakistan.

"The time has come for all those who believe in humanity to join hands, to completely eradicate terrorist networks, and their financing supply channels and counter-terrorist ideology and propaganda. Only by doing so, can we replace hate with harmony, destruction with development, and transform the landscape of violence and vendetta into a postcard of peace," he added.

Time for global community to unite, act to smash terror networks: Modi

PTI ■ SEOUL

Making a veiled attack on Pakistan's continued support to cross-border terrorism, Prime Minister Narendra Modi Friday said the time has come for the global community to "unite and act" to completely eradicate terror networks and their financing supply channels.

Asserting that India has suffered the pain of cross-border terrorism for over 40 years, Modi said the country's endeavour towards peaceful developments has only too often been derailed by this menace.

Modi, who is in Seoul on a two-day visit to South Korea, expressed his gratitude for the host country's support to India after the attack by a suicide bomber of Pakistan-based terror outfit Jaish-e-Mohammad (JeM) that killed 40 CRPF soldiers in Jammu and Kashmir's Pulwama district on February 14.

Addressing the media after his talks with President Moon

Jae-in, Modi said that the time has come when the world, going beyond talks, should "unite and act" against terrorism. Later, speaking at an event after receiving the prestigious Seoul Peace Prize for 2018,

Modi said that while India has been the victim of cross-border terrorism for over 40 years, all nations today face this grave threat which respects no borders.

SC to hear pleas seeking review of Rafale verdict on February 26

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

The Supreme Court will hear on February 26 the two petitions seeking review of its December 14 verdict that had dismissed pleas challenging the deal between India and France for procurement of 36 Rafale fighter jets.

The review petition has been filed by former Union ministers Yashwant Sinha and Arun Shourie as also activist lawyer Prashant Bhushan.

The hearing of the pleas will be conducted in chambers and not in open court.

The trio said the top court had relied upon "patently incorrect" claims made by the government in an unsigned note given in a sealed cover in the court.

Sinha, Shourie and Bhushan have claimed that the judgement was based on "errors apparent on the face of the record" and non-consideration of subsequent information which has come to light would cause a grave miscarriage of justice.

Besides seeking review of the judgement, they have also sought hearing of the plea in an open court.

The top court will also hear the petition filed by AAP's Rajya Sabha MP Sanjay Singh through advocate Dheeraj Singh seeking review of the December 14 verdict.

On December 14, 2018, the apex court had dismissed various pleas challenging the deal between India and France for procurement of 36 Rafale jets saying there was no occasion to "really doubt the decision making process" warranting setting aside of the contract.

It had rejected the pleas seeking lodging of an FIR and the court-monitored probe alleging irregularities in the Rs 58,000 crore deal, in which both the countries have entered into an inter-governmental agreement (IGA).

A bench headed by Chief Justice Ranjan Gogoi had dealt with "three broad areas of concern" raised in the petitions — the decision-making process, pricing and the choice of Indian offset partners (IOP) — and said there was no reason for intervention by the court on the "sensitive issue" of purchase of 36 jets.

It had said the Indian Air Force (IAF) needs advanced fighter jets as the country cannot afford to be "unprepared" or "under prepared" in a situation where adversaries have acquired fourth and fifth generation fighter aircraft, "of which, we have none".

The apex court had said Thursday that it would consider hearing pleas seeking review of its December 14 verdict. It had considered the submission of Bhushan that his review plea and a separate application, seeking perjury prosecution of some government officials for "misleading" the court be listed urgently.

"We believe there are four petitions in the matter. One by Union of India... Some petitions (having defects) are lying with the registry," the bench said.

"The combination (of the judges) of bench will have to be changed. It is very difficult. We will do something for it," the bench had said.

The December verdict was delivered by the bench comprising the CJI and Justices S K Kaul and K M Joseph.

The two Justices are currently part of different bench combinations.

Vadra appears before ED for 5th time

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

Robert Vadra, brother-in-law of Congress President Rahul Gandhi, Friday appeared before the Enforcement Directorate (ED) for the fifth time in connection with a money-laundering case related to purchase of alleged illegal assets abroad, officials said.

Vadra reached the agency's office at Jammagar House in central Delhi shortly before 11 am, they said.

He has been grilled in this case four times in the past, the last being February 20.

Officials said the agency is confronting Vadra with documents and statements of other accused being investigated in the case and his statement is being recorded section 50 (powers of authorities regarding summons, production of documents and to give evidence) of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA).

During the last session, the businessman had told the investigating officer (IO) of the case that he was not well and hence, the recording of his statement was discontinued, the officials had said.

Vadra's appearance before the ED is related to a criminal complaint related to allegations of money laundering to purchase assets abroad, in an alleged illegal manner.

He has been questioned by the ED sleuths in this case for about 26 hours over four days of deposition earlier this month.

He has been asked by a Delhi court to cooperate in the probe being conducted by the central probe agency.

The ED case against Vadra relates to allegations of money laundering in the purchase of a London-based property, located at 12, Bryanston Square and worth 1.9 million pounds, which is allegedly owned by the businessman in a "benami" way. The agency had told the court that it had received information about various new properties in London that belonged to Vadra. These include two houses — one worth 5 million pounds and the other valued at 4 million pounds -- six flats and other assets.

Vadra has denied the allegation of possessing illegal foreign assets and termed it a political witch-hunt against him. He has said he is being "hounded and harassed" to subvert political ends.

His first appearance before the ED earlier this month acquired political overtones after his wife Priyanka Gandhi Vadra, recently appointed Congress general secretary in-charge of eastern Uttar Pradesh, accompanied him to the investigating agency's office and picked him up after questioning another time.

Vadra had also deposed before the ED twice in Jaipur in connection with another money-laundering case related to an alleged land scam in Bikaner. His mother Maureen too was questioned by the agency once during the same deposition.

'EU stands firm beside India in fighting terrorism'

PTI ■ KOLKATA

The European Union (EU) has affirmed that it is strongly beside India on combating terrorism and there were no differences between them on the issue, it's envoy said here on Friday.

Kozlowski said India and the EU would strengthen cooperation in combating terrorism

Referring to the February 14 terror attack by the Jaish-e-Mohammed at Pulwama that left 40 CRPF jawans dead, EU Ambassador Tomasz Kozlowski said its members had strongly condemned the incident and "and as a partner of India, we reaffirm our solidarity".

He said the EU stood by India in fighting terrorism and against any terror act regardless of the motivation.

Kozlowski told reporters that the Jaish-e-Mohammed had been listed by the EU as a terror outfit along with Lashkar-e-Tayyeba and several others.

"EU has an autonomous terrorist list. We have our own procedures independent of the UN," he said.

The UN Security Council had on Thursday condemned in the "strongest terms" the "heinous and cowardly" terror attack perpetrated by Pakistan-based Jaish-e-Mohammed in Pulwama.

Kozlowski said India and the EU would strengthen cooperation in combating terrorism.

Assam hooch tragedy death toll rises to 25

IANS ■ GUWAHATI

At least 25 persons, including 15 women, have died and over 40 others have taken ill after consuming spurious liquor at a tea garden in Assam's Golaghat district, the police said on Friday.

The incident took place on Thursday night at the Salmora tea estate in Golaghat, 300 km from here.

"The death toll so far is 25, which includes 15 women and 10 men. While 18 people died at the Golaghat Civil Hospital, the rest breathed their last at the Jorhat Medical College and Hospital," said Rathin Bordoloi, Joint Director of Health, Golaghat district.

He said the people were brought to the hospitals with complaints of severe vomiting and chest pain. "We tried our best, but it was too late," he said.

"A total of 55 people have been referred to the Jorhat Medical College and Hospital for treatment. Seven of them have died while 48 others were still undergoing treatment," said the doctors at the Jorhat hospital.

ple consumed liquor in the tea estate on Thursday night after procuring the stock from a particular seller.

Several of them took ill immediately and many were not even taken to the hospital.

They also complained about a nexus between the police and the illegal liquor sellers. Assam Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal condemned the incident and sent a team to the district to take stock of the situation.

State Excise Minister Parimal Shuklabaidya has ordered a probe into the matter. "The State Government has suspended two excise officials after holding them responsible for the tragedy. We have also asked a four-member team, led by Additional Commissioner of Excise Department Sanjib Medhi, to probe the incident," said Shuklabaidya, adding that the probe committee has been asked to submit its report to the government within three days.

"Based on the inquiry report, stern measures will be taken across the state to plug the loopholes," Shuklabaidya said.

Stop cricket with Pak: Giriraj, it would be a mistake to do so: Tejashwi

PTI ■ NAWADA/PATNA

Union Minister Giriraj Singh on Friday said India should not play cricket matches with Pakistan in the aftermath of the Pulwama terror attack which killed 40 CRPF personnel.

He advocated halting all types of exchanges with the neighbouring country, including sports, culture and trade. RJD's Tejashwi Yadav, the leader of opposition in the Bihar assembly, however, said the dastardliness of the attack notwithstanding, scrapping of sporting ties and cultural exchanges would prove to be futile.

"There should be no cricket with Pakistan. We engage in no sports events with the country till it continues to aid and abet terror. Even families do not dine with each other when they have a feud. So let us have no links with Pakistan, sporting, cultural or economic," Singh, a BJP hardliner, said in his Lok Sabha constituency of Nawada.

He also lauded Union minister Nitin Gadkari, who holds the Water Resources portfolio, for deciding to stop the flow of India's share of water to Pakistan from rivers under the Indus Waters Treaty. Demands have arisen for boycotting Pakistan in international sports events, especially the cricket world cup scheduled to begin in May this year.

Sections of Bollywood have also expressed outrage. The All India Cine Workers Association has sought a total ban on Pakistani actors and artistes, and cancellation of their work visas, while actor Ajay Devgn had decided that his latest flick Total Dhamaal will not be released in the neighbouring nation.

When asked about the growing clamour for discontinuance of such exchanges, Tejashwi Yadav said in Patna, "This should not happen. It is not going to achieve anything."

"The Pulwama terror attack deserves condemnation in the strongest possible words and the government must take whatever steps it deems proper on the security front. But sports and culture must not be dragged into these issues," he said.

The younger son of RJD chief Lalu Prasad, who fancied a career in cricket before take a plunge into politics three years ago, said, "Players embody sportsman spirit. And hence sportspersons must be allowed to engage in their activity and bring happiness to the people."

We are Indians, caste and religion does not exist for us: CRPF officer

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

We in CRPF identify ourselves as Indians...Caste and religion does not exist," the world's largest paramilitary force said through its chief spokesman's Twitter handle on Friday.

Peeved at a news report in a magazine that gave the caste break-up of the 44 personnel killed in the Pulwama attack, CRPF's chief spokesman and Deputy Inspector General (DIG) M Dhinakaran tweeted, "We in CRPF identify ourselves as Indians. Not more, not less. This pathetic divisiveness of caste, colour, and religion doesn't exist in our blood."

He also tagged the news report saying it "should strictly refrain from insulting all the martyrs as they are not statistics for your demeaning and meaningless write-up".

The force had earlier issued advisories cautioning people against "fake pictures" being circulated online of body parts of the slain men and bogus messages being shared in the backdrop of harassment of Kashmiri students in various places in the country after the terror attack.

The over 3 lakh personnel force is the country's lead force for internal security duties.

Despite ban, Pak epicentre of terrorism

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

Notwithstanding denial, Pakistan continues to be the epicentre of terrorism with as many as 69 outlawed outfits many of which continue with their activities despite the ban. Half of India's total 41 banned terrorist groups are either based in Pakistan or their leadership are based in the neighbouring country or the organisations are sponsored by Pakistan government-military combine.

Pakistan's National Counter Terrorism Authority (NCTA) has so far declared 69 terrorist organisations as banned, most of which are active despite the proscription. Pakistan has especially turned a blind eye to major terrorist groups such as the Hizb-ul-Mujahideen, the Harkat-ul-Mujahideen and the Al Badr operating in Jammu & Kashmir, sources said.

Rahul attacks Modi over Pulwama attack, dubs him 'prime time minister'

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

In a scathing attack on Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Congress president Rahul Gandhi on Friday said the "prime time minister" continued shooting for a film till even three hours after news of the Pulwama terror strike came in.

There was an ocean of pain in the country's hearts and in the homes of martyrs and he was smiling and doing a photo shoot in the waters, Rahul said on Twitter with #PhotoShootSarkar.

Adding to the controversy surrounding PM Modi's whereabouts after the Pulwama attack, Rahul tweeted four photographs of the Prime Minister in Jim Corbett Park.

Accompanying the photographs, Rahul wrote, "Even three hours after the martyrdom of 40 soldiers in Pulwama,

'prime time minister' was shooting for a film."

"There was a sea of grief in the hearts of Indians and homes of the soldiers, and he was smiling in his photoshoot at a lake," Rahul tweeted in Hindi.

Rahul went on to say, "A river of mourning in the hearts of the nation and the homes of the martyrs and he [PM Modi] was laughing and getting a photo shoot done next to a river."

This was a reference to photos that show the prime minister in a motorboat in the Jim Corbett national park.

Congress' chief spokesperson Randeep Surjewala, addressing a Press conference, also claimed that the Prime Minister continued to "have tea and samosas at seven o'clock in a PWD guest house when every single Indian household didn't eat food (that day)".

PM photo shoot: BJP slams Cong's claim

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

While asserting that "lies" need not to be responded to, the BJP on Friday dismissed Congress president Rahul Gandhi's claim that Prime Minister Narendra Modi attended a photo shoot allegedly hours after the Pulwama attack on February 14 as "fake news" and maintained that photographs displayed by the Opposition party were clicked in the morning ahead of the terror strikes.

"Rahul Ji, India is tired of your fake news. Stop sharing photos from that morning to shamelessly mislead the nation. Maybe you knew in advance of the attack but people of India got to know in the evening. Try a better stunt next time, where sacrifice of soldiers isn't involved," the BJP tweeted.

The BJP hit back after the Congress president called Modi "prime time minister" and said he continued shooting for a film in Uttarakhand even three hours after news of the Pulwama terror strike came in.

He also attacked photographs of Modi attending the photo-shoot and taking a boat ride. BJP spokesperson Sambit Patra dismissed as lies the Congress's claim that Prime Minister was "completely oblivious" to the terror strike or "insensitive" as he "continued" with his prior engagements after the attack, and asserted that such lies need not be responded to.

Patra also attacked West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee and some other opposition leaders, claiming that they have spoken on the same lines as Pakistan has by questioning the timing of the attack. The neighbouring country has tried to link the attack with the upcoming Lok Sabha polls in India, he said, accusing the Trinamool Congress president of making similar comments.

He referred to the UN Security Council's strong condemnation of the terror attack and naming of Pakistan-based terror outfit Jaish-e-Mohammad by the global body to underscore the Modi Government's efforts to isolate Pakistan.

"On the one hand all countries are standing with India... Humanity is standing with us, some political parties for their petty politics are not standing with the country," Patra said, attacking the Congress.

Condemning media reports that had done a caste-wise analysis of the 40 CRPF personnel who were killed in the attack, Patra alleged that the Congress was behind it. "What kind of articles the Congress is getting printed," he asked, saying that Pakistan sees "casteism" and "Hindu-Muslim" issues as "faultlines" to weaken India.

Centre decides to keep in abeyance powers of arrest given to Assam Rifles

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

The Centre decided on Friday to keep in abeyance the special powers given to the Assam Rifles to arrest anyone and search a place without warrant in northeastern states of Assam, Arunachal Pradesh, Manipur, Nagaland and Mizoram, officials said. The Home Ministry will now revisit the issue with the concerned state governments, which apparently opposed the move to give sweeping powers to the paramilitary force.

It has been decided that the enabling notifications issued on February 19, giving powers to Assam Rifles to be kept in abeyance and the entire matter be revisited in consultation with the state governments concerned, a Home Ministry official said.

While giving the powers to the Assam Rifles, a Home Ministry notification had said, "An officer of the rank corresponding to that of the lowest rank of members of the Assam Rifles" has been given these powers under the Code of Criminal Procedure. Assam Rifles personnel will exercise these powers and discharge their duties "under sub-section (1) of section 41, sections 47, 48, 49, 51, 53, 54, 149, 150, 151 and 152 of the CrPC within the local limits of the area comprised within the border districts of Assam, Arunachal Pradesh, Manipur, Nagaland and Mizoram", the notification had said.

Officials said on Friday that powers under CrPC were available to the Assam Rifles under the Assam Rifles Act, 1941. However, after coming into operation of the new Assam Rifles Act 2006, the issue of re-conferring these powers has remained under consideration since then.

Recently, the issue has acquired urgency for effective enforcement of Free Movement Regime on the Indo-Myanmar border (on the 16 km belt on either side).

Twitter Head of Public Policy to appear before Parl panel

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

Twitter Chief Executive Officer Jack Dorsey will not appear before the Parliamentary panel on IT on February 25, and instead the company is sending its Head of Public Policy Colin Crowell. The Parliamentary panel on Information Technology had summoned Twitter head Jack Dorsey to appear before it on February 25, and had refused to meet "junior officials" of the microblogging site during its meeting on February 11.

The meeting had been called against the backdrop of growing concerns about safeguarding citizens' data privacy and the possibility of social media platforms being used to interfere in the upcoming elections. After this meeting, the panel is expected to summon top executives of Facebook and WhatsApp on March 5 to discuss similar issues.

Sources in the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology (MeitY), however, said efforts were still on to have Dorsey attend the meeting. On February 11, the committee had refused to meet junior officials from Twitter's India office who were present at the meeting venue. During the meeting with Twitter, the panel wants to examine issues such as data privacy. It is also seeking to better understand the company's business structure, including whether it is a technology company or a media house.

The panel passed an unanimous resolution that the micro-blogging website's CEO should make himself available to show the company's seriousness in safeguarding rights of Indian citizens online, they added.

As per the resolution, the panel would hear only the Twitter CEO or senior member of its global team "who has decision making authority regarding Twitter's operations in India," one of the sources had said, according to news agency Press Trust of India.

Even as it faces heat over allegations of political bias in the country, Twitter has maintained that it is committed to remain unbiased and that its product as well as policies is never based on political ideology.

The Government has been taking a strong view of misuse of social media platforms and is also proposing to amend IT rules to curb fake news and increase accountability of such apps.

Over the last few weeks, Facebook, Twitter and Google have promised to infuse more transparency into political advertisements on their platform, and announced a slew of measures as part of their election integrity efforts. On Thursday, Twitter said it has formed an internal, cross-functional group to lead "electoral integrity work" in India that will proactively support partner escalations, and identify potential threats from malicious actors.

Now file complaint with DoT against offensive messages received on WhatsApp

New Delhi: People can now file a complaint with the Department of Telecom (DoT) against offensive messages received on WhatsApp. The victim just needs to furnish a screenshot of the message along with the mobile number and e-mail to ccaddn-dot@nic.in.

"If anyone is receiving abusive/offensive/death threats/vulgar whatsapp messages, please send screen shots of the message along with the mobile numbers at ccaddn-dot@nic.in. We will take it up with the telecom operators and police heads for necessary action," DoT Controller Communications Ashish Joshi tweeted.

The move comes following many public figures, including journalists, complaining of receiving abusive and threatening messages.

Didi blames BJP again for 'allowing' Pulwama

SAUGAR SENGUPTA ■ HOOGHLY

Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee once again blamed the Narendra Modi Government for allowing the Pulwama attack to take place and attacked the BJP for trying to divide the electorate by spreading hatred.

The Chief Minister who was speaking at a mass gathering at Tarakeswar in Hooghly district on Friday accused the Centre of neglecting the security issue that allowed the terrorists to launch one of the most dreaded attacks on the Indian security forces in the history of free India.

Wondering as to "what the Government was doing before the attack" and "why they did not take adequate measures" despite having prior reports Banerjee said "they were all doing politics and nothing else over the issue."

Accusing the BJP and the RSS of fomenting communal tension in Bengal by spreading rumors Banerjee said, "I will do everything for the people but I will never allow riots to take place in our State," adding, how a band of half-literate people were feigning as champions of Hindu religion in the garb of saffron clothes.

"They have no sense of the Hindu ethos, no knowledge of the true Hindu scriptures. They only know how to fan riots by spreading rumors. But I will not allow them to do so in Bengal," she said complaining how the agents of the RSS and BJP were spreading rumor of child-lifters in parts of the State.

"As the Chief Minister I have specific information that they have let loose burqa-clad people in the market to pass off as child-lifters. Then they are spreading rumors about these child-lifters so as to incite people and create a communal disharmony," Banerjee said referring to the recent spate of mass thrashing of alleged child-lifters in parts of Bengal.

Attacking the BJP Government for creating a mass hysteria to turn the public attention from its failed promises

Banerjee asked, "What happened to the promise that you (Modi) made to the people of bringing back black money from abroad and depositing Rs 15 lakh in each account."

The Hindu ethos was against violence she said asking people to remain alert against hate-rumors. "Even I am a Hindu. Even we have seen pujas in our houses since we were children but our parents never taught to hate other religions," she said asking "who are these people to dictate food habits among others."

Even the "monks of Ramakrishna Mission and Bharat Sevashram Sangha wear saffron attire but they never attack others' religions because they like true Hindus believe in the unity of religions," she said. In the eight years of TMC rule "not a single temple, mosque or church was touched in Bengal," she said reminding how her government helped in renovating temples in the State, unlike the BJP which was pre-occupied with religious divide.

Accusing the Centre of playing political game with partially State-funded health schemes like Ayushman Bharat Banerjee said, "We don't need Centre's dole... Ayushman Bharat letters which come with pictures (of political parties) will not run in Bengal," reminding half of the central health scheme was funded by the State Government.

Women on top in Mamata's health scheme

SAUGAR SENGUPTA ■ KOLKATA

In a revolutionary first step that could go a distance in restoring women's pride in the Indian family system, Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee on Friday unfolded a family health scheme that would primarily revolve around the main woman of the family.

In what she called a card issued in the name of the "woman head of the family" the newly devised smart health card would take care of health expenses of up to Rs 5 lakh in a given family. The card issued to the woman would take care not only of her marital family but also of her biological parents, she said.

"This is a great step forward towards women's empowerment," Banerjee said, adding the person who would be issued the card would be considered as the head of the family and "it would not only take care of her marital family but also of her parents as often such parents become helpless in their old age."

Listing how her Government's achievements have been acknowledged internationally Banerjee said the Utkarsh Bangla scheme like the earlier Kanyashree plan had won UN awards. On social welfare she said how "about 8 crore people of the State get Rs 2 per kg rice" and her Government had waived the taxes on farm land.

Post-Pulwama attack: Kashmiri scribe beaten up in Pune, 3 held

TN RAGHUNATHA ■ MUMBAI

In a second unsavoury incident of backlash after last week's Pulwama terror attack, a journalist from Kashmir was beaten up by some unknown persons in Pune, even as three Yuv Sena office bearers were arrested by the local police at Yavatmal in eastern Maharashtra on Friday in connection with Wednesday's assault on five Kashmiri students.

Zibran Nazeer, a copy editor working with a national English newspaper published from Pune, was roughed up by some unidentified persons. The Pune police have not yet identified the culprits behind the incident.

The Yavatmal police, meanwhile, arrested three Yuv Sena office bearers, including the one Ajinkya Motke, for allegedly beating up four Kashmiri students in Waghapur Road area of the eastern Maharashtra town.

On its part, the Shiv Sena has expelled from the party the Yuva Sena's office-bearers involved in the assault incident. In tweets put out on Friday, Yuva Sena president Aditya Thackeray said, "There was an unfortunate incident yest in Yavatmal, with some students of Jammu & Kashmir. The @ShivSena had issued a press note yesterday itself which hasn't been printed today, may be to further sensationalise the issue or defame us, while ignoring our disciplinary action"

"As of last evening, the Party has sacked those involved in the act. J&K is a part of India and no Indian, or for that matter, nobody should face the brunt of anger that is towards terrorism. We understand the angst but it must be against terror, not innocent people," Aditya added.

In all five Kashmiri students — identified as Umar Nazeer Ganai, Umar Rashid Dar, Tajimullah Ali, Owais Mushtaq and Amir Mulad — humiliated, beaten up and forced by Yuv Sena activists to raise slogans like "Vande Mataram", "Hindustan zindabad" and "Bharatmata ki Jai" at Yavatmal on Wednesday night.

The victim students were from Dayabhai Patel College of Physical Education. The Yuv Sena activists accosted them near their rented homes in Waghapur Road area of the town and physically harassed them as a mark of "protest" against the Pulwama terror strike in which 44 CRPF jawans were killed. Two of the jawans from the neighbouring Buldhana district were among those killed in the Pulwama attack.

A clip of video footage shot by the Yuv Sena activists themselves went viral on social media on Thursday. The footage showed a local Yuv Sena leader beating the Kashmiri students and asking them questions like to from where they were, as to why they had come to Yavatmal and whether they were linked with terrorists. "What is your name? Why have you come here? You should not come here... What connection do you have with the terrorists there?... You relatives are killing our jawans there. Why have you come here? How many students are here like you in Yavatmal?"

The replies from a student like "I have to come to study here... I am the son of a doctor. I have not been to Kashmir for the last one and a half years... There are 15 to 20 Kashmiri students in Yavatmal (the Yuv Sena leader tells the student: Tell them not to be here)," would not satisfy the Yuv Sena leader who continued to beat him and other students up.

All roads in Chennai lead to Vijayakanth

KUMAR CHELLAPPAN ■ CHENNAI

DMK president MK Stalin meets DMDK chief Vijayakanth at his residence in Chennai on Friday

Vijayakanth, convalescing at his house in Chennai suburb has become the most sought after person in Tamil Nadu politics. MK Stalin, president of the DMK and Tamil film's all time great Rajinikanth called on the ailing actor at his residence on Friday as political alliance formation in the State for the Lok Sabha election reached a feverish pitch.

Vijayakanth, founder of the DMDK has not opened his mind to the media. But news trickling out of his Virugambakkam residence through emissaries of the AIADMK, the DMK and the BJP who met him to court him to their fronts said that the actor is adamant that he should get at least seven seats and a Rajya Sabha seat from the AIADMK. This is what the AIADMK allocated to the PMK on Tuesday to ensure the Vanniyaar dominated party stays with the front led by the ruling dispensation in Tamil Nadu.

Stalin who called on

Vijayakanth told reporters that there was no politics in his visit to the actor's residence. "We are good friends for the last 35 years and imy visit was to enquire about the health of Vijayakanth," said Stalin after the meet.

As usual grapevines in Chennai worked overtime and came out with stories claiming that Rajinikanth's visit was as an emissary of the BJP and he had requested Vijayakanth to join the AIADMK-led front.

"There is not a drop of politics in my visit to Vijayakanth's house," said Rajinikanth. Sources close to the DMDK first family (which include Premalatha Vijayakanth and her brother T S Sudhhas) said that the actor has demanded seven Lok Sabha seats and would not settle for anything less. "He may come round and join the front which pays him the pound of flesh he demands. This could be Lok Sabha seats or in kind" said the source.

Priyanka rejects proposal to replace Babbar

PNS ■ LUCKNOW

Congress general secretary in charge of UP east, Priyanka Gandhi Vadra, has rejected a proposal to replace UPCC chief Raj Babbar, saying he will continue till the Lok Sabha polls are over.

Sources in the party said that Priyanka also shot down a proposal for appointing another party chief to oversee east UP.

At a meeting convened to discuss Lok Sabha elections at Congress War Room at 15, Gurudwara Rakabganj Road in New Delhi on Thursday, Priyanka along with Congress general secretary in charge of UP west, Jyotiraditya Scindia, and UP Congress chief Raj Babbar sat down to thrash out strategies for the upcoming polls.

After hectic deliberations, the meeting ended around Thursday midnight.

The discussion also veered around a possible replacement of Babbar, but it was set aside as little time was left for the general elections.

The idea of having two state chiefs for Uttar Pradesh was also brushed aside.

The sources said that Congress workers, during their discussions with Priyanka, had appreciated Babbar's role as an influential campaigner but were critical of his ability to manage the organisation.

UP ATS arrests 2 suspected JeM ultras in Deoband

PNS ■ LUCKNOW

Two suspects with alleged links with terror outfit Jaish-e-Mohammad were arrested from Deoband, in Saharanpur in a swoop by an Anti-Terrorist Squad led by IG Aseem Arun in the intervening night of Thursday-Friday. Posing as students without taking admission anywhere, the duo were staying in Deoband and were engaged in recruiting new faces for their organisation.

Chats linked to jihad, videos, pictures linked with JeM and two 30 calibre pistols and 30 cartridges were also recovered from their possession.

DGP OP Singh told the media in Lucknow on Friday that the UP ATS had arrested Shahnawaz Ahmad Teli of Kulgam district and Aquib Ahmad Malik from Pulwama district of Jammu and Kashmir and they were aged between 20 and 25 years.

Singh said the Jammu and Kashmir Police was being contacted to get more inputs about the arrested duo. He also said that information about their period of stay in Deoband was also being collected.

"The ATS got a tip-off about the two from an alert student after which a probe was initiated. IG (ATS) Aseem Arun reached Saharanpur to verify the credentials of the youths, who posed as students. After days of surveillance, both were arrested.

Asked whether the two were involved in the recent Pulwama terror attack, the DGP said, "It is difficult to tell whether they came here before the terror attack or after that. A probe is on to ascertain that."

"Both are being grilled about their arrival in the state from Kashmir, how many other members are involved, was anyone recruited by them for JeM, where did the funding come from, what was its quantum and what was their target after recruitment," the DGP said.

Modi, Shah to criss-cross UP in next few days

PM Modi will be visiting the State twice. On February 24, he will be visiting Gorakhpur to launch the PM Kisan Samman Nidhi Yojana on the concluding day of BJP's Kisan Morcha convention and later he will visit Kumbh Mela in Prayagraj

PNS ■ LUCKNOW

Realising that Uttar Pradesh is crucial for the party, senior leaders of Bharatiya Janata Party, including Prime Minister Narendra Modi and party president Amit Shah, will criss-cross the state in the next few days, holding rallies and launching the ambitious PM Kisan Samman Nidhi Scheme.

PM Modi will be visiting the State twice. On February 24, he will be visiting Gorakhpur to launch the PM Kisan Samman Nidhi Yojana on the concluding day of BJP's Kisan Morcha convention and later he will visit Kumbh Mela in Prayagraj.

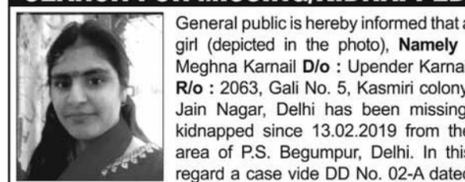

Four days later, on February 28, the Prime Minister will interact with youths of Uttar Pradesh through video conferencing from New Delhi and on March 3, Modi will address a public meeting in Amethi, the parliamentary constituency of Congress president Rahul Gandhi.

On the other hand, Amit Shah will be visiting UP twice this month — on Saturday and on February 26. On Saturday morning, Shah will attend a function of Co-operative Bank in Lucknow and later visit Gorakhpur the same evening. On February 26, Shah is scheduled to visit Ghazipur.

In Gorakhpur, Shah will inaugurate the national convention of Kisan Morcha while in Ghazipur, the BJP president will attend Kamal Jyoti programme.

Meanwhile, Union Home Minister Rajnath Singh will also be visiting his parliamentary constituency Lucknow for two days from Sunday. He will inaugurate many development projects and address a BJP workers' meet of Awadh region. He will leave for New Delhi on Monday evening.

PAPER WITH PASSION

Starve terror funding

While the UNSC has named JeM in its resolution, it should follow up by curtailing funds to Pakistan-based terror outfits

UN Security Council

Given that China has always obliged its puppet state of Pakistan in the past and blocked any anti-terror resolution against groups that use the territory of India's western neighbour to launch a constant stream of small attacks on our country, it was telling that even it was forced into approving the United Nations Security Council (UNSC) resolution. With trade talks with the United States stalled and China's economy feeling the heat due to the Trump Administration's talks on that front, China finally gave up its blatant hypocrisy and approved this resolution. One must not forget that despite China's covert support for Islamist terrorists in Pakistan, that country has been brutalising its Islamic minority in its north-west region. The Uighurs in particular have been incarcerated in mass camps, which according to scant reports from that region, are akin to Nazi Germany's concentration camps. Unfortunately, JeM chief, Masood Azhar, while able to indoctrinate youths into killing themselves, does not quite comprehend the concept of irony of being protected by a country whose policy towards his Muslim brethren, whom he claims to be fighting for, is so frighteningly barbaric.

But even if China condemns the attack on Indian paramilitary forces, albeit indirectly through a UNSC resolution, it will not change Pakistan's behaviour. As long as funds continue to flow into Pakistan from Saudi Arabia, China and even Western powers, which are desperate for peace in Afghanistan, can do little. The Pakistani meddling has left its western neighbour poverty-stricken and under-developed yet flush with weapons. The US and the European Union through their central banks must do more to block the routes of terror fundings. The United States Treasury Department, for example, claims jurisdiction whenever the US dollar is used in bribes or terror and following the 9/11 attacks has done a lot to clean out the global banking system of terror funding and money laundering. Yet, much more needs to be done to clean up the system. In India as well, despite digitisation and the impact of demonetisation, money-laundering continues to grease the wheels of the terrorist machine in Kashmir. It is likely that the authorities are aware of how the system works, often through seemingly legitimate businesses. They have to crack down on these.

While cutting the money machine will not completely stop terrorism in the Valley, it can dramatically aid the situation because indoctrination only goes so far. Without money, terror activities also dry up. This is similar to the methods used by the Israelis in combating terror. While the Government has acted against wanton sources of foreign money coming into India, which earlier had little or no accountability, it has dawdled in cracking down on those who fund Kashmiri separatists. And this has to stop now.

Erring Governor

The BJP has failed in fulfilling its Constitutional duties by not acting against Tathagata Roy's anti-Kashmiri remarks

It has almost become routine now for the nation to expect directives from the Supreme Court on what should have been an easy enough executive function of the State, to protect the rights of its citizens, majority or minority. So though the Home Ministry issued a directive to secure Kashmiris following the hitbacks of rage and hate post-Pulwama, the failure of implementing it was evident from a series of attacks and slurs on Kashmiri students and traders across the country. One that led to a PIL and the top court telling the government how it is done. It directed chief secretaries and DGPs of 11 States, where the hate-mongering was severe, to take "prompt" action to prevent incidents of threat, assault and social boycott of Kashmiris and specifically assigned police officers, who were earlier appointed as nodal officers to deal with incidents of mob lynching, to look after affected Kashmiris.

The question is whether the current NDA government could not have done this on its own? The question also is if the government, seeking a second term in general elections just weeks away, doesn't want to be seen as sabka saath? Or does it want to pander to the majoritarian discourse and play up the hyper-nationalist narrative following the biggest terrorist attack in the Valley? Everybody is angry about this gross brutality but to ostracise an entire community of people just because it had been blighted by some indoctrinated militants is to simplify the problem to suit a certain narrative than deal with the complexities of it. Clearly, the government of the day has not helped douse inflamed passions or emotions by playing down the extent of hate crimes, even by way of an appeal by one of the Ministers. What is inexcusable is its staunch refusal to upbraid the Meghalaya Governor Tathagata Roy, who has been fanning hatred by calling for a boycott of Kashmiri goods and people on his social media handle, implicitly turning Indians versus Indians though he believes Kashmiris are not worth being called that. Neither has the top leadership of the BJP asked him to issue an apology or delete his tweet, except distancing itself from his remarks. Strangely, there is no talk of recalling the Governor for acting contrary to his Constitutional duties. And while President Ram Nath Kovind is bound to act on the advice of his Council of Ministers, fact is there is no statement or action by his office to condemn the fissiparous comments. For a chair that was once held by luminaries, at least there could have been a moral censure, displeasure or conscience call. That he is allowed to make in keeping with the spirit of the Constitution. By allowing the Meghalaya Governor to go scot free despite his abusive statements, he too would be seen as failing in executing his constitutional duties. Roy's comments clearly fall within the ambit of the legal principle of "compelling reasons" to initiate action against him for going against the spirit embedded in our Preamble and clearly violating the principles of liberty, equality, fraternity and justice. Can we afford to alienate Kashmiris further when counter-insurgency should be matched by a counter-social engagement? Evacuating them from other Indian states, where they have gone to better their lives away from militancy through education and jobs, is like pouring cold water on mainstreaming efforts. By failing to act against Roy, the government seems to be giving a tacit approval to sick polarisation attempts simply because they can cause an emotional wave during the elections. The BJP may want to keep him as a party member but he sure should not be Governor anymore.

Historically, Saudi Arabia's closest Muslim ally, Pakistan has been the trusted go-to nation for managing all internal and external threats to the vulnerable House of Saud. The role of the Pakistan Army's Special Services Group (SSG) in overcoming the seizure of the Grand Mosque at Mecca in 1979 typified both the sort of domestic challenges that beset the rule of the Saud family as indeed the faith reposed on Pakistani soldiers. In the 1970s and 1980s, up to 20,000 Pakistani soldiers were said to be deployed within Saudi Arabia to protect its sensitive spots. With the sixth largest military in the world, reasonable combat-exposure and even nuclear capabilities on Pakistan's side, the Saudi-Pakistan relationship became more symbiotic, logical and mutually-gratifying. Custodianship of the two holiest mosques and as the ready "investor" in all domestic urgencies of Pakistan led a former Pakistani Ambassador to Saudi Arabia

Tough terms of friendship

Given Saudi Arabia's own priorities and strategic roadmap imperatives, Pakistan will remain a preferred ally as long as it does not harm Saudi interests directly

BHOPINDER SINGH

Saudi Crown Prince Mohammad-bin Salman (MbS) is touring the three most important capitals beyond Washington, DC, in his post-Khashoggi phase. The Western capitals were ultimately not amused by MbS' ingrained feudal instincts in carrying out the rash internal purge, l'affaire Khashoggi and other unwarranted military interventions, after the initial hoopla surrounding the ostensible modernisation drive by the "real power behind the throne." His initially feted socio-economic promises of "Vision 2030" and steps to liberalise and reform the society were soon undone by reports of increased human rights violations and clumsy interventions in Syria, Yemen and Qatar as also a purported kidnapping of the Lebanese Prime Minister! However, the crude and brutal assassination of Saudi dissenter Jamal Khashoggi, attributed directly to the recklessness of the young Prince himself, was the last straw for the Western nations in condemning MbS openly. His style of management by intimidation, coercion and "buying out" became obvious as indeed his deep-rooted insecurities and ambition that saw him systematically "neutralise" all opposition.

Recent international opprobrium has led to heightened insecurities and the Saudis have, therefore, made a deliberate outreach towards the alternative global platform of the East as they hope to enhance their economic and geo-political stability with two of their top three export markets, namely China, the biggest, and India, the third biggest revenue generator. However, his pit-stop at Islamabad was, perhaps, the most significant for it addressed the perennial and foremost fear in the minds of the Saudi Royal family — regime change.

Historically, Saudi Arabia's closest Muslim ally, Pakistan has been the trusted go-to nation for managing all internal and external threats to the vulnerable House of Saud. The role of the Pakistan Army's Special Services Group (SSG) in overcoming the seizure of the Grand Mosque at Mecca in 1979 typified both the sort of domestic challenges that beset the rule of the Saud family as indeed the faith reposed on Pakistani soldiers.

In the 1970s and 1980s, up to 20,000 Pakistani soldiers were said to be deployed within Saudi Arabia to protect its sensitive spots. With the sixth largest military in the world, reasonable combat-exposure and even nuclear capabilities on Pakistan's side, the Saudi-Pakistan relationship became more symbiotic, logical and mutually-gratifying.

Custodianship of the two holiest mosques and as the ready "investor" in all domestic urgencies of Pakistan led a former Pakistani Ambassador to Saudi Arabia to famously state that the security of Saudi Arabia was a "personal matter." It is often claimed that the Saudis had even secretly funded the Pakistani nuclear programme as it allowed them the plausible option of deniability as also ensured the requisite protection via Pakistan in the face of growing threats from its sectarian-nemeses, Iran and also states like Saddam's Iraq and Israel.

The Saudi funding of the Pakistan-controlled Afghan mujahideen in the 1980s and 1990s is a matter of recorded fact. Today, a leaner Pakistani contingent in the form of "advisors," trainers and even combat soldiers, ensures the continuity of this crucial comfort-factor for both nations. Deteriorating relationship with the US and parallel growing proximity of both nations with the alternate power centre of China is yet another matter of strategic option and convergence.

The influence that the Saudis can wield on the Pakistani state and also its powerful military was in full display when the Saudi brokered release and exit for the deposed Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif in the 1999 military coup by the then Pakistani General, Pervez Musharraf.

Later, the Saudis were able to rope in the just-retired Pakistani Chief of Army, General Raheel Sharif, to head the controversial 41-nation Islamic Military Counter Terrorism Alliance (IMCTA), based out of Riyadh — without General Raheel Sharif completing the mandatory two-year "cool-off" period required before accepting any international assignment.

There was a minor bump in the relationship with Pakistan shying away from committing its military forces in Saudi Arabia's misguided war in Yemen, owing to sectarian implications within the tinderbox of Pakistan itself. Soon, security desperation for the Saudis and the dire economic desperation for Pakistanis ensured that the two nations perpetuate and strengthen the umbilical cord of quid pro quo.

Expectedly, Pakistan pulled out all stops to roll out the red carpet for MbS and he did not disappoint his hosts with a slew of $20 billion investments for cash-strapped Pakistanis. More pertinently, the loaded statement, suggesting the dissuasion of "politicising the UN listing regime," when India was in the midst of making international efforts to name and shame Jaish-e-Mohammad's Masood Azhar, did not go unnoticed in New Delhi. Maturity, gravitas and nuanced diplomacy is not a known MbS strength, and particularly at this moment of vulnerability for himself, he would be driven by the urge to buy out Pakistani guarantees for securing the Kingdom's worst nightmare — regime change.

No other country of the 41 nation IMCTA grouping has either the quantity or quality of readily-deployable military or is as deeply indebted to Saudi Arabia for its own economic survival (2.5 million Pakistani work in Saudi Arabia) as the Pakistanis — affording a win-win solution for both by deepening ties. Imran Khan's charm offensives elicited a candid and spontaneous, "Consider me Pakistan's Ambassador to Saudi Arabia," from MbS.

Therefore, given Saudi Arabia's own priorities and strategic roadmap imperatives, Pakistan will remain a preferred ally that will always benefit from a deliberate overlook for any of its misdemeanours as long as they do not harm Saudi Arabian interests directly.

India shares common ground with Saudi Arabia on religious extremism (finally) and on organisations like the Islamic State (IS) or Al Qaeda — though a similar aversion and clamp-down on the subcontinental extremist bodies like the Jaish-e-Mohammad or even the Pakistan-sponsored Taliban, may not be as forthcoming.

On the contrary, equity with the likes of the Afghan Taliban may actually give Saudi Arabia counter-leverage against the US in its battle of wits. Diminishing the Pakistani establishment, especially its military, would be perceived to be extremely counter-productive to Saudi interests, as it risks portents of regime-change in Saudi Arabia — a nightmare that Pakistan willy-nilly guarantees against.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Human emotions

Sir — Jealousy is a special form of emotional anxiety that occurs due to the lack of a sense of security in relation to the one who is loved. It is an emotion that has the components of both anger and fear and is most common among children. There is a subtle difference between 'envy' and 'jealousy'. In the case of the former, the need for a loved one is not essential. It is a desire for things that belong to the competitor. Jealousy arises apprehending loss of affection. Apprehension of losing it leads to an attitude of resentment. A child feels insecure and never wishes to lose that person's affection.

Be accommodative

Sir — This refers to the editorial, "No gods in Tamil Nadu" (February 22). Though it was alleged that the Pattali Makkal Katchi (PMK) was in discussions with the Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam (DMK) to contest the forthcoming Lok Sabha elections together, it is a blessing in disguise

Imran Khan: A puppet of Pakistan Army

This refers to the editorial, "A modern-day Faust" (February 21). Pakistan Prime Minister Imran Khan has demanded that India must furnish proof about his country's involvement in the Pulwama terror attack. But already, enough material has been provided to Islamabad in relation to the Mumbai terror attack and other such incidents thereafter that prove beyond doubt the involvement of terror outfits on its soil. Most times, Islamabad has outrightly rejected evidence and if at all someone was booked, the Government deliberately built a weak case which could not stand in the court.

The world knows that Jaish-e-Mohammad (JeM) has openly claimed responsibility for the Pulwama terror attack which claimed the lives of over 40 jawans. What more proof does Khan want? JeM is a Pakistan-based terror organisation headed by Masood Azhar, which has its headquarters at Bahawalpur. In the past, too, JeM has targeted many Army posts and strategic locations in India, including the Pathankot airbase. Pakistan Army's sponsorship of anti-India terror groups, too, is well-known. Khan's anti-India attitude and sympathy for the terrorist groups is also not hidden. The Inter-Services Intelligence and the Pakistani Army wanted Khan to become the Prime Minister. Being sure of him becoming a puppet in their hands, they manipulated things for Khan. He is a puppet and a caged parrot of the Army and speaks what he is being tutored.

Friends with the devil

Sir — This refers to the editorial, "A modern-day Faust" (February 22). We all know how Imran Khan became the Prime Minister of Pakistan. Without visible help from its Army, it would not have been an easy ride for him. Khan's demand for proof from India for Pakistan's involvement in the Pulwama terror attack despite Jaish-e-Mohammad (JeM) claiming responsibility for the same is nothing but a joke. India has provided sufficient proof in the past but nothing moved even then.

So Khan's credibility is doubtful. Yes, we should not expect anything positive from him for he has decided to sleep with the devil like the JeM. Khan is walking on thin ice and will pay a huge price for siding with the JeM and other terrorists outfits.

Bal Govind

Predictable line

Sir — This refers to the editorial, "A modern-day Faust" (February 22). Breaking his silence after the Pulwama attack, Pakistan Prime Minister's statements were only shocking. It's ironic that Pakistan needs more proof. It is amusing that the Pakistan Government, which is unable to control terror activities on its soil, is now talking about retaliation.

FIRST COLUMN

War beyond borders

India is not the only country facing terrorism. It has to, therefore, ensure a global alliance to break the backbone of terror and its illicit funding

SHIVAJI SARKAR

The Pulwama terror attack that claimed the lives of 40 Indian soldiers has caused remorse and frenzy across the country to take revenge. There has been a cry to teach Pakistan a lesson. Many have even advocated for a war. Indians are hurt but howsoever one may wish, the solution is not easy. India has military preparedness but war will be expensive, and this not just in monetary terms. The sub-continent is passing through severe uncertainty as its neighbours — Afghanistan and China — change tack every now and then. This, combined with the changing situation in Afghanistan, where the US is in a hurry to withdraw its troops, and the Taliban's muscle-flexing, have made matters worse. Russia and Iran are not shy of striking a deal with the Taliban. All of this apart, big money plays a crucial role. It is not just the nation states that are pouring funds. In fact, they, including the US, are having trouble arranging for it. India is just next to a troubled Western Asia sired by the Islamic State (IS).

The IS war is being fought not for a "holy cause of jihad." Terror is a complex mix of arms-drug peddlers, cyber frauds, human traffickers and other hegemonists. School girls from Europe to West Asia are used in the sex trade. This generates illicit funds. Will the Taliban take control of Afghanistan, where India has invested huge sums of money, as also in diplomacy, with the US' withdrawal? It may be seen as yet another American failure after its loss in Vietnam, Somalia, Iraq and Syria. Since 2001, after spending billions, the US controls not even half of Afghanistan. Afghan soldiers and civilian casualties are heavy. Saudi Arabia, Qatar and the UAE are working out the face-saver for the US' withdrawal. They are also pressurising Pakistan to help as also providing financial aid to boost its forex reserves that are as low as $ 6 billion. Saudi Arabia has given $32 billion aid to Islamabad.

Conflict is rising in northern borders of Pakistan. Even Iran lost 28 soldiers in a blast on its borders with Pakistan on February 12. Frenzy is ripe there too. The country vowed retribution. The sub-continent is on a tinder box but war is too complex an affair. Astute diplomacy is needed to save India's economic assistance and friends in Afghanistan and Iran. The Taliban's resurgence is a problem for Islamabad. It fears losing its might to it. Moreover, tribal regions on Pakistan's borders are on ferment with sub-nationalism. Slight change in equilibrium would cause major problems for India and other states. The Pakistani Government is not in full control. The diplomatic question is: Who do you fight? Pakistan? Or in case of a war, Taliban, Jaish-e-Mohammad and other riff-raff elements? The situation today is more complex than in 1971, when Bangladesh was created despite radicalisation even at that time. There are many non-state actors.

Today, it's not an issue of an Islamic bomb on India. It is managing within the country and outside in multi-dimensions and directions. An aggressive diplomacy, lobbying, negotiations and operations need huge investment as also manpower. Conflict with Pakistan cost three per cent of India's GDP, according to Indian think-tank, Strategic Foresight Group, in 2004. India lost 3,843 soldiers in 1971 and captured 93,000 soldiers. Almost a million people in India were refugees. It had bled the economy then. The post-1971 war costs were higher. It had caused over 13 per cent inflation and severe unrest. The imposition of internal emergency was another fall-out. The proxy war since 1990 has claimed more casualties and economic cost — be it in Kashmir, the Kargil conflict of 1999, the Parliament attack in 2001, the 2008 Mumbai attack or the subsequent several other blasts and raids. Military and civilian casualties are more than it was in full-fledged wars in 1965 and 1971.

It is estimated that since December 2001, every year, almost $600 million is spent to protect the western border. Pakistan's spending is estimated to be a little less but it is higher in percentage terms for its GDP and geographical area. The Federation of Indian Chambers for Commerce and Industry estimated a huge business cost to the ongoing Indo-Pak conflict and trade volume is small. In other words, denying MFN status to Pakistan would have little economic impact.

So what does Pakistan gain? A conflict with India has seen huge economic gains in assistance from West Asia, the US and the West. The US, despite the World Trade Tower attack, considered Pakistan a strategic ally and gave Musharraf enormous aid. Even the current President Donald Trump is doing it today. India-baiting is survival technique for the artificial state. For us, apart from financial and political cost, there is human misery. Certain powers want the rogue state to survive as they have business, territorial and other interests. India has to chart out a course. A war may not be easy but breaking the tentacles of those who lead to war is a necessity. What have we done post-Pulwama? India has to re-strategise and ensure global alliance to break the backbone of terror and its illicit funding.

Dravidian pride at stake

With the Congress and the BJP stitching alliances with DMK and AIADMK respectively, some interesting action awaits Tamil Nadu with both regional parties having to battle contradictions

KUMAR CHELLAPPAN

Well, Tamil Nadu is ready for the quinquennial Lok Sabha election which may take place in the month of April. With the Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam (DMK) and the Congress announcing the formalisation of their alliance to fight the Lok Sabha election together, the line-up in the State is ready. The mahagathbandhan in the Dravidian land would be led by MK Stalin with the Congress, the Left, the Marumalarchi Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam (MDMK), the Viduthalai Chiruthaigal Katchi (VCK) and the Islamist parties riding piggyback on the shoulders of the DMK. Meanwhile, the ruling All India Anna Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam (AIADMK) has announced the mega alliance that features the Vanniyar-dominated Pattali Makkal Katchi (PMK) and the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP). The AIADMK is in talks with the Desiya Murpokku Dravida Kazhagam (DMDK), led by former film star Vijayakanth and the Tamil Maanila Congress of GK Vasan, son of former Congress strongman, GK Moopnar.

Since all constituents in the DMK-led front are themselves struggling to stay afloat, they would be happy with whatever the DMK throws at them. The VCK, a fringe outfit led by Thol Thirumavalavan, has been out in the political wilderness since 2009. It has no representation in the Tamil Nadu Assembly since 2011 and its leaders have been losing successively since 2009. The communists are also facing uncertainty in the State after they failed to win at least a single seat either in the Lok Sabha or in the Assembly since 2014. But they claim that they are the ones who determine the future of Tamil Nadu.

Till the AIADMK succeeded in making deals with the PMK and the BJP by allocating seven and five seats to them respectively, it was widely believed that the DMK was in for a big win in the Lok Sabha election. The AIADMK has been fretting and floundering since the passing away of party supremo, J Jayalalithaa, in December 2016. The group led by Sasikala (former aide of Jayalalithaa), popularly known as the 'Mannargudi Mafia' had walked away with one faction of the party while the official faction led by Chief Minister Edappadi K Palaniswami looked vulnerable, fragile and weak. While Sasikala had to surrender to the Parappana Agrahara Central Prison in Bengaluru in February 2017, following a Supreme Court order which quashed the Karnataka High Court's verdict that had acquitted Jayalalithaa, Ilavarasi and VN Sudhakaran in the disproportionate asset case, TTV Dinakaran, Sasikala's nephew, emerged as the de facto leader of the AIADMK, much to the anguish of the cadre.

But within months, the Mannargudi clan was eased out of the AIADMK and Chief Minister Palaniswami slowly but steadily started taking control of the party and the Government. Though he is yet to emerge as a charismatic leader who could match the prowess of Amma (as Jayalalithaa is addressed by the cadre), Palaniswami has proved that he is not a pushover. As he completed two years in office on February 17, the small-time politician from the Edappadi village in Salem has tightened his grip over the party and Government apparatus.

Since day one of his swearing in as the Chief Minister, Palaniswami was under attack by Stalin, the Leader of the Opposition. The Income Tax and Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) raids on the offices and residences of Health Minister C Vijaya Baskar and his department heads, the gukha scam, which led to CBI raids in the houses of top police officers in the State and the vigilance probe into the civil contracts given by the AIADMK Government to a cartel of contractors, successively added to the worries of the Chief Minister. Stalin had been claiming that the Government would not last for more than a month.

The DMK chief's agony can be understood. The party has been out of the corridors of power in Chennai since 2011 and out of the Delhi power circle since 2013. It is a struggle for survival for him and his party. The 2014 Lok Sabha election saw a political tsunami with Jayalalithaa devastating the DMK in all 39 constituencies in Tamil Nadu. Interestingly, the Congress and the DMK fought the election separately with the latter forfeiting its security deposits in all constituencies except Kanyakumari, where the party finished second to the BJP. The DMK is facing a series of disadvantages from within as well as outside. The major issue hanging like a sword of Damocles over Stalin's head is his own elder brother, MK Alagiri. Though Alagiri has been expelled from the DMK following the machinations of Stalin, the Madurai-based son of late M Karunanidhi is a force to reckon with in many pockets of Tamil Nadu. The media in the State has never been a fan of the blunt-talking Alagiri. If one has to know the influence wielded by Alagiri, all one has to do is to check the results of the 2001 Assembly election, which the DMK was widely believed to have won easily. Alagiri is a veteran expert in tilting the scales of electoral battles. Dayanidhi Maran and Kalanithi Maran, the grand nephews of late Karunanidhi, are running from court to court to derail the trial in the illegal telephone exchange case in which the brothers are the prime accused.

Then there are inherent problems. The DMK itself is a secessionist party as Stalin had declared in March 2018 that the idea of a separate Dravida nation was still alive in the constitution of the party.

The presence of the Congress in the DMK camp itself is a contradiction because the latter is for the immediate release of all the seven assassins undergoing life imprisonment in the 1991 assassination of former Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi. The other constituents in the DMK front have made it known that they would fight for the release of the seven assassins, leaving the Congress flabbergasted.

The AIADMK front, too, has contradictions and weaknesses. The PMK is in the forefront, fighting for exempting Tamil Nadu from NEET. M Thambi Durai of the AIADMK, who is the deputy speaker of the Lok Sabha, was against any kind of alliance with the BJP, which he describes as a communal party. Anwar Raajhaa, the Muslim face of the AIADMK, has declared that he would fight against the triple talaq Bill till his last breath. It may sound interesting but the truth remains that Anbumani Ramadoss, the chief ministerial candidate of the PMK, had submitted a massive memorandum to Governor Banwarilal Purohit, listing nearly 30 corruption charges against the AIADMK Government. But the PMK and the AIADMK are strong alliance partners now.

Then there are issues like education. Tamil Nadu is the only State in the country which does not have a single Navodaya Vidyalaya, a public school concept introduced by the Rajiv Gandhi Government in 1986. Reason? Dravidian parties are against teaching of Hindi and Sanskrit in schools. What has happened is that students in Tamil Nadu have fallen behind in the standard of education because the State-level school syllabus is poor, compared to the quality of education in other standards. The children of Tamil chauvinist politicians learn Hindi and English in high-end schools. The non-teaching of Hindi in the State has created a sense of alienation in the minds of the people.

The split in the party and the absence of a powerful leader like Jayalalithaa has made the AIADMK vulnerable. TTV Dinakaran hopes that the Thevar community would vote for him, which would further weaken the AIADMK. But Palaniswami, who hails from the Vellala Gounder community, is confident that his brethren in south and south-west Tamil Nadu would stand with him because he is the first Chief Minister from this community. The inclusion of PMK was also not without reason. The Vanniyaars are an influential lot in the districts — ranging from Tiruvallur to Kanchipuram, Vellore to Tiruvannamalai and from Villupuram to Cuddalore. Though the PMK and the DMDK failed to win at least a single seat in the 2016 Assembly election, results show that they retained their vote percentage in the State, which fluctuates between five per cent to six per cent. The caste factor plays an important role in Tamil Nadu despite claims made by the Dravidians that theirs is a casteless society. The AIADMK was staging a 'coup' when it signed the deal with the PMK.

The DMK front looks formidable on paper, like the Brazilian team for the 2018 World Cup Football Championship. Stalin reminds one of Neymar, a paper tiger. The DMK president is a pale shadow of his late father Karunanidhi. Add to this the Periarites and Dravidian intelligentsia of Chennai, which has spread the 'news' that the DMK front would win all the 39 seats from the State. They also spread the news that the BJP high command was threatening the AIADMK for 20 seats. The allocation of five seats by the AIADMK, which was accepted by the BJP, demolishes a part of the falsehood spread by media and intelligentsia.

It is true that the AIADMK has failed in countering the propaganda by Dravidians. But by Tuesday, when the AIADMK-BJP-PMK alliance was announced, it had become clear that the DMK would not have a smooth sailing in the bout. The AIADMK looked like a party which would be outplayed by the DMK with a tennis score (40-0). But not any more. There is some interesting action in store as the AIADMK, the DMK and Dinakaran take to the field. To add to the glamour, there is Kamal Haasan, who thinks he is the greatest of all politicians. Let the game begin!

Revisiting the Iranian revolution

Had the post-modernists bothered to look beneath the meta-narratives of 20th century revolutions, they would not have come up with a naïve account written by the late professor of politics Sephr Zabih. Writing just three years after the revolution, Zabih said that the revolution was driven by a wide coalition of anti-Shah forces, which included democrats, liberals, secular-nationalists, communists, socialists and "Islamists." According to Zabih, after the Shah dictatorship collapsed in January 1979, there was a "power grab" among various groups that worked in unison during the revolution.

However, some historians continued to explain the revolution as "Islamic." While dealing with the immediate pre-revolution scenario, however, even they agree that multiple forces, advocating a diverse range of ideologies, were involved during the upheaval. They agree upon the point that Iran's senior religious leader Ayatollah Khomeini was the most widely accepted figure of authority during the revolution — even by those who hold the claim that the clergy hijacked the revolution.

But foreign affairs expert Robin Wright in her book The Last Great Revolution wrote that even though many secular, liberal and even some Leftist forces agreed to accept Khomeini as the revolution's central figure, they did so to keep the movement intact and, more so, because they believed Khomeini did not have any overt political ambitions.

Just before leaving for Tehran from Paris (where he had been in exile) Khomeini told the French daily, Le Monde, that it was not his intent to make religious leaders run the Government. What's more, as Bowden notes in his 2006 book, Guests of the Ayatollah, on his return to Iran after the Shah's fall, the Ayatollah retired to his home in Qom after agreeing to form an interim set-up of "secular technocrats" led by the anti-Shah "liberal-democrat" Mehdi Bazargan.

According to Wright, just a year after the revolution, Khomeini decreed that no cleric was allowed to run in Iran's first post-revolution elections in 1980, even though he had already declared Iran to be an Islamic republic. A centre-right liberal, Syed Banisadar, won the election, attracting 75.6 per cent of the popular vote.

The candidate of the Islamic Republican Party, which was pushing for an entirely theocratic set-up, bagged just 3.35 per cent. But by 1981, Khomeini was being hassled by the clerics to dismiss Banisadar "because he was acting against the clergy." In June 1981, after realising that he had lost Khomeini's backing, Banisadar managed to escape abroad.

Political scientist John Limbert, in his book, Iran: At War With History, wrote that Iran was ravaged by violence between various groups that had taken part in the revolution. After Banisadar's escape, the nationalist and liberal groups were systematically eliminated by pro-Khomeini Islamic militias. The Leftist outfits picked up arms to push back the influence of the clerics. But after ordering a purge in Iran's universities, which had been hotbeds of Leftist student agitation during the revolution, the emerging Islamic regime went all out against the Leftists. By December 1983, the pro-Khomeini Islamic Republican Party had managed to grab absolute power and turn Iran into a theocracy. The irony of it all is that many clerics were some of the last to join the movement against the Shah.

One important commentator of the revolution who called it Islamic was the famous post-modernist

French philosopher Michel Foucault. But in the book, Foucault and the Iran Revolution, Jennet Afary and KB Anderson wrote that, in his "post-modernist" pursuit of challenging the idea of "materialistic" rationale, Foucault fell for "the seductions of militant Islam." They wrote that in his search for "political spirituality", he ended up romanticising an idea which was totalitarian in nature.

It was Foucault's romanticised reading of the Iranian revolution which made most post-modernists claim that Iran's revolution was "unique" in the context of 20th century revolutions because it was religious in character. But since post-modernism often gets caught up in attacking grand narratives as an end product alone, it often fails to investigate the more complex historicity of events and forces which are present beneath the meta-narratives.

For example, to Foucault, in an era of communist revolutions, the Iranian revolution was unique because it was driven by "political spirituality." This was a naïve account. The Iranian Revolution actually unfolded like most 20th-century revolutions did — different forces holding differing (even opposing) ideologies coming together to uproot a common enemy and then competing with each other in a grab for power. Had the post-modernists bothered to look beneath the meta-narratives of 20th century revolutions, they would not have ignored the following facts: The October 1917 "Bolshevik/communist revolution" in Russia was the outcome of a more broad-based revolution in February 1917 in which revolutionary and democratic groups of various shades of left Russian nationalists and urban middle-class groups collaborated to overthrow the Tsar.

The 'hard-left' group (the Bolsheviks) led by Marxist ideologue Vladimir Lenin, grabbed power in late 1917 through a coup d'état. Lenin wasn't even present during the February revolution. He returned to Russia from exile in Switzerland in April 1917.

The 1949 Communist revolution in China emerged during a tussle between Mao Tse Tung's communists and Chinese nationalists. Both had collaborated to oust the occupying Japanese forces during World War II. But in the post-War conflict for power between the two, the communists managed to grab power.

The 'Islamist' Muslim Brotherhood collaborated with secular Egyptian nationalists during the 1952 uprising in Egypt which overthrew the Egyptian monarchy. In the post-1952 tussle between the two, the nationalists managed to oust the Brotherhood from the equation.

The 1959 Cuban revolution was a nationalist uprising. It wasn't until two years later, in 1961, that Fidel Castro — after consolidating his power — declared that his was a communist regime. During the 1979 Nicaraguan revolution, the communist 'Sandinistas' were overtly supported by that country's Catholic priests.

The post-modernists in their haste to declare the Iranian Revolution unique not only ignored the uniform patterns of 20th-century revolutions, but they also missed the 'political spirituality' present in the Nicaraguan revolution and the 1952 Egyptian uprising. What's more, to challenge the whole idea of the meta-narrative, they eventually created their own meta-narrative, by declaring the revolution in Iran as 'Islamic.'

NADEEM PARACHA

Eleventh February, 2019, marked the 40th anniversary of the Iranian Revolution, which is also remembered as an "Islamic revolution" by some historians. But was it? Not according to celebrated American journalist and author Mark Bowden. In a November 18, 2009 piece for the Wall Street Journal, Bowden wrote that "the movement which ousted the Shah dictatorship was primarily a nationalist one." He added that many of those, who took part in the commotion, "were not motivated by the desire to establish a theocracy, but a desire to cast off authoritarianism."

Bowden is not the only prominent writer to hold this view. This assessment first emerged in 1982 in the book, Iran Since the Revolution,

Banks plan ₹500-cr fund to Jet Airways: PNB chief

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

A consortium of banks is considering an interim funding of ₹500 crore for debt-laden Jet Airways but a final decision is yet to be taken, Punjab National Bank Managing Director Sunil Mehta said on Friday.

PNB is part of the lenders' consortium, led by State Bank of India (SBI), that has extended loans to the airline.

The full service carrier is looking to raise funds and restructure its debt.

Regarding Jet Airways, Mehta said the consortium is looking at the entire process and something is being worked out.

"Of course, (the) consortium is in favour (of interim funding). It is a going concern and we would like to preserve its (airline's) value," he said.

About interim funding for the carrier, Mehta said, "it is too premature to tell you about that plan" and the bankers are already working on it.

The SBI has taken a lead on it, and let the entire plan be worked out, he said, adding that it would be too early to announce the timings. "₹500 crore that you are talking about is the interim funding but banks are looking at the long term resolution of the issues for which the plan is already in place for discussions," he noted. He was responding to a query about the banks' extending interim funding to Jet Airways.

In line with the Central Government's initiative towards Skill India Mission, State-owned Navratna PSU NBCC organised a programme on Wednesday at ITPO (Pragati Maidan), for awarding certificates to more than 200 construction workers who have been equipped with a new set of skills in tune with changing face of the country's construction sector. On completion of the Recognition to Prior Learning programme under Pradhan Mantri Kaushal Vikas Yojana (PMKVY) in collaboration with CSDCI and CIL, the certificates were awarded by senior officials of NBCC, CSDCI and CIL

Waste to wonder park in Delhi opens for all

Union Home Minister Rajnath Singh inaugurated the 'Wonders of World Park', constructed by the South Delhi Municipal Corporation (SDMC) at Sarai Kale Khan

Delhi's latest tourist attraction, comprising the replicas of the Taj Mahal, the Great Pyramid of Giza, Eiffel Tower, Leaning Tower of Pisa, Christ the Redeemer statue of Rio de Janeiro, Rome's Colosseum and Statue of Liberty is now opened to the public.

Lauding the efforts of the South Delhi Municipal Corporation (SDMC), the Union Home Minister said that the development of this park will provide a boost to the 'Swachh Bharat Abhiyan'. He said that it is time to move forward towards waste to wealth. "The SDMC has not only utilised waste piled up at landfill sites but has contributed substantially in containing air pollution," he said. The Lieutenant Governor of Delhi, Anil Bajjal said that this park is itself a wonder. He appreciated the development of waste to wonder park and underlined the need for putting in place a proper mechanism of maintenance.

A senior SDMC official said that the seven replicas are made of 150 tonnes of scraps of automobile parts and other metal waste like fans, rods, iron sheets, nut-bolts, bicycle and bike parts and age-old appliances. "The replicas have been fabricated artistically and the park has been commissioned in six months," he said.

To avoid the rush of visitors, the civic body has decided to charge ₹50 for adults and ₹25 for children

(3-12 years) as an entry fee. However, senior citizens and children of corporation-run schools will not be charged any amount.

In order to light the park, the SDMC has installed solar trees and rooftop panels that will generate 50 KW powers. The surplus power will be sold to the power distribution companies to earn revenue, the official said.

Highlighting the steps taken to manage solid waste, SDMC Commissioner, Dr Puneet Kumar Goel said that the SDMC will achieve 100 per cent target of waste processing in the next year.

TIME HAS COME TO SET UP INDEPENDENT DEBT MANAGEMENT OFFICE: NITI AAYOG

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

Niti Aayog vice chairman Rajiv Kumar on Friday made a strong case for setting up of an independent debt management office outside the purview of Reserve Bank of India, saying it was "an idea whose time has come".

The idea of a Public Debt Management Agency (PDMA) was proposed by Finance Minister Arun Jaitley in his February 2015 Budget speech, though it has not yet been implemented.

"...It is important for this particular office be separate, because then you can pay much more attention on public debt management. That will help the government in bring down cost of its debt," Kumar said at an event organised by Niti Aayog here.

At present, the government debt, including market borrowing, is managed by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI).

The Government has to decide how to segregate different functions of the RBI, Kumar said adding that government has been very courageous to give the central bank the statutory authority for the inflation targeting.

₹ recovers 10 paise to 71.14 vs dollar, posts 2nd weekly gain

PTI ■ MUMBAI

The rupee on Friday gained 10 paise to close at 71.14 against the US dollar on heavy foreign capital inflows after growing expectations that the Federal Reserve would keep interest rate on hold this year.

A strengthening dollar ahead of the US-China trade talks and surging crude oil prices, however, restricted the rupee gains.

Foreign portfolio investors pumped in a huge ₹6,311.01 crore into capital markets Friday, provisional exchange data showed.

Analysts said that weak US economic data propped up expectations that the US Fed would keep the rate steady this year. The Fed minutes this week had also called for patience over tightening of rates in view of slowing global economic growth.

Sensex ends marginally lower; bank stocks fall

PTI ■ MUMBAI

The BSE Sensex ended marginally lower on Friday on losses in banking stocks as investors turned cautious after the minutes of RBI's latest policy meeting highlighted growth concerns.

The 30-share Sensex settled 26.87 points, or 0.07 per cent lower at 35,871.48. The broader NSE Nifty inched up 1.80 points, or 0.01 per cent, to 10,791.65.

During the week, Sensex rose 62.53 points or 0.17 per cent, while the Nifty advanced 67.25 points or 0.62 per cent.

Kotak Bank was the biggest loser in the Sensex pack Friday, falling 3.71 per cent, followed by RIL, HDFC Bank, Bajaj Finance, PowerGrid, IndusInd Bank, Asian Paints, HDFC and ITC.

On the other hand, Yes Bank was the top gainer, spurring 3.23 per cent.

Other winners were Vedanta, Tata Motors, NTPC, M&M, Maruti, ONGC and Hero MotorCorp, rising up to 2.86 per cent.

Sectorally, the BSE bank and finance indices fell up to 0.43 per cent. Energy and consumer durables too ended in the red.

BSE metal, auto, realty, power and oil and gas indices gained up to 1.62 per cent.

Broader indices outperformed the benchmarks, with the BSE Midcap index gaining 0.38 per cent and the small-cap gauge rising 0.77 per cent.

According to traders, despite positive global cues, investor sentiment turned weak after the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) released the minutes of its latest monetary policy meet after market hours Thursday.

The central bank's Monetary Policy Committee noted the "weakened growth momentum" amidst inflation cooling off as it delivered a surprise rate cut earlier this month. In his debut policy review as RBI Governor, Shaktikanta Das argued that there was a need to look at growth concerns.

"Market turned range bound after the release of RBI minutes which hints at concerns of elevated core inflation and threat of global growth slowdown."

"Additionally, 10-year yield inched higher while bank index underperformed. Inflow of domestic funds to market remains positive while tepid reaction from FIIs and lack of major triggers are impacting investors' sentiment," said Vinod Nair, Head of Research, Geojit Financial Services.

Domestic institutional investors (DIIs) were net buyers to the tune of Rs 202.10 crore, and foreign institutional investors (FIIs) also bought shares worth a net Rs 55.48 crore on Thursday, provisional data available with BSE showed.

Global markets rose as top trade officials from the US and China started their latest, and possibly the last round of talks to negotiate a comprehensive trade deal before their self-imposed deadline of March 1.

In Asia, Hong Kong's Hang Seng rose 0.65 per cent, Shanghai Composite Index jumped 1.91 per cent and Korea's Kospi gained 0.08 per cent. Japan's Nikkei ended 0.18 per cent lower.

In the Eurozone, Frankfurt's DAX was up 0.17 per cent, Paris CAC 40 rose 0.27 per cent, and London's FTSE gained 0.17 per cent in early deals.

The benchmark Brent crude futures rose 0.34 per cent to USD 67.30 per barrel.

Meanwhile, the rupee appreciated 5 paise to 71.19 against the US dollar intra-day.

OFB GETS BULK PRODUCTION CLEARANCE FOR 'DHANUSH'

The Ordnance Factory Board (OFB) has received the bulk production clearance (BPC) from the Indian Army and the Ministry of Defence for production of 114 of the first ever indigenous 155mm x 45 calibre artillery gun—'Dhanush'.

The weapon is the first, long-range artillery gun to be produced in India and is considered to be a major success story of the 'Make in India' initiative. The gun is equipped with inertial navigation-based sighting system, auto-laying facility, on-board ballistic computation and an advanced day and night direct firing system. The self-propulsion unit allows the gun to negotiate and deploy itself in mountainous terrains with ease.

'Dhanush' has been mechanically upgraded to fire standard NATO 155 mm ammunition and can accommodate both, boll bags and the bi-modular charge system (BMCS), which have resulted in increasing the range. The gun has also been electronically upgraded to enhance the firing accuracies, laying speeds of the existing gun and to provide compatibility with various kinds of ammo as well.

The performance of 'Dhanush' has been evaluated under arduous conditions in several phases. The guns travelled extensively in towed and self-propelled mode in all terrains viz desert and high altitude with each gun clocking over 1600 km. Such an extensive exercise was carried out by the user for the first time for any gun system under the process of induction.

The manufacture of a 155 mm modern artillery gun was initially seen as a challenge for OFB as it was to change the vision parameters from 155 x 39 calibre to 155 x 45 calibre. The organisation received the transfer of technology (ToT) documents pertaining to the 155x39 calibre and then converted it to 155x45 calibre successfully.

'Dhanush' is the product of joint efforts by the OFB and the Indian Army with contributions from Defence Research and Development Organisation (DRDO), the Directorate General of Quality Assurance (DGQA), Defence Public Sector Undertakings (DPSUs) such as Bharat Electronics Limited, public sector undertakings such as Steel Authority of India Limited and several other private sector enterprises.

NALCO aims for over ₹2,000 crore profit by 2020

The chaircum-cum-managing director of the National Aluminium Company (NALCO), Dr Tapan Kumar Chand believes that achievements give motivation and purpose gives objectivity to any organisation but to remain sustainable and successful, business organisations need to have insulation from detrimental effects of business environment.

"One must remain well aware in advance of the changes in technology, statutory regulations and preferences of the customers", he said. Dr Chand was speaking at the inauguration of the two-day long 5th National Management Conference (NamCon-2019) on 'Weatherproof organisation: Challenging the Challenge' at the Asian School of Business Management (ASBM).

Sharing the success story of NALCO, he elaborated that when the global economy was reeling under economic slowdown, with the metal sector being affected the worst; NALCO took a conscious decision of introducing an all weather business model that focuses on benchmarking and quantification. With the business model in place, the company doubled its net profit from ₹669 crore in FY 2016-17 to ₹1342 crore in FY 2017-18. Now the company is all set to scale higher on financial front and envisages achieving a net profit of more than ₹2000 crore by 2020 and ₹2500 crore in the next three years.

Besides, to retain business excellence, the company has consistently been working on with focus on sustainability through innovation, adoption of new technology, lower production cost and nurturing its human resources, added Dr Chand. During the event, the conference compendium and newsletter of ASBM was also released.

Trump, Kim to have one-on-one meet

PTI ■ WASHINGTON

US President Donald Trump and North Korean leader Kim Jong-un will meet one-on-one and spend substantial amount of time together next week when the two leaders meet in Hanoi, Vietnam, the White House said on Thursday.

File Photo

Trump and Kim are meeting for their second summit on February 27 and 28. The first one was on June 12 in Singapore, which was part of the president's effort to improve his country's relationship with North Korea and ultimately have a denuclearised state.

"There will be opportunities for the two leaders to see one another one-on-one, to share a meal and indeed for expanded meetings of their respective delegations in laying out the objectives (which) is ultimately about denuclearisation of North Korea," a senior administration official told reporters during a conference call.

already between the two sides and that is the overriding goal that President Trump is seeking to achieve with this summit," the official said, who spoke with reporters on condition of anonymity.

This is an important step towards that ultimate goal, the official noted. "After breaking the ice with Kim in some aspects in June, Trump is also looking to talk in depth about the kind of future that North Korea could enjoy if it follows through on its commitment to the final and full of denuclearisation," the official said.

Trump would be accompanied by his Secretary of State Mike Pompeo, and several of his top aides for the second summit meeting with the North Korean leader. Hundreds of reporters are travelling to Hanoi to cover the much-anticipated summit.

N Korea has asked for help on food shortages: UN

AP ■ UNITED NATION

The United Nations says North Korea's Government has asked for help from international humanitarian groups to combat food shortages.

UN Spokesman Stephane Dujarric said Thursday that food production figures provided by North Korea show "there is a food gap of about 1.4 million tons expected for 2019, and that's crops including rice, wheat, potato and soybeans."

Dujarric says the UN has "expressed and will continue to express our concern about the deteriorating food security situation" in North Korea.

He says the UN "at various levels" is consulting with the North Korean Government "to further understand the impact of food security on the most vulnerable people, in order to take early action to address the humanitarian needs."

ISIS jihadi girl's family plead for her baby's UK entry

PTI ■ LONDON

The family of a UK girl of Bangladeshi descent, who fled to join Islamic State (ISIS) in 2015, has appealed to the Government to allow her new born baby to be rescued from the Syrian refugee camp and raised in Britain.

Sister of Shamima Begum, Renu, has written to UK home secretary Sajid Javid urging for his assistance and also informed him of the family's plan to help her 19-year-old sister mount a legal challenge against his decision to revoke her British citizenship. "We were pleased to learn from your comments in the Commons that you recognise my nephew, Shamima's son, as a British citizen," Renu Begum said in a letter to the UK Home Secretary.

"As a family, we ask now how we can assist you in bringing my nephew home to us. In all of this debacle, he is the one true innocent and should not lose the privilege of being raised in the safety of this country," it notes.

US aid to Venezuela a pretext for military action, says Russia

AFP ■ MOSCOW

Russia on Friday accused the United States of using aid deliveries to Venezuela as a ploy to carry out military action against President Nicolas Maduro's Government.

"A dangerous provocation, instigated and led by Washington, is planned for February 23," foreign ministry spokeswoman Maria Zakharova said, pointing to efforts by opposition leader Juan Guaido to pick up US aid being stockpiled on the Colombian border.

Guaido's plans to try to bring the aid across the border are aimed at provoking clashes, she said, to provide "a convenient pretext for conducting military action".

Russia is a key supporter of Maduro's government and has repeatedly accused Washington of trying to carry out a coup in Venezuela. On Thursday, Guaido set out in a convoy to collect US-supplied food and medicine stockpiled in Colombia, vowing to bring in the aid by Saturday.

Maduro has closed the border with Brazil to prevent the entry of aid and the military has beefed up security at the Colombian border.

Zakharova alleged that the US had moved special forces and military equipment "closer to Venezuelan territory" and was considering large-scale weapons purchases to arm the opposition.

Noting that it had been five years since the Ukrainian revolution that ousted a Russian-backed leader — which Moscow has accused the US of orchestrating — Zakharova said Washington was preparing for more regime change in Venezuela.

EARTHQUAKE WITH 7.5 MAGNITUDE HITS ECUADOR
Quito: An earthquake with a magnitude of 7.5 hit Ecuador Friday but there were no immediate reports of casualties or major damage. The quake struck before dawn in Ecuador's eastern Amazon region 17 kilometers (10 miles) from the town of Montalvo near the border with Peru, the US Geological Survey said.

SWEDEN GETS 4.5 YEARS FOR ROYAL JEWELS HEIST
Copenhagen: A 22-year-old Swede was sentenced Friday to four and a half years in prison after he was convicted of stealing 17th-century Swedish royal treasures estimated to be worth 65 million kronor (USD 7 million) from a cathedral last year. The Eskilstuna District Court said Johan Nicklas Backstrom stole two crowns and an orb used at the funerals of King Karl IX and Queen Kristina. The jewels, dating from 1611, had been on display in Strangnas Cathedral, west of Stockholm.

May warned of new Brexit revolt

PTI ■ LONDON

British Prime Minister Theresa May on Friday warned of a new revolt brewing within her otherwise loyal group of party Parliamentarians over fears that a chaotic no-deal Brexit is not being ruled out in time for the March 29 deadline for Britain's exit from the European Union (EU).

has warned that they are preparing to back alternatives if May's reworked withdrawal agreement cannot command a House of Commons majority.

Co-chairs Andrew Percy and Simon Hart said their group wants the Government to take no-deal off the table or they would consider voting against the Government and in favour of an amendment to give Parliament the opportunity to delay Brexit and prevent a no-deal situation if there is no agreement with the EU by the middle of March.

The Brexit Delivery Group, which comprises both pro and anti-Brexit Conservative Party MPs,

MANISHA KOIRALA

I was about to lose my life and now I see everything with gratitude. Whatever time I'm alive, I'm going to live well. I am going to give my best, make the most of my life and share the joy with all pitfalls and bumps. Earlier I lived in an unaware phase. This is definitely my second inning to not only my work but my life as well.

AMIT TRIVEDI

An upcoming artiste can face a number of challenges and, having been on this journey myself, I can fully attest to how impactful the right platform and the right mentors can be for an artiste at the onset of his or her music career. My message is to 'Do what moves you' and keep chasing your dream.

PALLAVI SHARDA

Being versatile has always been my interest. Early on in my Hindi film career, people wanted to pigeonhole me into an understandable, manageable, quantifiable thing. But I am very pleased that I stuck to my convictions, took risky decisions and did not get caught up in the archetype of the Bollywood heroine.

SUSHANT SINGH

How do we ban the already banned? Please wake up and look around, the film industry has not been working with Pakistani artistes since the Uri attack. Post attack (in 2016), producers and the Federation (Federation of Western India Cine Employees) had banned Pakistani artistes.

MILO VENTIMIGLIA

There are things that people live through, so to be able to have a forum to discuss it and speak about it honestly, I'm incredibly proud of Mandy (Moore) for just being who she is, an inspiring woman. To let someone know that they're not alone in a feeling, I think that's a great thing to do.

ENCOUNTER 50 MINUTES

The smart hatter

Actor AJAY DEVGN dabbles in comedy with his latest film, Total Dhamaal, but is equally at ease in other genres, says SAIMI SATTAR

Ajay Devgn has found quite the spot. While the rest of the cast of Total Dhamaal is cooped up inside a hall in a hotel, he has a small set-up just outside, open to the sky, which is certainly pleasant given the weather. "Oh, that's because I smoke," he says with a laugh and one can't help but notice a pack of cigarettes lying prominently on the table. As is wont, I try to put on the recorder on my phone for the interview while Ajay narrates that he was born in Delhi but does not know much of it, even as I keep fiddling with the device waiting for it to switch on. When I confess that it has frozen, Ajay asks me if he can help and tries to, but clearly the app has a mind of its own and won't succumb even to the charms of a celebrity actor who has more than a hundred films to boot. Casting it aside, I decide to go the old fashioned way and jot down what he says.

Ajay explains that the film is called an adventure comedy as there is hardly a moment where the cast is in a situation which cannot be classified as an escapade. "Except for one court scene with Anil Kapoor and Madhuri Dixit, the entire cast is either mid-air or in water or in trouble. It has an Indiana Jones like feel," says the actor who rode astride two bikes into collective national conscience with Phool Aur Kaante in 1991 for which he got the best Filmfare Male Debut Award.

However, it is Ajay's funny bone that has given him huge career hits and is on display in the third installment of the Dhamaal franchise. "The content in comedies is what makes you laugh. That depth has been there in the Golmaal series. Making people laugh is not easy in general. Add to it the fact that you can't tickle them twice with the same joke, the humour loses punch. So the content has to be fresh. Then as performers, after the gag has been written, it is also essential to understand how much to stretch the joke, the appropriate amount of energy needed to perform it and also an understanding of when and how it can nosedive if not executed well. Some jokes need a poker face and others need a lot of action," says the actor who in the initial years of his career was known for his intense and action roles. However, Ajay made a transition and can dabble in different genres with seemingly equal ease. "If you aren't classified, that is the best place to be in as an actor. If I did one genre all the time, that is what is likely to happen. I keep on reinventing myself which keeps me going. In fact, I would say I do not understand a genre. What I understand are the characters and I play them. Guddu in Total Dhamaal doesn't know the genre. He knows what he has to do and does it," says the actor.

'IF I DID SOMETHING LIKE ZAKHM (1998) TODAY OR FOR THAT MATTER RAINCOAT (2004), THE AUDIENCE WOULD HAVE BEEN MORE RECEPTIVE AND APPRECIATED ME BETTER. BOTH THE FILMS GOT A LOT OF CRITICAL APPRECIATION AND WERE PRAISED BUT THE BOX OFFICE COLLECTIONS DID NOT REALLY MATCH UP'

The seamless switch between the characters is not surprising given his avid interest in world cinema. However, Ajay points out, "I do like to watch world cinema but you need to be in the mood to do so. If you are viewing it with someone, they need to identify with that kind of films. Plus, even when watching it alone, you need to be in a certain frame of mind. However, when you go out with friends or family, it is more likely that you would opt for something which is a comedy or is light-hearted."

Talking about why formula or big stars are no longer a guarantee of success as was obvious from the flops that most of the major stars had to face last year, he says, "Actors now need to know that they can no longer fool the audience. Earlier, it was possible to work around with the same formula but it is not happening any longer. Charisma won't work until the content is good. Besides, the audience, which is more educated and exposed to different experiences now, is more discerning and is constantly evolving." That's what he misses for two milestone performances of his career. "If I did something like Zakhm (1998) today or for that matter Raincoat (2004), the audience would have been more receptive and appreciated me better. Both the films got a lot of critical appreciation and were praised but the box office collections did not really match up. Today, they would have got the money too," he says.

For somewhere who has traversed a wide arc of creativity, filling out different characters, he has his keen eyes on the script as well as his instincts to invest each role with originality. "I played a gangster in Company and then repeated it again in Once Upon A Time in Mumbai but no one can say that the characters were similar," says the intelligent actor.

Ajay is starring next in De De Pyaar De, which is scheduled to release tentatively around May this year. Also on the cards is Neeraj Pandey's Chanakya where he embodies the role of the political thinker, economist and royal advisor. Another historical that he is producing and starring in is Tanaji - The Unsung Warrior. "My reason for taking up Tanaji is primarily because I liked the script. He was a great historical figure and sacrificed a lot but many people in Maharashtra and most outside have not heard of him. This makes our effort to bring his story to the big screen worthy," says he. However, many historicals have invited the ire of self-appointed censors of history. So does he fear controversies? Reasons Ajay, "The problem with our country is that it is really diverse and one group or the other might find something offensive. The final say should be that of the court if there is any difference of opinion and people should just go with the verdict."

A connected citizen, Ajay has taken a clear stand on issues. When #MeToo rocked the Hindi film industry last year, he wrote on his Twitter handle, "I'm disturbed by all the happenings with regards to #MeToo. My company and I believe in providing women with utmost respect and safety. If anyone has wronged even a single woman, neither ADF (Ajay Devgn Films) nor I will stand for it." And he makes no bones about it even now and says, "We respect women. We always believed in this. If two people are involved and it is consensual we are no one to judge them. But it should not be forced."

On another issue, that of nepotism that keeps on making a buzz in the industry time and again, Ajay says, "It is not as if other people do not get chances. They do. If you are connected you do get an initial shot at it but then you have to prove yourself. Ultimately it depends on whether the audience likes you or not." Incidentally his daughter Nyssa is not interested in films at all and he says that she does not have an aptitude for the medium. "She is studying in Singapore," he says.

Recently, Ajay and his actor wife Kajol promoted a Unilever campaign called StartLittleGood to spread awareness about proper recycling of plastic. "I've been aware of global warming. I have been obsessed with being environmentally conscious at home. I am that person who is teased constantly by his sisters for putting off lights and fans when not in use," he says.

Clearly, he does like to dabble in a whole lot of things with equal ease.

STUDIO CHAT 30 MINUTES

Hear my name

Singer ADNAN SAMI believes that the concept of blind auditions is the proof that The Voice is solely based on creating a space for talent and skill.

By TEAM VIVA

◆ What made you take up The Voice?
This music competition show transcends all barriers of physical appearance, background, religion and gender, to provide a platform for the budding singing talent solely based on their core competence. The entire concept of the "blind auditions" is very innovative where we do not see the contestant and just hear them and if their voice strikes a chord, we turn our chairs for them. It is a journey of finding raw talent, polishing and nurturing it through the mentorship by coaches and enabling them to reach their potential. The platform gives an opportunity for talent to work with their dream coaches and that is a massive opportunity for any aspiring singer. For the first time ever in the history of the show, the format has been altered to introduce the concept of a super guru with the one and only A R Rahman stepping into the shoes. I am joined by popular singers Harshdeep Kaur, Kanika Kapoor and Armaan Malik as coaches.

◆ Could you elaborate on your role as a coach and what you plan to bring to the show?
As a coach, I will nurture the contestants and help them in unleashing their potential as a singer. I will not only play the role of music coach but will be a life coach as well, sharing my own experiences and never-give-up stories to keep them motivated. Out of all the coaches, I think I will be the surprise package and bring a lot of musical input to the show, right from playing instruments to giving technical comments.

◆ What do you think differentiates The Voice from other reality singing shows?
I mentioned the blind auditions before. I also like that there are no judges but only coaches who provide contestants with the technical know-how and skills for them to grow.

◆ How challenging is it to judge a reality show? How excited or nervous have you been?

I am very excited to be a coach on this show that airs on StarPlus as the talent pool is remarkable and amazing. I am a guiding force on the show, providing feedback and perspectives to the contestants based on my own experiences and facilitate them to take their musical prowess a step ahead.

◆ How does it feel to share space with the maestro A R Rahman?

It is always a pleasure to work with A R Rahman and for the first time I will be seeing him from the lens of a superguru. He will be seen sharing valuable feedback and perspectives which are truly inspiring. His insights about the entire process of creating music and his personal life changing stories are remarkable.

◆ How is your rapport with the other coaches on the show?

We get along really well and it reflects on the show. There is a great variety of different types of musicians who bring something distinct with them. Each coach has come from a different school of music, had prolific musical experiences and achieved immense success. So there is a one-stop shop of expertise.

◆ What kind of voice on the show will stand out and catch your attention?

I am not in search of any specific voice. A voice which influences and touches my heart will earn a chair. Everything else can be taught if the quality of the voice is great.

Fabricated over a span of nine months, artist Vibhor Sogani's installation at Kishangarh, Rajasthan titled Through the Depths represents the process of extraction of raw stone from the depths of the earth and its subsequent refinement into an aesthetic symbol. It is an ode to passion, endeavour and intent. Standing 12-feet tall on an elevated stone, it is crafted in 316-grade stainless, mirror-finished steel.

CONVERSATION 40 MINUTES

A wide arc

Actor VIJAY VARMA tells CHAHAK MITTAL that just as humans try to steal others' experiences and recreate them in their own lives, an actor's versatility comes from the various shoes he steps into

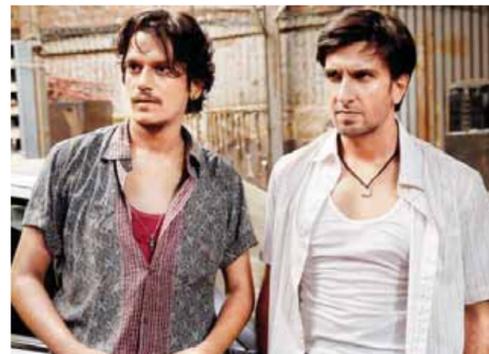

It was probably Zoya Akhtar's "insightful eye" with which she observed actor Vijay Varma's versatility and acting skills and welcomed him on board the cast of Gully Boy. The character of Moeen has become a favourite with just a handful of scenes and has been also receiving immense appreciation for his role as Ranveer Singh's friend and conscience-keeper.

The actor believes that when he was given the dialogues to prepare, the audition went well and he indeed did "a fairly well job" However, the most special part, he says, was Zoya's eye for detail and content that mattered. "It's great to work with a director like her. She respects hard work and has a heart for quality. It's important to have such directors around," says he.

Vijay has played characters that were completely different in films like Chittagong, Monsoon Shootout and Pink previously. Preparing for his role in Gully Boy was another challenge, he says. "It needed a lot of internal and mental work to understand and fit into the world that the filmmakers wanted to portray in the film. From being a garage mechanic, drug peddler, and even a thief amidst the dark, Moeen had a lot of personalities rather than just one. He knew his punishment was justified. He used kids for labour but gave them a roof over their heads. He was a good friend too. So, there was a great deal of emotional work," says Vijay and goes on to add that picking up the language and accent also had to be worked upon. "I spoke to a lot of local slum people in order to understand and catch their terminology and bring out that worn out feeling in my character."

Seminal roles sometimes also shape actors as people and change their outlook on life. Vijay tells us what this role had taught him. He says, "You do get a better insight in certain segments and geography, about which you might have never thought before. It makes you delve deeper into things unfamiliar to you. As humans, we are always trying to find inspiration from other people, moments and places. We try to steal experiences from others' lives and try to recreate them in our own. Similarly, an actor also lives many lives and tries to imitate some of them in reality — the ones which they find worth recreating or living for."

While talking about Gully Boy as a film, he feels that it is important to create and show films with such themes. He says that it is "captivating" and "immersive" in the sense that it shows reality and connects with common people. "It's about their dreams and struggles. It's also important to acknowledge street artists like these since they never receive recognition and applause for their amazing talent. They are despised even by their own families. It's not considered as an art," says he.

For Vijay, there's no particular genre that he fits in perfectly, rather he believes that if he'd be given a role in any kind — suspense, action, dark comedy, thriller — he would certainly give his best and "do a good job."

Fendi honours Lagerfeld

The final collection at the Milan fashion week was dedicated to the fashion designer

Fendi paid understated tribute to Karl Lagerfeld, who died this week and was the Rome-based fashion house's creative director for 54 years.

The fashion house said in notes for its Milan Fashion Week show that the Fall/Winter 2019-2020 collection "is the final collection designed by Karl Lagerfeld, representing a lifetime of dedication and creation from 1965 until today."

Reproductions of five of Lagerfeld's sketches accompanied the notes, summing up the looks. A small card came printed with his signature and the Fendi "F" that had a heart forming the cross-stroke. The date of the designer's death was on the back: 19-02-2019.

A video recorded before his death showed Lagerfeld being asked to draw himself as he appeared on his first day at Fendi.

"Well, that's prehistoric," the designer said. "In the 1960s, we didn't hold back."

His personal Fendi preview look: a Cerruti hat over his long hair, dark sunglasses, a printed Lavalliere tie, a yellow-and-red English hunting jacket in Scottish tweed, French-style culottes and a bag that he had found in Milan.

"That was my style. Disreputable," the late designer told the camera in French.

Other highlights from the second day of Milan Fashion Week:

LAGERFELD'S FENDI FINALE

Karl Lagerfeld's grand finale at Fendi emulated the designer's signature style, with striking high collars and the models wearing ponytails at the nape.

The opening look featured a huge bow tie and a double-breasted jacket with white accents, worn with a mini-skirt showing off Fendi tights. That look was elaborated on to show the same jacket as a long overcoat, then paired with wide-legged pleated trousers with white stripe accents. A neat, point-collared shirt buttoned to the top unified the outfits.

A series of wide-pleated skirts in shiny finishes or sheers, as well as structured dresses with pagoda shoulders, pointy collars and cinched waists feminized the collection.

Coats were luxurious furs with the elegant double-F logo in cursive - known as Lagerfeld's curling "Karligraphy" - and laser-cut leather with zippers that opened the sleeves and the back. Shiny leather coats were shaped like capes and had open-zip arms and fur collars.

Beyond neutral tones, Lagerfeld included flashes of daffodil yellow, seafoam green and tangerine. The looks were finished with fur riding caps, the Fendi Peekaboo bag with perforated detailing or the updated Baguette bag with a multi-strap harness.

Gigi Hadid closed the show in a diaphanous mango dress with a snug Fendi-logged bodysuit. A big bow floated on the back.

FENDI'S PUBLIC FAREWELL

Silvia Venturini Fendi, who was a child when Lagerfeld joined Fendi and revolutionized fur at her family's fashion house, thanked the fashion crowd and took a bow, then clenched her fists and stepped backstage.

A screen descended: Backstage was kept private.

Venturini Fendi in a note said the bond between Lagerfeld and Fendi "is fashion's longest love story."

"When we called just a few days before the show, his only thoughts were on the richness and the beauty of the collection," she wrote. "It's a true testament to his character. He shall be so missed."

MAX MARA CELEBRATES THE POLITICS OF GLAMOR

Max Mara dedicated its collection to the "boss lady," a nod to the women who have strode to power in their luxury outerwear and business attire.

The show title, "the politics of glamor," was also a not-so-hidden reference to the brick-red "Fire Coat" that U.S. House Minority leader Nancy Pelosi wore to a White House showdown with President Donald Trump. A flurry of social media attention prompted the fashion house to reissue the high-neck coat.

Most of the looks in the latest collection for next fall and winter were for serious day dressing, with a focus on short skirts or longer versions that appeared cut from trousers, but with deep slits to show off knee-high, faux croc boots.

Outerwear varied from ankle-length sleeveless coats with oversized pockets and to poncho coats with furry collars. Zips and pockets gave a sense of utility.

Max Mara punctuated its trademark neutral monotonous with tris of colors and prints, opening the show with identical mini-skirt, business looks in an emerald green, sky blue and canary yellow. The outfits were topped with large, enveloping alpaca cardigans.

Wools mixed with technical fabrics, leathers and fur for contemporary styling. Neutral monotonous in ivory, camel and caramel toast gave way to animal prints and heritage prints with heart motifs.

Accessories included an innovative bag that draped around the neck like a scarf and incorporated two compartments on each end, or a small clutch attached to the body with a harness.

Eva Herzigova closed the show with a black mini with the slightest golden sheen, worn with a black granite textured coat that was mined from the depths of fashion. Kaia Gerber rocked a layered off-white look with a rich, furry overcoat and single-button suit coat.

EMPORIO ARMANI FOR EVERY AGE

Emporio Armani is Giorgio Armani's line for youthful dressers, but the designer sent an older model down the runway to emphasize that age is not the defining measure.

For this collection, shapely legs certainly were. The looks included shorts that looked like skirts, or mini dresses with swinging hemlines. Armani included a low kitten heel on

The collection included a series of red looks, perhaps a tribute to the growing Chinese market.

Red, along with black and white, "resets everything you see around, that is so much, too much," Armani said.

PRADA EXPLORES LOVE AND WAR

Prada's collection for next fall and winter explores the dichotomy between war and romance, the tug between better and baser impulses.

The collection veers from military looks in Loden textiles with combat boots but softened with furry backpacks to romantic styles with dresses strewn with floral appliques or layered with lace accents.

"It is about romance, but romance and fear," the designer said after the show. "In the sense that the two forces I feel at the moment are fear and danger, but at the same time romance is the solution. So these are pieces of love stories, introducing good in a world that has a lot of bad."

THE PRICE IS RIGHT AT MOSCHINO

Jeremy Scott staged a tongue-in-cheek Moschino game show to show off his collection of slinky dresses and gold lame on women with 1970s bouffants. The collection fully embraced the early television era, with handbags shaped as TV dinners, toothpaste tubes and champagne bottles, reflecting the reality of home cuisine, a major TV-era advertising force and the millionaire dreams of the television audience.

Models shimmied up against a red Ferrari, a grandfather clock, kitchen appliances and a La-Z-Boy recliner — the latter of which boasted price tags below most present-day luxury brand apparel.

Scott basked in the irony, taking a star turn under a shower of big gold confetti.

ONENESS WITH NATURE

Photographer JUHI SAKLANI's captures ecology which has been integrated with human life

For photographer Juhi Saklani, life can persist in most unexpected places like a grand tree braving traffic, pollution, and dirt of a busy Delhi road, what she exclaims as almost a "national monument". Displayed in 2019 Habitat Photosphere on 'Bhu/Earth', among many others, the trees photograph reminds humans of their oneness with nature.

Habitat Photosphere, an India Habitat Centre (IHC) initiative, is geared towards sensitisation of a sustainable environment and cultural sustainability through the medium of photography.

With this year's theme as 'Bhu/Earth', the ongoing exhibition is currently blooming with photographs, installations and interactive events.

Saklani, one of the four awardees of the Photosphere Fellowship, is exploring art and ecology through photographs of trees growing through old walls and buildings, and inhabiting books, maps and newspapers.

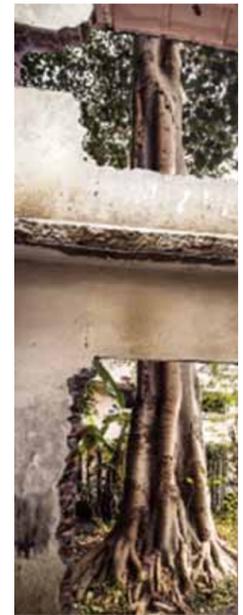

Some exhibited works in her series 'Human/Nature' use "regular headlines about trees being felled for buildings, roads, river interlinking, smart city projects, parking and more" as images.

The series emerged from her "reading and conversations around deep ecology and the nature of the ecological crisis we find ourselves in today — how to live with climate change, species extinction, dramatic loss of biodiversity, depletion of water, massive deforestation, critical levels of pollution", she said.

"I am still a student of ecological issues and philosophies, but some of it has seeped into the photographs. I truly feel that humans need to start thinking of themselves as a part of nature, as opposed to controllers or 'conquerors' of nature," Saklani, who has previously been an editor and writer with Outlook Traveller for nearly a decade, said.

Saklani, whose passion for photography started with taking photographs to support her articles, believes trees to be companions and healers that give solace. For her, the images featuring trees are not works of art - what is art are trees themselves.

A special section 'A Window Into Redevelopment' is a tribute to the people of Delhi who in June-July 2018 protested the "proposed cutting of some 15,000 trees in Sarojini Nagar and Netaji Nagar" - government housing colonies which were to be "redeveloped" to host commercial spaces.

"In face of official reports which said Sarojini Nagar was a place of 'no significant biodiversity', experts found 26 bird species and 11 types of butterflies in just a two-day survey.

"Activists conducted tree surveys in Netaji Nagar and found an irreplaceable wealth of bargads, peepals, semals, neems, jamuns, amaltas..." a note on the section said.

Thanks to the efforts of the protesters, "the company NBCC has to redesign its projects to minimise tree loss", the writer, who feels meditative while clicking trees, said.

'A Window Into Redevelopment', interestingly, has been curated as a combination of photographs and rustic-looking wooden windows allowing one to peep at the collages in which the threatened trees and demolished houses of these colonies are still trying to co-exist.

"It's also a protest against the top heavy planning that does not involve people in the decisions about their city's future. And a reminder that people need to stay informed about what is happening to their city."

Along with other awardees and more varied exhibitors, Saklani's earthy take on the Photosphere theme of 'Bhu' is open for the public to view till March 18 at the IHC here.

The Photosphere has been curated by art historian Alka Pande. —IANS

No decision on Pak WC match, CoA to consult Govt: Vinod Rai

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

The Committee of Administrators (CoA) running Indian cricket on Friday decided against taking any stand on the World Cup clash against Pakistan but urged the ICC and other nations to "sever ties" with countries from where "terrorism emanates".

There has been a call to boycott the June 16 World Cup face-off against Pakistan at the Old Trafford in the aftermath of the Pulwama terror attack, which killed more than 40 CRPF personnel.

In a meeting to address the spiralling speculation around the match, the CoA deliberated on the matter but did not take any position for now.

"The 16th of June is very far away. We will take a call on that much later and in consultation with the government," CoA chief Vinod Rai said after the meeting.

Asked if players have been consulted on the issue, Rai replied in the negative.

"In an e-mail to the ICC, we have expressed our concerns about the terrorist attack that has taken place. We are telling them that security of players and match officials should be appropriately taken care of," Rai said.

"And number two, we must sever ties with nations from which such terrorism emanates. We will express our concern on an appropriate forum," Rai said indicating that the matter will be raised at the ICC quarterly Board meeting in Dubai.

No IPL opening ceremony

All funds to go for Pulwama martyrs

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

The IPL will not have an opening ceremony this year after the Committee of Administrators (CoA) running Indian cricket on Friday decided to allocate the money set aside for it to the families of the CRPF personnel killed in the Pulwama terror attack.

The opening ceremonies of the cash-rich T20 league are a heady mix of glitz and glamour with performances by Bollywood stars being the highlight.

However, as a mark of respect to the slain CRPF men, it has been decided to scrap the ceremony for the event's 12th edition beginning March 23.

"We will not have any inaugural function for the IPL and the money budgeted for that goes to the martyrs' families," said Committee of Administrators chairman Vinod Rai.

It was BCCI acting president CK Khanna, who had officially made the proposal to donate at least ₹5 crore for the martyrs' families.

It is learnt that 2018 IPL opening ceremony's budget was in the tune of ₹15 crore and something similar to that amount will be donated.

The ICC meeting is scheduled to be held from February 26 to March 2.

In the mail sent to the world body, BCCI said it is concerned about the security of Indian players heading into the World Cup.

"BCCI fears for the safety and security of players and match officials participating in upcoming ICC events including the ICC Cricket World Cup 2019. Most countries from which the members of the ICC hail (including United Kingdom) have strongly condemned this terrorist attack and expressed solidarity with India," the letter stated.

"The BCCI trusts that the ICC and ECB will ensure that the most robust security is provided to players, match officials and fans of Indian cricket for the upcoming World Cup," it said.

It was a foregone conclusion that CoA would not take any decision on the matter as the ICC can't ban Pakistan as per rules.

"We can never win a floor Test if we try and pass a resolution to ban Pakistan from the World Cup. We currently don't have majority in ICC. In fact, ICC chairman Shashank Manohar, in his individual capacity, has more votes than BCCI at the present moment," a senior BCCI official said.

It is understood that BCCI officials are also concerned that such a stand might cost them the hosting rights of the 2021 Champions Trophy and the 2023 World Cup.

IOC suspends discussions with India for hosting global events

PTI ■ LAUSANNE/NEW DELHI

The denial of visas to Pakistani shooters in the Delhi World Cup has jeopardised India's chances of hosting the Olympics or any global event with the International Olympic Committee (IOC) suspending all such discussions with the country and recommending that no big tournament be awarded to it.

India denied visas to Pakistani shooters for the World Cup that starts on Saturday in the wake of the Pulwama terror attack. As a result, the IOC revoked the two Olympic quotas on offer in the men's 25m Rapid Fire Pistol competition of the event.

However, the bigger repercussion was the world body's declaration that it would not engage with India on discussions to host major events. The country aspires to host the 2026 Youth Olympics, the 2032 Summer Olympics and the 2030 Asian Games.

The Indian Olympic Association (IOA) has already sent an expression of interest to the IOC for the 2032 Games and the bidding process for the 2026 showpiece is expected to start next year.

The IOC said its stand against the country will remain until clear "written guarantees are obtained from the Indian government to ensure the entry of all participants in such events in full compliance with the rules of the Olympic charter."

"This situation (at the ISSF World Cup) goes against the fundamental principles of the Olympic charter, in particular the principles of non-discrimination..." the IOC stated after a meeting of its executive board in Lausanne on Thursday evening.

"As a result, the IOC executive board also decided to suspend all discussions with the Indian NOC and government regarding the potential appli-

IOC TAKES AWAY 2 QUOTA, SPARES 14

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

The International Olympic Committee (IOC) decided against withdrawing all the Olympic quotas from the shooting World Cup here and revoked just two after visas were denied to Pakistani shooters in the aftermath of the Pulwama terror attack.

Within hours of International Shooting Federation (ISSF) President Vladimir Lisin's declaration that all the 16 quotas have been revoked due to the situation with Pakistan, the IOC said the Olympic qualification status has been withdrawn from only the men's 25m Rapid Fire Pistol event. This event had two spots on offer.

"The IOC restricted the withdrawal of recognition as an Olympic qualification event to the 25m rapid fire pistol competition in which the two Pakistani athletes were supposed to participate," the IOC said in a statement after its executive board meeting in Lausanne, Switzerland.

"This happened in the interest of the other 500 athletes from 61 countries participating in the other events who are already in India for their competition," it added.

The National Rifles Association of India (NRAI) heaved a sigh of relief a day before the start of the competition.

"The Organising Committee of the New Delhi World Cup wishes to unequivocally thank the ISSF President Vladimir Lisin, the ISSF Secretary General Alexander Ratner, the IOA President Dr Narinder Batra, and the Minister for Youth Affairs and Sports Col (Retd) RVS Rathore for ensuring the best possible outcome to a vexed and complex scenario," NRAI President Raninder Singh said.

ISSF World Cup: Apurvi, Anjum, Elavenil in action on day 1

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

Anjum Moudgil, Apurvi Chandela and Elavenil Valaraivan will lead India's charge in women's 10m air rifle event on the first day of competition at the season-opening ISSF shooting World Cup on Saturday.

The immensely talented Mehuli Ghosh will shoot in Minimum Qualification Score (MQS) at the Dr Karni Singh Range.

They are among 102 competitors from 44 nations in the fray in the women's 10m event. India have secured both their Olympic quotas in the event through Moudgil and Chandela at the World Championships last September.

Besides the men's 25m rapid fire pistol and the two 10m mixed team air rifle and air pistol events, the rest of the seven events in the five-day competition will distribute two Olympic quotas each.

India will compete for 12 quotas in six events, besides trying to win medals.

Spinner Bisht guides India to 66-run

PTI ■ MUMBAI

Left-arm spinner Ekta Bisht snared four wickets as Indian bowlers dished out a clinical effort to beat England by 66 runs in the first ODI of the ICC Women's Championship here on Friday.

Bisht returned with impressive figures of four for 25 to help Indian women defend a modest a 203-run target by bundling out England women for a paltry 136 in 41 overs to take a 1-0 lead in the three-match series.

Bisht was ably supported by pacer Shikha Pandey (2/21), Deepti Sharma (2/33) and veteran Jhulan Goswami (1/19) as India comfortably grabbed two points in the ICC Women's Championship.

For the visitors, Natalie Sciver top-scored with a 66-ball 44, while skipper Heather Knight remained unbeaten on 39.

Chasing the modest target, England, in fact, were in a comfortable position at 111 for three by the end of the 30th over before the visitors crumbled like a pack of cards, losing their last seven batswomen for just 24 runs to surrender the match.

Bisht wrecked England women by taking three wickets in a span of five balls in the 41st over to register the comfortable win for her side.

Earlier, young Jemimah Rodrigues top-scored for Indian women, scoring 48 off 58 balls while skipper Mithali Raj made 44 off 77 deliveries.

Asked to bat, openers Smriti Mandhana (24) and Rodrigues (48) gave a steady start to India's innings sharing 69 runs for the opening wicket.

But just after the drinks break, Mandhana played on a Georgia Elwiss delivery while going for a pull. India then lost Deepti Sharma (7), who was stumped by Sarah Taylor off Sophie Ecclestone.

Ecclestone, stuck in her very next over, removing a well-set Jemimah as India slumped to 92 for 3.

Then Sciver struck twice in the 22nd over -- first removing debutant Harleen Deol (2) and then Mona Meshram (0) as India looked in a spot of bother.

But Raj and wicket-keeper Bhatia then joined hands and steadied the ship with a 54-run stand off 94 balls for the sixth wicket.

Raj, who struck four boundaries, was poised for another fifty before she was trapped in front of the wicket by Elwiss in the 42nd over.

After Raj's dismissal, wickets kept tumbling at the other end before Goswami chipped in with a handy 30-run knock off 37 balls, which included three fours and a six, to take the hosts past the 200-run mark.

Pak Olympic Association hails IOC decision

PTI ■ KARACHI

The National Olympic Association of Pakistan (POA) on Friday supported its parent body IOC for removing Olympic quotas in the men's 25m rapid fire pistol event of the ongoing ISSF World Cup in Delhi, where its country's shooters could not compete due to visa issues.

POA President, General (ret'd) Arif Hasan, said it was disappointing that two Pakistani shooters were not allowed to participate in the ISSF event in Delhi.

The Indian High Commission didn't issue visa to the two shooters and team manager after the Indian Shooting body, NRAI, had assured the International Shooting Federation (ISSF) that it had got clearance from the host country's home ministry for the visa.

"We were very disappointed once our athletes were not allowed to participate for an event for which they had been preparing for a very long time. We have always been of the view that sports must be used as a means to build bridges between communities and countries," Arif Hasan said in a statement.

"Greatly disappointed we had no option left but to refer the matter to the IOC. As a consequence, the IOC Executive Board took a very prudent and balanced decision," he said. We are very grateful to the IOC for this very well considered decision whereby the right of athletes to participate without any let or hindrance has been upheld."

Pakistan had nominated Ghulam Mustafa Bashir and Muhammad Khalil Akhtar, to contest in the 25m rapid fire pistol event.

Disappointing to see cricket being targeted: Sarfaraz

PTI ■ KARACHI

Sarfaraz Ahmed is "disappointed" that cricket is being targeted after the Pulwama terror attack and said the high-profile India-Pakistan World Cup game should go ahead as planned despite calls for the match's boycott from several quarters of the neighbouring country.

The Pakistan captain insisted that sports should never be mixed with politics and said in the interest of the cricket crazy fans of both the countries, the match should be played.

"The India and Pakistan match should be played as per schedule as there are millions of people who want to watch this game. I just don't think cricket should be targeted for political gains," Sarfaraz told the CricketPakistan.Com.Pk website.

"It is disappointing to see cricket being targeted after the Pulwama incident. I don't recall Pakistan ever mixing sports with politics," he said.

The fate of the much-anticipated World Cup match to be held on June 16 at the Old Trafford lies in limbo after several former Indian cricketers called for its boycott in the aftermath of the ghastly terror attack.

"Sports should just be taken as sports," Sarfaraz added.

The call to boycott the match has come from some prominent names in Indian cricket such as senior off-spinner Harbhajan Singh and former captain Mohammed Azharuddin.

But offering a different view, batting great Sunil Gavaskar and Sachin Tendulkar have stated that India should not hand over points to Pakistan by boycotting the game. They, however, advocated continued shunning of bilateral cricket ties.

Former Pakistan captain and batting great Javed Miandad too was of the view that the game shouldn't be targeted.

"I felt bad after hearing about our pictures being removed from their (Indian) stadiums. Now this talk of boycotting the World Cup. I think India need to understand they can face consequences of such an action," Miandad said.

"I don't understand the mindset. Do they really think they (India) can get away without playing the World Cup match?" he asked.

He said India need to change its policy of mixing sports with politics.

"I just hope better sense prevails."

Need to play spin better: Knight

PTI ■ MUMBAI

Undeterred by the 66-run loss in the opening women's ODI international against India, England skipper Heather Knight on Friday said the World Cup holders are capable of bouncing back in the three-match series.

"The total was perfectly chaseable. We lost the first game in the World Cup. We have lost games earlier in the series and come back as well. We are taking one game at a time. We need to build partnerships," Knight said at the post-match conference.

"We bowled well, but were unlucky not to take more wickets up front. But we were more than happy with 200 (plus) to chase," insisted Heather, who remained unbeaten on 39 in 66 balls.

Conceding that the team were unable to play spin well on Friday, Heather said the key was to play a couple of overs to gauge the turn and bounce.

"I don't think we played it

(spin) particularly well today. The pitch started to turn and deteriorated too. There was inconsistent spin as well which makes it harder. It was sticky, it turned but once you got to play 15-20 balls it became easier to play shots. The first 10-15 balls were the key," she said.

First time I've taken three wickets in an over in ODIs: Ekta

PTI ■ MUMBAI

Left-arm orthodox bowler Ekta Bisht, who starred in India women's 66-run win over England women in the opening ODI here on Friday, said this was the first time she had scalped three wickets in an over in the fifty over format although she has a hat-trick in T20 cricket.

The 33-year-old left arm spinner from Uttar Pradesh, who finished with fine figures of four for 25 against the current world champions, also credited newly-appointed coach W V Raman, for her success.

"I have taken a hat-trick in T20, but this is the first time in ODIs that I have taken three wickets in an over. But, I have figures of 10 overs, 8 runs and 5 wickets against Pakistan," the Almora-born Bisht told reporters at the post match media conference.

Bisht took three wickets in the 41st over to seal India's win and help the hosts take a 1-0 lead in the three-match series, and more importantly, grab two points in the ICC Women's Championship.

"Whenever Raman sir finds any fault, he makes it a point to come and rectify those errors. He stresses on little points and that helps us. Earlier, I was bowling sideways, but he told me to change that action a bit and that helped," said Bisht, crediting Raman, who started his career as a left-arm spinner.

Bisht also said that they expected the pitch to help the spinners later in the day.

"In the morning it looked the ball would skid. But later, when I spoke to Poonam (Yadav) and other spinners, we figured out that we will reap benefits in the second innings. With time, it will turn and it happened that way. Even other bowlers got help," she added.

She also praised pacers Jhulan Goswami and Shikha Pandey for bowling well up front.

"When they were three down for 114, we decided not to give up. We fielded well and bowlers like Jhulan di and Shikha backed us well. Shikha bowled very well," Bisht said.

"Jhulan di and Shikha gave breakthroughs and took key wickets. When I came in the 11th over, my target was to keep up the pressure. I did not go for wickets. The idea was to restrict runs. Initially I bowled slow, but in the second spell the wicket had dried up. Then, I bowled my normal deliveries and did not try too many variations."

London clubs reach last 16

Arsenal overcome first leg deficit to see off BATE Borisov 3-0(1); Chelsea beat Malmo in similar fashion

AFP ■ LONDON

Arsenal and Chelsea reached the last 16 of the Europa League on Thursday after the Gunners comfortably saw off BATE Borisov 3-0 and Maurizio Sarri's troubled side relieved some of the pressure on him with the same scoreline against mediocre Malmo.

After falling 1-0 in Belarus, Arsenal was level on aggregate after just three minutes when Zakhar Volkov sliced Aubameyang's low cross past Denis Scherbitski in his own goal.

Unai Emery's side deservedly went through thanks to two thumping headers from Shkodran Mustafi and Sokratis either side of the break which put them into Friday's draw.

Ahead 2-1 from the first leg in Sweden, Chelsea had to wait until 10 minutes after the break for the first sign of excitement, Olivier Giroud tapping in the decisive goal of a humdrum encounter at Stamford Bridge.

Ross Barkley made sure of the win with a super free-kick in the 74th minute, just after Malmo's Rasmus Bengtsson was sent off for his second bookable offence, before 18-year-old Hudson-Odoi made the most of a rare start by crashing home the third.

Carlo Ancelotti's Napoli breezed to a 2-0 win over FC Zurich that saw them win 5-1 on aggregate, while Inter Milan went through 5-0 after sweeping four goals past Rapid Vienna without reply at the San Siro.

RENNES MAKE HISTORY

French side Rennes are into the last 16 of a major European tournament for the first time after winning possibly the most entertaining tie of the round 6-4 on aggregate following a barnstorming 3-1 win at Real Betis.

Goals from Ramy Bensebaini and Adrien Hunou fired Rennes into a two-goal lead within the opening half-hour but the tie was put back in the balance when Giovanni Lo Celso pulled one back four minutes before half-time.

With Betis pushing to equalise and go through on away goals, M'Baye Niang finished off an injury time break to see the mid-table Ligue 1 side through.

RB Salzburg, Dinamo Zagreb and Zenit Saint Petersburg all overturned first-leg deficits, with Austrians Salzburg hammering Club Brugge 4-0 to go through 5-2 and Croatian champions Dinamo 4-2 winners on aggregate after a storming 3-0 victory over Viktoria Plzen.

Zenit overcame Fenerbahce 3-1 in Russia, Magomed Ozdov and Sardar Azmoun giving the hosts an aggregate lead before Mehmet Topal put the

"The boys really played well today. We worked hard throughout the game. The goal that came at the end was definitely a bonus for the way that we played."

Eintracht Frankfurt saved Germany's blushes by sweeping past Shakhtar Donetsk with a pulsating 4-1 win that gave them side a 6-3 aggregate victory.

FIFA hands Chelsea transfer ban

LONDON: Premier League club Chelsea have been banned from signing new players in the next two transfer windows as punishment for breaking rules on registering under-age players, FIFA said on Friday.

It means the club — who immediately said they would appeal the decision — will be unable to make signings until the end of January next year.

"The disciplinary committee sanctioned Chelsea with a ban on registering new players at both national and international level for the next two complete and consecutive registration periods," FIFA said in a statement.

In addition, Chelsea were fined 600,000 Swiss francs ($600,000, 530,000 euros) and given a period of 90 days to regularise the situation of the minor players concerned.

Chelsea have been given three days to appeal against FIFA's decision, which could prove highly damaging, for example preventing the club from signing a replacement for Eden Hazard if the star player leaves the club.

Arsenal face Rennes in last 16

AFP ■ PARIS

Arsenal will face French side Rennes in the last 16 of the Europa League, while Chelsea were paired with Dynamo Kiev in Friday's draw.

Both Premier League clubs will be at home in the first leg on Thursday, March 7, with the return matches scheduled for March 14.

Arsenal's draw means that their veteran goalkeeper Petr Cech will return to face the club he represented for two seasons before joining Chelsea in 2004.

The Brittany club finished fifth in Ligue 1 last season and are currently in mid-table, but have impressed since the 38-year-old Julien Stephan was appointed as coach in December.

Arsenal manager Unai Emery — who won the Europa League three years running as coach of Sevilla — is familiar with Rennes from his two seasons in charge of Paris Saint-Germain.

London rivals Chelsea, the other Premier League club still in the competition, might also view winning the Europa League as their most likely route into next season's Champions League.

After beating Swedish side Malmo, they might find the going tougher against Ukrainian giants Dynamo.

The clubs met in the group stage of the Champions League in 2015-16, drawing 0-0 in Kiev before Chelsea won 2-1 at Stamford Bridge.

Elsewhere, Sevilla, who have won the trophy five times including twice in its former guise as the UEFA Cup, will face Slavia Prague.

Widely-fancied Napoli will take on the Austrian champions Salzburg, who reached the semi-finals last season.

Former European Cup finalists and UEFA Cup winners Eintracht Frankfurt were drawn against Inter Milan, who won the UEFA Cup three times in the 1990s.

Benfica face Dinamo Zagreb, while Valencia's reward for knocking out Celtic is a tie against FC Krasnodar of Russia.

That is one of two ties between Russian and Spanish sides, with Zenit Saint Petersburg drawn against Villarreal.

The final of this season's Europa League will be played in Baku, the capital of Azerbaijan, on May 29.

Low expectations is great place to start from: Vihari

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

Hanuma Vihari has been punching above his weight ever since he made his India debut and that's why he is ready to deal with "low expectations" in a bid to change the popular perception of not being good enough for the T20 format in the upcoming IPL.

Vihari is back in the IPL, which starts March 23, with the Delhi Capitals after going unsold at the auction for three years primarily due to an unimpressive strike rate of sub 100.

"I think because of the slow strike-rate of the past, people won't have expectations from me, which can be a great thing. I take it positively, because now I have a chance to prove them all wrong," Vihari said.

The Delhi Capitals have a star-studded top order with Shikhar Dhawan, Prithvi Shaw, skipper Shreyas Iyer and the indomitable Rishabh Pant in the ranks.

Vihari knows it will be a fight to get into the playing XI but he is ready to don the role of a finisher the same way he agreed to open in unfamiliar conditions in Melbourne.

"Honestly, given that I am playing the IPL after a three-year gap, I am ready to go out there and bat anywhere the management asks me to, whether it's at the top of the order, or in the role of a finisher."

"On my part, I am really in a great mental space and a great position as far as my game is concerned. I am really well-prepared for everything right now," the 25-year-old batsman said.

He was a part of Sunrisers Hyderabad in 2013 but a lot has changed since then. He has scored loads of runs for India A and also struck a fifty against England on his Test debut.

"I am excited, and fully ready for the season ahead with Delhi Capitals. Mainly because in these three years, I have developed so much as a player."

"I am much more confident of performing now. Also, we have a great mix of Indian and foreign players. I am really looking forward to playing under Shreyas and Ricky's (Ricky Ponting) leadership," Vihari said.

Short working on his spin to enhance selection chances

PTI ■ MELBOURNE

Dashing Australian batsman D'Arcy Short is working on his left-arm spin bowling with former India twerker Sridharan Sriram to enhance selection in the team for the limited over series starting with the first T20I in Vizag on Sunday.

"I did a lot of work with him (Sriram) in the A tour in August and September. That was good then and I've done a bit of work with him yesterday and today, just refining things and getting a little bit better," he was quoted as saying by cricket.Com.Au.

"If I can give two or three overs or even four or five in one-day cricket then it's always going to help my selection in the end and hopefully it goes in my favour," added Short, who is in the 15-man squad as cover for Shaun Marsh.

The 28-year-old has claimed 10 wickets in 15 games for Hobart Hurricanes this season besides amassing 637 runs at 53.08 and a strike rate of 140.61.

Sriram said Short can offer a lot to the team with his spin bowling.
