Federal front gathers mass

Bid on to revive non-BJP, non-Cong entity in case of fractured verdict

DEEPAK KUMAR JHA ■
NEW DELHI

With just two phases of Lok Sabha polls remaining, there is an attempt to revive the idea of a non-BJP and non-Congress "federal front" that could occupy centre stage in the Government formation in case of a fractured verdict by the voters.

After holding talks with Kerala Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan, Telangana Chief Minister K Chandrashekar Rao (KCR) is trying to hold similar parleys with DMK chief Stalin in Chennai. There is no official confirmation about the meeting so far, but sources said it may take place on May 13 if Stalin agrees to hold talks with the TRS chief, who is seen close to the BJP camp.

Meanwhile, Karnataka Chief Minister HD Kumaraswamy has also contacted KCR and expressed his willingness to hold talks with him on formulating Opposition's future course of action in case of a split verdict at the Centre.

Congress sources said the party will be ready to extend support to any formulation like a "federal front" if it could become platform to keep BJP out of power. A senior Congress leader said none of the major political parties — the BJP and the Congress — are likely to get the numbers to form a Government. "That would make the so-called federal front a viable alternative," he said.

"In that case the grand old party will not hesitate to repeat Karnataka and we may extend support to the federal front," said the leader.

In Karnataka Assembly polls last year when the BJP, despite being the single largest party, could not form a Government, the Congress extended its support to the third largest party giving an opportunity to Kumaraswamy to be the CM.

In March, KCR had mooted the idea of a "federal front" and initiated efforts to provide an alternative to both the BJP and the Congress and subsequently met leaders of Trinamool Congress, Biju Janta Dal, Samajwadi Party, Janata Dal (S) and DMK. Sources said he also invited the YSR

Congress Party to join the proposed front.

"With the Lok Sabha election results to be declared on May 23, KCR is planning meetings with leaders of various parties to prepare the ground for formation of a non-BJP, non-Congress Government.

While a National Front (NF) coalition led by Janata Dal formed a Government between 1989 and 1990 with VP Singh and Chandra Shekhar as Prime Ministers, a United Front Government was formed

Priyanka likens Modi to rude Duryodhana

Election results will determine whether Modi is Duryodhana or Arjun, says Shah

PNS ■ CHANDIGARH

Launching a blistering attack at the Narendra Modi Government, Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra on Tuesday invoked the fate of Mahabharata's main villain Duryodhana to warn that the country has never forgiven such arrogance.

Addressing a rally in Ambala (Haryana), Priyanka, used the Mahabharata analogy to hit back at Modi over his "bhrashtachari (corrupt) No. 1" jibe at her father Rajiv Gandhi and said the Mahabharata character Duryodhana too had "such arrogance".

The Congress leader also dared Modi to fight the Lok Sabha elections on issues like development rather than diverting the people's attention.

Priyanka said the country has never forgiven ego and arrogance. "History is witness to this, Mahabharata is witness to this...Duryodhana too had such arrogance. When Lord Krishna went to make him understand, he tried to take him captive," she said.

The Congress general secretary for UP also read out a couplet by Hindi poet Ramdhari Singh Dinkar, saying wisdom is the first casualty before someone's downfall, "Jab naash manush par chhata hai, pehle vivek mar jata hai..."

BJP president Amit Shah slammed Priyanka for comparing the PM with Duryodhana and said the election outcome on May 23 will determine whether Modi is Duryodhan or Arjun.

"Priyanka has compared Modi ji with Duryodhana. People of the country will decide who is Duryadha and who is Arjun on May 23? Priyanka ji, do not worry, people will tell you whether Modi ji is Duryodan or Arjun," Shah said at an election rally in Bengal's Midnapore.

The woman complainant said, "The in-house proceeding rules are now being used to deny me and the public a right to the report... It appears from the press release that even I, the complainant, will not be provided with a copy of the report.

I have a right to the report, the reasons for the same as well as copies of the depositions of any witnesses, any other persons or any other evidence considered by the Committee."

Digvijaya seeks refuge in sadhus to take on Sadhvi

STAFF REPORTER ■ BHOPAL

Hundreds of sadhus on Tuesday landed in Bhopal to seek votes for the Congress Lok Sabha candidate Digvijaya Singh and campaign against BJP nominee Pragya Singh Thakur. Digvijaya's excessive inclination to religious events is seen as a move to negate BJP's candidate Pragya's image as religious poster girl.

Digvijaya also took part in religious rituals with his wife Amrita Singh and sought blessings of the sadhus who were led by Computer Baba, aka Namdev Das Tyagi, former close aide of Shivraj Singh Chouhan.

Led by Computer Baba, they will camp in Bhopal for three days. They undertook Hath Yoga on Tuesday, followed by a road show. Hath Yoga involves asanas (positions) that help in relaxing and breathing control.

Noida's budding Hawking cut off in prime

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

Vinayak Sreedhar, who idolised Stephen Hawking, scored nearly 100 in all the three subjects he appeared for during the CBSE 10 examination, and passed away in March before he could write the remaining two.

Sreedhar suffered from duchenne muscular dystrophy which is a genetic disorder characterised by progressive muscle degeneration and weakness. He scored 100 in English, 96 in School, and 97 in Sanskrit and could not appear for Computer Science and Social Studies.

Topping the class 10 board exams, becoming an astronaut and a trip to Rameswaram are among some of the unfulfilled wishes of Sreedhar, who was diagnosed with muscular dystrophy when he was two-years-old.

Duchenne muscular dystrophy is caused due to the absence of dystrophin, a protein that helps keep muscle cells intact.

The results for the class 10 Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) examination were announced on Monday.

The Amity International School, Noida, student appeared for the exams under the general category and not the Children With Special Need (CWSN) category.

"His muscular movement was very limited. He could write slowly but since there is a time duration for exams he used a scribe to write English and Science exam. For Sanskrit, he insisted to write himself. His body movement was restricted and he was wheelchair-bound, but his mind was very sharp and aspirations very high," Mamta Sreedhar, his mother, told PTI.

"He would always say I want to become an astronaut despite all the challenges and would say if Stephen Hawking could go to Oxford and make a name in Cosmology I can go to space too. He was confident that he will be among top rankers. We were always amazed with his confidence and would encourage him further," she added.

Legendary British theoretical physicist Stephen Hawking also suffered from a motor neuron disease.

Sreedhar had plans to visit Rameswaram temple near Kanyakumari after his exams were over. "We are today in Rameswaram and are going for darshan in the evening. It was his unfulfilled wish so we decided to not postpone the plans and do it for him," his mother said.

However, Vinayak Sreedhar is not the only one in his family to make his parents proud. His sister is an Indian Institute of Science (IISc) alumna and is currently pursuing her Phd at the University of British Columbia on a fellowship.

While Vinayak's father is vice president in GMR, his mother is a home maker by choice. "I made this choice. My entire day revolved around him. From brushing his teeth to feeding him, I did it all myself but it was his willpower which always gave us the strength," his mother said.

MCD to appoint more bin guards in city

PNS ■ DEHRADUN

In order to manage the proper sanitation level of the city, the Municipal Corporation of Dehradun (MCD) will be appointing more bin guards at various places in the city. The MCD has marked seven major points in the old 60 wards where these bin guards will be appointed for now. It is pertinent to mention here that the municipal commissioner Vinay Shankar Pandey took a meeting of the officials in the month of February this year. Pandey said, "We have given the task to appoint bin guards in the city to the Chennai based company. The company is also handling the door to door garbage collection in the city. Keeping a bin guard especially in the areas where the garbage collection is more is very important. It will ensure the cleanliness and proper bleaching of the spots. The guard will also be given the responsibility of updating the official concern when the garbage bin is full. Also, the guard will make sure that no person throws garbage around the garbage bin." The municipal commissioner further said, "We have identified seven such spots in the city and some of the places have bin guards posted while the rest will be appointed soon."

Mental issues on rise in U'khand

ISHA SINGH ■ DEHRADUN

There is a considerable rise in the number of people of all age groups suffering from various mental disorders throughout the State. Experts point out that this is partly also due to rising public awareness as now more people approach professionals for help in case of psychological issues. However, stigma attached to such conditions still prevents some from seeking expert help first. According to neuro psychologist Dr Sona Kaushal Gupta, "While children aged 8-12 years are being brought in for issues like addiction to mobile phone and television, there are increasing numbers of adolescents being brought in for problems including social media addiction, anxiety, irritation and insomnia. The adults usually come with problems related to alcoholism, Obsessive Compulsive Disorder (OCD) and anger related issues." Psychiatrist in Government Doon Medical College hospital and GDMC Psychiatry department head, Dr J S Rana states, "The most diagnosed problems among the people in Uttarakhand include depression, anxiety, OCD, phobias, stress and other psychotic disorders. While there is a rise of issues like attention deficiency hyperactive disorder (ADHD) and substance abuse among the school going children, there are rising cases of alcoholism among the middle aged population. He further said, "Due to the stigmatised nature of mental illnesses, some people are still hesitant and ashamed to come out. They are often late in seeking expert help for their problems. In many of the cases the patient first tends to consult a priest or a local healer. Even after being medically diagnosed, patients fail to attend regular follow-ups. However, youth have played a positive role in contributing towards sensitising and creating awareness among people through seminars and workshops in recent years. Still, action is still needed to strengthen the system to address such issues in the state." In order to deal with the issues, Dr Rana says that the most important thing is contentedness in life. People should accept their failures and work towards their family. Clinical psychologist Preetima Varma opines, "The cause of the increasing mental disorders is the complex lifestyles we are now living. We've forgotten that we are humans and our family structures are weak. People are failing to take some time off and do something for themselves. With increasing family, professional, societal and self-pressure, people have failed to prioritise things in life which eventually leaves them without any or appropriate coping mechanism which leads to various problems."

Pirul policy finding favour with entrepreneurs

PNS ■ DEHRADUN

The much acclaimed Power from Pirul (dried Pine needles) policy and the subsidy offered by the state government in the venture is finding favour with the entrepreneurs. As many as 21 people have submitted applications for setting up Pirul based projects in the state. It is learnt that almost all applicants are residents of Uttarakhand.

In order to give another push for setting up Pirul based projects in the state, the state government has decided to provide land on lease to the entrepreneurs.

The draft of the policy for providing land on lease is also ready and would be tabled in the state cabinet anytime after the model code of conduct in the state is removed. Talking to The Pioneer, the additional secretary, power and renewable energy, Captain (retd) Alok Shekhar Tiwari said that 20 entrepreneurs have shown interest to set up power projects while one has applied for the project of making bricks from Pirul. He said that under the scheme, power units ranging from 1 KW to 500 KW can be set up in the state and under the agreement with the state government, the Uttarakhand Power Corporation Limited (UPCL) would purchase the power produced at Rs 7.41 per unit, which is a big encouragement.

He said that the state and district level bankers committees have been asked to provide easy loans to the entrepreneurs interested to set up Pirul based projects in the state.

The state government offers a subsidy of 40 percent for setting up Pirul based power plants. Tiwari added that at least 12 people get direct employment in a small power plant while up-to 150 people get indirect employment.

According to a rough estimate, Pine trees occupy a space of 4 lakh hectares of land in the state and cover 16.36 percent of total forest area of Uttarakhand. An estimated 15 lakh tonnes of Pirul is produced by the Pine forests of the state.

As per the official figures, 40 percent of this Pirul can be used for industrial and other uses. Industrial use of Pirul is one of the pet projects of Uttarakhand chief minister Trivendra Singh Rawat.

Apart from power generation from Pirul, the objective of the state government is to create employment opportunities in the mountainous areas of the state. The large scale industrial usage of Pirul is also beneficial for the environment.

Due to its highly inflammable nature, Pirul is one of the major causes of forest fires during summers.

PNS ■ DEHRADUN

The night navigation training excursion proved fatal for Gentleman Cadet (GC) Amul Rawal of Indian Military Academy (IMA) when he fell into a gorge during the training on Monday night and lost his life.

The cadets of the second term were undergoing routine night navigation exercise in mountainous terrain when GC Rawal met with the accident.

The Public Relations Officer (PRO) of the IMA, Dehradun, Lieutenant Colonel Shivendra Singh said that GC Amul Rawal sustained head injury and was given immediate medical attention on the spot.

"He was rushed in an ambulance to Military Hospital, Dehradun under the supervision of a medical officer."

However, he succumbed to his injuries and was declared brought in dead at the Military Hospital, Dehradun," he said.

The parents of the GC Amul Rawal who reside in Karnal in Haryana were informed about the tragic accident by the IMA authorities.

The family members of the GC arrived in the IMA on Tuesday to claim his mortal remains.

GC Rawal was an ex NDA cadet who had joined Indian Military Academy in January 2019 after three years of training at National Defence Academy.

He was to pass out from the academy in December this year. The IMA authorities have ordered a procedural Court of Inquiry (CoI) in the incident.

The unfortunate death of a GC during the night navigation training has brought back the memory of back to back deaths of two cadets in the year 2017.

In August 2017, GCs Deepak Sharma and Nabin Kumar Chhetri died when they reportedly fainted during strenuous 10 kilo-meter run.

At that time these two deaths had shocked the premier military training institute of the country and questions were raised about the safety of the training methods adopted in the premier academy.

ousness with which the authorities are working on their claims of encouraging tourism in the Tehri lake. On Tuesday, the vessel tilted and got partially submerged in the reservoir's waters. It is also possible that the vessel had developed a leak.

and ground reality when it comes to efforts being made to boost tourism in locations including the Tehri dam reservoir.

Modi hates himself, not me: Rahul

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ KOLKATA

Once bitten doubly cautious Rahul Gandhi on Tuesday displayed some lessons of "Gandhigiri" and evaded questions of his Prime Ministerial ambitions saying it was the people of the country that would decide his fate in the eventual run.

Negotiating a poser on whether he was a prime ministerial aspirant Gandhi told Bengali television channel that it was "not me but the people of the country who are the real boss of the situation to decide the issue."

The Congress president had last year earned faced sharp criticisms for making a candid statement that he had no problems becoming the Prime Minister of the country.

Rahul who spoke in the sidelines of an election rally at Purulia asserted his Gandhigiri which "Mahatma Gandhi himself derived from the Indian historical traditions and the large Indian masses," saying he would not hate Prime Minister Narendra Modi "howsoever does he hate me."

Rahul said in reference to Modi's earlier jab that late Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi was a "bharashtrachari number 1" that Modi's "hatred," was not against me or my father but against himself. He said the earlier rounds of polls have already decided the fate of his Government. "Knowing he has already lost the elections Modi is filled with anger which is converted into hatred. This Modi is not the Modi we know. This Modi is the one who hates himself out of the sheer fear of defeat. It is clear that he is facing defeat," Rahul said.

On Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee's repeated reference of Him as a bacchha (child) Gandhi said "everyone has his or her right to free thinking. I respect Mamataji. Our differences are political and not personal. Every time she says something I learn something by refusing to speak back. This I do in case of every one."

Saying that CPI(M) general secretary Prakash Karat had all the right to try and defeat him in Kerala, Gandhi said "as a chief of a political party he is entitled to do so. But I will not say a thing against him."

Earlier in the day Mamata Banerjee and BJP president Amit Shah traded charges against each other with the former telling an election rally that the Modi Government was a government of liars as it had failed on every count save spreading hatred.

"Modi is an arrogant person who has only job is to spread hatred and set one community or caste against the other to earn votes. But his days are numbered and he will soon be going out of power along with his arrogance," Shah however said that real reign of hatred had been unleashed by Banerjee who would be out of power after the general elections as "we will win 23 seats from Bengal on May 23."

Centre announces ₹2,160 crore additional drought relief to Maha

TN RAGHUANTHA ■ MUMBAI

Close on the heels of the Election Commission of India (ECI) relaxing the Model Code of Conduct to facilitate implementation of drought relief works, the Centre on Tuesday announced an additional financial assistance of Rs 2,160 crore to Maharashtra to undertake scarcity relief in affected areas of the state.

With the latest grant, the total drought relief assistance received by the Maharashtra government from the Centre has gone up to Rs 4,248.59 crore. "Thank you Hon PM @narendramodiji for giving another installment of Rs 2160 crore towards drought mitigation measures from NDRF in the state of Maharashtra! Total assistance received so far is Rs 4248.59 crore," Maharashtra chief minister Devendra Fadnavis tweeted.

In a statement issued separately, Fadnavis said that his government had been taking been taking measures like reaching drinking water to the drought-affected villages through tankers and setting up fodder shelters etc. "Without waiting for the relief from the Centre, we have deposited more than Rs 4,000 crore in the bank accounts of the drought-affected farmers," Fadnavis said, as he thanked the ECI for relaxing model code of conduct to facilitate speedy implementation of drought relief works.

The ECI had during the weekend relaxed the Model Code of Conduct to facilitate effective implementation of relief works in 151 drought-affected villages in Maharashtra in view of public interest.

Responding to a letter written by Fadnavis after the completion of the four-phased Lok Sabha polls on April 30, the ECI — in a letter addressed to the State Chief Electoral Officer (CEO) — said it had no objection to the state government undertaking drought relief works in the affected areas "in view of public interest involved".

SC junks Opp review plea on 50% VVPAT verification

My Lords had agreed with our plea in principle, but increased the counting from one VVPAT to only five. My Lords, 50 per cent was not 'viable' at this point of time during the Lok Sabha elections," Singhvi submitted.

The hearing that lasted barely a minute, Chief Justice Ranjan Gogoi responded, "We decline to review our order."

After the Supreme Court junked their plea, a delegation of Opposition leaders led by TDP chief N Chandrababu Naidu met Chief Election Commissioner Sunil Arora and other election commissioners and urged to protect democracy and bring transparency in electoral process. "The EC's job is to conduct elections in transparent manner, what we are asking for is. They have agreed to some points and they are working. Let them work, again we'll decide what to do," he said. "We respect the Supreme Court's order...But the party will not give up and continue its fight for transparency in the election process in the country. It's absolutely critical for the EC to work transparently to ensure free and fair elections," Naidu said in a statement.

Earlier, during the hearing, Singhvi said the apex court had increased the random matching of VVPAT slips with EVMs to five polling booths per Assembly segment and they are now seeking that it should be increased to 25 per cent at least. "It will be for the satisfaction of confidence building measures," Singhvi told the Bench also comprising Justices Deepak Gupta and Sanjay Khanna. TDP chief Naidu, NC leader Farooq Abdullah, CPI parliamentary D Raja and AAP MP Sanjay Singh, were present in the courtroom when the SC rejected the plea.

Citing issues with electronic voting machines (EVM) in the first few phases of polling for the Lok Sabha election, 21 Opposition parties including TDP chief N Chandrababu Naidu, National Conference leader Farooq Abdullah, CPI leader D Raja and Congress leader Abhishek Manu Singhvi had filed a review petition in the Supreme Court demanding verification of 50 per cent EVMs using Voter-Verified Paper Audit Trail (VVPAT) slips.

The petition claimed that after the first phase of polling, in many cases, EVMs were found to be defective and faulty. "It has been reported that in some cases where voters would vote for one party, EVMs would record their vote having been cast for another party," the review petition said.

The EC has consistently maintained that the glitches experienced in the first three phases of the seven-phase election are within acceptable limits in terms of number of defects. The poll body at present matches VVPAT slips of 4,125 EVMs under the "one EVM per Assembly segment" guideline. Following the court order, the Election Commission will have to count the VVPAT slips of five times as many machines in each constituency, or that of 20,625 EVMs.

Reacting after the SC ruling, Deputy Election Commissioner Sudeep Jain spoke to the media, saying the Opposition also demanded stricter guidelines to be implemented by the EC regarding verification of votes. "There is no doubt about the integrity of EVMs. Not a single EVM have recorded wrongly. Review petition had no new facts. We are happy with the Supreme Court order. It had examined all aspects and said five VVPATs will have to be counted instead of one. EVMs and VVPATs are perfect and we have no doubt they are tamper-proof," Jain said. "Counting of five VVPATs will delay overall counting by five hours. It takes an hour to count one VVPAT, with four more it will take another four hours...The election results may be out on May 23 night or 24 morning," he said.

Priyanka...

Priyanka's veiled attack at Modi came a day after Congress chief Rahul Gandhi used the boxer analogy at a rally in Haryana, referring to the alleged mistreatment meted out to veteran LK Advani in BJP.

Rahul had said in Bhiwani that the Prime Minister is a "boxer," who with his 56-inch chest entered the ring to fight unemployment and corruption but instead punched his own coach and veteran BJP leader LK Advani. Continuing the tirade against BJP, Priyanka said, "This election is about achievements of the BJP-led Central Government. But to hide their failures, they try to divert the attention of people of country."

"You are the PM, you are a big leader of the BJP. You should understand this... Otherwise the people will teach you a lesson. You cannot mislead the people. The people of this country make every leader answerable and they will make you answerable as well," she said while hitting out at Modi.

Attacking the PM for recently saying former Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi's life ended as "bharashtrachari number 1," she said, "These polls are not about one family, this election is about crores of families

She alleged that from the beginning she was treated as an outsider and was not informed of the procedure and her basic rights and obligations with regard to the inquiry proceedings. "Even according to the full bench judgment of the Delhi High court in the Assets disclosure case, such a report should be accessible to any citizen under the RTI. The full bench had held that even assets of judges would be accessible under RTI to any citizen.

Health dept terminates 35 absentee docs

PNS ■ DEHRADUN

After getting the approval of the Uttarakhand Public Service Commission, the Uttarakhand government has terminated the services of 35 medical officers who are y absent from their duties for long. The secretary, medical health and family welfare, Nitesh Jha has released the order of termination of jobs of these absentee doctors.

The services of these doctors were terminated after an inquiry by the health department revealed that these doctors are absent from their places of posting from quite long time and have not cared to even reply various notices and warnings issued by the department from time to time.

Most of these doctors were deployed in the hospitals located in remote and mountainous areas.

The department found that these doctors are either engaged in private practice or are working in some private hospitals.

In view of the large number of vacant posts of doctors, the department was so far adopting a lenient view on them from quite some time.

The department had prepared a list of 218 absentee doctors last year after which they were issued notices to rejoin their duties. After this notice many doctors rejoined the service.

The Director General (DG) of state health services, Dr Ravindra Thapliyal said that the government has given a clear and tough message by terminating the jobs of absentee doctors.

The departmental data reveals that as many as 698 posts out of 1523 posts of medical officers are at present lying vacant. A staggering 50 percent of vacant posts of doctors have rendered the entire health system of state seriously ill.

In the remote and mountainous parts of the state the situation of absence of doctors is very alarming and in almost all such places the health services are nonexistent.

To fill the large number of vacant posts, the Uttarakhand Medical Services Recruitment Board (UMSRB) had undertaken a drive to recruit 712 medical officers last year but after all its efforts it could find only 481 candidates for these posts.

BJP lashes out at Opp

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

The BJP on Tuesday lashed out at the Opposition for its "silence" over the content of a video clip in which Tej Bahadur Yadav, whose candidature on an SP ticket from Varanasi Lok Saba seat was rejected, is reportedly talking about assassinating Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

"It's a very serious matter. It is about the Prime Minister's safety. It is about conspiracy to assassinate an elected prime minister. Why is the opposition silent?" BJP spokesperson Sambit Patra said here at a press conference.

He questioned if SP president Akhilesh Yadav and BSP supremo Mayawati will apologise for projecting him as their alliance's candidate against Modi in Varanasi.

The "sponsored attack" on Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal echoes for days but the Opposition is silent at this threat to Modi, he said.

The Prime Minister is being attacked even though what he said about former prime minister Rajiv Gandhi was a "statement of fact", Patra claimed.

On Supreme Court rejecting the opposition's review plea on VVPAT, he said their attack on electronic voting machines is an attempt to get an "anticipatory bail" for their impending loss in the general election.

The BJP is going to win more than 300 seats in the 543-member House, Patra claimed. On other hand, BJP Vice-President Bajant Panda said West Bengal Chief Minister was disturbed as the ground has shifted in the state in favour of the BJP.

New Delhi, May 7 (PTI) Congress MP Sushmita Dev on Tuesday claimed before the Supreme Court that the Election Commission has failed to appreciate that the alleged "hate speeches" by Prime Minister Narendra Modi and BJP Chief Amit Shah are "corrupt practices" and promote the feeling of enmity on religious grounds.

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

The Supreme Court on Tuesday transferred a case related to alleged custodial death of an accused in gang-rape and murder of a minor school girl in Himachal Pradesh's Kotkhai in 2017, from Shimla to Chandigarh.

A bench headed by Chief Justice Ranjan Gogoi transferred the case to Chandigarh after the CBI and the accused said they have no objection if the case was transferred from Shimla.

"We order transfer of the case to a competent CBI court in Chandigarh," the bench, which also comprised Justices Deepak Gupta and Sanjiv Khanna, said.

The counsel appearing for the CBI informed the bench that charge sheet has been filed in the case against several police officials ranging from constable to former Inspector General of Police (IGP).

The apex court had last month granted bail to former Himachal Pradesh IGP Zahur Haider Zaidi, an accused in the case, and said that it would later deal with the aspect of transferring the trial from a court in Himachal Pradesh.

The top court had in November last year sought responses from Zaidi, Deputy Superintendent of Police (Theog) Manoj Joshi and six other Himachal Pradesh policemen as to why the trial against them be not transferred from Shimla.

The CBI had earlier told the court that though the charge sheet has been filed, the trial in the case "has not seen the light of the day" and hence the matter be transferred to other court for expeditious disposal.

Zaidi and seven others were arrested in the custodial death case of Suraj, who was found dead at the Kotkhai police station on July 18, 2017.

A 16-year-old girl had gone missing in Kotkhai on July 4, 2017 and her body was found from the Halaila forests two days later on July 6.

The Supreme Court on Tuesday directed the Centre to review within a week the threat perception and consider granting adequate security to a person, whose unequivocal testimony in the sensational Nitish Katara murder case had led to the conviction of three accused.

Sources: Govt returns to collegium 2 names recommended for apex court

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

The Government is learnt to have returned to the collegium names of two high court chief justices recommended for elevation as judges of the Supreme Court, sources aware of the development said Tuesday.

On April 12, the Supreme Court collegium had recommended the names of Jharkhand High Court Chief Justice Aniruddha Bose, and Gauhati HC Chief Justice A S Bopanna for elevation to the top court.

Seniority and representation of regions have been cited as reasons behind the government's decision, the sources said.

While Justice Bose whose parent high court is Calcutta, is at number 12 in all-India seniority of judges, Justice Bopanna, whose parent high court is Karnataka, stands at number 36.

Last year, the government had returned Justice Bose's name to the collegium when he was recommended to head the Delhi high court.

"While recommending the names of Mr Justices Aniruddha Bose and A S

Bopanna, the collegium has taken into consideration, apart from their merit and integrity, combined seniority on all-India basis of chief justices and senior puisne judges of high courts.

"The collegium has also kept in mind the desirability of giving due representation on the bench of the Supreme Court, as far as possible, to all the high courts," the collegium resolution had read.

The Calcutta High Court is represented in the Supreme Court by Justice Indira Banerjee. Justices S M Mallikarjunaouda and S Abdul Nazeer represent the Karnataka HC.

At present, the Supreme Court has a working strength of 27. Its sanctioned strength is 31 judges, including the chief justice.

"Investigation was initiated under FEMA based on the information received from the Income Tax Department informing about transfer of money to the tune of ₹1 crore from India to Dubai through hawala channel by Harish Gahlot through a Delhi-based hawala dealer for making advance payments toward purchase of two flats in Dubai in September, 2018," the ED said.

Premises linked to the family and associates of Kailash Gahlot, Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) MLA and Delhi Transport minister, were raided by the I-T Department in October last year. The properties of his brother Harish Gahlot were also searched during the action by IT Department.

The tax department searches were conducted as part of a tax evasion probe against two firms — Brisk Infrastructure and Developers Pvt Ltd and Corporate International Financial Services Ltd — that are reportedly operated and owned by the family members of Kailash Gahlot.

Kailash Gahlot had denied any wrongdoing and the AAP had termed the action "political vendetta."

The ED probe revealed that in September, 2018 Harish Gahlot had given ₹1 crore cash to his younger son Nitesh Gahlot, who is an NRI and studying in Dubai, for sending this money to Dubai allegedly through unauthorised hawala channel, that denotes skirting legal banking route to transfer money, the agency said.

Jurist: Suppression of enquiry report on CJI dented credibility of judicial system

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

Suppression of the In-House Inquiry Committee report giving clean chit to Chief Justice Ranjan Gogoi on allegations of sexual harassment has dented the "prestige, credibility and integrity" of the judicial system, noted jurist Rakesh Dwivedi said on Tuesday.

The senior lawyer, who had earlier advocated "impartial enquiry" into the allegations, made scathing observations on the inquiry proceedings and non-disclosure of the report saying "scrutiny by people is the hall mark of justice".

The CJI Monday got a clean chit from a three-member Inquiry Committee headed by Justice S A Bobde which found "no substance" in the allegations of a former woman employee of the apex court and further ruled that the report was not "liable to be made public".

"It has been the trait of Monarchy, Imperialism, Dictatorships and Authoritarian Empires to shut out information and knowledge about what may supposedly impact them adversely so as to avoid scrutiny," Dwivedi told PTI.

"Why has our Highest Judiciary relapsed into this Monarchical and Dictatorial Scheme of dispensing justice by seeking refuge behind the smokescreen of informal in house enquiry at a time when the credibility of the Institution is at stake," he said.

The apex court should undergo 'Agni-Pariksha' and share the report with the public for larger interest of the judiciary, the noted jurist said.

The CJI, the person complained against, would get to see the report but not the complainant, nor the nation, he quipped.

"Please do not shirk collective responsibility. Judicial power vests there (full court). We look up for a responsible and democratic Judiciary. Please for God sake remove the blindfold from our eyes. Trust the people. People need Judiciary. They want its independence. They trust their judges. Do not betray their trust. You stand at the brink.

Don't run away from the Agni-Pariksha. Disclose the report to the people," he said.

He was critical of the argument that as the inquiry was "informal and in-house", the common public was "persona non grata" (unwelcome person).

An attempt has been made since beginning to "shut out the inquiry," Dwivedi said.

"Lets recall the Saturday emergent sitting of three judges with the CJI presiding to clear himself. Protests led to a panel of enquiry ratified by full court... The lady was denied lawyers assistance despite heavy atmosphere of depositing before three judges against their own senior most. This was difficult to understand..." he said.

Citing example, he said Judge Kavanaugh was examined by the US Senate in the process of appointment and the process "instilled confidence in the judicial System" and institutional integrity and credibility was preserved.

ED attaches cash worth ₹89L from Pawan Bansal's nephew

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

The Enforcement Directorate has attached cash worth ₹89.68 lakh in a money laundering case involving Vijay Singla, nephew of Congress leader and former railway minister Pawan Kumar Bansal.

ED initiated investigation under the provisions of PMLA on the basis of FIR and chargesheet filed by CBI under IPC section relating to criminal conspiracy and for provisions of the Prevention of Corruption Act. The CBI had chargesheeted Mahesh Kumar Member (Staff), Railway Board, Vijay Singla, Sandeep Goyal and seven other accused persons.

CBI investigation revealed that Mahesh Kumar, a 1975 batch officer of Indian Railway Service of Signal Engineers (IRSSE), was posted as General Manager, Western Railways. He wanted to get himself appointed as Member (Electrical), Railway Board instead of Member (Staff). For this he was in touch with N Manjunath, who was further in touch with Sandeep Goyal, a friend of Vijay Singla.

Vijay Singla demanded ₹10 crore through Sandeep Goyal from N Manjunath to get Mahesh Kumar posted as Member (Electrical). While delivering a token amount to Vijay Singla and Sandeep Goyal, the CBI team raided the premises of office of Vijay Singla at Sector 28, Chandigarh and recovered ₹89.68,000.

During the relevant period, Pawan Kumar Bansal was the Railway Minister and his nephew Vijay Singla was caught red handed while accepting a bribe of ₹89.68,000, the ED said in a statement.

ED probe revealed that N. Manjunath on behalf of Mahesh Kumar was persuading various Railway vendors/S&T manufacturers/contractors for making arrangement of bribe amount for promotion of Mahesh Kumar as Member (Electrical) by alluring them that all the contributors would be taken care of/benefited from the desired posting of Mahesh Kumar, the agency said.

Investigation further revealed that first installment of bribe amount of ₹89.68,000 was contributed by N Manjunath, MV Murli Krishna, Sushil Daga and private firm Venketeshwara Rail Nirman Pvt. Ltd.

Over 1 million plant species at risk: Report

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ NEW DELHI

More than one million of the estimated eight million plant and animal species on earth are at risk of vanishing- many of them within decades -because of lopsided human activities, a UN report has warned.

Painting a grim picture, the UN global assessment report prepared by over 100 scientists from the Intergovernmental Science-Policy Platform on Biodiversity and Ecosystem Services (IPBES) said that the biomass of wild mammals has fallen by 82 per cent, natural ecosystems have lost about half their area and a million species are at risk of extinction - all largely as a result of human actions.

Compiled over three years by more than 450 scientists and diplomats, the report ), the summary of which was approved at the 7th session of the IPBES Plenary, meeting last

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

- *75% of land environment and some 66% of marine environment significantly altered by human actions.
- *Over a third of world's land surface and nearly 75% of freshwater resources are used for crops or livestock.
- *Up to $577 billion in annual global crops are at risk from pollinator loss.
- *Between 100 million and 300 million people now face increased risk of floods and hurricanes due to loss of coastal habitats and protection.
- *Since 1992, world's urban areas have more than doubled.
- *Plastic pollution has increased tenfold since 1980
- *300-400 million tons of heavy metals, solvents, toxic sludge dumped into the world's water systems.

week (29 April - 4 May) in Paris said that the average abundance of native species in most major land-based habitats has fallen by at least 20 per cent, mostly since 1900.

"More than 40 per cent of amphibian species, almost 33 per cent of reef-forming corals and more than a third of all marine mammals are threatened. At least 680 vertebrate species had been driven to extinction since the 16th century and more than 9 per cent of all domesticated breeds of mammals used for food and agriculture had become extinct by 2016, with at least 1,000 more breeds still threatened," it said.

The overwhelming evidence of the IPBES Global Assessment, from a wide range of different fields of knowledge, presents an ominous picture, noted IPBES Chair, Sir Robert Watson. "The health of ecosystems on which we and all other species depend is deteriorating more rapidly than ever. We are eroding the very foundations of our economies, livelihoods, food security, health and quality of life worldwide," he added.

Based on the systematic review of about 15,000 scientific and government sources, the Report also draws (for the first time ever at this scale) on indigenous and local knowledge, particularly addressing issues relevant to Indigenous Peoples and Local Communities.

New Delhi: A delegation of 22 opposition parties, led by Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu, on Tuesday approached the Election Commission requesting for verification of all Voter-Verified Paper Audit Trail (VVPATs) in an assembly segment if discrepancy is found in counting of VVPAT slips of five random machines.

The delegation met the EC immediately after the Supreme Court dismissed a plea by opposition parties to review its judgment rejecting 50 per cent random physical verification of EVMs using VVPATs.

The delegation also demanded that the EC "suo motu" increase the physical counting of VVPAT slips with Electronic Voting Machines (EVM) vote count in order to restore voters' confidence, credibility, transparency and robustness of institutional mechanism of counting process.

The Supreme Court has directed the EC to count VVPAT slips of five random EVMs in each assembly segment.

Senior Congress leaders Ahmed Patel and Abhishek M Singhvi as well as National Conference leader Farooq Abdullah, CPI parliamentary D Raja and AAP MP Sanjay Singh were among other leaders present in the meeting.

"After the SC dismissed our petition, we came to the EC and requested it clearly that if any discrepancy is found in five VVPATs then what action it should take. Some of the booths are manipulated. Our demand is clear that all VVPATs in the entire assembly segment should be verified," Naidu told reporters after the meeting.

Naidu said the delegation told the EC that it is possible to count 50 per cent of VVPAT slips easily.

"There are 14 tables in every counting hall for an assembly constituency. Therefore the amount of time and energy in which slips from one VVPAT machine can be supervised by returning officer and observer is same for 14 VVPAT machines.

"Therefore slips from at least 70 VVPAT machines can be counted in the same time. If they are counting 5 VVPATs, then they can count 70 VVPATs at a time," he said.

The Telugu Desam Party (TDP) chief said that the EC has been requested to honour the demand of a candidate for recounting.

The delegation not only urged the EC to come out with revised guidelines in this regard at the earliest, but also asked it to investigate and publish on its website all cases of discrepancies found during the counting process. PTI

Film stars lose their sheen in elections

IAN S ■ LUCKNOW

Till the turn of the millennium, film stars guaranteed crowds and votes in politics. Political parties wooed them ardently. As a result, top stars like Rajesh Khanna, Vinod Khanna, Shatrughan Sinha, Raj Babbar, Dharmendra, Hema Malini, Jaya Prada, Govinda and Jaya Bachchan braved the heat and dust of campaigning for their political parties.

Some like Dharmendra and Govinda could not understand the manipulations of politics and called it a day after one term. Others like Raj Babbar, Shatrughan Sinha, Hema Malini and Jaya Bachchan continue to stand their ground.

However, if various political parties are to be believed, the stardust is losing its glitter and film stars can no longer guarantee a win on the seats they campaign for.

A clear indication of this is the fact that the demand for film stars as campaigners is rapidly going down in these elections.

A BJP candidate said: "There is no use getting film stars to campaign because they cannot give speeches and do not leave any impact on voters."

Explained senior journalist RK Singh: "The stars are losing their credibility because they lack conviction in what they say. People know that in most cases stars take money to campaign and this erodes their sincerity. Some stars like Ravi

Krishna and Manoj Tiwari have changed more parties than they have delivered hits.

Besides, he explained, the glamour factor has also reduced because film stars were now seen 24x7 on the social media and television.

"Earlier, people would wait for hours to catch a glimpse of their favourite actor but not any more. You just need to get on to the Internet and you can have your fill," he added.

Bhojpuri stars Ravi Kishan and Dinesh Yadav Nirahua, who are contesting the Gorakhpur and Azamgarh seats respectively, are already finding the going tough.

Raj Babbar, who is presently seeking election for his sixth term to Parliament and holds the position of Uttar Pradesh President, explains that it needs more than just stardom to survive in politics.

"Much before I started working in theatre and then films, I was associated with the socialist youth politics. I joined the Janata Dal in 1989 and actively participated in party activities. I later joined the Samajwadi Party and then the Congress.

"I never confined myself to campaigning and that is one reason why the parties and the people started taking me seriously," he says.

When Raj Babbar was appointed president of the Uttar Pradesh Congress in July 2016, few took him seriously in his own party. But two years later, they understood that he means business.

Hema Malini, Jaya Prada, Jaya Bachchan and most others have, on the other hand, confined themselves to campaigning in their own constituencies or in select constituencies. They have not actively involved themselves in party matters.

One actress who spoke to this correspondent on the condition of anonymity said: "I did try to get my word in a few times but was politely told to restrict myself to campaigning. I have understood that apart from my star value, I mean nothing to the party."

NYAY surgical strike on poverty: Rahul Gandhi

IAN S ■ JHALDA (WEST BENGAL)

Describing the ambitious Nyuntam Aay Yojana (NYAY) promised by his party as a "surgical strike on poverty", Congress President Rahul Gandhi on Tuesday said an amount of Rs 3.60 lakh would be given to each of the five crore poor families if his party was voted to power in the Lok Sabha elections.

"I give a guarantee that Hindustan's next Government will give the amount to each of the 5 crore families — that is 25 crore people in the next five years," Rahul told an election rally here in support of Congress candidate from Purulia Nepal Mahato.

"Wah wah, this a surgical strike on poverty," Rahul exclaimed.

Turning to farmers' issues, Gandhi said the law will be changed to ensure that farmers were not jailed for failing to repay bank loans.

"If India's farmer takes a loan of Rs 20,000 and fails to return, then are they sent to jail or not?" he asked.

Rahul said he doesn't find it right when rich people are not jailed after taking big amounts while the farmers are caught if they take loans.

"Do you think there is Nyay (justice)? No farmer belonging to Bengal or any state will be sent to jail if they fail to pay the bank loans.

He promised that the new government to be formed after the Lok Sabha elections will have a separate budget for the farmers. "After 2019, there will be two budgets, first, the farmer's budget will be made.

"In the beginning of the year, the farmers will know that the amount of money allotted by the government, the number of food processing units, how many storage facilities will be there and what kind of technology will be given for the farmers.

"In the very first year, they will be told about their earnings and profits," he said.

He slammed Prime Minister Narendra Modi and West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee for failing to provide employment and ensuring fair price for farmers.

Rahul said the BJP's only aim was to ensure Modi becomes Prime Minister again.

"But I tell you no power can make him the PM, as the citizens are going to hit a sixer this time," he added.

Mocking Modi, he said Modi earlier talked about his 56-inch chest, but now "two glasses are fixed that are known as teleprompters. He is warned that he should not speak about unemployment and farmers as the public can become angry".

CCTV shows J&K BJP leaders giving money to reporters

MOHIT KANDHARI ■ JAMMU

State BJP leaders in Jammu & Kashmir have been caught 'red handed' distributing envelopes, allegedly filled with currency notes, to reporters in Leh.

On May 3, Press Club Leh had accused the BJP of trying to bribe its members by offering "envelopes filled with money".

On the same day, State BJP leaders had denied these allegations claiming they were "politically motivated".

On Tuesday, a CCTV footage, surfaced in public domain which clearly exposes BJP MLC, Vikram Randhawa, handing over envelopes to journalists after the Press conference.

State BJP Chief Ravinder Raina is also seen standing in the hall.

In the same CCTV footage, two other BJP leaders Vikram Randhawa and Narinder Singh, party general secretary, can be seen pacifying local reporters in Leh after they refused to accept the currency notes.

Some of the journalists can be clearly seen returning the packets and placing it on a table in the hall in the presence of every one present there.

When this correspondent tried to contact State BJP Chief Ravinder Raina for his comments he refused to take the calls. His alternate mobile telephone number was also switched off.

Earlier, State BJP Chief Ravinder Raina had also threatened to file a defamation suit if the Press Club Leh did not issue a public apology.

"The BJP will not tolerate such allegations. It will file a defamation suit in the high court against the press club if it fails to make a public apology," Raina had stated while responding to different queries.

Several members of Press Club Leh had also approached Deputy Commissioner, Leh with their complaint seeking registration of FIR against Ravinder Raina and MLC

Modi should get 'tight slap' of democracy: Mamata

PTI ■ RANIBANDH/ RAGHUNATHPUR

Narendra Modi should get a tight slap of democracy," a furious TMC supremo Mamata Banerjee said on Tuesday, hitting back at the prime minister for alleging repeatedly that her Government is run by extortionist syndicates.

She also questioned the BJP's nationalistic and patriotic claims, saying it was an "RSS man" who killed Mahatma Gandhi. "I do not bow my head in politics. When Modi alleges that Trinamool Congress is a party of syndicates... Its government is run by syndicates, I feel he should get a tight slap of democracy (be defeated in election)," she said at a public meeting at Raghunathpur in Purulia.

Calling Modi a prime minister who is "known for telling lies", Banerjee said during his visits to West Bengal for election he says her Government does not allow Durga Puja and other Hindu rituals to be performed. "Do you believe those allegations?" she asked.

Joining issue with the PM over his claim that she does not allow people to chant 'Jai Sri Ram' and throw those who do behind bars, she said, "I will not join them (the BJP) in shouting their slogan. I will rather say Jai Hind."

At another meeting at Ranibandh in Bankura district, she questioned BJP's claim of patriotism. "I do not know who Gandhi's killers were. But we know the name of Nathuram Godse, an RSS man. When you speak of patriotism and serving the nation can you tell us who was he?"

"Did you fight for the country's independence? You (the BJP) had supported the British. Don't you feel ashamed?" Banerjee said. Speaking in the same vein at Barjora, also in Bankura district, Banerjee said, "They (the BJP) don't revere Gandhiji and Netaji as leaders of the nation .... Modi should not sermonise us on patriotism".

A combative Banerjee alleged that BJP starts doing politics over Lord Ram during elections. She said the saffron party could not build even a small Ram temple in the last five years.

The TMC supremo asserted Modi will not get a second term in office as he failed to bring in 'acche din' that he had promised in 2014.

Instead, more than 12,000 farmers committed suicide, factories got closed and three crore jobs were lost.

However, she claimed, while there was distress everywhere, income of those living in West Bengal went up three-fold. She accused the BJP of orchestrating riots between "Hindus and Muslims, Nathuram Godse, an RSS man, Muslims and Christians and Muslims and adivasis" during the last five years.

"I don't tolerate rioters — both Hindu and Muslim. We want peace not unrest. We (TMC) do not want Modi to stay in power. We will help in Government formation in Delhi," she added.

Will Lord Ram's name be taken in Pak, if not in India: Shah

PTI ■ GHATAL/BISHNUPUR/ KESHARI

BJP president Amit Shah on Tuesday alleged that West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee is not allowing people to chant 'Jai Shri Ram' in the state, and wondered if the Lord's name cannot be taken in India, will it be uttered in Pakistan.

Shah also dared Banerjee to arrest him for chanting 'Jai Shri Ram' at the multiple election rallies he addressed in the state on Tuesday.

"Lord Ram is a part of the culture of India... Can anybody stop people from taking his name? I want to ask Mamata didi, if Shri Ram's name is not taken in India, will it be chanted in Pakistan?" he said.

"I want to tell Mamata didi that this is West Bengal and not Pakistan... I am going to Kolkata from here (Bishnupur), put me in jail if you have the guts," the BJP chief said.

He addressed rallies in Ghatal, Keshari and Bishnupur in West Bengal. Shah claimed that Banerjee had stopped her car a few days ago to tell people that they will be put in jail if they chant the name of Lord Ram.

A video had appeared in the social media that showed Banerjee stopping her car at a place in West Midnapore district on Saturday, and chasing some persons who chanted 'Jai Shri Ram' as her carcade was crossing the area.

BJP president Amit Shah with Mukul Roy and other leaders being garlanded during an election campaign rally for the Lok Sabha polls, in Bankura district of West Bengal, on Tuesday PTI

Shah said he has come to know that the CM has cancelled permission for two rallies of Prime Minister Narendra Modi in the State — one at Purulia and the other at Bankura, scheduled for Thursday.

"Can you (Banerjee) prevent your defeat in this manner?" he asked. On Modi invoking the Bofors scandal, the BJP president wondered if reminding people what had happened was tantamount to insulting former PM Rajiv Gandhi.

"What wrong has PM Narendra Modi done by saying that the Bofors scam happened during Rajiv Gandhi's tenure... Rahul baba says his father has been insulted. Is it an insult to be reminded of what had happened?" Shah said.

The BJP chief was referring to Modi's recent remarks at a rally in Uttar Pradesh, where he said that Rajiv Gandhi's life ended as "bhrashtachari no. 1" (corrupt no. 1).

Will coalition Govt in K'taka survive after May 23?

KESTUR VASUKI ■ BENGALURU

The shadow boxing within the coalition partners, the JD(S) and Congress is an early indication of the instability of Chief Minister HD Kumaraswamy led JD(S)-Congress Government in Karnataka. Many Congress Ministers and legislators are also openly pitching for former Chief Minister Siddaramaiah as the Chief Minister again to lead the party and the Government.

Many observe in the political circles that the mandate in the Hassan, Mandya and Tumakuru (it's now popularly called HMT) where JDS is contesting with the help of Congress might hold the key to the survival of coalition Government led by HD Kumaraswamy of the JDS.

In Hassan Prajwal Revanna grandson of HD Deve Gowda and son of HD Revanna a PWD Minister, in Mandya constituency Nikhil Kumaraswamy son of HD Kumaraswamy and another grandson of Deve Gowda and at Tumakuru HD Deve Gowda are contesting.

The well-known rivalry between Siddaramaiah and Deve Gowda has trickled down to the grass roots and party workers in both the Congress and the JDS are worked against each other in these constituencies.

The results in the these constituencies are expected to provide some hints about how powerful dominant Vokkaliga (Gowdas) and Kuruba (shepherd) communities have voted.

Deve Gowda, the JD(S) supremo leads a family party JDS and has the support of vokkaligas one of the dominant communities and Siddaramaiah who belongs to Kuruba community made them a dominant community and made them politically strong.

In another significant development Karnataka Home Minister MB Patil on Tuesday made a pitch for Siddaramaiah "as Chief Minister again," but clarified the present coalition Government under HD Kumaraswamy would complete its full term.

"What's wrong in that? Siddaramaiah is our leader in the Congress. People want to see him as Chief Minister again.

"Even we too want to see him as Chief Minister again. He gave good governance for five years. He should have come back again," Patil told reporters in Bengaluru.

He was responding to a query on "growing demand" among the Congress MLAs to see Siddaramaiah occupy the top post again. His statement resonates with Chikkaballapura Congress MLA K Sudhakar's remarks on Monday that it would be good if Siddaramaiah becomes CM again.

"Siddaramaiah had done a lot of good work. He deserves one more term... But we have to accept people's mandate... When we come to power on our own... but presently that question does not arise. This government has to complete five years," he said.

"Siddaramaiah has got the eligibility (for the second term as Chief Minister)," Patil added.

After the Congress and JDS formed the coalition Government following the May 2018 Assembly elections, Kumaraswamy took over as the CM of the State. The coalition partners also fought the Lok Sabha elections together though there have been strains between the two ever since.

Many Congress MLAs were not content with the present arrangement and had stated that Siddaramaiah was their leader and they would like to see him as the chief minister again, an issue that has irked JDS leadership.

Meanwhile, BJP strongman Yeddyurappa predicts 'political ups and downs' after May 23. He strongly ruled out any truck with JDS to form the government in case the present coalition Government falls with the disgruntled Congress legislators. He said in Kalaburagi that BJP was not in a hurry to form the Government.

"I want to say one thing clearly: Kumaraswamy had betrayed me after deciding to share power 20 months each (in 2006). There is no question of coming to an understanding with JDS. There is no question of coalition Government (with that party)," Yeddyurappa said.

"It's too early to say anything... I have never said the Government will collapse and I shouldn't say it also. What I'm saying is there will be political ups and downs after May 23 results, anything may happen. I'm not saying we will form the government or we will come to power," he added.

In 2006, the BJP and a section of JDS MLAs forged an alliance to form a Government on the basis of a power-sharing deal, according to which Kumaraswamy and Yeddyurappa will be the CM for 20 months each.

As JDS refused to transfer power to Yeddyurappa after 20 months, the BJP in October 2007 decided to withdraw support to the Kumaraswamy Government, ending an uneasy and often bitter relationship, accusing the regional party of "betrayal".

Pointing out that there is a "lot of confusion" in the state politics, Yeddyurappa said it is certain that Narendra Modi will become the PM of the country once again, and the results of Lok Sabha polls will have an implication on the politics here.

Let them concentrate on them being together. Am

I responsible for Congress and JDS fighting each other; am I responsible for differences between them?" he questioned.

Predicting the defeat of former Union Ministers Veerappa Moily in Chikkaballapur and KH Muniyappa in Kolar, Yeddyurappa said, in Tumkur the chances of our candidate winning is more against former Prime Minister HD Deve Gowda, in Mandya independent candidate Sumalatha Ambareesh supported by the party will win "100 per cent" against Kumaraswamy's son Nikil, while there is a fight in Hassan, where Gowda's other grandson Prajwal Revanna is the JDS nominee.

Yeddyurappa also said the party high-command will decide on the next state unit president, and he would continue as the Leader of the Opposition.

Maya, Tipu target BJP's 'guru, chela'

PTI ■ JAUNPUR/BHADOHI

BSP supremo Mayawati and SP chief Akhilesh Yadav on Tuesday said their alliance will "shake the very roots" of the BJP and dislodge the "chowkidar of capitalists" from the Prime Minister's chair.

Addressing election rallies in favour of Mahagathbandhan candidates in Machchlisahr and Jaunpur seats, they also targeted the Congress, alleging that it is "anti-dalit" like the BJP and wants the people to remain poor.

"BJP's guru and chela are all set to be out of power at the Centre," Mayawati said at a rally in Bhadohi, attacking Prime Minister Narendra Modi and BJP chief Amit Shah.

"This alliance is so strong that in the 2022 Assembly elections in UP, it will send Yogi baba back in his mutt," Mayawati said, referring to Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath. The BSP supremo alleged that the BJP tried to break their alliance, but she "exposed" it in the media and gave a "befitting reply" to the saffron party.

"The BJP is going out of power in these elections... It has failed to fulfil the promises made to the poor and the middle classes in 2014 elections... Despite all this the Prime Minister is seeking votes again," she said in Jaunpur.

Mayawati said, "Terror attacks are taking place and the Government is busy in taking mileage of the Army's valour." Terming Prime Minister Narendra Modi as 'chowkidar of capitalists', she alleged that he helped the rich become richer. She also alleged that the GST and note ban were a "source of corruption".

Hitting out at the Congress, Mayawati alleged "both BJP and Congress are anti-dalits".

Referring to the Congress' Nyaya scheme, she said the party which is claiming to provide Rs 6,000 every month to poor families "only wants people to remain poor and helpless.... There is a need to remain vigilant from them."

On Uttar Pradesh, she said farmers in the state were facing immense hardships because of stray cattle and blamed the Adityanath Government for it.

She also promised permanent jobs if the SP-BSP alliance is voted to power at the Centre.

In his address, Samajwadi Party president Akhilesh Yadav echoed Mayawati's view that both "BJP and Congress are the same". "Had the Congress worked earnestly since Independence, there would not have been the need for formation of SP and BSP... No one thought SP and BSP would form an alliance. All efforts to somehow break the alliance have failed. After five phases of polling, the BJP's morale has also come down. Its leaders and workers are worried," he said.

"These BJP people talk about security of the country but could not reply to questions of 'roti and daal' raised by a BSF jawan," he said referring to dismissed BSF jawan Tej Bahadur Yadav whose nomination papers from Varanasi were rejected.

"BJP is standing on a foundation of lies and our alliance will shake its very roots... Perhaps the BJP is not aware that this alliance is a storm.

This time round, people will snatch the chair of the chawala-turned-chowkidar....

He said the alliance "will uproot the BJP which is standing on the foundation of lies and hatred. There is a wind of change which is blowing... How can the prime minister, who got scared of a jawan in Varanasi, face terrorism and naxalism."

"Not only the public but animals also are unhappy with this Government," he quipped.

Talk about Agusta before Rafale: Sitharaman to Cong

IAN S ■ KOLKATA

Attacking the Congress for raising questions on the Rafale deal, Defence Minister Nirmala Sitharaman on Tuesday said the Opposition party must first give answers on the Rs 3,600-crore AgustaWestland VVIP chopper deal and Backups before talking about the BJP and Prime Minister Narendra Modi on the fighter jet deal.

"The Supreme Court has given its verdict on the Rafale deal. Not just the Congress, somebody else had also gone for a review, the Supreme Court is seized of it. Also the CAG (Comptroller and Auditor General of India) has given its report on Rafale (deal)."

"But again talking about it... I think it is on the Congress, first of all, to have an enquiry and give answer on AgustaWestland (deal) and also give answer on Backups about which the party has spoken. Before they talk about the BJP and Modi ji or the Defence Ministry, they themselves have more to answer," she said in response to a query.

Attacking Congress chief Rahul Gandhi, Union Minister Arun Jaitley had recently said Gandhi's former business partner, Ulrik Mcknight, at Backups Ltd in the UK had got offset defence contracts from French defence supplier Naval Group for Scorpene submarines in 2011 during the UPA rule.

He also alleged Gandhi had a 65 per cent stake in Backups between 2003 and 2009, when it was wound up.

Cong insulted PM by calling GST as Gabbar Singh Tax: BJP

PTI ■ LUCKNOW

Accusing the Congress of being far from ground reality, the BJP on Tuesday said by calling the Goods and Services Tax (GST) as 'Gabbar Singh Tax', the party had insulted Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

"The Congress leadership does not know about the issues faced by traders and had unleashed inspector raj to harass them. On the contrary Modi ji thinks about the welfare of traders," Ravikant Garg, chairperson of UP Vyapari Kalyan Board told PTI here.

"What is the relevance of calling GST as Gabbar Singh Tax. Is it (tax money) going into Modi ji's pocket? You are insulting the Prime Minister by making such statement," he added.

The Opposition parties have spread fear and misguided the people by portraying GST as an evil whereas it has given relief to the traders and businessmen, Garg said.

"In the past there were 9 Central taxes, and 12 taxes levied by the UP Government. Initially the traders may have faced teething trouble, as they were not used to it, but the problems were technical in nature. As soon as the problems were conveyed to the government, the GST council redressed them," he said.

The UP Vyapari Kalyan Board functions as a link between the State Government and businessmen and solves the problems faced by traders and entrepreneurs within a fixed time, he said.

Referring to the BJP's 2019 Sankalp Patra, he said that if the party is voted to power, small traders and marginal farmers will get pension benefits after 60 years of age.

"Sankalp Patra talks about setting up a National Traders Welfare Board, new retail policy to boost retail trade, pension scheme for small traders above the age of 60 years, Rs 10 lakh accidental insurance to all GST-registered traders and credit cards to traders on the lines of Kisan Credit Cards," he said.

Central forces to be deployed for Tripura West re-polls

IAN S ■ AGARTALA

The Union Home Ministry has deployed 15 companies of paramilitary forces during re-polling to the Tripura West Lok Sabha seat where voting took place on April 11, a top police official said on Tuesday.

"On the advice of the Election Commission (EC), the Ministry has deployed 11 companies of the Border Security Force and four of the Central Reserve Police Force," the official told IANS on the condition of anonymity.

However, the state Chief Electoral Officer (CEO) Sriram Taranikanti said that he was yet to receive an official confirmation from the EC on the re-polls.

"I do not know when or in how many polling stations re-polling will be held. We have sent our reports and recommendations to the EC," the CEO told IANS.

Besides the Tripura West seat, the State has a second constituency — Tripura East — which went to the polls on April 23.

The Opposition Congress and CPM has been demanding the re-polls after they alleged large-scale rigging, booth capturing, intimidation and attacks by the ruling BJP.

Tripura Pradesh Congress Vice-President Pijush Kanti Biswas on Tuesday reiterated that if the EC did not hold the re-polls, the party would move the SC.

"We have learnt that BJP leaders in Delhi are influencing the EC to hold re-polls only in a few polling stations to ensure their victory," Biswas told the media.

The CPI-M leaders held several demonstrations in Agartala and also in New Delhi to highlight their demand.

A lot at stake for BJP in Gorakhpur

PNS ■ LUCKNOW

Once considered to be the bastion of Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath and the safest Lok Sabha seat for the Bharatiya Janata Party in eastern Uttar Pradesh, Gorakhpur has taken a queer turn, forcing the ruling party to deploy all resources at its command to ensure the victory of its candidate, Bhojpuri star Ravi Kishan, from this prestigious constituency which goes to poll in the seventh and last phase of Lok Sabha elections on May 19.

The BJP won the Gorakhpur seat from 1991 till 2018, when the party lost it in the by-election to a joint opposition candidate. The bypoll was necessitated due to resignation of Yogi Adityanath from Lok Sabha after he was elected the UP Legislative Council after becoming the Chief Minister of UP.

"In this election, two constituencies, Gorakhpur and Amethi, have evoked maximum interest. The interest in Amethi was due to the contest between Union Minister and BJP candidate Smriti Irani and Congress president Rahul Gandhi, who is seeking re-election from his traditional seat. In Gorakhpur, the focus is on Yogi Adityanath."

"The question is whether the BJP will be able to wrest the Gorakhpur seat from Samajwadi Party this time," said Nomita P Kumar from the Giri Institute of Development Studies.

Gorakhpur was considered a BJP bastion because politics in this impoverished region revolved around Gorakhnath Mutt. Earlier, Mahant Avaidyanath represented the Gorakhpur seat in Lok Sabha but after his death, Yogi Adityanath kept on winning the seat since 1998.

But in 2018, Praveen Kumar Nishad of Nishad Party contested the bypoll to Gorakhpur on SP ticket and defeated BJP's Upendra Dutt Shukla by over 21,000 votes. This was the first experiment of opposition unity which was replicated in Kairana bypoll later.

Since then, Praveen Nishad has joined the BJP and has been fielded from Sant Kabir Nagar constituency.

"The opposition was able to win the Gorakhpur seat because of the combination of castes. Nishads, Dalits and Muslims united and voted against the BJP. Secondly, the voting percentage in bypoll was just 43 per cent, indicating lack of interest among the voters," Kumar said, adding that the BJP leaders had become complacent about the outcome in their 'impregnable' stronghold, an attitude which boomeranged.

The caste equation in Gorakhpur is complex. There are around 4.5 lakh Nishad votes followed by 3.5 lakh Muslims and around 1.5 lakh Dalits. The upper castes account for around 2 lakh votes.

To take advantage of this equation, the SP-BSP-RLD alliance has fielded former minister in Akhilesh government, Ram Bhuwal Nishad from Gorakhpur. He is pitted against BJP's Ravi Kishan, a Brahmin. The Congress has fielded Madhusudan Tiwari from the seat.

The trouble for the BJP does not end here as one time close confidant of Yogi Adityanath, Sunil Singh, too has jumped into the fray under the banner of Hindu Yuva Vahini Bharat.

At one time, Singh was considered the right hand man of Yogi Adityanath. Singh's former stature could prove detrimental for the BJP, as he would definitely eat into a chunk of BJP votes.

In this scenario, BJP's Ravi Kishan relies totally on Yogi Adityanath. Being a Bhojpuri actor, he may draw crowd but will his charisma translate into votes, only time will tell.

MODI IS WORKAHOLIC, RAHUL LOVES HOLIDAYS: SHAH

Narendra Modi has been working 18 hours a day for around two decades without taking a leave, while Congress president Rahul Gandhi dashes off to undisclosed foreign destinations at the slightest discomfort, BJP president Amit Shah claimed here on Tuesday. Alleging that Gandhi is in love with the terrorists, he asserted that under Prime Minister Modi, their every 'gol' (bullet) will be retaliated with a 'gola' (mortar shell). "I have known Modi for a long time. For the past 20 years he has not taken a leave. He works 18 hours a day for the people," Shah said.

BOFORS PETITIONER CAMPAIGNS AGAINST MODI

Former BJP leader Ajay Agarwal, who contested against Sonia Gandhi from Rae Bareilly Lok Sabha seat in 2014 polls on BJP ticket on Tuesday condemned Prime Minister Narendra Modi's remarks against Rajiv Gandhi. Agarwal, a senior lawyer, said that no charge was ever proven in any court of the country against former Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi in the Bofors case and he was given a "clean chit".

Justice or injustice?

By hurriedly clearing the CJI of sexual harassment charges, the SC probe panel raises more questions than answers

Why is it that the terse dismissal of sexual harassment charges against the Chief Justice of India (CJI) Ranjan Gogoi by an in-house panel hasn't quite given us a sense of closure? Why is it making us all too uncomfortable? Wasn't it led by extremely learned justices, two among them women, who were expected to be armed with the best legal knowledge and stand as protector of human rights? Or was it the case of institutional integrity having a far higher cost than the dignity of an individual, a woman in this case? She has a right to know as do we. Perhaps so many questions are the reason why women lawyers turned up outside the Supreme Court and shouted slogans of "supreme injustice." This reinforces what we have been saying from the the beginning of this delicate case, that procedural propriety be adhered to even if the nature of the proceedings was "informal, in-house" and not liable to public consumption. This became even more imperative in a scenario as the accused, in this case the CJI, can only be impeached by Parliament and cannot be subjected to any prevalent legal mechanism. Which is why his image needed to come clean in absolute terms with full transparency than the hush-rush probe that has done more damage than repair. The opacity, the non-inclusion of neutral observers and the summary disposal have only lent credence to people's worst doubts, that the judges of the Supreme Court are untouchable, answerable to no one and can interpret the law to rise above it themselves. Considering the extreme polarities — the CJI claiming that the charges were trumped up to force his hand on key verdicts and the woman claiming there were reprisals against her and her family for bringing the issue up in the first place — it was important for the probe panel to not appear one-sided. For at one end was the suggestion of a mischievous conspiracy against the highest court by using something as coarse as a honey trap. On the other was the accuser, standing up for the rights of all working women, who become soft targets of vilification campaigns and are always assumed to have motives. For the sake of both, the court needed to walk the thin red line without wavering a hair's breadth. But the court-appointed panel swung appallingly to put it mildly. Not only did it appear to have pre-judged the case, it did not even go through the motions. Neither did it take umbrage at the CJI's special hearing without the complainant, nor did it check the backstory of the judges on the panel till the complainant pointed out one of them was a friend of the CJI. He recused himself thereafter.

Considering the case was based on highly unequal circumstances — a junior employee versus the CJI — the investigation turned out to be more intimidating than trustworthy. All the complainant wanted was the presence of her lawyer or any support person for the sake of neutrality, an audio-video recording of the committee proceedings and a copy of her statements as recorded on two sessions for the sake of fair play and cross-questioning. By keeping an apolitical third party at the proceedings, the court could have prioritised fairplay and made the complainant feel secure enough and not walk away. The fact that the court disregarded public pressure to comply with democratic rules and principles and even ignored the counsel of senior judges Chandrachud and Nariman on the matter shows the impunity with which it pushed a closure rather than a satisfying resolution. The court's claims that informal proceedings need not be made public run counter to the transparency and right to information it espouses in its other rulings. And here the public needs to know the details about the actions taken or not taken against a Constitutional authority. If indeed Gogoi is innocent or the woman guilty, wouldn't it have been better to publicise the findings, both for himself, the institution that he represents and women's rights? Wouldn't it have been better to avoid a stigma and set a precedent for all time to come? A conspiracy of this scale against the judiciary, if it was indeed so, should have been exposed widely and made an example of. Clearly, after this shoddiness, the court and the CJI will forever be under doubt. As are the other judges against whom no sexual harassment charges were ever proven. As for the woman, the intimidating force of the country's topmost institution is too big to wage a crusade on her own. The legal route is out. As for us, there's always our conscience. And unending assumptions in the absence of waterproof evidence.

Silencing the doubters

The apex court has closed the debate around VVPATs but they have to be factored in next time

Ever since the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) came to power in 2014, many political parties have been crying wolf about the Electronic Voting Machines (EVM) malfunctioning across the country and have been protesting to all and sundry, even though it appears that the public at large has not really been interested in the debate. Their latest approach to the Supreme Court demanding that the Voter Verifiable Paper Audit Trail (VVPAT) system be used more intensively during the current general elections was a lost cause any which way, with the poll process largely complete. The court dismissed the petition with just two phases remaining and it being impossible for the Election Commission (EC) to change machines now. Criticism has been a constant since these machines made their debut, the loudest cries before 2014 being ironically made by the BJP in the aftermath of the 2009 elections.

But can VVPAT machines be brought into more widespread use going forward so as to allay fears that the machines can be tampered with to benefit one party or another? Yes, it must be done. However, one has to remember that in India with 900 million potential voters and 600 million plus votes cast, the scale of VVPAT issues can be mind-numbing and the extent of recounts has to be managed. Otherwise the political turmoil that will invariably follow contested elections could go on for weeks if not months, and India cannot afford that. So while more machines should have VVPAT printers and storage, if any political party or candidate demands a recount or an audit, they should be made to pay, just like those students who want their examination papers re-evaluated. The sum of money should be significant enough to pay for the hundreds of staff required to conduct such an exercise. Meanwhile, the EC must use more authentication units before the polls to weed out counterfeit/tampered EVMs, progress on which has been slow. It can fix a uniform sample size for hand-counting VVPAT slips for all constituencies. And it should fix a margin of error before ordering an automatic recount. The process may be time-taking but would ensure credibility of devices among voters. India must not return to the days of paper ballots, and as we have been noticing in these elections, the problem is more to do with booth security rather than the EVMs.

Nobody joined the dots

The Easter Sunday self-inflicted tragedy was in military parlance a total command failure, which is likely to take Sri Lanka a decade back

ASHOK K MEHTA

Neither Sherlock Holmes nor Alfred Hitchcock would have been mystified by intelligence oversights that led to one of the world's most dastardly terrorist attacks in Sri Lanka last month. Simply because it was a case of just connecting the dots — so detailed and specific were the tip-offs. According to a top secret intelligence memo of April 9 (there were two others before the fateful day dawned on Easter Sunday), the country's intelligence chief had warned the Inspector General of Police that "Zahran Hashim of the National Tawheed Jamaat and his associates were planning to carry out suicide terrorist attacks in Sri Lanka shortly." How this classified warning was not shared with President Maithripala Sirisena and Prime Minister Ranil Wickremesinghe is a riddle. Rarely has there been an intelligence goof-up of this magnitude in recent memory.

That such a catastrophic intelligence foul-up took place in Sri Lanka, which only a decade ago had destroyed the invincible Velupillai Prabhakaran-led Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam (LTTE), ending root and branch a 30-year-long deadly insurgency and becoming the first country to achieve such a feat in the 21st century, is intriguing. The Army, Navy and Air Force have held annual international seminars in Colombo to showcase their military successes, including the Army's prowess in deep penetration intelligence acquisition skills. According to the then Defence Secretary and brother of former President Mahinda Rajapaksa, Gotabaya Rajapaksa, now a presidential hopeful for the elections this year, the present Government dismantled the elaborate intelligence and surveillance network of 5,000 personnel he had set up in 2011 across the country, including the Muslim majority areas of the east.

Nine suicide bombers, including one woman, struck in coordinated attacks followed by two or three hara-kiri acts by family members and associates of the mastermind Hashim. It is now known that the suicide squad consisted of 15 members and the support group was 150 of whom 100 cadres have been arrested. Thirty-six Sri Lankans are reported to have gone to fight with the Islamic State in Syria and many had returned. The preparation for serial human bombing of this scale and sophistication would have taken months if not years. Sirisena has revealed that planning for the attacks started in Syria in 2017. How this massive diabolical plot escaped detection is a mystery. The Sri Lankan Army Commander, Lt Gen Mahesh Senanayake, in an interview to BBC, has said that the suicide bombers "got some sort of training" in Kashmir and Kerala. This should worry India. Given the severe communal polarisation exacerbated by the elections, major terrorist attacks are not unlikely in India in the near future.

In 2017, I retraced my times with the Indian Peace Keeping Force (IPKF) 30 years ago in the east, travelling through Muslim majority Ampara and Kalmunai areas near Batticaloa and saw an increased density of population, mosques and madrasas as also prosperity and development. The Muslims were targeted by the LTTE notably in their massacre in Sri Lanka's biggest mosque in Kattankudy near Batticaloa in the 1990s. (Kattankudy is the hometown of Hashim, the mastermind of the attacks and its training ground). Later, the Sinhala Buddhist extremists Bodu Bala Sena (BBS), ostensibly supported by the Government, targeted Muslims periodically from 2013, culminating in the big anti-Muslim riots in Kandy last year, which led to the Government declaring an Emergency. The trigger for Muslim alienation and radicalisation is the BBS attacks and objections to hijab and halal. How the Government did not pick up these straws in the wind is an enigma.

Initially, the Government ascribed the horrific attacks to the Islamic State (IS)-inspired Sri Lankan Muslim National Thowheed Jamath (NTJ) as retaliation for Christchurch till IS supreme Abu Bakr Al-Baghdadi claimed responsibility as revenge for loss of Baghouz, the caliphate's last bastion in Syria. Sri Lanka's own counter-terrorism czar, the Singapore-based Rohan Gunaratna, confirmed that IS has created support groups around the world and NTJ has joined the IS.

The rift and infighting between Sirisena and Wickremesinghe is a folklore. The politics of the carnage is beguiling. Sirisena has squarely blamed the Prime Minister, the Defence Secretary and the Inspector General of Police and said he was kept in the dark and that he would reconstitute security structures. On his part, Wickremesinghe said, "I did not know... still we have to take responsibility for that part of Government machinery that did not work." Sirisena is not only the Defence Minister but has also kept the Law and Order Ministry with him, some say, unconstitutionally. This has kept Wickremesinghe quarantined from defence and security, including national security council meetings. That the left hand did not know what the right hand was doing is the black hole in the security system.

Former Army Commander General Sarath Fonseka was the key architect of victory of the LTTE but he fell out with the old regime's top leaders, the Rajapaksas. The Sirisena Government appointed Fonseka a Field Marshal and a Minister. Speaking in the Emergency debate in Parliament after the bombings, Fonseka lambasted his own Government, including Sirisena, Wickremesinghe and other defence and intelligence officials. Demands for making Fonseka Minister for law and order are increasing.

Sri Lanka is under Emergency rule with the Prevention of Terrorism Act in place but is likely to be replaced with the new counter-terrorism Bill. It is the first country to ban the face veil in South Asia. Both the curfew and ban on social media were lifted after a week. The preliminary report on the bombings has been completed, which Sirisena is keeping close to his chest. A new military command territorially, including parts of west and northwest provinces, including Colombo and Puttalam and strangely called Overall Operational Command, has been established and coastal security beefed up. India's offer of sending its elite National Security Guards has been politely rejected. The joke in Colombo is about how NSG messed up in Mumbai in 2008 taking four days to complete the operation. Tongue-in-cheek Sri Lankan military veterans say what the IPKF started and did not complete, we finished.

Over-indulgent in its conquest of LTTE, Sri Lanka let its guard down. A dysfunctional cohabitation Government has been rent apart by catastrophic terrorist attacks, which are likely to take Sri Lanka a decade back. The Easter Sunday self-inflicted tragedy was in military parlance a total command failure. That neither the Prime Minister nor President has resigned is to borrow a famous war time Churchillian one liner: A riddle wrapped in a mystery surrounded by an enigma.

(The writer is a retired Major General of the Indian Army and founder member of the Defence Planning Staff, currently the revamped Integrated Defence Staff)

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Face the harsh truth

Sir — This refers to the editorial, "A speech too far" (May 7). Dead leaders, who are widely known, like Hitler, Stalin, Mahatma Gandhi, Jawaharlal Nehru and Indira Gandhi among others, have been derided for some of their actions no doubt. Agreed late Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi also had his failings. History won't ignore the blunders made by leaders but there is a civil way of addressing them than brute name-calling.

M Ratan
Via email

Take consistent stand

Sir — This refers to the editorial, "Poll panel under fire" (May 6). Undoubtedly, the 2019 Lok Sabha election is one of the dirtiest in a long time where below-the-belt and insensitive remarks have become the norm for our politicians.

Political leaders, both in the ruling and opposition parties, are to be blamed as much the Election Commission (EC) of India. It was former chief Election Commissioner TN Seshan, who had given the much-needed tooth to the EC and redefined the way elections were conducted in our country.

Keeping aside the malfunctioning of EVMs, which could be attributed to faults in the machine, the Model Code of Conduct is brazenly torn by our leaders. The flow of money and liquor during election time has become way too common. This is especially true among rural voters, who become easy targets and can be manipulated by the leaders. But it is disheartening that the EC has been found wanting in all parameters.

It is not that the EC has not punished erring leaders, it has barred many from campaigning

Political discourse has reached a new low

India has seen many erudite orators as Prime Ministers before. Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru was an orator par excellence and was a standout statesman, too. Atal Bihari Vajpayee, the first ever Prime Minister of a far-right party, used to mesmerise the masses with his poetic oratory. His words always had an impeccable decency. A stunned nation recently heard Prime Minister Modi describe the life and death of a predecessor, who was killed in a ghastly terrorist attack, in derogatory language and with denigrating gestures. Rajiv Gandhi assumed the mantle when his mother fell to the assassin's bullets and his politician-brother, the heir apparent, had died in a plane crash. True, the Bofors gun deal had brought much infamy, but the charges against him enthused none of the trial and appeal courts.

A saying goes: "Great minds discuss ideas; average minds discuss events; small minds discuss people." Congress chief Rahul Gandhi's tweet, "Your karma awaits you" — with an emphasis on the Bhagavad Gita — also remind one of a verse from the Bible (Matthew): "But I tell you that everyone will have to give account on the day of judgement for every empty word they have spoken." Be that as it may, one can only lament about the falling standards in Indian politics this time around.

Haridasan Rajan

for 24 to 72 hours but has not been consistent. In fact, it has displayed selective amnesia.

Consistency is what is the need of the hour. Even now, two more rounds of polling are yet to take place — one on May 12 and the other on May 19. The EC can still pull up its socks and correct past wrong doings.

Mayawati's dream

Sir — In an anti-climax of the feverish pitch of the poll campaign, Bahujan Samaj Party (BSP) supremo Mayawati has hinted that she is a contender for the post of the Prime Minister. One must not be offended by her tall claims, for our polity is so free that anyone can aspire to be anyone and, hence, political leaders have enough room for manoeuvre.

There's no harm in Mayawati wanting to become the Prime Minister but she has to think whether she is acceptable to all across the country or has she ever grown to become a pan-India leader?

Our country is much more diverse and vibrant than Uttar Pradesh and Mayawati has to grow to such a national level to be received by millions of people. So, she is free to dream but its relevance and reality are as impractical as crying for the moon.

Entrepreneurs and small business owners are passionate about their products/services. However, at times, cash flow management can be quite tricky and not everyone is able to manage their finances properly. Lost between chasing invoices and making payments, cash management becomes a tightrope to walk. This article will provide a guide to cash flow management.

Don't get slack on invoicing: This is the first step for cash inflows to come in. Send invoices as soon as possible after providing goods/services. Set terms to make sure that payments are not forgotten or lost in the process. Always follow up on sent invoices. You can make this easy by creating set templates for email or SMS and by following up on them. Always refer to invoice numbers and cross-refer them with payments.

Keep a tight grip on expenses: In the early stages of a business, it is smart to keep fixed expenses as low as possible. Expenses are everything that maintain gross revenue from going straight into the piggy bank. Although this is very obvious, when things get busy, it becomes easy to lose track. So make sure to keep track of all small expenses as they can add up quickly. A review allows one to keep track where the money goes. Planning a year in advance for large expenses such as rent, payrolls, taxes, interest, materials for goods and products, debts, utilities and other operating expenses can help reduce the financial burden. They will also aid in ensuring that the cash flow stays stronger even in the tightest months.

Make financial projections: Having a clear financial estimate is important. If one does not know where he/she wants to get to, how will one know how to get there? And more importantly, how much one needs to spend along the way? The main business plan can help anticipate and address possible future obstacles.

Maintain a borderline between personal and business finance: Once done with the selection of business name and registration, the need is to open a commercial bank account. Personal and business bank accounts should be kept separate. Holding a borderline between these two finances will provide a more straightforward accounting at the end of the financial year for tax ascertainment purposes. It will also eliminate situations of cash crunch in business caused due to withdrawals for personal expenditure. Keeping the business' money separate will make gauging of profitability easier and help keep proper track of expenses.

Considering insurance: For an entrepreneur, insurance is one of those things that one hates paying for the business. But in the end, one may actually need it. In order to build a profitable portfolio and managing small business finances, one must spend some time researching about what's right for the business and personal needs as well.

Set up a retirement account: As a small business owner in the competitive business world, one is probably used to taking up a lot of responsibility such as drawing up a detailed business plan to creating a budget for the success of the company. So, it should come as no surprise that funding for retirement, too, shall fall on the shoulders.

Invest in technology: The next thing to manage small business finance is to invest in technology and understand all terms related to the business. Sometimes, it is better to use online software to keep records for finances and accounts and establish an online presence in order to attract more customers.

Keep track on money movements: No matter how small the company is, one is required to have outlined payment terms concisely and efficiently to manage small business finances. Even though this is challenging in today's business world, one needs to take into account both the financial and legal side of monetary transactions and trace all movements of the capital regularly.

Negotiate with vendors before confirming a contract: It is better to negotiate with the vendors before signing a contract and indulge in a good bargain. Successful negotiators know before they begin negotiating what they want to achieve during the negotiation. Examine purchase terms like late payment penalties and grace periods for negotiating for a great deal. Sometimes being given an extra 30 days to pay can save more than a five per cent discount.

Design an emergency fund: Once one understands the importance of negotiating the prices from vendors in order to manage small business finances, the next thing that needs to be done is to design an emergency fund for the success of the business entity. Companies don't give consistent sales month on month.

While running a start-up can be exciting, it can also create challenges, especially when it comes to managing finances. So, if one is facing the same issues of how to manage the finances and wants to stand outside the crowd, one must keep the above tips in mind and give one's venture a bright future.

A common school system

The national priority for the investment of public funds must be teacher training and school education. This will ensure highest level of returns. Let the country realise this goal

JS RAJPUT

Education systems across democracies promise equality of opportunity, access and success to every child. This raises high hopes and kindles bundles of aspirations, particularly among the weaker sections of society, who have waited for generations for better and dignified human existence. Towards this, to begin with, the first requirement is to create a Common School System (CSS). It means no child can be denied admission by any school in the neighbourhood, irrespective of his/her social or economic background. The next step is to ensure individual attention to every child, ascertain his/her interests and ensure that his/her creativity and curiosity are not hindered. In simple terms, it requires an inviting learning environment, competent, committed and performing teachers, and a right teacher-taught ratio.

India's public education system could not prevent the decline of credibility and acceptability of 'sarkari schools' as the essential spirit of CSS was just ignored. Prominently included in the National Policy on Education (NPE) 1968, CSS did find a place in the subsequent policies of 1986 and 1992, but the system continuously drifted away from honestly implementing it. Post-independence, the experience in Indian educational initiatives and expansion has clearly established that the elite-dominated system of governance — even in the presence of political masters — invariably succeeds in preserving their interests. This unstated endeavour and attitude resulted in severe decline of public-funded schools, unprecedented mushrooming of private schools and rise in demand for "good quality schools", which became synonymous with high-fee charging schools. Government schools are now patronised only by those, who have no other alternative. This either because of their meagre economic resources or non-availability of a private school nearby. A feeble attempt was made with the enactment of the Right to Education Act, 2009, to reserve 25 per cent seats in initial classes for children of weaker sections. But a majority of schools found "strategies" to hoodwink it. After the first batch of children admitted under this category in 2010 completed Class VIII, schools asked them to pay regular school fees or get lost. Such an obvious concern was ignored by our policy-makers. The psychological and emotional damage inflicted on the learner and his family would be anything but devastating in such cases. This clearly indicates the callous attitude and also prevalent ignorance within the education system on finer and subtle aspects of learning. Is it not amazing, if not agonising, that children of most functionaries responsible for school education policies and its implementation prefer to enroll in private schools only?

Around 60-65 per cent of the school-going children still study in 'sarkari' schools, which are invariably deficient on infrastructure, teachers, learning materials and even in basic professional requirements. Expectedly, most of the surveys and studies on learning outcomes indicate not only low learner attainments but also consistent annual decline. This is indeed worrisome. In spite of such a large chunk of school-going children completing their schooling under deficient conditions and severe impediments — and only a small proportion of them getting a place in higher education institutions — the educated youth of India are among the most sought-after in the developed countries.

They are offered really challenging assignments and invariably come out with flying colours, bringing prestige and praise to the motherland. However, there is a dimmer picture within the country. Graduates of highly coveted higher education courses of technical and management education are found deficient in their readiness to accept job responsibility in the job market and the proportion may indeed be alarming — up to 80. What a wastage of young manpower in an era where India is supposed to be in the "golden period of demographic dividend", solely because of its young manpower. Around 50 per cent of India's population is below 25 years of age and 65 per cent below 35 years. What a great chance to make India's presence felt globally through its young ones. The basic responsibility is to offer good quality school education and ensure dynamism and comparability in higher education. Once access and participation in education is ensured with basic professional and infrastructural inputs, the issue of nurturing individual talented deserves attention. One can recall several Indian initiatives on this count, two of which deserve special mention: The introduction of the Science Talent Search — NTS — scheme in the 1960s and the opening of Navodaya Vidyalayas in pursuance of the 1986 Education policy. The NTS was later transformed to include social sciences as well and Navodaya Vidyalayas have indeed provided great opportunity to the talented children from rural India. I have personally found lasting motivation among NTS scholars and the alumni of Navodaya Vidyalayas. This in itself is a great achievement. Numbers catered to by these initiatives need to increase and it is encouraging that the same is under consideration by the authorities.

It will be relevant to recall a model of talent nurturing that was being successfully implemented on large-scale in the erstwhile USSR. The essence of it can still be suitably digested and gainfully utilised. A three-member delegation of the Government visited several schools over there in 1982. The objective was to study the school education system that flourished under conditions vastly different from India. It was particularly indicated to the delegation that it would be interesting to find out how they are nurturing talent, dealing with gifted children and the issue of a common language. Those were the days of a bipolar world and terms like 'Iron' curtain were in considerable usage. In every meeting, the hosts spoke only Russian; translations were the only means of interacting during official meetings. However, during dinners and receptions, they spoke chaste English without any hesitation. When — and it happened on several occasions — the delegation tried to understand how Russian language was being accepted in federation units that had their own languages, the answer was short, crisp and precise: Everyone learns Russian voluntarily. The discussion on language never proceeded beyond this. However, there was much more to learn that could be examined gainfully in Indian conditions.

One morning, the schedule included visit to a music school and a physics school. The delegation was told that the most important task of the teachers in every school is to observe the students, find out their inclinations and interests, keep a record and once they find consistency, encourage the child to go ahead and see the progress. There may be a change of interest area, something else may fascinate the child and that should be permissible. The idea behind the approach was that USSR needed not only scientists, engineers and technocrats but also painters, poets, scholars, musicians, folklore specialists and the like. Teachers must be trusted to ascertain the right path of passage to excellence in each individual case. Once this was done, the school would send a report to the regional level; the child in all probability would be picked up by the State and shifted to a residential school. Here, he would study all the curricula as in other schools but there would be big plus in his area of his identified interest — be it music, physics, history, literature or sports. These special schools were located after thoughtful consideration of locally available expertise. A physics school would be located in a town that has university department, research laboratory and other establishment connected with research and innovations in physics and related area. Same would apply to other disciplines. In the music school, eminent masters were voluntarily helping children move ahead of the regular curricular prescriptions.

The most significant challenge before the Indian education policy-makers and implementers can be summarized crisply as providing "equality of opportunity of access and success and nurturing the talented", as said by John W Gardner in his book, Excellence: Can We Be Equal and Excellent Too? Though Gardner wrote these lines in the context of the US around 1984, the relevance of some of his observations remains universally relevant even in current times: "Diagnosis of an individual's future capacity to perform remains a hazardous undertaking. There are mysteries in individual development that are far from understanding. No stone should be left unturned to ensure that decisions are based on a wide range of evidence, carefully gathered and sifted."

For sure, in India, marks obtained in the board examination are certainly no guarantee of total personality development and specialised talent. However, talent identification and fulsome personality development have to be a continuous process that must begin from the early stages. It should include traits of personality development, value internalisation and character formation as an integral part of the process. The topmost national priority for the investment of public funds must be teacher training and school education. This will ensure highest level of returns. Let the country realise it. Simultaneously, no let up in locating and nurturing talent is a must. In Indian psyche, commercialisation of education is unacceptable and must be discouraged effectively. Education is still the only ray of hope for the weaker sections.

Scrub allegations and come clean

The Election Commission has been at the receiving end of scathing attacks from the Opposition for being unjust in its decisions. The panel must quell all doubts over its ethics and uphold its reputation

KALYANI SHANKAR

Perhaps the Election Commission of India (EC) has never been under such scrutiny as it is today. The polarised campaign during the ongoing General Elections has put the spotlight firmly on the referee — the EC. As an impartial watchdog, it is the responsibility of the electoral body to provide for a level-playing field to all political parties. The perception that the EC has not been addressing Opposition complaints, in this case against the ruling party, has been doing the rounds.

An exasperated Congress president Rahul Gandhi called the poll panel "completely biased" against the Opposition last week. He said that when it comes to the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) and Prime Minister Narendra Modi, the commission toes the straight line and when it comes to the Opposition, it becomes biased. During a media interaction, Rahul Gandhi even threatened EC officials with "consequences" in the future for being biased.

But Rahul Gandhi is not the only leader who has grouse against the EC. There are other Opposition leaders like Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu, West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee, Samajwadi Party chief Akhilesh Yadav, Bahujan Samaj Party supremo Mayawati, Aam Aadmi Party chief Arvind Kejriwal and many other leaders in the Opposition, who have complained against the EC's bias towards the leaders of the ruling party. The BJP, too, has been lodging complaints against other parties to the EC.

Recently, in an unprecedented manner, a group of 66 former bureaucrats wrote to President Ram Nath Kovind, expressing concern over what they called the questionable functioning of the Commission, requesting him to intervene to ensure free and fair polls. The leaders included former National Security Advisor Shivshankar Menon, supercop Julio Ribeiro and former Lt Governor Najeeb Jung.

Why is the EC facing such charges? Is the Commission so helpless that the Chief Election Commissioner recently pleaded helplessness in the Supreme Court, lamenting that he lacked the powers to crack the whip? The court not only blasted the Commission but also reminded it that it had adequate authority to enforce the Model Code of Conduct under Article 324 of the Constitution.

Even its decision to ban Union Minister Maneka Gandhi, Mayawati, Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath and Samajwadi Party leader Azam Khan from campaign for specific hours for violating Model Code of Conduct came only after the Supreme Court's nudging.

Alas, even after the apex court pulling it up, the EC has maintained silence on the complaints launched by parties against alleged hate speeches, which have piled up all the more. The Congress claims that it has given more than 37 representations — ten against the Prime Minister — to the EC on violations of Model Code of Conduct but the Commission did not act. It was only after Congress MP Sushmita Dev approached the apex court, which directed the Commission to dispose of all complaints registered by the party immediately, that the EC gave a clean chit to the Prime minister in six cases last week.

Interestingly, Ashok Lavasa, one of the Commissioners, dissented on the decision. The Congress has not given up and has gone to the top court on the orders once again, alleging that the EC has been partial to the ruling party.

Many political parties have raised doubts about the functioning of the Electronic Voting Machines, too. The petition filed by 21 Opposition parties in the Supreme Court, for counting of at least 25 per cent EVM paper trail machines — instead of only five — in every Assembly segment has been rejected by the top court. On the other hand, the EC maintains that the EVMs are fool-proof and cannot be manipulated.

The EC has not always been so timid. In 1989, the then Chief Election Commissioner RVS Peri Sastri had introduced wide-ranging electoral reforms, including reducing the voting age to 18 from 21. He also stood his ground on his principles, which prompted the then Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi to make a multi-member panel to clip the powers of the Chief Election Commissioner (CEC).

Similarly, in the early 1990s, former CEC TN Seshan had introduced a number of reforms, including the issuance of voter IDs. He deployed the security forces to keep a check on booth capturing and voter intimidation. He earned the nickname of "Al-Seshan" and punished those who flouted the Model Code and even recommended the sacking of two Ministers to the then Prime Minister Narasimha Rao for violating the code. There have been other successful CECs like Sukumar Sen and SY Quraishi.

The question, however is: Has the EC played an impartial role in the current Lok Sabha polls? The Opposition has complained that the electoral body is not ensuring the rules of the game in order to ensure parity. For instance, eyebrows were raised when it suspended an IAS officer for checking the chopper of the Prime Minister in the course of his duty.

Also, income tax raids were being conducted only on Opposition leaders. It is nobody's case that whatever the Opposition wants, the EC must comply, but it should appear to have done justice. There is still time to send a signal that the EC is impartial and it must earn the trust of the Opposition. The EC's performance has not always been uniform but it is a huge exercise to hold the elections peacefully and in a free and fair manner. No doubt poll reforms are required and the EC should be given more teeth but within the constraints, the body can certainly perform.

DONALD TRUMP REQUIRES AN ADULT RESPONSE

Unfortunately for China, Iran and the international community, we are dealing with a childish yob in the White House, but one in charge of a superpower, not a train set in the nursery. The only possible approach, at least in the short term, is to attempt to deal with him, and to accommodate at least some of America's more reasonable wishes. (The Independent editorial)

US wants India to end trade barriers for American firms

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

The US wants India to eliminate trade barriers for American firms and remove data localisation restrictions, while expecting that the new Government here will address these issues, said visiting US Commerce Secretary Wilbur Ross Tuesday.

"Our goal is to eliminate barriers to the US companies operating here including data localisation restrictions that actually weaken data security and increase the cost of doing business," he said here.

Ross was speaking at the Trade Winds Forum and Trade Mission. He is leading a delegation of over 100 American businesses in India.

"We applaud India's commitment to addressing some of these barriers once the government is reformed probably in the month of June," he said in his speech.

Ross also alleged that India imposes very high import duties on goods like automobiles, motorcycles, agri-products and alcoholic beverages.

"As President Trump has said, trade relationships should be based, and must be based, on fairness and reciprocity. But, currently, US businesses face significant market access barriers in India. These include both tariff and non-tariff barriers, as well as multiple practices and regulations that disadvantage foreign companies," he said.

He said that India's average applied tariffs rate is 13.8 per cent and remains the "highest" of any major world economy, "the very highest".

Citing examples, he said, there is a 60 per cent tariff on auto, while the US has 2.5 per cent.

India has 50 per cent import duty on motorcycles and 150 per cent on alcoholic beverages, "just a few extreme examples," he added.

India imposes bound tariff rates — maximum import duty India can charge under global trade rules of WTO — on agricultural products at the average of an "incredible" 113.5 per cent and some are as high as 300 per cent, he said, adding that "they are way too high".

However, India's trade experts counter this by saying that India is not a 'tariff king' and it has all the right to take appropriate measures to protect the interest of specific sectors like agriculture.

"We are working diligently with the Indian Government and our private sector partners to address market access issues through the US-India commercial dialogue and through the recently re-convened US India-CEO forum," Ross said.

Major obstacles being faced by the US companies include price controls on medical devices and restrictive tariff and inspections on electronics and telecommunications products.

He noted that duties on routers, switches and parts of cellular phones are as high as 20 per cent.

In stark contrast, he said, the duty on these products imported by the US from India is zero.

"Zero versus 20 per cent. That's not a justified imbalance. These high tariffs undermine India's goal of improving digital access and literacy," Ross added.

He expects that the new government will look at these matters.

"In the World Bank's Ease of Doing Business report, India climbed an impressive 23 spots this year but it still ranks 77 out of 190 countries. So, there is lots of room for further improvement," he said.

He also mentioned that India is the US' 13th largest export market due to "overly restrictive" market access barriers.

Referring to trade imbalance with India, the commerce secretary said the US accounts for 20 per cent of India's total exports.

₹ slips 3 paise to 69.43 against US dollar

PTI ■ MUMBAI

The rupee on Tuesday slipped further by 3 paise to close at 69.43 against the US currency due to lag-end dollar demand from banks and importers amid sustained foreign fund outflows.

Losses in the domestic equity market and a strengthening dollar against major currencies overseas amid trade worries also weighed on the local unit, forex traders said.

Investor sentiment took a beating after IMF chief Christine Lagarde said US-China trade tensions were a 'threat' to the world economy.

Crude oil prices also dropped further on growth concerns. Brent crude futures declined 1.19 per cent to trade at $70.39 per barrel.

The rupee opened flat at 69.40 and later rose to the day's high of 69.29 at the interbank forex market. However, it failed to maintain gains and touched intra-day low of 69.46 against the US dollar. It finally settled at 69.43, down 3 paise from the previous close.

The rupee had settled 18 paise lower at 69.40 against the US dollar Monday.

"Rupee is consolidating in narrow range," V K Sharma, Head PCG & Capital Markets Strategy, HDFC Securities commented.

The rupee came under pressure following a massive selloff in the domestic equity markets.

The BSE Sensex ended 323.71 points, or 0.84 per cent, lower at 38,276.63. The index hit an intra-day low of 38,236.18 and a high of 8,835.54.

Similarly, the NSE Nifty dropped 100.35 points to settle below the 11,500 level at 11,497.90. During the day, the bourse hit a low of 11,484.45 and a high of 11,657.05.

Foreign investors were net sellers in capital markets Monday pulling out assets worth Rs 948 crore on a net basis, provisional exchange data showed.

Meanwhile, the Dollar Index which gauges the greenback's strength against a basket of six currencies, rose 0.04 per cent to 97.55.

Meanwhile, Financial Benchmark India Private Ltd (FBIL) set the reference rate for the rupee/dollar at 69.3095 and for rupee/euro at 77.7010. The reference rate for rupee/British pound was fixed at 90.9706 and for rupee/100 Japanese yen at 62.59.

IMF chief says US-China tensions 'threat' to world economy

AFP ■ PARIS

The head of the International Monetary Fund said on Tuesday that fresh trade tensions between the United States and China were the main threat to the world economy.

"Clearly the tensions between the United States and China are the threat for the world economy," Christine Lagarde told journalists at a conference in Paris, adding that recent "rumours and tweets" made an agreement between the countries less likely.

President Donald Trump jolted global markets on Monday by threatening on Twitter that tariffs already imposed on $200 billion in Chinese exports to US would more than double to 25 per cent on Friday from their current level of 10 per cent.

Also speaking at the Paris Forum event, French Economy Minister Bruno Le Maire warned about the impact of a trade war between the world's two biggest economies.

"We are following the current negotiations very closely between China and the United States and we want them to respect the principles of transparency and multilateralism," he said.

He called on the two sides to "avoid taking decisions that would threaten and would undermine global growth in the months ahead."

GST will not reduce deficits of State Govts significantly: Report

PTI ■ SINGAPORE

Goods and Services Tax (GST) regime in India is not likely to reduce the deficits of state governments significantly, amid large and growing expenditure mandates for the social sector as well as capital spending, says a report.

According to S&P Global Ratings the institutional framework for Indian states is evolving, but there is structural deficits due to persistent revenue expenditure mismatch.

S&P Global Ratings credit analyst YeeFarn Phua in the report titled "Public Finance System Overview: Indian States" noted that the passage of the GST bill in 2017 is a major overhaul of tax structure and will help to widen the tax base and improve revenues of state governments.

"However, states will continue to run large deficits because a significant part of this imbalance is from the expenditure side. States are unable to cut expenditures because of large and growing expenditure mandates for the social sector as well as capital spending. Therefore, the revenue-expenditure gap will remain large," said Phua.

Prabhu for Govt-to-Govt pact between India, United States

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

Commerce and Industry Minister Suresh Prabhu Tuesday made a case for a Government-to-Government agreement between India and the US to facilitate private companies in both the countries.

"Can we have Government-to-Government agreement in which we will make sure that the policy support that is required for private sector emanates from this umbrella agreement," he said here a function, which was attended by the US business delegation, led by US Commerce Secretary Wilbur Ross.

Prabhu said public policies may sometimes create challenges for corporates "but if we have a government-to-government agreement, we can clearly spell out the certainty, stability, forward-looking policies and this will facilitate companies to prepare their corporate plans".

He also expressed hope that issues being faced by businesses in India and the US can be sorted out in a way that benefits both the countries.

"I can clearly see that issues can be sorted out in a way that benefits both the countries," Prabhu said one needs to look at big picture and make sure that irritants are tackled in a manner that helps foster this relationship.

The remarks assumes significance as Indian companies are raising issues like restrictive visa regime in the US, American firms are flagging concerns related to India's intellectual property policies and e-commerce norms.

Prabhu said India's economy is expected to touch $5 trillion in the next 7-8 years and $10 trillion by 2035 and in this, US companies can help.

"These numbers are possible to achieve only when we have friends like you (the US). With this growth, US companies will also benefit," he added.

Further, the commerce minister said that in the US, President Donald Trump's slogan that let's "Make America Great Again," "I would add and say let's Make America Great Again by making India-US relationship far better again".

Speaking on the occasion, Ross said, "I think we should rephrase that (slogan) to MAG-AWIC — Make America Great Again with Indian Cooperation."

Porsche fined 535 mn euros over diesel cheating

AFP ■ FRANKFURT AM MAIN

German sports car maker and Volkswagen subsidiary Porsche will pay a 535-million-euro ($598 million) fine over diesel vehicles that emitted more harmful pollutants than allowed, Stuttgart prosecutors said Tuesday.

"The Stuttgart prosecutor's office has levied a 535-million-euro fine against Porsche AG for negligence in quality control," the investigators said.

Porsche "abstained from a legal challenge" against the decision, the prosecutors office added.

Tuesday's levy against Porsche is the latest in a string of fines against VW over its years-long "dieselgate" scandal.

The auto behemoth admitted in 2015 to manipulating 11 million vehicles worldwide to appear less polluting in laboratory tests than they were in real driving conditions.

NCLT begins bankruptcy process for Anil's RCom

PTI ■ MUMBAI

The lenders to the crippled Reliance Communications (RCom) on Tuesday moved NCLT to appoint a new resolution professional and form a committee of creditors, the first step to begin the bankruptcy process of the Anil Ambani group company that owes close to ₹50,000 crore RPT crore to 31 lenders led by State Bank of India.

Meanwhile, RCom through the existing resolution professional, sought 13 months exclusion in the insolvency process citing the stays it had on the process by the appellate tribunal and the Supreme Court.

The RP sought the exclusion from April 30, 2018 to May 30, 2019 as the initial insolvency proceedings was stayed by the National Company Law Appellate Tribunal (NCLAT) and later by the apex court.

RCom was in trouble for years forcing it to discontinue operations two years ago. Its effort to stave off bankruptcy by selling spectrum to Reliance Jio got scuttled after the long legal and Government delays for approvals.

Also, the company has not been successful to meet any of the several publicly made promises to pay back the lenders by monetising real estate and spectrum assets.

Last month company chairman Anil Ambani managed to avoid a contempt of the Supreme Court and a possible jail term after a last-minute bailout by elder brother Mukesh who extended him over ₹480 crore to pay back vendor Ericsson, which was the first operational creditor to drag it to NCLT last year.

Earlier, China Development Bank from which RCom had borrowed over $1

18 girls under NTPC's 'Super 30 Girls' programme crack IITJEE mains

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

Enrolled under NTPC's 'Super 30 girls' programme, a Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) initiative introduced by India's largest power generating company, 18 girls, out of 25, have successfully qualified for the IIT JEE mains.

The year-long residential program, implemented with an objective to coach students belonging to economically weaker families, brought these aspirants a step closer to fulfilling their dream of studying in some of India's premier institutes.

As part of this noble initiative, rolled out in association with the Centre for Social Responsibility and Leadership (CSRL), NTPC bears the entire cost of boarding, lodging and coaching for the girl students belonging to underprivileged families.

After an MoU was signed between NTPC Northern Region Head Quarter in Lucknow and CSRL, New Delhi, NTPC & CSRL jointly initiated the 77.03 lakh-program for 30 girls selected from families living in the vicinity of NTPC plants in the northern region.

Sensex plunges 324 pts

PTI ■ MUMBAI

Benchmark indices Sensex and Nifty fell for the fifth session in a row on Tuesday, marking their longest losing streak in nearly three months, as US-China trade tiff and lukewarm corporate earnings dented fears of uncertainty in markets.

Both equity gauges traded higher for better part of the session, only to give up gains towards the fag-end of trade, with the BSE Sensex closing 324 points lower and the NSE Nifty diving over 100 points.

Among other factors, depreciating rupee and weak global sentiment dampened the mood on domestic bourses.

The Sensex was mainly dragged by Tata Motors, ICICI Bank, Bharti Airtel and Reliance Industries — shedding as much as 4.60%.

The quarterly results of ICICI Bank and Bharti Airtel failed to attract investors and both the companies saw constant sell-offs during the session.

On the other hand, HUL, L&T, PowerGrid, Infosys, ONGC and Bajaj Auto ended higher.

Indian bourses, after starting the session on a high, came under heavy selling pressure as domestic investors' sentiment took a beating after IMF chief Christine Lagarde said US-China tensions were a 'threat' to the global economy.

Global markets have been rattled by the concerns over the health of the world economy ever since US President Donald Trump on Sunday threatened to hike tariffs on USD 200 billion worth of Chinese goods.

In-line with global markets, the 30-share index ended 323.71 points, or 0.84%, lower at 38,276.63. The BSE index hit an intra-day low of 38,236.18 and a high of 38,835.54. Intraday, the index swung nearly 600 points.

Similarly, the NSE Nifty dropped 100.35 points to settle below the 11,500 level at 11,497.90. During the day, the bourse hit a low of 11,484.45 and a high of 11,657.05.

Both Sensex and Nifty also marked its longest losing streak since February 19 this year.

"Indian market has been on a shaky ground for the past couple of days driven by ambiguity associated with the US-China trade negotiations and less-than-inspiring ongoing corporate earnings season," said Jagannadham Thunuguntla, senior vice-president and head of research (wealth), Centrum Broking.

Sectorally, BSE telecom, energy, oil and gas, bankex, metal and realty indices took a beating, ending up to 2.44% lower. In the broader market, BSE midcap and smallcap indices too ended in the red, dropping up to 0.98%.

Shares of ICICI Bank fell by nearly 4% on Tuesday after the company's fourth quarter earnings failed to impress investors.

Private sector lender ICICI Bank on Monday posted a 2.45% rise in its consolidated net profit to ₹1,170 crore in the fourth quarter of 2018-19.

Bharti Airtel stock also declined over 3% post the announcement of March quarter results.

The company, whose profitability has been battered by intense price competition posed by richest Indian Mukesh Ambani's Reliance Jio, earned a net profit of ₹107.2 crore in the January-March period as against ₹82.9 crore it earned in the corresponding period of the previous fiscal.

The Indian rupee on Tuesday slipped further by 3 paise to close at 69.43 against the US dollar amid foreign fund outflows.

In Asia, Chinese bourses, however, recovered with Shanghai Composite Index ending in the green. Equities in Japan and Korea closed in the red. European stocks were also trading lower in early trade.

Global benchmark Brent crude was trading 0.74% lower at USD 70.71 per barrel.

Meanwhile, foreign institutional investors (FIIs) sold equity worth ₹948.98 crore on Monday, while domestic institutional investors (DIIs) purchased shares to the tune of ₹89.89 crore, provisional data available with stock exchanges showed.

Hughes, Airtel to combine India VSAT biz

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

Telecom operator Bharti Airtel and Hughes Communications India Ltd (HCIL) on Tuesday announced they would combine their VSAT (Very Small Aperture Terminal) satellite operations in the country.

The HCIL is a subsidiary of broadband satellite networks and services provider Hughes Network Systems.

Hughes will have majority ownership in the combined entity while Airtel will have a significant shareholding, according to a statement.

The statement did not spell out the financial details of the transaction, which is subject to requisite approvals.

"The combined entity will benefit from enhanced scale, improved operational efficiencies and wider market reach. The combined entity will be well positioned to leverage the demand for secure connectivity in a rapidly growing digital economy," it said.

The VSAT is used to provide satellite based telecom and internet access to individuals and enterprise users.

"We are very excited about the synergies that this partnership will bring to the Indian ecosystem," Banerjee said.

Lanka still faces threat of ISIS terror attacks: PM

PTI ■ COLOMBO

Sri Lankan Prime Minister Ranil Wickremesinghe on Tuesday said that authorities have arrested or killed all the militants responsible for the deadly Easter blasts, but warned that the country still faces the threat of ISIS terror attacks.

Speaking in Parliament during a debate on the current security situation in the country, Wickremesinghe said all those directly linked to the Easter Sunday attacks were either killed or are in custody.

Nine suicide bombers carried out a series of devastating blasts that tore through three churches and three luxury hotels on the Easter Sunday. The Islamic State claimed the attacks, but the government blamed local Islamist extremist group National Thawheed Jammath (NTJ) for the bombings that killed more than 250 people.

Wickremesinghe said investigations had revealed the bombers had direct or indirect links with Islamic State and the island nation needed sophisticated technology to deal with the threat posed by such terror networks.

"The danger is not over, we are now a victim of global terrorism," he said.

He said that Sri Lanka must work with the international community to face the global threat from terrorism.

"Some assume working with the international community means bringing down foreign troops. That will not happen," he said.

His comments came as Sri Lankan police and military chiefs assured that the country is now safe and can get back to normalcy.

Addressing a press conference on Monday night, the tri-forces commanders and the police chief said the security of the country following the April 21 bombings has been ensured with adequate measures and steps have been taken to implement a special security plan.

Acting Inspector General of Police (IGP) Chandana Wickremaratne said that all those directly linked to the attacks on three churches and three luxury hotels have been arrested or were killed.

He also said that all the explosives believed to be linked to local Islamist outfit National Thowheeth Jama'ath (NTJ), blamed for the attacks, have been found.

"All explosives possessed by the terrorist group have been seized."

Almost everyone identified with the group have been arrested. Two of their bomb experts have died in the clashes. The police can happily announce that everyone with direct links have been either arrested or killed by now," he said.

Climate change missing as US defends Arctic policy

AP ■ ROVANIEMI

The Arctic is melting, but don't ask US Secretary of State Mike Pompeo to mention climate change. Nor to agree a text that mentions it.

For the Trump administration, disappearing sea ice in the world's "high north" is first and foremost an opportunity to exploit rather than a crisis to mitigate.

That position was made clear by Pompeo over two days as the foreign ministers of the eight members of the Arctic Council met in Finland, which is wrapping up its two-year chairmanship of the Arctic Council.

Finnish Foreign Ministry Timo Soini said Tuesday there will be no joint declaration at the after the summit couldn't get the United States to agree on a text that includes language about climate change.

Instead, he said there would be statements from ministers and Finland which currently holds the chair of the Arctic Council.

May seeks Brexit deal amid mounting pressure to quit

AP ■ LONDON

British Prime Minister Theresa May faced renewed pressure on Tuesday from lawmakers in her Conservative Party to abandon efforts to seek a Brexit compromise deal with the opposition Labour Party.

After several weeks of fruitless negotiations, senior Conservative and Labour lawmakers resumed discussions in what appears to be one final push to reach an agreement.

The talks have been given new urgency by last week's local elections, which saw the Conservatives hammered and Labour also lose ground as voters expressed anger at the country's Brexit impasse.

Almost three years after Britain voted to leave the EU, the date and terms of Brexit remain uncertain. The U.K.'s departure date has been postponed from March 29 until October 31 because lawmakers have repeatedly rejected May's divorce deal with the bloc.

That has led her to seek a deal with Labour. But the left-of-center opposition party insists it will only agree to a Brexit deal that includes a permanent customs union with the EU to avoid barriers to the trade of goods.

The government wants a looser relationship with the bloc that would let Britain strike new trade deals around the world.

Foreign Secretary Jeremy Hunt said "compromises on all sides" were needed "because the message of last week was that voters for both main parties are very, very angry about the fact that Brexit hasn't been delivered."

But suggestions the government might soften the terms of departure from the EU has infuriated pro-Brexit Conservatives, who are demanding May's resignation.

"The time has come for her to resign," said lawmaker Bill Cash.

"She needs to be given a date. The sooner the better. But it needs to be done in an orderly manner."

Istanbul vote re-run is 'best step': Erdogan

AFP ■ ANKARA

Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan on Tuesday welcomed a controversial order to re-run the recent Istanbul election after complaints of corruption as the "best step" for the country.

"We see this decision as the best step that will strengthen our will to solve problems within the framework of democracy and law," Erdogan told a meeting of his party members in parliament.

Erdogan's comments came a day after the top election body cancelled the March 31 vote that handed opposition candidate Ekrem Imamoglu a narrow lead over Erdogan's ruling Justice and Development Party (AKP).

The AKP has refused to accept defeat, citing "irregularities and corruption" in the vote.

Erdogan on Tuesday talked of "organised crime" and "serious corruption" during the vote.

"The documents we have presented are quite solid and based on concrete evidence which cannot be disputed," he said.

Indonesia thwarts ISIS-linked bomb plots: Police

AFP ■ JAKARTA

Indonesia has thwarted a bid by Islamic State-linked militants to stage a series of bombings when it announces official election results this month, authorities said.

Police in the Southeast Asian nation said Monday that they had arrested eight suspects at several locations over the past week, including in Sumatra and near the capital Jakarta.

Afghan official: Taliban hit security checkpoints, 8 die

AP ■ KABUL

An Afghan official says the Taliban have targeted security checkpoints in northeastern Takhar province, killing eight members of the security forces.

Wafuillah Rahmani, head of the provincial council, says three soldiers and five policemen were killed in Monday night's attack in Khwaja Bahaudin district.

The Taliban claimed responsibility for the attack. The insurgents stage near-daily attacks on Afghan forces, even as peace efforts have accelerated to find an end to Afghanistan's 17-year war.

Separately, Dadullah Qaneh, councilman in western Farah province, says coalition forces on Sunday carried out airstrikes against Taliban-run heroin labs, killing 15 laborers.

But Mohibullah Mohib, the provincial police chief's spokesman, says those killed in Bakwa district were all members of the Taliban.

Russia probes pilot error after deadly plane blaze

AFP ■ MOSCOW

Russian investigators were on Tuesday considering pilot error as the cause of a crash-landing that saw a plane erupt in flames at Moscow's busiest airport and kill 41 people, media reported.

The Sukhoi Superjet-100 had just flown out of Sheremetyevo airport on Sunday evening when it sent out an emergency signal and circled back, bouncing on the runway and catching fire.

Sources in the investigation told Kommersant newspaper the Aeroflot pilots made a number of errors including flying into a thunderstorm and landing with a full tank rather than circling to use up fuel.

Drive your way

The tourism sector is booming the world over. AMIT JAIN shares tips on how students can make a career in the field

India, world's third-largest economy in terms of purchasing power parity is witnessing a huge scarcity of travel professionals due to a big gap between the demand for qualified personnel and supply of qualified personnel to cater to the needs of the ever-growing tours and travel industry.

The industry is registering an annual growth rate of 7 to 9 per cent, and according to the World Travel and Tourism Council (WTTC), India is more likely to contribute ₹8, 50,000 crore to the world's GDP by 2020 through travel and tourism. The sector is not only doing well in India, but its global performance is even, more better. In the year 2017, the worldwide industry turned out to be 10.4 per cent of global GDP with 313 million employees, as per the report of WTTC. These growth trends clearly depict that tourism industry is opening new vistas for job seekers, equipped with professional degrees.

■Career opportunities: In the wake of globalisation, it appears as if people have understood the fact that limited study and knowledge gained from only a particular university or institution is not going to take them to newer heights of success. If they have to make success happen and improve their employability in the competitive market, they must enhance their knowledge and learn new skills, transcending the geographical boundaries if required. Popularising the trend of educational tourism, various schools and universities in India have started joining hands with foreign institutions. On the other hand, the outflow of Indian students taking courses abroad is also increasing significantly. As per the recent data, the year 2018 saw 81 per cent of the students visiting Australia for higher education enrolled in various post-graduate courses. The reason is hands-on experiences, cultural enrichment, and attractive job prospects that contribute to the personal development of an individual. The students get relevant insights into the diverse cultures and gain meaningful experiences from varied industries, eventually helping them to increase the credibility of their CVs.

Also, travel brands are turning up to technology for producing authentic and better booking experiences. An urgent need for digital marketing experts is realised by such travel brands who can effectively market the brands online and win more customers online. SEO executives, content writers, and social media managers are massively hired to keep pace with the growing trend of travel and technology.

■Qualifications and skills required : A programme in tourism management helps groom one's overall personality and offers adequate knowledge and skills to make one competent at the workplace. Usually, courses in tourism management offer students a flexible study format where working executives can also attend lectures on weekends or as per their convenience. Apart from having interaction with the industry-experienced faculty, students are exposed to practical learning through educational tours, seminars and workshops.

The Ministry of Tourism, approved the post-graduation degree in tourism which further makes the candidates eligible for a suitable job in the industry. With a Master of Tourism Administration degree (MTA) from Indian Institution of Tourism and Travel or any other recognised institute, candidates can apply for the best job positions in the industry. Also, ticketing skills, communication skills, management of foreign currencies, customer service, geography knowledge, and expertise in digital marketing directly correspond to well-paid jobs in travel and tourism.

‘Let’s link our rivers’

A jointly by the National Waterways Development Authority and All People Welfare Trust to create awareness about Ganga-Kanyakumari waterways project, here on May 4, 2019, Dr G Viswanathan, VIT Chancellor said that States can take as much water as they want and provide the remaining water to their neighbouring states by interlinking their rivers. Everybody will accept interlinking of rivers as it will help all people and nobody will oppose it. “The MLAs and MPs need to accord highest priority to interlink rivers and save water and the new Government which will assume charge at the centre soon should accord highest priority to interlink rivers in the country so that the country's people and farmers will benefit by this,” he said.

Water is important to all countries, especially to India. India has about 18 per cent of world's population but we have only 4 per cent of fresh water and 2.4 per cent of land area, so we need to preserve our water and land else we will face issues.

Recalling his interaction as Parliamentarian with then Minister for water resources

KL Rao during 1967, Dr Viswanathan said that Rao felt that even though all rivers in the country could be interlinked with Ganges, it would be easy to link Godavari to Cauvery and South will not face any problem for water. The project can be done at an inexpensive cost and no State would oppose it.

“India's Budget is about ₹28 lakh crore and if we allocate ₹1 lakh crore to interlink rivers the scheme can be implemented in one year. The Centre has spent ₹5 lakh crore for Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme, if the centre had spent this amount for interlinking of rivers, a lot of farmers would benefit,” he said.

He said that water should be stored in reservoirs, dams and water bodies when it rains, as people have been facing water shortage issue in the country. “We need to use drip irrigation for farming as we can save about 30 to 40 per cent of water and it is being followed in several places in the world,” Viswanathan said.

Justice T Raja released a book Towards The Second Freedom written by Professor A C Kamaraj and Dr Viswanathan received the first copy of the book.

A NEET analysis

The medical entrance exam concluded on May 5, 2019. ANURAG TIWARI breaks down this year's paper and tells you that a score of 130 will be a qualifier

The NEET 2019 analysis and cut-off after the National Eligibility cum Entrance Test (NEET) concluded on May 5, 2019. This year, the overall NEET question paper was of moderate difficulty level. While Physics section was moderate, Chemistry was easy and Biology was difficult.

The overall Physics section of the paper was of moderate difficulty level. Up to 60 per cent questions were easy, 30 per cent were of medium difficulty level and only 10 per cent questions were relatively tough. This year 60 per cent of questions were based on NCERT. While 70 per cent of questions were based on numerical, 30 per cent comprised of theoretical questions. Also, 45 per cent of questions were asked from Class XI syllabus and 55 per cent questions were asked from Class XII. As compared to last year, this year's paper was easy and required less calculations. In terms of subject-wise distribution, approximately 40 per cent questions were asked from Electricity and Magnetism, 40 per cent from Mechanics and the balance 20 per cent from Modern Physics.

The Chemistry section of the paper was easy. Large majority of questions were asked from NCERT. Almost all the chapters were covered. Mostly theory based questions were asked and only 20 per cent questions were based on numerical. While 55 per cent of questions were based on class XI syllabus, 45 per cent questions were based on class XII syllabus. Around 20 per cent questions were asked from Organic Chemistry. The questions were quite fundamental and basic and were based on NCERT. From Physical Chemistry, approximately 42 per cent questions were asked. These comprise both numerical and theoretical questions. The numerical questions were easy in nature and involved mostly a two-step solution and were direct and formulae based. It was surprising that no questions were asked from Aldehydes, Ketones and Carboxylic Acid which are considered to be important topics. As compared to last year, the Chemistry section was easy and almost all the chapters were touched upon.

Biology is the most important section of the paper as it carries maximum weightage. The Zoology part of the section was difficult. Around 40 questions were asked. Some of the questions were quite tricky and difficult.

Approximately 60-70 per cent questions were based on NCERT. Many questions were asked outside the realm of CBSE. Some of the questions also deviated from the syllabus. While 60% ques-

QUOTE UNQUOTE

The overall level of the NEET examination was between easy to moderate level. Most of the questions were based on NCERT textbooks. There were no surprises in the exam. The pattern was similar to that of last years. No section was particularly difficult. There were almost 7-8 questions directly taken from previous year's paper and NCERT textbook. The questions were direct. An aspirant who has studied from NCERT, will be able to score well in the exam. The expected general cut off for NEET qualified would vary between 125-135. But for admissions in colleges the cut off may vary 510-520.

— Navin C Joshi, Academic head and VP (NEET and JEE) at Gradeup

Overall NEET 2019 was of moderate difficulty level with Physics being the most difficult of the three subjects while Biology was the easiest but lengthy. The expected cut off for today's exam is 130-140. Out of the total 45 questions in Physics, 9 were tricky, 25 of medium difficulty level and 7 were easy. In Chemistry, the questions related to chemical reactions were tricky. Out of 45 questions in Chemistry, 7 were tricky, 20 of medium difficulty level and 18 easy. The Biology section was the easiest but the lengthiest with 45 questions each from Botany and Zoology. Out 90 questions, 35 were easy, 45 of medium difficulty and 10 difficult.

— Rajshikhar Ratrey, VP, Educational Content, Toppr.com

tions were asked from class XI, 40 per cent were asked from class XII syllabus. More questions were from Human Physiology and Biotechnology.

From Botany, 50 questions were asked. Here more than 90 per cent questions were based on NCERT. More questions were asked from Microbes and Ecology. Though questions were asked directly from NCERT, they were tricky and difficult. More statement based questions were asked. As a result, the Botany part was lengthy.

Overall the Biology section covered almost all the chapters. However, as compared to last year, the Biology section was difficult.

EXPECTED CUTOFF

To qualify in NEET 2019, candidates have to score equal to or more than the prescribed minimum percentile of marks in NEET 2019. This year, we expect a student from general category to score anywhere between 120-130 marks to qualify in NEET 2019. It is to be noted that NEET 2019 qualifying cut-off is determined category-wise, so when checking cut-off, candidates should refer the cut-off percentile in their respective categories only.

How to choose a regional centre

Choosing the right regional centre is the first step to an effective US immigration process, says ROGELIO CACERES

The US has been a preferred destination for education, work, business and ranks high on the personal choice for migration amongst Indian families. Though there are many visa options available, the EB-5 Immigrant Investor Visa Program has taken the centre stage more recently.

The regional centres (RC) are a USCIS approved private or public entity that facilitates the process for the investor and ensures that the capital invested creates jobs and promotes economic growth. The best way to choose the right centre depends on:

Define Your Goal: The EB5 Investors mainly focus on three goals: Will I get my Green Card; Will my investment be safe and how will I get my money back. Occasionally there will be an investment that will provide a safe and secure way of generating marginally higher returns on that investment along with delivering the 3 key goals.

The outcome of all of them depends on your choice of the regional centre and the project they are offering. It is highly recommended that an investor must carefully evaluate the project, closely monitor the EB-5 investments and cautiously select the appropriate regional centre to minimize risks and losses. One can browse through the USCIS website for designated regional centres.

Track Record of the Regional Centre: Before investing in a project and joining hands with a regional centre, an investor must conduct proper due diligence. The investor must evaluate all aspects of the RC's history. Consider their pedigree, investment philosophy, their history of approvals, feedback of existing clients among other key aspects of their functioning including key deliverables for the investor through out the process.

Project Due Diligence: The EB5 investments could be across sectors like real estate, hospitality, education, manufacturing, etc. It is essential to know where your money will be invested by the RC. If a project is not able to create enough jobs or complete construction or remain commercially sustainable, then one or more of your key goals (Green Card, Safety of Principal, Return of Capital) may be at risk.

Inspecting a business' history, understanding its commercial viability, investment timeline and cycle, dependency on external funds, pedigree of the project developer, stage of construction, collaterals and guarantees negotiated by the regional center are some of the key aspects that should be taken into account.

Meet the Team: Humans do business based on trust. When you're making a significantly large investment decision it's important that you build trust, faith and lay out the rules of engagement with your partner — regional centre.

The team assisting management process of your investment plays a vital role and should comprise of individuals who specialise in employment-based and EB-5 investment immigration work. They should be well-versed with the rules and regulations of both the US and your home country.

Understand the Exit Strategy: As per USCIS data, between three-five applications are disapproved because of missing documents, issues with the source of funds, information on the petition, improper fee payments or something that has gone wrong with the project where you've invested.

If USCIS rejects your application, your money will be transferred from the escrow account back into your own, however one must understand the terms and conditional revolving such a return of capital. If an EB-5 application is approved, your transferred funds will be invested for the development of your chosen project. However, not all Regional Centres provide a clear path of return of the capital investment.

Ultimately, choosing the right regional centre is a step towards the efficacious immigration process.

The UPSC has a predefined pattern to select the candidates for the civil service posts, in which candidate has to be through with pre-exam, afterward to mains and then interview. Prelims is qualifying in nature which means that you need to score just more than the cut-off marks to clear it. Here we got multiple choice questions with negative marking to avoid nonsensical candidate and to make this cumbersome process easier.

Even under the most fierce competition, the cut off marks for Paper 1 will not be so high and for Paper 2 you need to score just 66 marks.

A lot of revision needs to be done before the examination because there will be the least probability of factual questions and more probability to have reasonable questions which require a lot of understanding to differentiate from closed choices.

Reasonable questions are cracked through understanding behavior which comes from practicing or revising the same thing again and again.

Few important tips for last month preparation

Short sticky notes: Need to make a short list of things to remember so that it can be retained for long.

State affect practices: Practice state-affect of examination at home before appearing to the final day. What's your exam strategy for CSE 2019? With two hours of two slots to complete the test, students should be able to chart an exam strategy that can help them to solve the paper without wasting a minute. Follow an order depending on your strengths and weaknesses. Attempt the paper in a way that makes you feel confident and comfortable.

Increase your speed and accuracy: While answering the question, students need to keep a check on their accuracy levels. For this purpose, aspirants may attempt sample test papers or previous year questions papers by keeping a stopwatch with you. Assess how much time you take for each section and improve your speed accordingly. Make a tally of your answers how many questions you are attempting, among them how many are correct, and which one you guessed (level of guessing). Afterward, try to think about your choices which went wrong. Rectify those mistakes and solve it again.

Full-length comprehensive test: Now is the time to take the full length and mixed comprehensive test apart from going to selective areas of polity, geography, history, etc separately.

Stay motivated and try to reinforce yourself with a positive environment and thoughts.

City in Good KOMPANY

Manchester City captain nets stunner to help Pep's men beat Leicester 1-0

AFP ■ MANCHESTER

Manchester City manager Pep Guardiola led the tributes to Vincent Kompany after the Belgian's thunderous strike earned a nervy 1-0 win over Leicester City on Monday to move the English champions to within one win of retaining the Premier League.

City moved back one point clear of Liverpool despite not being at their fluent best as centre-back Kompany unleashed a long-range shot into the top corner 20 minutes from time.

Guardiola's men will become the first side in a decade to retain the title at Brighton on Sunday as long as they match or better the Reds' result at home to Wolves.

Kompany, who has endured terrible luck with injuries over recent years, was in tears as he led a lap of honour with his children to mark City's final home game of the season and may have played for the last time at the Etihad with his contract expiring at the end of the campaign.

"There are players that help us to be where we are right now," said Guardiola. "Vincent is one of them."

"When is fit he is an incredible central defender. He is beloved, he is a leader. I'm happy for him, for the club, for everybody."

After edging past Newcastle 3-2 on Saturday night, Liverpool, who have not won the league since 1990, were left praying that former manager Brendan Rodgers could do them a favour at the Etihad.

Leicester's marked improvement since Rodgers took charge in February was on show in an impressive display from the visitors as City were made to sweat but just got over the line for a vital three points.

And Guardiola admitted he had urged Kompany not to shoot as he lined up his first goal from outside the box since he was playing for Hamburg in 2007.

"It's not about the amount of goals you score it's about when you score them. Today it was necessary," said Kompany.

'WE HAVE THE PRESSURE'

"Every step in the last four months was significant. Liverpool keep making the steps and now we have a final to play in Brighton. Nothing is won yet."

City have now won 13 consecutive league games to overhaul a seven-point deficit at the top of the table in January and Guardiola claimed it is his side that have had to play under pressure despite Liverpool's 29-year wait to win the title.

"It was outstanding the way we played in the second-half. The character, the personality, knowing how difficult it is," added Guardiola.

"Right now Liverpool play without pressure. We have the pressure, we know we can lose it because it is in our hands."

Sergio Aguero came closest to opening the scoring before the break with a header that clipped the inside of the post and was palmed clear by Kasper Schmeichel.

Yet, it was not until after the break that City upped the tempo to lay siege on the Leicester goal.

City thought their moment had come when the ball fell kindly for Aguero inside the area, only for Schmeichel to make a miraculous stop.

Guardiola's men have now scored 157 goals this season but there will not be a more spectacular or unexpected one than that which may deliver the title.

Kompany looked short of options as he strode forward before unleashing a rocket of a shot that arrowed into the top corner.

"At the end of the season we are going to talk to him," said Guardiola on whether Kompany will be handed a new deal.

"He is an incredible human being. He helped me a lot since I've been here. Always we can count on him for his personality."

Leicester still had a huge chance to answer Liverpool's prayers three minutes from time.

But against his former club Kelechi Iheanacho shot wide with just Ederson to beat and a titanic tussle for the title remains in City's hands heading into the final day.

"He should score, I've said that to him afterwards," said Rodgers.

"We didn't have many chances, but the one that came he's got to score that."

Pochettino urges Spurs to make history

Mauricio Pochettino has challenged Tottenham to seize their unexpected chance to make history as they try to overturn a 1-0 deficit against Ajax in the Champions League semi-final second leg on Wednesday.

Pochettino is convinced Tottenham can still reach the club's maiden Champions League final despite losing the first leg in north London last week.

Many pundits and fans claim Tottenham have blown their opportunity after Donny van de Beek's strike gave Ajax a priceless lead to defend in Amsterdam.

Tottenham go into their biggest game for decades on a low note after losing 1-0 at Bournemouth on Saturday, a defeat that stopped them wrapping up a place in next season's Champions League via a top-four finish in the Premier League.

It was a third successive loss in all competitions for Tottenham, who finished with nine men after red cards for Son Heung-min and Juan Foyth.

Fortunately for Tottenham, they are still all but certain to finish at least fourth after Arsenal and Manchester United were both held to draws on Sunday.

Tottenham are three points clear of fifth-placed Arsenal heading into their last league game of the season against Everton on Sunday and a draw will be enough to ensure their return to Europe's elite club competition.

But before that Tottenham, trying to reach their first European final since the 1984 UEFA Cup, have to focus on the challenge presented by Ajax's vibrant young side.

Having already eliminated Real Madrid and Juventus this season, Ajax showed their vast potential against Tottenham in the first leg and should have been further ahead after Van de Beek's opener.

Tottenham improved slightly in the second half, but largely looked toothless without the suspended Son and injured top scorer Harry Kane.

Crucially, Pochettino will have Son back from his ban for the second leg and the South Korea forward should give his team a far more dynamic look.

'MASSIVE WEEK'

Pochettino remained upbeat despite the frustration of losing to Nathan Ake's last-minute goal at Bournemouth, and the Tottenham manager hopes his confident attitude transfers to his players against Ajax. "We have ahead two finals' against Ajax and Everton and it's in our hands to be in a good position at the end of the season," Pochettino said.

Although Tottenham will know they have missed a golden opportunity to reach the final if they don't succeed in the second leg, Pochettino is adamant his players have done more than enough already to make him proud of their efforts this term.

"No-one believed we'd be in this position in the last week of the competition," Pochettino said. "We are in a position where it depends on us to be in the (Champions League) final or not and then it depends on us to finish in the top four."

"It's a massive week and that's why we need to move on, try to recover as soon as possible and be ready again but whatever happens I am going to feel proud."

Djokovic destroys Fritz in solid start

AFP ■ MADRID

Novak Djokovic needed just 65 minutes to make a winning start at the Madrid Open on Tuesday, hammering Taylor Fritz 6-4, 6-2 to reach the third round.

The top seed and world number one broke three times as he schooled the American.

Djokovic won the Madrid title in 2011 and 2016. He will be chasing a fourth straight Grand Slam trophy at Roland Garros next month.

Third seed Roger Federer was making his clay return after two full seasons off the surface when he faced Frenchman Richard Gasquet later in the second round after a bye.

Unseeded treble Grand Slam champion Stan Wawrinka started his Madrid campaign with a 6-2, 6-3 win over Pierre-Hugues Herbert to move into the second round.

"It was a great first match. I've been good on the practice court, feeling really good, so it was important to start well today," Wawrinka said. Wawrinka will next play Argentine Guido Pella, who put out Barcelona finalist Daniil Medvedev 6-2, 1-6, 6-3.

In the women's WTA draw, third seed and two-time champion Simona Halep of Romania ended the hopes of Johanna Konta 7-5, 6-1 in the second round.

The Briton had made a dash to Madrid on Sunday evening after playing the Rabat clay final. Konta won her opening match against Alison Riske but could not match Halep, the defending French Open champion.

"I feel good every time when I come to Madrid and I'm happy to be back and winning matches," Halep said. "It was a good match. Both of us played very well and, in the end, I was a bit stronger mentally and I found a rhythm."

Fourth seed Angelique Kerber withdrew before her second-round match. The defending Wimbledon champion is suffering from a right ankle injury.

Kerber was to have played in the evening session against Croatian Petra Martic.

GODIN CONFIRMS ATLETICO EXIT

AFP ■ MADRID

Atletico Madrid captain Diego Godin announced on Tuesday that he will leave the club at the end of the season.

Godin has been one of the best central defenders in the world under Atletico coach Diego Simeone, who attended an emotional press conference at the Wanda Metropolitano, along with several players and president Enrique Cerezo.

The 33-year-old would not confirm his next club but indicated regret at not being able to agree a new contract.

"I'm nervous, even more than for a match," said a tearful Godin. "These will be my final days at Atletico Madrid. I want to communicate all the love I have for this club, this shirt."

"I am Atletico, because this is not a club, it's a family and a way of life. It has been my home and it's very hard to say goodbye. I never imagined this moment would come and I am not prepared."

Godin has made 381 appearances for Atletico and remains a key figure in the team, but the Uruguayan has rejected offers to extend his contract, which expires on June 30.

He is unlikely to be the last high-profile player to leave Atletico this summer.

After a disappointing season, Lucas Hernandez has already agreed to join Bayern Munich, while uncertainty hangs over the futures of Filipe Luis, Juanfran, Thomas Partey, Saul Niguez and even Antoine Griezmann.

"In short, I am captain of the team and have been here many years," said Godin. "We have not reached an agreement to continue so my time here is over. It has been the best of my career and my life."

Godin added: "I would like to play here until I'm 40 but it's impossible. For me the priority has always been the club, the team, my teammates."

"But we could not reach an agreement so I have decided to leave. There's nothing more to it than that."

Since joining Atletico from Villarreal in 2010, Godin has won La Liga, the Copa del Rey and the Europa League twice. He also reached the Champions League final in 2014 and 2016. Atletico lost both to Real Madrid.

32 Indian youth eligible for US Kids Golf Europe events

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

India's growing strength in junior golf has been amplified with the qualification of as many as 32 players in various age-group competitions under the global banner of the US Kids Golf. The 32 kids are from as many as 13 age groups — eight among boys and five among girls. The 32 comprise 20 boys and 12 girls, who are now eligible with Priority Status for US Kids global events in Europe and some of them will also be eligible for World Championships, depending on their status.

Of the five categories of Priority Status, Burgundy status holders will be eligible for US Kids World Championships and 13 of the 32 Indian players have earned the Burgundy status on the basis of their scoring. Of the remaining, 14 have Orange Status and five have Blue Status.

The opportunity to play on international courses also readies the youngsters to play on Championship courses where the world's best compete annually. This year the European segment of US Kids will see the players practice and play at courses like the Renaissance, Gullane, Craigelaw, Archerfield Links and others.

Each age-group's competition is held at a different venue and all the events are scheduled for the last week of May.

Gullane is where the prestigious Scottish Open was held last year with India's Shubhankar Sharma playing it for the first time, while this year's Scottish Open is scheduled to be held at the Renaissance, so the UK Kids Golf events will give the teen and pre-teens a chance to see and play course they will hope to play on as adults later on.

A lot of the youngsters who have achieved Priority Status this season will be playing in Europe for the first time, adding to their experience of playing in quality courses in India and Asia and now Europe.

DHONI, RAYUDU HELP CSK TO 131

PTI ■ CHENNAI

Mahendra Singh Dhoni failed to launch a brutal assault on a sluggish pitch but did enough in company of Ambati Rayudu to propel Chennai Super Kings to 131 for 4 against Mumbai Indians in the first IPL Qualifier on Tuesday.

The CSK total was built largely on a fifth wicket stand of 66 off 48 balls between Dhoni (37 no off 29 balls) and Rayudu (42 no off 37 balls) when other batsmen found going tough.

Dhoni smashed Lasith Malinga for two huge sixes in the penultimate over to provide impetus to the CSK innings, which was stymied by the MI bowlers, especially the spinners.

MI leg-spinner Rahul Chahar continued his impressive season, with a superb spell of 2 for 14 in his quota of 4 overs. He kept the batsmen on a leash with turn and bounce.

CSK didn't get off to a good start, losing three wickets in the Powerplay, as MI skipper Rohit Sharma used five different bowlers in the first five overs.

The visiting team kept things under control in the Powerplay, restricting CSK to 32 runs while picking up three wickets.

At the halfway stage, CSK barely managed to reach 50, which was a sign of their struggles.

Faf du Plessis (6) got one from Rahul that bounced a bit more as his cut went straight to substitute fielder Anmolpreet Singh at backward point.

Suresh Raina's (5) attempt to slog Jayant Yadav resulted in a skier which the bowler took with ease.

Shane Watson, who struggled for form, played a trademark pull off Jasprit Bumrah, but fell going for a big hit off Krunal Pandya, taken brilliantly by Jayant Yadav running backwards from his mid-on position.

Murali Vijay attempted to consolidate in Watson's company and succeeded to an extent, before being stumped by Quinton de Kock off Rahul Chahar for 26 (26 balls, 3X4).

Dhoni hit the first six of the match in the 14th over, lofting Jayant (1/25 in 3 overs) over long-on. Rayudu on the other hand hit three fours and a six and concentrating taking the singles and doubles with boundaries hard to come by.

DC face SRH in eliminator

PTI ■ VISAKHAPATNAM

The road to the final has become difficult but Delhi Capitals have the means to drive their way through the obstacles, starting with the eliminator against Sunrisers Hyderabad here on Wednesday.

Re-branded before the start of the 12th season, Delhi Capitals have been one of the top sides in this edition, playing cricket never seen before from them.

It is a bit harsh on Delhi Capitals that they are playing the do-or-die game despite securing 18 points after nine wins and five losses from 14 matches.

Despite winning three matches more than Hyderabad, severely weakened by the departure of David Warner and Jonny Bairstow for their World Cup national camps, DC find themselves in the same boat as SRH and a defeat will knock them out of the league.

Delhi Capitals have never reached the IPL final, never made the top-two, and ventured into the top-four for the first time since 2012.

Considering the results and consistency, it seemed DC's search for that elusive winning combination has finally ended, which brought the smiles back on the faces of fans after years of disappointment.

Picked in the trading window, India opener Shikhar Dhawan lived up to the expectations of the team management and franchise, scoring over 450 runs.

Along with the young Prithvi Shaw, the experienced Dhawan formed a fine opening combination, and scored briskly in the powerplay overs.

Skipper Shreyas Iyer (over 400 runs) showed immense maturity while leading the side and also played some substantial knocks.

Ignored from the World Cup squad, Rishabh Pant has proved his worth in the side with his handy cameos at crucial junctures.

They will miss the services of pace spearhead Kagiso Rabada but DC have enough firepower in bowling to surprise SRH, who became the first team in IPL history to qualify for the playoffs with 12 points.

While the duo of Warner and Bairstow played a pivotal role in SRH's performances and dominated the powerplay better than other teams, the likes of Manish Pandey stepped in after they left to be with their respective national teams.

In bowling, Rashid Khan, Bhuvneshwar Kumar and Khaleel Ahmed have done just enough to help Sunrisers Hyderabad keep things.

In Kane Williamson, SRH have a dependable captain and he will expect a little more from his New Zealand team-mate Martin Gupthill.

It will be another opportunity for Vijay Shankar to make a mark before flying to the United Kingdom for the World Cup.

Will use Ashwin's tips in the World Cup: Mujeeb

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

Injury and poor form made it a forgettable IPL season for Afghanistan spinner Mujeeb ur Rahman but the time away from the field was well spent as he picked on Kings XI Punjab skipper Ravichandran Ashwin's brain ahead of the World Cup in England.

A shoulder injury meant that the 18-year-old wasn't at his best during the cash-rich league, getting only three wickets in five games with an expensive economy rate of 10.05 runs per over.

"I have learnt a lot having spend quality time with Ravichandran Ashwin in the KXIP set-up. He has given me a lot of useful tips and I am sure that I will execute those plans in the World Cup. During this edition of IPL, my shoulder injury was an issue. But now I am fully fit for the World Cup," Mujeeb told reporters at a promotional event to announce Amul's association with Afghanistan national team.

While he hasn't played many matches this year, the best part about IPL according to Mujeeb is the opportunity to bowl at some of the prospective World Cup opponents.

"The IPL schedule is so hectic and you are travelling a lot. It's not that you get a lot of chance to talk about the game. But since you get a chance to bowl in matches where there are batsmen who will be there in the World Cup, it helps a lot," said the Afghan teenager.

Asked if he faced the second season blues, something which was evident when he went for 66 runs in his four overs against Sunrisers Hyderabad, Mujeeb said it was part and parcel of cricket.

"You will have a few bad days and it's just that you have to be consistent with your line and length," Mujeeb said.

The youngster is hopeful that along with senior spinners Rashid Khan and Mohammed Nabi, it will be a better World Cup for Afghanistan compared to the 2015 edition when they were making debut.

"Our aim is to at least qualify for the semi-finals. All three of us have different strengths and the main thing that we discuss on-field is to stick to our respective plans. The basic plan is to consistently bowl good areas and hopefully we will be able to do that," he said.

Meanwhile, Afghanistan chief selector Dawlat Khan Ahmadzai justified the unexpected sacking of ODI skipper Asghar Afghan ahead of the World Cup, saying the decision was taken looking at the long-term future of the team.

"We realised that we can't win the World Cup at this moment under Asghar's captaincy or anyone else who would have been in charge. We made the decision not just thinking about this World Cup, we are thinking about the 2023 edition.

Warner should open with Finch: Mark Waugh

Considering that David Warner can be much more destructive than any other batsman during the field restrictions, he must open for Australia alongside Aaron Finch at the World Cup, suggests former selector Mark Waugh.

Usman Khawaja has scored more ODI runs (769) for Australia this year than anyone else and formed a formidable opening combination with along Finch during Australia's two most recent ODI series against India and Pakistan but Waugh thinks Warner is still the best option.

"I would definitely have him (Warner) opening. He is the number one opener in my opinion, so he has got to open with Finch," Waugh told the Big Sports Breakfast radio program.

"He is the most dangerous when the field is up and the field restrictions are in place and he can get the team off to a flyer."

The left-handed Warner has been in excellent touch as he scored lot of runs at the top of the order in the IPL. In fact, all his 104 ODI innings for Australia has come as an opener.

Waugh feels Khawaja and Shaun Marsh are the best options to bat at number three, while the remainder of Australia's batting order looks pretty clear cut.

"I think either Khawaja or Shaun Marsh bat at three and they should be fighting for that spot," he said.

"The rest probably picks itself...With (Steve) Smith at four, (Glenn) Maxwell (at) five, (Marcus) Stoinis (at) six and (Alex) Carey (at) seven."

Hales still has future with England: Bayliss

AFP ■ LONDON

England head coach Trevor Bayliss says Alex Hales still has an international future despite being axed from the World Cup squad after he reportedly failed a second positive test for recreational drug use.

The Nottinghamshire player was named in England's preliminary 15-man squad for the tournament only to be withdrawn last week.

Bayliss said the door is open for the hard-hitting 30-year-old batsman, who has played 70 one-day internationals and 60 Twenty20 internationals.

"Alex still has an international future," Bayliss told Sky Sports. "I have spoken to him and given him that message."

"It's certainly not the end of him. He's a very important player and there is no reason why he can't come back."

He added: "I think we've come to the right decision. Being respected off the field as well as on it is very important."

The English head coach also said that the selectors would have to make a "very difficult decision" following the impressive form of newcomer Jofra Archer, who made his debut against Ireland last week.

Speaking about the Barbados-born all-rounder, Bayliss said: "He's fitted into the group extremely well. I thought he bowled some good spells in Ireland without too much luck and I thought he bowled pretty well in the T20 match a couple of days ago."

"It's all looking good. It's going to be a very difficult decision for the selectors, whichever way we go."

Morris replaces Nortje in SA squad

South Africa suffered a blow ahead of the World Cup with fast bowler Anrich Nortje being ruled out of the tournament due to a fractured thumb.

Chris Morris has been called up as his replacement for the mega-event, commencing on May 30.

Nortje overcame ankle and shoulder injuries over the course of the summer before he could make his international debut in March this year. On the basis of his performances, the 25-year-old was selected in South Africa's World Cup squad.

Unfortunately, Nortje fractured his right thumb while practising in the nets, and it has now been confirmed that he would need six to eight weeks rest to recover fully.

The 32-year-old all-rounder Morris, who has not played an ODI in more than a year, has replaced Nortje in the 15-member squad.

WI name Gayle as Holder's deputy

Explosive opener Chris Gayle has been named vice-captain of the West Indies team for the World Cup.

Gayle, who is set to retire from ODIs after his fifth World Cup appearance, is in top form going into the tournament, having scored close to 500 runs in the IPL. He was also in devastating form in the home series against England, hitting two hundreds and as many half-centuries in the five-match series.

"It is always an honour to represent the West Indies in any format and this World Cup for me is special," Gayle said after being named Jason Holder's deputy on Monday.

Gayle is a former West Indies captain who last led the regional side in June 2010.

"As a senior player, it is my responsibility to support the captain and everyone else in the team. This will probably be the biggest World Cup, so there will be great expectations and I know we will do very well for the people of the West Indies," said the 39-year-old, who has amassed 10151 runs in 289 ODIs at 38.16.

It was also announced that Shai Hope will be the vice-captain in the on-going tri-series in Ireland involving the hosts and Bangladesh.
