The European Union (EU) of 27 governments issued a statement Wednesday condemning what it described as “a purely political move” by India to withdraw from the regional South China Sea Code of Conduct process. The EU said India’s move was to withdraw after the South China Sea Code of Conduct was announced.

The statement came as fighting between government forces and the Maoist rebels in India’s eastern Jharkhand state claimed the lives of at least 10 people, according to local reports. The government has accused the rebels of attacks on police stations and villages.

The South China Sea Code of Conduct is a forum for dialogue and cooperation among the five claimant countries (China, Vietnam, the Philippines, Malaysia and Brunei) and the states with an interest in the disputed maritime region. The EU has repeatedly supported the process and defended it as a way to resolve disputes.

The EU condemned India’s decision as a “regrettable step” and urged both parties to find a peaceful resolution to the conflict. The EU also called on all parties to respect international law and the UN Convention on the Law of the Sea.

Meanwhile, the EU also expressed concern over the situation in Jharkhand and called on the government to ensure the safety and security of all its citizens.

STUBBLE BURNING – Kejriwal indigulating in lips: Capt

New Delhi: Punjab Chief Minister Capt Amarinder Singh, who was in New Delhi on Wednesday for the all-party meeting, has decided to turn his attention to the political situation in Punjab, the Chief Minister said in a press conference later in the evening.

After hearing the blow-by-blow account of his own ignominy, Capt. was moved to a state of political ennui. However, he assured the nation that he will continue to fight against the BJP in the upcoming Assembly elections in the national capital.

The air pollution in the national capital was drastically reduced due to the transport congestion activity, widespread civic activity, and proper regulation of the city traffic. The situation in Delhi is much better than it was under the previous Kejriwal's regime.

Mumbai: Maharashtra NCP Chief Ajit Pawar on Wednesday said his party and the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) have not shown any signs of including the regional party in the power-sharing arrangement in the state, as demanded by the Congress.

"We have been asked to sit in the Opposition and we will do so," Pawar told PTI when asked if his party's talks with the BJP were on a positive note in the ongoing by-polls to three Assembly seats in the state.

"We will not take a call even from the Prime Minister," he said.

The state assembly elections are due in less than 18 months. The BJP and the NCP have so far won only one and two seats, respectively, in three Assembly by-polls held so far this year.

"It is their responsibility to make the government," Pawar said.

BJP state unit chief Ashish Shelar, however, has said the Shiv Sena and the NCP are the natural allies of the BJP in the state, and that the party would demand them as part of the NDA coalition government.

Pawar also said that his party would not contest any elections on its own in Maharashtra.

"When elections are due, we will not contest alone," he said.

The NCP leader, who is also the NCP's senior Most Preferred candidate in the forthcoming Maharashtra assembly elections, was on Wednesday unan-ed by the Central Election Commission in response to a plea filed by the NCP leader for being included in the list of Most Preferred candidates in the state.

"I have been included in the list of Most Preferred candidates in the forthcoming Maharashtra assembly elections," he said in his affidavit.

He said he would contest the elections from the Latur Assembly seat, where he has been designated as the most preferred candidate by the NCP.

A Tale of Two Sates

For decades India and Saudi Arabia had a strained relationship. The Saudis were known for their First Class generosity but their policies were anathema to the Indian ethos. They were a brother state but we were not on the same wavelength. We wanted closer ties, but they were not interested in becoming our ally. As a result, we had to be content with the status quo. However, all this changed when a new leader took over in both countries. He was a visionary leader who wanted to see closer ties between his country and India. He believed that the two countries had a lot to gain from each other. He was determined to make India and Saudi Arabia the two biggest economies in the world. His policies were aimed at achieving this goal. He was determined to make India and Saudi Arabia the two biggest economies in the world. His policies were aimed at achieving this goal.

Trump impeachment procedure unveiled, Whill it ‘illegitimate sham’?

FT WASHINGTON

The Democratic Party, which now controls the US House of Representatives, and its Republican rival, Joe Biden, have agreed to open a new debate on impeachment against the US President, Donald Trump, as a joint statement.

The statement comes after President Trump was impeached for the first time last week, in a vote by a majority of MPs to remove him from office.

The move comes as the Democratic Party, which has previously blocked the impeachment of the president, has now joined forces with the Republicans in the House to push for his removal.

BRIEFING

Democrats have expressed their support for the impeachment of the president for his role in the events leading up to the US Capitol riot.

They have called for the president to be removed from office, arguing that he bears responsibility for the violence.

BRIEFING

The announcement comes a day after the president was acquitted by the Senate, which is controlled by the Republican Party.

The Senate voted along党 lines to acquit the president, with 52 Republican senators voting to acquit him and 48 Democratic senators voting to convict him.

CLOSING

The president has denied any wrongdoing and has refused to resign from office, saying that he will not accept the results of the impeachment vote.

He has also called for the impeachment process to be ended, arguing that it is a political stunt.

APPEAL

The Democratic Party has vowed to continue to push for the president’s removal, saying that he should be held accountable for his actions.

The origins of Pushkar, a small town which is not spoiled by tourism, date back to 5th century BC as a temple town. The town is still the abode of the god Brahma and remains a place of pilgrimage for Hindus. The whole town is devoted to one of the four great gods of Hinduism.

The Legend of Pushkar

This is Pushkar, a small ancient town of the state of Rajasthan in northwestern India. It is famous for the sacred Brahma temple located south of the town. The town is situated in a bowl-shaped landscape of the Aravalli Range, surrounded by the holy Pushkar lake.

Despite its immense religious significance, the town has remained relatively untouched by tourism. It is a place where the devout come to offer their prayers and seek blessings from the gods.

The town is home to a number of temples and shrines, including the Brahma temple, which is considered one of the most sacred in India. The temple is dedicated to Brahma, the god of creation, and is surrounded by a number of smaller temples and shrines.

The Aroma of Fresh Flowers

The town is also famous for its beautiful gardens, which are filled with a variety of flowers and plants. The gardens are especially beautiful during the autumn months, when the flowers are in full bloom.

The Camel Fair

One of the most unique features of Pushkar is the annual camel fair, which takes place in November each year. The fair is a major tourist attraction and draws visitors from all over the world.

The fair is held in the town's open spaces, where camels are displayed and traded. Visitors can also see a variety of other animals, including cattle and goats.

The Beauty of Pushkar

Pushkar is a place where the old and the new coexist. The town is a blend of ancient and modern, where traditional customs are still practiced alongside modern technology.

The town is a place of pilgrimage for Hindus, and is considered one of the most sacred places in India. Visitors can see a variety of temples and shrines, and can take part in religious ceremonies and rituals.

The Food of Pushkar

Pushkar is also famous for its delicious cuisine, which is a mix of local and regional flavors. Visitors can sample a variety of dishes, including traditional vegetarian dishes and spicy curries.

Shakib’s absence is added motivation

Shakib Al Hasan’s absence from the Bangladesh team for the upcoming Twenty20 International (T20I) series against Australia has been an inevitable talking point. However, the team skipper, Tamim Iqbal, has stressed on the importance of this series for the team’s growth.

“I was trying to give my all, and the T20I was very much an important match for us,” Tamim said.

Multinational, however, admitted that it would be a difficult assignment against India.

“Every match is important, and it’s a tough one,” Multinational said.

Tamim went on to highlight the importance of the up-and-coming players.

“Every player has their role to play, and we need to make sure that they perform well,” Tamim added.

Multinational then turned to the importance of the upcoming series.

“It’s a crucial one for us, as it will help us prepare for the upcoming World Cup,” Multinational said.

The series against Australia will be a significant test for the Bangladesh team, as they look to solidify their position in the T20I rankings.

“It’s a golden opportunity for us to show our potential and perform well,” Multinational concluded.

Multinational also expressed his confidence in the team’s performance.

“We are confident in our abilities, and we will give our best in every match,” Multinational said.

The Bangladesh team’s focus will be on improving their performance in the T20I format, as they look to qualify for the World Cup in 2021.
