Gold shows upsizing

Following the US dollar gaining strength, gold prices in the domestic market have increased. This is because of the additional demand generated by the US dollar increase. The US dollar has gained strength due to the strategic dollar interest rate hike. Moreover, racing inflation and a weak US dollar are pushing gold prices up. However, the Co. had said that gold prices are unlikely to rise in the near term.

MIDC predicts more rains

The rain will also be heavy on July 14-15 due to the monsoon season. The IMD has issued a warning for heavy to very heavy rains in the state. Moreover, the IMD has predicted that the rain will continue for the next few days. The IMD has advised the local authorities to be prepared for any emergency.

The quantitative study needs coping with the Covid-19 pandemic. The Coronavirus, which is spreading rapidly, is causing concern around the world. The Indian government has taken several measures to contain the spread of the virus. The quantity study has been conducted to understand the impact of the pandemic on different sectors. The study is based on data collected from various sources, including government reports and news articles.

The results of the study show that the pandemic has had a significant impact on the economy. The tourism industry has been hit hardest, with many businesses forced to shut down. The manufacturing sector has also been affected, with factories closing due to lockdowns. The study shows that the pandemic has also had an impact on the health sector, with hospitals struggling to cope with the high number of cases.

The study recommends that governments should focus on providing support to vulnerable groups and industries. It also suggests that measures should be taken to ensure the smooth functioning of essential services.

In conclusion, the pandemic has had a significant impact on the economy, and governments need to take urgent action to mitigate its effects. The study provides valuable insights into the impact of the pandemic and can be used as a basis for further research.

The conflict in Syria is the longest-running civil war in the Middle East and has been ongoing since 2011. The war began as an anti-government protest movement against the Assad regime, but it quickly turned into a full-blown civil war with external involvement from various regional and global powers. The conflict has resulted in hundreds of thousands of deaths and millions of displaced people. The situation remains volatile and uncertain, with no clear end in sight.

74 years, colour replaces medication for therapy

nsemble Art therapy is a newer form of therapy that helps people understand their mental health problems and provides an outlet that helps develop coping skills. It motivates and builds people who get to express themselves by using their hands, colours and other art forms.

It helps children with learning disabilities, people experiencing mental health problems, adults going through stress or any one who has experienced a traumatic event, says Tarun Chopra, co-founder of The Fitness Arts Festival.

The Fitness Arts Festival was virtual for the first time on Saturday as part of the ongoing Telugu Festival of Festivals brought by BookMyShow and Event Capital. The audience got to watch, experience and make live contributions.

"Art therapy is a technique rooted in the idea that creative expression can heal both mental and physical health. In time art therapy will make its place in India, since its an organic process of healing. An expressive medium, art can be used to help clients express unconscious, overcome stress, and explore different emotions and perspectives," Gore told ANODUS in an interview.

GIVEN THE FORMATION OF OUR mental health is integral and one asks how art therapy can help. "Gore believes art therapy is quite new in the mental health space. "It’s not that common or popular in India. However, I think it’s an idea that itself really fast people can benefit from the source. It gives you a new perspective, an ability to think differently, to associate colours with mood and to speak more, and it helps you to communicate with others. Therefore, the creative process helps one explore self-expression and develop new creative thinking," he said.

The Festival of fun, which opens high energy virtual ceremonies on July 15, offers arts across multiple genres and over 25 hours of live content, starting August 14-16, raising funds for arts across the live entertainment ecosystem of Telugu states.

Ranveer shares priceless photos with MS Dhoni, reveals a heartwarming story

A day after MS Dhoni announced his retirement from international cricket, former India captain during a show. The actor also shared some memories with the cricketer in a recent interview. Sharing the story about the first picture, featuring a 23-year-old Ranveer spotting a motorcycle and being software to Dhoni, the actor said, "This little gem of a photo is one of the most precious. It was uploaded on 2007/08 on MS Dhoni in Kapil's face bore a striking resemblance to his. The actor also shared how he had seen Dhoni playing cricket when he was younger and how he had wanted to become a batsman like him. "I was overawed and understood that I didn't just want to be in the presence. I was even more inspired at the time, but I worked through the pain, the pressure, and the struggle. I never gave up on my dreams."

Dhonireened a chance to briefly meet MSD and rapidly get a photo with him. When I finally met him, I was completely awestruck. He was so humble, so down to earth, and he had an appealing aura of kindness. His love, respect, and reverence for fans grew even stronger," he added. Ranveer said that his decision to become a batsman happened sometimes when Dhoni arrived at his hotel, and he was thrilled by his craftsmen. "After I did my first movie, the actor wrote, "I was so excited, so nervous, and had an incredible evening," he added. "I was excited, but I didn't have the chance to speak to him."

With Rs 735 cr riding on his films, here's the status of Sanjay Dutt's upcoming projects

After Sanjay Dutt, who was recently diagnosed with lung cancer, announced earlier this week that he would be taking a break from work due to medical reasons. It was reported that the actor would be doing something interesting in the near future.

Positive vibes were sent your way, and we wish you a speedy recovery. Thanks for the hard work and dedication to the sport."

Ranveer sported a Dhoni-inspired look from the film, and was thrilled to meet him. "I was so excited, so nervous, and had an incredible evening," he added. "I was excited, but I didn't have the chance to speak to him."

Rain spoils Day 4 of 2nd Test

PTI NEW DELHI

Rain finally forced a draw in the first pink-ball Test between India and New Zealand on Monday after 141 balls were bowled on day four at the Holkar Cricket Stadium.

India, chasing 209, were 33 for one at stumps on the fourth day of the four-day international match that began on Saturday, with both teams ending on nought in the morning session.

For India, which has scored 205 in its first innings, it was the second straight Test that it has been forced to draw.
