Local bodies, the stepping stone for Ministers, MLAs

Considering the examples of present leaders as the paths for their emergence many new leaders representing rural populous have started making efforts to join the fray at the upcoming elections.

 THROUGH THE WARP AND WEFT Warangal is not the only place where the emerging leaders of Urban Local Bodies are joining the Assembly politics. In Warangal, a similar example. He was a product of Urban Local Bodies. He was not attending his duties. He refused to give someone a dummy pill to tackle Amaravati. Where would the money come from, when he was not to be paid? And he was doing 46 miles in the court, the accruals of which were neither to go anyplace nor to the government.

The rural teachers came to the notice of Nalgonda. Under the Education department are the leaders of Urban Local Bodies. The government has already rejected the application submitted by the Ashwathama Reddy seeking the Rs 10,000 per month.

NCP calls for withdrawal of Seva Dal’s booklet on Savarkar

The NCP, a key Congress ally, Saturday called for withdrawal of a Congress-backed booklet which claims that Hindu ideologue Savarkar was instrumental in the Congress. The grand old party’s leader Ashok Chavan has assured Nationalists that the party will act in the interest of nation. NCP’s chief spokesman Nawaz Mallik said that since the booklet was not yet launched, the party had decided not to take any action.

The booklet titled ‘Savarkar: The Man Behind the Myth’, published by the Congress, seeks to celebrate Savarkar’s contributions to the freedom struggle. It has been accused of glorifying a figure who is associated with the ideology of Hindutva, which has been a contentious issue in India.

The NCP is a key ally of the Congress in several states and has been critical of the government’s policies, particularly those related to the National Register of Citizens (NRC) and the Citizenship Amendment Act (CAA). The Congress had launched the booklet to mark the 74th anniversary of India’s independence.

Over 270 fake J-K contractors booked

Congress leader Rahul Gandhi on Saturday said that 271 contractors in Jammu and Kashmir have been booked for forging documents and cheating the government of millions of rupees. The leaders of the Opposition have been demanding action against the contractors who were supplying fake documents to the government.

The booklets also questioning Savarkar’s credentials as a patriot and his reputation for bigoted and anti-national inclinations.

The NCP is expected to lodge a formal complaint with the police to seek an FIR against the accused for making false statements.

While the NCP has not yet decided on the course of action to take against the accused, the party is likely to lodge a complaint with the police to seek an FIR against the accused for making false statements.
Chinese President Xi Jinping’s massive anti-graft drive continues to gain momentum in China with dozens of top officials, including former top military commanders, being punished for corruption.

According to the Indian Express, at least 75 top officials, including 21 former ministers, have been punished for corruption, including 20 general-grade officials from the military, since the beginning of the anti-corruption campaign launched by 66-year-old Chinese President Xi Jinping’s administration in November last year. Whether you are quaffing French champagne, prosecco from Italy, or something domestic and sparkling, you may end up with some left in a bottle. Here are some ideas to use that leftover sparkling wine.

COLOURFUL PANCAKES
WHAT YOU NEED
- Pancake mix
- Edible colour
- Cold water: 1 cup
- Custard sugar
- Pancake cutter

METHOD
1. Add pancake mix in a bowl. Add 600 ml cold water to it and mix gently until a whisk is used well.
2. Distribute the pancake mix evenly in the mixing bowl. Add four different shapes of round, square, heart, and circle.
3. Heat the fry pan and add one teaspoon of Cooking Oil in it.
4. Spread it evenly and add pancake mix. Pancakes are then poured evenly in random shapes.
5. After about two minutes of cooking, you will begin to notice bubbles forming and popping onto the surface of the pancakes. Then indicates that they’re ready to be flip over. Another thing to be observed is that the edges of the pancake are starting to dry out. Using a fork to check, turn the pancakes and set aside for about nine minutes.
6. After taking them out of the pan, let it cool for a minute and eat the pancake with the help of pancake cutter.

RECIPES
- WHATEVER YOU LIKE
  - Replacement for half the milk in your favourite crepe recipe with champagne.
  - Use champagne in your favourite fondue or Welsh Rabbit recipe.
  - Add champagne to the sauce in your favourite fondue.

CULINARY TIPS
- Serve your pancake until the dry and wet ingredients are just mixed well. While mixing, the flour will then be mixed, but the batter should be used as per the recipe.
- Add the flour and milk to the mix. The batter will be spritzed into the batter.

COOKING TIPS
- Before you start, heat the fry pan and add one teaspoon of Cooking Oil in it.
- Spread it evenly and add pancake mix. Pancakes are then poured evenly in random shapes.
- After about two minutes of cooking, you will begin to notice bubbles forming and popping onto the surface of the pancakes. Then indicates that they’re ready to be flip over. SWEETER CHAMPAGNE SHOULD BE SAVED FOR DRINKS AND DISHES THAT HAVE SWEETNESS ALREADY IN THEM. ZABAGLIONE, AN AIRY SWEET PUDDING, IS A DESSERT TRADITIONALLY MADE WITH CHAMPAGNE, SO YOU MIGHT HEAD IN THAT DIRECTION. NOTE THAT IN COOKING, MOST OF THE ALCOHOL BURNS OUT BUT IF YOU ARE ADDING WINE TO AN UNCOOKED DISH, MAKE SURE THERE IS NO ONE WITH AN ALCOHOL SENSITIVITY CONSUMING IT.

Father sold land to meet education needs

I studied in a government school at Malakonda College in Telangana.

My father passed away when I was 15 years old. I was the eldest son in the family. I was the main breadwinner in the family. My mother, a school teacher, was in charge of the household. I had two younger brothers, Anurag and Anurudh. Anurag was born in 1994, and Anurudh was born in 1996.

In order to meet the education needs of the family, I decided to take up a business. I started a small shop near the college, which helped me to meet the expenses. I also had a regular job in a local company, which provided me with a steady income. I used to save a portion of my salary to meet the education needs of my family.

I also took up a variety of part-time jobs to supplement my income. I worked as a tutor, a delivery boy, and a security guard. These jobs helped me to meet the expenses and save some money for my education.

I was able to complete my high school education with the help of my mother and brothers. I studied hard and secured good grades in my exams. I was determined to pursue higher education and improve my future prospects.

I decided to pursue a degree in commerce. I chose this course because it offered me a good opportunity to get a job and support my family. I also wanted to improve my knowledge and skills in this field.

After completing my degree, I started working in a business firm. I worked as an assistant manager and later became the manager of the firm. I was able to meet the expenses of my family and save some money for my future needs.

I was also able to manage my time effectively. I balanced my work and studies and was able to secure good grades in my exams. I was determined to pursue higher studies and improve my future prospects.
