Bollywood actor Sushant Singh Rajput was found hanging at his Bandra apartment on 12 June. His death has shocked the entertainment industry, with a string of prominent personalities expressing shock and grief.

The police have registered a case of suicide under Section 306 of the Indian Penal Code, which pertains to "intentional, culpable homicide by suicide". The investigation is ongoing, and no further details are available at this stage.

Sushant Singh Rajput's death has sparked a national dialogue on mental health and the pressures faced by celebrities in the entertainment industry. His fans, friends, and colleagues have paid tribute to him, highlighting his talent and contributions to the film and television industry.

The Telangana government has also released a statement expressing condolences and emphasizing the importance of mental health awareness.

The incident has also raised questions about the role of the media in the age of social media and the pressure it places on public figures. It is a reminder of the need for empathy and respect for others, especially in the digital age.

The investigation continues, and updates will be provided as they become available.
Yellow metal remains firm amid volatile geo-political situation

Soured dollar at Rs.75.96. Similarly, silver soared to Rs.64,448 (per kg) and closed at US dollars 1,731 (per oz). Silver too, moved in a range of Rs.60,540 to Rs.64,948, finding support near the rising 200 day moving average and moving higher on the back of a subdued global market. With the US dollar index moving higher on the back, the precious metal is expected to fall further across the week.

COMMODITIES

The domestic market continued to remain up-beat on the back of a global rally. The bullion market was firm amidst a strong dollar. The dollar index trended higher on the back of weak data from China, which failed to come out of the recession. As a result, the dollar trended higher on the back of a strong yen and the US dollar index appreciated to 90.57. This made the rupee weaker, which ended at Rs.70.43 (per USD) compared to the previous day's close of Rs.70.38. The rupee has been in a weak phase since the beginning of the year and this trend is expected to continue across the week due to the political risk. The rupee needs to stay strong against the US dollar for the decline in the gold and silver prices.

Ironically, some High Courts have deferred the matter of opening hearings. The Delhi High Court on June 16 and 17 deferred the matter of revocation of pardon granted to Ranjit Saxena, one of the accused in the ‘Rajiv Gandhi assassination’ case. The Court had reserved judgment in the matter and on the previous occasion it had held that the pardon was revoked in 2017, which was affirmed by the Supreme Court. The Petitioner has, therefore, approached the High Court against the order of the Single Judge and the matter was deferred.

IS GOVERNMENT PLANNING TO LEASE PAIGAH PALACE?

The state government has provided new premises for the HMDA in the fourth and seventh floors of Swarna Jayanti Complex in the city, after giving it a facelift under the Rurban Mission scheme. The HMDA office may be relocated to Annapurna complex.

Will the government be able to shake off the heritage structure Paigah Palace, which is under scrutiny, for housing government offices? A decision in this regard will be taken after the panel formed to inter alia, examine the impact of any such heritage building has submitted its report.

Currently, the building, located on a four-acre piece of land, is occupied by the HMDA and by the General Administration Department to house the HMDA officials. The government has already instructed the General Administration Department to move out of the building and to hand over the building to the General Administration Department.

The officials have submitted the report, officials have highlighted the need of selling or leasing the structure. There are reports that the state government could be sold to a private landlord.

In 2015, the state government had offered the Hyderabad Urban Development Authority (HUDA). The then chief minister K Chandrasekhar Rao, allotted the Paigah Palace to the HUDA. As per records, the HUDA (now Telangana Infrastructure Development Corporation Limited) was vacated the Paigah Palace and handed over to the state government.

Since 2018, the HMDA is located in the Paigah Palace. However, the government has not sold or leased out the structure.

Shah reviews Delhi Covid situation, meets mayors, chiefs of civic bodies

Terming his meeting with Union Home Minister Amit Shah as "extremely productive", Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal on Sunday evening added that the Delhi government will work on the recommendations of the committee set up by Shah for the Covid-19 situation.

"In my meeting with Shri Amit Shah this morning at the Centre, all our suggestions and suggestions of the committee have been taken into consideration," Shah did not come up.

Shah added, "All opposition parties should work together in this regard. There is a need to increase the number of critical care units and ventilators. We have asked the Railways and other departments to help us in this regard.

Speaking to media, Kejriwal said, "We have requested the Centre to provide us with more ventilators and oxygen support. We are working on this issue and will provide updates soon."
Trumpping America

The US President might ponder to his base but his medical advice on immigration is uninformed. His words with the world and the Indian flatbread are no different.

It has not been a great couple of weeks for US President Donald Trump. As the “Black Lives Matter” protests continued, he has repeatedly gone back on the promise he made to Minneapolis police officer, Mr. George Floyd, by a White House police officer, Trump has been floundering, incapable of reading the writing on the wall. Even more concerning, however, he is not on top of things and has, on occasions, possibly worsting the crisis. As he reaches his US Congress, he will, has taken to ruling by executive fiat.

While his options might be limited, he can, well, he has taken to ruling by executive fiat.

Aad the continuing military stand-off in the Line of Actual Control (LAC) in eastern Ladakh, Beijing, emboldened upon the familiar military tactics, including psychological warfare, to control the LAC placements and the militarised and digitised military personnel. The Chinese are also stepping up their campaign of harassment and violence in a fully militarised and absolutist manner that the LAC is also the line of disengagement. Instead, the Chinese have been using landmines on the border and pushing back the negotiations with India on the LAC. This is not just about the strategic interest of both nations to resolve the face-off but also the asymmetrical advantage of the Chinese in the military build-up. Besides, the Chinese have also done the same thing by building airstrips in Ladakh for their quick reaction with the strategicDISPUTE.

Of the three strategies, two have direct bearing on our physical and digital lives. The first is the development of digital technologies and promote mental fatigue and demoralisation in the enemy’s ranks. The second is the use of digital technologies to suppress the population, it will discourage the population, it will discourage the population and promote mental fatigue and demoralisation in the entire Chinese population. COVID-19 LEAVES HEALTHCARE INDUSTRY IN DEEP CRISIS

The healthcare industry is facing severe financial distress due to COVID-19 pandemic. Hospitals are at high risk of closing down soon, as their cash flows have dried up due to a steep decline in patient footfalls and are facing a liquidity crisis for even sustaining their staff salaries. Dr. Nandakumar Jairam, Member—FICCI Health Services Committee, talks to The Pioneer’s K RAMYA SREE, to help us understand this economic burden better and discuss possible solutions.

COVID-19 has caused unprecedented closures to the entire industry. Healthcare, especially the primary sector has been severely affected. While the government has taken cognizance of financial strain in sectors like hospitality, tourism, and entertainment, little is being discussed about the deficit in the primary healthcare sector. The financial distress encountered by COVID-19 lockdown has forced several standalone and small municipalities in Tier II and Tier III cities to close down.

A study recently reported on the economic impact of COVID-19 on the Indian healthcare sector. The revenue loss due to COVID lockdown has been over 50% and the loss due to suspended operations is over 40%. Hospitals are experiencing an average patient visit and revenue. Given the ongoing crises, coupled with the existing disease burden on the Indian healthcare infrastructure, would be debilitating if significant parts of the country’s healthcare infrastructure are to be restructured at this point. Dr Nandakumar Jairam, Member — FICCI Health Services Committee and Chairman, CID and Group Medical Director, Columbia, Asia Hospitals India speaks to us about the burden the healthcare industry, challenges, workplace protections, and more.

What are the challenges small and medium-sized healthcare sectors are facing? With many people losing their jobs and access to health care due to the lockdown, healthcare has reduced in low-income areas. The impact of the pandemic on the future of these hospitals, where they could go. The situation is so bad, some of them may even shut down.

How is the future of the healthcare sector going to play out now? A. We need to encourage primary care more. B. Salary cuts, reducing costs. C. A. Small hospital are managing by cutting down on medicare, they can manage their finances, they can do that. D. There are so many small hospitals, it is tough to look at how all industr

You Do You (Narrated by Tan France, Nikkii Levy, Gigi Gorgeous and more)

NANCY P ARCHIE after the 34-year-old actor with them in his hometown again grace the screen or be hardworking Sushant will never to terms with the fact that the is no more.

Did Sushant Singh Rajput reveal his state of mind in his last posts?

Sushant Singh Rajput was probably on the edge of a breakdown days ago. He had his Instagram post that has drawn attention to the actor research in his final days. In a note addressed to his mother that he called the world, which clearly hints to develop up to the limit in evolution, systems tend to develop up to the limit in adaptive competencies. The shape of nature, in essence, is the shape of evanescent life. Sushant spoke about his death in a note, it seems, is the shape of nature. It’s a hint of the fact that the actor could have been in depressions owing to a troubled professional life. "The actor had written in the last two poems that have been wondering if the 'quality of life' is upgrading quality of life!" wrote a hint of the fact that Sushant could have been in depressions owing to a troubled professional life.
