No new power projects from Indo-US nuclear deal

Parliamentary Standing Committee on Atomic Energy and Climate Change has noted that while power projects have accelerated post the Indo-US nuclear deal, there had been no new power projects from this deal in the last 10 years. The panel has recommended that the Centre needs to re-examine the nuclear deal signed with US in 2008.

India, the world's largest democracy and the second largest emitter of greenhouse gases, has been facing increasing pressure to reduce its carbon footprint. Here's a look at some of the key initiatives that India has undertaken to address climate change:

1. Renewable Energy: India has made significant progress in harnessing renewable energy sources. The country has set ambitious targets to increase its renewable energy capacity, with a focus on solar and wind power. The government has implemented various policies and incentives to accelerate the adoption of renewable energy.

2. Electric Vehicles: To reduce dependence on fossil fuels, India has set targets for electric vehicle adoption. The government has launched several initiatives to promote electric vehicles, including tax benefits, subsidies, and dedicated charging infrastructure.

3. Energy Efficiency: India has implemented various measures to improve energy efficiency across different sectors. This includes initiatives to improve energy efficiency in buildings, industries, and transportation. The government has set targets for improving energy productivity and efficiency, with a focus on industries and transport.

4. Forest and Wildlife Conservation: India has a rich biodiversity, and the government has taken several steps to protect and conserve wildlife and natural habitats. The Country has implemented various policies and initiatives to restore degraded ecosystems and promote sustainable forest management.

5. Cleaner Fuels: To reduce air pollution and address climate change, India has been working on transitioning to cleaner fuels. This includes initiatives to switch to cleaner cooking solutions, promote the use of biomass and biogas, and improve the quality of diesel and petrol.

India's commitment to climate change has been further strengthened by its participation in international forums such as the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) and the Paris Agreement. These frameworks provide a platform for countries to set and achieve their climate goals and work collaboratively to address global climate challenges.

Relief for civil society

SC clears foreign funding for voluntary bodies crusading for public causes and civil rights.

A hard-won battle.

A spate of illegal and improper exercises to stifle dissent and deny voice to the people who speak out against the establishment, which has been in power since 2018, have been  atypical of the regime. The authorities have been using a smorgasbord of state machinery to silence all forms of dissent.

The government has also clamped down on the media and other forms of communication to prevent the spread of information that contradicts its narrative.

Despite these efforts, the people of Pakistan have been able to maintain their collective voice and continue to fight for their rights.

er the embattled出版社 of the Daily Times, the newspaper has been under an unusual strain, showing the impact of the pandemic on its operations. The newspaper has had to lay off some of its staff, and the financial crisis has forced it to reconsider its editorial policy.

Despite these challenges, the newspaper has persevered and continued to publish its content, which includes news, opinion pieces, and editorial commentaries.

The newspaper has also been able to maintain its online presence, providing readers with access to its content through its website and social media channels.

Resolution banking crisis

It is an ongoing challenge for banks to resolve their non-performing loan (NPL) problem, which has become a significant issue in recent years.

Slow growth in the economy, coupled with high levels of inflation, has led to a significant increase in non-performing loans, which has in turn affected the profitability of banks.

The government has taken several measures to address this issue, including the establishment of a special resolution fund for banks, which has been used to recapitalize troubled banks.

These measures have helped to improve the solvency of banks, but there is still a long way to go before the banking sector returns to health.

Sound bite

Sir — This refers to the editorial, “Tax on water”, which appeared in this paper on March 5.

The opposition parties have been critical of the government’s decision to impose a tax on water, which they argue will increase the cost of living for ordinary people.

They have also pointed out that the tax is regressive, as it will disproportionately affect low-income households.

The government has defended its decision, arguing that the tax is necessary to fund the construction of new water treatment plants.

AMID YES BANK CRISIS, CORONAVIRUS CONCERNS

Markets remain under pressure, say analysts

The banking sector was under pressure on Monday as the coronavirus cases outside China continued to rise, with fears of a global pandemic and a major impact on global financial markets.

Market experts said that the markets were also concerned about the impact of the coronavirus on the global economy, with fears that the virus could lead to a slowdown in economic activity and a potential recession.

“The markets are worried about the impact of the virus on the global economy and the potential for a recession,” said one market expert. “The news of new cases outside China is causing a lot of concern.”

India’s benchmark indices were trading mixed on Monday, with the Sensex down 720.67 points and the Nifty down 227.80 points.

India’s banking sector was under pressure, with the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) and the government both taking steps to address the crisis.

Reigning fears of a price war were also a concern, with fears that banks might cut interest rates to keep customers.

“There are fears of a price war among banks, which could put pressure on margins,” said another market expert. “We need to see how the banks respond.”

Investors were also concerned about the impact of the crisis on the economy, with fears that it could lead to a slowdown in economic activity.

Iran reports 49 new deaths, highest single-day toll

Several coronavirus cases have been confirmed in the capital Tehran, the spokesman added.

He said the number of coronavirus cases in the capital had reached 49,000, with 2,734 new cases reported in the past 24 hours.

The total number of deaths in the country has risen to 4,274, with 49 new fatalities reported.

Of the new deaths, 18 were in Tehran.

The spokesman also said that the number of hospitalizations had increased to 2,147, with 1,165 people being treated in intensive care units.

He added that the number of patients in hospital had reached 34,000, with 19,300 people currently receiving medical treatment.

Traces of the virus were found in the bodies of 17 individuals who had died in recent days.

The Iran supreme leader has ordered health authorities to take all necessary measures to prevent the spread of the virus in the country.

Abbas Araghchi, the spokesman of the health ministry, said that the country had been able to control the spread of the virus due to the efforts of the health authorities and the cooperation of the society.

He added that the government had taken all necessary measures to prevent the spread of the virus, including the closure of schools, universities, and all public places.

AHA REF. LONDON

Chelsea pounced to win the Premier League title after a century of wait as the has ascended to the summit of the Premier League in an almost-perfect season.

Frank Lampard’s side won for just the second time in seven league games thanks to goals from Mount, Pedro, Willian and Olivier Giroud.

The Londoners displayed at Stamford Bridge.

In fourth place, some five points clear of fifth-placed United, Lampard made three substitutions with pace and precision.

Giroud headed in the opener after a cross from Mount, whose agile half-volley struck an inward deflection off Simon Mignolet in the 14th minute with a long-range blast, but Chelsea

Now five points clear of fifth-placed Pedro, Willian and Olivier Giroud achieved a demolition of Everton on Sunday.

Lampard has urged his team to respect me. Nobody likes to be whistled, their dissatisfaction, which Jordi Alba then voiced last weekend’s loss against Real Madrid.

But it was an vibrant end to a much-criticised season.

It was a great year for our international team captains, whose efforts helped them to win a silver at the recent Olympic Games.

Australia outclass India in 120 World Cup final da saved their worst for the last as they struggled to 85 for 4 before an unassailable fifth 120 World Cup win propelled them to their fourth title in the global tournament.

I

Rahul Dravid and Adam Gilchrist shared the most famous partnership in international cricket history for double centuries.

The trio's innings lasted 350 balls and resulted in India reaching 245-9 in the final against Australia. India's aggregate of 245-9 was a record total in an ODI final.

With the game in the balance, the Indian batsmen continued to hit out, and the Australian bowlers failed to contain them.

India's captain, MS Dhoni, scored an incredible 143 not out from 57 balls, including 14 sixes and 13 fours, to set up a thrilling finish.

However, Australia's bowlers were unable to contain India's batsmen, and India crossed the line with four wickets in hand.

Hardik, Bhuvi return to face SA

Bhuvneshwar Kumar and Hardik Pandya have been recalled to the Indian team for the three-match ODI series against South Africa.

Bhuvneshwar has not played for India since his back surgery in April 2019, while Hardik has been out of action since September 2019.

The duo will return for the first time since their injury lay-offs, and are keen to prove their fitness and form ahead of the T20 World Cup in 2022.

Their return will be a boost for India, who are looking to maintain their momentum after winning the recent series against England.

Our guys know how to get Pujara: Wriddhiman

Wriddhiman Saha has revealed how he challenges the likes of Cheteshwar Pujara, who is considered one of the world's best batsmen.

Saha said: “Cheteshwar Pujara is an amazing batsman, and I think it’s because of that that people say he is the best. But I believe that we both have a good understanding of each other’s game, and we challenge each other in a friendly manner.”

Saha added: “We both try to outdo each other in every session of batting, whether it’s in the nets or during practice sessions. Our friendly rivalry has helped us improve as players.”

Saha and Pujara have a strong bond, and their competitive spirit has helped them shine at the international stage.

Can’t blame Shafali for defeat: Harmanpreet

Harmanpreet Kaur has attributed India’s loss to Shafali Verma’s inexperience.

Shafali, who scored 172 not out in the final, is considered one of the world’s most promising young cricketers.

Kaur said: “Shafali is a very talented girl, and she has performed incredibly well in this tournament. But I think she is still learning, and it’s only natural that she would make mistakes.”

Kaur added: “We are proud of her efforts, and we will continue to support her in her journey.”
