There is a contrasting trend being witnessed in India. While India has been registering a consistent decline in the Covid-19 death rate in the past five weeks with the new confirmed cases in the last 24 hours falling below 40,000 for the first time in three months, States like Kerala, West Bengal, Maharashtra, Karnataka and Delhi are reporting high number of cases, which the Government on Tuesday said is the second wave of the infection.

IIT-G develops low-cost technology to produce anti-aging compounds

A low-cost membrane technology to produce psychoactive drugs and anti-aging compounds from a wide range of agricultural resources like camella sinensis, citrus fruits and peels especially orange peels, berries, ginkgo biloba, parsley, pulses, tea, sea buckthorn and onions has been developed by a researcher of Indian Institute of Technology Guwahati (ITTG). Guwahati (IITG)

Indian Institute of Technology Guwahati (IITG).

Professor Mihir Kumar Purkait, head, Centre for the Environment, and Professor, Department of Chemical Engineering, IIT Guwahati along with his M Tech student V I. Dhadge who have patented and developed the technique did not use any expensive organic solvents, but only water. Hence, the cost of the process and price of pharmaceutical thereon is much cheaper than that of existing solvent-based separation technique.

Professor Purkait, said, "The technology is exclusively pore/particle size based pres-

The water extracts of above mentioned plants/fruits/leaves at optimum plants/rutis/leaves at optimum operating conditions are passed through a specially made cas-cade membrane units of fabri-cated with appropriate molec-ular weight cut off (MWCO) membranes capable of separat-ing targeted flavonoids selec-tively. He also asserted that the developed technology will support "Make in India" initiative of the Government by producing these compounds in the country. Another renowned doctor Kunal Sarkar said that if testing levels were not ramped up the silent spreaders would remain un-identified leading to further spurt in the number of cases. Currently the State was testing about 42-43,000 cases per day, which was not enough he said.

What seems to have creat-deproblem for the doctors is a sudden spurt in the number of viral fevers in various parts of the State. People are going for panic testing, sources said.

Bihar's new chapter

As the State goes to the polls today, the question is whether BJP will sweep federalism away or a young Tejashwi can halt the tide his is probably one time when Nitish Kumar is relevant because of his irrelevance. And his young opponents, sons of his peers, thought to be irrelevant, are carving their own generational relevance at his jaded expense. The Janata Dal (United) leader and r Chief Minister is for all practical purposes a face that nobody wants to see despite the BJP's repeated endorsement of him as a chief ministerial candidate. And for a short time he may own the chair, towed by his hefty alliance partners, who don't want to be seen as sinking him mid-course or appear unprincipled. For a man, who was once seen as a messianic figure and deeply trusted to pull the State out from the dark ages of Rashtriya Janata Dal (RJD) chief Lalu Yaday's misrule, he has ended up being as one of its worst performers. For all the gush of the early years and the morality of prohibition, he stumbled and fumbled along the way without notching up the State's development index significantly. And the pandemic sealed his fate as an inept administrator who had bungled on rehabilitating returnee migrants, students and flood refugees. For an entire generation growing up under Nitish's rule, development has still been a pipe dream. Politically, the man who crafted his survival by pitting the majoritarian BJP against the secular-socialist Lalu, swinging between both depending on trade winds, and retaining the throne in the bargain, is now trapped by his own machinations. He cannot go back to Lalu, having shut the door forever when he deserted him and chose the BJP. And his relationship with the BJP, built on political expediency, is coming apart as its ideological push is against the grain of his inclusive politics. And although he crafted a new caste equation, rallying the downtrodden and nowhere people, the extreme backward castes and Mahadalits, that, too, can no longer be over-played in a statewide epidemic of joblessness and hopelessness. At one time an asset as a regional leader, today Nitish is the BJP's biggest liability. He knows that and can scarcely do anything about it except give in to uncharacteristically angry outbursts. The BJP, by all estimates so far, is expected to be the biggest gainer in these elections, and will be charioteering Nitish. For long, it has been ambitious about being the single largest party in the State and having its own CM face but publicly, it didn't want to appear as an unreliable ally, which used regional partners for its own benefit and gobbled them up in the end. And despite promising big economic packages and special status in 2015, it didn't quite push them, unwilling to benefit Nitish by association. But it did push the Modi aura and Central schemes aggressively and even deployed Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath, who is the new-found favourite of Bihar's electorate, comprising a large number of migrants and students, whom Nitish did not want to accept for fear of a disease spread but who found a home at camps in UP. And for all the public denials of losing faith in Nitish and denouncing co-ally Lok Janshakti Party (LJP) leader Chirag Paswan for contesting against JD(U) outside the NDA fold, the fact is it wants the exact opposite. Chirag has been relentless and savage in his criticism of Nitish and proportionate-ly laudatory about Modi, even vowing a life-long commitment to him and promising a BJP-LJP Government. The tacit support is evident as the central BJP leadership has barely pulled up Chirag in public or shared the stage, Modi included, with Nitish. If the verdict swings decisively in the BJP's favour, then there's no guarantee how long it will continue to back its CM nominee. As more and more of its allies get pushed into a corner, are choked and part ways, like the Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) in Punjab, the big question arising out of the Bihar results, assuming the BJP does deepen its footprint, will be whether the central party's new target will be co-optive federalism, transplanting regional satraps with single-party rule in States and subverting the local agenda altogether. In his speeches, Modi has largely focussed on Central achievements than his plans for the State. The BJP's biggest strength, that of the Modi aura, is also its biggest handicap at the State-level where it lacks magnetic leaders. The halo is good for swinging a verdict but deliverables need to be felt at the State level with a well-meaning leader

It is here that RJD leader and Lalu's son Teiashwi Yaday has undoubtedly seized the narrative in the public imagination. The huge crowds may not be a litmus test of a vote shift but he has certainly given what would have been a colourless election a talking point. Criticised much for not performing as Nitish's deputy and cooling heels in Delhi, he has woken up to the duty of legacy, parked himself in the State, worked the grassroots and built a connect across segments. He knows full well that he cannot fill his father's big shoes just yet and that RJD would still get the traditional caste-based loyalty and minority votes based on Lalu's goodwill. He also knows that people know why his father is incarcerated, because of the scams in his time. So he wants to carve out a broader constituency for himself that is more contextual than historic, which will focus on what he has to offer afresh and help him bury taints of the past. So instead of harping on the RJD's core plank of caste, he has made unemployment of the State's youth the pivot of his campaign, promising 10 lakh jobs to the surging crowds that gathered to hear him out. Such was the impact of his speeches that the BJP, while appearing unfazed, had to promise 19 lakh jobs in its manifesto as a reactive strategy. He has even co-opted the Left to appeal to all marginalised voters irrespective of caste and evolved an inclusive umbrella of those cheated by the NDA-Nitish combine. In that sense, he embodies Bihar's cure. Question is if he is too late for this round?

Be prepared

As India and the US enter into more formal agreements on the military front, we are also making major operational adjustments

he founder of the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides, Lord Robert Baden-Powell, had a simple motto for the children who signed up. Just "be prepared", he would say. Twice in the space of 20 years, India's military intelligence and border guards have been caught napping, first during the Kargil intrusion and then the recent events in eastern Ladakh. The ferocious riposte by our soldiers has caught the enemy off-quard in both instances albeit with a heavy price in blood. However the recent incident with the Chinese has led to further strengthening of the India-US military relationship and the presence of the US Secretaries of State and Defence in New Delhi a week ahead of the presidential election is a sign that this will be priority for any regime that comes in. The signing of the Basic Exchange and Cooperation Agreement (BECA), the fourth and final foundational agreement between both nations, is significant. While this does not mean that India and the US are military partners or are close to forming any alliance, it does set in stone the military partnership for the coming decades, par-ticularly with respect to the Indo-Pacific where China wants to make a mark. In addition to these changes, there is also the dramatic shift in India's own military preparedness with the creation of five theatre commands and finally better integration between the various arms of the forces. Until now, communications frequencies of the three forces were separate even in an era of combined arms warfare. That it took the lives of 20 of our gallant soldiers to commit to such changes is tragic but it appears that the loss of Colonel Babu and his men will not have been in vain. An integrated northern command keeping an eye on China is a start but India needs to dramatically improve its intelligence gathering resources and on that front, the collaboration with the US will help tremendously, One thing is certain now, while China might benefit from a less aggressive Democrat-led US, India is certain to have a permanent ally. India is preparing to be prepared.

NEP: Promise or platitude?

Without increasing public investment, neither the infrastructure, nor the standards required for the New Education Policy 2020 can be achieved

GOVIND BHATTACHARJEE

There have been plenty of debates and discourses about the New Education Policy 2020 (NEP) but not many focussed on its implementation. No doubt, the NEP is the most progressive and futuristic document and if implemented with sincerity in letter and spirit, it has a tectonic potential to transform India from an education-spirit, it has a tectonic potential to transform India from an educationally laggard antion into a knowledge superpower. Indeed we have never had any education system, only a system of examinations and that, on, an inefficient one, based on rote learning that kills all creativity and innovation. The NEP aspires to transform this moribund system by animp to produce "good, thought-ful, well-rounded, and creative individuals," who are needed to transform the 21st century India. But it has failed to provide a specific implementation roadmap, except specifying some broad targets. Neither has it prescribed any accountability mechanism for its implementation. But most importantly, any grant facilities this needs great finances. Education being a concurrent subject, both the Centre implementation. But most impor-tantly, any great idea like this needs great finances. Education being a concurrent subject, both the Centre and the States need to share the responsibility for its implementation as well as finances. But the NEP has almost skirted the issue altogether. The higher education in the country has seen phenomenal growth during the last two decades. The number of colleges, universities grown much faster than the public institutions. Today we have 993 uni-versities, about 40,000 colleges and 10,000 standalone institutions, and nearly four corre students. But unfortunately, most of these institu-tions produce unemployable grad-uates and postgraduates annually with very little knowledge and skill. If we can forget for a moment our current military standoff with China, a comparison with that country might be instructive in many respects. In India Unlimited, Redaining the Lost Glory, Arvind Panagariya has provided some tale-tististics about China and India Based on the Sopus database of articles published and cited in inter-national journals, the National articles published and cited in inter-national journals, the National Science Foundation of US brings out annual rankings of different coun-tries. In 1996, in almost all subject areas, China and India were ranked more or less evenly. In fact, India was a tad better. In terms of the total cita-tions, India was ranked 19th amongst all countries, while China was ranked 21st. In social sciences, India was ranked 21st against China's 24th, in chemistry and molecular sciences, India was ranked 11th and in physics 17th against China's 13th in both. But by 2017, China moved far ahead of us in all subjects—third in terms of total citations against India's 14th. In social sciences, chemistry and physics, China ranked fifth, first and second while India lagged way behind with 14th, fifth and eighth ranks respectively in these subjects. In the Times Higher Education Ranking 2020, China has three universities among the top 100 of the world, four in the next 100 and altogether 72 among the top 1,000. India has none among the first 200 and 36 among the top 1,000, half of China's 72.

How could China race so sciences, India was ranked 21st against China's 24th, in chemistry among the top 1,000, half of Chinas 72.

How could China race so much ahead of us in just two decades? Actually, it had started its economic liberalisation in 1976, a good 15 years ahead of usucation system in 1995, 25 years ahead of us. It realised that to become a great power and a great attain, the primary need is to have a good system of education. What is a good system of education? If we take the US as the model, we would appreciate that a good system of education needs basically two things adequate funding and decentralised governance with a very high degree of autotomy to the institutions. The US universite have complete autonomy in deciding complete complete autonomy in deciding admission, courses and faculty and they compete amongst themselves to attract the best tac-ulty, students and research endowment funds. They func-tion independent of federal and State Government regulations with practically no interference by the State.

We had inherited a colonial

We had inherited a colonial legacy of higher education where universities were primarily tasked with granting degrees with very little focus on research, and by and large, we still remain the same. China has modelled its system of education in the Soviets which was not the same of called Project 211 with the slo-gam: "For the 21st century, man-age the top 100 universities suc-cessfully." In 1998, it passed the Higher Education Law, which liberalised and decentralised its higher education just like the US, with academic and administra-tive freedom given to higher edu-cational institutions (HEIs). That law recognised the need for ensuring adequate funding and allowed tuition fees to be hiked by the universities, with Sates sub-sidies for those who couldn't afford it. So the tuition fees rose steeply from ¥600 in 1992 to ¥10,000 by mid-2010. The Project 211 funded 34.6 billion (30 per cent on infrastructure) to 107 universities between 1995 and 2005. In 1998, China launched another project Project 215 experiments of the 107 universities (Peking and Tsinghua) received $240 million for three years. By 2007, the project had covered 39 universities. Of these, 27 are now ranked within the top 27 de novaminero vinarrue top 600 universities of the world.

The NEP has correctly iden-thied many of the problems that best our higher education sys-tem — like a severely fragment-ed cosystem characterised by a rigid separation of discipline-with little emphasis on cognitive stills, learning outcomes or qual-ity research, limited institution at stills, learning outcomes or qual-ity research, limited institution at autonomy, poor leadership and ineffective regulators and govern ance systems. The result is that higher education is a palty 26 per cent compared to $8 per cent in Senior Secondary and 90 per characteristic of the secondary and 90 per characteristic of the problems, it procession is palty 26 per cent in Senior Secondary and 90 per characteristic of the problems, it procession is palty 26 per cent search. To fix the problems, it prescribes that there would no now be any rigid separation between arts and seconds. Con-tribution of the problems, it procession is the problems, it prescribes that there would no between arts and seconds. Con-Thies, or weather will select and potential. For this, it pre-scribes a roadmap of credit-based undergraduate degree cours.

It has also suggested a new institutional framework com-prising a new overarching body— the Higher Education Commission of India — with four verticals for regulation, accreditation, funding and learn-ing outcomes, which will end the multiple conflicts of interest that bedevil our current regulatory system. Research gets the maximum emphasis with a National Research Foundation to "seed, grow and facilitate research" in academic institutions. Most importantly, the NEP recognises that the HEIS need to be depoliticised and educationists appointed on their Board of Governance instead of bureau-crats. But given the present stranglehold of retired bureaucrats and politicians over the HEIS and glehold of retired bureaucrats and their stubborn objections to any politicians over the HEIs and their stubborn objections to any reform, it would be difficult to end their dominance over our higher education anytime soon.

The most revolutionary part of the NEP is perhaps its single-minded focus on multi-disciplinarity by creating large universities and HEI clusters and ending the present system of affiliated colleges. But such a major shift would also need enormous resources, and it is here that the NEP disappoints. The total combined public expenditure on the Pd disappoints in the total combined public expenditure on deducation by the Centre and the States, currently at only about four per cent of GDP, falls way behind the target of six per cent envisaged mal our previous education policies. Consequently, our expenditure on research remains a pathetic 0.69 per cent of GDP. Without investment, neither the infrastructure nor the standards required for the NEP would be achieved.

The NEP only paid some lipservice to this crucial element—by hoping that the Centre and the States will work together to raise expenditure to six per cent of GDP which it recognises as essential for "progress and growth." But it stops bort of recommending that a law should be enacted to enforce the same.

mitment nor an accountability structure built into the NEP to mitment nor an accountability structure built into the NEP to ensure implementation. Maybe the committee had felt restrained by pandemic-related budgetary stress. This would be over some day but the future will not wait. Meanwhile, universities can think of going beyond operating from their individual silos. They can form provincial and regional consortiums for better synergy. By mapping their educational consortiums for better synergy. By mapping their educational resources and sharing these among themselves, they can together provide students access to the best facilities. Each institution can expand capacity in its strength area to optimise investment and specialisation and share this through a network of institutions. The mantra should be to give access to quality learning to all who desire to learn. (The writer is former Directorental from the Office of the Comptroller & Auditor General of India and an academic)

Sir — As the world continues to live with the Coronavirus and there is no vaccine in sight, Governments across the world there is no vaccine in sight, Covernments across the world are trying everything possible to curb its spread. In a first, Rajasthan Chief Minister Ashok Cehlot said that he is considering to make wearing face masks mandatory in the State by proposing a Bill in the forthcoming Assembly session. Interacting with district collectors, college principals and other officials through a video conference on October 27, Gehlot said that every section of society should join the Government's initiative and make it successful. Given the fact that many are reluctant to follow the necessary precautions even during these trying times, passing a law to implement the same might help curb the spread of the virus, especially since we have just entered the festive season.

The concentration of pollutants nearly doubled post the celebrations but bear in mind that Diwali is yet to come and with it, the Air Quality Index (A0I) will deteriorate further. However, this has become a yearly phenomenon and the problem lies with the Government taking only reac-tive measures like Graded Response Action Programme (GRAP) rather than opting for institutional steps before the quality of air decreases. In these grim times when the entire world is fighting the pandemic, this is aggra-vating our charces of ralling sick. #### FIRSTCOLUMN

Next poll stop in Tamil Nadu

One thing is for sure, the Sasikala and Rajinikanth factors will certainly play out in the 2021 elections in the State

e ruling AIADMK in Tamil Nadu (TN) is quietly preparing to face the Assembly elections scheduled for early next year. With just a few months left for the polls, the party is sorting out its It is a tew months lert for the pois, the party is sorting out its internal problems by declaring the incumbent In-Giff Minister E Palaniswami (EPS) as its chief ministerial candidate and sidelining the other claimant and Deputy Chief Minister O Panneersekam (DPS). Significantly, the 2021 poils will be the first without the two icons, M Karunanidhi and J Jayalalithaa, and will be a litmus test for the AIADMK and DMK leadership. In fact, none of the two parties has a charismatic leadership and more importantly, no party has ever had a hat-trick so far.

a charismatic leadership and more importantly, no parly has ever had a hat-trick, so far.

Though the fight is between the two major Dravidian parties, there are two X factors. The first is Saskala Natarajan, companion and confidante of Jayalalithaa for years. Sentenced to four years in jail in a disproportionate assets case, she will come out of prison in February 2021. She has enough money and political skills to either take over the AlADMK or join hands with her nephew TTV Dinakarah. He has floated an outfit (Amma Makkal Munneth Razhagann) of which Sasikala is the chief. So far Sasikala has kept her cards close to her hest. Chinamarna, as she is affectionately called by her followers, Sasikala has many loyalists within the AlADMK, too, as she was a major force during Arman's time.

Sasikala's re-entry in the Tamil political scene at this time might ruffle many feathers. The only consolation is that as per law she cannot contest elections for the next six years. The party backed Sasikala soon after the demise of Jayalalithaa but after her sentencing, it united under EPS. The Chief Minister believes that his Government has managed to deliver on several fronts, including the management of the Coronavirus crisis, and he has strengthened himself within the party and the Government. Second, it is not clear whether Chinamarna will continue to have the same clout in the influential Thevar community, whom she empowered earlier Third, Saskkal could also break the alADMK and fravar the clionunited elements in ential Thevar community, whom she empowered earlier. Third, Sasikala could also break the AIADMK and draw the disgruntled elements in the party to her side.

Fourth, the party faces several other challenges, including anti-incumbency, internal instability, the absence of a charismatic leader, and the onslaught of the DMK, which has been painting the EPS Government as weak and a pawn in the hands of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. This is not surprising as the BJP has so far controlled the ALDMK Government from Delhi as EPS has a good equation with the Centre. The BJP has also worked to keep the party united in the State. It has no interest in dealing with Sasikala or her nephew and the sudden raid on Sasikala's property in Poes Garden last month reveals the party's strategy. Sasikala plans to move into the palatial mansion which she is currently constructing opposite Jayalalithaa's house in Poes Garden. As many as 64 of her properties have been attached, too.

The second unknown factor is the Tamil superstar Rajinikanth.

erties have been attached, too.

The second unknown factor is the Tamil superstar Rajinikanth. Though he is depending on his fan clubs, it is not known whether he has the skills to organise and run his proposed party. Though wooed equally by the Congress and the BLP, it was only in 2017 that Rajinikanth announced his intention to launch a political party, ending two decades of suspense. In March he announced that proposed party would contest all 234 seats in the Assembly elections. Rajinikanth is now focussed on strengthening Rajini Makkal Mandrams (a political variant of his fan clubs). He also stated that issues such as power-sharing in case of an alliance with fellow superstar Kamal Haasan, who had floated his Makkal Needhi Malam (MNM) last year, would be discussed only alead of the poils. Together, the two superstars would certainly draw a huge crowd but their vote-catching capacity is as yet unknown. Agiinikanth has been out of touch with the masses due to the contagion while Kamal's party gof just two per cent votes in the 2019 Lox Sabha polis and failed to win any seat. Rajinikanth harts to fill the huge political vacuum left by Jayalalithaa and Karunanidhi. "This is the opportune time to create a movement (to oust the Dravidian behemoths). If not now, it will be never." he commented some time ago. The superstar once declared that he would not project himself as the chief ministerial candidate and would prefer to nominate someone young for the job in 2021. This clearly shows that he wants to fill the function of the properties of the properties of the properties of the same state of the work of the properties of the properties. The political momentum and regrouping of parties will pick up the time comes."

The political momentum and regrouping of parties will pick up in the next few weeks. As of now, it will be a huge challenge for Rajinikarih to fight the cadre-based Dravidian parties. He might have an alliance with the BJP given his fight-wing sympathies. The forth-coming polls in TN will show whether the arithmetic or the chemical with the company of the common of the comm istry of the players wins. One thing is for sure, the Sasikala and Rajinikanth factors will play out certainly.

ments to the FCRA Act have generated controversy.

Cap on administrative expenses:
The 2010 Act stipulated a celling of 50 per cent on administrative expenses, which can be relaxed with the approval of the Government. The recent amendment has reduced this 50 per cent to 20 per cent. NGOs must seek Government approval to exceed the 20 per cent limit with proper justification (like expenses on a non-recurring event or being advocacy NGOs, not having projects, NGOs should spend more on implementation of projects, held poor beneficiaries rather than lavishly spend on their salaries, office rent, allied charges, business class travel, expensive event venues and so on. Only 1,328 NGOs reported administrative expenses over 20 per cent in 2018-19.

AADHAAR/Passant/Overseas

reported administrative expenses over 20 per cent in 2018-19.

AADHAAR/Passport/Overseas
Citizenship of India card for key managerial personnel: The new law requires NGOs to furnish Aadhaar numbers of all key functionaries while seeking FCRA registration, renewal of registration or prior permission to obtain foreign contribution. For foreigners/OCIs, a copy of passport or OCI card will do. This is a one-time requirement.

Routing of funds through a bank account in the SBI: The new law requires foreign contributions to be routed through a bank account with the SBI in New Delhi. From there, funds can go to other FCRA accounts and these must not receive other funding to aword mixing of regulated and unregulated funds. NiGOs can continue using their preferred bank account after funding to avoid mixing of regulated and unregulated funds. NGOs can continue using their preferred bank account after foreign funding inflows pass through this SBI account. This is a one-time hassle. NGOs don't need to come to Delhi. They can approach the nearest SBI branch. of the 21,490 NGOs filing FCRA returns in 2018-19, 1,488 were Delhi-registered. as many as 2,214 NGOs were registered in three years between 2017 and 2019. The SBI is expected to facilitate/fast-track the process. The Government may give some transition times obt that the fund flow does not come to a halt during the current pademic.

NGOs can't be financial intermediaries to route foreign contributions. The most substantive change in the 2020 amendment is that an FCRA-registered NGO. a that so therefore the 2010 law, such Transfer was permitted to other FCRA-registered entities. So bigger NGOs could cat as a funnel to route foreign funds to grassroots organisations. Now these larger NGOs will have to re-orient their working to start either direct spending or start ei

g. SCO will have to re-orient their working to star either direct spending or start connecting foreign donors and FCRA-registered grassroots organisations. Foreign funds will bypass the bank accounts of these intermediary NGOs and go directly to the ultimate beneficiary NGOs. Foreign funds received by NGOs totalled ₹18.337.66 crore in 2016-17.48 and ₹20,011.21 crore in 2018-19. About half 21,940 NGOs filing returns in 2018-19. In 2018-19. About half will return the start of the sta

7.6 lakh. Pruning of intermediation cost would mean more bang for the buck for genuine foreign donors. It will help the Government to know which foreign donor is funding which Indian NGO. Intermediary NGOs were an obstruction to this transparency and may be adding to the cost. Sub-granting entailed double counting of foreign contribution, by intermediary and final recipient. Who received what and from which foreign donor was unclear. Transparency should be welcomed. Of course, to avoid sudden disruption of fund flow during the pandemic, some transition time should be allowed.

Non-compliance: The 2010 Act barred following types of entities from getting/renewing. FCRA registration: Fictitious or benami entities; entities prosecuted or convicted for indulging in activities aimed at religious conversions through inducement or force; prosecuted or convicted for creating communal tension; found guilty of diversion or missutilisation of funds; engaged in propagation of sedition or advocating violent methods to achieve its ends, using foreign contributions for personal gains or diverting for undesirable purposes.

The Government has strengthened the mechanism to root out non-compliant NGOs. The period of cancellation of registration has been changed from up to 180 days to 360 days. The FCAR registrations of 14,500 NGOs were cancelled in five years ending December 2019. These were mostly duplicate registrations held by some NGOs. Failure to file annual returns also invited some cancellation or awas the case with the crackdown on shell companies. In 2017-18, names of 226 lakh companies were struck off.

When a few entities flout norms, the government asset with the crackdown on shell companies. In 2017-18, names of 226 lakh companies were struck off.

Still awaiting an inclusive election

The political participation of divyangs and the elderly remains slim even though 2019 was pitched to be 'Year of Accessible Elections' by EC

Tith Bihar Assembly elections beginning today, political parties have been busy wooing voters with major sops. The BIP's promise to provide free Coronavirus vaccines to all in poll-bound Bihar stirred a political controversy and derw the attention of the Election Commission of India (ECI). However, most parties are ignoring voters with disabilities.

About 13 per cent of the elderly and driyang voters have decided to opt for the postal ballot drop-off and pick-up facility for the first phase of the election. Significantly, Bihar is the first State to go to the polls since the enactment of the Rights of Persons With Disabilities (RPWD) Act, 2016. Though the Office of the State Commissioner for Persons with Disabilities has made extensive efforts to ensure greater participation of divyang voters, there have been some oversights. In Bihar 50 per cent of divyangs do not use public transport and nearly 70 per cent do not access Government buildings. Only 40 per cent possess the disability certificate that is required to avail all governmental incentives. This is because to procure that certificate they have to visit a primary health-care centre, which is usually situated too far from rural areas. Further, the job does not get done in one trip and they have to make frequent visits because of the callous attitude of the medical authorities.

However, Bihar cannot be simpled out for such irregularities. Even though Delhi saw a rise in the number of divyang and elderly voters in the last Assembly election, polling booths, help desks, obstacle-free, wide and levelled pathways to the voting compartment and ramps were not as per Government regulations. Previously, too, various States like Telangana, Uttar Pradesh and Madhya Pradesh failed to organise the voting system for this disadvantaged segment.

Madhya Pradesh talled to organise the voting system for this disadvantaged segment.

Hence, the political participation of divyangs and the elderly remains slim even though 2019 was pitched to be the "Year of Accessible Elections" by the EC. The REV-UP campaign (Register-Enable-Vote) was badly affected and the political rights of the elderly and the divyangs have been denied.

Equity and inclusion remain a distant dream for the differently abled who constitute 2.21 per cent of our total population. Now, with the exercise of social distancing necessitated by the pandemic, meeting the pressing needs of the elderly and the divyangs, right from sourcing essential supplies to accessing medical treatment, has become problematic.

This has also made them doubly marginalised and invisible in these troubled times.

The Accessible India Campaign, launched by the Government in 2015, attempts to make the overall environment more inclusive for the differently-abled. However, the campaign for equal opportunities and protection of rights is still unheard of and unnoticed and has taken a back seat in Government agenda. The picture remains grim as State governments have not shown a good protection of the picture remains grim as State governments have not shown a good probable institutions remained a major challenge and as of today, severi-run and aided institutions are not disabled-friendly.

If data provided by the Department of Empowernment of Empowernment of Empowernment of Persons with Disabilities (DEPWD) are to be believed, initially out of the 1,653 buildings audited by access auditors, State Governments had sent proposals for only 647. As many as 12 cities had not sent even a single proposal. There have been glaring differences between the Centre and the States in terms of coordination, framing and execution of the policies for a barrier-free environment. Apart from accessibility issues, the differently-abled are subjected to socio-economic, education-al and political deprivations.

The dimension of gender cannot be ignored, too, as 44 per cent of the total divyangs are women with challenges. Of this, around 21 per cent are married and divorce cases remain high for several reasons. Significantly around 69 per cent of the divyangs reside in rural India. The kind of predicament that the differently-abled face in rural prockets is significant, Yet, this is missing in the mainstream discourse and warrants urgent attention.

The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation reveals that 75 per cent of differently-abled children are deprived of elementary education. The scene is again dismal in higher education because of varied reasons. Only about 28.8 per cent of the divyange in the country possess the certificate of disability, which is required to avail their rights. As a result of this and due to the policy paralysis and inaccessibility pattern of workplaces, only 34 lakh divyangs out of 1.34 crore are employed in the country. Recently, the Centre asked State Governments to make a list of the divyangs who are yet to be a part of the Public Distribution System and cover them under the National Food Security Act, 2013. However, the callous attitude of the State machinery is quite apparent.

There are umpteen cases which signal the violation of the human rights of the disabled. There should be an overhaul of public policy to mainstream this marginalised segment and achieve inclusive development.

NOT A JUST THING TO DO

The unpredictable American system of life tenure has led to four presidents picking six or more justices and four presidents selecting none, as happened with Jimmy Carter. This gives some presidents too much influence on the Supreme Court and others too little. It also leads to justices remaining on the court when they are unable either physically or mentally to do the job. This must change. (The NYT editorial)

China tells US not to bully Sri Lanka ahead of Pompeo's visit

Colombo: China has raised objections to what it called U.S. bullying of Sri Lanka after Washington said the Indian Ocean island must make "difficult but necessary choices" regarding its ties with China. The comments by the Chinese embassy in Colombo came shortly before the arrival on Tuesday of US Secretary of State Mike Pompeo, who is on a an Asian tour aimed at pushing back against China's growing influence in the region. "We are firmly opposed to ing influence in the region.

"We are firmly opposed to the United States taking the opportunity of the State Secretary's visit to sow and interfere in China-Sri Lanka relations, and to coerce and bully Sri Lanka," the embassy said in a statement late on Monday.

China has invested billions of dollars in infrastructure projects in Sri Lanka as part of President Xi Jinping's Belt and Road Initiative, aimed at linking Asia, Europe and beyond, to the alarm of India and the United States.

The embassy said China's ties with Sri Lanka stretched back 2,000 years and the two countries did not need a third party to dictate terms.

Pompeo's trip to Sri Lanka, and later to the Maldives, another Indian Ocean island nation, is seen as part of an attempt to counter China's dominating economic presence in smaller countries that has left some of them in deep debt.

Ahead of the trip, Dean Thompson, the senior State

Department official for South and Central Asian affairs, said Sri Lanka must make tough choices to secure its economic independence over the longer term.

China also raised concern about Pompeo making the trip at a time when Sri Lanka is struggling with the novel coro-

Erdogan sues Dutch anti-Islam lawmaker for insults

Ankara: Turkish President

Ankara: Turkish President Recep Taypir Erdogan is suing Dutch lawmaker Gert Wilders after the anti-Islam politician posted a series of tweets against the Turkish leader, including one that described him as a "terrorist."

The state-run Anadolu Agency said Erdogan's lawyer on Tuesday filed a criminal complaint against Wilders at the Ankara Chief Prosecutor's office for "insulting the president" — a crime in Turkey punishable by up to four years in prison.

Wilders posted a cartoon epicting Erdogan wearing a omb-resembling hat on his ead, with the comment: "ter-

Wilders continued posting Wilders continued posting tweets targeting Erdogan this week amid a growing quarrel between Turkey and European countries sparked by Erdogan's sharp comments against French President Emmanuel Macron, including remarks questioning Macron's mental health over his stance on

The complaint against Wilders, whose political career has been based largely on his strident anti-Islam rhetoric, accused him of using language "insulting the honour and dignity of our president and of targeting Erdogan's personality, dignity and reputation," accord-

Wilders, who leads the largest opposition party in the Dutch Parliament, shrugged off the Turkish criminal complaint and described Erdogan as a "loset." Wilders has lived under tight security for 16 years due to death threats following his anti-Islam rhetoric.

On Monday, Turkey's Daily Sabah newspaper, which is close to Erdogan, printed pictures of Wilders and Macron, with the headline: "the two faces of harted and racism in Europe."

Amazon flexes muscles but Reliance holds deep war chest

The face-off between Mukesh Ambani-led Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL) and Jeff Bezos-run behemoth Amazon over the retail assets of Future Group in India has once again exposed the ambition of the so-called "gate-keeper for e-commerce" to keep the reins of a growing retail market in the country in its hands.

The legal battle is-its hands. The legal battle in Singapore aims to stop Reliance Retail Ventures Ltd (RRVL), a subsidiary of RIL, from dominating the burgeoning retail market in India -- estimated to reach $1.1-$1.3 trillion by 2025, from $0.7 trillion in 2019, growing at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 9-11 per cent (according to the latest report by Boston Consulting Group and the Retailers' Association of India). That Amazon does not like new and direct competition to its business in any country and will do anything to somehow scuttle it, was conveyed earlier this month by the US House Judiciary Antitrust Subcommittee examining the health of competition in digital markets and the business practices of Amazon, Apple, Facebook and Google.

"Amazon's acquisition strategy has primarily focused on purchasing its competitors and companies that operate in adjacent markets, providing access to additional valuable customer data.

This strategy has effective-ly protected and expanded Amazon's market power in e-

Aguero, who had just returned from

It will be 10-15 days minimum. If it is longer it will be three weeks to a month. I don't know. Guardiola said he wants 'Sergio to come back when he has fully recovered. We miss him a lot. What he has done for this club is extraordinary, he is a City legend."

Brazilian Gabriel Jesus is also absent, but Guardiola said he did not revert not the contract of the contraction.

Son nets from Kane's assist as Spurs win against Burnley

The partnership between Harry Kane and Son Heung-min is developing into the most prolific in Premier League history.

Son headed in from Kane's flick-on to secure a 1-0 win at Burnley on Monday, making it the 29th time they have combined for a goal. It was the ninth time in six league matches this season alone.

"They are top players but close friends," Tottenham manager Jose Mourinho said. "No jealousy."

"We've dropped points where we shouldn't have this season so we've still got a lot to learn, but nights like this will definitely give us that confidence," Kane said.
