Students face problems over delay in fee reimbursement

Students of SC, ST, BC, and EWS communities are yet to receive their fee reimbursement and scholar- ship payments, raised over a year ago.

In the wake of Coronavirus, the Telangana government, to aid the financially distressed students of the state, had set up a student welfare fund (SWF) to provide free reimbursement and scholarship payments to them. However, the implementation has been fraught with delays and problems.

Although incident happened more than a year ago, the students, the institutions, and the government bodies have failed to meet the deadline.

According to the policy, the students are reimbursed in two instalments, the first one being after the commencement of the academic year and the second one after the conclusion of the academic year. However, the government has failed to release the funds in time.

In another case, D Palma, 72, a resident of Janagama, Mahabubnagar, informed the police that she was directed to Punjagutta police station by her daughter-in-law, who had told her to go to the police station to file a complaint against her family members.

The victim B Subhadra, 35, was found dead in her house in her room at distributorate road Janagama mahabubnagar. She was taken to the Bhaskar hospital mortuary.

The next morning, the police registered a case under sections 302, 307, 324 of the IPC, and the accused were arrested.

The victim had been living in the house for the past few years with her brother and her family. She had been suffering from various health problems and was under treatment.

The police have launched an investigation into the case, and the accused are being questioned.

Students previously semesters leave several students in a fix

Several students in the MANUU and the University of Hyderabad have not been able to finish their academic year due to the ongoing pandemic.

The situation has left many students in a fix, as they are unable to complete their studies due to the lockdown. The students have been struggling to keep up with their studies and are facing difficulties in following the online classes.

Several students from different institutions have expressed their difficulties in completing their academic year due to the lockdown.

The situation has forced many students to drop out of college or to continue their studies from home, which has affected their academic performance.

According to the students, the current situation has made it difficult for them to continue their studies, and they are worried about their future prospects.

The students have appealed to the authorities to provide them with the necessary resources and support to complete their studies.

The students have also suggested that the government should provide them with alternative options such as online classes or flexible deadlines for completing their studies.

Bipasha Basu stresses on self love

A newly married Bipasha Basu has been quite busy of late, with almost every film that she has been a part of being released simultaneously. Her latest film, Sobhita Dhulipala’s Anandamayee, also hit cinema screens recently.

Basu took to Instagram where she dropped a cute picture dressed in a white top and a white saree. The actress captioned the post, “Love yourself fully, deeply, honestly, faithfully and gloriously. #loveyourself #happysunday.”

Recently, Bipasha shared photographs from her Durga Puja celebrations last year with husband Karan Singh Grover, relatives and friends. The actress posted a picture from the ritual of ‘sindoor khela’, a practice where on the day of Dashami/Dussehra, married women smear vermilion on each other’s foreheads and faces before the idol of Ma Durga, after which the idol is immersed.

On the work front, Bipasha was recently seen in the web series Dangerous, which marked her debut on the digital platform.
GUHAN, ADITH TEAM UP FOR A THRILLER

A decade after introducing Adith Aran in the Tamil remake of Telugu blockbuster Happy Days, KV Guhan has picked the actor for his second directorial in Telugu, reports NAGARAJ GOUD

According to reports, she will be playing the megastar’s adoptive sister in the film. In the context of the narrative, she holds more importance than that of the actress who will be paired opposite Chiru.

Urvashi is expected to begin shooting for the film in the next month. The actress, who made her debut in 2019 with Nani’s Telugu film Jersey, was last seen in the Telugu-Tamil bilingual Amala.

Sai Pallavi to play Chiru’s sister

The shooting of superstar Mahesh Babu’s latest Telugu film Sarkaru Vaari Paata, directed by Johaar, has been delayed by a couple of weeks. With Pandemic and the crew understanding a tour of US sometime back to finalize locations, many expected the film to kick off in the US before the year ends, but now with visa formalities consuming a lot of time, the producers deemed it better to start the film here in Telugu first, and then move ahead to the US.

The Hyderabad portions will be shot after the US leg of filming.

While the story details of SVP are under wraps, we do know that the film has been penned by SS Thaman with Sanjay Bharadwaj and Viva Harsha. The romantic elements will be developed by the team after Chiranjeevi wraps up Acharya.

The film’s title is on the lines of popular comedy-choreography number Choodalani Vundi and holds a special place for the actress, who’s a south Indian native.

Sai Pallavi, who has a fetish for fresh talent in her films, has liked the way Meher has been working with her, her directorial venture so far and the way Meher has been indulging in some offbeat roles.

Sree Vishnu in talks with Johaar director for his next

Sree Vishnu, who has a torch of fresh talent in his films with Johaar director Teja Antariksha and Naga Chaitanya, is again on the fringes. The director has narrated a script to him and the actor is keen to do it.

According to reports, the actor is likely to pair opposite Naga Chaitanya again in the film. It will be a romantic story set in a rural milieu. Vishnu has more importance in the narrative than the actress who will be paired opposite Chiranjeevi.

The film is tentatively titled Acharya and is expected to go on floors after the actor wraps up Acharya.

Our inquiry to Ram Gopal Varma went unanswered until the time of going to press, with the city-based filmmaker shooting a biopic of late actor Sridevi, with the actor himself playing the role, is being considered as a stepping stone for his B-town entry.

The project is titled Sridevi’s Aashiqui, on the lines of the late actress’ 1990 hit film and is being named Aashiqui 2.

The actor also enquired from Sridevi’s family members if they were interested in doing a biopic on Sridevi, but they have not shown any interest in the project.

The story will be on Sridevi’s life, her journey to the B-town, her love life, her rise and fall, her stardom and her marriage to Boney Kapoor.

The project is being produced by a Hyderabad-based company, with the director and producer waiting for Sridevi’s family to agree to the project before moving ahead with it.
Shane Watson's three wickets late in the innings helped India to victory against South Africa in their final match against the Proteas in Sharjah on Sunday.

Watson bowled two right-arm overs, with both deliveries consistently testing the visitors.

“People expect me to keep bowling and I am happy to do that,” he said. “There are a lot of dividends for bowling in this league.”

Watson’s bowling has been a major strength for India in the tournament, with the right-armer picked up 14 wickets in his six matches so far.

India finished their campaign on a high note, winning their last two matches to secure second place in the tournament after losing their opening game against South Africa.

India’s win against South Africa ensured that they finish on 14 points, behind only England, who won all their six matches.

India will now face England in their final match on Sunday, with the winner securing the title and the runner-up finishing on 16 points.

India have never won a T20 World Cup, but there is hope for the future as young players like Devdutt Padikkal and Yuzvendra Chahal show promise.

Pakistan have also made significant improvements, with they finishing fourth in the tournament despite losing their opening game.

The Maldives and Kenya have also shown signs of improvement, with both teams finishing in the bottom four.

However, the tournament overall was a success, with exciting matches and high-quality cricket on display.

The T20 World Cup has showcased the talents of young players and helped to grow the game in Asia and Africa.

With cricket’s popularity continuing to rise, the tournament has set the stage for even greater growth in the future.
