The Marwahi by-election started on Monday in the last phase of the elections for the 37 Assembly constituencies in Chhattisgarh. As per the dates notified by the General Administration Department, the last date for filing nominations is October 16, while the last date for the withdrawal of candidates is October 20.

The Marwahi by-election is for the vacant seat caused by the death of former Chief Minister Madhu Dandapani, who had been elected from the seat. After his death, the seat became vacant, and the by-election was announced.

The by-election is significant as Marwahi is an important seat in Chhattisgarh, with a large Muslim population. The winner of the by-election will have to work hard to secure the seat in the upcoming Assembly elections.
W hile outstanding polls are to remain status quo, water resources and river water policies have been allowed to continue as per the existing rules. An all-India health-related survey will be launched to monitor the disease, adapt to changing water regulations and dissemination.

As per the standard operating procedures (SOPs) under the authorities of the Ministry of Agriculture, ministry offices have been allowed to operate as per the existing rules. Only those outside the containment zones will be allowed access to the premises. The physical and virtual visits of farms will be allowed. Therefore, this needs to be done as per the guideline, as before commencing the ride, along with ensuring physical distancing in rides, the State ministers, all public, all work places, public spaces and open areas, including rides, meal services, gift shops, theatres, etc. will be functional with 50 percent occupancy. The ride themes, virtual experiences, shows and conditional experiences will be modified. The Ministry of Culture and Tourism will ensure that these innocence do not harm the public, and before commencing the ride.

This is despite onion prices still to allow export of up to 10,000 exports, the Centre on Friday said in a statement. It also said that the feat was achieved despite cornering the demands of the traders and the industrial projects, it has already completed at least 80 percent. It has also met the targets of 22,000 km awarded in FY19-20. Exports of onions shot up during this fiscal year.

The Central Road-maintenance Agency, National Highways Authority of India (NHAI), and the National Highways and Roads Infrastructure Development Corporation Ltd (NHRIDCO) has already completed at least 80 percent of the length of 22,000 km awarded in FY19-20. Exports of onions shot up during this fiscal year.

The ministry guidelines advise the use of CCTV in all open areas and spaces and open areas, including rides, meal services, gift shops, theatres, etc. will be functional with 50 percent occupancy. The ride themes, virtual experiences, shows and conditional experiences will be modified. The Ministry of Culture and Tourism will ensure that these innocence do not harm the public.
India, US likely to hold 2+2 talks in Oct

October 10, 2020

India and the US are likely to hold the 2+2 Ministerial meeting on October 26, the US Senator from State Mike Pence and Defence Secretary Mark Esper will discuss the entire range of critical issues including the current stand-off in the Western Himalayas and issues related to the Quad with their Indian counterparts - External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar and Defence Minister Rajnath Singh.

The meeting is expected to be held in New Delhi but the venue of the meeting is yet to be decided. The meeting will be held at the level of Foreign Secretary and Defence Secretary as well. “I have had a number of interactions with my American counterparts, including those on the bilateral and Quad fora,” Jaishankar said in a statement.

Prior to the 2+2 meeting, Jaishankar conveyed India’s position on the coronavirus scare. He also said that the two sides would take measures to continue cooperation in various fields.

Trump safe to return to public life, says doctor

Complete courses of therapy for Covid-19

Washington: Days after returning to the White House after being treated for the coronavirus, President Donald Trump said on Thursday that he was "safe" to return to public rallies for the presidential campaign.

Trump, 74, and First Lady Melania tested positive for Covid-19 last week after the president was taken to a military hospital for treatment, which was described as a "precautionary move." He is now considered to be at "zero risk" of spreading the virus to others.

"I'm feeling good. Really good," Trump said in a video released by a senior aide. "I'm ready to go. I'm ready to get real#[BLANK] real. We've been working on this for a long time and I think this is a very important [BLANK]."

Trump's comments came in an interview to Fox News, Trump said that he was feeling good and was looking forward to rallies. He added, "We've got to get this country going. We've got to get the country open." Trump also said that the country is "willing to do anything that's necessary to get this country going." Trump's comments were made despite concerns about the spread of the virus, which has killed more than 200,000 people in the United States and has35

In a statement, the Chinese Foreign Ministry said that the decision was guided by the advice of the World Health Organisation (WHO) and that it was "protecting the health and safety of all involved" and "not going to be reversed. That means the second round of Trump's trial will take place on January 13.

The commission inherited its name from a previous organization that was established in 2007 and was dissolved in 2010. It is tasked with investigating and reporting on the origins of the virus. The commission's findings are expected to be released later this month.

Spain’s King and PM visit Barcelona amid protest

Barcelona: Spain’s King Felipe VI and Prime Minister Pedro Sánchez visited Barcelona on Monday to calm tensions after a day of protests against the Spanish government’s handling of the coronavirus pandemic.

The visit comes as the country struggles to contain a surge in cases, with new lockdown measures implemented in several regions.

In the capital, Madrid, a protest was held against the government’s decision to reinstate a night curfew.

Meanwhile, in Barcelona, the protests were sparked by the presence of the Spanish army in the city, which is being used to provide security for the Olympics.

Trump, at odds with Attorney General Barr

Washington: President Donald Trump is increasingly at odds with Attorney General William Barr over his handling of the Stone case.

Trump had earlier excused the Stone case in his unhappiness with the investigation, even as Barr had already ruled that the Stone case would go ahead.

The president has also clashed with Barr over the investigation into the origins of the coronavirus, which has become a political issue.

In an interview to Fox News, Trump said that he was feeling good and was looking forward to rallies. He added, "We've got to get this country going. We've got to get the country open." Srivastava said during a virtual press conference that with the rupee having crossed the 75 mark and the sharp fall in financial markets, it is crucial to provide liquidity to the market. "Particularly this step would prove beneficial for higher value loans. It would enable refinancing of loans especially in the real estate sector, wherein banks would have an additional liquidity cushion," he said.

The move to extend the automatic classification of loans also comes after the Centre had earlier on Friday cut both CNG and PNG prices. "Every dollar reduction in cost of cooking gas to the consumer translates into an effective income increase of around 2% in the hands of the consumer," said Srivastava.

Providing a heads-up, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) Governor Shaktikanta Das said on Friday that the central bank had already decided to conduct an on-tap real estate financing system of banks as a majority of the loan book in this sector is exposed to interest rate risks or other floating benchmarks.

Das said the move is expected to attract capital in the housing market.

"The monetary policy review, which is an imperative and crucial for building comfort and confidence of the largest employer, it should also continue with caution listing," he said.

A great documentary series, The Right Stuff, tells the story of the first six American astronauts who flew in space and how they inspired the world to explore the unknown. This series, based on Tom Wolfe’s book, depicts the bravery of the astronauts and their wives as they faced the challenges of space travel. The show also explores the ambitious astronauts and their families, and how they began a programme that created celebrities in a lifetime.

The show delves into the exciting competition between NASA and the Soviet Union, and how they began a programme that changed the scope of space and celestial navigation. Everything that has happened to a child forms a new relation to the world. This happens because, as a child learns, it is always learning a new skill as a way of learning how to live. This is true of every second and it is what gives us our confidence. We believe that learning is a universal outlet. And if you are learning an old skill, then you are learning a new skill as a way of understanding your world.

The 15-minute flight went into space and came back down. Ten years later, Shepard also became the first American to orbit the Earth with his co-pilot, Gregory Corra. They became the first Americans to orbit the Earth with their flight, and they were called "The Mercury 7". The flight was a great success, and the astronauts became celebrities in a lifetime.

The Big Learning Festival is a platform where children can explore various concepts and get an opportunity to apply them in real-life situations. The festival is designed to make learning an exciting and enjoyable experience for children. The festival includes activities like dance, music, art, and science, which help children to develop their skills and knowledge. The festival is ideal for children of all ages, and it is sure to make learning an enjoyable experience for everyone.

On the big moments in life, Myra says, "There's no age for learning. Learning is a universal outlet. And if you are learning an old skill, then you are learning a new skill as a way of understanding your world."

In the world of mental health, choreographer ASHLEY Lueblo talks about how dance can prove to be a healer and is cathartic in its own ways. By Team Viva
