A lion cub named after Urvashi

Actor Urvashi RAUTELA is ecstatic that a lion cub has been named after her. "I’m so thrilled that after Jackie Chan and Rihanna, the most inspiring entrepreneurs Saif Ali Khan and Urvashi Rautela have named one of the baby lions after my ‘name’, and it was a very exciting visit to the lion habitat in the Dubai safari," she added.

When we got the invitation to visit the lion park, me and my team were delighted and happy. As I’m passionate about animals, I jumped with a crocodile, snakes, giraffes, lions, and leopards. It was a very happy day after animals," she added.

‘Netizens don’t belong to me, I have never met them. Can they affect me? How do I even know how many real people? They could be anybody, codes or algorithms. Technology has reached such a stage that you really don’t know who is happening. I would rather distance myself from them and be happy with those who love me.” — Saqib Saleem
