Rationalisation of polling booths is on cards in Telangana

The State Election Commission decided to rationalise the polling booths in view of the spike in the corona cases. The Election Commission team noted that each polling booth has only minimum number of voters and election officials, some of them being around 50-100 voters and 2-3 officials. According to the district-wise data of the GHMC, the number of polling booths that had to be rationalised in the district was 2,000 in 24 hours. Therefore, the GHMC has decided to reduce the polling booths from 5,492 to 3,470 polling booths in the state.

Though the special summary of investigation of polling stations is being conducted in other Telangana districts, the SIT is only investigating the polling booths within the limits of GHMC. The SIT had submitted its report on the SIT’s investigation on November 16.

As per the schedule issued by the Election Commission, the polling for tickets for all 115 LS seats will be held on February 19, 2022. Additionally, the SIT has not revealed what’s in the SIT report.

The chief minister said that the council has been a platform for the opposition to challenge the government’s policies and decision-making.

In the coming days our country will face several challenges, both at home and abroad. The government is working tirelessly to address these challenges and ensure the well-being of all citizens.

Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi, the father of the nation, once said, “The road to freedom is long and arduous, but it is a journey that must be undertaken. For the sake of our children and future generations, we must fight for our rights and freedom.”

We, the citizens of this great nation, must continue to work together to achieve our goals and build a better future for ourselves and our children. Together, we can make a difference and create a brighter tomorrow.

The government is committed to ensuring that all citizens have equal opportunities and rights. We will continue to work towards this goal and ensure that no one is left behind.

In conclusion, our country is on the cusp of a new era. We must work together to build a better future for ourselves and our children. Together, we can make a difference and create a brighter tomorrow.

Hope at the end of the tunnel

Built at an altitude of over 3,000 metres in the Pir Panjal Range, the Atal tunnel will not only provide all-weather connectivity but will give our forces a strategic edge in troop movements.

Though this tunnel will open up a world of opportunities for Himachal Pradesh, will it not open up a lot of challenges for local tourism and sales of farm produce?

The geopolitics of the region is very complex. Turkey and Pakistan have aligned themselves with the Organisation for Security and Co-operation in Europe to counter the EU (which is also pressing for Israeli recognition of the region) and geostrategic analyst Arif Husain reported that Pakistan has already sent its military to the region. The US and China are also preparing a non-Arab Muslim state to be the world leader.

Amidst the current political climate, it is safe to say that the opening of the tunnel is expected to change all this and strengthen the local economy in every sector. Why prolonged ‘Keto’ diet can be deadly for you

It’s Time for You to Turn a ‘Cyber Vakeel’
A recent research by Tufts University shows that eating 42.5 grams of almonds each day compared to not eating almonds may help reduce low density lipoprotein (LDL) cholesterol levels in the U.S. population (MI, or heart attack), MI-related hospitalization, and the cost of disease and procedures in the U.S. population (MI, or heart attack), MI-related hospitalization, and the cost of disease and procedures in the U.S. population.

The objective of this study, funded by the Almond Board of California, was to estimate the cost-effectiveness of almonds consumption in preventing coronary heart disease through changes in LDL cholesterol level and healthcare utilization, using both short-term base case analysis and 10-year risk prophylaxis.

The research developed a model to assess the relationship between eating 42.5g of almonds and changes in LDL cholesterol levels and healthcare utilization. A cost-effectiveness model was also factored into the model and was based on price data. The results showed that consuming 42.5g of almonds per day would result in an annual cost savings of $363 compared to eating no almonds.

According to the study, almonds may help reduce low density lipoprotein (LDL) cholesterol, heart health, and a derived cost benefit; each of which are relevant for a country like India where CVD cases are rising every day. While the health benefits of almonds have been analyzed by several other studies in the past, this is the first long term cost advantage of almond consumption which is very unique. To make sure to include almonds in your family and your diet, to lead a healthier and more cost efficient lifestyle.

It was a bit difficult, that's why we had to fight so much throughout the game. We had to improve in the last four overs, and our fielding was not so good, which allowed them to manage to score four runs.

Particularly when you have a wicket in your hand, it's very difficult. It's an incredible feeling, especially for me because I came in at a very good point in the match, the boundary, obviously, nobody else has to suffer from a drop down a line.

It wasn't easy to start off, he's (Russell) quite a good batsman, playing well - backing him to not go for four positives coming out of this match.

High effective death bowling over from Paschim Thakur and Priyam Garg on Sunday afternoon, as the Shreyas Iyer's unas-signed team comfortably chased at 10 RPO - we didn't get any breakthroughs in the first half hour and were left with to many overs. But after nine overs, Adam Zampa is yet to adjust to the knock of 18 by the Royals. diced on both sides.

He has been served well and not before Russell as well. Probably Sunil Narine might have come in before the 20-over mark at the Dubai International Airport. Unfazed by the threat posed by the big guns of Royal Challengers Bangalore (RCB), PBKS should bat after Morgan, Russell & Co should.”

The Delhi Capitals which are in a comfortable position, were bowled out in a fine fashion by a good Indian team. RAVI TEJA TO PLAY A LAWYER?

A combination bound to have the trade in awe, the duo of Ravi Teja and Maruthi will be teaming up for a courtroom drama to be produced by GA2 Pictures and UV Creations.

It seems Maruthi roped them at the last minute. The source informs, “Maruthi is planning a courtroom drama with Ravi Teja. He wants to play a black Robe to play a lawyer. Of course, it will be purposed with a two-part theme. The director wished an interesting role for the actor, something, which the actor refused to play. But the actor understood the script and he chắc-excitement, the fact that the project will be bankrolled by reputed production houses like GA2 Pictures and UV Creations mean that the actor ticks in Maruthi’s favor. Not to forget, both of them have been thinking of teaming up for the past several years.”

The source further adds, “Lawyer saab is the title in contention for the project. It will be set in a British court.”
