CHINA SAYS STRONGLY OPPOSES INDIA’S LATEST BAN ON 118 MOBILE APPS

China’s commerce ministry said on Thursday in a strongly worded statement it was banned an additional 118 mobile apps, including popular shopping and social media apps, which it said had been misused for illegal purposes.

China also termed some of India’s actions “unreasonable”.

India has banned 434 apps since April 2019 as part of a broader crackdown by the government on foreign apps and websites.

India has been criticized for its lack of transparency in the decision-making process and the wide-ranging scope of the bans.

India’s move comes after China accused India of blocking access to Chinese websites.

India
did not immediately respond to a request for comment.

In a statement, the commerce ministry said it had taken the decision after reviewing the list of companies that had been misusing apps.

The ministry said it had also taken into account the government’s national security concerns.

India has also banned several Chinese apps, including TikTok, which was popular among Indian teenagers.

India said it had also taken into account the government’s national security concerns.

India’s ban comes amid growing tension between the two nuclear-armed neighbours.

India has been critical of China’s treatment of its minority Muslim Uighur population.

Hydro Met to allow only symptomatic passengers

In the new arrangement, Metro services will be operated from 7 am to 9 pm, with 5 trains running between Hyderabad and Secunderabad stations. This is a move to improve clean air, avoid overcrowding and enable successful social distancing.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi has given the green light to begin separate trains for symptomatic passengers and those without symptoms from May 1. This includes those suffering from cold, fever, cough, mental stress, anemia, diabetes, and old age.

The Metro authorities are taking necessary measures to ensure the safety of passengers and staff.

The decision was taken after discussions between the authorities and the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare.

The new arrangement will help in reducing the spread of COVID-19 and ensure the safety of passengers and staff.

Corona breaks backbone of small scale businesses

The pandemic has taken a toll on small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) across the globe. According to the World Bank, the Indian micro, small, and medium enterprises sector has been particularly hard hit by the pandemic. The sector, which accounts for 40% of India’s GDP and employs 70% of the workforce, has faced challenges ranging from supply chain disruptions to cash flow issues. The sector has been forced to adapt to new ways of working, including increased reliance on online sales and remote work. Despite these challenges, many SMEs have found ways to innovate and survive, showcasing the resilience of the Indian economy. The Government of India has taken several measures to support the SME sector, including the introduction of the PLI (Production Linked Incentive) scheme and the PMMSY (Pradhan Mantri Mudra yojana) scheme to provide financial assistance and technical support to SMEs.

Covid tally over 38L; record single-day jump of 83,883 cases

The cumulative COVID-19 Cases in the country which comprises the poor, farmers, towns, and cities went past 30 lakh on August 23.

The highest daily rise in infections was recorded in Uttar Pradesh, which reported 11,723 new cases while the state has 1,90,058 cumulative cases so far.

Maharashtra, with 7,108 new cases, is the second worst-hit state with 1,31,262 infections to date.

The third highest daily rise was reported in Tamil Nadu with 5,342 new cases, followed by Delhi (4,070) and Karnataka (3,984).

A report by the Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR), a cumulative total of 5,43,080 samples have been tested on Thursday, out of which 4,06,493 tests were negative and 1,36,587 were positive.

Active cases have been reported in 25 states and Union territories out of which Maharashtra, Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh, and Tamil Nadu are the top four worst-hit states.

The number of recoveries over the past 24 hours was 43,933.

At present, India's daily testing numbers are still lacking and have not crossed the 10 lakh mark a day.

25 States/UTs exceeded 1 lakh testing mark; 5 States below 50,000 test mark.

Higher testing numbers subse- quently lead to lower virus load.

The new higher testing numbers in the last couple of days were a major contributing factor to the decrease in COVID-19 cases.

On Thursday, the health ministry stressed that the low positivity rate is the key to ensuring that no community transmission can occur.

The ministry said that it has taken the route of keeping random samples from every single locality.

The health ministry also said that the new technology, Real-time RT-PCR, is being conducted in a single day and the entire turn around time for the test results is 24 hours.

The framework of Govt spending now focuses more significantly on increasing consumption and demand instead of reducing the impact of a fall in demand.

PRESENTER: BISWAS

The two key watchouts on the horizon are the increasing trend and form and more and more generating purchasing power and increasing the level of consumption. The key factors are a strong monetary lending policy. The second one is the use of the government's resources to provide cash, food and cash and food support and those who will be worst hit by the fallout in the country that a monetary policy can actually correct the situation of demand.

A perceptual illusion about a rise in prices for small, non-alcoholic drinks and online sale of several consumer products as a virtual consumer inflation. Indices with the peak of the price. But it cannot affect the fall in demand for food, milk and meat markets. The reason for the same is the wide range of large demand will still continue dependent on the economy in India, black market of black money, the drilling can be quite interested in quite a few.

Several of these policies had a vital activity of their users in India and thus their values were affected by it. However, there are questions being raised by the creators of PPL, whether its beneficial ownership by its firm is Chinese firm. Tencent. There is a growing concern about the problem for several Indian startups, including PayTM, which has significant ownership of the Alibaba-controlled Ant Group. The predominant activity of e-commerce in India, be it Alibaba, Walmart, or Amazon, will not make it difficult for some start-ups to raise resources although it might lead to massive damage for investors. Thankfully, PPL has pushed the gaming streaming industry in India with a large number of creators and entrepreneurs. It might mean that there should be some good cases of games being created in India in the coming years, which can go on to become global games. However, based on two ways and a ban on Chinese-created owned games in India might mean that Indian-created games will also find it difficult to expand into new markets.

Before you buy art for your home:

Ensure you set the tone of your dwelling:

Prior to selecting your preferred art, you must first decide whether you want your home to feel like a cozy retreat or a modern oasis. While light and bright hues can set a more laid-back tone, darker colors may lend a more formal feel. Choose art that complements your personal style and feel true to you.

Selecting the artwork style:

There are several factors to consider when choosing art for your home. Think about the color scheme and mood you want to create, as well as the space you are trying to fill. Art that is too large or too small can make a room feel cramped or empty. Consider the size of the room and the artwork you are looking to purchase, and ensure it is in proportion to the space.

Size of art as opposed to the room size:

By and large, if you have a small room, placing one big piece of art in the center can create a focal point and make the space feel more spacious. Incorporating multiple smaller pieces can make a small room feel muddled. However, considering the room dimension prior to selecting an art of prime importance. The choice to fill the floor with art and to truly appreciate the pieces you bring into your personal space.

Colour selection:

The color of an art piece can have a strong emotional impact on you. Consider how the color of the artwork will change the look of your space. A warm tone, such as a orange or yellow, can make a room feel more energetic and lively. A cool tone, such as blue or green, can create a more calming and relaxing atmosphere.
