AT AIADMK'S JUBILEE FETE, SASIKALA MAKES STRONG PITCH FOR COMEBACK

he year long (2021-22) golden jubilee celebrations of the AIADMK's founding began on Sunday, and it was marked by a renewed and an open attempt by VK Sasikala, confidante of late party supremo J Jayalalithaa, to get back control of the party by harping on 'unity' mantra. Sasikala's strong pitch for joining forces for the sake of the 'party and people' was, however, rejected by the AIADMK, which reiterated that there is no place for her in the party. She unfurled the AIADMK flag at the T Nagar memorial of party founder and late Chief Minister M G Ramachandran here.

MELBOURNE TO EASE WORLD'S LONGEST COVID LOCKDOWNS

elbourne, which has spent more time under COVID lockdowns than any other city in the world, is set to lift its stay-at-home orders this week, officials said on Sunday. By Friday, when some curbs will be lifted, the Australian city of 5 million people will have been under six lockdowns totalling 262 days, or nearly nine months, since March 2020. Australian and other media say this is the longest in the world, exceeding a 234-day lockdown in Buenos Aires. While coronavirus cases keep rising in Victoria state, of which Melbourne is the capital, the state's double-vaccination rate is set to reach 70% this week, allowing for the ease in restrictions.

CHINA SURPRISES US WITH HYPERSONIC MISSILE TEST

hina tested a nuclear-capable hypersonic missile in August that circled the globe before speeding towards its target, demonstrating an advanced space capability that caught US intelligence by surprise. Five people familiar with the test said the Chinese military launched a rocket that carried a hypersonic glide vehicle which flew through low-orbit space before cruising down towards its target. The missile missed its target by about two-dozen miles, according to three people briefed on the intelligence. Efforts on to soften tomato, potato rates

PNS NEW DELHI

Amid a rise in prices of three key vegetables, the Centre on Sunday said onion prices are being stabilised with the release of buffer stock, while efforts are on to soften the rates of tomato and potato.

Onion stocks are being released in the market on the first-in-firstout basis in a calibrated manner from the last week of August in a bid to moderate prices and ensure minimum storage loss, it said.
As a result of this, the retail onion

price was ruling in the range of Rs

In retail markets, onion was ruling at Rs 42 per kg in Chennai, Rs 44 per kg in Delhi, at Rs 45 per kg in Mumbai and Rs 57 per kg in Kolkata on October 14.

In a statement, the food and con-are rising over the previous month.

Emotions won't last long; Eatala will know this'

I don't have money to distribute: TRS candidate for Huzurabad bypoll Gellu Srinivas Yadav speaks to The Pioneer's Naveena Ghanate

Q: Is Huzurabad bypoll peo-Harish vs Eatala is going on in Huzurabad, what about you?

A: It is TRS vs BJP and not about persons. Everyone worked for the party even when he (Eatala) was with us and even now. People will see party only. In the 1999 elections, N Chandrababu Naidu was CM, but in old Kamalapur constituency Lakshmi Parvathi's team won, because all sarpanches, ZPTC, MPTC members stood by strong leader Damodar Reddy. But who is there with Eatala Rajender now? No karyakarta or leader is with him. How can we buy our own people who won using TRS B-form? In fact, Eatala Rajender is buying people by spending crores of rupees.

It is a 'battle of self respect and emotions' says your opponent...

What self-respect is he talking about? Didn't KCR call and give him ticket, setting aside seniors? Even now people are asking what KCR did that he went away from party. People will think what KCR did for them, not what KCR did for Gellu Srinu or Eatala. People are happy as they got some welfare schemes. Ēmotions won't last long. I will tell people that I will get CC roads, community hall, medical college, and houses for the poor. He is not telling even one such activity. Beneficiaries are feeling happy and elections don't run on emotions. KCR's sentiment was for Telangana, but Eatala resigned for himself.

BJP says money is flowing here...

I don't have money to distribute. TRS party doesn't rely on money, but only on credibility and trust. Our karayakartas spend by themselves; I can't spend money and I don't even have that much capacity.

No enemies only opponents in politics: Kavitha

PNS ■ HYDERABAD

Member of TS Legislative Council (TRS) K Kavitha has observed that there can be 'no enemies, but only opponents in politics'. In the context, she hailed Haryana Governor Bandaru Dattatreya for kindling the real spirit of Dasara by inviting leaders from all political parties to his 'Alai-Balai' programme year after year without showing any discrimination towards any political party.

While participating in this year's 'Alai-Balai' programme held on Kavitha said that she was feeling happy for being part of the programme. "Sitting along with the leaders from all political parties is good. It is a good message to the people of Telangana", she said.

Kavitha said that she was very happy that the programme had been conveying the message to the people of Telangana political leaders them, though politicians criticised one another every day. Politicians ultimately had to work for the sake of people, she reasoned.

It was not that easy to run the Alai-Balai pro-gramme consecutively for the last 16 years, she said. She congratulated Bandaru Dattatreya and his daughter Vijayalaxmi for conducting the programme.

Don't touch feet; posting in Archives Dept is fine

George Orwell, in his satirical, allegorical novella Animal Farm wrote: "All animals are created equal, but some are more equal than others." The ringing message of the celebrated work is that power corrupts, even when idealism is at play.

The babudom mirrors this best. Some retired bureaucrats took a dig at certain IAS officers in Telangana for kowtowing to their political masters and urged them to stop fanatasing about positions in the Finance, Industry or Commerce department.

It was suggested to these compliant babus that they would do well to appreciate a posting even in the Archives Department instead. The conversation was started by PV Ramesh who asked to name the states where some officials, especially IAS & IPS variety, join the party in power to hold 'good posts'. Responding to it, former health secretary Sujata Rao said: "That's always been the case...it's just less subtle and more brazen now with district collectors in Telangana touching the feet of the CM. That is new for the southern states".

This conversation took an incisive turn when a netizen pointed out that those disinclined to follow the line of the ruling party are put in the Archives Department. Ramesh said, "If all IAS, IPS officers are upright, honest, competent, apolitical, & work for public interest, as expected under the Constitution of India, there will be place for all. Archives are very important part of civilisational march; not at all insignificant." Concurring with it, Sujata said: "The value and snobbery hierarchy of finance, industry and commerce being the only imp posts is

Will DPH face the music for gyrating to Bullet Bandi?

Director of Health Dr G Srinivasa Rao, hours before exhorting people to follow Covid norms, was seeing gyrating to the viral song Bullet Bandi, throwing pandemic protocol to the winds. Sometime back when nurses danced to the same song, ostensibly to cheer a patient, the authorities took a serious view of the matter and launched a probe into the incident. The DPH danced as part of the just-concluded Bathukamma celebrations. Previously, during the Ganesh Immersion also he came under scrutiny for ignoring Covid norms. He perhaps likes to shake his leg even if it shakes up his depart-

Babus caught between media frenzy and gag orders

Seeking to put an end to the fierce rivalry between the Telugu States on the sharing of Krishna as well as Godavari waters and the generation of power from Srisailam and Nagarjuna Sagar projects, the Centre brought all the projects in the Krishna and Godavari basins under the control of KRMB and GRMB respectively at one stroke in July.

As October 14th, scheduled date for implementation of the Centre's notification neared, officials were in a tizzy with the media going into overdrive on how officials handed the situation with grave political implications. While a few TS-based dailies went with screaming headlines, attributing defiance by Telangana to hand over projects under its purview 'taken over' by the boards; some state officials were taken back at such media sensationalism'.

"Media wants everything in black and white, but there are many grey areas and things do not move at the pace at which media wants," said a senior irrigation official. A retired bureaucrat was more forthcoming when he suggested that the gag orders issued by political bosses to babus, asking them not to speak to media, breeds such sensationalism.

All told, there is hardly any leeway for the babus caught between media pursuit and gag orders to say anything of significance even on crucial inter-state matters.

The long wait for postings

The long wait for postings continues for All India Service Officers in Telangana State, particularly for IPS officers. With no major shake-up of IPS officers after 2018, only one or two postings are being given. Vacant positions go to willing officers as full additional charge. No wonder, even in DGP office, several senior officers are awaiting Rema Rajeswari, who worked as Mahbubnagar SP, was transferred five months ago and V B Kamalasan Reddy, who worked as Karimnagar Commissioner, was transferred three months ago. P &L IGP Sanjay Kumar Jain was given FAC of Police Housing Corporation when its MD Malareddy retired last year. Jain is already holding FAC as Director, Fire Services. ACB and Vigilance DG Purnachandra Rao retired two months ago and later Govind Singh was promoted as DG, CID and given FAC of ACB and Vigilance.

The situation is no different among IAS officers. While a handful of IAS officers are handling (read burdened with) three or more posts/departments, others are forced to twiddle their thumbs at work.

Bifurcation blues, families and home

People thought that bifurcation blues would last a few months for those relocating to either Andhra Pradesh.

Surprisingly, though it has been more than seven years since the combined AP state was divided and almost six years since the residual AP administration shifted from the comcapital Hyderabad Vijayawada/Amaravati; most of the babus are yet to make Andhra Pradesh their home. Home is where the heart is", they say.

True to this dictum, on weekends these babus continue to go to Hyderabad, where they have their families settled. They prefer shuttling between Hyderabad and Vijayawada. Even senior buréaucrats continue to leave for Hyderabad on Friday afternoon, spend the weekend with family, and return to Vijayawada on Monday morning. On Mondays, their work begins around 11:00 am or 12:00 pm. Most of the officials want to settle in Hyderabad, where there is ample social infrastructure, after retirement. So, they are averse to shifting their families to Vijayawada. Something surely is special about Hyderabad for babus!

Kavitha to enter national politics?

Will Kalvakuntla Kavitha, the daughter of Chief Minister K Chandrasekhar Rao, continue in Telangana politics or will she enter national politics?

Kavitha's MLC term is coming to an end in around two months on January 4, 2022. Kavitha's political future is in the hands of her father KCR. A Cabinet reshuffle is expected after the Huzurabad Assembly by-election.

On November 2 the results of the Huzurabad Assembly by-election will be declared. Kavitha is strongly expecting a Cabinet berth in the much awaited reshuffle.

Kavitha was elected as an MLC in the by-election from the Nizamabad local body constituency on October 12, 2020. The six-year term of MLCs elected in the local bodies' quota will come to an end on January 4, 2022. The Election Commission is likely to hold the elections to elect MLCs from the local bodies quota in December 2021.

Meanwhile, the Election Commission has to hold elections to six vacant MLC seats from the Assembly quota.

TRS circles are unable to assess the political future of Kavitha as nobody knows whether KCR will ask Kavitha to contest as an MLC again from the Nizamabad local bodies' constituency, or whether he will nominate Kavitha as an MLC from the Assembly quota or ask her to contest from the Nizamabad Lok Sabha constituency in the forthcoming Parliament elec-

In the expected Cabinet reshuffle if KCR gives a Cabinet berth to Kavitha she will contest from Nizamabad local bodies MLC seat again.

Top TRS sources said KCR is still in two minds in taking Kavitha into the Cabinet. KCR's son K T Rama Rao and nephew T Harish Rao are already in the Cabinet.

If Kavitha also is given a Cabinet berth four members from a family will have representation in the Cabinet.

Sources said KCR is seriously thinking of giving a Cabinet berth to Kavitha after his entry into national politics. KCR thinks that after the next Lok Sabha elections regional parties will have a crucial role and that the BJPled NDA or the Congress-led UPA will not get majority to form a government at Centre on their own. If that happens, KCR will play a key role in national politics.

Once KCR enters national politics he wants to take his nephew Harish Rao into Delhi politics to assist him. It is a known fact that if KCR enters national politics his son KTR will be made the Chief Minister of Telangana.

Kavitha was elected as an MP for the first time from the Nizamabad Lok Sabha constituency in the 2014 LS elections. In the 2019 Lok Sabha elections Kavitha contested from Nizamabad Lok Sabha seat, but was defeated by BIP candidate Dharmapuri Arvind.

After the defeat Kavitha maintained silence still she contested as an MLC from the Nizamabad local bodies' seat

Nominations filed on behalf of KCR for TS TRS president's post

Senior leaders of Telangana Rashtra Samithi (TRS) on Sunday filed nominations on behalf of Chief Minister K Chandrasekhar Rao for the election of party president.

Ministers Mohammed Mahmood Ali, Sabitha Indra Reddy, T Srinivas Yadav, Jagdish Reddy, Indrakaran Reddy, Satyawati Rathore, E Dayakar Reddy, Niranjan Goud, Srinivas Goud, Malla Reddy, Niranjan Reddy and P Ajay Kumar filed the nomination papers on behalf of KCR.

The TRS leaders submitted the papers proposing the name of KCR for the president's post to returning officer Srinivas Reddy. KCR's daughter K Kavitha, former Prime Minister PV Narasima Rao's daughter Vani Devi, both members of Telangana Legislative Council and other leaders also submitted nomination papers on behalf of the TRS supremo.

The process for election of TRS president was set in motion on Sunday with the release of schedule. Nominations will be accepted till October 22.

The scrutiny of nomination papers will be taken up on October 23. According to the schedule, October 24 will be the last date for filing of nom-

The party president will be elected at the party plenary session to be held in Hyderabad on October 25.

A total of 14,000 party delegates from across the state will participate in the plenary, which could not be held for last three years due to general elections and Covid-19 pandemic.

The election is likely to be a mere formality as KCR has been getting elected unopposed as the party President since its inception in 2001. Meanwhile, KCR presided over a combined meeting of party's state legislators and MPs at party headquarters Telangana Bhavan. The meeting discussed the organisational elections and the resolutions which are likely to be taken up at the plenary.

The meeting also reviewed the preparations for 'Telangana Vijaya Grajana', a massive public meeting planned at Warangal on November 15 to mark completion of two decades of the party.

Lakhs of party members from across the state will participate in the public meeting which will highlight achievements and the progress made by Telangana on all fronts under the TRS rule during the last seven years.

PNS HYDERABAD

Minister Chandrasekhar Rao has expressed anger at Transport Minister Puvvada Ajay Kumar on Sunday during the review meeting on the proposed Praja Vijaya Garjana public meeting at Warangal on November 15, it is learnt.

The Chief Minister lost his cool at Puvvada as he was not getting proper answers from him. Puvvada expressed his inability to tell the exact number of buses TSRRTC has when the Chief Minister asked him for the number of TSRTC buses.

KCR asked Puvvada, "Don't you know the exact number of TSRTC buses?" However, Puvvada replied that he is not the RTC Minister, but was Transport Minister. Puvvada also said that the RTC Chairman has to look after RTC management.

people, he is telling Gellu Srinivas is our relative and doing drama. But people want a Yadav to become MLA and me. Even Mudirajus are coming along with TRS party now. All castes are in support of me. BJP tried to pressurise BCs by making them ask a scheme akin to Dalit Bandhu. They failed in it. BCs know that such scheme will come even for them; that's why despite BJP trying to provoke them, they are holding their ground. Social media's influence on people here is low. What is the use of social media activity happening in Warangal, which will influence Huzurabad? People in Huzurabad are observing.

Midnight food courts will have to shut shops after clock strikes 12

There will be no permission for midnight food courts in the city in all the three police commissionerates. The police are working out the modalities on this.

Earlier, the Police Commissioner of Cyberabad, Stephen Raveendra, had discussed this proposal to prevent drug peddling and other crimes.

The Minister directed them not to allow any kind of business after midnight. The police are working out guidelines on the same, and very soon they are likely to issue orders regarding that.

PNS HUZURABAD

With just two weeks to go for the by-election to Huzurabad Assembly constituency in Telangana, the ruling TRS and opposition BJP are set to intensify their campaign, while third contender Congress is trying to catch up with them.

TRS and BJP have been running the campaign for nearly four months now. Though the Congress is a late entrant, it is making all efforts to match the main contenders.
The Congress appears to be lagging in a three-cornered contest, which is considered a prestige battle for Chief Minister K Chandrasekhar Rao. KCR faces challenge from Eatala Rajender, whose resignation after being dropped from the state Cabinet caused the by-poll.

Though TRS leaders are making everyone believe that the by-poll is insignificant for it, the choice of the constituency for the implementation of the Dalit Bandhu scheme on pilot basis and a slew of welfare measures announced for various sections of people left no one in doubt that the ruling party is leaving nothing to challenge to his leadership in the run-up to the 2023 Assembly polls. A win for Eatala will not only embolden other voices of dissent against KCR, but will also bolster BJP's attempts to emerge as the only viable alternative to TRS.

Speaking in the Assembly last week, KCR had ridiculed the opposition parties for linking the Dalit Bandhu scheme to the Huzurabad by-poll.

"Will there be no election after Huzurabad and will the government fall after the bybars and this is likely to help the ruling party garner votes of the

The ruling party is also banking on the welfare schemes currently being implemented for various other OBC communities. After Rajender quit TRS to join BJP following his sacking from the Cabinet over allegations of land grabbing, TRS lured some key leaders from other parties into its ranks. The saffron party, which is banking heavily on Rajender's popularity in the constituency, is also running an aggressive campaign. Rajender has been addressing public meetings every day to target KCR for his 'autocratic' role.

The BJP hardly had any presence in Huzurabad. In 2018, its candidate P. Raghu polled only 1,683 votes, which was less than NOTA votes (2,867). However, Rajender's joining has bolstered the saffron party. Rajender has been winning Huzurabad for TRS since 2009, when he defeated his nearest rival V. Krishna Mohan Rao of Congress by 15,035 votes. In the 2010 bypoll, Rajender increased his victory margin to nearly 80,000

Damodar Reddy of TDP.

In the 2014 elections held just before formation of Telangana state, Rajender retained Huzurabad with a majority of 57,037 votes. K. Sudershan Reddy of Congress was the runner-up.

The BJP is confident of repeating the Dubbak performance in Huzurabad. In the by-election to Dubbak Assembly constituency held in November last year, the BJP had pulled off a sensational victory to stun the TRS. A month later, the saffron party came out with an impressive performance in the elec-tions to GHMC. Following these victories, the BIP intensified its efforts towards the goal of capturing power in the 2023 elections. However, the outcome of elections to two graduates' constituencies of Legislative Council in March and by-election in Nagarjuna Sagar came as a disappointment to the party. After a long delay, Congress named Balmoor Venkat Narsing Rao as its candidate in Huzurabad. He is the president of the Telangana unit of NSUI. The 29-year-old faces

Territorial constituencies were created to identify problems in villages and to step up the pace of development. But Zilla Territorial Parishad Constituency Members and Mandal Parishad Territorial Constituency Members have now become purely ornamental and are not serving the desired purpose.

In the new state of Telangana, elections to elect 538 ZPTC and 5.817 MPTC members were held in 2019. In undivided Medak district, there were 711 MPTC Members and 68 MPTCs. These include the 20 ZPTC members and 189 MPTC Members in Medak district, 22 MPTCs and 229 MPTCs in Siddipet district and 26 ZPTCs and 293 MPTCs in Sangareddy district.

Their desire to put rural development on the high road suffers from lack of adequate funds. One of the MPTCs will get elected as the Mandal Praja Parishad president, another will get elected as vice-MPP, while one of the ZPTCs is elected as president of the Zilla Praja Parishad and another one will be elected as his or her

The general body meetings of mandal parishads and zilla parishads are crucial. The approval of Members is necessary for decisions taken at general body meetings and also to release funds for development projects. If Members fail to take part in meetings three times in a row, they will lose their membership.

There was no special allocation of funds to MPTC and ZPTC Members. However, the government allocates a part of the 15th Finance Commission funds to them. Till 2015, the Centre used to allocate Backward Regions Development Fund to ZPTCs. After 2015, it stopped that.

As a result, the ZPTCs are not able to implement development programmes in villages and have no cheque issuing powers. MPTC Members attend village panchayat general body meetings and ZPTCs attend mandal parishad's general body meetings as special invitees. They have no other powers. They also do not have special rooms and a chair for them at village panchayat and mandal parishad offices.

The MPTCs can attend meetings at the village level and ZPTCs mandal level meetings. They can give suggestions and question irregularities in development projects. They can also be members in some committees and give suggestions, but cannot take crucial decisions.

Governments spend crores to hold elections to territorial constituencies, but never release funds to territorial constituency Members and clearly specify their duties.

The honorarium payable to MPTC and ZPTC Members has been increased to Rs 6,500 per month and to Rs 13,000 a month. But, they demand roles and responsibilities and have been fighting for that in vain for over two decades. The MPTCs seek name boards and chairs for them in village panchayats, while ZPTCs seek special rooms for them at Mandal Parishad offices. They express their desire to hoist the national flag on one occasion or the

TPCC lodges plaint with CEO against Harish Rao

The Telangana Pradesh Congress Committee has lodged a complaint with the State Chief Electoral Officer Dr Shashank Goyal on Sunday

alleging that Finance Minister T Harish Rao has been misusing his official powers in Huzu-rabad where a by-poll is being held.

All India Kisan Congress Vice Chairman M Kodanda Reddy stated in his complaint that T Harish Rao is the Cabinet Minister for Finance and has been campaigning intensively in Huzurabad for around a month. His influence as a senior member of the Telangana Cabinet is widely known. Harish Rao's continuous presence in Huzurabad is inappropriate, the complaint said. Propriety demands that he should resign from the Cabinet to undertake such an election campaign, Kodanda said in his plaint. In the past, there have been instances where Ministers had stepped down to campaign establishing a healthy trend. This was upheld by former Chief

Election Commissioner of India T N Seshan. Kodanda Reddy mentioned in his complaint that the presence of Cabinet Minister Harish Rao in Huzurabad will definitely affect the election process. His presence as Minister will vitiate the atmosphere and make a fair election impossible.

The Minister's very presence can have a negative influence on the election administration and voters, Kodanda said. "I request the CEO to issue directions to bar Harish from campaigning or ask him to resign from the Cabinet so that he can continue to campaign," Kodanda Reddy said.

Raut: 'Govt killings' have replaced 'contract killings'

Launching a stinging attack on the BJP and the Centre over the alleged misuse of investigative agencies, Shiv Sena MP Sanjay Raut on Sunday alleged that "contract killings" are now replaced by "government killings" to finish off political rivals in Maharashtra.

With some ministers in the Shiv Sena-led Maha Vikas Aghadi (MVA) government under the scanner of the Enforcement Directorate (ED), Income Tax, and at least one of them facing a CBI inquiry, Raut said that Central investigating agencies are working as "contract killers for the party in power in Delhi".

'Is there a rule of law or (a rule of) raids in Maharashtra? This is the question which comes to one's mind considering the recordbreak raids being conducted agencies," Raut wrote in the weekly column 'Rokhthok' in the Sena mouthpiece 'Saamana' of which he is the executive editor.

Earlier, Delhi rulers used to lie but now (ordering) frequent raids have become a new business without any capital investment, he stated.

"Use people's money, government machinery to remove political opponents. In the past, contract killings were the order of the day in Mumbai (when Underworld was active). Hitmen were hired on contract to kill rivals (by gangs). This is now replaced by 'government killing'. Central power in Delhi," Raut said. Finishing off the unwanted political rivals through these agencies seems to have become a new policy, Raut stated.

The Sena leader further said the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) was raiding homes of former Maharashtra Home Minister Anil Deshmukh instead of finding out the whereabouts of Param Bir Singh, the former commissioner of Mumbai police who had accused Deshmukh of corruption with the help of some police officers when he was serving as the home minister of the state.

Pollution in Delhi due to stubble burning in neighbouring states

PNS NEW DELHI

As Delhi's air quality plunged into the "very poor" category on Sunday morning, Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal said that increase in pollution was due to stubble burning in neighbouring states as governments were "doing nothing" to help farmers to stop it.

He appealed to the governments of Punjab, Haryana and Uttar Pradesh to understand their responsibilities towards reducing stubble burning and controlling pollution.

"For the past one month, I have been tweeting data of air quality in Delhi. Pollution has increased in the last 3-4 days and it is due to stubble burning in neighbouring states. Farmers in neighbouring states are compelled to burn stubble as their governments are doing nothing for them (towards stopping stubble burning)," Kejriwal said in an event organised to lay the foundation stone of a 1,430 bed new government hospital in Shalimar Bagh.

Hands-on approach

Rahul will have to face electoral bullets if he becomes the Congress president again

t can now be said that Congress matriarch Sonia Gandhi has done everything she could to protect son Rahul. Whether that can stem the prospects of the party from dwindling further is another story. The Saturday meeting of the Congress Working Committee was unique. It witnessed, for the first time in recent memory, a member of the Nehru-Gandhi family forced to take note of growing dissent in the party organisation and handle it differently from the past when disciplinary action was the standard remedy. How times have changed. The dissidents make a large, powerful group and throwing them out would mean ejecting the entire second rung leadership. The Family runs the show thanks to irrational allegiance to the leadership that stills dissent beyond a point. Sonia Gandhi did not confront the dissidents. She reasoned with them. She explained to them that their main grouse – lack of a full-time president – was groundless as she was a "full-time" and "handson" president. She thus shielded them from her son who left the presidency after the 2019 election debacle and has since been reluctant to be anointed again. She then sought patience from them to await the next president. Probably, him again. They wanted an elected president and they will get one, she told them, backing her word with a time-bound organisational election schedule. What she has managed to do in the process is show exemplary shrewdness in steering the dawdling ship in the rough seas by keeping intact all hands on the oars.

From her point of view, son Rahul's high point after becoming Congress president in December 2017 was the party forming four State Governments, including one in a coalition, after the assembly elections in 2018. He guit the following year. Rahul was not president when Congress was whipped in West Bengal. He would not be there either when the Congress fights in Uttar Pradesh. The Presidential elections would pass him by too. Sonia obliquely told them that Rahul's was not a case of power without responsibility because she was the "hands-on" power. If the dissidents had an issue, they would have to deal with her, not Rahul. As much as the dissidents would have wanted an elected leader to take responsibility for failures, they were unable to tell her that to her face. And by the time they thought of doing so, Sonia Gandhi came up with aretort cloaked in reasonableness. However, Rahul, if he is president again, will have to bite the electoral bullet in December 2022 in Gujarat and four key States in 2023. So, the 2019-2022 breather does not help him before taking on Narendra Modi in 2024. Sonia realises the ultimate irony of the Congress: The dynasty may demand a Gandhi to be president but the legacy of the party demands striving for the Prime Minister's post and nothing else. There is the minor issue of the two demands converging somewhere.

Debris collects on Lower Lake after the end of Navratri, in Bhopal

An evil plot

The Durga Puja attacks in Bangladesh are designed to throw the country back into chaos

t is disturbing news again from a neighbour, Bangladesh. Hindu temples have been vandalised and at least three people lost their lives in the violent clashes in the People's Republic of Bangladesh. This is one of the biggest disruptions in interfaith harmony of the country that is making remarkable strides on the economic front. Sheikh Hasina's Government has been in power for quite some time. However, religious fanaticism has been on the rise in Bangladesh. It validates what writer Tasleema Nasrin has been warning about Muslim fundamentalism in the country. That the religious bigots chose Durga Puja as the occasion to rupture the social fabric of the country speaks volumes about their designs. It can have a spillover, multiplier effect and reaction in bordering India and thus it could snowball into a major issue. This would neither be good for Hasina's Government nor for her country that needs peace to prosper. If Bangladesh burns, it will be pulled back to the old days of economic hardships and misery. The Bangladesh Government has deployed the Border Guard Bangladesh (BGB) in 22 districts after the attacks. This shows that the incidents are neither isolated nor unplanned. So far, three people have been killed during clashes between Muslim bigots and the police at Hajiganj sub-district in Chandpur. One person died later in the hospital of injuries. The police have so far detained 43 people in connection with the violence. This is one of the biggest challenges that the ruling Awami League party is facing right now. It has a daunting task to protect the Hindu minorities while not antagonising the majority of Muslims. This indeed is a tight ropewalk for Sheikh Hasina and her party. Hindus are 10 per cent of the 169 million, largely Muslim, population. The Awami League, which led the struggle for independence, harped on the Bangla language movement, not religion. But later it fell out with the military, which consolidated its position by supporting religious fundamentalists. In 1977, Zia-ur-Rahman dropped secularism. Later in 1988, General Ershad made Islam the State religion and hobnobbed with the fundamentalists, laying the foundation of the current rise of religious extremism. The sporadic violence has claimed several lives ever since, though this time it is more organised and designed to garner maximum mileage.

Jinnah: Divider of the subcontinent?-

The recent killings in Kashmir by Pakistan-backed terrorists remind us of what India would have been enduring had there been no Partition ho wanted Partition? Who needed Who needed Pakistan? Certainly, the Khoja, Memon and Bohri businessmen did. They preferred competing with the Punjabi farmer than the Parsis and Banias, Marwari, Gujarati, Chettiars or whichever other traditional trading communities in India. The Habibs, for example, were big grain traders in Bombay. Their junior partner Ratanlal Gandhi once asked the senior Habib why they financed the Muslim League when all their business and property was in and around Bombay? Habib's answer to Gandhi was that it was much easier to flourish against farmers than businessmen banias.

Others keen on Partition were the radical Muslims, wherever they were in India. An educated League leader of Madras -Mohammed Ismail — was a leading supporter not only of Partition but also an exchange of population, which meant that all Muslims ought to go to Pakistan and non-Muslims to remain in India. Ismail himself did not leave Madras. Yet another group of supporters were the students, past and present of Aligarh University which was described y M.A. Jinnah as "the arsenal of Pakistan". For the rest, Muslims were interested but were unsure and therefore lukewarm. Punjab had a Muslim majority with a Muslim Premier and ruled by the Unionist Party led by Sir Sikander Hayat Khan and his successors. These leaders saw no future in Partition as Punjab enjoyed Muslim rule with the whole of the Indian market freely available to their province.

Similarly, Bengal was in two minds and not clearly for Pakistan. One, to support Partition or to follow the reasoning of Punjab; two, to have a united Bengal as a third separate dominion, apart from Pakistan and India. Sir Abdul Rahim, Fazlul Rahman and Sarat Bose met several times to discuss the issue. Jinnah quietly supported the idea as did the Communist Party of India. The truth was no one could visualise the concept and shape of Pakistan. Not even Jinnah; he retained his magnificent bungalow Marble House on Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel and Jawaharlal Nehru came to realise this truth in 1946 when widespread rioting began in August of that year. Punjab had witnessed bloodshed and looting but elsewhere it was business-as-usual. Jinnah was himself not a committed Muslim. His grandfather had converted to the faith led by Sir Aga Khan called Ismaili Khojas. This denomination was declared by the Bombay High Court in 1861 as half Muslim and half Hindu because of its inheritance laws. The family continued to call themselves Jinnahbhai. It was in England, where he was studying to become a barrister that he slightly altered his surname pork sandwiches as well as a sun-downer (whisky) on most evenings.

Jinnah knew the cards could be loaded against him. Dead against the grain of his constitutional nature, he ordered the Great Calcutta Killing on 16 August 1946, in the hope that the riots would be retaliated against and spread in the country. Killings in Punjab alone were not sufficient. Moreover, time was running out for him. He either knew or suspected that his lungs were infected with tuberculosis (TB), which until the post-World War II period, was a fatal disease. And sure enough, TB took Jinnah's life in September 1948. He had to settle scores with Gandhi, first for resorting to taking politics to the streets and villages (which Jinnah could not cope with), and later in 1928, ignoring him at the Calcutta session of the Congress. Jinnah kept avoiding the prefix 'Mahatma' and addressing Gandhi as 'Minister'! The audience did not let Jinnah speak unless he addressed Gandhi as Mahatma. There must have been similar other incidents before 1928. Jinnah had to deliver revenge to Gandhi and began with riots to which the Mahatma had no answer except touring the affected areas and conducting prayer meetings. Nor did he have a counter-strategy. Even Patel, Nehru and others in the Congress couldn't think of how to counter the League. Non-violence could not cope with brutality and violence. Jinnah was more a brilliant advocate than a leader. He is reputed to have suits tailored at the famous Saville Row in London but until he was elected the life president of the Muslim League in 1935, he had no chudidar-pyjamas nor sher-wanis (essential Muslim attire) as his brother and my grandfather's dear friend Ahmed told the latter. The brothers did not know how to perform namaz. As Ahmed told my grandfather, the brothers were culturally more Parsi and less Muslim.

STALIN SHOWS THE WAY

Sir — The unprecedented and mammoth victory of the Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam (DMK) in the local body elections is indeed a recognition the people have given to the Tamil Nadu Government, particularly for the implementation of several public welfare schemes in such a short time by the charismatic Chief Minister MK Stalin. Though the main Opposition AIADMK and its allies, particularly the BJP, tried to tarnish the image of the new Government on implementation of the election promises made by the DMK, people refused to fall into their trap, realising the sincerity with which the new Government was trying to fulfil their election promises despite the empty coffers the earlier corrupt AIADMK regime has left for them.

Looking at the manner in which Chief Minister Stalin is conducting himself, people believe that he would never let them down and make the State regain its past glory and become the number one State in the country again in all key parameters. Realising the trust of the people in them, the leaders and cadres of the DMK should also realise their responsibilities and perform their duty honestly keeping only the welfare of the people supreme in their

DID NOT SEE THAT COMING

Sir — The Union Defence Minister Rajnath Singh lauded the former Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi for her leadership in times of war and said it was a positive experience in harnessing women power for national development, at the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation. His comments in such a positive approach in the era of bitter political rivalry reminds of similar sentiments expressed by Atal Bihari Vajpayee who called Indira Gandhi 'Durga' for leading the nation to victory in the 1971 Indo-Pak war.

Gone are the sweet memories of the yesteryears when the first Prime Minister of India congratulated his political rival young Atal Bihari Vajpayee for his maiden speech in the Parliament, forecasting

Vaccination drive in full swing

he recent release of the COVID-19 anthem in the beautiful voice of Kailash Kher by the Union Health Ministry — to mark the 100 crore vaccination target — is absolutely a victory for India in terms of mass vaccination records. At the same time, we know that this is not the end of the pandemic as about only 30 per cent of the population has been fully vaccinated yet. The lyrics "tike se bacha hai, tike se bachega desh" are somewhat true when it comes to life saving causes. There was a time in India when a great politician of the future in him. The former Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri had sent a gift parcel of Dhoti-Kurta to a prominent parliamentarian Prakashvir Shastri, as a token of request to wear Indian attire on his first foreign trip. Such moments of political bonhomie are very rare in Indias current political spectrum. Country's welfare is no longer the vision but only individual interest is what the politicians seek. Had the ethos of such leaders been alive, India's social, political and economical state would have been far better.

GOOD TO HAVE DHONI BACK

Sir — They say age is just a number. And that statement fits in perfectly for MS Dhoni, who led the Chennai Super Kings to victory in the IPL 2021. What is incredible is the way the yellow brigade bounced back after a supremely disappointing season in 2020, where they became the first team to be knocked out of the play-offs and, for the first time ever diseases failed miserably. Taking into consideration the size and diversity of India's population, vaccination of 100 crores is itself a record for us. Such songs will not only help in removing vaccine hesitancy and controversies around India's domestically produced COVID vaccines, but also set an example before the world about India's potential in the medical and healthcare sector. It will develop a nationalist sense in every Indian that we are not lagging in the fight against the COVID-19. As Indians, we should celebrate the 100 crore vaccine mark, but at the same time we also must encourage people to get vaccinated and follow the COVID protocols. The whole world is eagerly waiting for the day when there would be zero COVID-19 cases; however, that can be achieved only by the efforts of the authorities and the support of the citizens.

in the history of the tournament, failed to make it to final four. But CSK's triumphant return this season, with pretty much the same squad, has shown why Dhoni has been so successful over the years despite being one of the oldest players in the tournament. Just recently, Mahendra Singh Dhoni became the first player in the world to captain a team in 300 T20 games across various competitions during his side's IPL clash against KKR. Also, few days ago, India's T20 World Cup squad was announced with former skipper MS Dhoni reuniting the 'men in blue' as the side's mentor. MS Dhoni's appointment as India's mentor was a way to use his experience in the T20 World Cup. MS dhoni is once again ready to contribute to the team and this comes as no surprise that he has decided not to charge a dime for mentoring the men in blue.

FIRST COLUMN BETWEEN ROUTINE AND INNOVATION

Routine is one of the two legs of human existence, innovation is the other

ife is full pf paradoxes. The celebrated doers, thinkers, writers have a way of capturing what they have seen as the' truth' and verbalising it. Sometimes the 'truths' are easy to understand, sometimes abstruse. Mark Twain reportedly said, "Never fail to pay yourself a compliment; it may be your only chance to get one". This is a straight forward quip with a touch of humour and irony. Some of his other, reported, quotes are a little more complex and perhaps difficult to comprehend. For instance,"For each one kills the thing he loves". One has, at times, tried to make sense of the second quote. Some claim that they can approximate what he could have meant. That is another story. The central part of this narrative is to focus on common place remarks which capture some truth in life. One of my favourite quotes is, "Keeping up with the routine is far more demanding than trying hands at innovation". When this remark is used in a public forum, sometimes, one gets reactions which total up to saying, "routine is routine, what is difficult with keeping up with it". The truth of life is that one lives in an era where amongst the buzz words, 'innovation', perhaps, tops the list. People are never tired of pleading for 'innovation' or trying to put it across as the ultimate need of life. It is a need. One does not know whether it is the 'ultimate' need or not. Of course, innovation is necessary. That is also how, change could take place to keep pace with changing requirements. However, many empiricists have found that scope for practice of innovation is bounded in many ways. This includes real world realities or time needed for the body to rejuvenate. These are two limiting items, among several constants, which cannot and will not change. It is keeping up with the routine that is so essential to keep the body as a functioning and an effective system. Similar is the story in collective living or routine of livelihood. One may move from cash to bitcoins, but the reference point of an intermediary, referred to as money as a medium of exchange of goods, services, etc., is a constant. Thus, it is that life of innovation is bound by the domain of operation of the subject, nature of material, etc. It is the 'routine' which also provides formidable challenges.

The body needs a given number of hours of rest in a 24-hour cycle to repair its cells, rest its organs and unwind the stresses. This is best serviced through regular habits. Usually, the period for rest is supposed to come somewhere between sunset and sunrise, if it is in the tropical zones. The human body attuned to a 24-hour cycle needs a minimum of 6-8 hours rest. This may vary from one point of the life cycle to another, say between youth and old age. However, the range of variation remains limited. Routine is one of the two legs on which human existence walks. The other is innovation. In the interest of holistic living, almost equal thought needs to be given to the maintenance and improvement of servicing the routine requirements of life. Since the other leg on which human life moves is innovation, that too is important. As of now, it appears that the challenges and the needs of innovation are fairly well recognised. The challenges and the needs of routine need equal thought and servicing. A life well balanced, between thought through routine (serviced with determination) when balanced by innovative thinking and action, provides a good charter of success and

Beijing might resolve to disable Taiwan's communications and operational systems, making the resistance very low and a war relatively bloodless istorically, China has clashed with the former Soviet Union and Vietnam, intervened in the Korean War, and waged a fullfledged war with India in 1962 despite adopting the foreign policy 'principles of peaceful coexistence'. Today, Beijing has increased its strategic footprints worldwide, especially in Africa, through UN Peace Keeping Operations. Its support to the Taliban has been a cause of worry to many liberal states. Additionally, it is involved in disagreements and maritime territorial disputes in the South and East China Sea and boundary disputes with India and Taiwan.

Concerning India, the Galwan valley clashes and border incursions along with President Xi Jinping's state visits to India strategically communicated its intent to be recognised as an economic and military power. Recent border intrusions in two states simultaneously- Uttrakhand and Arunachal- and negatively commenting on the Indian Vice President's Arunachal visit raise questions about China's intent. A refusal to disengage beyond a certain point with India apart from repeatedly stressing its "peaceful reunification" of Taiwan by intruding into the air defence zone reflects its high running aspirations to be recognised as a great power. Further, its opaque debt trap policies pose severe challenges to the liberal world order.

The last few decades have seen China's financial and military growth which has translated into its aspiration to fulfil its 'China Dream' and has ignited its desire for hegemony. Beijing aims to attain a 'droit de regard' or "special interests" in its neighbouring areas in the South China Sea and the Indian Ocean region.

The questions that many ponder are will China use force against India or Taiwan? Is there a military conflict in waiting, a few days or months from now? The answer is most probably yes, but in accordance with China's suitability and its place of preference. The reason is not related to its insecurity viz-a-viz India or the U.S., but instead from its current perceived 'rightful place'. China is a classic case of misplaced nationalism. It firmly believes that once it can showcase its power well, it will gain entry into the 'great power club'. Such an objective aims to achieve appreciation and an increase in the rank of its social status. The use of force is thus an instrument, the effectiveness of which goes beyond the horizons of financial prosperity, military armaments and security. From a geopolitical perspective, high status brings with itself benefits such as deterrence from other more enormous powers merely by power projection and an acquired ability to influence the decisions of its neighbouring countries. New objectives such as norm-setting constitute the temptations of using force in foreign relations. Thus, a military conflict for social status remains a strong possibility. During the pandemic, as China faced

IF THE US DISPLAYS ITS international isolation, it stopped WILLINGNESS TO with a Galwan' clash' and kept relatively low on the question of Taiwan. THAT deliberately brush aside negotia-COULD MAKE tions and meaningful talks. INDIA A POTENTIAL TARGET THAT WILL TEST THE US

From another dimension, how China and Russia perceive the US withdrawal from Afghanistan is also important. Beijing had raised questions about States in South and East Asia placing their trust in America and had belittled its withdrawal in multiple statements. The decline in American commitments in finance and possibly disable the operaand military may lead China to tional systems, making the resisthink about the feasibility of using force against its neighbours- India or Taiwan. Of the two, India has the power of responding in military terms and can ensure strong support from its European and American allies. At a strategic level, China might not want to give Russia a choice between India or itself. The Chinese stalemate with aggressive posturing will continue. However, a repeat of 'Galwan' and possible brinkmanship in various other Eastern sectors can be resorted to by China in March or April 2022, to fight in high altitude zones. A fullfledged war with India might not be its intention, and it would continue to contain India through its hybrid warfare or by using Pakistan against it. Taiwan probably will be an immediate target because of several factors. It has mild winters suitable for PLA soldiers, limited conventional offensive capabilities, and a lack of an institutionalised agreement with the US for security. Further, its non-membership in the UN, leading to its disability to speak for itself in case of open hostilities and limited outreach to the world countries also increases its risk of inviting Chinese aggression. In tactical terms, these limitations of Taiwan make it suitable for the Chinese area of action. To avoid international criticism of its Taiwan hostilities, Beijing might resolve to strike the command, control, communications and intelligence node tance very low and war a relatively bloodless phenomenon leading to a "peaceful reunification". Such a move will send strategic signals beyond its immediate peripheries.

Moreover, it might also run a risk to hedge upon the world opinion in which no country would like to disrupt the essential supply chains because of the level of financial interdependencies with China. The warning to Germany and other European countries against adopting trade practices detrimental to its interests could also be associated with its posturing challenges. A territory that will be relatively easy to capture and does not escalate into a significant war guides us to the Chinese concept of "local war under high-tech conditions" as outlined by the previous president Jiang Zemin. Thus, given the calculations that Beijing might have, there are considerably fewer chances that the Taiwan takeover might spill over into regional conflicts.

However, given the formalisation of AUKUS as a reinforcing organisation, the element of force might be less, and the spillover will also depend upon the US response. If the US displays its willingness to get involved in hostilities, chances of Chinese hesitation for a fullblown military conflict on multiple borders will increase. That could make India a potential target that will test the US commitments. In case the US does not commit itself, India's Arunachal Pradesh may be the next target. The Chinese ability to carry out interoperability operations in space and cyber technologies through militarisation of its artificial intelligence apart from conventional and nuclear operations poses a high risk to the democratic countries. Consequently, such conflicts have high tendencies to spiral into major ones and once initiated, it becomes difficult to limit them into a 'local area' due to the intensity of the emotions involved.

Taiwan is highlighting its plight on various world forums and simultaneously preparing for a full-scale Chinese invasion through military drills. Nevertheless, it largely remains a fault line in the security of the Indo-Pacific region.

Priyanka's broomstick message

While the Gandhi family has not been spared criticism for its handling of Punjab, little importance has been given to the limited options they had Daradoxically, despite Congress base in Uttar Pradesh being extremely weak, Rahul Gandhi and Priyanka Gandhi Vadra appear to have acted wisely in leaving nothing to chance while responding to the Lakhimpur Khericase. Protesting against her detention in Sitapur, Priyanka displayed no qualms in picking up the broomstick to "clean" the guest-house, a video-clipping of which did not take long to go viral. As of now, though they have received ample mediacoverage, chances of these communication strategies translating into Congress faring well in UP Assembly elections are dim. But yes, they certainly subdued the noise about the Congress facing a crisis of weak leadership over the

Punjab imbroglio. Congress has a lot at stake in Punjab but almost nothing in UP. And this demands deliberation on yet another side of Congress-politics displayed in UP and in Punjab. Clearly, Congress is without any strong regional leader in UP. The situation is opposite in Punjab. Besides, the chances of BJP being pushed out of power soon in UP seem remote; the same may be said about it assuming power in Punjab. There is nothing puzzling about Congress facing a dilemma in Punjab, when viewed through "democratic" lens. It is debatable whether Congress high command "erred" or not in giving too much importance to regional leaders like Naviot Singh Sidhu. Democratically speaking, perhaps, Congress leaders could not afford to ignore the manner in which Sidhu was raising his voice and also receiving media coverage. Yet, it seems, the Gandhi siblings chose not to yield to all political tantrums of Sidhu. This was reflected in opting for a least expected person to take over from Captain Amarinder Singh as CM — Charanjit Singh Channi. It is possible, negative criticism faced by Congress leaders, due to Sidhu's style of politick-ing, have made the Gandhi siblings wiser about not yielding too much political space to party politicians fond of making too much noise and gaining media coverage.

Besides, media attention can never be a guarantee to earning electoral support. Presumably, this reality cautioned the Gandhi family in choosing not to concede to Sidhu's desire of succeeding the Captain as chief minister. That would have only angered the Captain further, whose wife Preneet Kaur is a Congress MP from Patiala. While expressing concern over her husband being "humiliated", she specified that she is not leaving the Congress "as of now". In addition, Congress leaders cannot be oblivious of the strong support enjoyed by Captain amidst the protesting farmers and in Punjab. Negative campaigning indulged against him by Sidhu and his political camp is not likely to turn voters against Captain. Čaptain has not refrained from sending alarm signals to Congress high command through his meeting with Home Minister Amit Shah and a possible meeting with PM Narendra Modi. The prospects of BJP making any gains in Punjab on its own are limited. Nevertheless, the party leaders will be delighted if Congress fails to return to power.

In all probability, Captain is least likely to reveal his actual political plans till the very last minute. He will keep his cards close to his chest and meticulously observe Sidhu's "tactics", with his priorities likely to be decided by the latter's success or failure.

Notwithstanding all the criticism faced by Congress leadership about their "handling" of the Punjab crisis, there is another angle to explore. Democratically speaking, would it have been fair on their part to sideline Sidhu? In all probability, the situation may have worsened, perhaps led to a more pronounced split within the Punjab Congress. The same has apparently been averted with the resignation of Captain. Similarly, the selection of his successor may also be viewed as an astute strategy.

While the Gandhi family has not been spared criticism for its handling of the Punjab crisis, little importance has been accorded to the limited options they had. Interestingly, in UP, their handling of Lakhimpur Kheri case has earned them laurels. Their moves, particularly of Priyanka, have certainly gone a long way in enhancing their democratic image.

However, they had no option but to lead the protest in UP. Any decision of theirs to step aside may only lead to intra-party bickering at all levels. The party crisis witnessed in Punjab may be replayed in all States and at the national level. Also, if instead of the Gandhi siblings other party members had stepped forward in Lakhimpur-Kheri, the Congress moves would not have probably attracted much attention.

Lanka seeks USD 500 mn loan from India for fuel purchase

Siri Lanka has sought a USD 500 million credit line from India to pay for its crude oil purchases amid a severe foreign exchange crisis in the island nation. The move came few days after energy minister Udaya Gammanpila warned that the current availability of fuel in the country can be guaranteed only till next January. The state-run Ceylon Petroleum Corporation (CPC) owes nearly USD 3.3 billion to the two main government banks -- Bank of Ceylon and People's Bank. The state oil distributors imports crude from the Middle East and refined products from other areas, including Singapore. "We are currently engaged with the Indian High Commission here to obtain the facility (USD 500 million credit line) under the India-Sri Lanka economic partnership arrangement," CPC Chairman Sumith Wijesinghe was quoted as saying by local news website newsfirst.lk. He said the facility would be utilised for purchasing petrol and diesel requirements. The energy secretaries of both India and Lanka are expected to sign an agreement for the loan soon, the report quoted Finance Secretary S R Attygalle as saying.

Quarterly earnings, global cues to dictate trends in markets

Quarterly earnings and global cues will be the major sentiment driver for the equity market this week, according to analysts. Of late, Benchmark indices have been on a recordbreaking run. "Quarterly results will dictate market sentiment and will be the talk of this week management insights to forecast the future earnings trajectory.

Subscriber additions to drive Jio's Q2 show

PNS NEW DELHI

The second quarter of the fiscal is likely to be a "healthy quarter" for telecom companies, where Jio's performance will be driven by subscriber additions, and Bharti and Vodafone Idea will benefit from tariff hikes and some recovery post-severe wave of COVID-19, according to some analysts. The urgency around tariff hikes has come down with Vodafone Idea Ltd's (VIL) near-term cash outflow significantly reduced, IIFL Securities said. "Second quarter is likely to be a healthy quarter for telcos, though the drivers would be different for Jio and other players," IIFL Securities said in a recent note.

It expects Bharti to "marginally outperform" Jio on sequential India mobile revenue growth. "Jio's revenue growth is likely to be entirely driven by subscriber adds, while Bharti and impact from tariff hikes (both pre-paid and post-paid) taken in July and some bounce-back post the pandemic related ĥeadwinds in 1Q (first quarter)," it said. The report forecast five per cent and four per cent quarteron-quarter Ebitda (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortisation) growth for Jio and Bharti consolidated and anticipated that VIL and Indus could see flat Ebitda.

"With the relief package reducing the urgency around tariff hikes, we now build-in significant price increases only in 2H 2022 versus early 2022 previously," it said.

As per Jefferies' report, telcos Reliance Jio and Bharti may rise in revenue alongside a steady margin for the second quarter of FY22.

Bharti's growth will be led by segmented tariff hikes taken in the second quarter ended September, while Jio's growth will be driven by continued subscriber growth, it further preview note, said that 2O FY22 is expected to mark higher subscriber churn and 4.5-6 per cent sequential average revenue per user (ARPŬ) growth for Airtel and VIL over actions on the minimum recharge plans and some recovery after the impact from the second wave of COVID-19 in the first quarter of FY22.

Credit Suisse, in its earnings

SWARLIPI: A NEW WAY OF LEARNING MUSIC

ave you heard of an instrument called the "harmonium"? Have you watched someone play it? If yes, how often did you see someone playing it? The answer is definitely not as common as we've seen a guitar or a piano performance. Well, the humble harmonium is not very different from how a piano is played or sounds. While it is rare these days that we get to watch people play the harmonium, here's someone who is putting in efforts to change that. Meet Praneet Marathe, a music scholar who has developed a new age notion system structure in online learning modules for music. He developed some-thing called a new 'swarlipi' that can be adopted while learning music online, and emphasises the need for struc-tured and focussed learning modules.

music journey, and more. He starts by sharing his opinion on both contemporary and Indian classical music: "Contemporary music and Indian classical music have a lot of similarities, as well as differences. Many music albums are based on classical music. If you have been trained in classical music, which gives a good introduction to music, it's easier to adapt to any con-temporary kind thereon. Classical music has been scientifically proven to have medical effects for it being soothing, and calming. So in the end, after a long hectic, tiring day, it's only evitable that one turns to classical music. One, as an audience, may not even understand the technical nuances but what's soothing to ears ca be soothing for the soul."

Marathe started his musical journey when he was 6. That's when he developed an interest in, and started learning harmonium, from his father who is his guru too. Soon, at the age of 12, he gave his debut concert and since then, started performing with many Indian classical music stalwarts in India, as well as abroad. Marathe says he was very fortunate to spend a lot of time with his father and those practical experiences where he accompanied his father was extremely valuable. "My father taught me the concept of

"riyaz", which is the most important thing if you want to pursue music. 'Riyaz karoge to raaj karoge' which means 'you will rule if you practice'. These are some lessons that I will carry with me forever, and make sure that I will impart that knowledge to future generations as well." Marathe performed at major concerts in Pune and other places, and also received a scholarship from the Ministry of Culture, the government of India, for his contributions to music with his harmonium. He also played an important role in Gandharva Mahavidyalaya, Pune, in creating a curriculum for music, crafting learning material as a harmonium faculty, and also served as an examiner on the esteemed panel.

On teaching and learning music, he says, "The first and foremost thing is to ensure that the student understands that learning any instrument can-not be a crash course. It's a journey of learning, exploring, and practicing from day one. Then we start with teaching the basics, commonly known as 'alankars or paltas', which contribute to strengthening the finger positioning techniques. Thereon, we begin with a raag, which includes its 'chalan', 'bandish compositions', 'aalapi',

He even provides his students with additional material to practice at home which enhances their understanding of the concept and raga. All this, when learning was an inperson process.

Later, due to the pandemic, when Marathe started teaching music online, it became difficult for teachers to train students because of the lack of required material already, with having to spend hours and hours writing notations of compositions, taking pictures of them, and sharing it with their students. The tools on the computer as the symbols in the script were not available. That is when he realised that a special font and software are needed to digitise the notation which requires specialised resources. While teaching at

felt the need for having a system that is easier to write, check and follow. When it comes to examining the students, he believes that one cannot use the traditional system online.

"As a music teacher and a performer, I always think of ways to make it easier for the students to learn and practice music, hence, developing a new notation system that is simple in this digital age was important, and I think, having played a significant role in the field of the harmonium as a teacher as well as the performer, helped this endeavour of mine," the artist tells us.

Technology has made a lot of things easier, and as a teacher, Marathe was able to give feedback easily after students asked their queries while learning online. He created new 'paltas' in different scales and ragas which help students in increasing their speed. Each module has specific goals with interactive tools online to teach.

There has been a drastic shift from the traditional "guru shishya parampara" to the modern, much more practical way of learning. Also, unlike earlier times, people are more aware of the fact and choose to have two career options and not completely depend on music for their bread and butter, he observes. Music, in general, has been gaining more attention due to the various reality shows, glamour added to it, and that is bringing more people and making younger generations more interested in looking at it as a career. He says, "I would also like to say that the adaptability of the artists has increased. Earlier, every artist belonged to a specific gharana

On a concluding note, he says that a community works and succeeds on the principles like sharing, collaborating, and

o you know why actor Sanjeev Kumar adopted his screen name? While he himself thought his real name Harihar Jethalal Jariwala was not befitting for an aspiring actor, renowned director Kamal Amrohi suggested he should have a unique and impressive screen identity. Actor-playwright Hanif Zaveri and insolvency lawyer Sumant Batra have come out with an authorised biography of the two-time National Award-winning actor titled An Actor's Actor in which they provide sever-al such interesting anecdotes about him.

During his initial days, Jariwala would often say his name was "not befitting for an aspiring actor" and discuss with his friends the various possible names he could adopt.

"He decided that it should begin with the letter 'S', as his mother's name began with an 'S' (Shantaben), and should end

Kumar as most actors' names ended with Kumar'. After a gruelling debate and discussion, the name 'Sanjay Kumar' received unanimous approval, and Hari was credited in both Ramat Ramade Ram and Aao Pyar Karen by this name," the book, published by Penguin Random House, says.

While Iariwala was shooting for Nishan, he met the versatile writerproducer-director Amrohi, who asked him to come over to Filmistan Studio Goregaon the following day to discuss two new films he was currently working on — Aakhri Din Pehli Raat and Shankar Hussain (1977) Shankar Hussain was to be Jariwala's next project.

When Hari went to meet Amrohi he was told to do a screen test with a few difficult dialogues in Urdu. The ever-diligent Hari delivered the dialogues in four different ways. Thoroughly impressed with Hari's confidence, Amrohi suggested that Hari work with his assistant Bagar to fine-tune his Urdu," the authors say.

The hiccup with Jariwala's name came up again with Amrohi. The director told him that his name was not impressive enough for an actor and decided to change Jariwala's screen name to Gautam Rajvansh and Vidya Manjrekar's (who initially played the pro-tagonist's sister and later played the lead) to Al-Saheba, the book says.

Both the actors accepted Amrohi's suggestion, and Jariwala refrained from telling him that he had already decided on Sanjay Kumar as his screen name, it says.

"Unfortunately, a day before the shooting was to start, the lead actress withdrew from shooting. Extremely caught up with Pakeezah (1972), in which his wife Meena Kumari was playing a pivotal role, Amrohi shelved Shankar Hussain after just a few shots with Vidya as the new lead."

Both Badal and Nishan were on the floor when Sanjay Khan's superhit film Dosti (1964) released and he instantly became a household name. Jariwala was in a dilemma yet again, since two Saniavs could not rule the screen at the same time.

"Aspi Irani advised him to alter his name once again. Hari was reluctant because two of his films had already been released as Sanjay Kumar. However, Aao Pyar Karen focused on Joy Mukherjee, and Ramat fixed, the only other thing that needed fixing was his appearance. Jariwala put away his trademark kurta-pajama and bought a red T-shirt and a pair of white trousers for interviews with directors and producers. The authors also mention how Jariwala knew his destiny was irrevocably tied to Indian cinema. but many hurdles stood between him and his goal. "Overcoming most of them required divine intervention, but some, like his voice, he believed he could work on."

According to his guide C H Intwala, Jariwala was worried about his "weak voice". Jariwala worked hard on his dialogue delivery, practising the same lines in various pitches and tones and modulating them with different hues of emotional intensity. Intwala would supervise his dialogue-reading sessions every evening.

"At the time, Hari had no idea that the voice he was striving to alter would one day help him carve a niche for himself in the world of cinema, and, later, would become a staple for mimicry artists, although they would find it near impossible to reproduce the various nuances that affected his tone," the

that it is only applicable to be a mother only if you carry the child in your womb? The actress, along with the cast goes on to eradicate these non-conforming thoughts for all the Telugu audiences. Having fertility issues isn't a crime! "The Telugu television industry is very new for me. I consciously wanted to take up this project, one for the theme that they are exploring and the other, to understand Telugu content. This one's a remake of the Hindi serial Yeh Hai Mohabbatein and we are hoping this one could be a very familiar story for all the urban audiences who can resonate with it. Conventional norms should go now and give way to pragmatic acceptance."

Debjani, who will be seen play ing the role of a dentist, shares the serial's idea of love-at-firstsight. She talks about how her "love" in this show is a motherly one towards a child. Fulfilling the crisis from both ends in this new soap opera, you will see a new version of acknowledging interpersonal relationships. The actress highlights how it is not the right to feel motherhood. She may not be able to bear a child in her womb but she can still love it. Adoption can be another way of embarking on a journey of motherhood," adds the lead protagonist. Though Divyanka Tripathi has done a commendable job in playing 'Ishi Maa' in the Hindi version, Debjani tells us that she'll add her own style and not duplicate Divyanka. She wants to

A good show often stands firm on good scripts and this holds true to the new serial! "Initially, I was apprehensive of playing the role. I needed validation from my director, I wanted to be sure he thought I would be an up-to-themark mother in the serial. He corrected me saying 'you are not the mother but have developed that attachment!' Even off-screen, I was able to build that bond with the child artist, despite the language barrier. The director is known to bring reality to the screen. All his films are based on what he observes in real life and so is MEB.

Bommarillu remains to be the director's most successful film. The father's character in the film, played by Prakash Raj, is something one can never forget. When asked if he took inspiration from his father to pen that character, he says, "After Bommarillu, everyone asked if my father too was a strict man and if I took my character's inspiration from him, but my father, although a school's headmaster, gave us all the freedom we needed. So no, it wasn't inspired by him."

He further shares, "I grew up mostly in my friend's house. The real incidents that took place there were taken into Bommarillu."

The director has been making family-oriented films in his 15-year-old professional life. When asked why, he shares, "I grew up with my cousins and not friends. That's why I have more family-oriented films than ones with friends or other stories."

He says he never takes any tension when there's a gap between each of his films.

"I want to convey a story and I want my audience to relate to my story. Every movie I make should give happiness. I feel successful when I see the smiles on the faces of all my producers and I am happy to see the smiling faces of all those around me," he shares.

In the case of Most Eligible Bachelor, he shares, "I want to discuss the qualifications we need for a successful marriage. Every wedding is full of celebrations, but no one has clarity on how to survive post that. We do not know the dynamics of it. I want to say this with an interesting point, with my limitations, with my funny layer on freedom, so we decided to make this movie as a light-hearted one."

The director cannot stop speaking about Bommarillu, the biggest hit in his life. For him, the film gave him many lessons to take home. He says it gave him the energy to technically be a writer.

People who follow Bhaskar's work clearly know the importance he gives to music in his films.

For example — the Leharayi song from MEB, which is creating ripples in the industry.

Talking about his love for music, he shares, "I like music very much. Gopi Sundar gave wonderful music for MEB. I enjoy music in my movies. I select songs that are apt for the situation. I want the audience to enjoy even those five minutes."

"I was very happy to hear that all the vouth who watched this movie found that what this film talks about, needed to be addressed. CHHETRI CREDITS YOUNGSTERS

alismanic skipper Sunil Chhetri played a pivotal role in India's SAFF Championships title triumph by striking five goals but he credited the young brigade for team's victory.

37-year-old The Chhetri, Indian football's torch bearer for the last 10 years, went past legendary Pele and equalled Lionel Messi when he scored the team's opener -- and his 80th goal -- against Nepal in the summit clash on Saturday.

"Look at the youngsters -- it feels good for all of them. It's all due to their hard work. We were here for 20 days till the final, staying on an island, riding the waves every day for practice sessions, and matches," Chhetri said in a release from All India Football Federation.

"We made it special as we were not so good in the first two games. It was tough from there to come up and play the way we did," added Chhetri after his third triumph in the SAFF

Championship as a player. Chhetri, who has won the regional tournament in 2011 and 2015 also, was referring to the draws against Bangladesh (1-1) and Sri Lanka (0-0) in the first two matches which had attracted criticism.

"Didn't start like we should have, but ended exactly how we wanted to. Proud of this bunch and the way we got things on track," he later said in a tweet.

Chhetri, who scored five out of India's eight goals, was all praise of the other two Indian goal getters on Saturday -- Suresh Singh and Sahal Abdul Samad.

Sahal, on his part, said it was an "unbelievable" moment and "a miracle". "I don't know what happened inside the box. I came in for the last 4-5 minutes. My teammates have been working hard it all goes to them," he said.
"But I just don't remember what happened inside the box. I got it and went in. This is an amazing feeling." Head coach Igor

Stimac, who was banned from the dugout in the summit clash after being red carded in the earlier league match against Maldives, let the players take centrestage. "The boys have done it," he quipped.

Stimac became the third foreign coach after Jiri Pesek (1993) and Stephen Constantine (2015) to clinch the title with the Indian team.

The Blue Tigers dedicated the trophy to their two injured teammates --Farukh Choudhary, and Brandon Fernandes, who weren't able to travel to the ground. With the title win, India extended their domination in the regional tournament. Saturday's final was the 12th for India in 13 editions

BCCI invites application for head coach's post

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

A couple of days after convincing for-mer India captain Rahul Dravid to take up the responsibility, the BCCI on Sunday issued advertisement for the post of head coach and three support staff as per Lodha Committee mandated constitution.

It is a foregone conclusion that Dravid, who is currently heading the NCA and has been the guiding force behind the India A and U-19 programmes, is set to take over unless something miraculous happens.

Dravid has already informally agreed during his discussion with top BCCI officials in Dubai on the sidelines of IPL final.

However, the BCCI needs to have a Cricket Advisory Committee (CAC) in place and they will have to make a formal recommendation to the BCCI apex council, if one goes by the book. The last date of application for all posts is October 26. That is the reason the BCCI has now issued the advertisement for the head coach's post for a period of two years till 2023 ÔDI World Cup, along with positions for batting, bowling and fielding coaches.

Ravi Shastri, along with bowling coach Bharath Arun and fielding coach R Sridhar, will complete tenure at the end of India's T20 World Cup campaign next month.Batting coach Vikram Rathour, though he doesn't have any performance to show during his two-year tenure from 2019 till date, is expected to get an extension if he

Gambhir: Hardik should be picked only if he does proper bowling in warm-up games

m ormer}$ India opener Gautam Gambhir is of the opinion that star all-rounder Hardik Pandya can be a part of the Virat Kohli-led team's playing XI in the T20 World Cup only if he is able to bowl at his best in the warm-up

Hardik has not bowled regularly for India and his IPL side Mumbai Indians since returning after undergoing a back surgery in 2019.

Hardik was initially chosen in India's 15-member squad for the T20 World Cup as a batting all-rounder but as it became increasingly clear that he may not be able to bowl during the showpiece, the selectors brought in Shardul Thakur at the expense of Axar Patel to beef up the seam-bowling department.

"For me, Hardik Pandya gets into India's playing XI only if he does proper bowling in both warmup games, not only in the nets. There is a huge difference between bowling in the nets and against quality batsmen like Babar Azam and that too in the World Cup," Gambhir said on Star Sports show Game Plan.

"He has to bowl in the practice matches and the nets, and he has to bowl 100 per cent. If you are thinking that you will come and bowl just at 115-120 kph, I will not take that risk," the World Cup-winning former opener added.

The triumph in the welterweight bout continued Goyat's three-year unbeaten streak in the circuit.

Govat, after the fight, once again challenged Khan for a showdown.

Decision on Dhoni's retention will be taken only after knowing rules: CSK

Acall on whether to retain Mahendra Singh Doni for the next season of the IPL will be taken only after knowing the rules of the system, a top Chennai Super Kings official said on Sunday.

The retention rules have not been laid down as yet and two more teams are set to be added in the 2022 edition.

'The rules of retention are not clear yet...We are not sure about the number of retentions that will be allowed. And a call on that will be made once the rules are known," the official told PTI when asked about the possibility of using a retention card to retain the talismanic Dhoni.

The iconic CSK skipper is the toast of the cricketing world after guiding the franchise to a fourth IPL title on Friday in Earlier, Dhoni had said that he would like to create a roadmap for the next 10 years for CSK.

The skipper had said that he hadn't decided how he would fit into the retention scheme of things.

"Again I've said it before, it depends on the BCCI. With two new teams coming in, we have to decide what is good for CSK," he had said after his team defeated Kolkata Knight Riders by 27 runs in the IPL final.

"It's not about me being there in the top-three or four. It's about making a strong core to ensure the franchise doesn't suffer. The core group, we have to have a hard look to see who can contribute for the next 10 years," he had said.

The CSK official also said any celebrations by the team would wait till the captain returns after finishing his role as a mentor with the Indian T20 World Cup team in the UAE.

"All of our players have just played the Indian Premier League in the UAE and they have played themselves into top form with eight or nine games in this environment.

"For India, the message at the ICC Men's T20 World Cup is simple -- do it for Virat Kohli. "It will probably be his last "This gives India an edge on time at this tournament as captain, all other teams and makes them one of the big favourites to win the T20 World Cup in my opinion," he so it's very important for him to make everyone believe we can do it and for us to get behind him," Raina wrote in a column for ICC.

"The conditions in UAE are very similar to what we play India and also in Pakistan. It's a good opportunity for the Asian teams to come and play their natural game." Raina believes the key to India's success in the tournament lies in the performance of top three

"For me, the key to success for India's batting lies in the top three. Rohit Sharma is a gun player — he has a brilliant record at ICC events in the past and had a great IPL. 'We need Rohit, KL Rahul and Virat to bat through to 15 overs and lay the platform. They can set the momentum for the India team by doing this," he said. There are lots of electric combinations in the middle order and obviously Rishabh Pant is going to play a key role there. Hardik Pandya is also very capable as a power hitter.

"But if the top three are still there at that stage of the innings, there is no target that India can't chase," Raina added.

He believes mystery spinner Varun Chakravarthy is going to play a crucial role for India in the tournament, considering the slow nature of the pitches in the UAE.

"My experience in the IPL was that the wickets in UAE and Oman will be very, very challenging when it comes to the mystery spinners.

"That makes Chakravarthy the main guy in the India bowling attack. He has showed he can exploit the pace of the pitches," Raina said.

The international football federation, FIFA's plans to hold its flagship Men's World Cup every two years has raised heckles in the clubs' circuit. The plan to switch the Men's World Cup from a quadrennial schedule to a biennial is now causing concerns among other international federations too.

On Saturday, the Executive Board (EB) of the International Olympic Committee (IOC) took note of FIFA's plans to change the football competition schedule and to hold the World Cup every two years and supported the calls for wider consultation. It has also shared its concerns over these plans.

"A number of International Federations (IFs) of other sports, national football federations, clubs, players, players associations and coaches have expressed strong reservations and concerns regarding the plans to generate more revenue for FIFA," the IOC said in a
