Cong hits streets on price rise, unemployment, GST

Rahul, Priyanka detained with 60 Cong MPs and workers

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE

The Congress on Friday staged a countrywide protest against price rise, GST and unemployment, but the party leaders were more vocal on criticising the Centre alleging that the Government unleashed the Enforcement Directorate against the Gandhis in the National Herald case.

The epicentre of the protest was Delhi where Rahul . Gandhi and Priyanka Gandhi led from the front, but the party also mobilised its cadre in several States to give it a shape of pan-India agitation against the policies of the Modi Government.

Congress chief Sonia Gandhi led the protest inside Parliament premises but did not attend the march due to health issues. Wearing black outfits, Rahul, Priyanka, and nearly 60 Congress MPs from both Houses of Parliament and hundreds of Congress workers to march to Rashtrapati Bhavan from Parliament. Ahead of the protest, Rahul addressed a Press conference during which he alleged that India is witnessing the "death of democracy" and anybody who stands against the onset of dictatorship is "viciously attacked" attacked".

He said the Gandhi family is attacked because it fights for democracy and for communal harmony.

He charged that the sole agenda of the Government is that people's issues such as price rise, unemployment and violence in society must not be raised.

"What we are witnessing is the death of democracy. That is what India is witnessing. What India has built brick by brick, starting almost a century ago, is basically being destroyed in front of your eyes," said Rahul, who was flanked by party leaders Jairam Ramesh and Ashok Gehlot.

Asked about the questioning by the Enforcement Directorate of Congress president Sonia and him in the National Herald case, Rahul said, "Question all you want, there is absolutely nothing there, everybody knows it. We are not going to be intimidated by such tactics.

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE NEW DELHI

Union Home Minister Amit Shah on Friday said for-eign powers could keep India under their rule as they succeeded in creating an inferiority complex among Indians which should be uprooted to achieve Independence in its truest sense

He said that the foreign rulers created a myth that Indians were illiterate, ignoring the fact that the Gita, the Vedas, astronomy, and zero were given to this world by our country. Shah was speaking after the launch of a mega serial "Swaraj — Bharat Ke Swatantrata Sangram Ki Samagra Gatha", produced by Doordarshan to mark the 75th anniversary of Independence. The 75episode mega show chronicles lesser-known tales about Indian history and would be telecast from August 14 on Doordarshan in Hindi and regional languages.

Cases of poisoning on the rise in trains, gangs become active

PNS JAMSHEDPUR:

Drug-and-loot gangs are having a free run of trains looting and duping passengers even as railway police split hairs over the area of their operation.

There have been a large number of drug and loot incidents in the last few months. The Mumbai bound seems to be a favourite among the criminals as it passes the stretch in which they operate in the late evening. The gangs normally operate in the unreserved compartments, where passengers are slightly less aware of the perils of accepting food from strangers. Officials informed that about 20 odd cases have been reported so far in the last six months.

Recently passengers fell prey to gangsters as they were fed with drugs to fall unconscious and were looted with their belongings. Unconscious victims of drug treatment were rushed to railway hospital. All people were out of danger. One of the victims said that the people belonging to the drug gang began to behave as friends in order to communicate. Gang members gave biscuits and fruit to eat. After he regained consciousness in hospital he found himself looted. The passengers gave information to the police when they reached Chakradharpur, Railway police admitted all the four passengers to hospital in an unconscious state of mind.

The three passengers traveling on the Puri bound S2 coach were lying in an unconscious state of mind when the GRP with the help of Tatanagar railway station officials reached for help. According to information, Cuttack bound passengers had their dinner served by the train pantry at around 10 pm, and about one and half hours later they enjoyed the ice cream served to them by a fellow traveler. And, thereafter they slipped into unconscious stage only to be lifted from the sleep by fellow passengers at Tatanagar railway station.

An official said that several drives have been taken up to

Youth wanted for drugging passengers nabbed

Railway police arrested a 30-year-old youth while he was rying to offer poisoned food to a passenger at platform No 1 in Tatanagar station with the intention to rob him. He was later identified as Sumit Mandal, the railway cops recovered AT-1 tablets (anti-anxiety drugs) and sleeping pills from his possession. Besides, the things recovered from Mandal include two stolen smartphones and cash. Mandal, who is a resident of Deoghar while facing interrogation, confessed that he is one of the members of the gang that steals valuables from the passengers on the trains as well as on platforms by drug-

An official of RPF, Tatanagar, said that they could identify Mandal during scanning of the CCTV control panel as the RPF cops dealing in the monitoring were already aware about the accused. The RPF inspector said that the arrested person has revealed the names of some of his associates who also come to the station for committing such theft. The inspedor said such criminals befriend lone passengers as they wait for trains. Once the passenger consumes the food, he either loses his senses or falls asleep, and the next moment the criminal escapes with the victim's luggage.

spread awareness and posters have been put up at all major stations, urging passengers not to accept food or drinks from unknown people. In spite of this, passengers are continuing to fall prey to the organised gangs.

"In the last few days, several arrests have been made, primarily in the Chakradharpur Division. As per our investigation the gangs used to operate along the Bengal-Jharkhand border as the police had jurisdiction problems. We have already got in touch with security officials GRP to evolve a strategy," a senior RPF official said.

The criminal had tried to pretend to be hawkers and sell drug-laced food items. These are not stray incidents and the gangs continue to operate in a certain area for some time. Unlike other criminals, drug-andloot gangs have to board trains and befriend victims. This takes some time," said an official.

Muhamam Inteezamiya committee held a felicitation ceremony here on late Thursday evening. It was attended by SP Palamu Chandan Kumar Sinha, SDO Sadar Rajesh Kumar Sah, SDPO Surjit Kumar, NDC Shailesh Kumar Singh and district head of the JMM Rajinder Sinha and others

The SP in his speech had a mix of law and order talk and Muharram's dignity and right at the beginning SP made it very clear that police remain concerned about the law and order on occasions or festivals be it Muharram, Ramnavmi, Durga Puja etc. Sinha said maintenance of law and order is ac-

The SP spoke about Karbala and (Hazrat) Imam Hussain. He said people do talk about Karbala. However he didn't make any more elaboration on Karbala. He took a safe recourse to (Hazrat) Imam Hussain telling that with the onset of the Muharram Muslims new year calendar starts and their (Hazrat) Imam Hussain lies in their hearts of this martyr. Sinha was very witty while drawing a parallel that in Islam Muharram is the second most important thing after the Holy Ramzaan. He said the sanctity of Muharram be retained.

Sinha urged the people to emulate the supreme sacrifice of the martyr and asked the faithful to foster amity, understanding and harmony in the society.

The SP sensing the mood of the gathering began rendering more Urdu words like 'Fatah' and he even recited a 'Nazm' there which was a bit longer for the occasion. Sources said the Muharram Inteezamiya committee is far more busy in doing two things. It is the 'Pagree Poshi' and the other is the openoffices. Both of these two are done with all enthusiasms. About Pagree Poshi it is said it ties the bond with the people of different faith and walk of life. Muharram offices are important in their own way as it helps monitoring the development of the Muharram occasion. Sources said the formation of the Muharram Integramiya committee is not free of local politics and personal bias and prejudice. The Muslim market and trade pull the strings attached to the Muharram Inteezamiya committee. Sources said there was a lot of manoeuvring before the formation of the Muharram Inteezamiya com-

need for SAIL to gear up to the Ph D entrance test at VBU conducted after 3 years

SHAILESH SHARMA | HAZARIBAG

Vinoba Bhave University has conducted the Ph.D entrance examination after three years. According to the university provision the university has to conduct entrance exams every year, so that maximum post graduate students can complete their research dream. For registration in Ph.D, there are two ways for the students -- one is NET and DEET examinations. The NET examination is conducted by the UGC (University Grant Commission) every six months on an all India basis. One is in June and second in the month of December.

The DEET (Doctoral Eligibility Entrance Examination) is conducted at the university level. This examination can be conducted by the university that has A grade in NAAC accreditation.

Last time the VBI got the ++B grade from the NAAC team of UGC. After getting the ++B grade, Vinoba Bhave University conducted the DEET exam. After the examination the former vice chancellor of the university said that this exam can be conducted by A grade rank holder university. The former vice chancellor further said that in the light of the UGC direction we have stopped conducting the examination. After one DEET examination, no examination was conducted by the university. The Dean of commerce Mokhtar Alam and Social Science Namita Gupta said that they don't know as to why the university stopped the DEET examination. The university administration has given emphasis on research work and on other hand they have not conducted the DEET examination in the university.

ED gets six days remand of Bacchu Yadav

mining at Sahibganj

PNS RANCHI

Central probe agency-Enforcement Directorate on Friday got six days' police remand of Bacchu Yadav who was arrested Thursday evening from Ranchi in the illegal stone mining case in Sahibganj. Yadav was produced before the special PMLA court (Ranchi Civil Court) of Prabhat Kumar Sharma on Friday. The ED contended that the accused knows many things about the syndicate of illegal mining as he is part of that group. Hence his interrogation is required to secure information from him to mining.

In the remand plea, the ED contended that Bacchu Yadav is a close associate of Pankaj Mishra and Dahu Yaday who are the kingpin of the illegal mining. Pankaj Mishra is the MLA representative of Jharkhand CM Hemant Soren and he is currently in judicial custody in this case.

The ED further pointed out that the accused in association with others illegally run stone crusher units and he has accumulated huge wealth through illegal min-

Soil health card is being issued for this. Along with this, farmers are also being demonstrated the benefits of natural farming from Krishi Vigyan Kendras.

Giving information about the amount spent by the Central Government for the concessions or incentives provided to the farmers for the development of the agriculture sector in various schemes during the last three years, the Agriculture Minister said that the beneficiary-oriented central scheme of PM Kisan Samman Nidhi The funds released across the country in the last four years for the centrally sponsored schemes of the Department of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare along with the plans of the region is more than two lakh two hundred and thirty crores, in which Jharkhand's share is 3482.50 crores, while agricultural mechanisation, food security mission, Jharkhand has received Rs 313.82 crore in the last three years for many schemes like traditional agricultural seeds, integrated horticulture, more crop per drop, soil health card, soil health management, rainfed area development.

Drought in Jharkhand issue raised in Rajya Sabha

MPs demand special team to visit State

PNS RANCHI

BJP State General Secretary and MP Aditya Sahu drew the attention of the Central Government to the issue of drought prevailing in Jharkhand in the Zero Hour of Rajya Sabha on Fri-

Sahu said that Jharkhand is a State covered with hills, plateau and forests. Along with mines and minerals, nature has also adorned it with natural beauty. With a population of about 3 crore 40 lakhs, 76 per cent of the population of Jharkhand lives in villages and the main occupation of people here is agriculture and animal husbandry.

The Rajya Sabha MP said that for the last 4.5 years, continuous monsoon has supported the farmers, but this year the situation is quite frightening. "Sir, out of 24 districts of the State,

10-12 districts falling in the plateau region of Chotanagpur and 3 districts of Kolhan used to plant paddy even in less rain, but this year except 3 districts of Kolhan, there is a drought in 21 districts. The farmer who had taken a loan and had sown saplings somehow in the field are in tears," he said. The state has received 51 per cent less rainfall so far. So far, farmers have been able to plant only 22 per cent by doing some hard work. The situation in 21 districts is absolutely appalling and depressing, said

Now the most important month of cultivation, Sawan has also passed more than half. In such a situation, only 14 per cent plantation has been done in the State so far. And the monsoon situation is not showing very BJP State President and MP Deepak Prakash on the issue, requested the Central government to send a special team on the subject of drought in Jharkhand.

India warns China against violating airspace near LAC from violating airspace close to the Line of Actual Control (LAC) in Ladakh to avoid escalation of tension in the region. This issue was flagged during a meeting between military delegations of the two sides at the border earlier this week.

The Indian team comprising Army and IAF officers expressed concern over recent flying activities by Chinese air force near the LAC on its side in late June and early July, sources said here on Friday adding the parleys took place on Tuesday.

The need for raising this matter by New Delhi came after one Chinese jet reportedly came very close to the annual Chinese military exercise in the Tibetan plateau region in the last two months.

Sources said India and China discussed ways to better establish understanding to manage air space and avoid air space violations along the Line of Actual Control (LAC). This was discussed during the routine Confidence Building Measures (CBM) talks on the ground held on Tuesday. The Indian delegation was led by a Major General.

The two sides also promised to adhere to the pacts between the two countries as part of confidence building measures to avoid any escalation at the LAC.

ed and there are differences of perception on the alignment due to which such incidents keep happening, they said.

Given the continuing face-offs at some friction points at the LAC in Eastern Ladakh for the past two years and violent incidents in May 2020, the IAF has activated nearly all its forward bases facing China. Moreover, it has deployed most of its front line jets including SU-30, Mirage and even the recently inducted Rafales to meet any challenge.

Incidentally, the latest talks termed as confidence building measure efforts came nearly a month after the Corps Commanders of the two armies held the 16th round of talks in Ladakh. The issue of airspace violations by China was raised even then.

Crypto exchange WazirX director raided in PMLA probe

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

The Enforcement Directorate (ED) has L conducted searches against one of the directors of Zanmai Lab Pvt Ltd which owns the popular crypto-currency exchange WazirX and issued an order to freeze their bank balances to the tune of Rs 64.67 crore on money laundering charges.

The ED is conducting money laundering investigation against a number of Indian NBFCs and their fintech partners for predatory lending practices in violation of the RBI guidelines by using telecallers who misuse personal data and use abusive language to extort high interest rates from the loan takers.

Various fintech companies backed by Chinese funds could not get NBFC license from RBI for carrying out lending business. So they devised the MoU route with defunct NBFCs to piggyback on their license. After the criminal investigation against such entities, many of these fintech APPs have shut shop and diverted away the huge profits earned using this modus operandi.

The fund trail investigation by the ED found that large amount of funds were diverted by the fintech companies to purchase Crypto assets and then launder them abroad, the agency said in a statement. These companies and the virtual assets are untraceable at the moment. Summonses were issued to the Cryptoexchanges. It is seen that the maximum amount of funds were diverted to WazirX exchange and the crypto-assets so purchased have been diverted to unknown foreign wallets.

The ED probe revealed that Zanmai Labs Pvt Ltd., the company owning WazirX Crypto Exchange, has created a web of agreements with -- Crowdfire Inc. USA, Binance (Cayman Islands), ZettaiPte Ltd Singapore -- to obscure the ownership of the crypto exchange. Earlier, their Managing Director

Nischal Shetty had claimed that WazirX is an Indian Exchange which controls all the crypto-crypto and INR-crypto transactions and only has an IP and preferential agreement with Binance.

India witnessing death of democracy: Rahul

Former Congress President Rahul Gandhi on Friday alleged that India is witnessing the "death of democracy" and anybody who raises people's issues and stands against the onset of dictatorship is "viciously attacked" and put in jail.

Addressing a Press conference at the AICC headquarters ahead of the nationwide protest by the Congress against price rise and GST hike on essential items, Rahul said the Gandhi family is attacked because it fights for democracy and for communal harmony. He charged that the sole agenda of the government is that people's issues such as price rise, unemployment and violence in society must not be raised.

The idea is that people's issues, whether they are price rise, unemployment, violence in society, must not be raised, Rahul said, alleging that the more he raises people's issues and speaks the truth, the more he will be attacked. "My problem is that I speak the truth and I do not fear anything. I will raise issues of price rise, and I will be attacked more. But, the one who threatens himself fears," he claimed, alleging that they fear price rise, unemployment and the power of people. The Congress leader further alleged that no institution in the country is independent and the entire infrastructure of the government is with one party.

"There is financial monopoly and institutional monopoly, that is why the opposition is not effective," he said. On BJP's claim that they have been winning elections, he said, "Hitler also used to win elections. He had the entire institutional structure with him. Tealth experts and Hactivists on Friday here called for strengthening the tobacco control law, saying that the consmoking areas (DSAs) and ads of tobacco products at Point of Sale (PoS) in the country were like "a tacit approval from the authorities stating that it is ok for the tobacco users and youth to consume the deadly product which every year claim over 13 lakhs lives."

The stringent COTPA

(Cigarettes and Other Tobacco Products Act) Amendment Bill will not only help save several lives but also reduce burden on the healthcare system, said the experts including specialist and Director, ICMR-National Institute of Cancer Prevention and Research, Shweta Shalini, spokesperson from Maharashtra and Dr Archana Dhawan Bajaj, a fertility expert.

At a webinar held by the Tobacco-Free India, a citizens group, Dr Shalini

Singh focused on the need to spread awareness about tobacco related cancers and plethora of other diseases while Shweta Shalini, youth BJP leader elaborated on the urgency and co-induced infertility action to fight against the lobby engaged in trashing out the tobacco products health, India can never become world Guru," she

During the discussion, Dr Singh also revealed that the tobacco industry is now trying to trap youth through 'synthetic nicotine' which is as harmful and addictive as the nicotine but does not come under the legal purview.

Dr Archana Dhawan Bajaj, a well-known gynaecologist focused on tobacsaid, is rising at a disturbing rate in the country. 'Developed nations no match to India in fulfilling green pledges'

Date: 05.08.2022

Place: Muzaffarnagai

Developed countries are no match to India in the speed at achieving their pledges for clean energy as it has concern for the environment and is working towards becoming self-reliant in the energy sector, Minister of Power and New and Renewable Energy R K Singh said in the Lok Sabha on Friday.

He made the remarks after moving the Energy Conservation (Amendment) Bill in the House for consideration. The Bill seeks to make it mandatory for buildings with a minimum connected load of 100 kW to meet their energy requirements from renewable sources. Singh said every country wants to reduce emissions of greenhouse gases to deal with climate change and

7 die in Bihar hooch tragedy

At least seven people died and 15 others fell ill with some of them even losing their eyesight in a suspected hooch tragedy in Saran district of dry Bihar, officials said on Friday.

It is, however, not known when the spurious liquor was consumed as the family members of victims are not ready to share information.

Saran District Magistrate Rajesh Meena said all the cases were reported from villages falling under Maker police station area and more than 10 people among the seriously ill have suffered loss of vision.""Prima facie it appears that the villagers had consumed spurious liquor.

Five people died here while two deaths occurred at Patna Medical College and Hospital (PMCH) where those who have fallen seriously ill were referred on Thursday," he said.

Jan Adhikar Party president Pappu Yadav meets family members of victims, after several people died after allegedly consuming spurious liquor in Saran district of Saran Superintendent of Police Santosh Kumar said "We areconducting raids in Maker, Marhaura and Bheldi police station areas to nab the suspected bootleggers. We will be able to state the number of arrests after the operation is over." Asked when the deceased and the ill had consumed the liquor, the SP said that it will be known after investigation. "Family members are not forthcoming with the information, he said. To another query, Kumar said that two victims died at PMCH on Thursday. "We are not sure of the other mated without informing the police or a post mortem". Local residents said on condition of anonymity that the drunken revelry began on Tuesday night and continued through the early hours of Wednesday. They said consumption of intoxicants like cannabis has been a custom during Nag Panchami festival, which fell on August 2 this year, and some took alcohol for intoxication.

State minister Ashok Choudhary, a key aide of Nitish Kumar, told reporters in Patna that all the accused will be apprehended and brought to justice. "Action will also be taken against those police personnel whose laxity, or even complicity, may have led to the incident"

Asked about questions being raised over feasibility of prohibition law in the light of hooch cases being reported regularly, Choudhary shot back

More than 50 people have died in hooch tragedies in the state, declared a dry state over six years ago, since November 2021. Saran itself had reported five hooch deaths in January this year. In July two persons had died after consuming spurious liquor in Patna.

Sale and consumption of liquor were completely banned in Bihar by the Nitish Kumar government in April, 2016, following an electoral promise the chief minister had made to the women of Bihar ahead of state polls held in the previous

However, implementation of the stringent prohibition law has often been criticised by the opposition parties, the courts and also ruling alliance partners like former chief minister Jitan Ram Manjhi.

14 days' judicial custody for aide, Partha; ED fears for Arpita's life $F^{\text{ormer Bengal Minister and}}_{\text{Trinamool Congress secre-}}$ tary general Partha Chatterjee and his close aide Arpita Mukherjee arrested by the Enforcement Directorate in connection with school level recruitment scam and money were on Friday remanded in 14 davs' judicial custody by a special PMLA court.

While Chatterjee was sent to high security Presidency Jail, Mukherjee was taken to women's prision amid fears of threat to Arpita's life expressed by the ED.

Subsequently the jail authorities have been directed to arrange special security for Arpita, sources said adding even food and water for the accused would have to be pretasted. Contesting Chatterjee's bail plea the ED told the court that whatever had been recovered from the accused persons' houses were just tip of the iceberg and hence they would be required to be grilled again.

The court subsequently allowed the ED to interrogate the duo in jail. Chatterjee and Mukherjee have been in ED remand since July 23 when they were arrested after Rs 22 crores, jewellery and documents were recovered from her appart-

Centre warns Chhattisgarh over poor PMAY-G execution

Expressing its displeasure at the poor implementation of the rural housing scheme in Chhattisgarh, the Centre has warned the Congress-led State Government that "it will have to reconsider its support to its other core schemes if it fails to duly implement the Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana-Gramin (PMAY-G).

The central rural housing flagship has been implemented from April 1, 2016, with an objective of providing "Housing for All" by March 2024. In a letter to Chhattisgarh Chief Secretary Amitabh Jain, Rural Development Secretary Nagendra Nath Sinha has mentioned that state government has not shown satisfactory progress despite several letters and meetings in this connection. "If the state is unable to implement PMAY-G..., the ministry shall be compelled to reconsider its support to other core Rural Development (Ministry) schemes/programmes," Sinha said in letter.

He said despite several rounds of communication from "various levels of Union Ministry to Chhattisgarh Government, it has neither shown satisfactory progress nor released due state share of ₹562 crore, as a result of which the work of PMAY-G has come to a standstill in the state, a situation, which you are well aware of

Underlining that scheme is implemented on the ground level by state governments, Sinha said Chhattisgarh in 2020-21 withdrew the majority of the 6.48 lakh houses allocated to it "due to difficulty in releasing corresponding state

In 2021-22, the Rural Development Ministry was compelled to withdraw allocated target of nearly 7.82 lakh houses, again due to the state's inability in releasing its share, amounting to ₹562 crore, Sinha

Raut thanks Opp parties for supporting him

Shiv Sena leader and a Rajya Sabha member Sanjay Raut, currently in the Enforcement Directorate's (ED) custody in an alleged money laundering case, has thanked Opposition parties for supporting him. His party colleague and MP in Rajya Sabha Priyanka Chaturvedi on Friday released a letter signed by Raut.

In the letter addressed to

Leader of Opposition in Rajya Sabha Mallikarjun Kharge, the Shiv Sena spokesman thanked leaders of all Opposition parties including the Congress, NCP, TMC, DMK, AAP, CPI and CPI (M) for expressing solidarity with him. The Shiv Sena's Rajya Sabha member was arrested on August 1 by the ED in a case related to alleged irregularities in the redevelopment of Patra Chawl, a row tenement in suburban Goregaon. On Thursday, a court extended his ED custody till August 8. "The toughest times show you who your reli-able allies are," the letter said. "I am thankful for the overwhelming support given to me during the political witch-hunt and motivated attack directed against me by the central government through central agen-

what is right. Neither will I bow down to pressure nor will it break my resolve to see this fight through," Raut wrote recalling ferocious Balasaheb Thackeray.

Infighting causes leaders of Kerala BJP to quit; Chand joins CPM

 $T^{\text{hanks to infighting in the}}_{\text{Kerala BJP and the craving}}$ for positions in Central Government, party workers as well as hardcore Sangh Parivar activists are leaving the organisation in search of greener pastures. On Wednesday, Subhas Chand, the standing counsel of the Central Government ended his association with the Sangh Parivar and joined the CPI(M) larism and communal amity" which he says has been jeop ardized by the RSS and the BJP.

Speaking to The Pioneer, Subash Chand who was the president of the Ernakulam district unit of Viswa Hindu Parishat till Wednesday said that the CPI(M) was the only political entity in the country which could preserve socialism and secularism in India. "I had a meeting with the State leaders of the CPI(M) and they wholeheartedly welcomed me," he said. It is expected that Subash

Chand's entry to the CPI(M) would strengthen the public image of the party as the prein Erna mobilising support. This was discernible in the recent assem-Thrikkakkara where the party candidate was trounced by

Uma Thomas of the Congress. The BJP candidate lost the security deposit. Many close followers of Chand too would join the Marxists and this is certainly a setback for the Sangh Parivar, according to K

Jayashankar, political critic.
"It is surprising to note that it took Chand eight years to understand that secularism was facing a threat from the BJP Government at the Centre," said Jayashankar. He district has not succeeded in got a much needed enlightenment after eight years. "It is like a homecoming for Subash by-poll held at Chand. He was a leader of the CPI(M) before he fell out with the then leadership.

PAPER WITH PASSION

On expected lines

RBI hikes repo rate by 50 basis points, taking it to 5.4 per cent, which is higher than pre-COVID level

The Reserve Bank of India's repo rate increase on Friday by 50 basis points (bps) to 5.4 per cent was not surprising, given the persistence of inflation remaining above 7 per cent in the last three months. The stock market had already factored in the rise, so the Sensex ended at 58,388, 89 points or 0.15 per cent higher. Throughout the day, it moved in a range of 405 points. The third rate hike in a row this fiscal suggests that the central bank will remain hawkish for some time. In fact, the recent hike is more than what the market had expected. In all the three revisions, the RBI's monetary policy committee has increased the repo rate by 140 basis points, which is above the pre-pandemic rate of 5.15 per cent. The central bank expects the retail inflation to slide downward as 2022-23 progresses. It estimates inflation for the entire fiscal at 6.7 per cent—7.1 per cent in Q2, 6.4 per cent in Q3, and 5.8 per cent in the last quarter. The RBI's tolerance brand for inflation is 4-6 per cent. Even as the RBI revised the repo rate upwards, it has retained GDP growth projection at 7.2 per cent; it is lower than the International Monetary Fund's 7.4 per cent though. RBI Governor Shaktikanta Das blamed the global economic situation for the downturn in the Indian economy.

He went on to highlight the robustness of the Indian economy, calling it "an island of macroeconomic and financial stability" in "an ocean of high turbulence and uncertainty." It has withstood two black swan events and multiple shocks, he added. A black swan event is an absolutely unpredictable incident. Apparently, he was referring to Covid-19, which killed millions and badly damaged the global economy, and the Russian-Ukrainian war; while wars are not unprecedented, few expected one Eastern Europe. In his interaction with the media, Das tended to paint a rosy picture about the economy: inflation has peaked and will go down even though it is very high at this moment; the current account deficit (CAD) can be managed; and the forex reserves are adequate. A few good things did happen. The fiscal situation is improving—the fiscal deficit is estimated to be 6.5 per cent in 2022-23, against 6.7 per cent in 2021-22—despite the shocks of the coronavirus and the ensuing lockdowns. Gross non-performing assets or GNPAs of scheduled commercial banks have come down a six-year low of 5.9 per cent, and are estimated to decline further. Evidently, the economic situation in the country is not as bad as it is made out to be by some people; we surely are not a Sri Lanka in the making. But there is still a lot that needs to be done at the monetary and policy levels. The RBI has to ensure that inflation is reined in soon and GNPAs continue to move southwards. And the government must expedite economic reforms to maintain the momentum.

God's country faces His wrath

Kerala is facing monsoon fury like never before, and only human intervention is to blame onsoon fury has peaked in Kerala claiming at least ten lives across the State. The impact of the Monsoon was not unexpected as the situation in Kerala is conducive to flash floods, landslides, and heavy downpours. Though politicians describe it as the consequences of global warming, many local factors have contributed to the transformation in the pattern of the Monsoon. The unique weather pattern enters the subcontinent through Kerala which has become the Gateway of Monsoon. Gone are the rain forests in the Western Ghats passing through the western border of the State. Uncontrolled exploitation of the pristine forests in the Ghats for mining and cutting down of trees has played havoc with the fragile weather system. The switching over to cash crops which command a premium in the global market led to the clearing of forest lands that were notified as no-go areas by environmentalists and ecologists. Vast stretches of paddy fields that were home to three crops every year have disappeared altogether. The land sharks enjoying political patronage have usurped the farmlands to build concrete jungles, jungles of five-star grade apartments, and shopping complexes.

Since the malls and residential apartments are owned by the financiers of political parties, persons in power find some easy excuses for nature's fury. A note by the Government says that in the 1970s farming was done on 9 lakh hectares of land and this has come down to less than 2 lakh hectares by 2021. What has happened is that many tributaries that brought water to the main rivers have disappeared. The Flat mafias' decision to construct penthouse apartments along the river banks and build roads along the river stretch has swallowed rivers. The rainwater received by the State does not have an exit route. This year is not an exception and the years to come would see the same phenomenon. Chief Minister PinarayiVijayan blames the weather forecasting system in the country for not correctly predicting the pattern of rain. Those who follow the advisories of INCOIS, the Indian Meteorological Department, and the Department of Atmospheric Studies of Cochin University know well that the weathermen's forecasts are sharp and to the dot. The fact is that the State Government has failed to evolve a mechanism to mitigate floods and natural disasters. Kerala has not conceived a plan to counter floods. The nature's fury is here to stay.

Reboot bureaucracy to make it effectual

The mantra to make bureaucracy pro-people and proactive is, 'Refurbish, reform and restructure'

he dilemma perpetual has of late affected the mandarins critically, posing the conundrum worst confounded. Being targeted from most corners as inefficient, corrupt, and negativeminded; Indian bureaucracy has exhibited signs of wilting under the pressure of diatribes and vitriolic sophistry. More so it has prompted both insiders and outsiders to question what ails the bureaucracy.

The incisive comments may not be fair for all the officers, as still, some officers maintain the cardinal virtues of administration like sincerity, honesty integrity, and alacrity but it can't wipe off the smeared image that has engulfed the mandarins labeling that they are seldom pro-people, pro-poor and proactive and as such are a bunch self-centered officers more interested in in-service (plum postings and sundry benefits) and post- retirement benefits rather than growth of the nation or people.

A little in-depth study would discern that the imbroglio as to responsiveness to people's causevis a vis personal materialistic aspirations has left the civil service at the crossroads. Needless to say that a significant number of bureaucrats are still industrious and sincere but it is revealed that the steel frame has begun wilting under the pressure of unscrupulous aspirations. If merit is relegated to the background and excellence is rendered unexpected or unwanted by the own senior tribesmen i.e the senior officers, then the young lots lose the direction and succumb to bureaucracy's first ever malady which is corruption. As an insider, I have felt that the concept of camaraderie has vanished. No support is forthcoming for the honest officers when needed as unethical ones marvel at others'

Not surprised when John Kerry states that Indian bureaucracy lacks internal cohesion. The formation of small power roups at the highest level has left the young ones in quandary.

lucrative postings. The intricate social calculus and material morbidity have also come to affect young mandarin minds. The most deplorable aspect is that some young officers are starting their careers with a touch of corruption, whether in form of malfeasance misfeasance, or nonfeasance. Then who is responsible for this unhealthy and insalubrious trend? A tryst with the prevailing conditions would reveal that the bureaucracy has to squarely take the blame for losing its sheen. Some of the senior mandarins have forgotten the golden commandments of ethics of civil services and at the same time have ceased to be the philosopher, With fast changing societal guides, and pathfinders for young entrants. The Achilles heel is exposed. Multiple factors like lack of appropriate and relevant training so as to adapt to changing circumstances, lack of proper posting policy, absence of the concept of reward and punishment, the role of political dynamics and power, and materialistic aspirations are responsible for its denigration.

Ăttitudinal /emotional ramifications and skewed cognitive perception held by some of the senior bureaucrats have resulted in its distorted image projection on the silhouette of societal expectation. The paradigm shift (negative) ushering in the attitudinal crisis and perceptional blunder associated with aspiration for material comfort of bureaucracy have already witnessed the rust and wilt in the steel frame.

Though easier to tell than to give effect to it, it is time for the bureaucracy to mend itself to return to the golden era and rewrite the saga of its own glory. A little change in mindset can usher in a plethora of positivity for the civil services. Other factors would fall in line as nothing deters or hinders a positive mind to initiate a change. The bureaucracy should never forget to nuated senior IAS officer. The functioning in a democracy, where people are the masters however illiterate or simple they might be. Public servants are servitors to serve the cause of people (taking salary money) and never their masters. The sooner mandarins become pro-people, proactive, and pro-poor the better.

The civil servants are appointed to implement laws not hinder them. Yes, when there are illegalities they can raise voices. Sans ego, sans lure for plum postings (and postretirement benefits) they should work with dedication to salvage the lost glory.

All the sermons or solutions can't be delineated in a short space but as an insider, I want to profess that it is time for the bureaucracy to mold itself for the new role to gain the confidence of the system and of the people. The saying bend it like Beckham' from the soccer world may be applied to administration as it may have relevance. It can be said, to bend it to change and change it to perfection. Bureaucracy today should lead again with service to people (sans ego) keeping spatial and temporal aspects in mind.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

CHINESE BUILD-UP IN SRI LANKA

Sir —As per the report, the Chinese research and survey ship has left and is expected to reach the China-run Hambantota Port in southern Sri Lanka on August 11, which is a very serious and dangerous issue and India must closely monitor the situation and must be on alert. The report quoted Sri Lanka's Defence Ministry media spokesman Colonel NalinHerath have confirmed that it is the cause for concern for India as the ship is capable of monitoring military installations. Naval ships from India, China Russia, Japan, and Malaysia from time to time have requested Sir Lanka but they have granted permission to China. with this China is trying to enter Sri Lanka like Pakistan, Nepal, Taiwan, and Indian territories in eastern India to corner it from all sides. It is high time the Indian leadership seriously concentrate on these issues for the safety of the country.

NIRMALA SITHARAMAN IN DENIAL MODE

Sir — It is quite surprising to see that everything appears quite well for our finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman. The common man is most worried about the rise of prices and GST on food items, the common man facing the brunt of inflation but still, our finance minister is not accepting that the prices of food items have increased

It is ridiculous that she is comparing current prices of tomatoes, onion, potatoes, etc with the rates in 2013, but she has forgotten that the rates of other commodities have raised ten times more than in 2013. Boasting that Centre has collected more than 1.49 crores in July on GST proves that how common man has been forced to pay this amount on GST. We are having an ignorant finance minister. When the price of onions rose, she said that she doesn't eat onions. Unemployment, joblessness, and frustration among our youth are increasing, and food inflation is hurting the poor

hanks to the Supreme Court's earnest intervention in recent days, the topic of political parties offering 'freebies' to voters has been gaining significance and weight. The culture of freebies practiced and perfected by various political parties in India, feigning as 'populist schemes', has largely indoctrinated the rural voters and has affected a well-rounded welfarist ideology. ("Freebies lead to eco-disaster, Centre tells SC", Aug. 4). Dole-outs are nothing short of bribes, and a government has no imperium to create private assets out of public funds. Free distribution of goods is not a substitute for a truer welfare model that seeks to achieve growth through enhancing productive resources in the economy. INFLATION-LED STRONG DOLLAR WILL SOON SLIDE

Once global turmoil subsides, the dollar will cool off fast

The Indian rupee has depreciated, as it went from the level of Rs 74.5 per dollar in February 2022 to almost Rs 80, before appreciating again to Rs 78.69 on August 2, 2022. Due to this weakness, there is a natural concern among the policy makers.

If we calculate from 1991 till now, the rupee has been depreciating against the dollar at an average rate of 3.03 percent annually. Significantly, the rupee has depreciated by 7.28 per cent in the last 5 months. In the past, the rupee had been weakening not only against the dollar, but also against many important currencies, including the euro, pound, yen, yuan.

Since 1991, the rupee has depreciated 137 per cent against the pound sterling, 489 per cent against the euro, and 241 per cent against the yen, while the depreciation against the dollar has been 252 per cent. This means that in the long run, the rupee has weakened against all the important currencies.

But there has been a change in the depreciation trend of the rupee in the last five months till July 2022. While the rupee has weakened by 7.28 per cent against the dollar, it has gained 6.31 per cent against the pound sterling, 10.77 per cent against the yen and 4.72 per cent

When the dollar is getting stronger against all the major currencies of the world, the question arises whether the winning streak of the dollar will continue in future also? The US economy is the most indebted in the world. Today, the US has an external debt of $30.4 trillion, China and the UK hold $13 trillion and $9.02 trillion, respectively.

External debt on India is only $614.9 billion, which is hardly 20 per cent of our GDP. America's foreign debt is 102 per cent of its GDP, while that of England is 345 per cent.

History is witness that whenever there is turmoil in the world, the dollar gets stronger. This is because investors around the world believe that the US is the safest destination for them. This process is called 'run for safe haven' in business parlance. It is being said by market experts that since inflation is on rise across the world, worries about growth have increased and interest rates are also rising, hence the dollar is strengthening.

Dollar has risen by 10 per cent in the past one year and has reached an all-time high in 20 years. Countries, especially smaller ones, who have borrowed heavily, are finding it difficult to repay interest and principal. But countries producing oil and exporting countries or which are suppliers of agricultural commodities have more stable currencies. Russia's ruble continues to get strengthened. The reason for this is the increasing export of oil and gas by Russia and the control on capital flows imposed by the Russian government.

The USD is strengthening due to global turmoil and rising interest rates in the US, but it may not last long. Such situations in the world are considered to be short-lived. In such a situation, when there will be an uptick in other currencies of the world and the investors who have deserted India in search of safe havens will again come back in search of markets, then a downfall of the dollar would be inevitable

All the global institutions are expecting India to be the fastest growing economy in the world. Global investors will be compelled to turn to India. The ever-increasing foreign direct investment and strong fundamentals have the potential to propel the rupee towards strength.

Peace in Palestine still remains an elusive dream

The Western world continues to aid and abet Israel making it aggressive, which undermines lasting peace in Palestine

srael is all set to go for the unprecedented fifth election in three years as the ruling coalition is no more ready to run the joint government. The Arab League, which was a part of the current government, withdrew its support citing Israeli aggressive settlements over the Palestinians land. This is not the only reason but one important among others.

Naftali Bennett had ousted Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu last year, ending his 12 years in power. The rightwing leader and former Netanyahu ally's eight-party coalition consisted of his own nationalist party, as well as rightwing, centrist and leftist parties and of course an Arab-Israeli party for the first

The Bennett government before taking over Israel had been showcasing itself as a government for change but its stand on many fronts remained the same as that of Netanyahu; be it the issue of expansion of West Bank settlements or the opposition to Palestinian State, the new government walked the Banjamin's way. There were hopes that the new governments in the USA and Israel will seriously think over the crisis in West Asia but nothing changed.

In a report released last week, the UN Commission set up for the Israel-Palestine conflict reiterated that Israel wants 'complete control' of the land owned by Palestinians. Israel has been occupying Palestine in bits and pieces after its initial occupation in 1967. The Commission also highlighted that Israel has been "acting to alter the demography through the maintenance of a repressive environment for Palestinians and a favourable environment for Israeli settlers".

This is certainly not the first report by an intentional human rights entity or watchdog underlining the Israeli zeal to occupy areas inhabited by Palestinians. Any individual with an elementary school learning of geopolitics understands that it is not Israel that itself is the central power working behind the redundant mission to occupy Palestine, rather the source of power lies in the West, especially in the USA. The world knows that the policies of Washington DC are largely made on the streets of Tel Aviv - this is how mighty the Jewish lobby in the USA is! From corporate to politics and from academia to cinema, the Jewish lobby dominates almost every field in the USA

If truth be told, the USA was one of the very first countries to publicly express its sympathy and tacit support for the Jewish state when it began to be created in 1948. By being the first country to officially recognise Israel, it played cunningly to further its interests in the MENA region. Additionally, it has also provided a few hundred billion dollars as aid to the rogue nation and has provided the very base of its economy by roughly accounting for almost one-fourth of imports and half of its exports.

State within a few months after its creation?

The nation which suffers from 'Big Brother' syndrome and is super quick to impose unilateral sanctions on nations itself grossly violates the United Nations Charter and customary international law principle of the inadmissibility of the acquisition of territory by force by supporting Israel and poking nose into affairs of

The Israeli aggression has become graver with the increasing rift between the OIC countries, especially the Gulf nations. The tussle between the Saudi-led block and the Qatar-led group has pushed the Saudi and the UAE closer toward Israel, and the UAE along with a few other nations of the same block even went to the extent of establishing diplomatic ties with the Jewish nations just a few months ago.

The desperation to prevent Iran's nuclear program and bulwark its dominance in the region has also compelled Saudi Arabia to play hands in gloves with its onetime foe, Israel. Besides, the entire world is aware of the rift between Turkey and Saudi Arabia, preventing the Muslim world to collectively call out Israeli aggression.

Given its geographic position, military might, and intelligence capabilities, Israel has become an irresistible ally for the Saudi-led alliance now. To secure their interests through a common minimum agenda, the nations led by Saudi Arabia have now turned their eyes away from the Palestinian massacre and have buried their heads in the sand like an ostrich to unsee the truth.

Nevertheless, the Israeli aggression of 2021 after which the said UN Commission was constituted has reflected the delay and collective failure of the global community to solve the conflict. Out of many possible ways, the first prerogative for striking a solution to the Israel-Palestine conflict is an outlook entirely based on human rights and not on interests. Through my personal observations and decades-long political career, I could confidently say that interest-based solutions are never sustainable, but humancentric ones certainly are.

Further, the global community should urgently restrict the US Palestinians under the Sun and from becoming a stakeholder or a ensure deniability at the same party to the conflict, as it has time. The North needs to own always ignited it and added fuel to the fire without contributing even two cents. The USA should remember the quote by one of its brightest minds Wayne Dyer, who said, "conflicts cannot survive without your participation".

Most importantly, the world will have to recognise and realise the fact that what has been done cannot be undone in a nuclearweaponized world. The world should try to establish an environment of tranquility by striking a seemingly perfect equilibrium between the Jewish and the Palestinian people and ensure that Israel keeps guns down, practices a ceasefire, and pledges not to further invade the remaining territory. Peace negotiations can then take place between the two nations, by involving deserving nations as parties to those negotiations.

However, the most immediate requirement is to compel Israel to follow the 'Fourth Geneva Convention' by securing the human rights of the Palestinians, especially those trapped in the Gaza strip. Along with the Conventions, it should also abide by the 2004 ruling of the International Court of Justice that asked it to protect the rights of the citizens of Palestine under its occupation as per humanitarian and human rights law. Conclusively, the global North should come out of hypocrisy and stop defending Israel and refrain from giving it shelter and refuge to keep abusing the human rights of accountability as well as make the Jewish nation a state accountable for its actions.

It is high time for the world to ask itself: has it done enough for the human rights of Palestinians? Has it handled the situation efficiently and with integrity? It is indeed a time to introspect and ponder over what Ronald Reagan had once said: "Peace is not the absence of conflict; it is the ability to handle conflict by peaceful means".

Defence 'Atmanirbharta' key to robust Indian economy

Prime Minister Narendra Modi's call for stepping up indigenous defence goods production is timely

Prime Minister Narendra Modi on 25 July, while addressing a per-l addressing a naval seminar Swavlamban, said that the national defence is no longer limited to borders, but has a broader ambit, and the armed forces and other stakeholders must work together to bolster the country's military capabilities. Attempts from within the country or abroad to harm India's interests must be thwarted effectively, cautioned Modi, asking the armed forces to be alert against new challenges, including disinformation cam-

He batted for combatting a myriad of security challenges, saying they are no longer limited to land, sea and sky, and asserted that the armed forces must work together to bolster the country's military capabilities. The seminar was organised by the Naval Innovation and Indigenisation Organisation (NIIO) and the Society of Indian Defence Manufacturers (SIDM).

The NSA Ajit Doval, Air Chief Marshal VR Chaudhari, Navy Chief Admiral R Hari Kumar and Defence Secretary Ajay Kumar attended the seminar among others. The concern of the prime minister is very genuine but unfortunately he is not getting the support from the opposition parties even on national security and defence matters. A disintegrated opposition with poor leadership is a disaster for the nation.

The Opposition's right and duty, if it believes the public interest is at stake, is to oppose the government's policies and actions by every legitimate parliamentary means. In doing so, the Opposition tries to convince the electorate that they should change places with the government, which is impossible unless it changes its attitude on issues of national interest.

Highlighting the importance of self-reliance in the defence sector, the prime minister said dependence on imports for small requirements of the armed forces could pose serious strategic challenges. Cautioning the armed forces against new threats, Modi said contours of national security have become widespread and the challenges are moving towards space, cyberspace, social space and the economic sphere.

We also have to intensify our war against forces challenging India's self-confidence, self-reliance, said Modi, adding as India is establishing itself on the global stage, there are constant attacks through misinformation, disinformation and false publicity. Keeping faith, the forces harming India's interests, whether in the country or abroad, have to be thwarted in their every effort, he added.

Defence is a principal component of national power. Defence policy is an integral part of national security policies. The role of the armed forces is to preserve the core values of survival and political independence against any external or internal threats by deterrence or by waging a war. In his address, the prime minister said his government has developed a new defence ecosystem in the country to boost domestic manufacturing. In the last 4-5 years, Modi said, the defence imports have come down by about 21 per cent and the country is moving fast from being the biggest defence importer to becoming a big exporter.

The prime minister said Rs 13,000 crore worth of defence export was achieved last year and more than 70 per cent of it was from the private sector.

Talking about long delays in defence acquisition, Modi said most of the procurement programmes kept facing questions and abusing politicians became very easy. Recalling the glorious maritime tradition of the country, Modi said that the defence sector of India used to be very strong even before independence. At the time of independence, there were 18 ordnance factories in the country, where many types of military equipment, including artillery guns, were made. He said India was an important supplier of defence equipment in World War II.

Referring to the importance of oceans and coasts in India's economy, Prime Minister Modi said that the role of the Indian Navy is continuously increasing and therefore self-reliance of the force is of critical importance.

Today, a large part of the budget earmarked for the purchase of defence equipment is being spent on procurement from Indian companies, said Modi, while complementing the defence forces for preparing a list of 300 items that will not be imported.

Modi's mission is to make the country Atmanirbhar so that the defence budget is further reduced and the benefits go to domestic industry. In the era of economic globalization with more interdependence among produces sufficient amounts of goods and services for its domestic needs along with surplus for export to earn foreign exchange. An Atmanirbhar country need not necessarily manufacture each and every product required by it. Rather, it will prefer manufacturing and processing more such products which it can do with expertise at low cost and the demand of which is globally more. At the same time, it cannot indefinitely depend on such countries that are dumping their low quality goods and are

urali Sreeshankar clinched a silver in men's long jump event to give India a second medal in athletics at the Commonwealth Games here

The 23-year-old national record holder soared to 8.08m in his fifth attempt to finish second behind Laquan Nairn of Bahamas in a nerve-wrecking men's long

Nairn also had a best jump of 8.08m but his second best of 7.98m was better than 7.84m of Sreeshankar.

Under rules, if two jumpers are tied on same distance, the one who has a better second best effort will be ranked ahead. Jovan van Vuuren (8.06m) of South Africa took the Bronze.

The other Indian in the fray, Muhammed Anees Yahiya ended at fifth with a best jump of 7.97m.

Sreeshankar's became the first Indian male long jumper to win a Silver at the CWG. Suresh Babu had won a Bronze in the 1978 edition.

Among women, Prajusha Maliakkal won a Silver in the 2010 edition in Delhi, while legendary Anju Bobby George bagged a Bronze in 2002. Sreeshankar had gone into CWG as

Gold medal favourite on the basis of his season's and personal best of 8.36m, which had put him in joint second ranking in the world this season. But he struggled in his first four jumps regarding his landing on the foot board. He began with a 7.64m before jumping identical 7.84m in his second and third attempts. His fourth jump was a foul. He was outside the medal contention at the end of the fourth round as he was at sixth place at that stage but his fifth attempt of 8.08m took him to the second

In a dramatic final round jump, he seemed to have crossed the 8m mark -which would have given him a gold -- but to his and the Indian contingent's disappointment, his foot landed 2cm ahead of the line on the foot board.

The final attempt was thus ruled as a foul and Sreeshankar had to settle for

Indian men's 4x400m relay team qualifies for final, Jyothi exits in 100m hurdles

 $T^{\text{he Indian men's } 4x400\text{m relay}}_{\text{team qualified for the final at}}$ the Commonwealth Games after finishing second in its heat race

here on Friday.

The Indian quartet of Muhammed Anas Yahiya, Noah
Nirmal Tom, Mohammed Ajmal and Amoj Jacob took the automatic qualification route, clocking 3:06.97s to finish second behind Kenya in heat 2.

India were fourth before the last leg bend but Amoj overtook two runners at the final stretch to finish second. He had suffered a 4x400m relay as part of the Indian quartet during the National Inter-State Championships in Chennai last month.

India finished sixth overall across the two heats with Botswana 3:05.11s being the quickest. The final will be held on

In women's 100m hurdles, national record holder Jyothi Yarraji crashed out in the first round heats with a below-par show. She clocked 13.18m to finish fourth in heat 2 and 10th overall. She holds the national record of 13.04s.

The heat races were held under hamstring injury while running windy conditions and Yarraji ran with a tailwind of 2m/s. All the competitors ran with tailwind of 2m/s or above.

The 22-year-old Yarraji had bettered her national record thrice

Ancy Sojan also failed to qualify for the women's long jump final. She was ranked 13th overall in the qualifying round with a best jump of 6.25m, which was wind-assisted (tailwind of 2.3m/s).

Those who touched 6.75m or at least 12 best performers across the two groups advance to the final. The 21-year-old Sojan, who has a season and personal best of 6.55m, was seventh in Group A won a Bronze in men's high jump to open India's medal account in athletics in this

It was Sreeshankar's first medal in a major international competition and a multi-sport event. Before this, he had won a Bronze in the 2018 Asian U-20 Championships in Gifu, Japan.
The medal will give him some sort of relief after his disappointing performance in the World Athletics Championships in Eugene, USA, where he had finished seventh in the final last month.

He had gone into the World Championships as a dark horse for a medal with a season's and personal best

RUES MISSING GOLD

Commonwealth Games Silver medallist long jumper Murali Sreeshankar rued missing out on a Gold, saying his fourth jump, which was ruled a foul under laserbased new technology, would have been legal in earlier system and big enough to finish on top of the podium.

The 23-year-old Sreeshankar said he initially thought he had a big valid jump in his fourth attempt which would have given him a Gold. However, his jump was adjudged a foul under the new system.

"I was very surprised, you can't call it (fourth jump) a foul because I never overstepped the foul board but she (pitside official) explained to me the exact jumping position, movement of my foot which was crossing the perpendicular plate," Sreeshankar said in a virtual

"If it was the previous system which we had in past years, it would not have been called a foul," said the national record holder (8.36m).

He said the conditions during the CWG long jump final was not ideal as it was a bit cold and windy.

"Performance on the particular day matters. In major championships, winning a medal is the priority.

"I completely messed up the first three jumps, trying to have safe jumps (by leaving good gap). My focus after that was to be on podium with good jumps in final

Bajrang Punia defends men's 65kg Gold medal

PTI ■ BIRMINGHAM

Ctar Indian wrestler Bajrang SPunia was a class apart while defending his title as he conceded just two points en route the Gold medal show while birthday girl Anshu Malik grabbed a Silver in her maiden Commonwealth Games, here on Friday.

Such was Tokyo Olympics Bronze medallist Bajrang's dominance in the 65kg competition that he won three of his four bouts inside first rounds.

The 28-year-old defending champion beat Naurau's Lowe Bingham and Mauritius' Jean Guyliane Joris Bandou 'by fall' before winning by technical superiority against England's Geroge Ramm.

Canada's Lachlan Maurice McNeil fought well against Bajrang but the Indian was far superior in technique and stamina as he won the bout 9-2.

Bajrang has been struggling to play freely since last year and his over defensive tactics put a question-mark over his ability to extend his dominance in international arena but on Friday he made his moves without inhibition. However, the CWG is not the best platform to judge if Bajrang has got his mojo back because of the inferior field quality.

Anshu, who has taken rapid strides in her career, reached the women's 57kg final with similar dominance but ended up second-best with a Silver medal.

The Nidani wrestler, who turned 21 on Friday, won by technical superiority against Australia's Irene Symeonidis and Sri Lanka's Nethmi

It did not take Anshu much time to measure her opponents. Her trademark aggression and quality was too hot to handle for her rivals till Blandine Nyeh Ngiri by fall.

the gold bout.

The World Championship Silver medallist though could not breach the defence of Nigeria's Odunayo Folasade Adekuoroye, losing the gold bout 3-7. The Nigerian was strong with her defence and Anshu could not find a way to make her moves.

She left mat with tears in her eyes as it was not the birth-day present she wanted to give herself.

For Sakshi Malik, who has been battling for relevance for long, it was an ideal opportunity to get some confidence back and she used it to optimum level in the 62kg contest. She began by pinning home team wrestler Kelsey Barnes and followed that with a technical superiority win against Cameroon's Berthe Emilienne.

In her two bouts, she did not concede a single point and will now clash with Canada's Ana Paula Godinez Gonzalez for her first CWG gold. She has a bronze and silver in her CWG collection.

Also making the gold medal round was Deepak Punia (86kg) who did not look his dominant and quick self but still won his bouts without giving a point to his rivals.

The wrestler from Chhara village began with technical superiority win over Matthew Clay Oxenham from New Zealand and beat Canada's Alexander Moore 3-1, setting up the Gold medal bout against Pakistan's Muhammad Inam. Divya Kakran though got a tough draw as she found Tokyo Olympic Silver medallist and 11-time African champion Blessing Oborududu from Nigeria.

Men in Blue aim to seal T20I series

hreyas Iyer's performance will be under intense scrutiny as India gear up for the back-to-back T20I games against West Indies, starting here on Saturday with against West Indies, starting here on Saturday, with the twin objective of winning the series and also firming up squad for T20 World Cup.

India are currently leading the five-match series 2-1 and nothing would be more satisfying than a couple of thumping wins in front of the USA's Indian diaspora, which is anticipating an enjoyable weekend cricket car-

However in this current India set-up, if there is one man whose performance will be monitored more than anyone else, it has got to be Iyer.

Deepak Hooda, who has used most of the opportunities handed to him, looks good to outwit Iyer at the moment as far as the big ticket T20 World Cup berth is

With KL Rahul and Virat Kohli all set to be back in the playing eleven for the Asia Cup, time is certainly running out for the 27-year-old Mumbaikar, who has had scores of 0, 10 (11 balls) and 24 (27 balls) in the three games so far in the ongoing series.

He looked distinctly uncomfortable against the fast and rising deliveries.

While the short ball is his main problem, watching Iyer gives a feeling that he is unable to decide at what pace and which gear would he bat in a T20 game, something that's not the case when he is taking strike in 50-over for-

In head coach Rahul Dravid's regime so far, no player has got a raw deal in terms of chances and are given long enough rope to succeed.

However in case of Iyer, his T20I game hasn't exactly yielded the results that one has seen him deliver in the ODI cricket.

Even then, Dravid has given Iyer nine T20I games in last two and half months, out of which, one in Bengaluru was a wash-out and there hasn't been a single fifty-plus score even when he got chance to come out within first 10 overs.

If Iyer gets a go in the last two games, he has no option but to put his best foot forward as the Asia Cup team, in all probability, will also be the likely team for the T20

Even if Iyer makes the cut for Asia Cup or T20 World Cup, there is a miniscule chance of him getting a first XI look-in in a jam-packed top-order.

The Indian captain would like to continue his recent good form and positive intent in the two remaining games but at the same time would have the best seat to judge the form of some of his batters. Rishabh Pant has looked good in all his short stints at the crease and wouldn't mind having a big one in front of a packed audience at Central Broward Park Stadium.

PLAYING AVESH A COMPULSION

Avesh Khan has been taken to cleaners in the last two games but Dravid-Rohit pair has no other option but to continue with the profligate MP speedster as Harshal Patel hasn't fully recovered from his rib-cage injury.

Avesh throughout his career has been a bit onedimensional with either bowling too short or too full giving batters ample time to work on the pace or play the full-blooded drive.

It will be interesting to see if Kuldeep Yadav gets a game in the series and India play an extra spinner in case Harshal doesn't get fit in time.

15 Aussie players offered AUD 700,000 to play in UAE League

The International League (ILT20) in UAE has reportedly offered 15 top Australian players a whopping AUD 700,000 deals to ditch the Big Bash League (BBL), dates of which are overlapping, causing considerable tension in Cricket Australia (CA)'s ranks.

The Big Bash League will be played between December 13 to February 4 while the inaugural edition of ILT20 is scheduled from January 6 to February 12, making it virtually impossible for Australian players to take part in both the tournaments. According to a report in
