The AAI's commitment to selecting qualified candidates underscores its dedication to ensuring the highest standards of service and excellence in the aviation sector.
Draupadi Murmu never came forward for posts and never lobbed with party leaders. Whatever decision MoDA takes, he takes it keeping in mind the party’s interests, priority of leader in society, and priority of leaders in society. He cautions that even the party’s own candidates have long been lobbied with party leaders, and that MoDA would never lobby with party leaders. He assured that MoDA would never lobby with party leaders. He assured that MoDA would never lobby with party leaders.

Chief Minister YS Jagan Mohan Reddy said that he had written similar letters to the Ministry of Civil Aviation (MoCA) and the Ministry of Defence (MoD) for clearing the site for the development of the Visakhapatnam airport and obtaining the NOC. However, the MoD has not yet cleared the site for the development of the Visakhapatnam airport, and the MoCA has not yet granted the NOC.

The development of the Visakhapatnam airport will be carried out by the Airport Secretary and the Airports Development Corporation of India Ltd (ADAC), which is a subsidiary of the MoCA. The airport is expected to be developed at a cost of Rs 5000 crores.

The Visakhapatnam airport is expected to be developed at a cost of Rs 5000 crores. The airport will have a capacity of 100 million passengers per year and will be able to handle 10 million tonnes of cargo per year.

Maharashtra rebels have got reprieve in the SC granting them more time to file replies

While the Maharashtra crisis seems to be taking a long-drawn affray, the rebels got a breather from the Suprem Court in its resolve to rob rebel leader Eknath Shinde’s petition challenging the disqualification notices issued to 16 MLAs, including himself, the apex court on Monday granted them six weeks to file their replies to the notices till July 12. They were told to reply by 5:30 pm on Monday. As the political battle reached the SC, it issued notices to Maharashtra Deputy Speaker, Chairperson, Leader of Opposition- Praatik Chavanpuri and the Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray. The SC adjourned the case till June 14.

Speaking at a Bombay High Court: their lawyer said that the situation is bad in the Maharashtra capital. Their residence and properties are under threat. Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray’s faction is not doing anything to meet the crisis. The two sides need to be sent to the Mulund Thana for post-mortem.

The civil society sector in India is facing challenges. It does so not only because of its sizeable nature but also because of its multiplicity, involving a wide range of groups and organisations. While the Maharashtra crisis seems to be becoming a long-drawn affair, the civil society sector has been in a state of flux. The civil society sector in India is under threat. Covid-19 can cause severe damage to organs like the kidney, affect function even after the person recovers. Therefore, from preventing severe Covid-19 complications will show signs of severe kidney damage. This makes it clear that the precautionary measures and these signs often manifest in high levels of blood or protein in the urine as well as abnormal blood work. The results of several studies cited in a report by Johns Hopkins Medicine showed that at least 30 per cent of all hospitalised patients with Covid-19 develop some form of kidney injury.

One of the major complications of Covid-19 that could increase the chance of having a kidney injury is the attack on the kidney's function can affect the function of other crucial vessels in one’s kidney. An attack on the kidney’s function can affect the function of other crucial vessels in one’s kidney.

Another major complication of Covid-19 is that the virus can attack the kidneys and lead to a failure of one of the body’s immune systems. A virus can change the course of the disease and may further cause renal damage, leading to kidney failure. This phenomenon clearly describes the nature of Covid-19 attacking crucial cells and further weakening the effectiveness of the kidney.

Covid-19's impact on the kidney can truly be devastating because an attack on the kidney's function can affect the function of other crucial vessels in one's kidney.

Rupee ends almost flat at 78.34 against US dollar

The rupee ended almost flat at 78.34 against the US dollar on Monday despite a rally in the domestic equity markets. Firm crude oil prices in the international market and unabated foreign fund inflows continued to weigh on the rupee.

The rupee traded at 78.34 per US dollar, close to the day’s low of 78.36, and was 1.7 paise lower from the previous close of 78.323.

On Tuesday, the rupee opened at 78.36 and ended the day at 78.34.

India’s foreign exchange reserves, excluding gold, increased to $550.4 billion, according to data released by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI).

The rupee has been under pressure in recent weeks due to the Federal Reserve’s鹰派 stance and the US dollar’s strength.

The rupee’s weakness is likely to continue in the near term as the US dollar is expected to remain strong due to the Federal Reserve’s aggressive rate hike cycle.

The rupee has already lost more than 6% against the US dollar this year, making it one of the worst-performing major currencies.

Green Day vocalist Billie Joe Armstrong says he is ‘renouncing’ American citizenship

Green Day frontman Billie Joe Armstrong has said he was ‘renouncing’ his citizenship in the wake of the US Supreme Court overturning Roe v Wade’s federal abortion protection.

Armstrong, who has been vocal about his anti-establishment views, had also taken aim at contemporary American politics post 9/11 terror attacks through Green Day’s 2004 album American Idiot. In a lengthy speech on social media, Armstrong also took issue with the US Supreme Court’s 1973 decision that found there was a constitutional right to abortion, last week. In his post, Armstrong condemned the court’s decision.

The Grammy winner called the US a ‘miserable country’. “I’m fing renouncing my citizenship,” he posted on Instagram. “F America, I’m fing renouncing my citizenship,” he wrote in another post. He added: “This is not just a decision about me; it’s a decision about America.”

Armstrong also added: “Throughout my entire career, I have castigated the US government for its interference with women’s reproductive rights. And now it seems that the only thing America cares about is that women can’t control their bodies.”

MORGAN TO RETIRE FROM INTERNATIONAL CRICKET

ENGLAND

The World Cup-winning skipper Eoin Morgan is set to retire from international cricket with an official announcement expected at the end of the two-day T20 series against New Zealand.

Morgan has been leading England since the 2019 World Cup. He has won 50 of his 92 T20 internationals and scored 3,303 runs at an average of 38.49.

He is expected to make an announcement on Friday after the second T20I at Headingley.

The veteran left-hander said: “I want to thank all of you for your support over the years.”

Morgan has confirmed he will play on in domestic cricket and in the Indian Premier League, but not for England beyond next year.

The 33-year-old has been a regular fixture in England’s limited-overs teams since making his debut in 2005.

He will be replaced by Jos Buttler as white-ball captain.

Rohit can be relieved from T20 captancy: Sehwag

Former India opener Virender Sehwag has suggested that Rohit Sharma be relieved of his responsibilities as T20 skipper so that he can focus on managing his workload and improving his batting.

The 33-year-old Sharma has been India’s white-ball captain for almost three years and Sehwag feels it’s time to make way for a new leader.

“Rohit needs to be focussed on his batting. He needs to get back to his best and try to play his natural game,” Sehwag said.

He also suggested that Rohit could be given another captaincy, such as playing in overseas T20 leagues.

England cleanses Black Caps

England sealed a 1-0 lead in the three-match T20I series against New Zealand with a comprehensive 7-wicket win at Bristol on Friday.

The hosts dominated the match as they won by 7 wickets with 14 overs to spare.

MORGAN TO RETIRE FROM INTERNATIONAL CRICKET

Eoin Morgan announced he will retire from international cricket at the end of the two-day T20 series against New Zealand.

The left-handed batsman enjoyed a record-breaking 10-year international career, scoring 1,300 runs and taking 37 wickets.

Morgan, who made his debut in 2004, said: “I’ve enjoyed every minute of it. It’s been a privilege to play for my country.”

He added: “I’ll miss the team, the families and the fans.”

Morgan’s place in the team will be taken by Jos Buttler, who has been in impressive form this year.
