The Chinese authorities have built villages close to the LAC and in the border areas, for which Kalita said they should be appreciated and the mechanism to handle the tension should be put in robust position.

The over all China has built all weather roads right up to the border shared by India. All across the LAC China long stretching from Leh in the west to the eastern Andaman Islands and Andaman and Nicobar islands in the east of Bay of Bengal during next two to three years.

The last year, China itself has already built several villages close to the LAC and in the border areas.

In future, both India and China should do some more in order to expand and strengthen friendship and relations between India and China.

Reduction of water flow in Mahanadi also a cause of concern

A reduced flow and THP ramping in Mahanadi river is a serious threat to the ecosystem, said the chairman to the Chair.

The Mahanadi river system, the third largest of peninsular India, is said to be under stress due to Srisailam and the Krishna and the largest stresses arising from mining. Reduction of water in Mahanadi river water into the Hirakud dam has been observed down considerably in recent months, due to decreased barages and dams at the upper end of the river by the time of its confluence with the Mahanadi river.

The flow of water during the last ten days has been decreased by 30 per cent in comparison to the previous month. The flow came down by 37 per cent. The reduced flow of water is a matter of great concern for the the Mahanadi river basin schemes.

Ex-MLA Mishra, wife, daughter booked for bid to kill Gypman MLA

Controversy has arisen over gold-studded historic Jamai Majid of Aligarh. The Municipal Corporation had sold an almost 100-year-old mosque for a large sum of money. The money was not being spent as promised, said the former MLA Brij Bhushan Singh. The building was sold to a private party to be used as a hotel. The presentation of the document had raised the question that the mosque has been destroyed in response to the RTI of the Municipal Corporation regarding the Aligarh. As it is a legal dispute, the same matter will be taken up in the court.

Lanka’s new Govt gets Opp support with riders

Newly-appointed PM says his aim is to save crisis-hit Lanka

Lanka’s newly-appointed Prime Minister Ranil Wickremesinghe on Thursday, June 9, 2022, said his government’s first priority would be to save the country from a “catastrophic situation” it faces.

Wickremesinghe was appointed as Sri Lanka’s 26th prime minister on Thursday following weeks of political turmoil in the island nation, which has been grappling with its worst economic crisis since independence in 1948.

He said his government was ready to work closely with the opposition as well as the United National Party (UNP), which it faces in parliament, to ensure stability and save the country.

“Stability is the key to saving the country,” Prime Minister Wickremesinghe told reporters.

He said the government was ready to work closely with the opposition as well as the United National Party (UNP), which it faces in parliament, to ensure stability and save the country.

The new government has faced criticism from some former UNP leaders and members who have said they will support Wickremesinghe but that an official supporter for the new government has not yet been named. Wickremesinghe said he expected to form a new government by Monday, the day after a crucial cabinet meeting.

He said that the government would need to address issues such as inflation, which has soared to over 50% this year, and a lack of foreign exchange to pay for essential imports.

Wickremesinghe, who had been the country’s prime minister from 2001 to 2004 and from 2013 to 2015, said he expected to form a new government by Monday, the day after a crucial cabinet meeting.

Ukraine War efforts run into diplomatic, military hurdles

AKP in Kyiv

With its military buildup driven by a grinding conflict in eastern Ukraine, Russia also lost diplomatic ground over the weekend as two European nations moved closer to joining NATO.

President Vladimir Putin told Associated Press Thursday that joining the alliance would be illegal and would amount to an application to deploy “serious, serious” troops. But Finland and Sweden continue to stress a political decision and will not ratify their applications until the bloc of European nations agrees.

Russia’s military buildup and recent attacks on Ukraine have increased the speed and scale of discussions about NATO membership. Moscow insists it will not tolerate “determinations” that it says are designed to encircle the country.
