Rebel Tharoor, loyal Khange make last minute pitches on eve of party presidential poll

The much-delayed Congress presidential poll due on Monday saw a last-minute resurgence from the candidates—Mallikarjun Kharge and Shashi Tharoor—away from choosing a candidate for the top post, but the final list of those running was still to be announced on Sunday. On the former, Khange chose to stay away from the fray, instead declaring that they had no clue that she was stalking his name as a presidential candidate. He had worked in more than a dozen countries including his own country, with the United Nations, and was being barraged by a party affair, in case he loses the battle.

There is no blame in it if something hurts badly from your (mother’s) advice, I will take it as is. He will work for this party and help the state and the country. He will do his best to make it better. Appling to party dele- gates to vote for him, Tharoor emphasized on “constructive work” for the party. The six-time state MLA from Tharoor, it was an apparent rebuttal of Khange’s, “There should be no ‘reads’ to the party President.” In a veiled dig at Kharge, the former state minister, Tharoor asked, “Is it not the same? If so, then that of my colleague political advisors is not in the public,” he said.

Mayawati worry over anti-India campaign in American media

BSP President Party Chief Mayawati, on Sunday, expressed concern over the anti-India campaign being run by foreign elements in the US media. Apart from this, she targeted the Congress for promoting the caste politics. The BSP president Mayawati said that the Congress was trying to promote its upper-caste policies.

The former chief minister of Uttar Pradesh attacked the Central and state governments by saying that the BSP became a full-fledged party in 1989 and Mayawati expressed concern over the foreign elements in the US media.

Mayawati said, “Continuous defamation of BSP through anti-India media in US is against the right of communication and the structure of American society. This is a new trend in the US, which is a land of freedom and democracy. This is only a matter of concern for us.”

The Congress is using the US media to propagate its anti-India campaign.

PM virtually inaugurates DBU of Bank of Baroda

The ceremony was held at Lucknow and was attended by the Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi. The Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi, today virtually inaugurated the Digital Banking Unit of Bank of Baroda, which is a major milestone in the digital journey of the bank. The bank has been at the forefront of digital banking and has been instrumental in promoting financial inclusion and digital transactions. The inauguration of the Digital Banking Unit (DBU) will further enhance the bank's efforts to provide access to financial services to more people and to improve the efficiency of its operations. The DBU will enable the bank to offer a wide range of digital banking services, including online account opening, transaction management, and other financial services. The Prime Minister has expressed his confidence that the DBU will help the bank in achieving its goal of reaching all corners of the country with its digital services and in promoting financial inclusion. The DBU will also help in reducing the bank's operational costs and improving its profitability. The bank has already taken several initiatives in the digital space, including the launch of its mobile banking application and the introduction of digital transactions in its ATMs. The Prime Minister has commended the bank for its efforts and has urged it to continue its digital journey in order to reach more people and to improve the efficiency of its operations.
In the hall of shame

Of the 121 countries on the Global Hunger Index, India is now ranked below its neighbours at 107. India is now placed at 107th spot in the list of 121 countries ranking on the Global Hunger Index. This is enough to set off a range of ringing bells for the Indian government which is high on its achievements and does not tire of numbering its achievements. However, the facts are different from the projected image. Despite tall claims, the reality for people living on the fringes is a different one. The IHDP, a major study on human development and quality of life, shows that 30.1% of Indians live in extreme poverty.

What is a fact that is even less developed countries like Nepal and Pakistan and Bangladesh are placed higher than India. This is an indication that the food habits and dietary intake in India have no meaning for the downtrodden. In the Global Hunger Index (GHI) in 2022, jointly published by Concern Worldwide and Welthungerhilfe, India has gone down to the 107th spot from 101. The GHI measures and tracks hunger at global level. The 121 countries on the GHI, India is ranked below its neighbours: Nepal (99), Sri Lanka (64), and Bangladesh (49).

The GHI has pegged India as a country with a serious hunger problem. The GHI has given India a score of 29.1, which is in the "medium" category and is ranked at 107. The GHI score is calculated on four indicators - undernourishment; child malnutrition; child wasting; and adult wasting. Undernourishment is defined as having an energy intake below 1900 kilocalories per day. Child malnutrition is defined as having height below the 3rd percentile. Child wasting is defined as having a weight-for-height ratio below the 3rd percentile. Adult wasting is defined as having a weight-for-height ratio below the 3rd percentile. Indian Navy deployed submarine for 9 months in Indian Ocean Action in view of China increasing its Naval presence in region

This is a proud moment for the country and our brave soldiers, who worked on high-stress lightweight aluminum wings on the Indian Navy’s state-of-the-art submarines. They worked in co-ordination with Babu Industries Ltd. The new generation of wings is the first of its kind and will have a significant impact on the country’s defense capabilities.

In the future, the Indian Navy will be able to increase its submarine deployment in the Indian Ocean, which is vital for India's strategic interests. The new generation of lightweight aluminum wings will enable the Indian Navy to deploy its submarines for longer periods in the Indian Ocean, thereby enhancing the country's maritime capabilities.

In conclusion, the deployment of the new generation of lightweight aluminum wings is a significant milestone in India's defense modernization efforts. It will not only strengthen the country's defense capabilities but also enhance its strategic posture in the Indian Ocean region.
Police probe cannibalism, organ trade reported in Kerala. The human rights commission has registered a case against the police officers involved in the alleged cannibalism and organ trade.

Gujarat wants a new “double engine” government. A new political development is taking place in Gujarat, which has the potential to change the complexion of the state politics. The Bhartiya Janta Party (BJP), which has been ruling the state for the past few years, is facing a challenge from the Indian National Congress. The Congress wants to form a new government in the state, and is trying to establish its presence in the state with a new “double engine” government.

The Congress is trying to form an alliance with the Bahujan Samaj Party (BSP), which is a small party in the state, in order to increase its chances of forming a government. The BSP is known for its support to the Dalit community, and is expected to help the Congress in its bid to form a government.

The BJP, on the other hand, is trying to maintain its grip on the state, and is taking efforts to ensure that it remains in power. The party is also trying to form alliances with other parties in order to increase its chances of winning the elections.

The situation in Gujarat is highly volatile, and the political climate is tense. The state is facing a number of challenges, including unemployment, poverty, and corruption. The people of Gujarat are looking for a change, and the political parties are trying to cater to their demands.

Mount nets brace in Chelsea's 2-0 win

NEWCASTLE

Mount smashed twice as Chelsea routed Newcastle 2-0 at St James' Park on Sunday to keep their Champions League hopes alive.

Mason Mount scored twice from the penalty spot to send Chelsea into the lead before half-time and later added another to seal a 2-0 victory over Newcastle at St James' Park.

The Blues bossed the opener but had to wait until the 41st minute to see Mount strike from the spot. His shot was saved by Karl Darlow but the Newcastle goalkeeper’s parry cannoned back off the post and was议题 of the post-match discussion.

Mount converted following a handball decision by referee Tunnel, which was overturned by VAR. This was Mount’s second goal in three matches since joining the club.

In the second half, Mount added another to make it 2-0, this time taking his record to four goals and four assists in all competitions. Chelsea dominated the game and could have scored more but for some poor finishing.

Chelsea manager Thomas Tuchel said: “I think we deserved this result, we created a lot of chances and played well.”

Newcastle manager Eddie Howe said: “We have to look at ourselves because we paid the price for our mistakes.”

Chelsea improved to 13 points clear at the top of the Premier League table, while Newcastle are in 12th place with 35 points. The Blues have now won their last four league matches and are just one point away from the century mark.

Inter beat Salernitana to continue revival

BILBAO

Inter Milan beat Salernitana 2-0 on Sunday to continue their revival under manager Antonio Conte.

The Serie A leaders extended their unbeaten run to eight games with a comfortable victory over their visitors.

Inter took the lead through Lautaro Martinez in the 33rd minute and consolidated their position with a second-half goal from Christian Eriksen.

The result moves Inter back to within two points of the top four and keeps them in contention for a European qualification spot.

Inter are now unbeaten in their last eight games and have won six of their last seven league matches. Their revival has been spearheaded by the return of key players such as Martinez and Eriksen.

Regessa, Chepaiti win at Delhi Half Marathon

NEW DELHI

Ethiopian Regessa Tadesse won the men’s half-marathon in a time of 1:00:00 in the Delhi Half Marathon on Sunday, while Kenyan Chepaiti Mary process. Chepaiti took the women’s half-marathon crown in 1:09:43.

The men’s race was won by Ethiopia’s Tadesse in 1:00:00, breaking the previous record of 1:00:02 set by Ethiopia’s Feyisa Lilesa in 2016. Tadesse’s time was also the fastest in the world this year.

Chepaiti, a recent Olympian, successfully defended her title and became the first woman to win the event in two consecutive years.

INDIA

India's athletes performed exceptionally well in the U-17 WWC, but the nation’s footballing future remains uncertain due to lack of investment and support.

The Indian Football Federation (IFF) announced the squad for the U-17 Women’s World Cup on Thursday, with the aim of qualifying for the knockout stages and securing a spot in the next tournament.

The team is expected to face tough opposition from teams like England, Germany, and France in the group stage. However, India has never qualified for the knockout stages before.

India's best performance in the U-17 Women’s World Cup came in 2016, when they reached the semi-finals. However, the team failed to qualify for the final and were eliminated by South Korea.

India's U-17 Men’s team, which qualified for the semi-finals in 2016, has not made it to the final stages since then.

India has invested heavily in women's football in recent years, but the national team has struggled to make a mark in international competitions. The country's football league system is also poorly structured and lacks proper funding.

Indian football's administrators and officials need to take urgent steps to boost the sport's development and nurture young talent. This includes investing in infrastructure, salaries, and training programs.
