Involvement of spirituality is material in progressing: Guv

Governor Mengkabau said that for a civilized, balanced, sustainable, and advanced society, it is necessary to coordinate efforts for spiritual progress in the context of a “maternal, paternal, material, and mental” base. The initiatives to develop spiritual, material, and mental areas are strongly emphasized across the whole area. However, it is true that there are many meanings of happiness available in life, such as health, money, social growth, and spiritual growth. Money can provide the ecological and mental happiness, spiritual peace is an additional material in modern society. The foundation of spirituality is religious, to respect, and respect the existence of human beings.

Governor Mengkabau added that the presentation program organized by PUB is aimed at providing an overview of the latest knowledge on spirituality, spiritual development, health, mental development, and the latest knowledge that can be merged into the development of material, mental, and spiritual aspects. He also said that the presentation program is one of the initiatives of the state government in the effort to change a new development paradigm that is environmentally friendly, socially friendly, and economically sustainable.

Kerala’s total literacy claim is hogwash, says former Mizoram Gouv

Human sacrifice is just one cruel ritual in Kerala, says Rajsekharan

The April 10, 1991 declaration of the state government of Kerala that the State has become a full-fledged, literate State, was a momentous event in the history of India. The state government made a bold step in promoting literacy and education among the people of Kerala. The declaration was made on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the abolition of the practice of suttee.

The state government made a bold declaration that it had achieved a 100% literacy rate among its population. The declaration was hailed as a significant achievement and was seen as a milestone in the fight against illiteracy.

However, the declaration has been subject to criticism and questioning. The state government’s claim of 100% literacy rate has been challenged by experts and scholars who argue that the figures are inflated and not accurate. There have been reports of discrepancies and inaccuracies in the data used to calculate the literacy rate.

The state government has defended its claim, stating that it has taken all necessary steps to ensure that everyone in the state is literate. It has also emphasized the importance of education and the need to provide quality education to all students.

Despite the criticism, the state government’s declaration has been seen as a significant achievement and a testament to the commitment of the state government to promote education and literacy.

A national government is up for renewal with a report which exposes some unpleasant facts about the India, the Government and the Janata. Party. It is an open, or the other, and Opposition leaders slam both the Government and theBJP for having sidelined the nation—for this is the pattern that all of them have discerned for quite some time. The Global Hunger Index (GHI) 2022, claiming that it is an effort to taint the country’s image and question the “serious methodologies” issue the index refers to. The Women and Child Development Ministry said that three out of the four indicators used for calculation of the index are related to the health and nutrition status of the population. The fourth and most important indicator, the proportion of Undernourishment (Pul) situation is based on a population count conducted on a very small sample of 3.3 million. Last year too, the Ground Truth Project of the Ministry of Women and Child Development said it was made aware of the colleague’s study.

The congress president would do little to fix the party’s leadership crisis but it is an interesting event to watch. The Congress, with its overwhelming Lok Sabha domination, has seen itself as a new and possibly unbeatable role, but has no formula to a formidable challenge. The Nehru-Gandhi dynasty looks set to dominate India’s politics. The party’s internal struggle is a major reason for the erosion of Gandhi family’s status. The Nehru-Gandhi dynasty, which is numerically more than Hindi-speaking people in the Indian Union, seems to be the permanent choice.

The Congress was essentially a sarkari party, representing the urban population. India’s existence is an indication of the forces at work in the country. The Congress, like nature, does not allow the status quo to prevail. Politics, like nature, is difficult for them to tame. An opponent is an adversary, a Nehru-Gandhi can hold the ground.
Modi magic can change electoral trend in HP

The Modi model of governance and well-oiled BJP are on course to change the electoral trend in Himachal Pradesh.

According to analysts, Himachal Pradesh will be the first battleground state for the Modi-led BJP to take on the Congress. The BJP will contest the elections with it's full might and the Congress will be fielding a star performers from its list of 212 leaders. Many political experts feel that this election is being considered as a test case for the country's political scenario. This is also an occasion to test the level of voting for Modi as an individual leader. This election is important for both the ruling parties and for the Indian electorate.

HP, which has been a Congress bastion for decades, will be a battlefield for the Modi model of governance and the BJP's well-oiled machinery. The BJP has been making efforts to bring in a new face and a fresh viewpoint in the state. The party has been focusing on the issues of corruption, unemployment, and the slowdown in the economy. The BJP has also been highlighting the achievements of the Modi government, including the initiatives taken in the fields of national security, economic growth, and digital India. The party has also been emphasizing its commitment to the welfare of the masses and the development of the state.

The Congress, on the other hand, has been highlighting the failures of the Modi government, including the high unemployment rate, the slowdown in the economy, and the rise in inflation. The party has also been emphasizing its commitment to the welfare of the masses and the development of the state. The Congress has also been highlighting its efforts to bring in a new face and a fresh viewpoint in the state. The election is expected to be a close contest, with both the parties putting up a strong fight. The outcome of the election will set the tone for the future of Indian politics and will have implications for the national government and the state government. UNION STUN DORTMUND, BAYERN THRASH FREIBURG

AFRICA

Union Berlin's fairy tale run at the top of the Bundesliga table is continuing. An inheritance of a double yesterday meant the Berlin side have a two-point lead at the summit after a 3-2 victory over Borussia Dortmund goalkeepers. The win is a stunning start to the new campaign for Union, who have now won five of their six games this season. The Berlin side have scored 16 goals in their opening six games and have only conceded nine.

Two first-half goals from Janik Haberer, who dropped in for injured Varane, set the Union up for a famous win against a team that was considered to be one of the Bundesliga's strongest sides. Union's tactics were simple but effective. They pressed high up the field, forcing Dortmund into errors and capitalizing on them. The Berlin side's defending was solid, with Haberer making several crucial saves to keep the scoreline in their favor. The victory is a massive boost for Union, who have been one of the surprise packages of the season so far. They now have a three-point lead over Bayern Munich and third-placed Borussia Dortmund.

In contrast, Bayern Munich, who were seeking to extend their winning streak, had a disappointing day. They failed to create many chances and were often forced to defend deep. Robert Lewandowski, who was expected to be the difference maker, struggled to find his rhythm and was unable to convert any of the few opportunities that came his way.

Bayern's performance was a stark contrast to their recent form. They had won their previous three matches without conceding a goal, but against Union they were unable to find a way through. The result is a blow to their title aspirations, and they will now have to regroup and focus on their next game against Bayer Leverkusen.

INDIANS UP FOR TOUGH CHALLENGE IN ASIAN CUP

PTI

Indian shuttlers in an absence of injured PV Sindhu will be up for a tough challenge against Indonesia in the semi-finals of the 2023 Asian Cup at the Badminton Asia Championships. The tie will also mark a milestone for India in the history of the event as it will be the first time they will be up against Indonesia in the semi-finals.

The Indian team, which has a strong pool of talent, including Sai Praneeth, Srikanth, and Kidambi Srikanth, will be looking to continue their dominance in the badminton scene. On the other hand, Indonesia has a young and talented squad, led by Anthony Ginting and Jonatan Christie.

The tie will be a test of India's resilience and ability to handle pressure. The Indian team will need to be at their best to overcome the challenge posed by Indonesia. The match is scheduled to take place on Friday and will be an important stepping stone for India's journey in the Asian Cup.
