Guv promised to end stalemate in 2 days: Delegation

PRANAV PRATYUSH ■ RANCHI

t a time when more than  ${f A}$ half of its MLAs are camping in Chhattisgarh fearing poaching attempts in Jharkhand, a delegation of United Progressive Alliance (UPA) on Thursday met Governor Ramesh Bais at Raj Bhawan urging him to clear confusion over the Election Commission's letter on Chief Minister Hemant Soren's office

According to a press release from Raj Bhawan, the Governor assured the delegation to take appropriate action on the issue "soon".

The delegation, which included Congress MPs Dheeraj Sahu and Geeta Koda JMM MPs Vijay Hansda and Mahua Maji, former MLA Bandhu Tirkey, and other leaders of the JMM and the RJD, submitted a memorandum to the Governor stating that the media reports on disqualification of Soren's membership of House are creating confusion and anarchy in the State. The UPA members said that the situation arising out of unconfirmed media reports and the BJP leaders' statements demanding resignation of Soren is disturbing the day-today functioning and administration of the Government.

They also said that disqualification of Soren will not affect the Government in the State as the ruling coalition has enough number of MLAs to prove majority in the House.

The delegation urged the Governor, being the Constitutional head of the State, to end the confusion by making public the Election Commission's opinion (if any) on the office of profit case against Soren. Working president of the the letter and its intent since the Jharkhand Pradesh Congress Committee Tirkey said the Governor has assured to end the stalemate by making the issue clear within two days.

He further said that the UPA will reveal its strategy as per the need and situation in the coming days.

Notably, this is for the first time after a week that the Governor confirmed receiving the letter from EC as there was no official word from the Raj Bhawan or the EC about matter was reported a week back by the media.

On August 25, when the Governor was in Delhi, media reports suggested that the EC had sent its decision on the office of profit case against Soren to the Governor and had recommended disqualification of the Chief Minister from the membership of the Legislative Assembly.

However, the Governor feigned ignorance about the letter upon his arrival in Ranchi Continued on Page 2

The process of new political polarisation and formation of new alliances that the nation witnessing now is the fallout of the war on corruption unleashed by the Central investigation agencies on certain politicians, said Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday.

Addressing BJP workers who had thronged the Cochin Airport to welcome him on his arrival at Kochi for a two-day visit, the PM said the new combination is an attempt to save those enmeshed in corruption and those facing corruption

"It is the anti-corruption steps initiated by the Centre that has resulted in some political parties scurrying for cover and new polarisation. In my speech to the nation from Red Fort on the 75th anniversary of Independence Day, I mentioned about the uncompromising war against corruption. This has upset corrupt leaders who are busy forming new permutations and combinations of political alliances," said the PM

Modi said the nation is on a new path of progress and development. "The NDA Government at the Centre is setting up medical colleges in each district of the country.

Desperate Kejriwal making false accusations, says LG

Delhi Lieutenant Governor Vinai Kumar Saxena on Thursday broke his silence on corruption charges levelled against him by AAP leaders and hit back at Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal saying he is resorting to "diversionary tactics and false accusations" out of "desperation".

The LG tweeted he would not be surprised if in the coming days more such "baseless, personal attacks" were made against him and his family.

"I called for good governance, zero tolerance to corruption and better services for the people of Delhi," Saxena, sharing a brief statement on Twitter, said.

The LG's response came on allegations by AAP leaders that he put pressure on his staff to convert demonetised currency when he was the chairman of the Khadi and Village Industries Commission

The relations between the two constitutional authorities in the national Capital worsened after Saxena recommended a CBI probe into alleged irregularities in the implementation of the Arvind Kejriwal Government's Excise Policy 2021-22

Earlier in the day, Kejriwal, responding to a question on the LG deciding to initiate legal action against AAP leaders, said, "I believe if we have joined the public life, we should be ready for any probe. Manish us, we will see what legal action

The LG said in another tweet, "Abiding by the Constitution and my duties towards the people of Delhi, I flagged the issues, including grave anomalies in Excise Policy later withdrawn by the Cabinet headed by CM @ArvindKejriwal himself, inordinate delay of 2.5 years in acting on CVC report on irregularities in construction of class rooms in Delhi Govt Schools."

"Files not being signed by CM @ArvindKejriwal, CAG audits not being conducted timely in State universities, Cabinet notes reaching me after Cabinet meetings, and non-availability of water in Foreign Missions, among others. I had expected @ArvindKejriwal to address these in the right spirit," he further said.

Karnataka seer held in rape case

Sharanaru, the chief pontiff of Murugha Math booked under the POCSO Act for alleged sexual abuse of high school girls was arrested on Thursday, police sources said. After interrogation since Thursday evening, he has been taken into custody by the police, sources said, adding that due procedures are being followed The Mysuru city police on Saturday had filed an FIR against the seer under the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act and certain sections of the Indian Penal Code for the alleged sexual abuse. The FIR was registered against a total of five people, including the warden of the monastery's hostel, based on the complaint by an officer of the District Child Protection

Unit. Police questioned the warden earlier in the day.

The seer was subsequent-ly booked under the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act as well. He had earlier claimed the allegations against him were part of a longdrawn conspiracy and that he was law-abiding and would cooperate in the probe. Earlier on Thursday, the anticipatory bail plea moved by the seer was adjourned to September 2, by a local court.

There have been protests demanding for the seer's immediate arrest following the alleged delay by the police. Police have made elaborate security arrangements in Chitradurga.

SC to MHA: Seek States' reports on attacks on Christian bodies

PNS NEW DELHI

The Supreme Court on Thursday asked the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) to seek reports from States, including UP, Madhya Pradesh, Haryana, Karnataka, Odisha, Chhattisgarh, and Jharkhand, on attacks on Christian institutions, as alleged in a PIL. Earlier, the MHA affidavit said the PIL is based on wrong reports as many charges were not correct.

A bench of Justices DY Chandrachud and Hima Kohli said an attack on individuals does not mean it is an attack on the community but it needs to verify the claims of any such incident if it is made in the public interest litigation (PIL). Continued on Page 2

In a response to their first petition in December 2016, the DoPT clarified that the foreign service was created in 1946 and since then IFS is being used for the cadre, whereas the forest service came into existence much later in 1966. But now the association has dished out notifications that forest service cadre was created in 1916, and the first batch of forest officer probationers in 1920 were termed as IFS. # Dumka redux in Delhi: Three held for shooting at girl

The schoolgirl had met the accused on social media a few years ago and he decided to kill her after she cut ties with him

SHEKHAR SINGH NEW DELHI

Just days after a schoolgirl in Jharkhand's Dumka district was burnt to death by a man whose proposal she rejected, a 16-year-old girl in Delhi was 16-year-old girl in Delhi was 16-year-old girl in Delhi was 18-year-old girl in Delhi was 18-yearshot at by a 19-year-old man after she decided to end her association with him. Police have nabbed the main accused and his two associates who had allegedly hatched the conspiracy to kill her in South

BJP MLAs protest outside CM house on expulsion from Assembly

STAFF REPORTER ■ NEW DELHI

Delhi BJP MLAs on Thursday staged a sit-in outside Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal's residence and raised slogans after they were unconstitutionally expelled from the proceedings of the Assembly for the fifth day running.

The MLAs sat for two hours in front of the Chief Minister's house. Those on dharna included Leader of Opposition (LoP), Ramvir Singh Bidhuri, Mohan Singh Bisht, Vijender Gupta, Om Prakash Sharma, Jitendra Mahajan among others. Ramvir Singh Bidhuri said that the Opposition members were not allowed to speak for five days in the Assembly ses-

"If they have done good work in health and education, they should discuss it in the House. Why did they run away from discussing the issue in the House. The interesting part is that the ruling party MLAs were indulged in disrupting the proceedings," Bidhuri said. Earlier three BJP MLAs were marshalled out of the argument with Deputy Speaker Rakhi Birla who refused to accept their demand for a calling attention motion prior to debate and voting on the trust motion by Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal. The rest of the BJP MLAs walked out of the House soon after this.

Earlier, Rakhi Birla had insisted that no calling attention motion notice would be taken up till the debate and voting on confidence motion concluded. Protesting against it, the LoP said there were a lot of issues to be discussed in the Assembly

"There is shortage of drinking water, Delhi is the world's most polluted Capital city and there are health-related problems," he said.

He said there was no need to enact a "drama" to prove Arvind Kejriwal enjoyed the support of 62 AAP MLAs.

Birla said the confidence motion was important considering "whatever has happened in Opposition-ruled States". All issues of the Opposition will be taken up once the confidence motion process is completed, she said.

When Opposition members did not relent, Birla ordered that BJP MLAs Vijender Gupta, Abhay Verma marshalled out. The rest of the BJP MLAs walked out of the Assembly soon after The special session of the House was postponed sine die by the Deputy Speaker after a vote division, in which 58 MLAs voted in favour of the Kejriwal Government. "The MLAs of the Opposition party also staged a sit-in outside the Chief Minister's residence in protest over muzzling of their voice in Assembly and the corruption in the Kejriwal Government, said BJP MLA Vijender Gupta.

Earlier in the morning hundreds of workers of the BJP staged a massive protest outside Delhi Assembly, demanding the resignation of Arvind Kejriwal and his Deputy Manish Sisodia in alleged liquor and education scam.

Kejriwal's party is biggest paltu party in 3K-4K years of human history: Patra

STAFF REPORTER ■ NEW DELHI

The BJP on Thursday called Arvind Kejriwal's Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) the biggest "The drama begins again," said BJP spokesperson Sambit Patra, ridiculing Kejriwal's comment that AAP's vote share has risen in Gujarat after CBI raids against his Deputy Manish Sisodia.

Addressing a press conference at the BJP headquarters, Patra attacked Kejriwal for saying that AAP is the political party which has suffered the most in Indian history, calling it a "U-turn" party. "Kejriwal ji is wrong when he says that AAP suffered most. In fact, Kejriwal's party is the biggest U-turn or Paltu party in the 3,000-4,000 years of human history," Patra said. Citing the documents of the Delhi Government, Patra claimed that under the old liquor policy, retail stores were receiving ₹33 while ₹330 was going to the Government's coffer on sale of each bottle of whiskey.

But, under the new policy, liquor stores started receiving ₹363 while the Government got only ₹8, he said.

Patra also alleged that the AAP Government "waived ₹144 crore for liquor barons," owed the they Government, but failed to purchase home tickets for migrant workers who were stranded in the city during the Covidinduced lockdown.

Patra said that whenever a corrupt leader of AAP is caught, their drama starts, with Kejriwal saying that there is no Minister more honest than Satyendra Jain.

When Jain was about to be arrested, he was completely immersed in corruption, his investigation was going on, then also Kejriwal was gave the exact same speech," he said.

wo black boxes, placed Two black boxes, partial for inside the now-demolished twin towers in Noida for Central Building Research Institute (CBRI) research purposes, have been recovered while discussions continued on Thursday over the ongoing repairs in ATS Village and Emerald Court societies.

According to a senior official, while the complete postdemolition structural audit of the critical residential towers located within 50 metres of the twin towers is yet to be done, around one dozen window panes in Emerald Court and three dozen in ATS Village developed cracks and were being repaired. A nine-metre stretch of a boundary wall was damaged and it also came to light that some common areas and residential towers in the critical zone had developed "cosmetic cracks", the official said. "Two black boxes which were placed inside the twin towers at the research purposes have been recovered. There are eight more black boxes that are yet to be recovered," Dr Debi Prasanna Kanungo, Senior Principal Scientist at CBRI, said. "Other instruments like seismographs, thermal imaging cameras, photos and videos taken using drones that were deployed in surrounding areas of the twin towers are already with CBRI and the information collected by them is being analysed.

The findings will help us in future studies," the scientist said. Black box is an electronic device generally placed inside aircraft to record sound. They are widely used for their indestructible nature and research purposes. Meanwhile, officials of

BSES inks MoU with AI company Bidgely for reducing power theft

STAFF REPORTER | NEW DELHI

The BSES on Thursday signed a Memorandum of understanding (MoU) with Bidgely, a global artificial intelligence (AI)-powered solutions company to develop AI-based solutions to detect and check the theft of electricity rampant across the network for further reduction in Aggregate Technical & Commercial (AT&C) losses.

According to a senior BSES official, BSES has been at the forefront of driving energy efficiency, energy conservation and digital transformation by deploying emerging technologies."Initially this will be implemented in the identified BSES Rajdhani Power Limited (BRPL) areas of South and West Delhi, the program may also be rolled-out in East and Central Delhi depending on the results," he informed.

"Under the MoU, BSES Rajdhani Power Limited (BRPL) and Bidgely will collaborate in the development and implementation of scalable AI-based solutions to enhance operational efficiencies in several areas including, AT & C loss reduction/power-theft detection, short-term load forecasting solutions based on historical time series data, weather and network related inputs,"

"Detection and profiling of electric vehicles (EV) and solar rooftop PV and energy efficiency through customised energy saving insights for consumers. It will also enable BRPL to leverage Bidgely's strengths and benefit from their global experience and expertise in these and related areas," he added Speaking on the partnership, Bidgely's Chief Revenue Officer, Gautam Aggarwal said that Bidgely is honored to deploy its AI-powered solutions in ways that help BSES meaningfully connect with customers and prevent revenue losses associated with energy

With much of our workforce - including our data scientists and research and development teams - in India, we have deep knowledge not only of BSES' most pressing challenges but also the most effective ways to overcome them.

Tipplers complain of popular liquor brands missing SAURAV GUPTA NEW DELHI

As Delhi returned to the old Excise Policy on Thursday, which saw the exit of private players from retail business, many Government-run retail shops reported an empty look with most of the popular brands missing from the shelves, thus leaving tipplers disappointed as they had to return empty-handed.

Some of them also complained that unlike in the earlier Excise Policy which now stands scrapped following alleged "irregularities," there was no discount on liquor available in the current policy.

The liquor-vend operators assured that the process is likely to get streamlined in the coming days once supply smoothens. The liquor vends were also seen stocking the booze as the supply arrived late. However, customers complained that some of the most popular brands such as Royal Stag, Royal Challenge, Blenders Pride etc. beers, wines and rum were not available in the liquor stores. Sanjay Sharma, owner of a liquor vend, said that the supply was very less, due to which there was very limited purchase options. Several brands were also not available with the suppliers.

"More supply is likely in coming days, but things will take time to normalize. Also, no discounts are available on the sale of liquor. Every customer's first question is if any liquor," he said.

Another retail liquor store owner, who did not wish to be named, said that there were very limited options available as far as the brands were concerned, and that too were in a very less quantity. "The stock is awaited, and it is likely to reach soon. We are sitting idle since morning as the brands are not available. The customers are also going empty handed," he rued. Unlike in a past few days, this time no long queues of tipplers were seen in the city.

stocked the liquor at the discounted prices. Abhijit Bhasin, a booze lover, said, "My favorite brand is not available at the liquor shop. I had to return empty handed. I did not stock any liquor at the time of discount offer as that time also my brand was not available. "I had great expectation

Most of them had already this time, but in vain. I hope things will normalize soon," Bhasin said. Shubham Sharma and Chaitnaya Arora, who also came to purchase the liquor, too shared similar story saying that they were looking for the Royal Stag, but instead end up purchasing Royal Green, the only brand available.

'The beers of our choice were not available and the shop owners had no clue about the stock arrival. Plus, there is no discount available now and we have to buy the liquor at the old prices. This means shelling out more," they said.

Liquor vends to rise to 500 by month end NEW DELHI: On the non-availability of liquor stock on the first day of the implementation of the old Excise Policy in Delhi and the opening of Government liquor shops, Director General, Confederation of Indian Beverage Alcoholic Companies (CIABC) Vinod Giri, on Thursday said that by the end of the month the number of liquor vends will rise to 500.

"On the positive side, most major L1 licences are in place. Many brands are already supplied to and available in retail vends. However, consumers may find some popular products, especially imported ones, missing on shelves as they are still under process," he said.

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE

With G-23 members of Congress stepping up pressure on the party ahead of a series of important programmes like Mehengai Par Halla Bol Rally on Sunday, followed by Bharat Iodo Yatra and the presidential polls, a demand has been raised to take action against senior leaders Bhupinder Hooda and Prithviraj Chavan who met Ghulam Nabi Azad days after he quit the party.

Hooda on his part distanced himself from the controversy saying he has been with the Gandhi family for long and their demands have been accepted with an election being held for the party president.

The former Haryana Chief Minister said he and his colleagues in the Congress have suggested Azad to avoid saying things that create bitterness among the partymen.

officials said. Khaitan, who was also charge-sheeted in the Agusta Westland VVIP Chopper purchase case, was questioned for nearly four days by CBI officials following his arrest on August 25. He was subsequently his CBI remand was over they said. Khaitan was allegedly instrumental in moving the alleged bribe money to India through circuitous transaction using different companies abroad and in India, they said. The agency had booked UK-based arms dealer Vipin Khanna and two companies— Brazil-based Embraer and Singaporebased Interdev Pte Ltd in connection with the alleged corruption in the deal inked on July 3, 2008.

It is alleged that the kickbacks were allegedly routed from subsidiaries of Embraer to Khanna through Interdev to be used for influencing officials in the Defence Ministry and the Defence Research and Development Organisation (DRDO).

The agency had registered a Preliminary Enquiry in September, 2016 after the report in a Brazilian newspaper alleged that Embraer had used the services of middlemen to clinch deals in Saudi Arabia and India.

According to defence procurement rules here, middlemen are barred in such deals.

The PE had found that due to alleged mediation by Khanna, DRDO officials moved a proposal for the purchase of aircraft from Embraer on a single vendor basis after which the enquiry was converted into an FIR in October, 2016. It was also alleged that in lieu of facilitating the agreement/deal between Brazil-based firm and DRDO (India), the firm paid an amount of USD 5.76 millio to the said middleman (Khanna) through Singapore-based company during the year 2009," the CBI spokesperson had said after filing of the FIR.

Centre taking back PM-KISAN money from farmers: Cong

The Congress on Thursday claimed that the Centre is issuing notices to farmers deemed ineligible under the PM-KISAN scheme to take back the money disbursed to them, and demanded the recovery from "poor annadaatas" be immediately stopped. The Opposition party said that while the government is "waiving lakhs of crores" worth of loans of its industrialist friends, it is taking back money from Addressing a press conference at the AICC headquarters, spokesperson Akhilesh Pratap Singh said that by declaring the farmers ineligible under the Kisan Samman Nidhi, the central government has started the action of taking back the money. "Instead of Kisan Samman Nidhi, this has become 'Kisan Apman Nidhi'. The government, which is waiving lakhs of crores of loans of its industrialist friends, is taking back the money given to the poor 'annadaatas' of the country...," Singh said. In 2019, when the Modi government started PM-Kisan Samman Nidhi before the Lok Sabha elections, it "hastily" took bank account numbers of farmers so that money reached them before the polls, he alleged.

'Now the central government is saying that those who are not eligible for this and have received the amount under the Kisan Samman Nidhi should return the money. The government is also sending notices to farmers for taking back the money. The process of recovery by declaring about two crore farmers ineligible across the country should be immediately stopped," Singh said.

Yogi orders action against 73 officers for failing to resolve people's plaints

hief Minister Yogi Adityanath ordered action against 73 officers who failed to resolve people's problems and were slow in implementing his

A senior official told The Pioneer on Thursday that Yogi took action against the officers found indulging in obstruction of justice. "Notices have been issued to 73 officers who performed the worst in resolving people's problems. The action was suggested when they failed to give satisfactory answers," the official said.

Among the officers who have been issued notices are 10 departmental heads, five commissioners, 10 DMs, five vice-chairmen of the development authorities, five municipal commissioners, and 10 tehsil officials. Besides, the official said that clarification was sought from three ADGs, five IGs and DIGs, the heads of three police commissionerates, SSPs and SPs, and the heads of 10 police stations. Yogi had earlier ordered officials concerned to submit a report on the complaints received, resolved along with action taken under Thana/Tehsil Diwas. In the directive, he had said that resolving every grievance was the utmost priority of the government.

"The CM had asked the officials to submit a detailed report regarding complaints received, resolved, and pending cases on the Integrated Grievance Redressal System (IGRS), tehsils and police stations without delay. Those who failed to do so were punished," the official said.

UPSSF to guard Yogi CM office

The Uttar Pradesh Special Security Force (UPSSF) has been tasked with guarding the Chief Minister's Office (Lok Bhawan). UPSSF personnel have been deployed at all the three gates of Lok Bhawan. All these jawans are equipped with state-of-the-art weapons.

Till now, UP Police and UP Secretariat security personnel were deployed in the security of Lok Bhavan. A unit of UPSSF has been prepared and 52 personnel deployed for the purpose. DCP (Central Lucknow) Aparna Rajat Kaushik said Lucknow police and PAC had reviewed the security of Lok Bhawan on Wednesday, After the review, it was decided that the UPSSF would guard all the three entry gates of Lok Bhawan.

A unit of UPSSF was deployed on Thursday.

The unit comprises eight sub-inspectors and 48 constables. They will be posted in two shifts. The DCP said that the UPSSF personnel deployed at Lok Bhawan have advanced versions of later security gadgets. She said the personnel of UP Police, Arms Force and PAC have been included in this force. All the personnel were imparted a 90-day training in Sitapur. The Uttar Pradesh government has formed a special security force for security of major places of the state.

The new study, however, has identified a new problem. Conducted on fruit flies, the study suggests that our basic cellular functions could be impacted by the blue light emitted by these devices. These results are published in 'Frontiers in Aging'.

"Excessive exposure to blue light from everyday devices, such as TVs, laptops, and phones, may have detrimental effects on a wide range of cells in our body, from skin and fat cells, to sensory neurons," said Dr Jadwiga Ġiebultowicz, a professor at the Department of Integrative Biology at Oregon State University and senior author of this study.

'We are the first to show that the levels of specific metabolites - chemicals that are essential for cells to function correctly - are altered in fruit flies exposed to blue light."

"Our study suggests that avoidance of excessive blue light exposure may be a good antiaging strategy," advised Giebultowicz. The researchers at Oregon State University have

To understand why highenergy blue light is responsible for accelerating aging in fruit flies, we compared the levels of metabolites in flies exposed to blue light for two weeks to those kept in complete darkness," explained Giebultowicz.

PAPER WITH PASSION

Uphill task

KCR meets Nitish but a lot more needs to be done, in the former's words, for 'a BIP-mukt Bharat' elangana Chief Minister K Chandrashekar Rao's visit to Patna and his meeting with his Bihar counterpart Nitish Kumar have occasioned speculation about a joint front by Opposition parties to take on the Bharatiya Janata Party in the general elections in 2024. In fact, the joint press conference by the two stalwarts has already resulted in a viral video in which Rao is urging Kumar to keep answering questions, saying "Aap baithiye na (please sit)," whereas Kumar wants to wind it up, "Aap chaliye na (let's go)." The BJP was quick to react to the slight different in approach between the two Chief Ministers over answering the questions of journalists. Its IT Cell chief Amit Malviya claimed that KCR was "insulted." Such a harsh remark is indicative of the saffron party's unease over the coming together of two Chief Ministers. Despite the bonhomie between the two leaders, posing a serious challenge to the BJP in 2024 is an uphill task. For one, under Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Home Minister Amit Shah the BJP has become a formidable election-winning machine. Even the critics of the BJP's big two acknowledge that they and their party colleagues are assiduous politicians, working consistently and diligently for the success of their party. BJP leaders don't leave any stone unturned.

Then there is the issue of unity among Opposition leaders. Disarray in the Congress is well known. Rahul Gandhi and other dynasts seem determined to make Modi's dream of Congress-mukt Bharat a reality. And yet the grand old party, despite its meager presence in the Lok Sabha, is the only party other than the BJP that has a national footprint; it also has a 19.5 per cent vote share. But there is no consensus among Opposition leaders regarding the role of the grand old party in the proposed non-BJP front. Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee is not favourably disposed towards the Congress. Her Delhi counterpart, Arvind Kejriwal, has also not shown much enthusiasm about a non-BJP coalition; he is busy on an expansion drive. There is still talk about a third front—that is, an alliance of non-Congress and non-BJP parties. KCR, however, is clear on the subject. He said, "Why third front? We are working on the main front... All opposition parties should come together and raise the slogan for a BJP-mukt Bharat..." Further, it will be very difficult for one of the leaders of the Opposition to be accepted as the prime ministerial face, as Modi's challenger. Kumar, after his recent political somersault in which he dumped the BJP and realigned with the RJD, is seen by many as a frontrunner, but he has to travel a lot of distance. Also, he has to convince a lot of people that he can not only take on Modi successfully but also run a government in a manner that would be acceptable to all. He has a long way to go.

Adieu Gorbachev!

Gorbachev would be judged in many ways but his single most important contribution remains ending the Cold War ikhail Gorbachev, 91, credited with the end of the Cold War and giving right to self-determination to Eastern Europe, is no more. Gorbachev, the last Soviet Union President, removed the 'iron curtain' from Eastern Europe. His initiatives glasnost and perestroika ushered in a new era of openness and reforms which changed the course of events of the Soviet Union and for that matter entire world. His reforms were so overwhelming that the Soviet empire could not survive them and fell like a house of cards. Indeed, different people would judge him differently. Yuval Noah Harare, the well-known contemporary historian, holds him as an outstanding leader who risked everything to bring about a better and safer world free of nuclear danger. On the other end of the spectrum, President Vladimir Putin though expressed "his deepest condolences" on his demise has called the dismantling of the Soviet Union as "greatest geopolitical catastrophe" of the twentieth century and blamed Gorbachev for it.

He went on to say that he would reverse the Soviet Union's disintegration if he could. While the Western leaders all praise him, including Joe Biden and Boris Johnson, the reactions back home have been mixed and some even outright slander. The reforms brought about by Gorbachev meant a lot of misery for the common people as the transition from a closed economy to an open one was not a happy experience. Besides, the people who cherished Russian nationalism saw him as a person who deliberately dismantled the Union. For them, he remains a fall guy. In fact, the last days of Gorbachev must have been rather painful as he saw his ideals thrown to the winds by the incumbent Russian President. The attack on Ukraine would have been a nightmare for him. The peace he stood for was being blown to pieces in his last days. And he could not do anything about it.As people judge him by their own standards, the Nobel Peace Prize winner would quietly rest till eternity. Gorbachev will be buried in Moscow's Novodevichy Cemetery next to his wife Raisa, who died in 1999. The world would ever be indebted to him for giving peace a chance and standing for humanity risking everything! Perhaps, Ruslan Grinberg, a liberal economist summed it up best, "He gave us all freedom — but we don't know what to do with it!"

Community radio helps fight disasters BRIJENDER SINGH

As most people still live in rural areas, community radio can be the best way to reach out to them in times of catastrophe

ue to its unique geo-graphical and socio-economic factors, India is prone to almost all types of hazards and disasters. About 59 per cent of Indian landmass is prone to earthquakes of moderate to very high density. Close to 5,700 Km out of the total 7,516 Km long coastline receive cyclones and tsunamis. Approximately 12 per cent,i.e. over 40 million hectares of landmass face urban floods and river erosion. 68 per cent of India's cultivable area is vulnerable to droughts and the hilly areas are at risk from landslides and avalanches. India is also vulnerable to chemical, biological, radiological, and nuclear (CBRN) emergencies and other man-made disasters. Disaster risks in India are further compounded by increasing vulnerabilities related to changing demographics and socio-economic conditions, unplanned urbanization, development within highrisk zones, environmental degradation, climate change, geographical hazards, epidemics, and pandemics. According to the World Bank estimates, direct losses from natural disasters have been estimated to amount to up to 2 per cent of India's GDP. It is ranked 7thin the Global Climate Risk Index 2021.

The large-scale disasters mentioned above keep on visiting one part or the other or the country, time and again, often overwhelming the capacities of the Governments, not only for an effective response but also for long-term recovery and reconstruction. During these disasters, the role of timely communication and passing on crucial information before striking disaster (pre-disaster), at the time of disaster (during a disaster), and after the disaster (post-disaster) is very important. Past experiences indicate that the communication infrastructure and networks during times of disasters are destroyed and become ineffective. However, the medium of radio, especially the Community radios survive the onslaught to play a crucial role in disseminating timely information in their communities and thereby saving lives natural disasters and emerand valuables. Disaster manage-

The role of Community Radios is tremendous in natural calamities. A community radio station with a reach of 15-20 Km becomes highly powerful with the integration of mobile telephony in real-time. Community Radio stations function with the basic belief, "from the people, for the people, by the people". In this sense, community radios are an effective communication tool to reach out and serve the poorest community and share vital information their languages/dialects. The community radios are also significant for development initiatives, awareness campaigns for nature conservation, agriculture, regional culture, and education, contributing to munity. During the time of gencies, it has proved to be community engagement and participation-based disaster management.

HOWEVER, THE PARTICIPATION. INVOLVEMENT AND OWNERSHIP OF THE LOCAL COMMUNITY ARE EXTREMELY IMPORTANT FOR THE EFFECTIVE ROLE OF COMMUNITY RADIO IN DISASTER MANAGEMENT the most effective means to disseminate preparedness and relief-related information packed in their dialect. It helps in developing strategies and building awareness so that the communities can prepare better in advance, at the time of disaster and after the disaster. There are some instances in Japan and other countries in which community radios became the prime vehicle for information sharing for communities during disaster emergency relief as well as post-disaster recovery. Community radios also play an important role in disaster risk reduction, especially in pre-disaster preparedness and mitigation through awareness raising, and targeting different community groups.

However, the participation, involvement, and ownership of the local community are extremely important for the effective role of community radio in disaster management. This can be demonstrated in two instances. In 2004, during the Indian Ocean Tsunami, Anna Community Radio in Chennai which was the first Community Radio in the country provided an effective platform to share the grievances of the affected people of Southern India by broadcasting information about relief support, camp locations, precautions to be taken, etc. Another instance was in June 2013, when Uttrakhand faced multi-day cloudbursts. There was a state of panic because all modes of communication were lost. This natural disaster demonstrated the effectiveness of community radio as a tool of effective communication in disaster management in Rudraprayag district which was the most affected area. The community radio Mandakini Ki Awaaz worked with the People's Power Collective, assisted the community by building awareness, created confidence amongst the community.

They worked as a team to identify those who needed help within the community; connected with them to tell their story; reached out to them and connected them with aid agencies.

ABUSING HUMANITY & THE LAW

— The horrible video on social media where a tribal woman is telling her horrific experience with BJP leader Seema Patra, who tortured the tribal domestic help, makes one cringe. If this video wouldn't surface on social media. Patra would have continued with her ways. Patra even fled fearing police arrest, following which the Argora police in Ranchi launched a search operation and arrested her. Sunita, the domestic help, was made to clean the toilet with her tongue. This is the height of inhumanity; Patra and her husband must be tried and severely punished under all appropriate sections of the law. Sunita had multiple wounds on her body. She alleged that Patra used to burn her with hot objects. Acting on a tip-off from a Government employee, the Ranchi Police had rescued Sunita from Patra's residence and recorded the help's statement on August 30. A case has been registered against Patra, wife of former IAS officer Maheshwar Patra, under the relevant sections of IPC and sections of the SC/ST Act, 1989. Sunita's statement was recorded in court, after which the BJP suspended Seema Patra. However, she deserves more severe punishment for misusing her position.

UN INDICTS CHINA ON HUMAN RIGHTS

Sir — Finally, after more than one year, the UN Head of Human Rights commissioner, Michele Bachelet, released her 50page report on Wednesday, which was also her last day in office. Though China made a huge effort to stop it, it could not succeed. The United Nations also acknowledged what, for many years, human rights organisations around the world have been saying: China continues to commit 'serious' human rights violations against Uighurs and other predominantly Muslim minorities in the name of terrorism. China is running a concentration camp for the Uighurs just as Nazi Germany used to run for the Jews.

AAP leaders versus L-G

ather than between AAP and the BJP, the feud between AAP leaders and Delhi Lieutenant Governor V K Saxena has been hotting up. Manish Sisodia is embroiled in the excise policy scam. To wriggle out of the raging criticism of irregularities in the policv. AAP has levelled ₹1.400-crore corruption charges against Saxena, who was then the Khadi and Village Industries Commission chairman. Saxena has rejected the charge as "figment of imagination". Counter-charges cannot drown charges until such charges are found baseless in an impartial judicial enquiry or in the court of law

The silence of AAP leaders until the charges against Sisodia reached a crescendo itself gives room for suspicion on the allegation against the Lt Governor. People are entitled to know the truth. Saxena has been contemplating legal action against Jasmine Shah. who is the vice-chairman of Delhi's Dialogue and Development Commission. It is common experience that some political leaders do not make allegations against others until allegations are made against them. It is like "You don't expose me, I won't expose you. If you expose me, I will also expose you." If Saxena is not guilty of the charges levelled against him, he must disprove these. At the same time, if the allegations are found to be baseless, those making baseless charges must be penalised heavily by the courts. KV Seetharamaiah | Bengaluru

They were badly tortured, told to convert, punished for praying, their women were sexually harassed, they were forcibly sterilised. China has been claiming that people are kept in 're-education camps', not concentration camps where they are given training. But this white lie of China has now come in front of the world. But the sad point is that this report is not binding on the Chinese Government. It will be discussed in the media for just two days. After that, everything will be normal and the Uighurs will continue to be tortured.

WORLD COCONUT DAY TODAY

Sir — The World Coconut Day is observed on September 2 every year to create awareness about the importance of coconuts across the world. Coconut in India is referred to as 'kalpavriksha', which means a tree fulfilling all the necessities of life. There is a lot of significance of coconut in Hinduism and even its tree in rituals and ceremonies. In other countries it is also called the 'Tree of a thousand uses' or the 'Tree of life'. Coconut made its way from India to the coast of East Africa, and from Southeast Asia to the west of Madagascar. Coconuts provide us with a vast range of products and benefits. The tender white flesh inside is used in an array of cooking recipes and the oil, milk and water are used for both cooking and non-cooking purposes. Coconut butter, coconut cream and coconut oil are staple byproducts used in beauty products, and the husk and leaves are used for making doormats. roofs and huts. The first observance of World Coconut Day took place in 2009. Every year, the International Coconut Community sets a theme for World Coconut Day; this year, it is "Growing Coconut for a Better Future and Life".

He disproved the doomsayers and triumphantly adorned that chair thrice, beginning 1996, even if for two short spells before he led the 26-party National Democratic Alliance to a full five-year term in office in 1999. His resilience in politics was truly remarkable for he took his party out of its nadir after 1984 when it was down to an abysmal two seats in the Lok Sabha. Despite himself losing his seat in that poll in the wake of the emotional outpouring over Indira Gandhi's assassination, Atal Bihari led his party to an emphatic nationwide triumph in 12 years.

This he achieved along with his lifelong companion and political cohort, Lal Krishna Advani, whose selfless association with Atalji is a rare instance of political camaraderie. # It's back to school in Ukraine, but far from normal

→he first day of school in Ukraine on Thursday won't include children sharing memories of fun vacations with their families. Their stories are of surviving war.

For many, their last day of school was the day before the February 24 Russian invasion of their country.

At least 379 children have been killed since the war began, while the whereabouts of 223 others are unknown, according to Ukraine's General Prosecutors office.

Another 7,013 children were among Ukrainians forcibly transferred to Russia from Russian-occupied areas.

Some children were forced to flee their hometowns to avoid bombardment, some spent weeks in base-

And while those in so-called "safe" regions sometimes managed to study online, classes were frequently interrupted by air raid sirens.

2,400 schools across the country, including 269 that were destroyed, according to Ukrainian officials.

"It does become kind of the new normal for children, which I think, as I said, (is) very concerning as well because that's not the way children should go through life, thinking that they are going to get attacked at any moment," UNICEF Executive Director Catherine M Russell, told The Associated Press.

Civilian areas and schools continue to be hit, and children keep being killed. But after the first months of shock, 51 per cent of schools in Ukraine, despite the risk, are reopening to in-person education, with an option to study online if the parents

Russell said she'd never before seen schools functioning entirely underground to protect students.

"You know, usually you have windows, you can see outside. These kids don't have that luxury and they are just, they are becoming accustomed to that lifestyle of having to be sheltered from possible attack and that's not, that's not what any child should have to face," she said.

But the safety of children remains the priority. Schools that don't have quick access to shelters or are locatclose to the borders with Belarus and Russia, or near active military zones will only have online study.

That's the case for the 7th graders in Mykhailo-Kotsyubynske, just 20 miles (35 kilometers) from the Belarus border, who gathered at their badly damaged school on Tuesday to pick up textbooks for studying online.

While waiting, they played a version of "Truth or Lie," where players tried to guess whether their opponent's assertion about the number of missiles they saw from their window

"We haven't seen each other for such a long time. You all have grown so much," said their teacher, Olena Serdiuk, standing in a corner of the classroom, where windows were covered with thick black polythene instead of glass.

"When I'm at school, I think about the person who died in the debris. I feel deeply sorry for her," 12year-old Mykola Kravchenko said.

Their school, the biggest in the area with 407 students from Mykhailo-Kotsyubynske and nearby villages, is still badly damaged. Debris fills the second floor, and the roof and heating system still need to be repaired money the school doesn't have.

Even though they will be studying online, the students had to undergo security training on Tuesday. Serdiuk told the class to follow her to the same bomb shelter where many survived the blast in March.

"Ukrainian children are acutely aware that the world is unstable and it could be a terrible place. That brings a loss of a basic sense of safety," said adding that the uncertainty can impact their learning and emotional and social development.

Schools in the Kyiv, Lviv, and Chernivtsi regions are among those welcoming students back to classrooms on Thursday.

However, it's up to parents whether they send their children to school or opt for online education. The Kyiv and Lviv regions will host more than 7,300 displaced stu-

Shkarlet welcomed students and staff back as the new school year got underway.

"Today, we face a new important task - to ensure the acquisition of education in a safe environment and psychological stability," he said in a video posted on Telegram. "I wish for strength, perseverance and indomitability in the desire to be an educated

Enerhoatom said the International Atomic Energy Agency team, which is being led by director Rafael Grossi, arrived at the Zaporizhzhia nuclear plant that has been in the thick of recent fighting between Ukrainian and Russian forces more than six months after Russian President Vladimir Putin ordered his troops to invade Ukraine.

The company said earlier on Thursday that Russian mortar shelling had led to the shutdown of one of its reactors by its emergency protection system and had damaged a backup power supply line used for in-house needs. One of the plant's reactors that wasn't operating was switched to diesel generators, Enerhoatom said. Ukraine and Russia trade

The Zaporizhzhia plant has been occupied by Russian forces but run by Ukrainian engineers since the early days of the 6month-old war. Ukraine alleges Russia is

The Russian Defence Ministry said Ukrainian forces unleashed an artillery barrage of the area and then sent a group control of the nuclear plant.

It said the Ukrainian troops arrived in seven speedboats, landing three kilometers northeast of the plant on the left bank of the Dnieper River and tried to seize it.

The ministry said Russian forces "took steps to destroy the enemy," engaging warplanes. Russia's military said its forces also destroyed two barges carrying Ukrainian troops who attempted to land near the plant. "The provocation by the Kyiv regime is intended to derail

US: Russian military facing 'severe manpower shortage'

AP WASHINGTON

The United States has determined that Russia is suffering "severe manpower shortages" in its six-month-old war with Ukraine and has become more desperate in its efforts to find new troops to send to the front lines, according to a new American intelligence finding.
Russia is looking to address the shortage of troops in part by compelling soldiers wounded earlier in the war to return to combat, recruiting personnel from private security companies and even recruiting from prisons, according to a US official who spoke to the AP on the condition of anonymity to discuss the downgraded intelligence finding disclosed Wednesday.

The official added that the intelligence community has determined that one step that Russia's Defense Ministry is expected to take soon is recruiting convicted criminals to enlist "in exchange for pardons and financial compensation".

The US government highlighted its finding as Russian President Vladimir Putin last week ordered the Russian military to increase the number of troops by 137,000 to a total of 1.15 million. Putin's decree, which takes effect on January 1, didn't specify whether the military would beef scripts, increasing the number of volunteer soldiers or using a combination of both. But some Russian military analysts predicted it would rely heavily on volunteers, a cautious stand reflecting the Kremlin's concerns about possible fallout from an attempt to increase the draft.

The presidential decree aims to boost the overall number of Russian military personnel to 2,039,758, including 1,150,628 troops. A previous order put the military's numbers at 1,902,758 and 1,013,628, respectively, at the start of 2018.

Colin Kahl, the US Defense Department undersecretary for policy, told reporters earlier in August that the US estimates Russia took heavy casualties in the first months of the war. "There's a lot of fog in war, but I think it's safe to suggest that the Russians have probably taken 70 or 80,000 casualties in the less than six months," Kahl said. "Now, that is a combination of killed in action and wounded in action and that number might be a little lower, a little higher, but I think that's kind of in the ballpark."

The US has frequently downgraded and unveiled intelligence findings over the course of the grinding war to highlight plans for Russian misinformation operations or to throw attention on Moscow's difficulties in prosecuting its war against Ukraine, whose smaller military has put up a stiff resistance against the militarily superior Russian forces. The Biden administration unveiled findings earlier this week that Russia has faced technical problems with Iranian-made drones acquired from Tehran this month for use in its war with Russia picked up Mohajer-6 and Shahed-series month as part what the Biden administration says is likely part of a Russian plan to acquire hundreds of Iranian UAVs for use in Ukraine.

White House National Security Council spokesman John Kirby said on Wednesday that Russia has been having "some difficulties" and experiencing "the limits on some of the capabilities" of the Iranian drones since receiving

Macron vows to prevent Russia from winning war in Ukraine

French President Emmanuel Macron on Thursday pledged to keep up France's humanitarian, economic and military support to Ukraine and to bolster European unity as a way to pile pressure on Russia and prevent it from winning it war in that country.

He set the goal of enabling Ukraine to either win militarily or be put in a strong position to achieve "a negotiated peace."

Explainer: Why is China so angry over UN report on Xinjiang

hina has responded furiously to a United Nations report on alleged human rights abuses in its northwestern Xinjiang region targeting Uyghurs and other mainly Muslim ethnic minorities.

The report has been in the works for years and was released despite Chinese efforts to delay or block it, aware of how it could validate claims that more than 1 million ethnic minority members were forcibly sent to centres it says were for vocational train-

Those who were held, their relatives and monitoring groups describe them as prison-like reeducation centres where inmates were forced to denounce Islam and their traditional culture, while swearing fidelity to the ruling Communist Party.

The camps have been part of a widespread campaign of repression in Xinjiang, allegedly including involuntary sterilisations of women, forced labour, the demolition of mosques and other religious sites, the separation of Muslim children from their families and the harassment of minority members living abroad

WHERE IS XINJIANG AND WHY IS IT IMPORTANT TO CHINA?

Xinjiang is a vast but sparsely populated region of mountains, forests and deserts in far northwestern China that borders

Central Asian nations. The ancient Silk Road ran through parts of it and various nationalities and Chinese empires controlled its cities and oases over the centuries, with the Communist Party taking complete control following its 1949 victory in the Chinese civil war. The region contains a wealth of natural resources, including oil, gas and rare earth minerals, but perhaps its most important value is as a strategic buffer that extends China's influence westward. While China and Russia have largely aligned their foreign policies in recent years, Xinjiang was on the front line of their Cold War rivalry and remains important as an assertion of Chinese influence in Moscow's back yard.

CHINA'S CRACKDOWN ON MINORITIES?

Xinjiang's Uyghurs, along with the closely related Kazakh and Kyrgyz, are predominantly Turkic Muslims who are culturally, religiously, and linguisticalnant Han ethnic group. Repression under Communist rule, particularly during the violent and xenophobic 1966-1976 Cultural Revolution, stirred deep animosity in Xinjiang toward the government, aggravated further by the migration of Han to the region and their domination of political and economic life.

Uyghurs established two short-lived independent governments in Xinjiang prior to the Communist Party's seizure of power, and the desire for self-rule endured and was nurtured by resentment against heavy-handed Chinese rule.

A protest movement began in the 1990s and remained at a relatively low level until simmering anger exploded in a 2009 riot in the regional capital of Urumqi that left an estimated 200 people dead. More violence followed

Sanctions on North Korea is "the biggest challenge" facing efforts to eliminate the North's nuclear arsenal, a top South Korean official said Thursday, as the North remains ready to conduct its first nuclear test in five years. China and Russia, which both have close ties with North Korea and are locked in confrontations with the United States, already vetoed a U.S.-led attempt to slap fresh sanctions on North Korea over its missile tests this year. That raises worries North Korea would escape a bigger provocation like a nuclear test explosion, which is banned by U.N. Resolutions. "Even if North Korea conducts an additional nuclear test, there is a possibility no additional sanctions will be adopted at the U.N. Security Council because of the U.S.-China strategic rivalry and U.S.-Russia tension over the Ukraine war," South Korea's vice defense minister, Shin Beomchul, told The Associated Press during an interview. "I think that is the biggest challenge to (efforts to resolve) the North Korean nuclear problem and an international anti-proliferation regime."

A new document alleges that government records had been concealed and removed and that law enforcement officials were misled about what was still

The allegation does not necessarily mean that Trump or anyone else will ultimately face charges. But it could pose the most direct legal threat to Trump or those in his orbit, in part because the Justice Department has historically viewed obstruction as an aggravating factor that tilts in favour of bringing charges in investigations involving the mishandling of classified information.

"It goes to the heart of trying to suborn the very integrity of our criminal justice system," said David Laufman, who once oversaw the same Justice Department counterintelligence section now responsible for the Mar-a-Lago investigation.

No more nuance: Democrats slam Republican abortion-rights backers in US

"It's not even close," one says as the ad for the incumbent Democratic senator wraps up. "We need Michael Bennet fighting for us."

The spot is significant because the man it slams on abortion, businessman Joe O'Dea, is a rare Republican supporter of at least some abor-

O'Dea said he would back a law to codify the protections of Roe v Wade, though he opposes abortions after 20 weeks except in cases of rape, incest or to protect the life of the moth-

Analysts say similar nuanced positions were once considered the political sweet spot in the complex world of abortion politics, coming closest to representing the views of the typical, conflicted voter. But that may be changing as abortion restrictions kick in following the fall of Roe with the high court's ruling in June.

'We are here in this country, right now, with patients travelling thousands of miles for care because politicians have been given the room for the least little bit of nuance," said Adrienne Mansanares of Planned Parenthood Action Colorado during a recent news conference to back Bennet.

The message from Democrats: Republicans can't be trusted on the issue - regardless of their personal beliefs.

Abortion has become an increasingly partisan issue over recent decades, but public views have always been more shades of gray than black and white.

Typically, support for abortion rights is highest for women in the earliest stages of pregnancy and tapers off as the pregnancy advances, until it is lowest for abortions very close to delivery, said Jocelyn Kiley of the Pew Research Centre.

Ex-Malaysian first lady guilty a week after Najib jailed

Former Malaysian first lady Rosmah Mansor was ordered to serve 10 years in prison after being found guilty on Thursday of soliciting and receiving bribes during her husband's corruption-tainted administration, a week after he was imprisoned over the massive looting of the 1MDB state fund.

Rosmah was convicted on a charge of soliciting 187.5 million ringgit (USD 42 million) and two charges of receiving 6.5 million ringgit (USD 1.5 million) between 2016 and 2017 to help a company secure a project to provide solar energy panels to schools on Borneo island.

The court sentenced her to 10 years in prison on each charge, to be served concurrently, and a total fine of 970 million ringgit (USD 217 million). She will be allowed to remain free on bail pending her appeal to higher courts.

High Court Judge Mohamed Zaini Mazlan said prosecutors proved beyond a reasonable doubt that Rosmah corruptly solicited bribes and received money as a reward for herself. He said her defense was a "bare denial, devoid of credi-

Poland seeks USD 1.3 trillion war reparations from Germany

AP WARSAW

 $P^{\mbox{oland's top politician said on}}_{\mbox{Thursday that the govern-}}$ ment will seek equivalent of some USD 1.3 trillion in reparations from Germany for the Nazis' World War II invasion and occupation of his country.

Jaroslaw Kaczynski, leader of the Law and Justice party, announced the huge claim at the release of a long-awaited report on the cost to the country of years of Nazi German occupation as it marks 83 years since the start of World War II.

"We not only prepared the report but we have also taken the decision as to the further steps," Kaczynski said during the report's presentation.

"We will turn to Germany to open negotiations on the reparations," Kaczynski said, adding it will be a "long and not an easy path" but "one day will bring success". He insisted the move would serve "true Polish-German reconciliation" that would be based on "truth".

He claimed the German economy is capable of paying the bill. Germany argues compensation was paid to East Bloc nations in the years after the war while territories that Poland lost in the East as borders were redrawn were compensated with some of Germany's pre-war lands. Berlin calls the matter closed

The tax on exports has been raised as margins rose, while the levy on domestically-produced oil was increased marginally on slight changes in international oil prices and on expectations of a price rise on hopes of a production cut by the Organisation of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) and its allies.

India first imposed windfall profit taxes on July 1, joining a growing number of nations that tax super normal profits of energy energy companies.

But international oil prices have cooled since then, eroding the profit margins of both oil producers and refiners.

NDTV promoter group firm RRPR Holding has told VCPL, which along with two other Adani group firms has launched a hostile takeover bid for the media firm, that its stakeholding in NDTV has been provisionally attached by the I-T authorities and require their approval for the transfer.

The contention has been rejected by the Adani group, which termed it as "misconceived and misleading" statements while asking RRPR Holding to convert the warrants into equity shares.

In a regulatory filing, NDTV said that its founders Radhika and Prannoy Roy have informed that RRPR Holding has intimated Adani group firm Vishvapradhan Commercial Pvt Ltd (VCPL) that the attachment of the shareholding, notified in 2018, shall remain in place until the completion of reassessment proceedings.

The group has asked RRPR Holding (RRPRH) to withdraw the letter and alleged it was written with the intent to further inordinately delay the warrant conversion and to perform its obligations without any further delay. RRPRH has communicated to VCPL that due to attachment, it will require approvals from the IT Authorities and "invited VCPL to join its application to the Income Tax Authorities", the filing stated.

ndia to become sixth largest Linsurance market in the world in the next 10 years supported by regulatory push and rapid economic expansion, a report said.

Total insurance premiums in India will grow by an average 14 per cent per annum in nominal local currency terms over the next decade, making India the 6th largest in terms of total premium volume by 2032 from 10th largest in 2021, Swiss Re Institute said in its report.

With regard to Indian life insurance industry, the report tional rate of 6.6 per cent (in real terms) in 2022 and further grow at 7.1 per cent in 2023.

Considering the projected growth rate, the life insurance premiums in India are set to cross USD 100 billion for the first time in 2022, it said.

As far as non-life insurance market is concerned, the report said it has returned to a growth of 5.8 per cent (in real terms) in 2021 after a slight contraction in 2020.

"The growth will slow down slightly in 2022 to 4.5 per cent, mainly due to high inflation. However, the sector is further expected to witness a growth of close to 8 per cent Compounded Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) between 2023 and 2032," it said.

One of the driving factors for the sectoral growth is the systematic change into India's in the state, which houses its non-life insurance sector brought by the pandemic.

Lens, who also have 13 points from five games, continued their fine start with a 5-2 home thrashing of Lorient to move into second place above Marseille on goals scored.

Marseille remained level on points with the top two as Senegalese midfielder Pape Gueye netted the only goal in a 1-0 win over Clermont.

ard-hitting batter Suryakumar Yadav said he is flexible enough to bat anywhere in the Indian T20 team, having turned out for the Men in Blue in various roles, including opening the innings.

Suryakumar scored a scintillating 26-ball 68 not out to pave the way for India's 40-run win over Hong Kong and sail into the Super Four stage of the Asia Cup on Wednesday.

On a two-paced wicket, Suryakumar, who came in to bat at number 4, played a wide range of shots which included six sixes and as many fours. "I am flexible to bat at any

Mukesh Kumar impresses with three wickets

PTI ■ BENGALURU

Bengal seamer Mukesh Kumar bowled to a probing channel in all his spells as India A stifled New Zealand A to 156 for five before bad light stopped play on the opening day of the first 'Unofficial' Test

Playing for a representative national side (India U-19, India U-23, India A or Senior India) for the first time, the right-arm fast-medium bowler got the ball to move both ways and finished with figures of 13-4-34-3, with a wicket in each of his three

In fact, Mukesh got wickets with the new (4.3 overs), seminew (35.3 overs) and old ball (57.4 overs), as only 61 overs of play was possible out of the maximum 90.

While two left-arm pacers

Yash Dayal (13-2-35-1) and Arzan Nagwaswalla (13-2-34-1) also got a wicket apiece, Mukesh was the best bowler on the day by a fair distance. Not only did he bowl to a probing channel but he also forced the New Zealand batters to play most of his deliveries. unlike the other two who were letting them leave quite a few.

Mukesh drew the first blood when he got one to move a shade as opener Chad Bowes (5) edged one to Ruturaj Gaikwad at first slip. It wasn't long before Nagwaswalla struck at the stroke of an hour when lefthander and Black Caps Test player Rachin Ravindra (12), sent to open, tried to drive a fuller length delivery, only to offer a catch to Rajat Patidar at second slip.

Dayal joined the list of wicket-takers when Abhimanyu Easwaran held on to a catch in the second slips to dismiss southpaw Mark Chapman (15), who has played T20Is as recently as the month of July.

The right-handed No. 3 Joe Carter (73 batting off 170 balls) showed a lot of composure, having come out to bat only in the fifth over. Carter has so far hit 10 fours in his innings.

When Carter and skipper Robert O'Donnell (24) seemed to have nicely settled down with a 49-run stand, India A captain Priyank Panchal brought back Mukesh for his post-lunch spell with the semi-new ball.

A fullish delivery that cut back enough found O'Donnell plumb in front to leave New Zealand A in trouble at 100 for four in the 36th over.

Wicketkeeper Fletcher (13 off 66 balls) defended doggedly for close to two hours as Kuldeep Yadav (0/44 in 19 overs), in his first competitive red ball game in more than 18 months, didn't look penetrative enough.

Singapore-born batting pow-erhouse Tim David was on Thursday called up by Australia for this year's T20 World Cup on home soil, the only change to the squad that won the tournament last year. David's stunning elevation comes at the expense of leg-spinner Mitchell Swepson with the 26-year-old earning his chance after a series of headline-grabbing individual performances across domestic cricket. "Tim continues to establish himself with some quality performances in leagues around the world, earning a place in the squad," said chairman of selectors George Bailey of the giant middle-order hitter who was raised in Western Australia. "He is a highly gifted, natural ball striker who will add extra batting depth to the group which has had a lot of success in T20 cricket. "We expect him to play a similar role to that he has been playing in the past few years." Right-hander David played 14 T20Is for Singapore but is eligible to switch allegiance because he has Australian parents. David has became one of the world's most sought-after finishers in short-form cricket after his exploits in the Indian Premier League and Australia's

A former world number 8, Prannoy, who had reached the quarterfinals of the world championships last week, continued his rampaging run as he saw off eighth seeded Loh 22-20, 21-19 in a 44-minute second round men's singles match. This was Prannoy's third win over the world number 7 Singaporean in four meetings. The 30-year-old Indian will next face Chinese Taipei's Chou Tien Chen, who won the bronze medal at the world championships last week, in the quarterfinal stage. Prannoy, currently ranked world number 18, has beaten Chen in their last two meetings, but overall, he is 3-4 behind. Srikanth, who had shocked world number 5 Malaysian Lee Zii Jia on Wednesday, however, couldn't extend his run as he went down 10-21, 16-21 to local favourite and world number 17 Kanta Tsuneyama.

The Japanese had defeated Srikanth at the Korean Open in 2019 in their only meeting prior to this. In a battle between two highly-skilled gladiators, it was Prannoy who showed nerves of steel as he fought back from 11-19 and 6-14 down in the two

The 46-year-old takes over from Franco-Bosnian Vahid Halilhodzic, who was dismissed on August 11 because of "differences of opinion" over preparations for the global tournament which kicks off in Qatar on November 20. "We are all behind

(Regragui) in his new mission at the head of the national team, and we wish him good luck,'

Moroccan Football Federation (FRMF) president Fouzi Lekjaa told journalists in Rabat. Regragui said the Moroccan public were "expect-Regragui was born south of Paris and played as a defender for Toulouse, Ajaccio, Dijon and Grenoble as well as chalking up 45 caps with Morocco's national team.

He was coach of FUS Rabat between 2014-2020 and briefly led Qatari club Al-Duhail.

Verstappen expecting 'crazy' festival at Dutch

Max Verstappen is expecting an emotional and "pretty crazy" festival as he heads into his first home race as world champion, seeking his 10th win of the season, at this weekend's Dutch Grand Prix

Buoyant after a run of spectacular triumphs including a masterclass for Red Bull at last Sunday's Belgian Grand Prix, the runaway leader of the title race warned the clamour of a capacity crowd could be distracting as he faces a much tougher contest.

"It will be harder for us to be as dominant and I expect Ferrari to be strong," said the 24-yearold Dutchman. "There's a lot more downforce required at Zandvoort.

"Of course, I want a good result, but it's important to score points, always, so let's hope we can do a good job. My family will be there to support me, and I will

Verstappen will pay tribute to his father Jos, a former F1 driver who guided his son through his early career, with a new helmet design.

"I thought it would be a good time to show appreciation of my dad's efforts made for me when I was a little kid to bring me to where I am today, he said. "It's a bit emotional, but I think it's just special too because it shows how I started in karting -- and the old pictures of me in go-karts are with this design. I hope a lot 'Dutchies' and my dad's fans appreciate this.
