Rajouri gunbattle ends, top LeT terrorist killed

The Indian Army on Thursday resorted to firing on a group of terrorists in Rajouri district, killing one of them. The operation was carried out to neutralize the terrorists, who were suspected to be involved in the suicide attack on a CRPF convoy in Pulwama.

A joint operation by the Army and the J&K police was launched to track down the terrorists, who were hiding in a mountainous area. The terrorists opened fire on the security forces, prompting them to return fire and engage the insurgents in a gunfight.

After a three-hour-long encounter, one of the terrorists was killed, while the other two escaped into the nearby mountains. The Army has deployed additional troops to trace the fleeing terrorists.

The operation was carried out in the backdrop of recent terrorist attacks in J&K, including the Pulwama suicide attack on February 14, which killed 40 CRPF soldiers.

The government has declared a reward of Rs 7.5 lakh for information leading to the arrest of the top LeT terrorist, Maulana Adnan Aslan, who is believed to be the mastermind of the Pulwama attack.

The Indian Army has been ramping up its operations against terrorism in the region, with a focus onUITing the terrorists and disrupting their activities.

On Thursday, Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who is currently in Wuhan for a bilateral meet with Chinese President Xi Jinping, expressed his support for the security forces.

"The brave men and women of our armed forces are ensuring our safety and security," he tweeted. "Their courage and determination inspire us all. We are proud of our armed forces. We stand with our soldiers in their noble mission."

The ministry commerce on Thursday said it has inked an MoU with Amazon to leverage ‘Districts as Export Hubs’. The minister of commerce and industry, Piyush Goyal, and the chief executive officer of Amazon India, Manish Tiwary, signed the MoU in the presence of the commerce secretary and other senior officials.

The MoU was signed in the presence of DGT Singh Tulsi Ratan, who is commerce secretary. According to the trust, the MoU forms the basis of the initiative, which aims to support local value propositions in India.

The initiative seeks to link MSMEs to global buyers and markets with a focus on sustainable and low-carbon products, and will allow MSMEs to learn from the best practices of large e-commerce platforms.

The commerce minister urged e-commerce platforms, banks, and other stakeholders to seize the opportunity to work in tandem for the success of the initiative.

The initiative will look into creating creation capacity-building sessions, training, and workshops to support MSMEs in building and handling supply chains. It will also support DGT’s platform of MSMEs, which is now new and first-time exporters. The initiative will also provide training on the topic of making our country’s e-commerce exports from the country.

The initiative also aims to enable micro and small enterprises (MISMEs) to sell their products to international markets, thereby creating a change in the perception of the world about India’s capabilities.

The initiative will also focus on creating a combination of equity and debt funds, which will be invested in other assets such as infrastructure and real estate projects.

As per the MoU, CIL has devised a strategy to import high-capacity mining equipment worth Rs 12,372 crore in March. It will allow MSMEs to learn from the best practices of large e-commerce platforms.

The commerce minister pointed out that the scheme had been designed to assist India in achieving its target of USD 350 billion worth of goods exported through e-commerce by 2030 and for that, India should target USD 350 billion worth of goods exported through e-commerce by 2030 and for that, India should target USD 350 billion worth of goods exported through e-commerce by 2030.

Rohit doesn't need to be taught to score hundreds, Ashwin backs skipper

India pacer Umesh Yadav finished with six wickets in his 10 overs as Australia's batting order folded against the Indian attack. The visiting team was all out for 168 in their 20 overs.

Indian skipper Rohit Sharma said that he was happy with the performance of the team and that Rohit didn't need to be taught to score hundreds.

The skipper also praised the team's bowlers, especially Umesh, who had a match-winning spell of 6 for 30.

"Rohit doesn't need to be taught to score hundreds," Ashwin said. "He has had quite a lot - but it was his intent that he would score 100 if he came in, it played like how any soil from other parts of the world would have played."

Ashwin also praised Australia's bowlers, especially Pat Cummins, who took three wickets in his 10 overs.

"The bounce will be less, but the knee, this would get bounce only up to the shin, " he said.

India's seamers, Umesh, Shami, and Bumrah, gave the Australian batsmen a hard time. The visitors were bowled out in 19 overs for 168.

Australia came close to chasing down the total, but it was Rinku who set up the game with a 22-ball 47. The left-hander and three of India's other bowlers were also bowled out.

Kishan's five sixes were muscled in the same region but it was left-hander and three of India's other bowlers who set up the game with a 22-ball 47. The left-hander and three of India's other bowlers were also bowled out.
