Modern sub divisional complexes to come up in Punjab; To deliver citizen centric services

PNS ■ DIRBA (SANGRUR)

Punjab Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann on Saturday dedicated an ultra modern multi storey Sub Divisional complex, which will house offices of SDM, Tehsildar, BDPO, DSP, CDPO and others, constructed within a record period of 18 months at a cost of Rs 10.80 crore.

Dedicating the four storey building, the Chief Minister said that he had laid the foundation stone of this project in May 2023 and it has been completed in a record time span. He said that spread over nine acres of land this project will immensely benefit the masses by delivering them citizen centric services in a time bound manner. Mann said that such modern tehsil complexes are being built across the state to facilitate the people.

He said that the earlier governments had never paid any heed towards such initiatives to serve the people in a better manner, adding that previously the reign of the state was in the wrong hands due to which the state had suffered adversely. However, he said that ever since assuming the charge of office his government has been according top priority to such works of immense public importance.

Mann announced that such buildings are being constructed while keeping in-view the future needs of people, pointing out that the state government has saved Rs 1.5 crore while constructing this building against the estimated cost. He said that in the same manner the Sub divisional complex in Cheeme was under construction and would be dedicated to the people soon.

The CM said that it is a matter of immense pride and satisfaction for him that so far 49427 government jobs have been provided to youth and 700 more would be given on December 3 at Patiala. He said that these youth have got jobs completely on the basis of merit, adding that the entire recruitment process has been carried on in a fair and transparent manner.

He said that due to this reverse migration is being witnessed in Punjab as youth are leaving foreign land to join government jobs in the state. Mann said that transparent recruitment has increased the faith of youth in working for the state government due to which they have shunned the idea of moving abroad and are preparing for government jobs here. He said that it is on record that contrary to the earlier trend of moving abroad, the educational institutions in the state are witnessing a huge surge in admissions by the youth.

Mann said that the state government is working zealously to facilitate the people and in one such initiative a complete facelift is being given to rural roads, adding that these Link Roads act as a catalyst in commuting besides smooth transportation of the goods and services to people adding that these link roads give impetus to the economic growth of the state and facilitate the people residing in rural areas. He underlined the need for construction of these roads as majority of them have remained unattended even after passing their life of six years.

The Chief Minister said that at the time he assumed the charge of office only 21% canal water was being used in the state. However, he said that it is a matter of great pride and satisfaction that today 84% of the canal water is being used for irrigation purposes. He said that due to strenuous efforts of the state government the ground water level has started increasing and as per a report of the Union government it has witnessed an upward enhancement of one metre.

Mann exhorted the farmers to adopt crop diversification by coming out of the rut of wheat/ paddy circle. He said that the Union government must give MSP to the farmers on alternate crops to boost the crop diversification. He said that it is unfortunate that the state contributes 180 lakh Metric Ton rice in the national food pool thereby ensuring food security in the country.

However, he said that after taking the grains from the state, the farmers of Punjab are blamed for creating pollution by paddy straw burning. He said that this is unwarranted and undesirable as the hard working and resilient farmers of the state have played a key role in making the country self-sufficient in food production.

Mann said that health, education, power, water and infrastructure are top five priorities of his government, pointing out that these facilities are not free of cost as the people pay hefty amounts in the form of taxes, adding that the state government has only repaid money to the public in the form of these facilities. He said that earlier this money was going to the houses of politicians but now it is being used for public service.

Taking a jibe at opposition, the Chief Minister said that the results of by-polls have proved that the people have full faith in the state. He said that the wise people of state have ousted the political leaders indulging in theatrics and have chosen those who are their well wishers. He reiterated that the traditional parties are envious of him because he hails from a common family.

Punjab witnesses 70 pc drop in farm fires this Kharif season

PNS ■ CHANDIGARH

Punjab has recorded a significant 70 percent reduction in farm fires during the current Kharif season, state Agriculture and Farmers Welfare Minister Gurmeet Singh Khudian said on Saturday. As of November 30, the last day of Kharif season 2024, the Punjab has reported 10,909 incidents of paddy straw burning, a significant decrease from the 36,663 fire incidents reported during the 2023-24 season, he added. The significant reduction in farm fires can be attributed to increased mechanisation in the agricultural sector, Khudian stated while adding that 22,582 sanction letters have been issued to farmers for subsidised Crop Residue Management (CRM) machines, with 16,125 machines already procured by the state farmers. Additionally, 722 Customer Hiring Centres (CHCs) was set up to provide small and marginal farmers with access to CRM machines. Lauding the farmers who chose to refrain from using matchsticks this year, the Agriculture Minister said, "It's our collective responsibility to save the environment for our future generations, as stubble burning not only causes air pollution but also reduces the fertility of soil."

College in Rohru to be renamed after former Chief Minister Virbhadra Singh

PNS ■ SHIMLA

Himachal Chief Minister Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu on Saturday dedicated projects worth Rs. 100.95 crore to the people of the Rohru assembly segment, in district Shimla.

He also inaugurated the Government Ayurvedic Hospital constructed with an outlay of Rs. 2.79 crore, the newly completed Chunjar-Katlah, Shalan, Melthi-Kupri water supply scheme completed at a cost of Rs. 3.92 crore and the drinking water scheme constructed for the Rohru rural area completed with an outlay of Rs. 5.03 crore.

Sukhu also performed the foundation stone laying ceremony of various road projects worth Rs. 51.74 crore for the area, including the foundation stone of the hostel to be constructed in Seema College Rohru at a cost of Rs. 8.25 crore.

While speaking as the Chief Guest in the annual function of Government College Seema, Rohru, Sukhu announced to name Seema College after the former Chief Minister late Virbhadra Singh. He also announced the starting of B.Ed. course in the College from the next academic session and assured to provide liberal financial assistance for the construction of the hostel and stated that the construction of a multipurpose building in Seema College would be started soon.

Sukhu said that the level of education continuously declined during the tenure of the previous BJP government as they opened 900 educational and health institutions without budgetary provision just for electoral gains.

The state government is taking tough decisions in the public interest, the positive results of which will be visible in the near future. He said that new vocational courses would be started to ensure good education and better employment opportunities to the students. The state government is making efforts to prepare the youth for future challenges.

Education Minister Rohit Thakur said that the state government was making dedicated efforts to strengthen the education sector. As many as 15 thousand posts of various categories have been approved in the education department to provide quality education. The previous BJP government neither made any recruitment nor gave promotions as different from the scenario now. The present government has provided promotions along with new recruitments in the education department.

Shimla ex-deputy mayor files police complaint against parking of vehicles in Ridge area

PNS ■ SHIMLA

Former Shimla Municipal Corporation deputy mayor and CPI(M) leader Tikender Singh Panwar has filed a police complaint demanding action against people and officials who allowed parking of vehicles and installation of temporary stalls in the Ridge area here. Sharing two videos with the complaint, Panwar on Friday said he sought the registration of an FIR over the parking of two trucks and a large crane in the Ridge, which is a vulnerable zone and no vehicular movement is allowed in it.

The historic Ridge is located in the heart of Shimla city and houses Christ Church, a neo-Gothic structure built in 1844 and a Tudorbethan-styled library building constructed in 1910, besides statues of Mahatma Gandhi, Indira Gandhi, Atal Bihari Vajpayee and Y S Parmar, the first chief minister of Himachal Pradesh.

Large tanks that can hold 45 lakh litres of water were built under the Ridge during British rule. The tanks supply drinking water to households in the capital city. The Ridge lies in sinking zones and cracks have been developing in regular intervals since 2000.

In his letter to the Superintendent of Police, Shimla, Sanjeev Kumar Gandhi, Panwar sought action against the owners of the trucks and the crane, police officials who allowed them to park the vehicles on the tanks and officials of the Shimla district administration, the home department among others for allowing social and public functions in the area. The complaint further said that functions are being held on the Ridge despite the high court's order not to organise events there.

"I request you to take it urgently, failing which I will be forced to knock on the doors of the High Court of Himachal Pradesh which has already decided not to allow such functions at the Ridge. Still holding these functions invites contempt of their orders," he added. Panwar also pointed out that stalls are being installed in the Ridge, putting pressure on the tanks despite an order from the Himachal Pradesh High Court prohibiting any activity there.

He claimed that the Ridge is being turned into a commercial space. Shimla Mayor Surender Chauhan on Friday got the stalls in the Ridge area removed and instructed officials to find out who allowed those.

PSPCL Saves Rs 1000 Crore with Pachwara Coal Mine Initiative: Pb Minister

PNS ■ CHANDIGARH

Punjab Power and Public Works Minister Harbhajan Singh ETO on Saturday said that the Punjab State Power Corporation (PSPCL) has achieved substantial savings of approximately Rs 1,000 crore due to the procurement of cheaper coal from the Pachwara coal mine.

In a statement issued here, the Power Minister said that the initiative launched by the Punjab government in December 2022, has proven to be a cost-effective alternative to sourcing coal from Coal India Limited. He said that the Pachwara coal mine had been inoperative since 2015.

Harbhajan Singh ETO said that the coal from Pachwara is Rs 11 crore cheaper per 1 lakh metric ton compared to obtaining coal from Coal India Limited. "To date, PSPCL has procured 92 lakh metric tons of coal from Pachwara, transported through a total of 2,400 rakes," he added. The Minister said that as a result of this initiative, the thermal plants in Punjab are no longer facing any coal shortages. He said that the Guru Gobind Singh Super Thermal Power Plant in Ropar has a coal stock sufficient for 35 days, the Sri Guru Hargobind Thermal Plant in Lehra Mohabbat has a 26-day stock, and the Sri Guru Amardas Thermal Power Plant in Goindwal Sahib has a 28-day stock.

Syrian insurgents inside Aleppo

AP ■ BEIRUT

Thousands of Syrian insurgents fanned out inside Aleppo in vehicles with improvised armour and pickups, deploying to landmarks such as the old citadel on Saturday, a day after they entered Syria's largest city facing little resistance from government troops, according to residents and fighters. Witnesses said two airstrikes on the city's edge late Friday targeted insurgent reinforcements and hit near residential areas. A war monitor said 20 fighters were killed. Syria's armed forces said in a statement Saturday that to absorb the large attack on Aleppo and save lives, it has redeployed and is preparing for a counterattack. The statement acknowledged that insurgents entered large parts of the city but said they have not established bases or checkpoints. Insurgents were filmed outside police headquarters, in the city centre, and outside the Aleppo citadel. They tore down posters of Syrian President Bashar Assad, stepping on some and burning others. The surprise takeover is a huge embarrassment for Assad, who managed to regain total control of the city in 2016, after expelling insurgents and thousands of civilians from its eastern neighbourhoods following a gruelling military campaign in which his forces were backed by Russia, Iran and its allied groups. Aleppo has not been attacked by opposition forces since then. The 2016 battle for Aleppo was a turning point in the war between Syrian government forces and rebel fighters after 2011 protests against Assad's rule turned into an all-out war. The push into Aleppo followed weeks of simmering low-level violence, including government attacks on opposition-held areas. Turkiye, which has backed

Syrian opposition groups, failed in its diplomatic efforts to prevent the Syrian government attacks, which were seen as a violation of a 2019 agreement sponsored by Russia, Turkiye and Iran to freeze the line of the conflict. The offensive came as Iran-linked groups, primarily Lebanon's Hezbollah, which has backed Syrian government forces since 2015, have been pre-occupied with their own battles at home. A ceasefire in Hezbollah's two-month war with Israel took effect Wednesday, the day the Syrian opposition factions announced their offensive. Israel has also escalated its attacks against Hezbollah and Iran-linked targets in Syria during the last 70 days. Insurgents raise flag over Aleppo Citadel: A witness in Aleppo said government troops remained in the city's airport and at a military academy but most of the forces have already filed out of the city from the south. Syrian Kurdish forces remained in two neighbourhoods. The redeployment "is a temporary measure and (the military central command and armed forces) will work to guarantee the security and peace of all our people in Aleppo," the military statement said. Abdulkafi Alhamdo, a teacher who fled Aleppo in 2016 and returned Friday night after hearing the insurgents were inside, described "mixed feelings of pain, sadness and old memories." "As I entered Aleppo, I kept telling myself this is impossible! How did this happen?" He said he strolled through the city at night, visiting the citadel, where the insurgents raised their flags, a major square and the university of Aleppo, as well as the last spot he was in before he was forced to leave for the country-side.

Ukraine could end if Ukraine-controlled territory comes under NATO, says Zelenskyy

AP ■ KIVIV

An offer of NATO membership to territory under Kyiv's control would end "the hot stage of the war" in Ukraine, but any proposal to join the military alliance should be extended to all parts of the country that fall under internationally recognised borders, President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said in a broadcast interview. Zelenskyy's remarks on Friday signaled a possible way forward to the difficult path Ukraine faces to future NATO membership. At their summit in Washington in July, the 32 members declared Ukraine on an "irreversible" path to membership. However, one obstacle to moving forward has been the view that Ukraine's borders would need to be clearly demarcated before it could join so that there can be no mistaking where the alliance's pact of mutual defense would come into effect. "You can't give an invitation to just one part of a country," the Ukrainian president said in an excerpt of the interview with Sky News, dubbed by the UK broadcaster. "Why? Because thus you would recognise that Ukraine is only that territory of Ukraine and the other one is Russia." Under the Ukrainian constitution, Ukraine cannot recognise territory occupied by Russia as Russian. "So legally, by law, we have no right to recognize the occupied territory as territory of Russia," he said. Since the start of the war in 2022, Russia has been expending huge amounts of weaponry and human life to make small-but-steady territorial gains to the nearly one-fifth of Ukraine it already controls in east and southern Ukraine. "If we want to stop the hot stage of the war, we should take under the NATO umbrella the territory of Ukraine that we have under our control. That's what we need to do, fast. And then Ukraine can get back the other part of its territory diplomatically," he said. An invitation for Ukraine to join NATO is one key point of Zelenskyy's "victory plan", which he presented to Western allies and the Ukrainian people in October. The plan is seen as a way for Ukraine to strengthen its hand in any negotiations with Moscow. Earlier this week, NATO's new Secretary General Mark Rutte said that the alliance "needs to go further" to support Ukraine in its fight against a Russian invasion.

Military aid to Kyiv and steps toward ending the war are expected to be high on the agenda when NATO members' foreign ministers meet in Brussels for a two-day gathering starting on December 3. However, any decision for Ukraine to join the military alliance would require a lengthy process and the agreement of all member states. There is also uncertainty as to the foreign policy stance of President-elect Donald Trump. While Trump vowed on the campaign trail to end Russia's invasion of Ukraine in a single day, he has not publicly discussed how this could happen. Trump also announced Wednesday that Keith Kellogg, an 80-year-old, highly decorated retired three-star general, would serve as his special envoy for Ukraine and Russia.

3 parties battle for top place as counting starts in Ireland

AP ■ DUBLIN

Vote counting got underway on Saturday in Ireland's national election after an exit poll suggested the contest is a close-fought race among the country's three largest political parties. Ballot boxes were opened at 9 a.m. (0900GMT) at count centres across the country, kicking off long hours, or even days, of tallying the results. If the exit poll is borne out, that could be followed by days or weeks of negotiations to form a coalition government. The exit poll suggested voters' support is split widely among the three big parties — Fine Gael, Fianna Fail and Sinn Fein — as well as several smaller parties and an assortment of independents ranging from the left to the far right. The poll said centre-right party Fine Gael was the first choice of 21 per cent of voters, and another centre-right party, Fianna Fail, at 19.5 per cent. Left-of-centre opposition Sinn Fein was at 21.1 per cent in the poll. Pollster Ipsos B and A asked 5,018 voters across the country how they had cast their ballots. The survey has a margin of error of plus or minus 1.4 percentage points. The figures only give an indication and don't reveal which parties will form the next government. Ireland uses a complex system of proportional representation in which each of the country's 43 constituencies elects several lawmakers and voters rank candidates in order of preference. As a result, it can take some time for full results to be known. The result will show whether Ireland bucks the global trend of incumbents being ousted by disgruntled voters after years of pandemic, international instability and a cost-of-living pressures. The cost of living — especially Ireland's acute housing crisis — was a dominant topic in the three-week campaign, alongside immigration, which has become an emotive and challenging issue in a country of 5.4 million people long defined by emigration.

AP ■ TBLISII (GEORGIA)

More than 100 demonstrators were arrested overnight in Georgia as protesters clashed with police following the government's decision to suspend negotiations to join the European Union, the country's Interior Ministry said Saturday. It was the second straight night of protests after Prime Minister Irakli Kobakhidze of the country's ruling Georgian Dream party announced the decision the previous day. Demonstrators faced off against police late Friday in a number of major Georgian cities, including the capital, Tbilisi, and the Black Sea port of Batumi.

The Associated Press saw protesters in Tbilisi being chased and beaten by police as demonstrators rallied in front of the country's parliament building. Riot police used water cannons to push protesters away from the building and later moved to force them farther back along Rustaveli Avenue, the city's main boulevard. Police also used heavy force against members of the media and used loudspeakers to shout profanities and insults at the crowds. Georgian Dream's disputed victory in the country's October 26 parliamentary election, which was widely seen as a referendum on Georgia's aspirations to join the European Union, has sparked massive demonstrations and led to an opposition boycott of the parliament. The opposition has said that the vote was rigged with the help of Russia, Georgia's former imperial master, with Moscow hoping to keep Tbilisi in its orbit. Georgian President Salome Zourabichvili joined protesters on Thursday after accusing the government of declaring war on its own people. In an address to the nation Friday, she urged police not to use force against protesters.

"This is evident in every way — no one is willing to accept a Russified Georgia, a Georgia deprived of its constitution, or a Georgia in the hands of an illegitimate government and parliament," Zourabichvili said. "That is why so many of you are out here today: I see you. I see you on Rustaveli Avenue and in cities across Georgia: Batumi, Kutaisi, Zugdidi, Akhmeta, Lagodekhi, Telavi. It is unprecedented for citizens of Georgia to rise up simultaneously and spontaneously in this way."

Post Perth, Aussie bowlers likely to tweak their bowling plans: Boland

PTI ■ CANBERRA

There will be few tweaks in Australia's bowling plans against Yashasvi Jaiswal and KL Rahul for the day-night Test in Adelaide after their defeat in Perth, revealed Scott Boland, who is set to replace injured Josh Hazlewood in the playing eleven. Hazlewood has been ruled out with a side strain and 35-year-old Boland, who has played 10 Tests since his Test debut in 2021, is top contender to bowl those hard lengths against an Indian batting line-up oozing with confidence after their second innings effort in the opening game. "We've spoken as a team about our plans for all the different Indian batters. I won't tell you those, but we've got pretty set plans. They might have a little bit of a tweak after the guys have seen them again from Perth," Boland told reporters after the first day's play between India and Australian Prime Minister's XI was washed out. Jaiswal (161) and Rahul (77) added 201 runs in a record opening stand on Australian soil followed by Virat Kohli's 30th Test hundred. "Obviously (Yashasvi) Jaiswal batted really well there. KL Rahul batted well in the second innings as well and really dugged in. "So we'll probably have a chat over the next week and our plans might slightly change, but I'm pretty confident what we did in the first games was good," Boland said as much without letting out elaborate plans.

The troika of Pat Cummins, Mitchell Starc and Hazlewood couldn't make much of an impact in India's second innings but Boland defended the three senior stars. "I think our bowlers bowled really well as well. Maybe the only difference was that the Indian bowlers got a really nice long break between their first innings and second innings where our break wasn't as long." "Thought my chance has passed" Boland can't be held wrong if at a certain time during the last season the pacer felt that he won't be able to make a comeback since Starc, Cummins and Hazlewood have been so dominant at home. "Obviously those guys (the three fast bowlers) have been so resilient, they don't miss too many and no one must give up their spot at any stage," Boland said. "And they were so dominant that last summer (even when) they weren't bowling a heap of overs, but we're still able to win most of those games, so yeah, I probably thought maybe the opportunity had passed." Boland credited his intense rehabilitation for getting him back in the national reckoning. "I have worked really hard in the off-season to get my body in a spot where I am confident that if I get another chance I will be able to perform for Australia again." "I just knew if I put the conversations I had with Ron [Andrew McDonald, the head coach] and George [Bailey, the chief selector] over the pre-season - when I was rehabbing a lot was to try and get my body in the right spot - that I didn't want to rush anything and then re-injure something and then push back my return to play date. So, we took it pretty slow with my rehab." "There are chats but no panic as such" Boland accepted that individual performances will be discussed but the Australian dressing room isn't panicky after the heavy defeat in the opening Test. "There's definitely no panic stations in our change rooms. There's obviously going to be some chats around individual performances and everyone wants to perform really well every game they play. "But yeah, it's like, we've lost one game," he added.

Sindhu cruises past Hooda to reach Syed Modi final

PTI ■ LUCKNOW

Two-time Olympic medallist PV Sindhu cruised into the women's singles final with a dominating straight-game win over fellow Indian Unnati Hooda at the Syed Modi International Super 300 badminton tournament here on Saturday. Top seed Sindhu outclassed the 17-year-old Hooda 21-12 21-9 in just 36 minutes in the semifinal. Hooda struggled to challenge Sindhu, committing a series of unforced errors that allowed her illustrious opponent to maintain control throughout the match. "I am happy with today's performance. From the beginning, I maintained the lead. I was just trying out a few strokes and overall, I was confident with the way I was playing," Sindhu said after the match. "I think Unnati played her best, but I didn't give her a chance to overtake me. I was leading from the beginning to the end. She is an upcoming player, and I wish her all the very best. "I need to go back and prepare for tomorrow because it's not going to be easy. From the beginning, I need to give my best," Sindhu added. A former world champion, Sindhu, currently ranked 18th, will face either Thailand's Lalinrat Chaiwan or China's Wu Luo Yu in the final as she chases her third Syed Modi International title. Earlier, India's mixed doubles pair of Tanisha Crasto and Dhruv Kapila advanced to the final with a convincing straight-game victory over China's Zhi Hong Zhou and Jia Yi Yang. The fifth-seeded Indians secured a 21-16, 21-15 win in the 42-minute semifinal. They will meet the winner of the other semifinal between Chinese duo of Pin Yi Liao and Ke Xin Huang and Thailand's sixth-seeded pair Dechapol Puavaranukroh and Supissara Paewsampran. Sindhu's semifinal contest saw her gradually take control as she moved to a 5-3 lead with a precise cross-court drop shot, while Hooda initially kept pace with well-placed pushes and drops. However, the 17-year-old's errors, particularly in the length of her lifts, allowed Sindhu to lead 11-8 at the break. Hooda's determination to stay in rallies often resulted in smashes and drops going wide. Sindhu extended her lead to 15-8 without relying on her trademark baseline smashes. Unforced errors continued to plague Hooda, enabling Sindhu to close out the first game comfortably. After the change of sides, Sindhu continued to dominate the proceedings, surging to 8-3 lead before extending it to 11-4 at the interval. She continued her aggressive play with a smash, an overhead cross-court drop, and a body smash, taking the score to 18-7.

Hooda saved one of Sindhu's 12 match points but ultimately faltered with another error, handing Sindhu the match. Reflecting further on her game, Sindhu said: "I am definitely happy with the way I am going. Definitely, there is a scope for a lot of improvement... It's not just that if we finish training or if we are at the top, we don't have to train. Every day is a new process, and I am doing that."

Addressing her recent struggles, including her Paris Olympics campaign, Sindhu said, "I know Paris was not a good one for me. I have tried my best, but it doesn't matter. I need to get back stronger. So, I am working on myself." Sindhu, who has been working with coaches Anup Sridhar and Korea's Lee Hyun-il, also spoke about adapting her fitness regimen. "Every athlete has a different style of fitness. You keep growing, and at the same time, your movements need to be perfect. Maybe back in my twenties, the training program might have been different. Now, it's completely different. It depends on age, how I am playing, and my movements. Accordingly, we keep changing it."

1st Test: Williamson makes another half-century but England dominate on day 3

AP ■ CHRISTCHURCH (NEW ZEALAND)

Kane Williamson completed his second half-century of the match and passed 9,000 Test runs on Saturday as he led New Zealand's faltering resistance to England's control on the third day of the first Test. Williamson followed his first innings 93 with 61 and was one of five batsmen to fall before New Zealand erased England's 151-run first innings lead. At stumps, New Zealand was 155-6, four runs ahead and with only bowlers yet to bat. Daryl Mitchell was 31 not out and Nathan Smith was on one. Brydon Carse had 3-22 and seven wickets for the match. England applied Bazball principles to take charge of the match almost from the resumption Saturday, dashing past New Zealand's first innings of 348 and building a commanding first innings lead at almost six runs per over. Harry Brook resumed at 132 and went on to 171 in a 159-run partnership with Ben Stokes who was 37 not out overnight and finished with 80.

Dashing late contributions from Gus Atkinson who made 48 from 26 balls and Carse who made 33 from 24 with three monstrous sixes piled more pain on New Zealand late in its innings as it made 499 all out. In total, England added 180 runs in 33 overs Saturday at a tempo set by Brook who posted his seventh century and third-highest score in tests and Stokes who reached his 35th half century from 105 balls, then added his next 30 runs from 41 deliveries. New Zealand then lost both openers, Tom Latham (1) and Devon Conway (8), with only 23 runs on the board and Rachin Ravindra (24) with 46 runs still needed to erase England's lead. Ravindra continues to show enormous promise but was out to rash shots in both innings. Williamson provided an example of application to the rest of the New Zealand top order, continuing in his usual unflappable manner even after he was struck on the helmet by Stokes when on 26. In contrast, Ravindra was lured into an unnecessary shot at a short ball by Carse, knowing that the trap had been set and was sprung when he was caught in the deep by Jacob Bethell. Williamson passed 9,000 test runs in his 103rd test at an average of 54 when he reached 26. He went on to a half century from 74 balls when New Zealand was 117-3.

Southampton denied by VAR and Brighton rises to second in Premier League

AP ■ BRIGHTON (ENGLAND)

Southampton was denied a spriceless victory by a controversial VAR decision and ended up drawing with host Brighton 1-1 in the English Premier League. Kaoru Mitoma spectacularly headed Brighton into a first half lead and Flynn Downes hammered the equaliser an hour in. Then minutes later teammate Cameron Archer converted a cross from Saints substitute Ryan Fraser. A VAR check of more than four minutes eventually decided Archer was onside but then penalized Adam Armstrong, who was offside but did not touch the ball, for interfering with goalkeeper

Bart Verbruggen. "I find it hard to accept," Southampton manager Russell Martin told broadcaster Sky Sports. "We were told it affects Bart Verbruggen's ability, and if Adam's run moved Verbruggen from his position then I would understand the decision, but he hasn't moved. I cannot see how it has affected the goalkeeper. "It is still human error in my opinion. The mistake is, it's not clear and obvious enough to be corrected. The on-field decision carries weight. I am frustrated."

Unfair to judge Gambhir so early in his coaching role: Jadeja

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

Former India middle-order batter Ajay Jadeja on Saturday defended head coach Gautam Gambhir from the criticism he has received following the 0-3 drubbing against New Zealand, saying it's "unfair" given the short time he has been in the new role. Gambhir, the hero of the 2011 World Cup title triumph, took over the reins of the India team in July after Rahul Dravid's tenure ended. Following a bright start against Sri Lanka in the T20I series, India lost the ODI series to the home side. The Test team then thrashed Bangladesh 2-0 before a nightmare outing against New Zealand put Gambhir under massive scrutiny. "I think you are being unfair to him... If you will start judging people on the basis of their coaching role or whatever way it is being looked at, it is too short a time to for people to be judged," Jadeja told PTI Videos in an exclusive interview on the sidelines of FICCI Turf event here on Saturday. "If you are not convinced that he is good, then one performance here or there will be able to convince anyone. I don't think it is the time to judge him, it is the time we should enjoy him," added Jadeja, known for his exploits in the 50-over game where he scored over 5000 runs in 196 ODIs. India's massive 295-run win against Australia in the first Border-Gavaskar Test at Perth following the no-show against the Kiwis has come as a huge morale-booster for the side and Jadeja felt Gambhir should not be judged within six months of his appointment. "So, there are phases and it will come, sometimes you win and sometimes you lose. So, I won't go into that direction and start judging him (Gambhir) in six months. "You knew what you were asking for and what you were getting. He is a very clear-cut person and he has made it clear throughout his life. So, what your are seeing now is what everyone expected of him to do." Jadeja said that regular Test skipper Rohit Sharma's return for the second Test at Adelaide from December 6 after missing the opening game will boost India's confidence. "Him (Rohit Sharma) coming back to the team will surely boost India's confidence, for sure. He is a leader, when the chips were down, team was going down, he stood up there as the leader and now when the team is going up, he will be again there as the leader." Asked whether KL Rahul and Rohit should swap batting slots in the second Test after the former had a formidable outing in the Perth game, Jadeja said, "I have no details of what the team is thinking right now, no views on who should bat at what number. Rohit Sharma has always been an asset to the side wherever he bats."

Face facts: Statues of stars like Kane and Ronaldo don 't always deliver. Sculptors offer advice

AP ■ LONDON

One art critic compared the new Harry Kane bronze statue to a bulging-jawed comic strip character. In Miami, observers say the Dwyane Wade sculpture looks more like actor Laurence Fishburne than the former basketball star. Of course, the infamous Cristiano Ronaldo bust in 2017 gave the chiseled soccer star a chubby face and goofy smile. A statue of Mohamed Salah in 2018 depicted the Liverpool star with a disproportionately large head. In 2011, a terracotta warrior statue of Andy Murray at a Shanghai tennis tournament drew chuckles, including from the star himself: "I thought I was better looking than that." It wasn't always this way. In classical times, sculptors "had absolutely no interest in depicting people accurately," explained Lucy Branch, a London-based sculptural conservator. "What they ended up doing quite often, they recycled sculptures so when another athlete became more prominent, they just changed the name on the plaque," said Branch, host of the "Sculpture Vulture" podcast. "There's this idea now, in this era, that commemorative sculpture should be like portraiture — it should look exactly like the person they are commemorating. But actually that's a really new idea in sculpture." To avoid pitfalls, here are some tips from sculptors: Do your research London-based sculptor Hywel Pratley studied countless images of Queen Elizabeth II to create a memorial statue in the East Midlands town of Oakham. "A good portrait sculpture is evidence of 1,000 decisions after 10,000 observations," Pratley said. In addition, Yorkshire county sculptor Steve Winterburn recommends getting close with a subject's family and friends to help find characteristics. "You don't want it looking like a Madame Tussauds," said Winterburn, who created a statue of five Rugby League greats at Wembley Stadium. "It still needs a bit of art in it, a bit of soul. That's what makes art really sing." Smile at your peril The Ronaldo bust depicted the Portugal star smiling crookedly. Likewise, the Salah sculpture features the Egyptian smiling while celebrating a goal. In Miami, Wade's mouth is open in the statue representing the moment the player famously jumped onto a courtside table and yelled "This is my house." It's probably best avoided. "It's really difficult to do teeth looking good in sculpture," Pratley said.

Get the profile right Start "by understanding the profile" before moving on to determine widths from the front view, Pratley said. "Get the profile right and you will have won half the battle, because then you can have something at least that you can trust," he said. "When you're lost, you can say, well I knew where I was then," — and you will get lost as a sculptor in the forms. "There's so many to understand. It's not two dimensions, it's three. There's an exponential opportunity for everything to go wrong. If you've got the profile, then you can go forward with more confidence." The eyes have it? Winterburn tries to make the eyes "come alive" in his work. "The eye is the soul of the person that carries it," he said. "If you look at a lot of public work, I'm not being funny, they're dead. There's nothing in them, they're just featureless, soulless. With a painting, if in doubt, fade it out. With sculpture, there is nowhere to hide." For Pratley, especially when he is working with a live model, "I'm often struck by how the absolute essence of somebody is somewhere between the nostrils and the mouth. The flicker of muscles and the subtle movement of muscles around the mouth is so much you — it's so much that person." On a pedestal? Commemorative sculpture historically has been on plinths, Branch notes. "Part of the reason for that is because we put our heroes on a pedestal," she said. "The problem is, the lower to the ground the sculpture is, the more scrutiny it's going to get and the less it can get away with not looking quite right." The Kane sculpture features the England captain seated. "Being so low, people get to look at it incredibly closely," Branch said. "It's trying to get sculpture to be more with the people, but then that comes with its own problems." Vote on it! In the UK, local councils — like a city council in the US — might propose a project, fund it and select the sculptor, sometimes with little input from the public and limited vetting of artists. Branch says there's a better way: Vote on it. That's what happened for the Emmeline Pankhurst statue in Manchester. A selection committee used an online platform to get public input and Hazel Reeves' proposal to honor the suffragette won. "It is a really good balance and check for whether people on the committees have chosen the right sculptor or the right composition for that person who is being commemorated," Branch said. "(The public) may not necessarily be highly educated about sculpture, but they always tend to know whether the artist has hit the nail on the head."

perfection, with the prawns' sweetness melding beautifully with the risotto's rich texture. Every plate seemed to have the same meticulous attention to detail, leaving no palate unfulfilled. Throughout the evening, the service was impeccable, attentive without being intrusive. The vegetarian focus of the menu was a refreshing change, with every dish crafted with the same thought and care as any meat or seafood counterpart. It felt as though the vegetables were the stars of the show, celebrated for their natural flavours and textures rather than treated as just substitutes. Dessert was another highlight: a Chocolate Cocoa Short Crust Pastry filled with raspberry cream and chocolate ganache. The sharp tartness of the raspberry paired beautifully with the velvety richness of the chocolate, creating a harmony that felt like the perfect conclusion to an already outstanding meal. Yet, it was the final offerings under Until We Meet Again that left me in wonder.

The Selection of Tea and Coffee was perfect to wind down, but the real treasures were the petit fours. These weren't just bite-sized treats; they were flavour bombs that delighted and surprised. My personal favourites, Cabosse, Noisette, Mango & Coconut Petit each carried a distinct personality, but together, they created a symphony of textures and flavours that blew my mind. The Signature Lemon, Chocolate & Coffee Petit Four were as indulgent as they were unique, leaving a sweetness that felt like a parting gift.

Zanotta's charm lies not only in its food but in how every aspect of the experience is curated to perfection. Chef Liberatore's collaboration was a reminder of why Michelin stars matter, not for their prestige, but for the heart and soul they demand from a chef. Whether you're a vegetarian, a seafood enthusiast or simply someone looking to experience an unforgettable meal, Zanotta delivers on every front. It's not just a meal; it's a memory, a moment and a masterpiece rolled into one. For me, it was proof that fine dining isn't just about eating, it's about truly living.

MICHELIN MAGIC ON A PLATE

Imagine indulging in a meal where every bite feels like a discovery where flavours, textures and creativity come together in perfect plate. That's exactly what you can expect at Zanotta, where Michelin-starred Chef Alessandro Liberatore's culinary genius takes fine dining to a whole new level, says SAKSHI PRIYA

For anyone who considers themselves a foodie, there's an unmistakable thrill in the promise of a Michelin-starred experience. It's not just about eating; it's about savouring stories told through food, each dish a chapter of creativity, tradition, and mastery. As a vegetarian, I've often found myself navigating the labyrinth of fine dining, where plant-based options can sometimes feel like an afterthought. But my recent visit to Zanotta at The Leela Ambience, for a unique collaboration with Villa Cora's two-Michelin-Key Chef Alessandro Liberatore, turned all my expectations on their head.

Picture this: a sparkling Gurugram skyline, soft live music and the kind of atmosphere that makes you lean in just a little closer to hear the clink of glasses and the hum of conversation. That's the setting at Zanotta, perched elegantly on the sixth floor. The Leela Ambience Gurugram Hotel & Residences proudly presented this iconic pop-up featuring VillaCorà, the prestigious two-Michelin-Key hotel from Florence. The stage was perfectly set for a menu promising innovation, comfort, and the finest ingredients, all tied together with a ribbon of Italian finesse. It began with what could only be described as edible art: a

Deconstructed Bruschetta, forget the standard fare of toasted bread and diced tomatoes; this was a vivid celebration of marinated cherry tomatoes, bursting with flavour and delicately balanced with a drizzle of herbaceous olive oil. It was light, refreshing and a reminder that sometimes, the simplest ingredients hold the most potential. The next dish, Millefeuille Aubergine, was a revelation. A delicate layering of eggplant, tomato coulis, buffalo mozzarella and basil pesto transformed the humble aubergine into something extraordinary. Each bite was an orchestra of smoky, creamy and tangy notes that remained long after the plate was cleared. It felt like comfort food, but with the refinement you expect from an Italian maestro. Then came the Potatoes Gnocchi, a dish that, quite frankly, stole the show. The gnocchi were soft, pillowy, and bathed in a luxurious cacio e pepe sauce. But what set it apart was the addition of sour vegetable brunoise, which provided a sharp, tangy contrast to the creamy richness. It was bold yet understated, the kind of dish that makes you pause and appreciate the skill behind it. And then, the pièce de résistance: Tomato Tarte Tatin. If there's a dish that can truly redefine your perception of vegetarian food, this was it. Caramelised tomatoes, their natural sweetness amplified, rested atop a perfectly flaky pastry. The balance between the sweet and savoury flavours was brilliantly done, showcasing Chef Liberatore's ability to surprise and delight. For non-vegetarians, the feedback I heard was just as glowing. The Red Prawn Risotto was singled out as a showstopper, cooked to Immersing the Italian cuisine in his own taste and style, Michelin-starred Chef Mattia Bianchi made his India debut with the Italian restaurant Sorrento at Shangri-la, New Delhi. The feast was filled with the signature collection of dishes by Chef Bianchi himself and was made available for the people for five days. Being known for their artistic composition, Chef Bianchi's food was a culinary delight. Bringing a slice of authentic Italian cooking, his pop-up dinner was a symphony of flavours, textures, and impeccable artistry, designed to tantalise the most refined palates. The menu was a love letter to Italian cuisine, featuring dishes that showcased Chef Bianchi's innovative techniques and passion for fresh, locally sourced ingredients. The meal started with Chef Mattia's Degustation Menu with the Caprese Cloud for the vegetarian and Mediterranean Fantasy for non-vegetarian. Caprese Cloud served with Fratelli Noi had delicate foam of Buffalo Mozzarella paired with a medley of roasted cherry tomatoes, garnished with basil leaves with a mouth-watering taste. Mediterranean Fantasy on the other hand was a luxurious blend of shabu shrimps and salmon eggs atop silky potato foam, dusted with tomato powder and infused with Mediterranean aromas for a sensory delight served with Fratelli Noi.

Then came the Risotto with the dish Herbs Whisper's Risotto as the signature dish served with Fratelli J'Noun White. It was a Creamy risotto in a wild herbs infusion, topped with crunchy smoked umami almonds powdered with tangy sumac. Pastas entered the third round of the menu with Fusilli Rock n Roll which had vibrant fusilli infused with beetroot extract, crowned with tangy goat cheese crumble and aromatic rocket pesto, perfectly paired with the rich notes of Fratelli Sette wine. Fusilli Citrus was served with Fratelli Sette wine with lime scented fusilli cooked in beetroot extract and garnished with raw marinated scallops.

The main course showcased a togetherness of flavours, led by the Sunlit Chicken Rhapsody with Chicken supreme with butternut squash and Medley Feast, a culinary masterpiece perfectly paired with Fratelli J'Noun Red wine. The addition with the same wine glasses was Bitter Bliss with roasted baby gem, caper fruits, pine nuts and beurre blanc sauce, making the plate look like a painted canvas.

The end was saved for the best: the dessert with three types of symphonies, namely Autumn, Summer, and Winter. The autumn was the Tiramisu Delight, with traditional Tiramisu with mascarpone cream and marsala-kissed sponge cake veiled in the coffee crumble. The Winter Symphony featured Midnight Silk with dark chocolate cloud, gilded almonds, and frozen hazelnut cream. The Summer symphony had Summer Ode with exotic fruits soup-bathed yogurt pearls on vanilla sable. The overall experience of the dessert was a unique one blended with music. There were cards explaining how the desserts explain the personalities of the people.

The experience at Sorrento was more than just a meal; it was an unforgettable journey through the heart of Italian gastronomy, curated by Chef Mattia Bianchi's masterful touch. Each dish was a testament to his ability to merge tradition with innovation, creating a dining spectacle that celebrated the art of food. The guests were left in awe, their taste buds delighted and their senses elevated. Chef Bianchi's debut in India with his pop-up at Shangri-la, New Delhi, left an indelible mark on every diner who had the privilege to partake in this symphony of flavours.

“Music is the tool to express life and all that makes a difference”

A VOICE THAT HEALS

KAILASH KHER’S journey from humble beginnings to Padma Shri is truly inspiring. Through his music, he has touched millions, sharing the struggles and moments that shaped his path and the deep connection he holds with his fans, says SAKSHI PRIYA

“जो टूट कर बना, जिसे मौत ने जाना, वो क्या टूटे, वो और क्या मारे”
(What was broken and revived, what death tried to take away,
how could it be broken again?)

These words, spoken with quiet strength, hold the raw truth of Kailash Kher’s life. A life that, much like the music he creates, has been a journey of hardship, healing and everything in between. He has faced loss, endured difficult times and seen some of the darkest days. Yet, his songs are always filled with hope. This is what makes him not just a singer, but a storyteller of the human experience, a poet of strength. His music isn’t just sound; it’s a conversation with the soul. A conversation that comes from the heart of Kailash Kher, a man whose very being is felt in every note he sings. When he speaks about his journey, you can almost hear the weight of each experience in his voice, as if every word he shares is filled with emotion, shaped by years of struggle and success. In December 2016, a moment that would forever change his life arrived, though it took another few months for the reality to sink in. By April 2017, it was confirmed, he was to receive the Padma Shri, one of India’s highest civilian awards. The news was a whirlwind of emotions, not just for him, but for his family. “I first told my sister,” he recalls with a soft smile. “It was a moment of joy because, in Delhi, we had suffered a lot. We left our homes, lived like orphans and went through many different experiences. We saw the world changing, relationships changing and people’s attitudes changing, all of these shifts happened at a young age” His journey from hardship to honour is one of resilience. He talks about his childhood in Delhi, a city that seemed to change before his very eyes, as people, relationships and even attitudes shifted. Yet, despite the hardships, Delhi, in all its complexity, gave him the opportunity to realise his dreams. The recognition came not just for his music but for the spirit with which he has approached life. From a young age, music was more than just a passion, it was his way of being. “As a child of 4 or 5, I was already curious about music, but I didn’t sing the popular songs of the time,” he shares. Instead, he gravitated toward unique sounds that defied the norm. “I didn’t sing filmi songs, ghazals, bhajans or qawwalis. I didn’t sing what was already there. People were curious, what does this child sing and how?” It was this originality that later led to the birth of Kailasa, a name that would become synonymous with spiritual and soul-stirring music. As his career grew, his live performances became a way for him to connect deeply with his audience. “In Kota, Rajasthan, a girl came to one of my shows with a blade, saying she would harm herself if she didn’t get to meet me. She was a devotee and my music was more than entertainment to her, it was her lifeline,” he remembers. “When I found out, I asked her to drop the blade, and she did. It was one of those moments that reminded me of the emotional power music holds. It’s not just about melodies; it’s about healing.” Every song he writes, sings and composes holds a piece of his soul. “When I sing, it’s a reflection of my own emotions. But once it’s out there, it becomes part of someone else’s story too,” he explains. His music resonates with listeners in a way that breaks through language and culture, offering a universal connection. Despite his success in Bollywood, he differentiates the impact of film music from his non-film compositions. “Film audiences are looking for light entertainment but non-film music carries deeper emotions,” he says. “Non-film music touches the soul, while film music is more fleeting. Each platform has its unique audience and I enjoy the challenge of catering to different frequencies.” But no career comes without its challenges and his own journey wasn’t without rejection. He remembers the time when his song “Allah Ke Bande” was initially dismissed. “At the time, I didn’t understand the film industry very well. They told me it was a film song but it didn’t have the usual budget. I had doubts. But when the song became a hit, the same people who rejected it came asking for collaboration. That song did become a turning point in my career and it was

IT WAS A MOMENT OF JOY
BECAUSE, IN DELHI,
WE HAD SUFFERED A LOT.
LIVED LIKE ORPHANS AND WENT THROUGH MANY DIFFERENT EXPERIENCES.
WE SAW THE WORLD
CHANGING, RELATIONSHIPS
CHANGING AND PEOPLE’S ATTITUDES CHANGING,
ALL OF THESE SHIFTS
HAPPENED AT A

a lesson that sometimes the smallest beginnings lead to the biggest breakthroughs.” Reflecting on his career, he is humble about his influence. “People often ask me which of my songs defines me. It’s difficult to choose. Life is so full of shifting emotions. Each song represents a different phase. Take ‘Piya Ghar Aavenge’, for example, it’s about the anticipation of a reunion. Or ‘Teri Deewani’, which is about the intensity of love. And then there’s ‘Saiyyan’, a song about surrendering to something greater than yourself. Each one reflects a part of my journey but none can define it entirely.” As for the impact of his music, he says that whether he is performing in India or abroad, the connection is the same. “Wherever I go, people connect with my music because it speaks to their hearts. Whether in the US or India, our indian audience understands the joy of life. But in Delhi,” he adds with a mischievous grin, “there’s a certain energy here, a special ‘dhamaal’ that is unmatched.” He may not have imagined this journey when he first started singing as a child, but today, his music has touched the hearts of millions. It is the story of a boy who didn’t follow the conventional path, a boy who sang from his heart and whose voice continues to resonate with the world. The Padma Shri award is just one chapter in his extraordinary journey, a journey that continues to inspire and uplift. Kher’s journey is a beautiful reminder of the power of music to connect us to something deeper within ourselves. Kailash kher doesn’t just make music; he shares pieces of his own story, inviting us all to reflect on our own. Every track, Kher insists, is a piece of his soul. “They’re not just songs,” he says. “They’re my prayers, my truths. And once they’re out in the world, they take on lives of their own.” Much like the lyrics of Piya Ghar Aavenge, “आज मेरे पिया घर आवेंगे, हे—री, सखी, मंगल गाओ री, धरती—अंबर सजाओ री, उतरेगी आज मेरे पी की सवासे”, they speak of waiting, of anticipation, of the quiet joy that comes from knowing something beautiful is about to happen. Waiting isn’t always celebrated, but his music shows us that there is beauty in the moments in between. The stillness and hope that accompany the wait remind us that sometimes the most profound moments in life aren’t the arrivals, but the journeys we take while waiting. In his own way, Kailash Kher teaches us that there is an art to waiting. It’s in those moments of anticipation when we hold our breath and trust that what we’re waiting for will be worth it. Just like the joy in the song, the waiting itself is part of the magic, making the reunion all the more meaningful when it finally arrives.

FROM THE MAN HIMSELF

What one piece of advice to your younger self, the Kailash Kher just starting out, what would it be and why?
I would say, “You have never slept for 12 years, nor eaten properly. How did you survive without eating and sleeping? Eat a little, sleep a little and embrace life fully. Be human.” I lived like this, living many lives within one birth.

Is there any collaboration or project you have been wanting to do but haven’t had the chance yet?
I have no desires or plans. I am a man with no plan and I cherish that state of being. My only “want” is that I have no wants and my only “desire” is to have no desires. I believe life flows best when you’re not tied down by endless aspirations. Instead, I would advise others to focus on taking care of themselves first physically, mentally and spiritually, before chasing desires.

What message will you give to the younger generation who are coming into music?
I don’t give advice often because I believe when you give something valuable, it should be respected. Because when you give something that holds value, it is respected. If you give it for free, it is not. If someone truly wants it, they will take it. If they don’t want it, they won’t. That’s why I believe one should stay true to themselves, neither giving nor taking. If someone insists and asks me for advice, my advice would be this: “Never give advice to anyone. Neither give nor take. Just stay within yourself, and truly be true to yourself.

Who do you think would be the right person to portray your entire journey, from childhood to the present, in a film?
I don’t look at it from that perspective and that’s why I never have. Most people aren’t fully honest in their work. In creativity, too, many people repeat the same things in the name of “new.” They claim to be creating something very unique, but it’s already been done. Everyone’s life and story are unique and to capture that uniqueness, you need a creator who’s equally different. It’s possible that someone who’s never done it before, or even if they have, can bring something fresh to it because they understand the nuances of art and craft. If they can get it right, then it will have that newness and originality.

COORG: WHERE COFFEE CULTURE MEETS ASPIRATIONAL AVOCADOS

Coorg’s lush landscapes are evolving, with century-old coffee plantations now sharing space with thriving rows of avocado trees, writes GYANESHWAR DAYAL

As I pack my bags in Delhi the AQI is reading staggering 430, the smog has dawned on the city and there is heaviness in the air, eyes burning, breathing is an effort to be undertaken. The touchdown in Kempegowda International Airport Bengaluru is smooth the temperature is almost at par with Delhi but air is breathable. The five hours journey to Coorg is tiring but relaxing scenery changes from rocky to green to lush green, on the way you get to see the Gabbar Singh’s den, the place where Sholay film was shot some 40 years back. On the way we have elephant family waiting for us by the roadside and snake crosses the road as drives pushes the brakes. Yes, all of us have right to live, even snakes!

It is night already and the day is done without much fuss as we retire in 140-year-old property a British bungalow now a tata property -Taneerhulla in ama coffee trail. The morning view from the window is fascinating, Delhi smog has given way to Coorg fog, and AQI has dropped to 43! I take a deep breath, as if to store this purity and carry it back home.

Coorg, or Kodagu as it is known in Kannad is nestled in the heart of the Western Ghats, has a fascinating history shaped by its strategic location, natural resources, and the allure of its spices. This region has been a magnet for traders, rulers, and explorers, each drawn by its bounty and beauty.

The history of Coorg dates back to ancient times, with its mention in early Indian texts like the Sangam literature. The region was originally home to indigenous tribes like the Kodavas, who developed a rich culture centered around nature and agriculture. Kodavas are known for their martial traditions, unique customs, and close-knit community life, which continue to define Coorg’s identity today. Over centuries, Coorg saw the rise and fall of several South Indian dynasties, including the Cholas, Gangas, Hoysalas, and Kadambas. These rulers left their imprint through temples and forts, which stand as silent witnesses to the region’s historical significance.

By the 15th and 16th centuries, the fame of the Western Ghats and their riches spread beyond India’s borders. The spice trade was the primary lure, as Coorg, along with other parts of the Western Ghats, became a significant source of black pepper, cardamom, and other exotic spices. The Portuguese were among the first Europeans to set sail for India, with Vasco da Gama’s arrival in 1498 marking a new era of trade and conquest. Soon, Dutch, French, and British traders followed, vying for control of spice routes. Coorg, though a landlocked region, became an integral part of these trade networks due to its fertile hills and spice plantations.

In the early 19th century, the British annexed Coorg after defeating the local ruler, Chikka Veerarajendra, in 1834. Recognising Coorg’s agricultural potential, the British transformed its economy by introducing coffee cultivation alongside spices. This was the beginning of coffee plantation on commercial scale in Coorg and has stayed that way since. Coffee thrived in the region’s climate, and Coorg became one of India’s premier coffee-producing areas. The planters were of course the British who lived near their plantations. Their Bungalows dot the place and the one we stayed was of course belonged to a British. The British also admired Coorg’s natural beauty. Coorg is often referred to as the "Scotland of India" for its rolling hills, misty valleys, and temperate weather. Under British influence, the Kodavas were granted special privileges, including exemption from the Arms Act, which allowed them to retain their traditional firearms-a legacy still continues. The Western Ghats, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, are among the most biodiverse regions on the planet. Stretching over 1,600 kilometers from Gujarat to Kerala, these ancient mountains are home to an astonishing variety of flora and fauna. In Coorg, the Western Ghats reveal their most enchanting side. Dense forests, gurgling streams, and cascading waterfalls dominate the landscape, making it a paradise for nature enthusiasts. The forests host an incredible range of plant species, from ancient trees to medicinal herbs. They are especially known for sandalwood, teak, and bamboo. The Western Ghats are a haven for wildlife, including tigers, elephants, gaurs, and numerous endemic species like the Lion-tailed Macaque and Malabar Civet. The Ghats are also critical for the region’s agriculture, providing a fertile environment for growing coffee, spices, and now avocados. Coorg’s history is a blend of ancient traditions and modern influences. Its spice heritage continues to thrive alongside its renowned coffee plantations. Now, with the introduction of avocado cultivation by Westfalia Fruit, Coorg is stepping into a new chapter of agricultural innovation. Tourists visiting Coorg can trace its history through ancient temples, forts, and colonial-era bungalows, all while enjoying its natural beauty and rich culinary traditions. The intertwining of the Western Ghats’ biodiversity with the cultural tapestry of Coorg makes it one of India’s most enchanting destinations. Coorg’s identity is deeply intertwined with its coffee plantations, which have been the backbone of its economy for decades. Introduced by Baba Budan in the 17th century, coffee found an ideal home in Coorg’s rich soil and temperate climate. Today, the district is one of India’s leading coffee-producing regions, renowned for its Arabica and Robusta beans. The plantations, often set against misty hillsides, not only produce world-class coffee but also create picturesque landscapes that attract tourists. Coffee estate tours allow visitors to learn about the journey of coffee beans from farm to cup, making them an integral part of the Coorg experience. Located in southwestern Karnataka, Coorg is a verdant hill station known for its cool climate, scenic views, and pristine environment. It is part of the UNESCO -listed Western Ghats, one of the world’s biodiversity hotspots. The region’s dense forests, cascading waterfalls and diverse wildlife make it a haven for eco-tourism and outdoor activities such as trekking, birdwatching, and nature photography. Some must-visit spots include the Abbey Falls, Raja’s Seat, Dubare Elephant Camp, and the Brahmagiri Wildlife Sanctuary. The Kaveri River, originating from Talakaveri in Coorg, adds to the district’s charm, serving as a lifeline for the southern states of India. While coffee remains Coorg’s hallmark, the region is now witnessing a burgeoning avocado revolution, led by Westfalia Fruit, a global leader in avocado production. Recognising Coorg’s favourable climate for cultivation, Westfalia has established a state-of-the-art avocado nursery in collaboration with Sam Agri and Dvori-Or Nursery. The initiative focuses on growing high-quality Hass and other commercial avocado varieties.

The saying, "Where tea and coffee grow, avocados can grow better," perfectly describes Coorg’s potential. Its tropical climate, high elevation, and fertile soil make it an excellent location for avocado farming. Westfalia’s meticulous approach to planting, nurturing, and harvesting ensures that the avocados meet global quality standards.

Westfalia has already contributed to planting over 500 acres of avocado farms across India, with a target to exceed 1,000 acres by 2026. The Coorg nursery plays a critical role in supplying premium rootstock and planting material, ensuring sustainable practices and high yields. For coffee farmers, avocados offer a promising diversification crop, creating additional income streams and contributing to rural development. Westfalia, in partnership with the World Avocado Organisation (WAO), is driving efforts to educate Indian consumers about the health benefits and culinary versatility of avocados. Campaigns like "Avocado Ki Paatshaala," led by celebrity chef Sanjeev Kapoor, have been instrumental in popularising the fruit. We get hands on lessons on avocado grafting and cloning the techniques Westfalia is introducing in Coorg for avocado plantation sooner than later Coorg avocados would be available across the country. Avocados is one of the healthy diet options which can served in several avatars from avocado-on-toast to guacamole and even avocado shake and ice cream. This is going to benefit the local farmers as well as they can four to five times the amount they make on coffee. Coorg’s transformation from a coffee giant to a hub for avocados signifies its adaptability and progressive approach to agriculture. Visitors to Coorg can now enjoy not only a cup of freshly brewed coffee but also a taste of locally grown avocados, blending wellness with indulgence.

Whether you’re exploring its lush landscapes, learning about coffee cultivation, or witnessing the avocado revolution, Coorg offers a unique journey through nature and innovation. This jewel of Karnataka remains a must-visit destination for travellers and a shining example of India’s agricultural potential. As the time to leave draws near, I find myself reflecting on the air of Delhi and take one last, deep breath of Coorg’s pure, refreshing atmosphere. The aroma of spices beckons us to the local market, where we gather handfuls of fragrant treasures and, naturally, Coorg’s signature Arabica and Robusta coffee. With our bags filled with spices, coffee, and the newfound delight of avocados, we bid farewell to this enchanting land and set out on the highway to Bengaluru. As we journey home, our hearts are brimming with memories that promise to call us back. Coorg is a place one longs to return to-sooner rather than later.
