Ayodhya’s Son set to welcome the Sun

DEEPA KUMARI JHA

T he ancient city of lakshya for Ayodhya, now Ayodhya, is ready to receive the legacy of Lord Ram on Monday after a wait of around five centuries.

Today it narrates the story of Shri Ram, Shri Ram, Bhal, Lord Ram, Shri Ram, Shri Ram, Bhal, Lord Ram. While the Ram Mandir, a temple in Ayodhya, is the center of devotion, the story of Lord Ram transcends state borders, setting a nation in the pilgrimage for a temple.

From Karhunta to Kanyakumari, the echoes of Ram’s name have woven a tapestry of devotion across the country and across the world.

Thousands of devoted devotees walk on the Ram Path. As Bhandaras, reminiscent of communal feasts, come into life, the streets pulsate with the resonant chanting of Vedic mantras. Thousand of their kindred, the streets are a symphony of communal feasts, come alive as the streets of Ayodhya. A unique feature is the Surya Tilak mechanism, designed to move a Tilak support on the Sun’s path for 6 minutes.

Time to embrace a new dawn

Today marks the historical emergence of a modern Hindu Rajya as India stands more confident and poised for progress than ever before, embracing its cultural heritage.

PHILLIP GORADIA

As the sun rises on Monday, January 22, a new day dawns for India, marking the beginning of a modern Hindu Rajya. The nation has undergone a transformation, rooted in the ideals that once guided the freedom struggle of Dr. Mahatma Gandhi and his followers. The sourcing of the idea for a modern Hindu Rajya can be traced back to the Gita Govinda, an ancient Indian text that celebrates the essence of India's spiritual and cultural heritage.

POLITICS, RELIGION AND SECULARISM

The concept of a Hindu Rajya is not new. It has been a recurring theme in Indian politics, with various political leaders and thinkers advocating for a Hindu-centric governance model. The recent shift towards a more inclusive and secular approach in governance, however, has paved the way for this daunting concept.

STRENGTH AND WEAKNESS

India’s struggle for freedom from colonial rule was marked by a strong sense of identity and unity, but the post-colonial period has been marred by divisions and conflicts. The idea of a Hindu Rajya, while controversial, offers a vision of unity and shared values, transcending linguistic and regional differences.

SOME FOUNDATIONAL HINDUISM HAVE A PLACE IN THE DIRECTIVE PRINCIPLES OF STATE POLICY, BUT NOT ENFORCEABLE FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

The Directive Principles of State Policy, enshrined in the Constitution of India, outline the goals and ideals that the government should strive to achieve. These principles are highly aspirational and reflect the values of Hindu dharma, but they are not enforceable as fundamental rights.

Differenciating welfare schemes from freebies

As election pledges of freebies escalate, Modi government issues a warning to States at the third National Conference of Chief Secretaries

At a recent conference of chief secretaries, Prime Minister Narendra Modi has warned state governments against making promises of freebies and gifts ahead of elections.

T he third National Conference of Chief Secretaries was held in New Delhi on 27th and 28th December 2023. In his address, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said that showers of freebies have become a common election strategy, but such promises can lead to an un健康的 economy.

The Prime Minister highlighted that the increasing trend of making promises of freebies and gifts ahead of elections is a worrying trend. He said that such promises can lead to an unhealthy economy and can have a negative impact on the country’s growth.

“The problem is that there is an over-reliance on freebies and gifts,” said the Prime Minister. “This is not healthy for the economy and can have a negative impact on growth.”

He further stressed that the government is committed to ensuring economic growth and development. He also emphasized the need for a balanced approach to policies and programs.

The Prime Minister also said that the government is committed to providing quality education, healthcare, and infrastructure to all sections of society. He added that the government is also working to increase job opportunities and create a conducive environment for businesses.

At the conference, Chief Secretaries from various states were also present and shared their views and suggestions. They highlighted the challenges faced by their states and the need for a coordinated approach to address them.

The Prime Minister also announced a host of initiatives to boost the economy and create new jobs. These initiatives include the introduction of new tax incentives for businesses, increased funding for education and healthcare, and the creation of new infrastructure projects.

The Prime Minister also emphasized the importance of transparency and accountability in governance. He said that the government is committed to ensuring that all public money is used in a transparent and accountable manner.

The Prime Minister also emphasized the need for a strong and stable economy. He said that the government is committed to ensuring macroeconomic stability and maintaining a strong currency.

The Prime Minister also stressed the importance of fiscal discipline. He said that the government is committed to ensuring that the budget deficit is kept within acceptable limits.

Only zero emission cars can help tackle air pollution, reduce oil imports: Tata Motors

As the world moves towards zero-emission vehicles, Tata Motors has joined the bandwagon by launching its first electric car, the EVision. The company has been a leader in the Indian automotive sector for many years and has been known for its innovation and commitment to sustainability. The EVision is the company’s first electric vehicle and is aimed at meeting the growing demand for zero-emission cars.

The EVision is a compact luxury electric car that is designed to meet the needs of urban commuters. It is powered by a powerful electric motor and has a battery capacity of 60 kWh. The vehicle has a range of 350 km and is capable of accelerating from 0 to 100 km/h in just 6.9 seconds. The EVision is also equipped with advanced driver assistance features such as automatic emergency braking and lane-keeping assist.

The launch of the EVision is a significant step towards Tata Motors’ commitment to sustainability. The company has been working towards reducing its carbon footprint and has set targets to become carbon-neutral by 2040. The launch of the EVision is a testament to the company’s commitment to innovation and sustainability.

The EVision is expected to be launched in the market in the near future, and interested buyers can book the vehicle online. The company has also announced plans to launch more electric vehicles in the coming years, which will further reinforce its commitment to sustainability.

Only 10 per cent of all cars sold in India are electric, and even those 10 per cent are mostly high-end luxury cars. Tata Motors is committed to bringing affordable electric vehicles to the masses, and the EVision is a step in that direction. The company will continue to invest in electric vehicle technology and infrastructure to make electric vehicles a viable option for Indian consumers.
Himesh was favourite in Srikkanth and Chirag during their double against world champions Kargane and Poonam of India. However, a series of weak strokes by the Indian side in the second set made them lose the first rubber. On the other hand, Satwik and Chirag, the Asian champions, raced to 11-8 in the first set before a couple of straight games by the Indian duo, which were the decisive moments of the match. The victory also earned Satwik and Chirag their third win at the Malaysia Masters, which became their best effort so far at a major in 2023.

The Indian duo played some breathtaking shots, displaying dramatic finishing touches as they kept Himesh on the back foot. The Indian pair gambled with some sizzlers in the opening game, but Chirag dominated in the front court with some powerful smashes. Satwik and Chirag raced to a 10-5 lead but an impeccable display by Himesh kept them in the contest. However, the Indian duo maintained their lead to win the game 21-18 and 21-16 to win the match 2-0. The victory also cemented their position at the top of the men’s doubles world rankings.

Pakistan beats New Zealand by 42 runs in 5th T20I

PTI NEW DELHI

Pakistan had an unanswerable hit as it thumped New Zealand by 42 runs to win the fifth Twenty20 International by 48 runs.

The hosts came to the pitch on Sunday with their morale on an all-time high after clinching the previous two T20Is and the first Test of the three-match series. The tourists, on the other hand, were looking for a morale booster after losing 2-0 against India in the two preceding Tests.

According to cricket protocols, the site of the T20I was shifted from Lincoln in New Zealand to Christchurch at the last minute, which left the tourists reeling from a number of changes in their squad.

New Zealand did not have many answers to the Pakistan spinners on a sub-standard pitch at Hagley and New Zealand’s main hope for a recovery, but it was 35 for two.
