Steps taken for smooth counting
After the successful completion of the counting of the remaining Assembly seats in Vizag on June 4, the remaining counting of the 175 seats is underway in an orderly manner. Polling, Party symbols, and the voter list were scrutinized smoothly. The district administration has conducted the counting with the utmost care for the first time since the inception of thestitute.

Over a fifth of excess deaths
More than 1.3 lakh deaths a year were attributed to poor hospital care in urban and rural areas. Of these, the greatest burden was found among people who had recently switched to life-saving interventions.

With the rise in infertility, many couples are finding it difficult to have children. With the increase in assisted reproduction techniques, the demand for sperm banks has also increased. This has led to an increase in cases of sperm theft and other related crimes. The police have been taking several measures to ensure the safety and security of sperm banks and their employees. They have deployed armed forces and mounted security cameras to monitor the premises.

The EVM strongrooms have also been thoroughly inspected by the security forces and the officials. The EVMs are kept in strong, secure locations with multiple layers of security. The officials have ensured that the EVMs are not tampered with and that the counting process is conducted smoothly.

A peace and tranquility enwraps the silky slopes of Kashmir in perfect post-monsoon vistas. Not far from here, a Pakistan-Occupied Kashmir (PoK), India’s Home Minister Amit Shah has deliver ed the region’s future to the electorate; “It was a must.” Nothing new, much has been discussed in the comment but the question has not been addressed during the debates in the Lok Sabha elections. This led to the sentiment that India’s political leadership has failed to understand the significance of Uttar Pradesh elections. This led to widespread disillusionment among voters. While the BJP and the Indian National Congress (INC) have been cheered as unbeatable political forces, the Modi-Yogi partnership has become the talk of the town. The 2014 Lok Sabha elections, UP’s political landscape, ended up being a massive roadshow prior to the elections, with the BJP’s ambitious goal of winning 71 out of 80 seats. The subsequent 2019 elections were a testament to the Modi wave and Yogi’s governance. The BJP’s ambitious goal of winning 71 out of 80 seats was achieved, underscoring their collective optimism about surpassing previous electoral records. However, the question remains, what do these elections mean for the future of India’s political landscape?

The BJP’s ambitious goal of securing all 10 Lok Sabha seats in UP in 2024 is based on the confidence placed in this region. Modi has boosted UP’s education development initiatives, focusing on the needs of the country’s political landscape. The government’s efforts are aimed at attracting new migrant workers and increasing the skills of the local workforce, which has become a crucial aspect of the party’s strategy. With the 2024 Lok Sabha elections on the horizon, the BJP is gearing up for another major electoral push, with a focus on increasing the skills of the local workforce, which has become a crucial aspect of the party’s strategy.

Reflections of an oncologist navigating imperfections in cancer care

Doctors aren’t infallible but compassionate humans dedicated to easing human suffering, even in the face of formidable medical challenges

As an Oncologist, my patients are filled with questions about their diagnosis, treatment options, and life expectancy. Martin Luther King Jr. once said, “Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are adequate.” This quote resonates with me every day as I navigate the complexities of oncology care. I have come to understand that medical science is far from perfect. In oncology, we often find ourselves dealing with a disease that can overwhelm even the strongest of us. It’s a battle that we strive to win, not because we are perfect, but because we have a duty to our patients to do our best. Each day, I work to balance the uncertainties of cancer care with the need for hope and optimism. I remind myself that every patient is unique, and their journey is as important as their diagnosis. I strive to provide care that is compassionate, patient-centered, and evidence-based. I am grateful for the opportunity to make a difference in the lives of my patients and their families.

As I sit here, writing this reflection, I am struck by the weight of my responsibility. Cancer care is not just about treating the disease; it’s about treating the patient. It’s about helping them navigate the challenges of life, death, and everything in between. It’s about empowering patients to make informed decisions about their care and ensuring that they have access to the resources they need to thrive.

I am reminded of a quote by the late Elie Wiesel: “The day that we forget how to help each other is the day we forget how to love.” As an oncologist, I strive to remember this every day. I am grateful for the opportunity to make a difference in the lives of my patients and their families. I am committed to providing care that is compassionate, patient-centered, and evidence-based. Weakness and fatigue in hot weather? Don’t confuse irregular heartbeat with a heat stroke!

Weakness and fatigue are very common symptoms, they can occur due to heat stroke, cramp, heat exhaustion, heat rash, heat-related illnesses, etc. Our body temperature increases in these conditions, which can lead to heat exhaustion or heat stroke. Heat stroke is a medical emergency and can be life-threatening. Heat exhaustion, on the other hand, can be managed with proper treatment and care.

Here are some important points that you should know about heat exhaustion and heat stroke:

1. Heat exhaustion is a milder form of heat-related illness and can be treated with proper hydration, rest, and cool environment.
2. Heat stroke is a medical emergency and requires immediate medical attention. It can be caused by prolonged exposure to high temperatures or strenuous activity in high temperatures.
3. Symptoms of heat exhaustion include:
   - Increased body temperature
   - Flushed skin
   - Nausea
   - Fainting
   - Headache
   - Dizziness
   - Rapid heartbeat
   - Sweating
   - Weakness and fatigue

4. Symptoms of heat stroke include:
   - High body temperature (above 104°F or 40°C)
   - Dizziness
   - Confusion
   - Nausea
   - Rapid heartbeat
   - Sweating
   - Weakness and fatigue

5. In case of heat exhaustion, move the person to a cool place and provide fluids. In case of heat stroke, call emergency services immediately.

6. Follow heat acclimatization guidelines and wear appropriate clothing and footwear to protect against heat.

7. Stay hydrated by drinking plenty of fluids, even if you don’t feel thirsty.

8. Avoid strenuous activity during the hottest parts of the day.

9. Check on elderly, infants, and people with chronic health conditions who may be more susceptible to heat-related illnesses.

Precaution and prevention of heat exhaustion and heat stroke:

- Drink plenty of hydrating fluids
- Avoid exposure to direct sunlight
- Wear light-colored, loose-fitting clothing
- Take regular breaks in the shade
- Use air conditioning or fans
- Stay cool indoors

If you experience any symptoms of heat exhaustion or heat stroke, seek medical attention immediately.
Once I am done, I will be gone, you will not see me for a while: Kohli

O n a Sunday to forget, Indian batting counterpart Virat Kohli wants to give everything he has in limited-overs cricket because once he is done, he won’t be ‘seen’ and ‘heard’. Kohli’s appetite for runs and aggression to take the side to new heights on the global stage.

Kohli was picked by RCB soon after he helped India to title-magnificent win in the 2008 Under-19 World Cup and he has continued to be with the franchise ever since. Thanks, a person who always looks at Kohli, realised that he is just working hard, always wanting to improve, to be the best player he can be. But he also knows that the time to play well is for a short span only and not having any injuries, which will be a big factor.

“Once done, I will be gone, you won’t see me for a while”, Kohli said when asked about his future plans. He added as Gaikwad was handed the captaincy.

The veteran opener, however, said it was a pretty good game. He added as Gaikwad was handed the captaincy.

“MS sort of announced that he was going to stick around in the transition phase which seem to have marred drama a little bit as well. He also remained an area of contention, PBKS are currently for the fifth and final tournament. “I hope he keeps going on for a very long time” he added. The All-India Senior Selection Committee on Thursday picked a six-member squad for the 2023 edition of the Indian team. The senior selection committee of the Indian team has named A. Sharath Kamal, Harmeet Desai, Manika to lead India in the Women’s T20 World Cup team. The Indian team is currently ranked at No. 6 in the world. With Sanju Samson and Rohit Sharma as the top scorers and Suryakumar, though, has regained confidence with a strong showing in the IPL, following three failures and a century.

Sharath, Manika to lead India in Olympic team debut
