espite launching a massive manhunt to track down the footprints of perpetrators behind the brutal massacre of tourists in the South Kashmir area of Pahalgam, the security forces could not find anything significant during the day.

Ground reports claimed helicopters and drones scanned the Baisaran forest area over Pahalgam in search of the terrorists but failed to track down their

Preliminary reports indicated a group of four Lashkar-e-Taiba (LeT) terrorists, including two locals, executed the terror plot at the behest of their Pakistan-based handlers to disrupt the peak tourist season and spread the reign of terror in

The two locals, involved in the attack, have been identified as Aadil Thakur of Bijbehara and Aasif Sheikh of Tral.

Reports also claimed the terrorists were armed with sophisticated AK rifles, armour-piercing bullets, and helmet-mounted cameras to record the 'barbaric' strike on the Indian tourists holidaying at a famous picnic spot.

Before launching the targeted strike, the terrorist handlers had carefully zeroed in on the Baisaran meadow, a popular hotspot for tourists during the peak

Since the objective was to derail the blooming tourist season in the valley, the terrorists took advantage of the complacent security environment in the region. The terrorists were well aware of the fact that none of the security personnel were deployed at the tourist hotspot, and they could freely target the tourists as 'sitting ducks'.

The Baisaran meadow, located six kilometers uphill from the main town of Pahalgam in the Anantnag district, not only became a death trap for tourists but also provided enough time to the terrorists to flee the area without coming on the radar of the security forces.

After the attack took place around 2.30 p.m. on Tuesday, the security forces arrived at the location after about an hour. The terrorists exploited the time lag to their advantage and vanished into the deep jungles before the security forces could launch any counter terrorist operations in the area. to excessive blood loss as they could not be shifted to the nearby hospital in the absence of direct road connectivity between Pahalgam and Baisaran.

haken by the brutality of the Pahalgam massacre, which left 26 Pahalgam massacre, which ich 20 tourists dead and 17 others wounded on Tuesday, ordinary Indians have united in grief and rage, demanding swift retaliation against the perpetrators from the government.

Echoing similar sentiments, Union Home Minister Amit Shah on Wednesday asserted that the country will not bend before terror and that those responsible for the killing of tourists at Pahalgam will not be spared.

Selective targeting of tourists, belonging to one faith, has not only devastated families but also shaken the public conscience.

To register their protest against the barbaric strike, people across Jammu and Kashmir on Wednesday observed a complete shutdown.

Across the Valley, political, religious, social and professional organisations condemned the killing of tourists at the famous Baisaran meadow of Pahalgam. Protests were held in several parts of Union Home Minister Amit Shah visiting the site of the Pahalgam terror attack in Anantnag district, Jammu city, with many protesters raising anti-Pakistan slogans and demanding surgical strikes to destroy terror bases in the neighbouring country.

Before the mortal remains of tourists were dispatched to their native places, the Union Home Minister attended the wreath-laying ceremony in Srinagar. Lieutenant Governor Manoj Sinha and Chief Minister Omar Abdullah also paid their tributes to the victims.

The Home Minister later interacted with families of the slain persons and other survivors of the attack.

Meanwhile, nearly 90 per cent bookings for Jammu and from Srinagar to facilitate evacuation of Kashmir have been cancelled by tourists over safety concerns.

The Ministry of Civil Aviation has instructed airlines to temporarily operate more flights out of Srinagar to handle the rush of tourists who want to cancel their holiday and leave Jammu and Kashmir in the wake of Tuesday's terror attack.

Airlines were also advised to waive cancellation and rescheduling fees. The Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) has issued advisory to airlines to "take swift action" to increase flights to and stranded tourists. IndiGo, Air India and SpiceJet are operating a total of seven extra flights in addition to their normal scheduled services from Srinagar.

The Ministry of Civil Aviation asked the airlines to ensure there is no surge in airfares on the Srinagar route, and airlines will be operating additional flights to the city. Civil Aviation Minister K Rammohan Naidu on Wednesday said that strict instructions were given to airline companies to avoid any fare surges, and that fares are being monitored and kept at reasonable levels. His comments also came against the backdrop of some websites apparently showing ticket prices of over ₹50,000 for flights to Srinagar.

Terrorists struck at a prime tourist location in Pahalgam in south Kashmir on Tuesday, killing at least 26 people, mostly tourists, and injuring several others. Among the deceased were two foreigners-one each from the UAE and Nepal-and two locals. In the aftermath of the incident in Pahalgam, there is an unexpected demand from tourists seeking to return to their homes. In this regard, the airlines are advised to take swift action to increase the number of flights in response to heightened demand and also to ensure uninterrupted connectivity from Srinagar to various destinations across India, facilitating evacuation of stranded tourists," read the DGCA advisory released on Wednesday, April 23.

Pakistan, China and Bangladesh shed crocodile tears for India day after the Pahalgam attack in which 26 people were killed, ⚠ Pakistan, China and Bangladesh on Wednesday condoled the deaths of tourists.

"We are concerned at the loss of tourists' lives in an attack in Anantnag district. We extend our condolences to the near ones of the deceased and wish the injured a speedy recovery," Pakistan Foreign Office spokesperson said in Islamabad responding to media queries about the attack.

Terrorists opened fire in Pahalgam on Tuesday afternoon, killing 26 people, mostly tourists, in what is the deadliest attack in the Valley since the Pulwama strike in 2019.

On Tuesday, The Resistance Front (TRF), a proxy of the banned Pakistan-based Lashkar-e-Taiba (LeT), claimed responsibility for the attack. Officials said it was possible the terror group members had crossed over from Kishtwar in Jammu and reached Baisaran through Kokernag in south Kashmir.

Days earlier, Pakistan Army Chief General Asim Munir described Kashmir as Pakistan's "jugular vein," triggering a sharp response from New Delhi. "Our stance is very clear, it was our jugular vein, it will be our jugular vein, and we will not forget it. We will not leave our Kashmiri brothers in their heroic struggle," General Munir said while addressing the first Overseas Pakistanis Convention in Islamabad on April 15. The event was also attended by Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif, senior ministers and Pakistanis living abroad. India had slammed Munir's remarks.

Come winter, welcome entry ban on all vehicles registered outside Delhi

RAJESH KUMAR ■ New Delhi

n a move to tackle the high pollution load from commercial vehicles Lentering Delhi, the Commission of Air Quality Management (CAQM) on Wednesday issued an order banning on entry of all vehicles from November 1, 2025. Only BS-VI diesel, CNG, LNG and electric goods vehicles, including Light Goods Vehicles (LGVs), Medium Goods Vehicles (MGVs) and Heavy Goods Vehicles (HGVs), will be allowed entry into Delhi from that date, the commission said in an order. The CAQM said the order will apply to all such vehicles registered outside Delhi.

The Commission has also issued order not to give fuel to End of Life (EoL) vehicles, identified through the Automatic Number Plate Recognition cameras or other such systems installed at the fuel pump stations from June 1, 2025 in Delhi and Gurugram, Faridabad, Ghaziabad, Gautam Budh Nagar and sonipat will ban the fuel from November 1, 2025 and from April 1, 2026, it will be applicable in the rest of the national capital region.

According to experts, transport is the key contributors to air pollution in Delhi. There were 79.5 lakh vehicles registered as of March 31, 2023. Of these, 20.7 lakh were private cars. The total number of vehicles registered in Delhi was 1.2 crore, with 33.8 lakh being private cars, as per the Delhi Statistical Handbook 2023. The ever-growing vehicular traffic in Delhi - NCR has been a prime contributor to the enhanced vehicular emissions in the region and such large number of vehicles also cause traffic congestions and jams at major intersections and critical public places, thereby further enhancing the pollutant load from vehicular emissions.

non-BS-VI compliant transport/commercial goods vehicles' carrying essential commodities / providing essential services shall' however' be permitted to enter Delhi, but only for a limited period up to October 31, 2026 beyond which goods /services shall also have to be catered only through CNG / LNG / BV / BS-VI diesel vehicles'. Transport Department/ Traffic Police in Delhi & the NCR States may accordingly widely disseminate this direction amongst all stakeholders and ensure strict compliance w.e.f. 01.1 1 -2025 through effective implementation/enforcement measures at all border entry points to Delhi and regular monitoring/review of the same' Quarterly Reports on the action taken by the concerned agencies shall be furnished to commission," reads the order.

However, non-BS VI vehicles carrying essential commodities or providing essential services will be granted temporary exemption until October 31, 2026. After that, even essential services must switch to cleaner fuels.

The CAQM said commercial vehicles, especially older diesel ones, significantly contribute to Delhi-NCR's air pollution, particularly during winter. The decision is aligned with the Graded Response Action Plan (GRAP), which already restricts entry of polluting vehicles during high-pollution days. The commission has directed the transport departments and traffic police in Delhi and neighbouring states to ensure strict enforcement of this order at all 126 border entry points and 52 toll plazas equipped with

Delhi Noida border

Automatic Number Plate Recognition cameras. Quarterly compliance reports must be submitted by all implementing agencies, the CAQM said.

There is no restriction on entry of Diesel goods vehicles to BS-VI standards and all vehicles running on LNG, CNG or electric vehicles into Delhi at any point in

"WHEREAS, the ever-growing vehicular traffic in Delhi — NCR has been a prime contributor to the enhanced vehicular emissions in the region and such large number of vehicles also cause traffic congestions and jams at major intersections and critical public places, thereby further enhancing the pollutant load from vehicular emissions;

"Whereas, within the vehicular sector, while transport/commercial goods vehicles are generally reported to be utilised extensively, these are often poorly maintained and thus are significantly high on emissions; WHEREAS, it has been established through various assessment studies that all classes of transport/commercial goods vehicles —

LGVs' MGVs and FIGVs particularly those with pre-BS-VI standards have significantly higher emission potential and these while passing through NCR areas and moving into Delhi contribute adversely to the overall vehicular pollution load in the entire NCR," it said.

On the barring fuel to overaged vehicles, the Commission ordered not to give fuel to such vehicles (End of Life-EoL) vehicles, identified through the Automatic Number Plate Recognition cameras or other such systems installed at the fuel pump stations from June 1, 2025 in Delhi and Gurugram, Faridabad, Ghaziabad, Gautam Budh Nagar and sonipat will ban the fuel from November 1, 2025 and from April 1, 2026, it will be applicable in the rest of the national capital region. 'Immediate iegal action should be taken in respect of such BoL vehicles, including impounding and further disposal in accordance with RVSF Rules, 2021 and other extant policies of the respective State Governments and the GNCTD. There are 61, 14,728 overaged vehicles in Delhi; 27,50,152 in Haryana; 12,69,598 in UP and 6,20,962 in Rajasthan. 'Traffic surveillance cameras installed on major roads which facilitate the traffic police to challan vehicles for traffic violations and the Integrated Command Control Centers for traffic management in NCR cities/districts shall also be used for supplementing action against EoL vehicles found plying on roads, using camera feeds from strategic traffic points/ intersections. Transport Department of GNCTD and the NCR States may accordingly widely disseminate this direction amongst all stakeholders including fuel stations and ensure its strict compliance through effective implementation / enforcement measures," it said.

Punjab on High Alert After Pahalgam Terror Attack: CM Orders Sweeping Security Measures Across State

day after the deadly terror attack in Jammu and Kashmir's Pahalgam that claimed the lives of 26 innocent Ltourists, Punjab is on the edge, responding swiftly and comprehensively to the escalating threat. The state has rolled out a multi-layered security response, with an allencompassing crackdown that spans from educational institutions to international borders. Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann, following a high-level security review meeting on Wednesday morning, declared that Punjab is in a state of high alert, with law and order now accorded the "highest priority". Security has been drastically beefed up across Punjab - especially in over 160 educational institutions housing students from Jammu and Kashmir — as well as tourist hubs, religious sites, and public spaces with heavy footfall.

Chief Minister Mann also ordered intensified security deployment along the state's sensitive border with J&K in Pathankot, where specialized units from the Army, Border Security Force (BSF), and Punjab Police's anti-sabotage squads have been mobilized. A red alert has been sounded, with inter-state and inter-district checkpoints now under constant surveillance, while security forces operate in joint coordination to thwart any further escalation.

Condemning the Pahalgam attack as "barbaric and inhuman, Mann asserted that the safety of every citizen remains paramount. Addressing media after the review meeting with top civil and police officials — including Chief Secretary KAP Sinha and DGP Gaurav Yadav, Mann emphasized that no one will be allowed to disrupt Punjab's hardearned peace. "Punjab Police is fully capable of foiling any attempt to destabilize the state. We have forged a seamless coordination mechanism between the Punjab Police, Army, and BSF to counter any emerging threat," he said.

Mann also revealed that the state is in constant touch with the J&K Administration to ensure the safe return of Punjabis currently stranded in the Kashmir valley, particularly tourists and students. "We are monitoring the situation in real-time. Our primary concern is the safety of our people — whether in Punjab or in Jammu and Kashmir," he said.

He further urged the citizens to remain calm and uphold the values of communal harmony and unity. "The terrorists have no religion. Their only objective is to sow fear and divide society. We will not let them succeed," Mann said.

Appealing to the public to avoid panic and display the spirit of brotherhood, he added, "This is the time to stand together as one – across castes, creeds, and communities."

The security response in border regions has been particularly intense. In Pathankot — Punjab's northernmost district sharing a border with J&K — security agencies launched round-the-clock surveillance. The Madhopur checkpoint on the Pathankot-Jammu National Highway has become a focal point for rigorous inspections, manned by Army personnel, BSF units, and Punjab Police's Special Operations Group (SOG).

According to Pathankot Senior Superintendent of Police (SSP) Daljinder Singh Dhillon, joint Quick Response Teams (QRTs) have been stationed to respond immediately to any untoward situation. "This level of preparedness is absolutely necessary. We are leaving nothing to chance," he Additional security measures have been taken in light of intelligence suggesting the involvement of a top Lashkar-e-Taiba (LeT) commander in the Pahalgam incident. Sketches of three suspected terrorists have been released by security agencies, prompting Punjab Police to increase patrols and surveillance across high-risk zones. Explosivesniffing dog squads have been deployed in several sensitive areas, with more expected to join shortly.

SSP Dhillon said that the entire operation is being monitored from the Pathankot police's command-and-control center, ensuring real-time surveillance and coordinated response. Joint Quick Response Teams (QRTs), comprising personnel from the Army and Punjab Police, have also been stationed at the border for immediate action in case of any threat.

DGP Gaurav Yadav confirmed that a statewide alert was issued within hours of the attack, with Punjab stepping up vigilance along its 530-km border with Pakistan and J&K. "Pakistan is continuing its proxy war strategy — whether through terror modules or drone-based smuggling operations. But we are prepared. We've dismantled several modules before and we will continue to do so," said DGP Yadav. He maintained that Punjab is coordinating in real-time with the central intelligence agencies and the J&K Police.

The nexus of gangsters, smugglers, and terrorists continues to be a concern for the state. "Ever since we tightened the noose around drug peddlers and gangsters, they've started collaborating with cross-border terror outfits. But let me assure the people of Punjab - we're watching them, and we will act decisively," said Mann, adding that anti-drone technology will soon be deployed to curb aerial smuggling of weapons and narcotics.

Notably, police across districts adjoining Jammu — particularly in Gurdaspur and Pathankot — have also sealed alternative routes that connect with the Jammu division. Vehicles entering Punjab from J&K are undergoing thorough checks at multiple barriers, and police checkpoints have been reinforced with additional personnel.

SHO Vijay Kumar of Naranot Jaimal Singh Police Station said: "All police personnel, posted at border outposts, have been asked to remain in a state of heightened alert, especially after reports of suspected individuals being sighted near the international border earlier this week.

The Chief Minister reiterated his government's unwavering commitment to ensuring peace and stability in Punjab. "We are the second line of defense after our Army. Punjab has seen the dark days of terror. We've come too far to go back now," he said.

PROTESTS ERUPT ACROSS PUNJAB; BOTH HINDU, MUSLIM COMMUNITIES UNITE IN CONDEMNATION

Widespread protests swept across Punjab on Wednesday in the wake of the heinous terror attack on tourists in Pahalgam, Kashmir. For the first time in recent memory, members of both Hindu and Muslim communities took to the streets together, united in grief and rage, denouncing the act of terror and raising slogans against Pakistan.

In Ludhiana, outside the historic Jama Masjid, Muslim protestors led by the Shahi Imam of Punjab, Maulana Muhammad Usman Rahmani Ludhianvi, condemned the attack as a "shameful act against humanity". He said: "Those responsible should be hanged in public squares. This cowardly act of asking victims' religion before killing them cannot be tolerated."

Emphasizing that terrorism has no religion, he said: "Killing an innocent is like killing all of humanity — this is what the Holy Quran teaches." The Imam's voice echoed across communities as he stood shoulder-to-shoulder with others burning effigies of terrorists and chanting "Pakistan Murdabad" and Down with Terrorism".

In a rare and powerful gesture of solidarity, Hindu organizations including Shiv Sena and the Hindu Suraksha Samiti held simultaneous protests in Amritsar, Jalandhar, and Phagwara. They too burned Pakistan's flags and demanded strict action from the Indian

In Phagwara, protestors gathered at Hanumangarhi Mandir, offering prayers for the departed souls and observing a moment of silence. The streets resounded with chants of unity, and leaders across religious lines called for a fast-track trial and immediate punishment for those involved.

The Pahalgam attack, one of the deadliest in the region in recent decades, has drawn nationwide condemnation. "The time has come to stand united," said community leader Muhammad Mustaqeem, adding, "We will not let these terror outfits divide us."

INCIDENT TRIGGERS PANIC: 12K KASHMIR BOOKINGS CANCELLED FROM PUNJAB

Pahalgam terror attack has sent shockwaves through Punjab's travel and tourism sector, with over 12,000 bookings to the region cancelled in just two days. Taxi and tempo operators in Jalandhar, alarmed by the sudden collapse in demand, staged a strong protest on Wednesday, demanding decisive action from the government to restore public confidence and punish those responsible for the attack. Led by the Taxi Union, the protesters condemned the killing of innocent civilians and described the attack as a direct blow to national peace and security. "This is not just a tragedy — it's a betrayal of trust. Tourists don't feel safe anymore," said the Taxi Union president Hardeep Singh Raju.

He revealed that the Amarnath Yatra and general tourism bookings from Punjab to Kashmir, which peak during the summer, have collapsed overnight. "We were looking at a good season. Now, it's all gone. People are cancelling even Vaishno Devi tours. The damage runs into crores," he said.

The protestors plan to submit memorandums to the Punjab Government and local police, demanding heightened security assurances for tourists. Meanwhile, travel agents across Punjab and hoteliers in Kashmir are reporting mass cancellations, with airfares from Srinagar skyrocketing and inbound travel plummeting despite slashed prices.

"This attack has derailed the entire tourism season," said Karan Saggar, a Ludhiana-based travel agent. "If the government doesn't step in swiftly, thousands of families connected to this industry — from cab drivers to hotel staff — will be left devastated," he added.

For many in the industry, Tuesday's attack didn't just claim lives - it marked the sudden and heartbreaking end of a thriving

Singh Saini on Wednesday said that those responsible for the "cowardly" attack on tourists in Jammu and Kashmir's Pahalgam will not be spared. At least 26 persons -- mostly tourists - were killed by terrorists on Tuesday at the Baisaran meadows in Pahalgam in one of the worst terror attacks on civilians in Kashmir in the past many years.

PNS GURUGRAM/CHANDIGARH

"We strongly condemn the cowardly and planned attack on tourists. Those who have committed this act will not be spared, and strict action will be taken against them," Saini told reporters in Gurugram, asserting that the Centre's resolve to fight against terror is firm. The Chief Minister said that the nation stands united in these challenging times. He described the incident as a cowardly act that claimed the lives of innocent people. He said that the sacrifice of the people will always be remembered and assured their families of the government's support.

The Chief Minister also spoke with the family of Indian Navy officer Lieutenant Vinay Narwal, who lost his life in the Pahalgam attack. He offered his condolences and reassured them that the Haryana government stands firmly with them in their time of grief. It should be mentioned here that Karnal resident Narwal, 26, was among the victims of Tuesday's terrorist attack. He was looking forward to celebrating his 27th birthday on May 1, for which his family had planned a grand event. Narwal, who was on a honeymoon trip with his wife Himanshi, was allegedly shot dead in front of her. His mortal remains will reach his native place in Karnal, where the family will perform his last

Paving tribute to Lt Narwal, the Former Chief Minister Bhupinder Singh Hooda strongly condemned this terrorist attack and said that the guilty should not be spared, as he called for a decisive strike against terrorism. There is anger in the whole country due to this cowardly act of terrorists and the whole country is united against terrorism. The country demands from the government that the culprits should not be spared under any circumstances and said there should be a decisive attack against terrorism and a strong message should be given to the enemies of the country. Hooda said the cowardice and barbarity shown by the beasts who targeted innocent tourists in Pahalgam is intolerable. "Until those cowards and their masters are brought to justice, the victim families will not get justice," he said.

Condemning the terrorist attack on tourists in Pahalgam, Haryana Transport Minister Anil Vij said, "I want to state that this is Narendra Modi's India. Where, when, and how the response will come, I don't know-but I do know that they will receive such a strong reply that they will never dare to do something like this again, and even those who send them will hesitate to think

The Chief Minister also visited the residence of Flight Lieutenant Siddharth Yadav in Rewari to express his condolences following the officer's sacrifice. He prayed for the eternal peace of the departed soul and assured the grieving family of all possible support from the Haryana Government. Launch of 5-4-3-2-1-0 Campiagn by India's UNESCO Chair

n an urgent yet hopeful call to action, noted scientist and health advocate Dr. Rahul Mehra, National Representative ■of India to the UNESCÔ Chair on Global Health and Education and Executive Chairman of Tarang Health Alliance, launched a nationwide campaign titled '5-4-3-2-1-0: Countdown to a Healthy Life!' at a media workshop in Chandigarh on Wednesday.

Mehra noted that the life expectancy of an Indian is just around 70 years, compared to 85 in Japan. Unfortunately, an average Indian is only "healthy" till the age of 60 years. This is because physical and mental diseases are taking their toll. One in four Indians has diabetes and one in ten heart disease. Mental health issues are rising rapidly, especially among youth. He emphasized that the most cost-effective solution is prevention - and that starts with health education in schools. "The only window to change this trajectory is during school years, when children are still forming their habits."

The campaign, aimed at embedding healthy habits early in life, begins its rollout in Haryana, the first state to formally partner with Tarang Health Alliance to integrate structured health education into school curricula. Since April 2024, Haryana has piloted the programme in 12 government schools, successfully demonstrating how simple, everyday actions can transform health allowing Tarang Health Alliance to work closely with its public education system, Haryana has created the ideal conditions for grassroots health learning. We are confident the state will emerge as a national leader in driving this mass awareness and behaviour

"If we want to improve the country's longterm health, we must begin with our children," he added. "Changing adult behaviours is difficult. But if we empower our children with the right skills early on, they will carry these habits throughout their lives. The 5-4-3-2-1-0 campaign gives India a simple, science-based framework to do exactly that."

The campaign outlines six daily health habits in an easy-to-remember countdown 5: Eat five servings of fruits and vegeta-

packaged snacks

4: Wash hands properly with soap and water at least four times a day (after going to toilet, before breakfast, lunch, and dinner) 3: Consume three servings of protein-rich

2: Limit recreational screen time to two hours or less every day 1: Engage in at least one hour of physical activity every day 0: Avoid tobacco, sugary drinks, and salty

These habits are not just for children - they are designed to encourage families and schools to work together in building a culture of health. Schools are being urged to incorporate the campaign into morning assemblies, administer a student health pledge, conduct creative competitions like poster-making, and engage parents through PTAs and community sessions.

Terrorists slaughter 28 tourists — a tragic reminder that terror still haunts the Valley

In one of the deadliest terror attacks in Jammu and Kashmir since the abrogation of Article 370 in 2019, 28 tourists were massacred on Tuesday in the tranquil Baisaran meadow near the popular hill resort of Pahalgam. This incident is not an isolated act of violence but appears deeply orchestrated. It coincided with two significant geopolitical events:The visit of US Vice President JD Vance to India and Prime Minister Narendra Modi's diplomatic mission in Saudi Arabia. Additionally, it followed a combative speech by Pakistani Army chief General Asim Munir, intensifying suspicions that the attack was calibrated to internationalise the Kashmir issue and portray the region as a nuclear flashpoint. The synchronicity is disturbingly reminiscent of the Chittisinghpora massacre in 2000, where 36 Sikhs were murdered days before US President Bill Clinton's visit.

By targeting tourists - symbols of normalcy and economic recovery-the terrorists aimed to derail the narrative of a stable Kashmir and provoke communal unrest across India. Since Article 370 was revoked, the Indian government has maintained a tight security apparatus in Kashmir, focusing on counter-insurgency and infrastructure development to boost tourism. While there has been a marked decline in local recruitment into terrorist groups, proxies like TRF have stepped up infiltration, especially using foreign fighters and sleeper cells.

The attack also underscores significant lapses. Despite heavy surveillance, there was no forewarning of this operation. The use of Army uniforms by terrorists highlights a dangerous tactic to bypass trust and checkpoints. Tourists, previously considered off-limits, are now being directly targeted. expanding the threat matrix. But the question is why now? Indeed it has to do with the arrival of US Vice President JD Vance. Pakistan may be attempting to paint Kashmir as unstable and urge foreign intervention.

Tourism in Kashmir has seen a resurgence post-370, contributing significantly to the local economy. Attacking tourists directly threatens this recovery. The brutal nature of the attack - execution-style killings - aims to spread fear and signal the reach and intent of the perpetrators.

India now faces the dual challenge of responding decisively to terror while safeguarding the fragile gains in Kashmir. It is time to enhanced human intelligence and local collaboration to detect sleeper cells. Deployment of smart surveillance technologies in vulnerable areas is a must and should be taken on priority. In the wake of this unspeakable tragedy, India faces a critical inflection point — one that demands not just a military or tactical response, but a comprehensive strategic recalibration.

First and foremost, a robust diplomatic offensive is essential. India must intensify international pressure on nations that provide safe haven or support to terror outfits, directly or indirectly. This includes leveraging global forums such as the United Nations, and bilateral partnerships to isolate state and non-state actors that are responsible for terrorism. Silence and inaction on terror can no longer be diplomatically acceptable - strategic complacency must be met with unwavering clarity and consequence.

Second, the long-term antidote to terrorism lies not only in security but in stability. Continued economic development and civic engagement in Jammu and Kashmir are key to undermining extremist narratives. Investment in education, job creation, tourism infrastructure, and inclusive governance empowers local communities, weakens recruitment for terror networks, and fosters a sense of belonging among youth. A region that thrives economically is harder to radicalise. Most critically, it is time to revis it and reinforce the security architecture surrounding tourism. Tourists once regarded as ambassadors of peace and economic revival - have now become targets. This demands a thorough overhaul of safety protocols, especially in remote and high-traffic areas like Pahalgam. The aim is not to deter tourism, but to restore confidence. Kashmir must not once again become a hostage to fear

Political fault lines shift in Bihar

With caste dynamics, coalition equations, and leadership challenges all in play, the stage is set for a high-stakes political showdown between the NDA and the Mahagathbandhan

he Bihar polls at the end of the year are pretty unpredictable. Currently, there will be no cakewalk for the BJP, RJD, Congress or the JD(U). The churning is quietly taking place in Bihar politics. There could be a potential shift in power dynamics. The BJP, playing second fiddle to the Janata Dal (United) for the past two decades, is eyeing a lead role. The RJD wants to form the government.

Two crucial power groups are in the fight. On one side, the NDA and, on the other, the Mahagathbandhan, which comprises the RJD, Congress, and the Left parties. Intra-party and inner-party dynamics are in full swing.

The NDA and Mahagathbandhan are making calculated moves for a high-stakes political showdown. Encouraged by consecutive victories in states where the odds were against it, a revitalised BJP has now set its sights on Bihar after winning Delhi.

Bihar's caste politics is interesting. Backward classes comprise 63.13 per cent of the population, and the upper caste is only 15.52 per cent. Other Backward Classes comprise 27.12 per cent of the backward class category, while the Extremely Backward Class population numbered 36 per cent. Dalits comprise almost 19.65 per cent and Yadavs account for 14.26 per cent.

Kurmi, Nitish Kumar's Kurmi caste, also categorised as OBC, is 2.87 per cent of the population. In the last Assembly polls, upper castes, around 15 per cent of the population, dominated ticket distribution in many parties. BJP gave 47.3 per cent of its tickets to upper caste candidates, whereas Congress gave 40 per cent of its seats to upper castes.

In the 2020 Bihar assembly elections, the Mahagathbandhan did not win a simple majority in the 243-member legislative assembly, missing it by just 12 seats. The RJD was the largest party in the House but could not form the government.

For the 2025 polls, JD(U) has confirmed Nitish Kumar as the chief ministerial face. The well-known poll expert Prashant Kishor predicted that Nitish Kumar would end his political career. The RJD has opted for its leader, Tejaswi Yadav. Congress has not opened its cards yet. A series of meetings between Congress and the RJD, which began this month, continues.

The Janata Dal (United) party and the BJP coalition currently rule Bihar. Nitish Kumar's deteriorating health, caste balance, and the functioning of the alliance make Bihar politically unpredictable. Even if the

BJP chooses Nitish, his health issues could significantly impact the election outcome. The JD(U) wants to bargain for more seats with the BJP. In 2020, the JD(U) ran for 115 seats but only won 43. In contrast, the BJP ran for 110 seats and won 74. The MahagadbandhNn, which consists of RJD, Congress, and some smaller parties, pose stiff opposition. The RJD and top Congress leaders met in Delhi last week to advance the alliance.

KALYANI

Political realignments since 2020 — the VIP joining the MGB, the LJP aligning with the NDA and the Rashtriya Lok Samata Party merging into the JD(U) — complicate the poll picture.

A key development since 2020 has been the change in the power equation within the NDA, with the BJP emerging stronger. The BJP has strategically cultivated nondominant other backward classes (OBCs) and non-dominant Dalit communities.

Union Home Minister Amit Shah visited Bihar for two days. Prime Minister Narendra Modi will visit Bihar.

RJD chief Lalu Prasad Yadav made a surprising announcement, stating that he is open to reconciling with his socialist ally, Nitish Kumar. In response to this mischievous statement, Nitish remarked that he had inadvertently aligned with the RJD. Tejashwi Yadav, however, asserted that there is no place for Nitish in the Mahagathbandhan. Many believe that Nitish, known for his U-turns, could switch sides.

The INDIA opposition bloc has appointed Tejashwi Yadav, the Rashtriya Janata Dal (RJD) leader and former Bihar Deputy Chief Minister, as head of its coordination committee for the upcoming Bihar Assembly elections. This decision was made during a meeting of the six alliance partners in Patna on April 17.

The Congress and Left parties in the Mahagathbandhan are worried that the RJD will wait until the last minute to finalise seat-sharing agreements. The Congress party is unhappy with the weak constituencies it was given in 2020. It only won 19 out of the 70 seats it contested in the last election. The CPI(ML), which did well in 2020, wants a larger share of seats. Since 2005, the RJD has had difficulty regaining power, except for short periods in 2015 and 2022.

Currently, Tejashwi Yadav has two main tasks. First, he needs to expand the support beyond its core groups of Muslims and Yadavs to include other castes. This involves a stronger grassroots campaign, as the traditional voting trends are changing. The Congress has not developed younger leadership in Bihar. Its old core groups of Muslims and Dalits have shifted to other parties. The party has launched the 'Samvidhan Leadership Programme' to eye marginalised commu-

The main parties face challenges both within their groups and from outside, and significant political change is expected. A point to note is that Nitish Kumar's EBC is intact and challenges the RJD-Congress alliance.

There could be many more changes before November; they would be interesting to watch. In politics, one week is said to be long. Six months is really long.

Why EQ matters more than IQ

n my most rewarding 26 years of experience working as an educator, I have had the privilege of working with students from diverse backgrounds and in different educational settings. It is during this period I started administering the state mandated IQ tests. These tests were administered to measure an individual's cognitive abilities, mostly logical reasoning, memory and verbal mathematical aptitude. They tell us how well someone can solve abstract problems under specific conditions.

I was surprised to see how these standardised tests categorised and measured individuals by numbers and scores often disregarding their potential, experiences and abilities, making it inherently biased.

This realisation prompted me to explore what IQ, intelligence and success fully mean in the real world. Hence, I decided to conduct a small survey. To get a fair sampling, I included people of different backgrounds - educators, parents, students, homemakers and professionals.

My questions were:

1. What qualities make you see someone as intelligent? 2. Do you think people with low IQ can be successful? I was pleasantly surprised to see the responses from the survey. According to the survey - some of these qualities were,

- someone who is empathetic, creative, problem-solving, curious, open to ideas, a good communicator, accepting without being judgmental ... and many more. Most people also believe that individuals with lower IQ scores can achieve success becially when they possess strong emotional intelligence

Based on this survey I concluded that there was a shift in people's perception from iQ to EQ. In general, the meaning of intelligence exceeded beyond the confinement of standardised test. In order to get a broader understanding of intelligence I started researching the different types of intelligences as per psychological theory.

In the 1980s, Harvard psychologist, Howard Gardner proposed a theory that broke away from the "one-size-fits-all" model of intelligence. He introduced eight distinct types of intelligence that reflected the diverse ways humans learn, express themselves, and solve problems. These were:

Linguistic Intelligence: Word savvy like, writers, storytellers Logical: Mathematical Intelligence: Analytical thinkers, like scientists and engineers

Musical Intelligence: Musically inclined, like musicians, Kinesthetic Intelligence: Physical grace and skill like, dancers

Spatial Intelligence: Visual and spatial thinkers like architects and artists

Interpersonal Intelligence: People skills and empathy like, therapists, teachers, and leaders.

Intrapersonal Intelligence: Deep self-understanding like philosophers and spiritual leaders Naturalistic Intelligence: Attunement to nature, like, gardeners and environmentalists.

Among other psychologists that followed, Daniel Goldman played an important role in introducing the concept of Emotional Intelligence, which includes empathy, self-awar ness and emotional regulation which demonstrated that EQ plays an important role in personal success.

Together, these theories encourage us to look beyond IQ scores and appreciate the depth and diversity of human potential. Hence, even if one wasn't considered academically intelligent and didn't fit in the traditional high IQ "cookie cutter" mould, many have been very successful and have contributed to society at large. Examples include:

Thomas Edison was considered "difficult" in school and reportedly had very little formal education. His teachers thought he was slow or unable to learn. Despite this, he became one of the most prolific inventors in history.

Walt Disney was reportedly fired from a newspaper job for "lacking imagination," and he struggled academically. His success came through storytelling, creativity, and persistence. Therefore, we must reconsider the tendency to label someone as lazy or unintelligent based solely on conventional standards. I believe my experience along with research and survey findings strongly support this perspective, which is aptly captured in the quote: "A high IQ may open a door, but emotional intelligence determines how far you'll go once you walk

National Panchayat Day

Madam — The evolution of Panchayat Raj System in India can be traced back to ancient Vedic period. On 24 April 1993 Panchayat Raj system in India came into effect with the enactment of the 73rd Constitutional Amendment Act on 22/23 December 1992, was ratified by state legislatures and came into effect on 24 April 1993.

To mark the establishment of Panchayat Raj Institutions (PRIs) in India through constitution, "National Panchayat Raj Day" is observed every year on 24 April to promote grassroots democracy, rural development, inclusive governance, women empowerment, ensure accountability and transparency, strengthening local governance, and empower rural communities.

The decentralisation of power, e-governance, capacity building, and financial oversight are some of the core responsibilities of PRIs in India. This day mainly focus on enhancing participatory governance, rural upliftment, rural women empowerment, and digital transformation in village-level administration.

The Constitution of India recognises PRIs as "Institutions of Self-governance". Currently, there are nearly 2.63 lakh Panchayats, 31.47 lakh elected representatives of PRIs of which 14.54 lakh are women. It is important for achieving inclusive growth and addressing issues like climate change and rural-to-urban migration.

Contempt plea against Dubey

Madam — The Supreme Court on Tuesday 22 April said it will hear next week a contempt plea filed against BJP MP Nishikant Dubey for his controversial remarks blaming Chief Justice of India (CJI) Sanjiv Khanna for "civil wars in the country.

The matter was brought before a Bench comprising Justice B.R. Gavai and Justice Augustine George Masih by a lawyer who highlighted that the Attorney General had not responded to the request for sanction to initiate contempt proceedings.

"The remark is viral. Dubey says CJI responsible for civil wars. No reply from Attorney (General)," the lawyer said, prompting Justice Gavai to respond, "List it next week."

Dubey had sharply criticized the judiciary, claiming that if the Supreme Court continues to frame laws, then Parliament and state assemblies might as well be shut down. His comments came after the Centre assured the court that it would hold off on implementing controversial provisions of the Waqf (Amendment) Act, following judicial scrutiny. The BJP was quick to distance itself from Dubey's explosive comments. Party president J.P. Nadda called the statements personal opinions and reiterated the BJP's "utmost respect for the judiciary," instructing party leaders to refrain from such remarks in the future.

Mangoes can be a health risk!

Madam - Mango is a fruit rich in flavor, nutrition, and energy. It contains essential vitamins such as A and C, along with iron—nutrients that are highly beneficial for the eyes, skin, and immune system.

However, consuming mangoes before their natural season poses serious health risks, especially when they are artificially ripened using harmful chemicals like calcium car-

This chemical accelerates the ripening process unnaturally, but its toxic compounds can damage the stomach, liver, and nervous system. Prolonged exposure or consumption may lead to ulcers, nausea, and in severe cases, even increase the risk of cancer.

It is therefore wise to prefer naturally ripened mangoes and prioritize health over momentary pleasure. Naturally ripened mangoes are available only during the proper mango season. The ones found in markets before that time are often treated with hazardous substances to enhance their appearance and ripen them prematurely. In fact it is the duty of the Government that no food item is sold which is a health risk.

Those who indulge in this practice must be behind the bars.So, for now, stay away from your "beloved" mangoand choose health over desire. A little patience today can ensure a safer and sweeter tomorrow!

PAHALGAM ATTACK: TERRORISTS ARE ENEMIES OF ENTIRE MANKIND

nce again Kashmir is lying in blood. It is very sad to note that atleast 26 people mostly tourist were killed and several were injured by the Terrorist. The gruesome attack should be condemned by each and every one. The Government boasted a lot after abrogation of Article 370 that the terrorism will come to an end in Jammu and Kashmir. After the rhetoric of Amit Shah and PM Narendra Modi that there is normalcy in Jammu and Kashmir the attack has proved that the Central Government has failed miserably to crumble down the terrorism. While many tourist were enjoying a peaceful afternoon amidst snowcapped peaks and pine forests the militants had split blood in Pahalgaun. This an direct attack on the Indian state . The entire nation is in great shock. Previously in the gruesome terror attack in Jammu and Kashmir over 43 brave soldiers were killed. Every now and then many innocents people's are being killed by terrorism. Now killing of 26 tourist is act of barbarians and act of cowardice and assault on the values of humanity. Conceded that there can be genuine grievances of the people and individuals but violence is certainly not an option for redressal. It is a crime against humanity and has to be condemned by one and all. The terrorists are the enemies of entire mankind and they do not belong to a particular religion or particular country. All religions are great and love should be the universal religion. I request the Government to take stringent action against those are behind the terror attack. My sympathies to the families and prayers to the injured. At this moment the nation must stand by the families of the brutally killed innocent

WAVES 2025: Redefining global media diplomacy

WAVES weaves together storytelling, technology and international cooperation to reshape the global media and entertainment. This summit marks a decisive leap into a future where India leads with innovation, cultural capital and strategic foresight ome May 1st, India has truly arrived with the WAVES Entertainment Summit being held in Mumbai from 1st to 4th of May 2025. The summit echoes the vision envisaged in 2019 by PM Modi in his speech at the inauguration of the National Museum of Indian Cinema; highlighting Indian cinema as a powerful medium of global outreach and soft power, calling it a "silent force" that shapes global perceptions and connects cultures. He emphasised cinema's potential to promote film tourism, inviting international filmmakers to explore India's diverse landscapes. The design of WAVES is an unusual convergence of like-mindedness of M&E stakeholders; individuals or institutions that think alike in carving out a landscape that will be suited for the global fraternity responsible for creating content and its consumption.

WAVES 2025 brings a bold new phase of soft power diplomacy, focusing on transformative and technology-driven partnerships. Innovation in this segment is bound to create a new buzz for foreign policy tie-ups, carried forward on the wings of emerging tools such as Artificial Intelligence (AI), Virtual Reality (VR), and immersive content ecosystems. The diverse participation at WAVES will open unprecedented avenues for multilateral cooperation and dialogue across critical areas of knowledge sharing, media engagement, story-telling ecosystems, and digital co-productions. It provides India with an unparalleled opportunity to assert global leadership in the creative domain; by fusing its creativity quotient, strategic foresight, and cultural capital into a soft power matrix that fosters goodwill and purposeful international collaboration.

At the heart of WAVES 2025 lies its evocative tagline: "Connecting Creators, Connecting Countries", a bold declaration of India's intent to reposition itself as a global M&E powerhouse. As a summit that seeks to reimagine communication diplomacy, one of its most awaited outcomes is the WAVES Declaration, a visionary charter that could reshape the media discourse globally.

Rarely has a platform attempted to knit together creativity, business, leadership, and soft power into a cohesive global identity. But WAVES seeks to do just that, with a Global Media Dialogue, a declaration of shared values, and a structured roadmap for the M&E industry that reflects the ethos of a borderless, tech-enabled, creatively interconnected world. The declaration will place communication-clear, coherent, and collaborative-at the centre of a new global information order, founded on equity, access, equality, and partici-

WAVES has quietly but effectively given a new meaning to soft power diplomacy wherein all constituents that create charisma associated with knowledge sharing and storytelling play a critical role in bilateral or multilateral cooperation. It would be appropriate to mention that diplomacy will adorn new wings of change based on creativ-

The philosophical underpinning of WAVES 2025 can be distilled into the 7 Cs of Communication: Clarity, Conciseness, Concreteness, Correctness, Coherence, Completeness, and Courtesy. These seven pillars not only ensure effective storytelling but serve as diplomatic principles guiding cross-border media collaboration. They offer a timeless framework as we enter an era where communication is the new currency of power, diplomacy, and development. With narratives shaping geopolitics, trade, and international perception, there is a pressing need for a Global Media Charter, a binding commitment from nations to protect freedom of creative expression, foster diverse storytelling, and ensure ethical media practices. WAVES 2025 can be the birthplace of this transformative shift. In a world increasingly governed by digital influence and algorithmic reach, a unified declaration will help navigate the ethical dilemmas of deepfakes, information disorder, and cultural homogenisation. It's not just about content anymore; it's about cultural continuity, technological responsibility, and global unity through creative collaboration.

WAVES isn't just about short-term buzz, it's about building something lasting. It understands that media and entertainment (M&E) isn't a quick fix but a long-term strategic play. At its heart is a clear goal: to make India the global content hub and a net exporter of stories. With its rich cultural diversity and languages, India has all the ingredients to build a strong intellectual property base that resonates worldwide.

The summit also aims to increase India's global market share in media, attract major investments, and encourage co-production between Indian and international players. WAVES 2025 is designed to be a complete experience. The Global Media Dialogue brings together ministers and top policymakers from around the world to exchange ideas. The Thought Leaders Track will host key sessions exploring future trends and challenges in media.

In the Exhibition Zone, companies will showcase the latest in gaming, animation, VR, and AI. The WAVES Bazaar will act as a meeting ground for buyers and sellers to find the right collaborators. WaveXcelerator will give startups a chance to pitch live and attract investors.

The Bharat Pavilion will spotlight India's storytelling journey; from folk tales to futuristic formats. The CreatoSphere will feature masterclasses, creators' meet-ups, and the grand finale of the Create in India Challenge. And finally, a series of cultural performances will bring together talent from across the globe, blending tradition with WAVES is expected to drive real outcomes, from new content partnerships and global investments to job creation and policy support. It will help position India as a creative and tech-savvy media partner for the world. With cutting-edge tech on display, including AI tools and immersive experiences, the summit will also show how India is shaping the future of media.

By promoting co-productions, content exchanges, and new distribution deals, WAVES could help Indian stories travel further. It also gives international stakeholders a chance to build real connections with Indian creators-paving the way for shared growth and innovation. Most importantly, it sets the stage for India to lead the way in global media diplomacy.

The timing couldn't be better. According to the EY-FICCI 2025 M&E Report, India's media sector grew to INR 2.5 trillion in 2024 and is expected to touch INR 2.7 trillion in 2025.

Digital media now makes up 32% of total revenue, with digital ads growing fast. OTT platforms grew by 18%, driven by regional stories finding global fans. The report projects that the sector will hit INR 3.1 trillion by 2027, powered by gaming, animation, and immersive tech. WAVES gives these numbers real meaning, by turning data into action, partnerships into policy, and content into soft power. It's where the industry meets diplomacy and the future is co-

India is no longer on the sidelines of the global media conversation, it is setting the agenda. With WAVES 2025, India is articulating a bold creative vision for the world: one that transcends platforms, breaks silos, and builds coalitions of creators. WAVES 2025 isn't just another summit, it is a cultural declaration, a geopolitical realignment of media narratives, and a commitment to connect not just creators, but countries, cultures, and communities.

By placing communication at the heart of global partnerships, WAVES brings together not only markets but also minds and meanings. The world is watching, and India is ready to lead.

Reclaiming our humanity: A call to connection in a fragmented world

Amid global turmoil, Danish explorer Thor Pedersen's journey to every country without flying stands as quiet proof that kindness and snared numanity endure — even in the unlikeliest places. It's a story of contrast, conviction, and nope eptuagenarian Dr Iain McGilchrist, a world-renowned philosopher, psychiatrist and neuroscientist, recently addressed a symposium titled The Future of Humanity, where he delved into some of the most pressing questions at the heart of our existence-the existence of what is good, beautiful, and true. Reflecting on his lifetime, he observed that these fundamental transcendental values have been increasingly sidelined, decried, debased, and even destroyed. "It is not just that we are distracted from the truth," he noted, "but we demand protection from it, lest it hurt us-in case life itself hurts

tion resonates deeply in a world DEBASISH Hattacharyya increasingly perceived as unkind, unfeeling, and unconcerned, where the very essence of humanity-compassion, love, and concern-seems to be vanishing at an alarming rate.

In our hyper-competitive socio-political environment, every sphere of lifefamilial, social, professional, and spiritual-is under strain. Systems meant to support them are collapsing. Yet amid this bleakness, glimmers of hope remain. One such beacon is a traveller's journeymarked by twists, encounters, and insights, offering a powerful affirmation of the human spirit.

Take the journey of Thor Pedersen, a Danish explorer. Thor is the only person in history to travel to every country in the world without flying. Between 2013 and 2023, he visited over 200 nations-India being his 168th-using only ships, trains, buses, and other ground or seabased transport. His journey was more than a feat of endurance; it became a profound exploration of humanity, transcending borders, cultures, and beliefs.

At the heart of his experience lay a simple truth: "People are just people." Wherever he went, he met ordinary people living ordinary lives-finding joy in food, music, and sports, and valuing safety and stability over political and religious it of our shared humanity. His realisation deepened when he observed: "If we reduce people to numbers and statistics, we create distance and lose empathy. Divide and conquer is an age-old strategy, and it works well-but at what cost? We can keep dividing the world until, eventually, we all sit alone." However, the Danish globetrotter's voyage was not without challenges. He encountered a few unpleasant incidents and individuals along the way, threatened by drunk, armed, and hostile men, battling cerebral malaria, and being held at gunpoint. While all this, however, did not dishearten him, we are reminded of Gandhiji's profound words: "You must not lose faith in humanity. Humanity is like an ocean; if a few drops of the ocean are dirty, the ocean does not become

Thor's journey, devoid of privilege and elitism-underscores vital truths:

a) Even if gentleness and kindness seem to be in decline, they continue to thrive quietly at the grassroots.

b)Though humanity struggles to find its rightful place in a world consumed by the relentless pursuit of power, pleasure, and profit, it is not lost - only margin-

c) As we glamorise wealth, we risk losing the very qualities that define us as human-compassion, care, and coopera-

History bears witness to countless individuals who, in moments of crisis, be it accidents, tragedies, or desperate need - step forward uninvited, saving lives and rekindling faith in humanity. Though often overlooked, their actions quietly pull humanity back from the brink.

That said, the world remains enmeshed in grave, interconnected crises-war, inequality, poverty, climate change-all demanding collective will. Sadly, world leaders, despite their promises, continue to ignore the catastrophic plight of millions. As they routinely gather to design an ostensibly better future, they remain either unable or unwilling to respond-revealing not just a failure of meaningful action, but a failure of intent.

Grim Realities

For long, we have viewed the world as manipulable and controllable-ripe to be bent to our will. Therefore, few doubt that many crises plaguing our world are not mere accidents of fate or unavoidable circumstances; they are often the deliberate outcomes of power-driven agendas. Fueled by greed, ruthless self-interest, and an insatiable thirst for domination, these forces ignite brutal conflict, widespread deprivation, environmental devastation, racism, and religious extremism-creating a reality steeped in suffering and division.

Poverty, an affront to human dignity, neightens vulnerability to abuse. Tied to climate change, it's set to intensify-new research led by Dr Timothy Neal (University of New South Wales) warns the average person could be 40% poorer if global temperatures rise by 4°C. Shockingly, those who hold power-whether in struggling countries, developing economies, or even the most developed nations-have often abandoned humanity as the foundation of governance. Opportunistic toxic politics and hybrid forms of authoritarianism continue to destroy the sacred ground of human dignity, pushing aside the cardinal principle that must guide all leadership: People Over Everything.

Even the COVID-19 crisis-exposing vulnerabilities and inequities-failed to instil lasting solidarity. Human dignity remains dispensable.

What of more grim realities?

According to the Geneva Academy, more than 45 armed conflicts are currently raging across the Middle East and North Africa. Africa follows closely, with over 35 non-international armed conflicts (NIACs). Asia remains a battleground for 19 such conflicts, while Europe contends with seven.

Bleak as it may seem, this is a call to action-one urging us to deepen our commitment to humanistic values, where every life is worthwhile, wanted, and welcomed.

While it may be simplistic to expect everything to align perfectly with the humanistic way, it is crucial to recognise the deeper causes of suffering, distress, and anguish within the fabric of human society-locally, nationally, and globally. In an age of deep disillusionment, we must remember: the world is not merely a map of borders, but a shared home.

As Professor Harvey Whitehouse of Oxford reminds us: "Remembering that we are all related and experience many of the same challenges could be the key to solving global problems-from intergroup conflicts to poverty and the climate crisis."

What kind of world do we want to live in? If we fail to address this, we risk sliding into a soulless existence-a world full of people, yet empty of humanity. We may exist, but we will not truly live. The degradation of humanity is not inevitable. Though messiness and imperfection are part of what makes us human, it is in our ability to reclaim substantive conversation and enrich our relationships, based on humanistic virtues. Our hearts and minds-feeling, willing, knowing, sensing-must not grow numb to the suffering that surrounds us. We must not be swayed by eloquent words, empty rhetoric, or the shallow display of symbolism. Only through real, tangible action can we reclaim what is slipping away-the very essence of our shared humanity.

The imperative of our times: Reawakening our humanity -Embracing what matters most-People, planet, and our shared future.

US lawmakers condemn J-K attack

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■ New York

S lawmakers, prominent India-US bodies and members of the Indian-American community on Wednesday strongly condemned the horrific terror attack in Jammu and Kashmir, asserting that perpetrators should be brought to justice.

"I send my condolences to the people of India in the aftermath of the horrific attack in Kashmir and hope those responsible will be brought to justice soon. Terrorism is never tolerated," US Senate Foreign Relations Committee Chairman Senator Jim Risch said in a post on X.

Terrorists killed 26 people, mostly tourists, in Jammu and Kashmir's Pahalgam on Tuesday, in what is the deadliest attack in the Valley since the Pulwama strike in 2019.

In a call with Modi, who was on a twoday State visit to Saudi Arabia, US President Donald Trump strongly condemned the terror attack and expressed full support to India to bring to justice the perpetrators of the "heinous attack."

Deputy Secretary at the Department of State Christopher Landau said the US "strongly condemns" the terrorist attack in Kashmir and "stands resolutely alongside India. Sending very heartfelt condolences to all Indians, and especially those who have lost their loved ones in this heinous attack on tourists and civilians."

Senator Bill Hagerty said the US stands with India. "I condemn the shocking attack today by Islamic terrorists who murdered dozens of people in Pahalgam, Jammu and Kashmir.

The "terrorist attack in Kashmir is a deeply disturbing reminder that the threat posed to civilized nations by terrorism remains acute," Senator Ted Cruz

He added that the US will stand with India and Prime Minister Modi "as they bring these terrorists to justice."

Congressman Raja Krishnamoorthi said he is heartbroken by the horrific attack on innocent tourists in Kashmir. 'We must stand united against terrorism in all its forms and bring the perpetrators to justice," he said.

Representative Ro Khanna, Congressman Shri Thanedar, Congressman Rich McCormick, Congressman Greg Murphy, Congressman Jimmy Patronis, Representative Bill Huizenga and Representative Marc Veasey also condemned the terrorist attack and offered condolences and prayers to the families of the victims.

Senator Rick Scott said he and his wife Ann are devastated to hear of the "evil terrorist attack" in Pahalgam, India. "The US stands with India as we pray for those who lost loved ones or were injured in this unimaginable attack."

Vivek Ramaswamy, who was a 2024 presidential primary candidate and had briefly co-headed the Department of Government Efficiency along with billionaire Elon Musk, termed the attack "horrific" and extended condolences to the families of those who died.

demned the terrorist attack, saying both the US and India have been burned by state-sponsored terror.

"The world must stand united to eradicate terrorism in all its forms, everywhere and states directly or indirectly sponsoring or promoting such acts of terrorism must not only be condemned but also sanctioned with stoppage of any aid to them, especially military. India has been subjected to an ongoing war of terror sponsored by Pakistan agencies, operators, terror groups and agencies," he said.

The US-India Strategic Partnership Forum (USISPF) strongly condemned the dastardly attack, saying it was a reminder of the constant threat of terrorism that continues to lurk from both state and nonstate nefarious actors. "While India will continue to remain resilient in the face of such adversity, this unfortunate incident is a sobering reminder, of just why the US-India defence and security partnership remains vital to stand up to such abominable adversaries and anticipate and prevent further attacks both on Indian soil or to its strategic partners and assets overseas," USISPF said, adding that it is a shame that the picturesque town of Pahalgam has now been marred with the bloody horrors of this heinous attack.

Former advisor to President Joe Biden and Co-Chair for the Economic Subcommittee for Asian American and Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander (AANH-PI) Commission Ajay Bhutoria too condemned the terrorist attack in Kashmir. "My prayers go out to the victims and their families. Let's unite against terror!"

Hindus Advancing Human Rights Initiative (HAHRI), an arm of HinduPACT, unequivocally condemned the attack, with its executive director Rahul Sur saying that the "world has been warned repeatedly about this Islamic fundamentalism. It must be crushed. It is time to sanction Pakistan."

The Kashmiri Overseas Association (KOA) condemned the terror attack in Pahalgam and said the 26 tourists were executed by Islamist terrorists by targetting solely for their Hindu faith.

The Global Organisation of People of Indian Origin (GOPIO) unequivocally condemned the terrorist action, with GOPIO International President Prakash Shah saying the "world cannot idly stand by each time terrorists take actions and nations must unite and take joint actions against terrorists and those that harbor them." "That is the only way to end Terrorism," Shah added.

GOPIO Chairman Thomas Abraham reaffirmed solidarity and resolve in the fight against terrorism in all its forms and wherever it occurs. "The Indian Diaspora will remain united with the Government of India's efforts to combat terrorism," he ritish Prime Minister Keir Starmer Bhas condemned the terrorist attack in Kashmir, joined by Foreign Secretary David Lammy who described it as a "cowardly" act.

They took to social media to express their shock as the death toll rose to 26 in the Pahalgam attack on Tuesday, with Prime Minister Narendra Modi cutting short his Saudi Arabia visit to return to New Delhi on Wednesday.

'The horrific terrorist attack in Kashmir today is utterly devastating. My thoughts are with those affected, their loved ones, and the people of India," said Starmer in a post on his X handle. Lammy also took to the platform a little earlier with his reaction: "I am appalled by the horrific and cowardly terrorist attack on Kashmir earlier today. My thoughts are with all of those affected, especially those who have lost loved

The Commonwealth Secretary-General, Shirley Ayorkor Botchwey, issued a statement to say the organisation "stands in solidarity with the people of India at this

'We are united in our determination today. The Commonwealth speaks with one voice that the terrorists will not succeed in their divisive mission to undermine our Commonwealth Charter values of peace, inclusiveness, tolerance, respect and understanding.

"We reiterate our absolute condemnation of all acts of terrorism in whatever form or wherever they occur or by whomsoever perpetrated, with the consequent tragic loss of life and human suffering," she said.

The official UK Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office (FCDO) travel advisory for the region, which advises against all travel to the region, remains unchanged.

"FCDO advises against all travel to the region of Jammu and Kashmir (including Pahalgam, Gulmarg, Sonamarg, the city of Srinagar, and the Jammu-Srinagar national highway)," it reads.

Meanwhile, diaspora groups in Britain have also been taking to social media to express their shock and horror at the gunning down of innocent tourists in the popular scenic resort.

"FISI UK strongly condemns the horrific terror attack in Pahalgam, Jammu and Kashmir, and demands immediate action to ensure those responsible are brought to justice. Such a sinister agenda will never succeed — they must be held to account," said a statement from the Friends of India Society International (FISI) UK.

Terrorists struck at the prime tourist location in south Kashmir on Tuesday, killing at least 26 people, mostly tourists, and injuring several others. The deceased include two foreigners, from the UAE and Nepal, and two locals.

The bodies of the 26 victims were brought to the Government Medical College (GMC) in Srinagar early on Wednesday and then taken to the Police Control Room where Home Minister Amit Shah laid wreaths on them

US forest fire forces thousands to evacuate fast-moving wildfire still burning in New Jersey on Wednesday forced thousands of people to evacuate and temporarily closed a stretch of a major highway. The Garden State Parkway, one of New Jersey's busiest highways, was closed between Barnegat and Lacey townships on Tuesday night. It has since reopened, the Ocean County Sheriff's Office posted online Wednesday morning.

More than 1,300 structures were threatened and about 3,000 residents were evacuated, the New Jersey Forest Fire Service said. Shelters were open at two high schools, according to the Barnegat Police Department.

The fire service planned to give an update at a news conference late Wednesday morning.

Company cut power to about 25,000 customers at the request of the Forest Fire Service and the wildfire's command post Tuesday evening, including thousands in Barnegat Township. The company said on X that it doesn't expect to restore the power before Wednesday. "This is for the safety of crews battling the fire," the company said.

The fire in the Greenwood Forest Wildlife Management Area burned more than 34 sq km of land, fire officials said. The blaze, burning in Ocean and Lacey Townships in Ocean County, was only about 10% contained Tuesday night, the fire service said. The cause of the fire was under investigation.

There were no immediate reports of Debi Schaffer was caught in gridlocked traffic after evacuating with her two dogs while her husband agreed to stay with their 22 chickens, The Press of Atlantic City reported.

"I wanted to take them in the car with me; can you imagine 22 chickens in a car? she told the newspaper.

Around her Waretown house it was "like war zone," she said, describing smoke, sirens and the buzz of helicopters.

Harvey Weinstein's rape retrial set for opening statements

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New York

vive years after Harvey Weinstein's original #MeToo trial delivered a searing reckoning for one of Hollywood's most powerful figures, the ex-studio boss is on trial again after an appeals court threw out the landmark rape conviction. Opening statements are set for Wednesday in a trial that could take six weeks. It's happening at the same Manhattan courthouse as his first trial, and two accusers who testified then are expected to return.

But Weinstein's retrial is playing out at a different cultural moment than the first, which happened during the height of the #MeToo movement. And along with the charges being retried, he faces an additional allegation from a woman who wasn't involved in the first case.

The jury counts seven women and five men - unlike the seven-man, fivewoman panel that convicted him in 2020 — and there's a different judge.

The #MeToo movement, which exploded in 2017 with allegations against Weinstein, has also evolved and ebbed.

At the start of Weinstein's first trial, chants of "rapist" could be heard from protesters outside. TV trucks lined the street, and reporters queued for hours to get a seat in the packed courtroom. His lawvers decried the "carnival-like atmosphere" and fought unsuccessfully to get the trial moved from Manhattan.

This time though, over five days of jury selection, there was none of that.

Those realities, coupled with the New York Court of Appeals' ruling last year vacating his 2020 conviction and 23-year prison sentence - because the judge allowed testimony about allegations Weinstein was not charged with — are shaping everything from retrial legal strategy to the atmosphere in court. Weinstein, 73, is being retried on a criminal sex act charge for allegedly forcibly performing oral sex on a movie and TV production assistant, Miriam Haley, in 2006 and a third-degree rape charge for allegedly assaulting an aspiring actor, Jessica Mann, in a Manhattan hotel room in 2013.

Weinstein also faces a criminal sex act charge for allegedly forcing oral sex on a different woman at a Manhattan hotel in 2006. Prosecutors said that the woman, who hasn't been named publicly, came forward days before his first trial but wasn't part of that case. They said they revisited her allegations when his conviction was thrown out. The Associated Press does not generally identify people alleging sexual assault unless they consent to be named, as Haley and Mann have done.

Weinstein has pleaded not guilty and denies raping or sexually assaulting anyone. His acquittals on the two most serious charges at his 2020 trial — predatory sexual assault and first-degree rape still stand. Lindsay Goldbrum, a lawyer for the unnamed accuser, said Weinstein's retrial marks a "pivotal moment in the fight for accountability in sex abuse cases" and a "signal to other survivors that the system is catching up — and that it's worth speaking out even when the odds seem insurmountable".

This time around, the Manhattan district attorney's office is prosecuting Weinstein through its Special Victims Division, which specialises in such cases, after homicide veterans helmed the 2020 version. At the same time, Weinstein has added several lawyers to his defence team — including Jennifer Bonjean, who is involved in appealing his 2022 rape conviction in Los Angeles. She helped Bill Cosby get his conviction overturned and defended R Kelly in his sex crimes case.

Gunmen kill two personnel guarding polio vaccination team in Pakistan wo security personnel guarding a polio vaccination team were shot dead by unidentified gunmen on Wednesday in Pakistan's restive Balochistan province, police said.

The incident took place in the Teeri area of ?? Mastung district, where Levies personnel protecting the polio vaccination team were attacked by masked gunmen, Assistant Commissioner Akram Harifal told the media.

No group immediately claimed responsibility for the attack. However, militants frequently target polio vaccinators in reported.

Pakistan, terming them un-Islamic and against Sharia.

'One of them died on the spot while the other expired as he was moved to a hospital," Harifal said.

He said that security for the polio vaccination teams has been increased after the attack. This is not the first time that security personnel providing security to polio vaccination teams have been killed in Pakistan. In the past, even female health workers have been attacked and killed.

Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif condemned the attack on the polio vaccination team, the state-run Radio Pakistan

ment's commitment to eradicating polio from the country, he said, adding that the anti-polio campaign will continue with determination. Balochistan government spokesperson Shahid Rind condemned the attack, saying "a thorough investigation into the incident was underway".

International students are piling up wins in US courts

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

njan Roy, from Bangladesh, was studying with friends at Missouri State University when he got an email that turned his world upside down. His legal status as an international student had been terminated, and he was suddenly at risk for deportation. "I was in literal shock, like, what the hell is this?" said Roy, a graduate student in computer science. At first, he avoided going out in public, skipping classes and mostly keeping his phone turned off. A court ruling in his favour led to his status being restored this week, and he has returned to his apartment, but is still asking his roommates to screen visitors. More than a thousand international students have faced similar disruptions in recent weeks, with their academic careers — and their lives in the US thrown into doubt in a widespread crackdown by the Trump administration. Some have found a measure of success in court, with federal judges around the country issuing orders to restore students' legal status at least temporarily. In addition to the case filed in Atlanta, where Roy is among 133 plaintiffs, judges have issued temporary restraining orders in states including New Hampshire, Wisconsin, Montana, Oregon and Washington. Judges have denied similar requests in some other cases, saying it was not clear the loss of status would cause irreparable harm.

Secretary of State Marco Rubio said last month the State Department was revoking visas held by visitors who were acting counter to national interests, including some who protested Israel's war in Gaza and those who face criminal charges.

But many affected students said they have been involved only in minor infractions, or it's unclear altogether why they were targeted. The attorney for Roy and his fellow plaintiffs, Charles Kuck, argued the government did not have legal grounds to terminate the students' status.

He speculated in court last week the government is trying to encourage these students to self-deport, saying "the pressure on these students is overwhelming." He said some asked him if it was safe to leave their homes to get food, and others worried they wouldn't receive a degree after years of work or feared their chances of a career in the US were shot. "I think the hope is they'll just leave," Kuck said. "The reality is these kids are invested."

An attorney for the government, R David Powell, argued the students did not suffer significant harm because they could transfer their academic credits or find jobs in another country.

At least 1,100 students at 174 colleges, universities and university systems have had their visas revoked or their legal status terminated since late March, according to an Associated Press review of university statements, correspondence with school officials and court records.

London talks on ending Ukraine war pared down

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Kyiv

planned meeting Wednesday between top US, British, French and Ukrainian diplomats to push for a peace deal between Russia and Ukraine was scrapped at the last minute amid little sign of progress in international efforts to end the more than three-year

UK Foreign Secretary David Lammy announced the talks in London would involve only lower-ranking officials after the US State Department said Tuesday that Secretary of State Marco Rubio was unable to attend because of a scheduling

Rubio's abrupt cancelation raised doubts about the direction of the negotiations. It came as Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensyy ruled out ceding territory to Russia as part of any potential peace agreement, calling it a nonstarter. The Ukrainian leader spoke Tuesday in response to reports the Trump administration was proposing a deal that would allow Russia to keep occupied Ukrainian territory as part of a potential peace agreement. Even achieving a limited, 30-day ceasefire has been beyond the reach of negotiators, as both sides have continued to attack each other in a grinding war of attrition along the 1,000-km front line and launch long-range strikes.

A Russian drone struck a bus carrying workers in Marganets, in eastern Ukraine's Dnipropetrovsk region on Wednesday morning, killing seven women and two men, regional head Serhii Lysak wrote on During similar talks last week in Officials would "discuss ways to achieve Paris, US officials presented a proposal that included allowing Russia to keep control of occupied Ukrainian territory as part of a deal, according to a European official privy to talks his Telegram channel. More than 40 people were injured, he said.

Lysak published photos of a bus with its windows blown out and shards of glass mixed with blood spattered on the bus

President Donald Trump has pushed for an end to the war and said last week that negotiations were "coming to a head". That comment came after Rubio suggested that the US might soon back away from negotiations if they don't progress.

Rubio had indicated that Wednesday's meeting could be decisive in determining whether the Trump administration remains engaged.

Those still attending the meeting included retired Lt Gen Keith Kellogg, Trump's envoy for Ukraine and Russia ted to peaceful efforts," Yermak said.

Andrii Yermak, the head of Ukraine's presidential office, said on X that a delegation including him, Foreign Minister Andrii Sybiha and Defence Minister Rustem Umerov had arrived in London for Vladimir Putin. the talks despite the alterations.

"The path to peace is not easy, but Ukraine has been and remains commit-a full and unconditional ceasefire as the first step toward a comprehensive settlement and the achievement of a just and lasting peace".

US special envoy Steve Witkoff was expected to visit Moscow again later this week, according to Russian officials.

The abrupt change of plans in London came amid growing speculation that the US will press Ukraine to cede territory to Russia as part of a potential peace agreement - a possibility that Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky on Tuesday again ruled out.

During similar talks last week in Paris, US officials presented a proposal that included allowing Russia to keep control of occupied Ukrainian territory as part of a deal, according to a European official familiar with the matter.

Zelenskyy pushed back against that during an appearance in Kyiv, saying: "There is nothing to talk about - it is our land, the land of the Ukrainian people."

Russia, meanwhile, has effectively rejected a US proposal for an immediate and full 30-day halt in the fighting by imposing farreaching conditions.

Trump said repeatedly during his election campaign last year that he would be able to end the war "in 24 hours" upon taking office. But he has expressed frustration with Zelenskyy and Russian President

Some European allies are wary of the American proposal for Ukraine to exchange land for peace. But an official said there's also acknowledgment by some allies that Russia is firmly entrenched wholly or partially in five regions of Ukraine - Crimea, Luhansk, Donetsk, Zaporizhzhia and Kherson.

If the goal is to obtain a ceasefire immediately, "it should be based on the line of contact as it is," said a senior French official. The official was not authorised to be publicly named and spoke on the condition of anonymity according to French presidential policy.

Still, Ukraine's territorial integrity and aspirations to strengthen ties with the rest of the continent are a top priority for the Europeans, the European official said.

Britain had downplayed expectations of a breakthrough in London, but says this is an important week for diplomatic efforts to stop the fighting.

Western analysts say Moscow is in no rush to conclude peace talks, because it has battlefield momentum and wants to capture more Ukrainian land. Zelenskyy said Tuesday that Ukraine's mandate to discuss only an unconditional or partial ceasefire with Russia. He said that "after a ceasefire, we're prepared to sit down for talks in any format" Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov delegation heading to the UK had a cautioned that reaching a settlement could be a drawn-out process.

Putin declared a 30-hour unilateral ceasefire on Saturday, but Ukraine and British officials said Russian attacks continued during the alleged pause. The Associated Press was unable to verify whether a ceasefire was in place along the roughly 1,000-km front line.

6.2 earthquake hits Istanbul

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■ Istanbul

n earthquake with a preliminary magnitude of 6.2 shook Istanbul and other areas on Wednesday, Turkiye's disaster and emergency management agency said. There were no immediate reports of serious damage or injuries in the metropolis of 16 million.

The earthquake had a shallow depth of 10 km, according to the United States Geological Survey, with its epicentre about 40 km southwest of Istanbul, in the Sea of Marmara.

It was felt in the neighbouring provinces of Tekirdag, Yalova, Bursa and Balikesir and in the city of Izmir, some 550 km south of Istanbul. There were several aftershocks, including one measuring 5.3.

The incident, which started at 12:49 pm during a public holiday when many children were out of school and celebrating in the streets, caused widespread panic in Istanbul, which is on tenterhooks due to the looming threat of a major earthquake. Panicked residents rushed from their homes and buildings into the streets. The disaster and emergency management agency urged people to stay away from buildings. Leyla Ucar, a personal trainer, said she was exercising with her student on the 20th floor of a building when they felt intense shaking.

"We shook incredibly. It threw us around, we couldn't understand what was happening, we didn't think of an earthquake at first because of the shock of the event," she said. "It was very scary." Senol Sari, a 51-year-old resident who fled to a park nearby his house, told The Associated Press he was with his children in the living room of his flat on the third floor of an apartment building when he heard a loud noise and the building started shaking.

"We immediately protected ourselves from the earthquake and waited for it to pass, then calmly walked away from the house," Sari said. "Of course, we were scared during the earthquake. We were worried that it would continue. Since the (great) Istanbul earth-

'My children were little scared'

Cihan Boztepe, 40, was one of those who hurriedly fled to the streets with his family in order to avoid a potential collapse. Boztepe, standing next to his sobbing child, told AP that he was living in Batman province, an area close to the southern part of Turkive where the 2023 quakes hit, and that Wednesday's tremor felt reaker and that he wasn't as scared.

"At first we were shaken, then it stopped, then we were shaken again. My children were a little scared, but I wasn't. We quickly gathered our things and went down to a safe place. If it were up to me, we would have already returned home." Turkiye's interior minister, Ali Yerlikaya, said the authorities had not received reports of collapsed buildings. He told HaberTurk television that there had been reports of damage to buildings.

The NTV broadcaster reported that a derelict and abandoned former residential building in this historic Fatih district, which houses the Blue Mosque and the Hagia Sophia Grand Mosque, had collapsed.

Kemal Cebi, the mayor of Kucukcekmece district in western Istanbul, told NTV there were "no negative developments yet," but reported traffic jams, and said many buildings were already at risk due to the area's density.

Urban reconstruction projects

Turkiye is crossed by two major fault lines, and earthquakes are frequent. A magnitude 7.8 earthquake on Feb 6, 2023, and a second powerful tremor hours later, destroyed or damaged hundreds of thousands of buildings in 11 southern and southeastern provinces, leaving more than 53,000 people dead. Another 6,000 people were killed in the northern parts of neighbouring Syria.

Istanbul was not impacted by that earthquake, but the devastation heightened fears of a similar quake, with experts citing the city's proximity to fault lines.

Israeli strike on school-turned-shelter kills 23

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■ Deir al-Balah (Gaza Strip)

n overnight Israeli strike on a school-turned-shelter in Gaza A City killed 23 people, as Arab mediators worked on a proposal to end the war with Hamas that would include a five to seven year truce and the release of all remaining hostages, officials said on Wednesday. There was no immediate Israeli comment on the strike, which set several tents ablaze, burning people alive. The military says it only targets militants and blames civilian deaths on Hamas because its fighters are embedded in densely populated areas.

France, Germany and Britain meanwhile said Israel's seven-week-old blockade on all imports to Gaza, including food, was "intolerable," in unusually strong criticism from three of the country's closest allies.

Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas called on Hamas to release the hostages in order to "block Israel's pretexts" for continuing the war. He reiterated his demands that Hamas give up their arms, referring to them as "sons of dogs" in unusually strong language during a speech in the West Bank.

Palestinian prisoners, according to an Egyptian official and a Hamas official who spoke on condition of anonymity because they were not authorised to brief media.

Israel ended a ceasefire with Hamas last month and has vowed to continue the war until all the hostages are returned and Hamas is either destroyed or disarmed and sent into exile. It says it will hold parts of Gaza indefinitely and implement President Donald Trump's proposal for the resettlement of the population in other countries, which has been widely rejected internationally. Hamas has said it will only release the dozens of hostages it still holds in return for Palestinian prisoners, a complete Israeli withdrawal and a lasting ceasefire, as called for in the now-defunct agreement reached in January. A Hamas delegation arrived in Cairo late Tuesday to discuss the evolving proposal.

The Egyptian official said the proposed truce, with international guarantees, would last between five and seven years, and that a committee of politically independent technocrats would govern Gaza — a measure Hamas has accepted. The Hamas official said the militant group is open to a long-term truce that includes the complete withdrawal of Israeli forces and international guarantees, naming Russia, China, Turkey or the United Nations Security Council as possible guarantors.

from the entire strip and the release of from Israeli officials. But Israel has ruled out any arrangement that would allow Hamas to preserve its influence in Gaza and rearm. The Trump administration, which has also been involved in the ceasefire talks, has said it fully supports Israel's position.

Israel and the US have pressed Hamas to accept a temporary truce in which it would immediately release several hostages in return for vague promises of talks on a more permanent ceasefire. Hamas has rejected those proposals and says it won't disarm as long as Israel occupies Palestinian territory. The Hamas official said the group does not trust either Netanyahu or the US after they shattered the existing ceasefire agreement, which had facilitated the release of over 30 hostages.

The Egyptian official said mediators had the impression that President Donald Trump wants a deal before he visits the region next month. Trump will travel to Saudi Arabia, Qatar and the United Arab Emirates from May 13 to May 16.

France, Germany condemn Israeli food blockade

Israel ended the ceasefire last month by launching a surprise bombardment across the territory that killed hundreds of Palestinians. Ground forces have expanded a buffer zone along the border, encircled the southern city of Rafah and now controls around 50 per cent of the territory.

Israel says the military operations and the tightened blockade are tactics There was no immediate comment to pressure Hamas to release hostages.

Afghan Taliban Government condemns J and K attack

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA | Islamabad

fghanistan's Taliban government on Wednesday condemned the An weunesuay conditions in terror attack on tourists in Jammu and Kashmir, saying such incidents undermine efforts to ensure regional security and stability. In a statement, the Taliban-ruled Afghanistan's Foreign Ministry Spokesman Abdul Qahar Balkhi also expressed condolences to the bereaved families. "The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan categorically condemns the recent attack on tourists in the Pahalgam region of Jammu and Kashmir, and expresses condolences to the bereaved families," he said.

Balkhi said "such incidents undermine efforts to ensure regional security and stability.

Terrorists killed 26 people, mostly tourists, in Jammu and Kashmir's Pahalgam on Tuesday, in the deadliest attack in the Valley since the Pulwama strike in 2019.

The Resistance Front (TRF), a shadow outfit of the banned Pakistan-based Lashkar-e-Taiba terror group, claimed responsibility for the attack. According to sketches released by the security agencies, three men - identified as Pakistanis — are believed to be involved in the attack.

Will not to raise stake in Vodafone Idea: Scindia

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA - New Delhi

he government has no plans to increase its shareholding in Vodafone Idea (VIL) as it does not want the telecom operator to turn into a public sector undertaking (PSU), Communications Minister Jyotiraditya Scindia has said.

Sending out a strong message to Vodafone Idea, Scindia said in an interview that it is now the telco's job to ensure it performs. After the recent conversion of Rs 36,950 crore of outstanding spectrum auction dues into equity, the government now holds 48.99 per cent shares in Vodafone Idea Ltd. Prior to this, the government's stake was about 22.6 per cent.

It is pertinent to mention that any additional stake could potentially turn the company into a PSU - bringing it under the administrative control of the government which would then get to appoint the board. Also the company would come under the purview of CAG and other oversight bodies, under such circumstances.

"It is now their (VIL's) job to ensure that they perform. Government today has 49 per cent of the company. There is no intention for the government to make that into a PSU. So we will stick to 49 per cent," Scindia said. On his assessment of impact of dues conversion on VIL's health and future competitiveness, specially given wide skepticism that the telco may still struggle to meet future payment obligations, the minister said: "That question should be directed at VIL.... It is now their job to ensure that they perform".

Analysts have been saying that government relief to Vodafone Idea into through dues-to-equity conversion may ease nearterm liquidity constraints for the the telco, but that structural challenges remain for the operator with factors like stabilisation of subscriber base, tariff hikes, longpending debt raise, and further relief on dues being vital for the telco's long-term

Analysts claim that government relief to Vodafone Idea into through dues-to-equity conversion may ease near-term liquidity constraints, but that structural challenges remain for the operator survival. On the issue of MTNL's default on bank loans, the minister noted that it has substantial land bank and informed that same will be monetised for clearing dues of banks and debt.

"MTNL now has a large amount of asset base in terms of its land bank. We are today progressing on that. And through NLMC - National Land Monetisation Committee - that land will be divested and through the proceeds of that land, all dues to banks and debt will be taken care of," Scindia assured. He did not specify timelines that may be involved for such monetisation, and said he is persuing the matter.

"NLMC is under DIPAM and the Finance Ministry. I am pursuing with them. As soon as that's done that will be taken care of," the minister said.

It is pertinent to mention here that staterun telecom firm MTNL has defaulted on bank loans worth ₹8,346.24 crore from seven public sector banks, according to a statutory filing by the company over the weekend. The loss-making public sector telecom firm's total debt obligations reached ₹33,568 crore as on March 31, 2025, according to the filing dated April 19. The total loan default includes ₹3,633.42

The total loan default includes ₹3,633.42 crore of debt raised from Union Bank of India, ₹2,374.49 crore of Indian Overseas Bank, ₹1,077.34 crore of Bank of India, ₹464.26 crore Punjab National Bank, ₹350.05 crore from State Bank of India, ₹266.30 crore from UCO Bank and ₹180.3 crore along with principal and interest payment.

The defaults in loan payment occurred between August 2024 to February 2025. The total debt on the company comprises ₹8,346 crore bank loan, Rs 24,071 crore sovereign guarantee (SG) bond, and loan of ₹1,151 crore from Department of Telecom (DoT) for paying SG bond interest. The minister said Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd (BSNL) has scripted an "amazing turnaround" and lauded it for delivering a "stellar performance". "It's been an arduous task and it has been an amazing turnaround. I must, on this occasion, also thank Prime Minister Narendra Modi for his belief in BSNL and providing those relief packages for BSNL without which we would have not seen this day," Scindia said.

BSNL during in the October to December quarter of FY25 has delivered net profit (₹262 crore) for the first time in 18 years. "After 72 quarters, we posted net profit....It is my firm belief that as we roll out 4G on an 'Atmanirbhar' solution...Only the fifth in the world to do so (there are only four other countries that have produced 4G technology)...India has produced 4G technology. We are rolling out 100,000 towers. As of date, 90,000 towers have been installed," he said. About 74,000 towers have been commissioned. "It is my fervent hope that by July or so, we will roll out the balance towers. We then have to stabilise the network...Then as a next step, ensure quality of service..The number of call drops, the amount of latency, the number of interruptions...And once that is stabilised, then I intend to move the 4G network, convert that into a 5G network," he said.

Doing so would require an additional equipment, include BTS, to graduate BSNL from 4G on to 5G.

"The next step would be then to also strengthen this network. So that's the path forward. But I think it is important to keep BSNL customer-centric. We are also putting in place a number of software so that we can connect with the consumer, as customer service is paramount to us," the Minister stated.

Pahalgam terror attack: Hospitality industry braces for Kashmir travel booking cancellations

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New Delhi

A nticipating largescale travel booking cancellations for Jammu and Kashmir in the aftermath of the terrorist attack in Pahalgam, aggregators on Wednesday said they are working with airlines and hotels to offer free date change and cancellation waivers to travellers.

Hospitality industry players expect the terror attack to sow fear in the minds of tourists who were keen to visit Jammu and Kashmir, adversely affecting the livelihoods of people in the state who are dependent on tourism. At least 26 people — mostly tourists — were killed by terrorists on Tuesday at the Baisaran meadows in Pahalgam.

"As per the early observations, flight cancellations jumped 7x, and a drop in future bookings by nearly 40 per cent," said Manjari Singhal, Chief Growth and Business Officer, Cleartrip. "As travellers navigate this difficult situation, our teams are working round the clock with airline and hotel partners to provide flexibility and assistance on bookings/ cancellations. Our on-ground team is doing everything in their capacity to offer support to travellers. We remain committed to providing continued assistance to both our customers and partners during this difficult time," a MakeMyTrip spokesperson said.

EaseMyTrip Chairman and Founder Nishant Pitti said, "In light of the ongoing situation in Srinagar, we at EaseMyTrip are fully committed to supporting our customers who are travelling to or from Srinagar. We understand the uncertainty this situation may cause and are here to minimise any inconvenience to your travel plans. To ensure flexibility, we have extended free change and cancellation waivers for all bookings made on or before April 22, applicable for travel up to April 30".

FAITH (Federation of Associations in Indian Tourism and Hospitality) General Secretary Rajiv Mehra said for the people of Jammu and Kashmir, tourism is not just a livelihood, it is their pride, their legacy and their hope.

"This attack has not only harmed innocent lives but has also dealt a cruel blow to the thousands of families who depend on tourism to survive. From houseboat owners and hoteliers to local guides and artisans, every individual in this chain of warmth and welcome is affected," he observed.

Indian Association of Tour Operators (IATO) also expressed its deep anguish and pain on selected targeting of tourists in Kashmir by a group of terrorists, saying it strongly condemns the cowardly terror attack "which is clearly designed to deeply impact tourism in Kashmir and create an atmosphere of fear".

We are shocked and appalled at these attacks in our country. Since 2020, the J&K region has seen a steady upswing in tourism numbers going from 3 million in 2020 to close to 24 million in 2024. This 8x huge surge in tourists impacts and improves the lives of the long-tail of the tourism industry and leads to the prosperity of the locals.

Rupee falls 25 paise to settle at 85.44 against US dollar

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■ Mumbai

The rupee depreciated 25 paise and settled for the day at 85.44 (provisional) against the US dollar on Wednesday, on surge in crude oil prices and importer demand for the American currency.

Forex traders said the American currency recovered, supported by Donald Trump's softened stance — particularly towards the Federal Reserve and China.

However, positive domestic markets and weak US dollar index and foreign fund inflows supported the domestic unit at lower levels.

Forex traders said the market found support after Trump on Tuesday backed off from threats to fire FED Chair Jerome Powell after days of intensifying criticism against him for not cutting rates. Trump also signalled the possibility of lower tariffs against China.

At the interbank foreign exchange, the domestic unit opened at 85.24, and touched an intra-day low of 85.52 against the greenback. The unit ended the session at 85.44 (provisional), registering a loss of 25 paise over its previous closing level.

On Tuesday, the rupee settled lower by 4 paise at 85.19 against the US dollar. "We expect the rupee to trade with a positive bias amid risk on sentiments in the global markets and FII inflows. Overall weakness in the US dollar may also support the rupee.

Alcohol industry seeks uniform taxation for sector

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE New Delhi

A lcoholic beverage maker's body CIABC on Wednesday urged the government to introduce uniform taxation for the sector and allow promotion of heritage spirits like 'Mahua' and 'Feni' globally, saying such reforms are vital to boost exports and help Indian brands compete internationally.

Deepak Roy, Chairman at Confederation of Indian Alcoholic Beverage Industry (CIABC), also said that the government should allow the industry to communicate freely with its consumers.

With the government's help, Indian heritage spirits can be promoted in international markets, as they have great potential in India and globally, he said.

Roy was speaking at the AlcoBev India 2025, the industry conclave organised by CIABC here.

"One segment that can really make it happen is the Indian heritage spirits. When 'Tequila' can be synonymous with Mexico, 'Sake' with Japan and 'Soju' with Korea, the same we can achieve internationally with 'Feni' or 'Mahua', which have a rich cultural legacy. We need to get out of the old mindset and promote Indian heritage spirits," he said.

He added that different taxation levels in states are a big challenge for the industry.

"There is no cohesive strategy for the Indian alcoholic beverage industry. The industry needs a uniform taxation mechanism which will propel the growth," he added.

EU fines Apple 500 million Euros and Meta 200 million in separate cases

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■ London

Luropean Union watchdogs fined Apple and Meta hundreds of millions of euros Wednesday as they stepped up enforcement of the 27-nation bloc's digital competition rules.

The European Commission imposed a 500 million euro (USD 571 million) fine on Apple for preventing app makers from pointing users to cheaper options outside its App Store.

The commission, which is the EU's executive arm, also fined Meta Platforms 200 million euros because it forced Facebook and Instagram users to choose between seeing personalised ads or paying to avoid them.

The punishments were smaller than the blockbuster multibillion-euro fines that the commission has previously slapped on Big Tech companies in antitrust cases.

Apple and Meta have to comply with the decisions within 60 days or risk unspecified "periodic penalty payments," the commission said.

The decisions were expected to come in March, but the self-imposed deadline slipped amid an escalating trans-Atlantic trade war with US President Donald Trump, who has repeatedly complained about regulations from Brussels affecting American companies.

The penalties were issued under the EU's Digital Markets Act, also known as the DMA. It's a sweeping rulebook that amounts to a set of do's and don'ts designed to give consumers and businesses more choice and prevent Big Tech "gate-keepers" from cornering digital markets.

The DMA seeks to ensure "that citizens have full control over when and how their data is used online, and businesses can freely communicate with their own customers," Henna Virkkunen, the commission's executive vice-president for tech sovereignty, said in a statement.

The commission said it ordered Apple to remove technical and commercial restrictions that prevent developers from steering users to other channels, and to end 'non-compliant' conduct

"The decisions adopted today find that both Apple and Meta have taken away this free choice from their users and are required to change their behaviour," Virkkunen said. Both companies indicated they would appeal. Apple accused the commission of "unfairly targeting" the iPhone maker, and said it "continues to move the goal posts" despite the company's efforts to comply with the rules.

Meta Chief Global Affairs Officer Joel Kaplan said in a statement that the "Commission is attempting to handicap successful American businesses while allowing Chinese and European companies to operate under different standards."

In a press briefing in Brussels, commission spokespeople sought to tamp down concerns that the penalties would inflame trade tensions.

"We don't care who owns a company. We don't care where the company is located," commission spokesperson Thomas Regnier told reporters. "We are totally agnostic on that front from a European Union." "And be it a Chinese company, be an American company, or be it a European company, you will have to play by the rules in the European Union."

In the App Store case, the Commission had accused the iPhone maker of imposing unfair rules preventing app developers from freely steering consumers to other channels. Among the DMA's provisions are requirements to let developers inform customers of cheaper purchasing options and direct them to those offers.

The commission said it ordered Apple to remove technical and commercial restrictions that prevent developers from steering users to other channels, and to end "non-compliant" conduct.

Apple said it has "spent hundreds of thousands of engineering hours and made dozens of changes to comply with this law, none of which our users have asked for." "Despite countless meetings, the Commission continues to move the goal posts every step of the way," the company said. The EU's Meta investigation centred on the company's strategy to comply with strict European data privacy rules by giving users the option of paying for ad-free versions of Facebook and Instagram.

Users could pay at least 10 euros a month to avoid being targeted by ads based on their personal data. The US tech giant rolled out the option after the European Union's top court ruled Meta must first get consent before showing ads to users.

Regulators took issue with Meta's model, saying it doesn't allow users to exercise their right to "freely consent" to allowing their personal data from its various services, which also include Facebook Marketplace, WhatsApp, and Messenger, to be combined for personalised ads.

Meta rolled out a third option in November giving Facebook and Instagram users in Europe the option to see fewer personalised ads if they don't want to pay for an ad-free subscription.

'90 per cent IT and security experts report cyberattacks'

ew research from Rubrik Zero Labs has traced that Indian organisations are facing a wave of cyberattacks. In the past one year, 80 percent of Indian organisations that experienced a ransomware attack paid a ransom to recover their data or to stop the ransomware attack. Significantly, 52 per cent of Indian organisations paid a ransom due to data extortion threats while 44 per cent of Indian organisations reported that cyber attackers successfully affected their backup and recovery options.

Accepting that cyberattacks are a constant threat, the RZL research, "The State of Data Security in 2025: A Distributed Crisis," also notes that 65per cent of organisations in India store their sensitive data across 2-3 multiple environments (on-premises, Cloud, or SaaS) while 38per cent respondents say that one of the biggest challenges they face in securing their data is securing sensitive data across multiple environments. As many as 44 per cent of Indian organisations reported that cyber attackers successfully affected their backup and recovery options. The consequences of these attacks were that 29 per cent of respondents reported financial losses, 31 per cent noted reputational damage and loss of customer confidence, and 36 per cent experienced a forced leadership change following a cyber incident.

"The State of Data Security in 2025: A Distributed Crisis" is based on insights from over 1,600 IT and security leaders across 10 countries (half of whom were CIOs or CISOs) from the US, UK, France, Germany, Italy, Netherlands, Japan, Australia, Singapore and India. From India 125 IT respondents participated in the survey conducted by Wakefield Research.

RZL research — "The State of Data Security in 2025: A Distributed Crisis," – states that globally, 90per cent of the IT and security leaders reported cyberattacks in the past year. It also reveals the hazards that hybrid environments are creating, leading to a cloud security crisis that organisations are unprepared to address. "Many organisations that move to the cloud assume their providers will handle security," said Joe Hladik, Head of Rubrik Tero Labs.

tock markets extended the winning run to seventh day on Wednesday with benchmark BSE Sensex jumping 520 points to close above 80,000 level for the first time in four months driven by strong gains in IT and auto shares.

The 30-share Sensex rose by 520.90 points or 0.65 per cent to settle at 80,116.49, the highest closing level since December 18. During the day, it surged 658.96 points or 0.82 per cent to 80,254.55.

The NSE Nifty rallied 161.70 points or 0.67 per cent to 24,328.95.

Foreign fund inflows and positive global trends also boosted the market sentiment, analysts said.

Among the Sensex firms, HCL Tech surged the most by 7.72 per cent after the firm posted an 8.1 per cent increase in consolidated net profit at ₹4,307 crore for March quarter 2024-25, mainly on account of large deals with a total contract value of about ₹25,500 crore.

Tech Mahindra, Tata Motors, Infosys, Mahindra & Mahindra, Tata Consultancy Services, Tata Steel, Bharti Airtel and Maruti were also among major gainers. Banking shares witnessed a sell-off after recent sharp gains with leading private lender HDFC Bank dropping by 1.98 per cent to emerge as the biggest loser among Sensex shares.

Kotak Mahindra Bank State Bank of

Kotak Mahindra Bank, State Bank of India, Axis Bank, ITC and UltraTech Cement were also among the laggards. In Asian markets, South Korea's Kospi index, Tokyo's Nikkei 225 and Hong Kong's Hang Seng settled in the positive territory. Shanghai SSE Composite ended marginally lower. Markets in Europe were trading significantly higher.

US markets bounced back sharply on Tuesday. Nasdaq Composite surged 2.71 per cent, Dow Jones Industrial Average jumped 2.66 per cent and S&P 500 rallied 2.51 per cent.

Foreign Institutional Investors (FIIs) bought equities worth ₹1,290.43 crore on Tuesday, according to exchange data. "The Indian equity market sustained its positive momentum, driven by better outcome from the latest set of IT results and optimistic forward-looking comments. However, profit-booking was ville in financials after the recent sharp rally.

"While US-China trade tensions appear to be easing, a rally in US tech stocks has further bolstered overall global market sentiment," Vinod Nair, Head of Research, Geojit Investments Limited, said.

Man City scores late winner to beat Aston Villa 2-1

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Manchester

ep Guardiola celebrated wildly as Manchester City took a big step toward Champions League qualification with a 2-1 victory over Aston Villa in the Premier League. With clenched fists, the City manager roared with delight after Matheus Nunes struck deep into stoppage time at the Etihad Stadium.

"I was so happy. I have to admit it," Guardiola said after a win that could help salvage a troubled season for his once

The late winner moved four-time defending league champion City up to third in the standings, with the top five securing a place in European club soccer's top competition. Nunes fired home from a tight angle in the fourth minute of added time after Jeremy Doku's low cross through the box. The game had looked destined to end in a draw after Bernardo Silva's first-half goal had been canceled out by a Marcus Rashford penalty.

There is still likely to be a tense battle for the Champions League with a clutch of teams in contention going into the final weeks of the season and just four points separating third to seventh in the standings. But City's fate is in its own hands after a troubled campaign that saw its title defense unravel before Christmas and its hopes of winning the Champions League end in the playoffs. A top-five finish would go some way to ending the season on a high - and Guardiola's celebration was evidence of just how important the win could prove

"We have a lot of pressure for the club to go to the Champions League," said Guardiola, whose City team won the competition for the first time in 2023.

"If we win the next four games, it will have been so important," he added.

Victory moved City up to 61 points and above Nottingham Forest in fourth and Newcastle in fifth. Chelsea is sixth and Villa, with 57 points, is seventh.

England's top flight will be given a bonus fifth Champions League place because of the performances of English teams in Europe this season. Both City and Villa have played a game more than their top-five rivals. But City knows a perfect record from its remaining four league games would guarantee a place in next season's Champions League.

It would be the 15th season in a row that City has qualified for the competition and would provide an uplifting finale to a campaign that brought an end to Guardiola's recent dominance of English

There is likely to be a rebuild in the offseason, with Kevin De Bruyne leaving and Silva and Ilkay Gundogan also in the latter stages of their careers. But it was Silva who provided the opener for City in the seventh minute from close range after Omar Marmoush's cutback. Rashford had already hit the post for Villa by that point after bursting into the box seconds after kickoff. And the on-loan Manchester United forward was on the score sheet in the 18th — equalising from the penalty spot following a VAR review of Ruben Dias' foul on Jacob Ramsey in the box.

Defeat was a blow to Villa's hopes of making it back-to-back seasons in the Champions League after returning to the competition for the first time in 41 years this term and advancing to the quarterfinals. "Of course, today we lost, but there are still matches to play, still points to play (for). We will have chances to get the Champions League," Villa manager Unai Emery said.

"I am happy how we are reacting, how every player is facing the moment we are (in)." Both City and Villa are also in the semifinals of the FA Cup.

World Cup Olympics of cricket, says Steve Waugh

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■ Madrid

t a time when the relevance of ODIs has become a topic of debate, former Australian captain Steve Waugh has batted for the format, saying that it would never lose significance as the quadrennial World Cup is akin to the "Olympics of cricket".

In an interaction with select media on the sidelines of the Laureus World Sports awards here, Waugh said despite the pressure of shorter formats, ODIs are holding ground as was evident from the record viewership garnered by the 2023 World Cup. "Everyone seems to think one-day cricket's not going to survive, but then you have the World Cup and it's huge and the ratings are massive and people love it and fall back in love with the game. Then it dies down for a couple years and we go through the same scenario," Waugh said.

"So right now, somehow we're managing to fit three formats of the game in and there's pressure of T10 maybe coming in, so could be four, four formats of cricket. I don't know how that's all going to get managed, but right now it seems to be going okay. "World Cup is significant for one-day cricket. It's pretty much the Olympics, to play (the World Cup) every four years,' he added. Cricket will have its share of spotlight in the actual Olympics as well when it makes a comeback to the Games after more than 100 years in the 2028 Los Angles edition.

Waugh also offered his views on other issues concerning international cricket right now, including the obvious Indian dominance in the administration of the sport and the revenue sharing arrangement that favours big Test-playing nations.

A recent study by the World Cricketers Association (WCA) claimed that the BCCI currently receives 38.5 per cent of the global cricket revenue, and recommended the figure be brought down to 10 per cent to ensure fairer distribution.

Calling for equal pay for all Test players regardless of nationality, Waugh said: "If you play a Test match, every player who plays a Test match should have equal pay.

"No one listened to me, but I said that in 1999 in an article, that every Test match player should get paid the same. You play a Test match, the fee should be exactly the same," added the 59-

The report also highlighted the congested international schedule, with overlapping bilateral and domestic leagues making it difficult to manage player workload and team commitments. When pointed out that only the IPL has a designated window, Waugh was candid: "BCCI runs world cricket, that's why they have their own window. Simple.'

Bumrah among best but unfair to compare others with him

Among players, Waugh hailed Indian pace spearhead Jasprit Bumrah as one of the finest pacers of modern era, but said it would be unfair to assess other Indian fast bowlers using the same vardstick.

"Bumrah obviously is one of the best bowlers of this modern era, if not of all time. It's very hard when you're judging the other players on him because he's at the elite level. But India have got plenty of backup and plenty of quick bowlers," he felt. Bumrah has led India's pace attack almost single-handedly for quite a while and remains one of the most feared bowlers across formats. However, frequent injury concerns have plagued his career in recent times. The 31-year-old was India's standout performer during the four-match Test series in Australia, which the visitors lost 1-3. "There's plenty of Indian bowlers out there. Obviously, Bumrah had a great series (in Australia). (Mohammed) Siraj did pretty well and some of the young guys coming through," he said.

With Rohit Sharma and Virat Kohli in the twilight of their international careers, both are eyeing the 2027 ODI World Cup as their swansong. The duo has already announced their retire-Waugh said their participation will depend on "form, fitness

"I'm not sure. I mean I don't follow their careers that closely but they've both been incredible cricketers for India," the former skipper said when asked if he sees them playing a role in the 2027 edition.

Every career has got to end at some stage. They've both been outstanding and they're still world-class players now but lots

15 selected for NCOEs from ASMITA sub-junior hockey league

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New Delhi

¬ive under-16 girls from Mizoram are among the 15 hockey players selected by the Sports Authority of India to be inducted into the various National Centres of Excellence (NCOEs).

Seen as the building block for women's hockey in India, the girls have been chosen after the conclusion of the 2024-25 season of the ASMITA leagues

The 15 selected for training at the NCOEs include three players from Harvana and two each from Jharkhand and Odisha, besides girls from Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka and Uttar Pradesh.

Piyush Dubey, hockey's High Performance Director for SAI and Khelo India, said these girls have been chosen keeping future Olympics in

"We have to think of a pathway and these girls have the potential to make it to the senior national team. In the last three-four years, ASMITA has provided the opportunity to see so many players in action and this is a welcome change in our hockey ecosystem. This did not exist before," said Dubey. He added that many players like Sunelita Toppo, Sujata Kujur and Sakshi Rana have emerged from this hockey league and are now representing India.

Six teams featuring 120 under-16 players took part in the ASMITA subjunior hockey league's final phase.

A total of 17 matches were played in the Rs 15.5 lakh prize money event. SAI Shakti won the team championship for the third consecutive time beating Madhya Pradesh Hockey Academy 2-1 in the final match at the Major Dhyan Chand National Stadium here.

Mizoram's ascendency in women's hockey has been quite startling. For the first time in its history, the tiny Northeastern state, known for its footballers and boxers, won a bronze medal in the senior national women's hockey championship in Panchkula.

Dubey said the Mizoram girls have shown immense improvement in the last five-six years and credit goes to the coaches who are working at the SAI centre in Thenzawl. Lalrothuami, a 2009 junior India player, said young girls are taking interest in hockey and some 40 are training at the SAI centre.

Mizoram have found a unique way to attract youngsters to play hockey. The image and profile of current Indian women's team player and Tokyo Olympian Lalremsiami have been used in advertisements and social media to attract girls to participate in trials.

"The response has been fairly good from the villages. Two of our girls — Lalthantluangi and Lalrinpuii - are ASMITA products and are junior Indian team members. They are a great advertisement for us and we are very happy that five Mizoram girls have been selected for training at NCOEs," said Lalrothuami.

"Our players need more competitive exposure and better training ecosystem. In terms of skills, all players are more or less equal but Mizo girls are stronger and have the stamina.

We hope they will utilise the facilities at NCOEs well." However, selection at NCOEs does not guarantee long-term membership. There are two assessments every year and players are judged on the three basic parametres -physical strength, sports science tests and

Indian athletes condemn Pahalgam terror attack

ndia's sporting fraternity oscillated between grief and rage as it joined the nation in condemning the deadly ter-rorist attack in Pahalgam with some demanding that the country should cut all sports ties with Pakistan.

On Tuesday, terrorists opened fire at a prime tourist location in south Kashmir's Pahalgam, killing at least 26 civilians and injuring several others. The Resistance Front (TRF), a shadow group of the banned Pakistan-based Lashkar-e-Taiba (LeT) terror group, has claimed responsibility for the attack.

Sachin Tendulkar and Virat Kohli expressed shock as they mourned the loss of lives.

"The affected families must be going through an unimaginable ordeal — India and the world stand united with them at this dark hour, as we mourn the loss of lives and pray for justice," Tendulkar wrote.

"Heartfelt condolences to the families of the victims. Praying for peace and strength to families all those who lost their lives and justice to be served for their cruel act," Kohli posted on his Instagram.

Similar sentiments were expressed by other top players such as Jasprit Bumrah and Suryakumar Yadav. Pacer Mohammed Siraj posted an emotional message in which he called for justice.

the name of religion is pure evil... No cause, no belief, no ideology can ever justify such a monstrous act. Yeh kaisi ladai hai... Jahaan insaan ki jaan ki koi keemat hi nahi (what sort of a fight is this in which there is no value for human life)," he asked.

"I hope this madness ends soon and these terrorists are found and punished, without mercy," he added. Former India cricketer Shreevats Goswami wrote a strongly-worded post, demanding an end to all sporting ties with Pakistan.

"And this is exactly why I say — you don't play cricket with Pakistan. Not now. Not ever. When BCCI or the government refused to send India to the Champions Trophy in Pakistan, some had the audacity to say, 'Oh, but sport should rise above politics," Goswami wrote.

be Pakistan's national sport and India should respond with zero tolerance and not with bats and balls," he added.

While India has not played bilateral cricket with Pakistan since 2012-13, and the BCCI declined to send its team for the Champions Trophy earlier this year, other Indian teams have continued to travel to Pakistan for international events.

Goswami, who had recently visited Pahalgam, said he had sensed hope and peace returning to the valley.

"And now... This bloodshed again. It breaks something inside you. It makes you question how many more times we're xpected to stay silent, stay "sporting," while our people die. No more. Not this time," he added. An "outraged" Olympic bronze medal-winning boxer and ruling BJP member Vijender Singh also called for "Our brave soldiers will definitely give a befitting reply to this cowardly attack in the coming times. In the presence of the brave sons of Mother India, the plans of those who want to disturb the peace in Jammu and Kashmir will never succeed," he asserted. Indian cricket team head coach and BJP MP Gautam Gambhir wrote, "Praying for the families of the deceased. Those responsible for this will pay. India will strike." Two-time Olympic medal-winning badminton player PV Sindhu too penned down an emotional post.

"My heart aches for the victims of the Pahalgam terror attack. So much pain. So much loss. No reason, no cause can ever justify such brutality.

"To the families left behind — your grief is beyond words, but you are not alone. We are with you. In these dark moments, may we find strength in each other, and never let go of the hope that peace will return!" Sindhu wrote. Olympic gold medallist duo of javelin thrower Neeraj Chopra and Abhinav Bindra prayed for the victims.

"Heartbroken by the tragic attack in Jammu & Kashmir. Prayers for the victims and their families," Chopra wrote.

"Heartbroken by the horrific terrorist attack in Pahalgam. My thoughts are with the victims and their families. Terror has no place in our world, we must stand united against hatred and violence," Bindra

We never press panic button: CSK CEO

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■ New Delhi

hennai Super Kings as a franchise never presses the panic button and there is not much to worry about despite the ✓ five-time champions' ordinary run in the current season IPL, its CEO Kasi Viswanathan told to media on Wednesday. CSK have lost a record five games in a row this season and more than halfway into the tournament, find themselves at the bottom of the points table with six losses in eight games.

They have lacked firepower in the batting department and captain Ruturaj Gaikwad's absence due to an injury has only made it worse for the storied outfit. CSK CEO has also spoken about his team's run in IPL 2025

"We have not been performing up to the mark. We are trying to improve and we we will try do well in the next few games. We have never pressed the panic button in our franchise is not like that, it is just a game," Viswanathan told to media. MS Dhoni is back leading the side in Gaikwad's absence but as head coach Stephen Fleming put it 'he doesn't have a magic wand' and can't change the team's fortunes overnight.

Following the defeat to Mumbai Indians, CSK find themselves in a must-win situation in their remaining six games with Dhoni $\,$ already speaking about the planning for 2026.

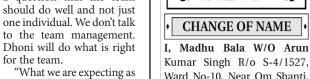

Can Dhoni script a turnaround after taking over from Gaikwad midway into the tournament? "See, it's not the question of anybody. It's a question that the team should do well and not just one individual. We don't talk to the team management. Dhoni will do what is right

"What we are expecting as administrators is good performance by the team and we don't criticise our team at all," he added
