SC initiates probe in Delhi High Court Judge case

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ New Delhi

fter a day-long turns and twists on the media report of huge pile of cash found in the Delhi High Court Judge Justice Yashwant Varma's home by the fire brigade, the Supreme Court on Friday said misinformation and rumours were being spread over the incident. The top court which initiated an in-house inquiry on the matter said it is waiting for the report from Delhi High Court Chief Justice. Meanwhile Fire Services Chief Atul Garg said there was no cash found from Justice Varma's residence. As the controversies broke out, by afternoon, Justice Varma took leave from work. The Supreme Court in a statement in the evening said the proposal for Justice Varma's transfer to Allahabad High Court was independent and separate from inhouse enquiry procedure. The top court said upon receiving information, the Delhi High Court Chief Justice commenced an in-house enquiry procedure collecting evidence and information.

The High Court Chief Justice DK Upadhyaya, who had commenced enquiry prior to March 20 collegium meeting, would submit a report to Chief Justice of India Sanjiv Khanna today itself, said the top court. Following its examination, the court would proceed for "further and necessary" action, added the statement from Supreme Court.

Fire fighters found no cash during their operation to douse flames at the residence of Justice Varma, Delhi Fire Services Chief Atul Garg said. The control room received a call about a blaze at Varma's Lutyens Delhi residence at 11.35 pm on March 14 and two fire tenders were immediately rushed to the spot, Garg told media. Fire tenders reached the spot at 11.43 pm. The fire was in a store room stocked with stationery and domestic articles, Garg said, adding that it took 15 minutes to control the flames. There were no casualties.

"Soon after dousing the flames, we informed Police about the fire incident. Thereafter, a team of fire department personnel left the spot. Our fire fighters did not find any cash during their fire fighting operation," the DFS chief said.

The Allahabad High Court Bar Association opposed the transfer Justice Varma and said they may go for an indefinite strike against making the Allahabad HC as "trashbin." In a resolution passed soon after the news of the judge's transfer by a Supreme Court collegium was reported, the association said, "We were taken aback that the Supreme Court has transferred Justice Yashwant Varma back to Allahabad High Court...

BHUBANESWAR

The resolution, naming association president and senior advocate Anil Tiwari as the signatory, claims that the discovery of the "unaccounted money" from the judge's house was of "₹15 Crore". "Supreme Court has taken cognisance on the matter immediately and unanimously decide repatriate Justice Yashwant Varma to Allahabad High Court," it said. The statement added, "The decision of the collegium raises a serious question as to whether the Allahabad high Court is a trash bin?'

The matter was raised in the Rajya Sabha and Chairman Jagdeep Dhankhar saying he will find a mechanism for holding a structured discussion on the issue. Raising the issue in the morning session, Congress MP Jairam Ramesh also sought the Chair's response on judicial accountability and reminded him about a pending notice regarding impeachment of a judge of the Allahabad High Court. "This morning, we have read about a shocking case of huge amounts of cash unearthed at the residence of a judge of the Delhi High Court," Ramesh said.

He also pointed out that earlier, 50 members of Parliament had submitted a notice to the chairman regarding certain remarks that were made by a judge of the Allahabad High Court. Ramesh said the Chairman himself has repeatedly spoken about the urgency for judicial accountability. The senior Congress member also sought to remind Dhankhar that he had directed the Leader of the House on this issue.

he controversial judge Justice Yashwant Varma was named as accused by CBI in February 2018 in case related to bank loan fraud by Simbhaoli Sugars Limited. For CBI, the FIR No: RCBD1/2018/E/0002 dated February 22, 2018 is a hot potato due to the name of Yashwant Varma as accused who had already became a Judge in Allahabad High Court in October 2014. The agency was registering FIR based on a complaint by Oriental Bank of Commerce filed on 2017, without knowing that Varma had already became a High Court judge, having impunity. The bank loan fraud case is an interesting one. Varma who was a lawyer with expertise in tax laws was also nonexecutive director of the big sugar company Simbhaoli Sugars Limited and during this period the company took a loan to give money to sugar farmers to buy their products. According to the Oriental Bank, which filed complaint to CBI named all the 10 directors of the sugar company for the bank loan fraud raging above ₹109 Crore.

Justice Varma was named as ninth accused in the FIR along with sugar company's managing director Gurmit Singh Mann, deputy managing director Gurpal Singh, CEO GSC Rao and CFO Sanjay Tapriya, executive directors Gursimran Kaur. The bank's complaint also named other five non-executive directors along with Varma, who during the bank loan period was also a practicing lawyer in 2012. In October 2014, Advocate Yashwant Varma became Allahabad HC judge. When the loan amount was not repaid and the irregularities in the disbursement to sugar farmers were found in later years, the bank filed complained to CBI in November 2017 and within months in February 2018, the agency filed a 13 page FIR which also named Varma.

Union Minister calls out Allahabad HC rape ruling

HYDERABAD

nion Women and Child Development Minister Annapurna Devi on Friday said she "completely disagreed" with Allahabad High Court's ruling on what constituted rape or attempt to rape and urged the Supreme Court to intervene in the matter.

Her reaction came after the high court, in an order earlier this week, ruled that mere grabbing of breasts and snapping pyjama strings did not amount to rape or attempt to rape but fell under the ambit of assault or use of criminal force against any woman with the intent to disrobe or compel her to be naked.

"I am completely against this decision and the Supreme Court should take serious note of it. Such a ruling has no place in a civilised society," Devi, said outside Parliament. She also expressed concern over the broader implications of the judgment, warning that it could send the wrong message to society. "Somewhere, this will have a negative impact on society and we will discuss this matter further," she added. The case involved an 11year-old girl in Uttar Pradesh's Kasganj, who was assaulted by two accused, identified as Pawan and Akash, in 2021. The accused grabbed her breasts, snapped her pyjama strings and attempted to drag her under a culvert. The assailants fled when passersby intervened.

Rajya Sabha MP Swati Maliwal also slammed the ruling as "shameful" and "absolutely wrong". She questioned the message such a ruling sent to society, particularly regarding crimes against children. "This is deeply shameful and absolutely wrong. What message do they want to give to society? That a young girl can be subjected to such horrific acts and it still won't be considered rape?" she told reporters outside Parliament.

Maliwal also urged the Supreme Court to immediately intervene and take strict action against such judicial interpretations. "The Supreme Court should intervene in this matter without delay, and strict action must be taken," she said.

CPI general secretary D Raja has also slammed the judge's remarks on sexual violence as "appalling". "Grabbing breasts or snapping a pyjama string isn't 'attempt to rape'? This trivialises sexual violence and shows the tight grip of patriarchy on our institutions. The law must prioritise survivors' trauma, not minimise it," he said in a social media post on Thursday.

"People see the judiciary as the last hope and such conduct puts a question mark before the credibility of the judiciary. Shameful!" he added. Legal experts too deplored the observation of the Allahabad High Court on what constitutes a rape charge, calling for a restraint by judges and underlining the drop in public confidence in the judiciary due to such statements.

Senior advocate and Supreme Court Bar Association president Kapil Sibal took to social media saying, "God save this country with such judges adorning the Bench! The SC has been too soft in dealing with errant judges (sic)."

NDA dharma in Naidu's Andhra Pradesh

KUMAR CHELLAPPAN ■ Chennai

owing to safeguard Lord Venkateswara Swamy's assets in the country and across the world, the Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu declared that people working in TTD should be Hindus. Same time he mentioned that non-Hindus currently working in the premises will be given opportunities elsewhere.
"People from other religions will not be there in the worship places of Christians and Muslims. Religious places of a particular religion will only have people belonging to that particular religion," Naidu said talking to media after he visited the temple and offered prayers with his family.

Naidu who is part of the NDA alliance also said that Lord Venkateswara Swamy temples will be built overseas where Hindus are in large numbers. The move to transfer non-Hindu staff from Tirupati

Temple is likely earn the wrath of the Congress. "We have resolved to build Venkateswara Temples in every State capital across India. To achieve this, we will send letters to all chief ministers. Additionally we will establish Venkateswara temples in regions worldwide where there is a significant Hindu population," said Naidu.

days when the temple hundi records offerings worth more than ₹2.5 Crore. The temple boasts of a university, hospital, many schools, veda patasalas and even a satellite TV channel (Sre Venkateswara Bhakti Channel) airing the live sevas and poojas. Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanam, headed by an IAS officer appointed by the State Government administers the temple. Various Hindu organisations like VHP have been calling for the liberation of the temple from the shackles of the Government and handing over the administration to the devotees.

Vedic scholar Parappanangadi Unnikrishnan Panicker, who has held Deva Prasnam at Tirupati Venkateswara Temple twice in the past welcomed the move to establish such temples across the world. "The deity at Tirupati has special poojas as mandated by Agama sasthra. If this is replicated all over, the world will become a much better place to live," said Unnikrishnan Panicker.

nion Home Minister Amit Shah on Friday attacked opposition parties in the Rajya Sabha for raking up the language row, saying they were doing so to gain political mileage and hide their corruption.

Shah also said after December 2025, he will do correspond with chief ministers, MPs and common people in their respective languages.

Making these assertions while replying to the debate in the Upper House on the working of the ministry of home affairs, he said there have been enough divisions in the nation in the name of language and it should not happen anymore as Hindi is not in competition with other languages but a friend of those. "Some parties are raking up the language issue for their own politics. They are doing it just to hide their corruption," he said.

The DMK-led Tamil Nadu government and the Centre have been at loggerheads over the implementation of the new National Education Policy and the threelanguage formula proposed under it.

Shah also said that after December, he will do all correspondence with chief ministers, MPs and common people in their respective languages.

Those who take shelter behind the language issue to hide their corruption, this is a strong reply to them. "There have been enough divisions in the nation in the name of language, and it should not happen anymore," he said, amid the escalatHome Minister Amit Shah speaks in the Rajya Sabha during the Budget session of Parliament ing row over the three-language formula implementation outlined in the National Education Policy.

The Home Minister said every Indian language is a treasure for the country. "Hindi is not in competition with any Indian language, it is only a friend of other languages," the senior BJP leader said.

Dismissing the allegation of Hindi imposition, he said every Indian language is a treasure for the country. Shah informed the House that a new department of Indian languages has been established under the 'Raajbhasha Vibhaag' (Department of Official Language) of the Home Ministry.

"I want to say this so that those who want to divide the country in the name of language do not get an agenda... The Modi government has established a department of Indian Languages which will work on spreading all Indian languages. Tamil, Telugu, Punjabi, Assamese... Every language has been included, and there will be apps for translation too," he said. The Home Minister said some people have accused the Union government of being against Southern languages. "How is that possible? I come from Gujarat, Nirmala (Sitharaman) ji is from Tamil Nadu," he said.

Day 1 of Assembly Session Witnesses Uproar Over Farmers' Issue, Colonel Assault case

WEARING BLACK ARMBANDS, CONG MLA STAGE WALKOUT DURING GOVERNOR'S ADDRESS

MONIKA MALIK CHANDIGARH

 $P^{\text{unjab}} \ \ \text{Vidhan} \ \ \text{Sabha's} \ \ \text{budget} \ \ \text{session,} \\ \text{which commenced on Friday and is set}$ to continue until March 28, witnessed high drama and heated exchanges, with the principal opposition Congress staging a walkout over the police action on farmers and the alleged mishandling of a serving Army Colonel's assault case in Patiala.

The session opened with the Governor Gulab Chand Kataria's address to the House, wherein he listed the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) led Punjab Government's initiatives and achievements. He particularly lauded the Government's efforts in its "War against Drugs" and acknowledged its sensitivity towards the farmers. However, the Governor's speech was overshadowed by the Congress legislators' protests.

As soon as the Governor began speaking, opposition Congress leaders started raising slogans, protesting against the police action on farmers and the assault on the Colonel and his son by police officers in Patiala. Leader of Opposition Partap Singh Bajwa raised the issue, with his microphone off, even as the Governor continued reading his address. Bajwa demanded the immediate suspension of Patiala district police chief Nanak Singh, accusing him of shielding the guilty police officials in Colonel assault case. Unable to get a response from the government, the Congress MLAs staged a dramatic walkout, chanting slogans of "Jai Jawan, Jai Kisan" both inside and outside the House.

During the Zero Hour, Bajwa again raised the issue of the March 13 incident in Patiala, where a serving Army Colonel and his son were allegedly assaulted by a group of police officers in plain clothes over a parking dispute. The Colonel, who displayed his identity card during the altercation, was reportedly manhandled, and his turban was forcibly removed. Bajwa highlighted that such an act was unacceptable in a Sikh-majority state and demanded a judicial probe by a sitting or retired judge. Drawing a parallel with a similar 1992 case, where action was taken against a senior police officer, Bajwa insisted that SSP Nanak Singh should be removed immediately. "Instead of ensuring justice, he is shielding his officers. If such incidents continue, the morale of our armed forces personnel will suffer," Bajwa stated.

"We demand an inquiry by a sitting or retired high court judge into the incident,"

ROW OVER SPEAKER'S ALLEGED REMARKS ON FARMERS AND

The session took a controversial turn when Congress MLA Pargat Singh accused AAP leaders, including Speaker Kultar Singh Sandhwan, of linking the farmers' agitation to the rise in drug abuse in Punjab. Pargat Singh claimed that the Speaker had made statements implying that prolonged protests and road blockades by farmers had contributed to the worsening drug menace.

Strongly denying the allegations, Speaker Sandhwan called them "baseless" and demanding evidence of any such statement. "Show me even one statement where I said that farmers' protests increased drug abuse. Do not misrepresent my words," he rebuked. The heated exchange led to a ruckus in the House, with AAP MLAs and Congress members shouting slogans against each Pargat Singh further contended that AAP was deflecting blame onto the farmers' agitation to justify Punjab's economic losses. He asserted that the real disruption was caused by Haryana's blockade of highways, not the farmers' protests. Accusing AAP of acting at the behest of the BJP, he alleged that the party was deliberately vilifying farmers to deepen political divisions in the border state.

PUNJAB MAHILA CONG PROTESTS OVER UNFULFILLED 'RS 1,000 MONTHLY TO WOMEN' PROMISE

Punjab Mahila Congress on Friday staged a massive protest against the AAP government, accusing it of betraying women by failing to deliver the promised Rs 1,000 monthly assistance. Led by Punjab Mahila Congress president Gursharan Kaur Randhawa, the protest witnessed the participation of Punjab Congress president Amarinder Singh Raja Warring, CLP leader Partap Singh Bajwa, and Congress general secretary Sukhjinder Singh

Warring, addressing the gathering, lambasted AAP, stating that despite 36 months passing since the 2022 election promise, the Government had failed to provide financial aid to women. He called it a clear case of deceit, vowing that the Congress would not only ensure AAP fulfills its commitment but also demand arrears of Rs 36,000 per woman for the delay.

Marching towards the Vidhan Sabha, the protesters were intercepted by Chandigarh Police near the Congress Bhawan, where several leaders were detained. The police resorted to water cannons to disperse the demonstrators, leading to injuries among some women protesters.

GOVERNOR LISTS AAP'S ACHIEVEMENTS; CONG STAGES WALKOUT

Punjab Assembly Budget Session began on a stormy note on Friday as Congress MLAs staged a walkout, protesting against the AAP Government's handling of key issues, including the farmers' agitation and an alleged police assault on an Army Colonel in Patiala.

Dressed in black armbands, Congress legislators stormed into the Well of the House, shouting slogans against the government at the time when the Governor was addressing the House to mark the beginning of the budget session. The opposition accused AAP of betraying farmers and mishandling law and

Leader of Opposition and Congress MLA Partap Singh Bajwa led the protest, raising concerns about the detention of farmer leaders Sarwan Singh Pandher and Jagjit Singh Dallewal and the forceful eviction of farmers from protest sites at Shambhu and Khanauri. Bajwa also cited the recent attack on an Indian Army Colonel and his son in Patiala, alleging that the government had failed to act against the accused effectively. Despite the Governor continuing his address, the Congress MLAs intensified their protests, eventually walking out of the Assembly.

The Treasury Benches responded by thumping desks in support of the Governor's speech, particularly when he praised the AAP Government's achievements, including war against drugs; education and health reforms; power sector initiatives among others.

Despite the disruption, Governor Gulab Chand Kataria delivered his over one hour address, outlining the government's accomplishments and future plans.

The Governor announced that the Punjab Government had circulated a draft agriculture policy to all stakeholders, including farmers and labour unions, seeking suggestions. The policy, formulated by an 11-member expert committee, aims to promote sustainable farming, environmental conservation, and economic growth for farmers.

Additionally, he maintained that the Government had provided over eight hours of uninterrupted electricity to agricultural consumers during the paddy season while ensuring no power cuts for domestic, commercial, or industrial users.

Kataria said that "my government" has intensified its crackdown on drugs, with a high-powered committee under Finance Minister Harpal Singh Cheema leading the anti-drug drive. The Governor highlighted that the Anti-Gangster Task Force arrested 1,588 criminals, neutralized 13 gangsters, and busted 571 criminal modules, while also seizing 1,477 illegal weapons.
Between January 2024 and November

2024, Punjab Police also dismantled nine terror modules, arresting 59 individuals linked to extremist activities. In the healthcare sector, the Governor announced that 881 Aam Aadmi Clinics had been established, benefiting nearly 2.98 crore people. Free medicines worth Rs 200 crore will be distributed in government hospitals, while three new medical colleges are set to be built.

The government has also planned major upgrades for district and sub-divisional hospitals, investing Rs 53 crore in X-ray and ultrasound services and Rs 150 crore in hospital infrastructure improvements.

Kataria said that Punjab is set to introduce 347 electric buses in cities like Amritsar, Ludhiana, Patiala, and Jalandhar. Additionally, Rs 810 crore has been invested in 770 new industrial units, creating new job opportunities. To support sports development, the government plans to establish 1,000 sports nurseries, while international athletes from Punjab have been awarded Rs 12.96 crore in financial incentives.

The Congress, however, dismissed the

QUESTION HOUR: Land Compensation Delays Hindering Makkhu Railway Overbridge Project

The session also saw discussions on pend-I ing infrastructure projects, with Congress raising concerns over the non-payment of compensation for land acquired for the Makkhu railway overbridge. PWD Minister Harbhajan Singh ETO assured that work on the overbridge would commence soon and that compensation had already been disbursed.

However, MLA Naresh raised concerns about landowners not receiving compensation for the acquired land, questioning how the project could proceed under such circumstances. He highlighted discrepancies in compensation payments, stating that while the road spans 99 feet, there is no clarity on payments for 25 feet on either

"The construction of the much-awaited Railway Over Bridge (ROB) on the Harike-Jira-Bathinda section of NH 54 in Makhu will begin within a week," said the Minister in response to a question raised by MLA Naresh Kataria. He said that all necessary land acquisitions for the project have been completed and the construction contract has been awarded.

DL, RCS TO BE ISSUED WITHIN A MONTH

Residents of Punjab will no longer have to endure long delays in receiving their driving licenses and vehicle registration certificates (RCs). Transport Minister Laljit Singh Bhullar on Friday announced that the printing process has resumed and all pending cases will be cleared within a month. The issue was raised by Leader of Opposition Partap Singh Bajwa, who pointed out that

Governor's claims as "political propaganda". Bajwa accused the AAP Government of betraying the farmers, alleging that Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann was acting on the instructions of Delhi Chief Minister Arvind

"AAP came to power by promising to protect farmers' interests, but now they are using police force against them. Farmers did not block highways, Haryana's government did. Farmers did not stop trains, the Centre did. Yet, the Punjab government is using force

PATHANKOT-HARIDWAR BUS SERVICE TO RESUME SOON

Congress MLA Aruna Chaudhary raised concerns over the discontinuation of the Pathankot-Haridwar bus service. She recalled that during her tenure, the service was operational and its schedule was periodically adjusted for the convenience of passengers. Criticizing the AAP Government for shutting down the route, she urged the restoration of the service, considering its religious and cultural importance. Responding to her concerns, Minister Laljit Singh Bhullar assured that efforts were underway to reinstate the service. He emphasized that once an adequate number of passengers is ensured, financial constraints would not hinder its operation.

NO PLANS FOR FOOD PROCESSING PLANT IN KHEMKARAN

Addressing concerns regarding the establishment of a food processing plant in Khemkaran, Rural Development Minister Kuldeep Singh Dhaliwal clarified that no such proposal was in place. An MLA had suggested converting 50 acres of eucalyptus plantations in Kulla village into a site for a food processing unit, citing the deteriorating condition of the trees. However, Minister Dhaliwal stated that there was no vacant land available for such a project at the proposed location.

against them," said Bajwa.

Bajwa also linked Kejriwal's recent visit to Punjab to the Rajya Sabha elections, suggesting that his Vipassana meditation retreat was merely a cover for securing his political future.

The Assembly will reconvene on March 24 (Monday) to discuss the Governor's address, followed by the presentation of the Punjab Budget for 2025-26 on March 26. The budget estimates discussion will take place on March 27, setting the stage for another politically charged session.

Farmers Boycott Punjab Govt Meeting, Demand Release of Detained Leaders First

PNS CHANDIGARH

Acrucial meeting between the Punjab Government and farmer unions, scheduled for 4 pm on Friday at Punjab Bhawan, Chandigarh, was called off after major farmer organizations refused to participate, escalating tensions between the two sides.

The Punjab chapter of the Samyukta Kisan Morcha (SKM) — the pan-India farmers' body; and Bharatiya Kisan Union (BKU) Ugrahan — Punjab's biggest farmers' union were invited by the government for discussions on ongoing farmer grievances. However, the unions boycotted the meeting, citing the recent police crackdown on protesting farmers at the Shambhu and Khanauri borders and the detention of key farmer leaders, including jagjit Singh Dallewal, who has been on fast since November 26 last.

Farmer leader Joginder Singh Ugrahan, who heads BKU Ugrahan, laid down three key conditions before agreeing to any discussions. "Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann must be present at the meeting; immediate release of all arrested farmers and leaders detained during the March 19 crackdown; and the return of confiscated belongings, including tractors and personal items," he Ugrahan emphasized that farmers are not against dialogue but insisted that meaningful negotiations can only take place in a "conducive environment". He recalled a previous meeting with CM Mann on March 3, which was abruptly cut short when Mann walked out, raising doubts about the government's sincerity.

The boycott follows the March 19 police action, during which farmer leaders and protesters at the Shambhu and Khanauri borders were forcibly removed. Many were detained, and their belongings were either confiscated or scattered across fields. According to farmer groups, several demonstrators were arrested outside Deputy Commissioner (DC) offices while protesting against police action.

The arrests have sparked legal challenges. The Punjab and Haryana High Court has sought a status report from the Punjab DGP by March 24 regarding the detention of farmer leader Jagjit Singh Dallewal and others. Additionally, 101 farmers, including Kisan Mazdoor Morcha (KMM) leader Sarwan Singh Pandher, have been sent to Patiala Central Jail.

Sources indicated that CM Bhagwant Mann was unavailable for Friday evening's meeting as he was scheduled to attend a delimitation meeting in Chennai convened by Tamil Nadu Chief Minister MK Stalin. This absence further fueled suspicion among farmer leaders, who accused the government of trying to divide and weaken the movement.

Guramneet Singh Mangat, a leader of SKM (Non-Political), criticized the government's approach, stating, "The government fears a unified farmer movement and is attempting to use a divide-and-rule strategy by selectively inviting unions to talks."

In response to the boycott, farmer organizations have announced a day-long protest in Chandigarh on March 26 and have urged the government to allocate a designated

Meanwhile, the Khanauri border, which had remained closed for 13 months due to protests, was reopened on March 22, restoring movement on the Delhi-Patiala highway. Earlier, the Shambhu border between Ambala and Patiala was also reopened, allowing traffic to resume on the Delhi-Amritsar-Jammu highway. The reopening follows the Punjab government's forceful eviction of protesters from both sites.

Haryana Cabinet Minister Anil Vij on Friday said that the State budget, exceeding Rs two lakh crore, has focused on comprehensive development. Interacting with the media persons, Vij praised Prime Minister Narendra Modi's leadership, stating that no better budget could have been presented under his guidance.

When asked about the BJP high command's directive for state ministers to hold press conferences in their respective districts, . Vij responded that Haryana has presented an outstanding budget for the first time.

On Congress not appointing a Leader of Opposition, Anil Vij said: "It questions Congress' leadership and decision-making ability...It reflects poorly on the party's top leadership, showing that they are incapable of making decisions."

Social Justice and Empowerment Minister Krishan Kumar Bedi said that the budget of Haryana has been prepared keeping in mind all sections of society. The budget of Haryana has been presented by keeping in mind the suggestions of farmers, agriculture, businessmen, employees and players. The economy of the state will improve with this budget, he added.

The Minister said the Chief Minister has given special attention to farmers in the agriculture sector and announcements have also been made for soldiers in the budget. "Haryana has the highest per capita income among the major states and the revenue deficit has decreased in the last 10 years. Interest-free loan up to Rs one lakh will be made available to women farmers for setting up dairy, subsidy amount on purchase of desi cow has been increased to Rs 30,000, sale of urea and fertilizer will be linked to Meri Fasal Meri Byora portal and the land limit for getting benefits under natural farming has been reduced to one acre," he said

Hry Ministers hail State Budget, say it focuses on comprehensive development Agriculture and Farmers' Welfare Minister Shyam Singh Rana said that Haryana is the first state in the country where maximum crops are being purchased at MSP. Rana, speaking on the occasion of the launch of mustard procurement at the Radaur grain market in Yamunanagar district, said that this year, mustard is being purchased at the MSP of Rs 5950 per quintal.

BJP GOVT'S PROMISE OF GIVING MSP ON 24 CROPS PROVED FALSE: HOODA

Former Chief Minister and senior Congress leader Bhupinder Singh Hooda on Friday alleged that the BJP Government's claim of giving MSP on 24 crops has been exposed once again as the government is not

"Farmers have sent us their mustard purchase receipts and told us their plight. The MSP of mustard is Rs 5960, but it is being purchased in the market at Rs 5400. Farmers are incurring a loss of about Rs 500 per quintal. Last time, paddy was also purchased at a rate lower than MSP and this time the game of looting farmers has started in the purchase of mustard as well," he stated.

Hooda said that BJP had promised to give farmers a rate higher than MSP on crops like paddy and wheat before the election, but had failed to deliver. "BJP had promised a rate of Rs 3100 on paddy crop. BJP neither kept this promise after forming the government nor did it make any such provision in the budget this time," he said.

He accused the eratwhile Jai Ram Thakur-led BJP Government of opening institutions in its last six months of tenure as a political gimmick to retain power. However, he noted that the electorate rejected the BJP's strategy and voted them out.

"The previous government opened over 1,000 institutions without allocating any budget or staff. The current government is making well-thought-out decisions rather than resorting to blind expansion," Agnihotri said.

Responding to MLA Randhir Sharma's query, Agnihotri stated that every assembly constituency would soon have a Jal Shakti division. He also emphasized the rationalization of education and rural development institutions, ensuring new establishments only where required.

Leader of Opposition Jai Ram Thakur, however, accused the Congress Government of acting with political vendetta by shutting down institutions set up during the BJP rule. Sharma further alleged that as of January 15, 2024, only 35 institutions had been reopened.

Countdown to reciprocal tariffs

India braces for the impact of Trump's tariffs, set to take effect on April 2 s April 2 approaches, India braces for the implementation of US President Donald Trump's reciprocal tariffs, a move poised to reshape the economic landscape between the two nations. These tariffs aim to equalise the duties imposed by countries on US exports, targeting nations with higher tariffs on American goods.

President Trump has criticised countries like India for imposing substantial tariffs on US products. He made it clear recently when he said that he believed they (India and others) are probably going to be lowering those tariffs substantially, but on April 2, and that he would be charging them the same tariffs they charge US. The reciprocal tariffs are designed to pressure countries into reducing their tariffs to match those of the United States.

The introduction of these tariffs could have several implications for India. Firstly it is going to affect India's Gross Domestic Product (GDP) in a big way. Analysts predict a potential reduction in India's GDP growth by 5 to 10 basis points from the current estimate of 6.6 per cent. The key industries such as gems and jewelry, pharmaceuticals, and automobiles, which have significant export volumes to the US, may face increased duties, affecting their competitiveness and profitability. Moreover, the Indian steel sector is particularly vulnerable. With the US imposing a 25 per cent tariff on steel imports and if India lowers its steel import duties there are genuine concerns about cheaper Chinese steel flooding the Indian market and damaging the Indian steel industries.

Indian government is yet to figure out how to reciprocate as the Trump's deadline is just ten days away. The best bet is diplomatic negotiations but at the moment the US President is adamant on going ahead with his plans to wage the trade war on nations who do not comply with his dictums. Indian officials have been in talks with their US counterparts to negotiate and potentially mitigate the impact of the tariffs. India has proactively reduced tariffs on certain US goods, such as motorcycles and bourbon whiskey, to address US concerns and foster goodwill. However, lowering the import duties across the sectors would be disastrous for Indian industry.

The best bet in this scenario, as other countries are also exploring and experimenting is to find alternative markets and increase South South Cooperation (SSC). Efforts are underway to explore alternative markets for Indian exports to reduce dependence on the US and mitigate potential revenue losses. But the problem is far grave as the ripple effects of the tariffs extend beyond direct trade. Increased US tariffs could lead to uncertainty, affecting foreign direct investment inflows as investors may adopt a cautious approach.

Trade tensions can lead to volatility in currency markets, impacting the Indian rupee's value against major currencies. Higher tariffs on imported goods could lead to increased prices for consumers, affecting purchasing power and overall consumption. As the deadline approaches, India's preparedness and strategic responses will be crucial in navigating the challenges posed by the US reciprocal # tariffs India has a strong economic foundation, and while the impact of these tariffs may be challenging, the country is well-positioned to weather this unprecedented situation. Moreover, as other affected nations like China and Canada devise strategies to mitigate the impact, India can draw valuable lessons from their responses to navigate the evolving trade scenario.  ₄eaderspeak The delimitation exercise, if carried out, will strike at the very foundation of federalism in India. It will erode the essence of democracy. Our voices in parliament will be silenced. Our rights will be compromised. This is nothing but a deliberate attempt to undermine certain states. States that have controlled their population growth, governed efficiently and contributed significantly to national progress must not be punished by the union government.

AI is transforming healthcare

From Al-driven diagnostic software aiding rural healthcare centers to machine-learning models enhancing radiology and pathology, technology is automating tasks once solely performed by doctors edical practice is based on protocols that help doctors diagnose conditions. A protocol is an algorithm and it appears that machines might be gaining an advantage in diagnosing conditions efficiently and quickly. It is increasingly being recognised that a digitally connected healthcare ecosystem can improve treatment outcomes, especially in large parts of rural India where the lack of specialists often comes in the way of timely diagnosis and medication. Software, developed by doctors and technicians at AIIMS Delhi, is a significant initiative in this

The software can extend specialised diabetes consultation to primary healthcare centres (PHCs) in rural areas. Studies have suggested that India's diabetes burden, already the second highest in the world, is underreported because half the patients, even in urban areas, are not even aware of their condition. The AIIMS software is one step towards addressing these deficits. It requires the local level healthcare professional to feed in patient data on risk factors like blood pressure, cholesterol, and blood sugar. It then uses AI to process the information to suggest the treatment or further consultation, as the case may be. All this, however, does not attenuate the significance of the attending physician. The doctor will be required to adapt the software's advice. The digital intervention's potency, therefore, is dependent on the quality of analogue care.

The country's healthcare system requires accessible PHCs run by quality professionals, empowered by digital resources. With this statement, I will talk about the shape of jobs in the field of medicine in this era of AI and GenAI. The advent of AI is posing serious concerns about jobs in future. Some people will become more productive and some roles will be replaced. I have a different take on this.

I hypothesise that AI is automating tasks, not jobs. Let us take the example of a Radiologist—he reads X-rays, sees patients, maintains machines, and mentors younger doctors. Computers analyse X-rays and other medical diagnostics more efficiently and accurately than human experts. The task of reading x-rays can be done by AI, but not the other parts of a radiologist's job. So I suggest that while identifying areas that will be impacted by AI, we need to break down a job

We have to accept that most jobs will likely have at least some of their tasks affected by LLMs.Pathologists are receiving scanned slides of biopsies accompanied by critical data. Then the pathologist only has to focus on the

The positive side of this is that speed and accuracy will increase. The downside is that if pathologists are no longer required to evaluate the basic histology elements themselves, the skill to do so will gradually be lost and ultimately they will become dependent on machines, the output of which they will not be able to even corroborate. In this context, there is a need to redefine the job profiles, and we will have to give opportunity to health workers to develop new skill sets relevant to shifting economies and labour markets. Emerging market realities call for major changes to the medical college curriculum. The advent of AI threatens to alter not only how subjects are taught but also what is taught. A recent survey reveals that 60 per cent of medical students are already using AI. However, they need to appreciate that all information given by AI is not accurate; AI and GenAI also suffer from the GIGO rule (Garbage In Garbage Out). Doctors also need to be taught where and how they should use

AI and GenAI tools and apps. There is an urgent need to revamp the medical educational architecture of our country, integrating it with modern technologies and national priorities. Software like the one developed by AIIMS can become more potent if synced with the electronic repository of the National Health Programme for Diseases. Data portability is in line with the Digital Health Mission's objective of facilitating seamless interaction between medical experts.

A second caveat: Given the asymmetrical vice providers, the system should be insulated against data confidentiality breaches. Data is crucial for AI to evolve. Machine learning is the field that trains computers through analysis of large quantities of data. There is plenty of data available in our country. This data is being acquired by seducing the public to part with it voluntarily, people are tantalised with online carrots and free to use apps and their responses are monitored, tracked and recorded. Most people happily and voluntarily give up their private data, often without realising The digital capitalists use several pretexts and constantreassure the public that data collection is for their good. For instance, in the name of developing custom diets, lots of personal medical information is being captured. Genetic data from a country's immense biodiversity is being collected as part of studies and medical collaborations with foreign organisations.

MONIKA S

Another interesting development, COVID-9 forced physicians and their patients to use telemedicine, and the response has been universally appreciated. It might trigger your thoughts when I say that telemedicine can cap ture new kinds of patient data such as facial demic also accelerated the commercial availability of health and fitness wearables which facilitated doctors—supervised health monitoring, remote diagnostics, and even certain treatments. With these new kinds of devices, there will be new kinds of data captured as well. A word of caution here-we need a techno-legal approach to unlocking data. We need to work out modalities of Confidential Data Clean Room-Sangam of data and model where secrecy is maintained. The cause of concern is that in this game one player is largely ignorant. The suppliers of digital services understand the game and play it skillfully, while most doctors are not even aware that the interests of patient may be at odds with those of the digital and pharma companies. AI has entered the medical field so rapidly and unknowingly that it seems that doctors have accepted interactions with it without due diligence or in depth consideration. They are giving away their knowledge, research and data to AI apps voluntarily. AI may be capable of outstanding performance in terms of speed and accuracy, but all of its operations are built on data, ie, knowledge derived from experts in the field ie the doctors. We should realise that while AI is essential for meaningful progress in diagnosis and understanding of disease mechanisms, keeping AI within boundaries is essential for the

Starliner Mission redefines space exploration

¬he recent record-breaking mission by NASA astronauts Butch Wilmore and Sunita Williams has captured global attention, not only for its remarkable duration but also for its implications on the future of space exploration. The mission of NASA astronauts Butch Wilmore and Sunita Williams aboard Boeing's Starliner spacecraft in July 2023 was intended to be an eight-day demonstration flight. Rather, their duration aboard the International Space Station (ISS) was extended by an extraordinary 286 days due to technical malfunctions. Even though this unanticipated mission demonstrates human resilience, it also emphasises the precarious equilibrium between ambition and preparedness in the field of space

The Starliner's propulsion system failures, including helium leaks and thruster malfunctions, exposed the dangers of deploying inadequately tested technology in the harsh space environment. While challenges are inherent in space exploration, this incident highlights a troubling trend: the rush to privatise and commercialise space travel may prioritise speed over reliability. Boeing's struggles with Starliner reflect broader concerns within the industry, where cutting corners to meet deadlines can jeopardise astronaut rigorous redundancy systems and fail-safes to ensure that no single malfunction can endanger lives millions of miles from Earth.

NASA has accumulated decades of data on long-duration missions, however, risks are exacerbated by unanticipated extensions. Over time, muscle atrophy, bone density loss, and radiation exposure accumulate, while mental health strains-such as isolation, confinement, and the stress of uncertainty-are exacerbated. Solving these issues at a large scale is necessary for the colonisation of Mars or the establishment of lunar bases. Is it possible to create artificial gravity? Protecting oneself from cosmic radiation? Psychological support systems that are reliable? The astronauts' ordeal is a living experiment, but it is one that we cannot afford to replicate indiscriminately.

The extended stay of Wilmore and Sunitha Williams has yielded valuable insights into the long-term physical and psychological consequences of space travel. Although previous expeditions, such as Scott Kelly's year-long ISS stay, have provided critical data, this extended mission has significantly enhanced our comprehension. The effects of microgravity on muscles, bones, and cardiovascular systems, as well as the strains of protracted isolation, emphasise the necessity for improved medical protocols, exercise regimens, and mental health support systems for future astronauts. Colonising Mars or establishing lunar bases will require safety. Future space colonisation efforts demand innovative solutions-from developing artificial gravity systems to improved radiation shielding. The current ordeal has created an opportunity to refine these strategies, ensuring astronauts are better prepared for extended deep-space missions. The ISS served as a critical lifeline during the astronauts' extended mission, reinforcing the importance of private collaboration.

SpaceX's partnership with NASA has been pivotal in advancing spacecraft reliability. The Crew Dragon spacecraft's advanced life-support systems and automation capabilities played a key role in sustaining the crew. This highlights how public-private partnerships are essential for building resilient space infrastructure. As we expand our cosmic ambitions, maintaining cooperation in space exploration will be vital. Future colonies on Mars or the Moon will require shared resources, international rescue protocols, and diversified expertise. Yet rising geopolitical tensions threaten this cooperative spirit. For sustainable colonisation, global collaboration must become the foundation of our extraterrestrial endeavours. The prolonged mission of Wilmore and Sunitha Williams exemplifies human creativity, adaptation, and perseverance. Their experience provides essential insights into spaceship design, astronaut welfare, and mission strategising. As mankind approaches interplanetary flight, these insights will ensure that future explorers are prepared to confront the challenges that await.

Saliva ban lifted, spinners get a boost

Madam-Apropos to "BCCI lifts saliva ban in IPL" published on March 21, here is my response. The saliva ban was enforced during Covid pandemic because of obvious reasons and it has been five years since this ban has been in existence in international cricket.

Board of Control for Cricket in India's (BCCI) latest decision to lift the saliva ban ahead of IPL 2025 is a welcome move because it will aid fast bowlers in reverse swinging And it will also bring some sort of equality into the con-

Hope it will also trigger discussion at ICC level to bring this change in international cricket as well. BCCI has also made another change of introducing two balls in second innings in night matches which is also praise-text which is otherwise heavily tilted towards the batsman.

As the dew sets in it becomes really difficult for spinners to turn the ball as seams gets wet and becomes a bit grassy hence comes nicely on the bat so this change in the rule will help spinners make better grip over the ball.

worthy because it will counter dew.

BAL GOVIND | NOIDA

Both these measures will significantly help bowlers and it is good for the game of cricket to bring some balance and hopefully fans will get to see some evenly contested matches in this IPL.

Respect, care for parents now legal necessity

Madam—A historic decision by the Tamil Nadu High Court has empowered the dignity and rights of the elderly. The court has made it clear that if children or heirs fail to properly care for and serve their elderly parents, the elderly have the full legal right to reclaim the property they had gifted. This decision gives a new direction to the sense of duty and sensitivity towards the elderly in society.

This case involved an elderly woman who, out of love and trust for her son, transferred her property to him through a gift deed. However, after her son's death, her daughter-in-law began mistreating her and showed a neglectful attitude. Unable to bear the situation, the elderly woman approached the court. The court ruled in her favour, stating that if the children or heirs fail to fulfil their duties, the elderly have the legal right to reclaim the gifted property

This verdict has not only provided legal protection to the elderly but also sent a strong message to society that serving and respecting parents is not only a moral obligation but also a legal duty. If love and care from children are lacking, the existence of the gift deed can be nullified. This decision will serve as a milestone in protecting the dignity and self-respect of the elderly. It reminds every individual in society that respecting and caring for parents is not just a duty but a fundamental value of life.

Devotees' trust at stake

Madam—Telangana Chief Minister Revanth Reddy's recent allegations against the Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams (TTD) are purely politically motivated. These accusations, based on false information, seem to be a deliberate attempt to mislead devotees and tarnish Hindu sentiments. The comments were made with the intention of disregarding the services provided by TTD and spreading misinfor-

TTD has always been committed to serving devotees without any regional discrimination. The institution ensures that devotees from all states receive equal treatment, and there is no scope for favoritism.

The ₹300 special entry darshan and VIP darshan tickets are made available transparently through an online booking vstem. ensuring that devotee gets a fair opportunity to have darshan of Lord Venkateswara. Every day, thousands of devotees from Telangana successfully book their tickets online and visit the temple without any hindrance.

Recommendation letters from public representatives are considered only for the VIP break darshan.

However, due to limited slots, not all recommendations can be approved. The claim that TTD has rejected Telangana leaders' recommendation letters is entirely false.

ECONOMIC GROWTH ALONE IS NOT A GUARANTEE OF HAPPINESS

he 'World Happiness Report 2025' has shown a slight improvement in India's ranking, yet it remains unsatisfactory. India stands at 118th position among 147 countries, while Pakistan, despite its economic instability, is ranked 109th. Finland has secured the top spot for the eighth consecutive year, followed by Denmark, Iceland, Sweden, and the Netherlands. This report highlights that economic prosperity alone does not ensure national happiness, rather, a combination of social, cultural, administrative, and psychological factors shapes a truly content society.

India is one of the fastest-growing economies, but the extent to which this growth benefits its citizens remains debatable. The wealth gap continues to widen, leading to dissatisfaction and despair. In contrast, smaller European nations with limited resources offer better social security and fair economic distribution, ensuring greater happiness. India must focus on redistributing its economic resources to make prosperity accessible to all. Social cohesion and community support play a vital role in happiness. While India has traditionally had strong family and social ties, modernisation and digitalisation have weakened these bonds, increasing isolation, stress, and depression.

Western countries emphasise mental health services, providing free counselling, community interactions, and a supportive environment. India must prioritise mental well-being through robust policies that encourage social cooperation and emotional resilience.

Healthcare accessibility and life expectancy are also crucial determinants of happiness. Despite improvements, India's healthcare system remains inaccessible to the general public. Government hospitals require urgent reform, while private healthcare remains unaffordable.

Humanism and the world

The human race stands at a critical juncture, where its unchecked expansion and relentless exploitation of the natural world threaten its own survival. The pressing need to amend Protagoras' aphorism "Man is the measure of all things" has never been more urgent

s humanism as a philosophy leading to human extinction? The search for an answer must begin with the Greek sophist Protagoras' frequently-qouted aphorism, "Man is the measure of all things." It is generally considered to be the best encapsulation of the central message of humanism which asserts the centrality of humankind's place in the cosmic order of things, including both the quotidian and historic flows of time. The value of everything, according to the Humanist weltanschauung has to be judged by its impact on the well-being of humans. It, however, does not refer to half of humankind-women. This was obviously because gender had not become an issue in public discourse in Protagoras' time. He lived from 490 to 420 BCE. As things have changed vastly since then and the first amendment to his aphorism should make it read as. "Humankind is the measure of all things.' The need for the second amendment arises from the nature of humankind's relationship with other living beings-animals, birds, fish and plants-the essence of which is relentless exploitation of these by people, which is driving them to extinction. Significantly, the theme of Earth Day, 2019, observed, as in every year, on April 22, was "Protect our Species." Elizabeth Kolbert writes in The Sixth Extinction: An Unnatural History (first published in 2014), "Very, very occasionally in the distant past, the planet has undergone change so wrenching that the diversity of life has plummet-

ed. Five of these ancient events were catastrophic enough that they're put in their own category: the so-called Big Five. In what seems like a fantastic coincidence, but is probably no coincidence at all, the history of these events is recovered just as people come to realise that they are causing another one."

It has become increasingly clear since the book first came out in 2014 that the sixth extinction is around the corner. The causes are well-known. Seabed mining is destroying unique ecosystems besides taking pollution to the deep sea. Rivers bring toxic industrial waste from hinterlands and, as in the case of stretches of Yamuna close to Delhi, make it impossible for fish to survive in their waters. Oil spills pollute hundreds of square miles. Increasing carbon emission is making sea water acidic and hence inhospitable to marine life. The consumption of plastic bags, hunting, poaching, the arrival of invasive species, have disastrous effects.

Container ships are killing a growing number of whales through accidents. Japan's murderous whaling expeditions are killing hundreds of whales. Global warming has worsened matters. All this is the result of human activity, which has increased sharply as a result of grow ing human population, which, currently around 8.2 Billion, is, pace UN projections, set to peak at 10.3 Billion by the mid-1980s. According to another estimate, it is expected to exceed 10 Billion by 2060. It is not just their sustenance demands that are increasing with their numbers. Market capitalism, with advertising as its cutting edge, is manufacturing demands for ever new consumer goods and leisure activity.

The result is pressure on nature, resources and space. Animal habitats HIRANMAY KARLEKAR and forests, for example, are destroyed to make room for townships, factories and roads, and rail lines linking them. Trees are cut en masse to provide for lumber for construction, firewood and the furniture industry.

Not surprisingly, Ian Johnston's report in The Independent of the United Kingdom of 31 May, 2017, cited scientists writing in a special edition of the magazine, Nature, that humans were causing the sixth mass extinction of life on earth. Chris Jasurek's piece in The Epoch Times of October 31, 2018, cites a World Wildlife Fund report as stating that humans have killed about

THE RESULT IS PRESSURE ON NATURE, RESOURCES AND SPACE. ANIMAL HABITATS AND FORESTS, FOR EXAMPLE, ARE DESTROYED TO MAKE ROOM FOR TOWNSHIPS, FACTORIES AND ROADS, AND RAIL LINES LINKING THEM. TREES ARE CUT EN MASSE TO PROVIDE FOR LUMBER FOR CONSTRUCTION. FIREWOOD AND THE FURNITURE INDUSTRY

60 per cent of animals on the planet since 1970. The future of humans themselves is at stake.

Population increase is an important cause of accelerating human activity. Referring to the soaring increase in global population under way, Desmond Morris predicts in The Naked Ape: A Zoologist's Study of the Human Animal, that time will come when "the densities we are now experiencing in our major cities would exist in every corner of the globe. The consequences of all this for all forms of wild animals is obvious. The effect it would have on our own species is equally depressing."

Morris adds shortly thereafter, "Long before our populations reach the levels envisaged above we shall have broken so many of the rules that govern our biological nature, that we shall have collapsed as a dominant species. Many exciting species have become extinct in the past and we are no exception." Those dismissing Morris' prediction as alarmist can argue that the human mind, which accounts not only for the survival of the species but its dominance over nature through technology, will find a way of preventing this. Nothing of the sort. Technology would remain a formulation on paper if the environment in which it has to be applied disappears.

More important, the devising and application of technologies would require continued and serious application of the mind. Paul Shepard writes in Thinking Animals: Animals and the Development of Human Intelligence, "the mind and its organ, the brain, are in reality that part of us most dependent on the survival of animals. We are connected to animals by sinews that link speech to rationality, insight, intuition, and consciousness." He states that people everywhere had "a profound, inescapable need for animals" which "are used in the growth and development of the human person, in those most priceless qualities which we lump together as 'mind.' Animal images and forms play a critical role in the shaping of personality, identity, and social consciousness. Animals are among the first inhabitants of the mind's eye. They are "basic to the development of speech and thought."

The progressive extinction of species will have devastating effect on the human mind, and a progressive decline of the mind will have its own disastrous consequences. The mind is the home of reason and consciousness. As the basis of analytical thought, reason is the cutting edge of the mind.

Its possession has enabled humankind to create a civilisation tailored to cater to its needs, fancies and craving for luxuries, and based on the exploitation of all other species, who are considered inferior as they do not have the ability to reason. The argument will, of course, be that reason would enable people to recognise the deadly consequence of their way of life and retreat from the brink of the precipice.

Such optimism is unwarranted. Reason is an instrument, and not humankind's defining attribute, and is often overpowered by passion and the urge for self-indulgence. The consequences of global warming and what is to be done to combat it are well known. Yet people are unable to overcome the growing desire for creature comforts, which is so overwhelming that they are incapable of jettisoning it. Many now join the Taliban or other groups whose obscurantist doctrines do not stand rational interrogation—as many in Nazi Germany joined the Sturm Abteilung (SA) and the Schultz Staffein (SS) steeped in Hitler's racist doctrine. If the first instance reflects the failure of rationality, the second indicates the triumph of hatred over reason, Not many today realise that their human supremacist worldview and ruthless exploitation of non-human living beings is facilitating their own extinction. Instead of killing, they need to nurture and cherish all animals, birds, fish and plants. The second amendment to Protagoras' aphorism should transform it to read, "Humankind is the preserver and protector of all beings."

Himachal factors in growth aspirations amid fiscal challenges

machal Pradesh Chief Minister Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu, who also oversees the finance portfolio, recently presented the 2025-26 state budget, aiming to balance fiscal prudence with developmental aspirations. The budget emphasises tourism expansion, green energy, and rural upliftment as key growth drivers. However, persistent financial challenges-including declining central grants, rising debt, and increasing revenue expenditure-continue to pose significant hurdles to fiscal management.

Plummeting central grants

Himachal Pradesh's fiscal distress stems from policy shifts and structural financial limitations. A major setback has been the sharp reduction in central grants, particularly the Revenue Deficit Grant (RDG), which dropped from ₹10,949 Crore in 2021-22 to ₹3,257 Crore in 2025-26. Additionally, the withdrawal of GST compensation has led to a cumulative revenue shortfall of ₹9,478 Crore, further exacerbating the fiscal deficit.

The state's debt burden has surged to ₹1,04,729 Crore, including ₹29,046 Crore in liabilities inherited from the previous BIP-led administration. Capital expenditure has also taken a significant hit, declining by 46.58 per cent from ₹8,485.83 Crore in 2024-25 to ₹3,941.85 Crore in 2025-26. This substantial reduction restricts long-term infrastructure investments, raising concerns about future economic expansion.

The revenue deficit stands at ₹361 Crore (0.83 per cent of GSDP), while the overall fiscal deficit remains high at ₹10,338 Crore (4.04 per cent of GSDP), reflecting ongoing financial strain despite expenditure control efforts. The slight reduction in the overall revenue deficit-from ₹6,486 Crore to ₹6,390 Crore-offers little relief, as fiscal imbalances continue to hinder development prospects.

In contrast, the Union Budget 2025-26 has allocated ₹11.21 Lakh Crore for capital expenditure, constituting 3.1 per cent of the national GDP, a 10.1 per cent increase over the previous year's revised estimate. This disparity in resource allocation leaves states like Himachal Pradesh struggling to secure adequate fiscal support.

Pathways to financial stability

Himachal Pradesh's fiscal crisis calls for a multipronged approach to revenue generation, ensuring financial stability while maintaining developmental momentum. Given the state's heavy reliance on central grants and borrowings, the government must diversify its revenue streams through effective taxation policies, asset monetisation, tourism expansion, and private sector participation. Below are key areas requiring focused action:

Enhancing tax compliance

Improving tax compliance and minimising revenue leakages are crucial for fiscal recovery. The state must focus on:

Expanding the tax base: Increasing the number of taxpayers through effective registration drives and stricter enforcement of tax laws.

Digital tax governance: Implementing advanced digital tracking systems to monitor tax collections, curb evasion, and streamline compliance.

Rationalising tax incentives: Reviewing and eliminating unnecessary tax exemptions that lead to revenue losses.

Strengthening enforcement: Enhancing audit mechanisms to detect tax evasion while promoting voluntary compliance

Rationalising subsidies

Himachal Pradesh bears a high subsidy burden, which, while essential for social welfare, often leads to fiscal strain when not managed effectively. A targeted subsidy framework is necessary to balance welfare with financial sustainability. Key measures include: Identifying non-essential subsidies: Phasing out benefits that primarily aid economically well-off sections while protecting critical subsidies for healthcare, education, and agriculture. 1. Direct Benefit Transfers (DBT): Ensuring subsidies reach intended beneficiaries directly, reducing middlemen and leakages.

2. Performance-based subsidies: Linking benefits to efficiency and sustainability, particularly in the power sector, where leakages are common.

3. Encouraging alternative funding models: Exploring Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) partnerships to support social welfare initiatives.

By curbing wasteful subsidies, the government can reallocate resources to productive investments, fostering long-term economic stability.

Monetising state assets

Himachal Pradesh possesses vast underutilised assets in land, tourism, hydroelectricity, and public infrastructure. Monetising these resources can enerate substantial revenue.

a) Land monetisation: Leasing state-owned land for commercial and industrial use while ensuring sustainable development.

b) Maximising hydroelectric revenue: Enhancing revenue-sharing agreements with power producers and improving efficiency in the hydropower

c) Revamping state properties: Converting unused government buildings into revenue-gener ating assets like hotels, business centers, or

d) Auctioning mineral resources: Regulating and monetising mineral deposits through transparent and competitive bidding processes.

Effectively utilising state assets can reduce fiscal dependence on external sources and create sustainable revenue streams.

Seeking ecological compensation

As a major ecological contributor, Himachal Pradesh provides critical environmental services, including carbon sequestration and water conservation. However, these contributions often go uncompensated in national financial allocations. The state must aggressively advocate for ecological compensation, estimated at ₹90,000 Crore annually, through:

Financial incentives for forest conservation: Seeking compensatory grants from the central government.

i) Monetising carbon credits: Participating in national and international carbon trading markets.

ii) Eco-taxation: Imposing green taxes on businesses impacting the environment, with revenues directed toward conservation efforts.

iii) Securing environmental compensation will provide much-needed fiscal support while reinforcing Himachal's commitment to sustainability.

Boosting tourism revenue

Tourism is a cornerstone of Himachal Pradesh's economy, yet its revenue potential remains underutilised. The government must focus on:

i) Eco-tourism and adventure tourism: Developing sustainable resorts, trekking trails, and adventure sports facilities.

ii) Religious tourism infrastructure: Enhancing connectivity amenities pilgrimage sites.

iii) Cultural and heritage tourism: Restoring historical sites and promoting Himachal's unique culture and handicrafts.

iv) Better taxation and regulation: Ensuring proper taxation of tourism-related businesses to minimise revenue leakages.

v) With strategic investments and promotional efforts, tourism-driven revenue can significantly reduce dependence on external grants. vi) Himachal Pradesh stands at a critical economic juncture where strategic action is essential to overcome fiscal distress. By diversifying revenue streams, strengthening tax governance, optimising state resources, and fostering private sector collaboration, the state can navigate financial challenges while sustaining economic growth.

A well-implemented, multi-sectoral strategy will not only bridge fiscal deficits but also position Himachal Pradesh as a model of financial resilience.

Phishing scams: Protect yourself from cyber threats!

magine waking up to an urgent email with the subject line "immediate action required: your .bank account has been suspended!" or "your streaming subscription has been terminated update your payment details now!" The message no doubt looks official, with the bank's or the streaming service's logo and a professional tone, warning that your account has been compromised or your payment details need to be updated immediately.

Panic sets in. You don't want to lose access to your hard-earned money or favourite shows. Without thinking twice, you click the link in the email, which takes you to what appears to be the official website. It prompts you to enter your login credentials, bank details, or social security number. The urgency of the message makes you act fast until you realise, too late, that you have just handed over your sensitive information to cybercriminals.

This is a classic phishing scam, a deceptive tactic that is used by hackers to trick people into revealing personal and financial information by pretending to be a trusted entity. With a single click, all your accounts, confidentiality and finances could be at risk. Phishing is a cyber-attack technique where malicious actors or hackers attempt to trick people into sharing sensitive information, such as usernames, passwords, and financial details by using fake websites, emails, or messages to steal data such as credit or debit card details and login credentials. This form of social engineering exploits human psychology rather than technical vulnerabilities, making it a persistent and evolving threat in the digital age. There are numerous types of Phishing

1. Whaling: A specialised type of spear phishing aimed at high-profile individuals like CEOs or government officials, often involving sophisticated social engineering tactics. 2. E-mail phishing: The most common form, where attackers send fraudulent emails pretending to be reputable entities, such as banks or online services, urging recipients to click on malicious links or download harmful attachments. 3. Spear phishing: A targeted attack where hackers gather personal information about their victims to create personalised, convincing messages that appear legitimate.

4. Smishing and vishing: Smishing (SMS phishing) uses fraudulent text messages to lure victims, while vishing (voice phishing) involves phone calls from attackers impersonating trustworthy organisations. 5. Clone Phishing: Attackers replicate legitimate emails, replacing attachments or links with malicious versions to deceive recipients. 6. Website Spoofing: Fraudsters create fake websites that closely resemble legitimate ones to trick users into entering sensitive credentials.

The first and foremost way to prevent yourself from being a victim is to enable multi-factor authentication (MFA), even if credentials are compromised for it adds an extra layer of security. Organisations should conduct regular cybersecurity training to raise awareness about phishing tactics for their employees. Even, the Indian government has taken several initiatives such as the Cyber Surakshit Bharat Initiative, Digital India Campaign and many more to raise awareness about phishing and enhance cybersecurity among citizens, businesses and government institutions. The Indian Government regularly posts cybersecurity tips and scam alerts through platforms like Twitter (@Cyberdost) and Facebook and the Cyber Crime Helpline 1930 allows victims to report phishing attacks quickly are a few initiatives that aim to guide > how to detect and avoid phishing attacks and educates users about common phishing tactics used especially in digital payments, banking frauds and fake emails. As a safety concern, it would be beneficial to install and update antivirus and anti-phishing tools to detect malicious content. Before entering any personal information, one must ensure the website's URL begins with "https://" and is authentic, as attackers often use slight variations of legitimate domains. It is crucial to look for red flags such as poor grammar, urgent requests and generic greetings that indicate phishing attempts.

If you fall victim to a phishing scam, act quickly to minimise damage and protect your personal and financial information. You may:

i) Immediately turn off your Wi-Fi or unplug your internet connection to prevent malware from spreading or further data theft. Report the attack to the relevant authorities or IT departments.

ii) If you entered your login credentials on a phishing site, then change the password of the compromised account immediately, followed by updatng other accounts that use the same or similar iii) If you entered banking details or made a payment, then call your bank or credit card provider immediately explain the situation, and Request to block or freeze your account if necessary. There is no denying that phishing remains a prevalent cybersecurity threat, but with vigilance and proactive measures, individuals and organisations can mitigate risks. As cybercriminals refine their techniques, staying informed and implementing robust security practices is essential to safeguard personal and professional data from phishing attacks. Taking the mentioned steps immediately after falling victim to a phishing scam can help minimise financial and data loss while preventing further damage.

Judge blocks deportation of Indian student at Georgetown University

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New York

US federal judge has blocked the deportation of an Indian student at A Georgetown University who was arrested after federal authorities accused him of "actively spreading Hamas propaganda".

Badar Khan Suri is a postdoctoral fellow at the Alwaleed Bin Talal Center for Muslim-Christian Understanding at the Edmund A Walsh School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University, Washington DC.

In a court order dated March 20, United States District Judge Patricia Tolliver Giles said, "It is ordered that petitioner shall not be removed from the United States unless and until the court issues a contrary order."

A senior Department of Homeland Security spokesperson earlier said in a statement to PTI that "Suri was a foreign exchange student at Georgetown University actively spreading Hamas propaganda and promoting antisemitism on social media. Suri has close connections to a known or suspected terrorist, who is a senior advisor to Hamas.

"The Secretary of State issued a determination on March 15, 2025 that Suri's activities and presence in the United States rendered him deportable.

Suri's lawyer Hassan Ahmad had filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus on March 18. According to the petition, the Department of Homeland Security had arrested and charged Suri with "removability" on March 17.

At the time of filing, Suri alleged he was being detained at the Farmville Detention Center in Farmville, Virginia, Giles' order had noted. Suri's lawyer said he and his team are working "diligently" to secure his client's removal from the detention facility. "We welcome Judge Giles' ruling," Ahmad said in a statement to CNN. "It is the first due process Dr Suri has received since he was snatched away from his family on Monday night."

A report in Politico had said that Suri, who was studying and teaching on a student visa, was "detained by federal immigration authorities amid the Trump administration's crackdown on student activists whom the government accuses of opposing American foreign policy." The report said that "masked agents" arrested Suri from outside his home in Virginia

Suri's lawyer said in the petition that he is being punished "because of the Palestinian heritage of his wife — who is a US citizen — and because the government suspects that he and his wife oppose US foreign policy toward

The petition says the couple has "long been doxxed and smeared" on anonymously run, farright websites due to their support for Palestinian rights. The petition adds that Suri's wife Mapheze Saleh has been alleged to have "ties with Hamas" and once worked for Al Jazeera. The Politico report cited a 2018 Indian newspaper article that had said that Saleh's father, Ahamed Yousef, was a former deputy foreign minister in the Hamas govern-

In the newspaper article, Suri is quoted as saying that "My father-in-law left the Hamas government after its five-year term ended and here were no fresh elections.

Suri's father-in-law told The New York Times that his son-in-law was not involved in any "political activism," including on behalf of Hamas. The Politico report said that Suri's lawyer has filed a lawsuit for his immediate

"The agents identified themselves as being with the Department of Homeland Security and told him the government had revoked his visa," the lawsuit says, according to the Politico

The report added that according to Suri's petition, he was put in "deportation proceedings under the same rarely used provision of immigration law" that the government has invoked to try to deport Mahmoud Khalil, the Columbia University graduate and legal permanent resident arrested for his role in leading campus protests at Columbia against

The petition further notes that Suri has no criminal record and has not been charged with a crime. According to his profile on the website of Georgetown University, Suri completed his PhD in Peace & Conflict Studies from Nelson Mandela Center for Peace and Conflict Resolution, Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi in 2020. He wrote his thesis on "Transitional Democracy, Divided Societies and Prospects for Peace: A Study of State Building in Afghanistan and Iraq" in which he underlined the complexities involved in introducing democracy in ethnically diverse societies; as well as challenges to project state building.

He has travelled extensively in the conflict zones of India, Pakistan, Balochistan in Iran, Iran, Turkey, Kurdish Areas in Turkey, Syria, Lebanon and its southern region, Egypt and Palestine. The Politico report quoted a statement from a Georgetown spokesperson as saying that Suri is an "Indian national who was duly granted a visa to enter the United States to continue his doctoral research on peacebuilding in Iraq and Afghanistan."

Israeli hostage freed after 491 days questions UN, Red Cross

reed Israeli hostage Eli Sharabi, who was beaten, chained and starved while held for 491 days by Hamas, expressed his anger during an appearance at the UN Security Council on Thursday for having to suffer for so long and worry every day about being killed.

Where was the United Nations? Where was the Red Cross? Where was the world?" Sharabi asked. He challenged the UN's most powerful body: "If you stand for humanity prove it" by bringing home the 59 hostages still in Gaza, many of whom are believed to be dead.

The fate of the remaining hostages became more uncertain after Israel on Tuesday ended a six-week break in the fighting that had allowed for the return of some hostages in exchange for Palestinian prisoners. Sharabi said the council talked about the need to get humanitarian aid to Palestinians in Gaza, but he saw Hamas militants eating stolen food from dozens of boxes marked with UN emblems while the hostages starved. They were given maybe a piece of pita and a sip of tea a day, and an occasional dry

When he was released on Feb 8, Sharabi said he weighed 44 kilos (about 97 pounds) — less than the weight of his youngest daughter, who was killed along with his wife and older daughter in Hamas' surprise attack in southern Israel on Oct 7, 2023, along with about 1,200 others. He was among 251 people taken hostage. The United States in November vetoed a UN Security Council resolution demanding an immediate cease-fire in Gaza because it was not linked to an immediate release of the hostages.

The Palestinians and their supporters then went to the 193-member General Assembly, which adopted a resolution in December demanding a ceasefire and reiterating its Council resolutions, though, those passed by the General Assembly are nonbinding.

The ceasefire that went into effect in January was shattered on Tuesday with surprise airstrikes on Gaza that killed more than 400 Palestinians, one of the highest death tolls in the nearly 18-month war. Gaza's Health Ministry said most victims were women and children.

Sharabi's appearance before the council, the second by a freed hostage, followed an Israeli request last week for a meeting on the plight of the hostages.

Britain's deputy ambassador James Kariuki called Sharabi's suffering "beyond the imagination" and said "Hamas must be held accountable for their despicable actions."

But Kariuki also said the UK condemns Israeli Defence

Minister Israel Katz's "warning of the total destruction of Gaza." Britain calls for the rapid resurgence of aid to Gaza, an investigation into allegations of sexual and gender-based violence against Palestinian detainees by Israeli forces, and an urgent return to the ceasefire deal, he said. France's new UN ambassador, Jérôme Bonnafont, expressed his country's deepest condolences to Sharabi but also condemned the resumption of Israel's bombing, saying it will not ensure the release of hostages, and demanded an end to Israel's humanitarian blockade of Gaza.

Russia's deputy UN ambassador Dmitry Polyansky told the council, "Our hearts were filled with sorrow as we listened to the tragic story of Mr Eli Sharabi," adding "such brutality can have no justification."

Polyansky criticized Israel's leaders for not moving to phase 2 of the ceasefire deal, which calls for the release of all hostages and a permanent end to the fighting. He said it's difficult to discuss the future when Israel's military and political leaders appear to have made the choice in favor of war.

White House rescinds executive order targeting prominent law firm

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Washington

resident Donald Trump has rescinded an executive order targeting a prominent international law firm after it pledged to review its hiring practices and to provide tens of millions of dollars in free legal services to support certain White House initiatives. The move follows a meeting between Trump and Brad Karp, the chairman of the law firm Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Garrison & Wharton, over the White House order issued last week.

The order, the latest in a series of similar actions targeting law firms whose lawyers have provided legal work that Trump disagrees with, threatened to suspend active security clearances of attorneys at Paul, Weiss and to terminate any federal contracts the firm has. It singled out the work of Mark Pomerantz, who previously worked at the firm and who oversaw an investigation by the Manhattan District Attorney's office into Trump's finances before Trump became president.

To avoid those consequences, the White House said Paul, Weiss had agreed to "take on a wide range of pro bono matters that represent the full spectrum of political viewpoints of our society," to disavow the use of diversity, equity and inclusion considerations in its hiring and promotion decisions and to dedicate the equivalent of USD 40 million in free legal services to support Trump administration policies on issues including assistance for veterans and coun-

In a statement issued by the White House, Karp said: "We are gratified that the President has agreed to withdraw the Executive Order concerning Paul, Weiss. We look forward to an engaged and constructive relationship with the President and his Administration." The firm becomes the latest corporate target to make concessions to the president to avoid his ire. Meta and ABC made settlement payments to Trump's future presidential library to end lawsuits filed by Trump. Other tech and financial firms have publicly rolled back DEI programs in line with Trump's policy interests.

Minister Sirsa meets CTI officials, discusses reforms

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■ New Delhi

elhi's Food and Supplies Minister Manjinder Singh Sirsa met officials from the Chamber of Trade and Industry (CTI) to discuss key reforms, including a new food policy, cloud kitchen regulations, and streamlining multiple food licences.

The meeting focused on implementing a single-window system to improve the Ease of Doing Business in the food sector.

During the discussion on Thursday, Sirsa highlighted the need for a dedicated cloud kitchen policy in Delhi and simplification of food licence procedures, as per a statement. He said these measures would not only create more jobs but also provide greater convenience to the public. Additionally, he proposed setting up food trucks at 20 public locations where food and water would be available 24/7.

According to the statement, CTI officials suggested organising food fairs similar to those held in other countries to boost the industry.

CTI Chairman Brijesh Goyal highlighted the urgent need for a revamped food policy and the promotion of nightlife in the capital. "Delhi operates 24 hours a day with travellers arriving by train, bus and flights, yet there is a lack of quality food options after midnight, as most hotels and restaurants close early," Goyal said. Traders raised concerns about the licensing process and said vendors selling sweets and snacks must obtain an FSSAI licence, yet a separate health licence from the Delhi Municipal Corporation is also mandatory, it stated. They argued that this duplication is unnecessary and fosters corruption, the statement added. "These outdated requirements should be abolished, as they only lead to 'harassment' by inspectors. Additionally, some dry fruit and mixtures items attract 12 per cent GST while others are taxed at 18 per cent, which needs to be rationalised," the traders stated. In response, Sirsa assured traders that he would take up their concerns with the GST department and the Chief Minister. He said the cloud kitchen policy would be properly implemented and promised that there would be no 'inspector raj' in Delhi, it stated.

The meeting was attended by Virendra Jain, President of the Federation of Sweets and Namkeen Manufacturers, along with traders, including 40 leading food industry brands, it added.

SEBI relaxes 'skin in game rule' for AMCs' employees

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■ New Delhi

ith an aim to address concerns about the "skin in the game" rule for designated employees of mutual funds, including CEO, CIO, and fund managers, markets regulator SEBI on Friday reduced the mandatory investment percentage, with the requirement now based on specific salary brackets.

Earlier, AMĈ-designated employees were required to invest 20 per cent of their annual salary and perks in the mutual funds they manage. This amount is locked in for three years. The new framework will come into effect from April 1, 2025, SEBI said in a circular.

Apart from easing regulatory framework pertaining to reduction of minimum investment amount, SEBI has reduced frequency of disclosure, lowered lock-in period for employees who have resigned, empowered Nomination and Remuneration Committee to verify compliances by designated employees and relaxed requirements for employees managing liquid funds.

On investment requirements of designated employees, SEBI said such employees are required to invest a per-above ₹25 Lakh, a minimum of 10 per cent of their salary (or 12.5 per cent if employees stock options or ESOPs are included) must be invested.

Further, employees with compensation between ₹50 Lakh and ₹1 Crore must invest at least 14 per cent of their salary (or 17.5 per cent with ESOPs), while those earning above ₹1 Crore are required to invest a minimum of 18 per cent (or 22.5 per cent with ESOPs).

For employees managing liquid funds, up to 75 per cent of their required investment can be in riskier schemes, while the rest must be in liquid funds, SEBI said. With regards to lock-in period for investments, SEBI said if an employee retires, they can redeem their mutual fund units after a lock-in period, except for close-ended schemes, which remain locked until the scheme's tenure ends. If an employee resigns or leaves before retirement, the lock-in period for their investment will be reduced to one year from their last employment date.

If a designated employee violates the code of conduct or engages in fraud or gross negligence, the AMC's Nomination and Remuneration Committee is required to investigate and recommend actions to SEBI. SEBI has asked AMCs to disclose the total compensation invested in mutual fund units by employees on the stock exchange website within 15 days after

The move is aimed at aligning the interests of AMC employees with those of the mutual fund unitholders.

Reclaiming India's agricultural, water sovereignty: A call to action

rothers and sisters, let us pause for B a moment and reflect-who truly controls the destiny of our farmers? Who decides how we grow our food, manage our water, and secure our future? While our ancestors tilled this sacred land for generations, a quiet but sinister force is at work, attempting to hijack our agricultural policies, control our resources, and turn our farmers into mere pawns in a global game played by corporate giants and foreign think tanks.

Today, as we mark World Water Day 2025, we must recognise that the theme-"Glacier Melting and the Emerging Threats to the Global South"-is not just an environmental issue, but a political one.

It is yet another attempt to manipulate climate change narratives to push policies that weaken our sovereignty. Make no mistake-this is a direct assault on Prime Minister Narendra Modi's vision of 'Viksit Bharat@2047

And at the heart of this attack lies the shadowy influence of global entities like George Soros' Open Society Foundations (OSF), which, under the guise of research and philanthropy, are working to disrupt India's cooperative model of agriculture and water management.

For years, Indian farmers have relied on the Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR) for guidance, innovation, and indigenous solutions. But today, underhanded funding mechanisms and collaborations with international institutions like the Consultative Group on International Agricultural Research (CGIAR) are being used to infiltrate our policies. OSF-backed research promotes genetically modified crops, patent-heavy seed regulations, and reliance on multinational agrochemical companies-effectively making our farmers dependent on foreign corporations. NGOs funded by Sorosbacked networks are positioning themselves as "experts" on water scarcity and climate change-slowly shifting control of water policy from local farmers to international bodies.

By undermining age-old farming techniques and forcing farmers into contractbased, corporate-dominated models, they are ensuring that control over India's food supply slips from our hands.

Our forefathers built civilisations on rivers like the Ganga, Yamuna, Brahmaputra, and Narmada. Today, our enemies are using fearmongering tactics around glacier melting and water scarcity to push policies that will privatise water management, take power away from local communities, and open the floodgates for Western corporations to take over our irrigation systems. This is a direct attack on Modi's Jal Shakti Abhiyan, Atal Bhujal Yojana, and the larger vision of Viksit Bharat@2047. By controlling access to water, these organisations hope to dictate what Indian farmers grow, how they grow it, and who they sell it to.

We do not need foreign-backed policies to solve our problems. India already has the solution-Cooperative Economic Frameworks! Local farmer-led organisations must have the power to govern their own water resources without interference from foreign-funded NGOs. Our traditional rainwater harvesting, community irrigation models, and organic farming methods must be protected and promoted

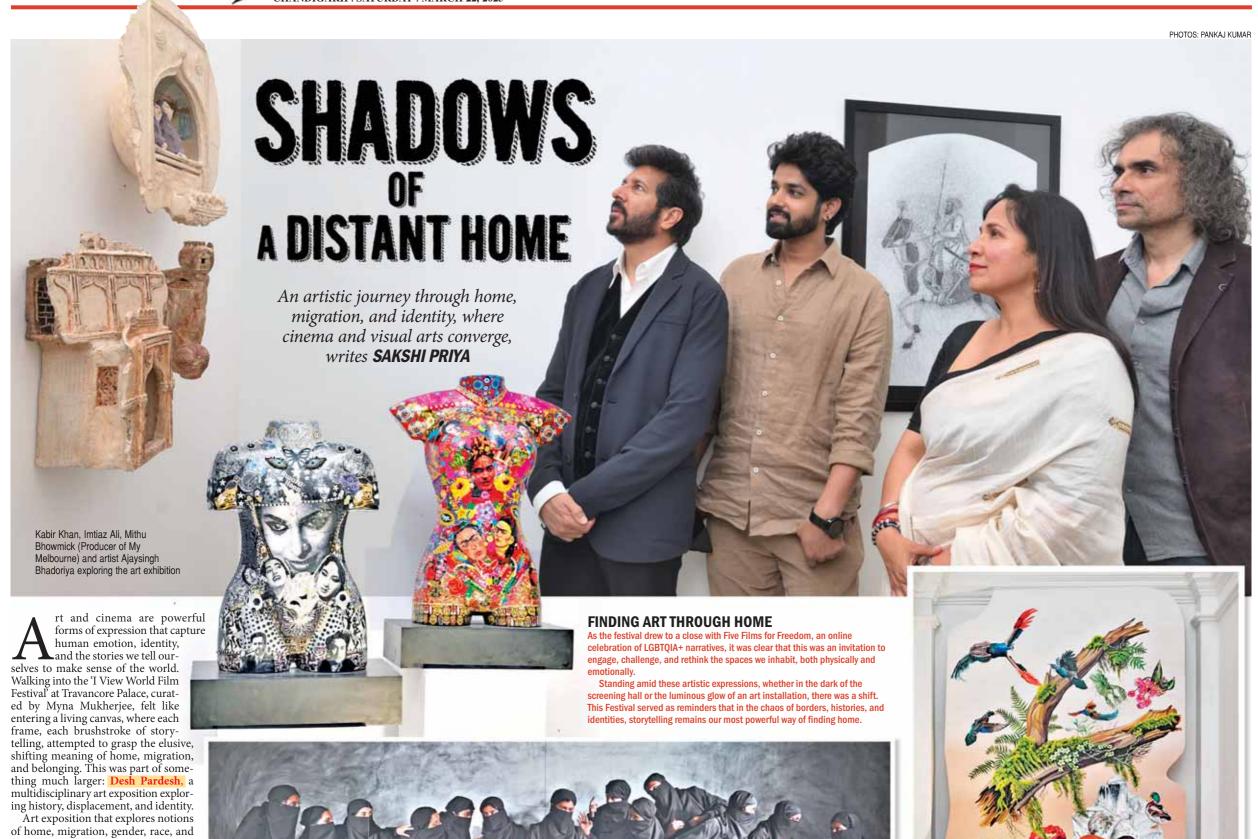

Farmer Producer Organisations (FPOs) must be empowered to control supply chains, dictate pricing, and ensure fair markets for Indian-grown produce. The government must legally restrict foreign influence in agricultural policymaking, ensuring that research remains independent and farmer-centric. India's fight for agricultural and water sovereignty is not just about food-it is about our freedom, our future, and the very soul of Bharat.

If we do not wake up now, tomorrow may be too late. We must reject the foreign-funded think tanks that claim to know what's best for our farmers. We must embrace cooperative-led development, indigenous agricultural wisdom, and local governance over our water and land. Our ancestors fought for India's independence from colonial rule. Today, the battle is different, but the stakes are just as high. Will we let foreign corporations dictate our future, or will we rise to defend Viksit Bharat @2047? The choice is ours.

AT HOME IN THE WORLD

The connection between cinema and art was undeniable. Take The Shameless, the festival's centrepiece, which unfolded like a haunting painting dark, visceral, and poetic. Anasuya Sengupta's award-winning performance pulled audiences into the story of Renuka, a woman navigating the vio-lence of survival and the longing for freedom. It was While the festival showcased cinematic brilliance, a moving portrait of resilience, much like the evocative works displayed at Desh Pardesh, where the idea of 'home' was not just a place, but an aching question. The city premiere of Puratwan - The Ancient added another layer to this exploration of time and memory. With the legendary Sharmila Tagore marking her return to Bengali cinema, the film became an introspective mirror, reflecting how history, family, and unspoken truths shape us.

Desh Pardesh extended beyond paintings and film. Dance and performance became another medium of storytelling, none more powerful than, performed by Nrityagram. The piece captured the feeling of Hiraeth, a Welsh word for a deep, unfulfilled longing for something lost. It was a wordless narrative, told through movement, of memories fading and reappearing like ghosts.

At Bikaner House and Stir Gallery, micro solos and queer art shows expanded this dialogue. The exhibition questioned not just where we belong, but how identity is constructed in an ever-changing world. Do we carry home with us, or does it remain a distant echo?

The visual arts segment featured over 55 artists bition showcased how contemporary artists engage with the evolving landscapes of home and identi from across the country, each responding to the themes of migration and belonging through diverse ty. The selection of artworks highlighted both personal narratives and broader socio-political conartistic mediums. From painting and sculpture to cerns, reflecting the fluidity and fragmentation of new media art and interactive installations, the exhicultural memory in a rapidly changing world.

Lost in Ragas, found in Ruhaniyan's Soul

evening and curated by Muzaffar Ali, has completed 25 years, yet it remains as timeless as the poetry it celthe way dance and music intertwined, each responding ebrates. The festival, brought together voices, rhythms, and poetry that felt like something ancient yet deeply relevant. On the opening evening, Naara-e-Mastana by Kanwar Grewal set the tone. His voice, raw and unfiltered, carried the weight of longing that defines Sufi music. There was no hurry, just a quiet surrender to the music. The second evening pelonged to the mesmerising Saiyaan Sajilay, Torey Naina to the other, neither overpowering nor retreating. Yaad-e-Kanhaiya by Malini Awasthi followed, her voice bringing a thumri-inspired touch to the intensity of the night. On the final day, Raqs-e-Junoon saw Shivani Varma's dance meet the melodies of Sina Fakhroddin and the Tehran-Delhi Music Ensemble. Their performance felt less like an act and more like a prayer. Later, Ruh, a poetry and storytelling session by Murad Ali, wove together words and whirling dervishes in a way that made time slow down, just for that moment. The night ended with a qawwali, voices rising, claps growing louder, the energy filling every corner of the venue. No one was in a hurry to leave. Music had done what it always does, brought people closer, made everything else fade away for a while.

"Ishq likhne baithe toh har lafz mehka mile..." "Jahan-e-Khusrau sirf mehfil nahi, ek manzar mile." The festival may have drawn to a close, but its presence remains, much like the verses of a Sufi poet, growing louder in memory, until they become a part of you.

New rules, saliva ban reversal as IPL kicks off

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Kolkata

ew rules and new captains will be in focus but the razzmatazz will be pretty much the same when the 18th Indian Premier League kicks off here on Saturday with defending champions Kolkata Knight Riders taking on perennial underachievers Royal Challengers Bengaluru amid a looming threat of rain.

There is plenty to look forward in the league. Among the most prominent rule changes is the lifting of saliva ban. For the first time since the COVID-19 pandemic, bowlers will be allowed to use it to shine the ball.

The BCCI lifted the ban after receiving a majority consensus from IPL captains in a landmark decision taken at the captains' meeting in Mumbai.

The International Cricket Council had made the saliva ban permanent in 2022, but the IPL operates under its own regulations and the latest move could set a precedent for the global game. The 18th season will also witness tactical innovations, including a major change to counter dew's impact.

The second innings of evening matches will see a fresh ball introduced from the 11th over, provided the on-field umpires deem the dew factor significant as the trend of high-scoring games is likely to continue.

However, this rule will not apply to afternoon games. Additionally, the Decision Review System has been expanded to include height wides and off-side wides, ensuring a fairer adjudication of deliveries. Despite debates about its influence on the game, the Impact Player rule remains in place.

Captain's corner

As many as seven teams will start IPL 2025 under new leadership, although some of them will be a stop-gap arrangement due to varied reasons.

The most surprising of them all is Rajat Patidar, who is yet to play a T20I for India, leading the RCB team that features mega-star Virat Kohli.

Axar Patel takes charge of Delhi Capitals to lead, among others, his Team India senior KL Rahul, who would be aiming to shake off the disappointment of a turbulent stint with Lucknow Shreyas Iyer, fresh off leading KKR to glory in 2024, will don the captain's armband for Punjab Kings with Ajinkya Rahane replacing him in the Kolkata team.

Rajasthan Royals will start the season with Riyan Parag as interim captain for the first three matches due to Sanju Samson's recovery from a finger injury taking longer than expected.

Mumbai Indians will be led by Suryakumar Yadav in their away opener against Chennai Super Kings on Sunday, as Hardik Pandya serves a suspension for an over-rate violation from last

Pant's redemption arc

Rishabh Pant is set to begin a crucial new chapter in his career after his resolute comeback from a life-threatening accident became part of cricketing lore.

The IPL's most expensive player in history — acquired by Lucknow Super Giants for a record INR 27 crore — will be eager to silence his critics.

Despite making the squads for the Champions Trophy and the T20I series against England, he was not given a single match. Now, he has a point to prove, particularly in the T20 format, where he has struggled to cement his place in the Indian team.

Pant's explosive batting style and leadership skills have long been debated, and this season presents an opportunity for him to not only justify his hefty price tag but also send a strong message to the selectors ahead of future international assignments.

There are changes in the support staff line-ups too. Ricky Ponting has moved from Delhi Capitals to Punjab Kings as head coach. Hemang Badani has replaced Ponting as Delhi Capitals' head coach. Kevin Pietersen has joined Delhi Capitals as mentor, while Rahul Dravid returns to Rajasthan Royals as head coach, his first IPL coaching stint after leading India to the T20 World Cup title last year.

CSK veteran Dwayne Bravo will be KKR mentor, replacing Gautam Gambhir, who is now India's head coach

Bumrah's fitness A major question mark hangs over Jasprit Bumrah's fitness.

The pacer, back at the National Cricket

Academy in Bengaluru, is undergoing assessments to determine his readiness for the IPL Mumbai Indians coach Mahela Jayawardene remains optimistic but cautious, given that Bumrah's availability crucial not only for MI but

The Dhoni question

As the IPL returns, so does the never-ending speculation: Is this Mahendra Singh Dhoni's last also for India's upcoming tour of England.

The 43-year-old, who retired from international cricket in 2020, remains an enigma, gracing the field only during the IPL.

While he may not be the consistent match-winner of old, his presence alone bolsters Chennai Super Kings. His sharp cricketing brain, field placements, and ability to finish games with quick cameos make him an invaluable asset.

Exactly 30 years his junior is Vaibhav Suryavanshi, a prodigal batting talent acquired by Rajasthan Royals but it remains to be seen how many games he manages to get.
