Xiu's discourses on mankind's shared future published

A book of discourses on mankind's shared future, which is a work for mankind by Xi Jinping, the general secretary of the Communist Party of China, has been published by Central China Press.

The book, which was created by the Office of the CPC, Central Committee, will be distributed across the country. Since the 18th CPC National Congress in 2012, Xi Jinping has published 85 discourses selected from documents including speeches and instructions issued at home and abroad. In 2015, when he chaired the 2015 Session of the Fourth Session of the 12th National People's Congress, and June 25, 2016, when he addressed the 10th China-Africa Business Forum on Work Relating to Foreign Affairs.

Through these discourses, the country's vision and values were set forth, and the new Chinese diplomacy proposed. As of this year, the vision and values have been promoted around the world. The book became a valuable literature to help people understand China's vision and values. It is the only translation of the book to be published.
